

The Supreme God

Chapter 111 Even Heroes Fall At The Hands Of A Beautiful Woman

After resting for a while, Austin started his journey again. He was more determined to cultivate and become stronger.

At noon of the following day, Austin found a dense sheltered forest.

He scanned it and suddenly sensed something dangerous.

He immediately hid on a hill outside the dense forest, gazing afar over the sky of the forest and looked very stern.

He saw huge black figures hovering over the sky of that dense forest. These figures were spiraling above him closely, roaring clamorously. At once, the entire dense forest was shrouded by something ruthless and fierce.

The huge figures were level-three blue-scaled eagles.

He hurriedly took the map out from his pocket. And as he thought, the forest was indeed the habitat of blue-scaled eagles. He accidentally came here because of his carelessness and negligence.

From what Austin knew, blue-scaled eagles were sturdy, strong, and powerful. They were covered with feathers which were as hard as steel that they used them for defense.

They attacked their opponents by using their sharp claws and feathers. They were even able to easily tear irons and rocks.

Some senior cultivators estimated that a blue-scaled eagle could attack and prey their quarries when it dived to their targets. With the aid of their sharp claws and wings, these blue-scaled eagles were dreadful like nightmares.

The blue-scaled eagles were ferocious social animals. They would usually swarm forward when they encountered their prey.

Even the senior cultivators at the Earth Realm of vital energy were reluctant to get close to a flock of over thirty blue-scaled eagles.

"Damn it! There are more than twenty blue-scaled eagles in the sky. If I go inside that forest, I will surely die instantly when they all approach me. For sure, I will be shredded into pieces!" Austin mumbled to himself.

Staring at the blue-scaled eagles flying over that dense forest, Austin got a little flurried and anxious.

While lost in his own thoughts, he suddenly heard a shrieking scream. A blue-scaled eagle was flying towards Austin's position.

With these in mind, Austin didn't want to get himself caught in the middle of this mess. As much as possible, he wanted to avoid unnecessary troubles for himself.

Suddenly, the woman in the group burst into laughter that sounded sweet and gentle.

"I have come here many times and it's a tranquil and hidden place that people rarely visit," said the woman in a coaxing voice. Her voice had an effect of numbing people.

In addition, her lovely smile and glittering eyes looked quite attractive! She was one of the most beautiful women Austin had seen.

After the woman spoke, a man suddenly laughed in a wretched manner. "Lois, I bet this place is special for you. Did you have sex with Scott here?"

Although this man had a deep voice, he appeared to be cunning and mean as he spoke obscenely.

His face was even filled with delight as he talked to the woman.

It seemed that for him, saying dirty words to a pretty girl was a great pleasure.

Without getting angry with his words at all, Lois replied frivolously and affectionately to that man, "Elton, I told you already. Scott and I already broke up. I hate him more than anyone. You have no reason to be jealous."

The woman chuckled.

At that moment, another man chided in, "Lois, why did you bring us here? Come on, just tell us and let's be done here."

The bright smile on the woman's face suddenly vanished. Her charming face immediately looked pitiful and miserable. At last, her eyes turned red and tears suddenly fell down her cheeks.

"Hey, Lois, what's wrong?" all the men in the group asked at the same time. Their voices sounded concerned. Their instinctive masculine desires for protecting weak women showed.

Austin, who was still hiding on the top of the tree, couldn't help smiling. This woman had tricked the three men with her acting skills. They were totally under her control.

It was funny that these three strong men could be easily tricked by the woman.

Anyway, only on-lookers could see the real score of the game. Even heroes fall at the hands of a beautiful woman.

The Supreme God

Chapter 112 An Eye For An Eye

Lois started to cry uncontrollably.

"I need your help! It's Scott. I thought he loved me, but he cheated on me!"

"That's bullshit! Did you really think he loved you?"

a man butted in.

"Lois, when he pursued you to be his woman, everyone knew that Scott only wanted one thing from you—the support of your brother, Gilbert."

He continued, "Gilbert is the core disciple of our Peripatetic Sect. His cultivation base has reached the advanced level of the Earth Realm. He is the number one among the young talents in Peripatetic Sect and perhaps in the whole Violet Orchid Empire. Everyone knows that you are the most important person in your brother's life!"

The Peripatetic Sect!

Austin was startled as the group turned out to be disciples from the Peripatetic Sect. No wonder they had such solid strength.

Within the Violet Orchid Empire, there were five major sects, namely: the Peripatetic Sect, the Flaming Sun Valley, the Joy Gang, the Bloody Hero Gang, and the Sun Sect.

Peripatetic Sect was the most powerful in terms of its strength. It was the only super sect in the Violet Orchid Empire. It ranked number one among the five sects.

The Flaming Sun Sect outranked another three sects and came second in the empire in terms of strength and power.

On the other hand, the Joy Gang, the Bloody Hero Gang, and the Sun Sect were equal in terms of strength and power. Each of these sects had the power to limit or check the other two and this created a balance between their individual powers.

At that moment, the man who stood under the tree continued, "That bastard Scott, after he got you, he received favors from Gilbert and gained a lot of benefits from it. Through the years, Gilbert has provided him with countless resources for practice."

"But when Gilbert died off an illness, things have changed. He left you and quickly moved on with that bitch Barbara. That is why he is the number one love rat in the world. Everyone in the Peripatetic Sect thinks he's a jerk. But we can't just tell you those things. This is your personal matter and we have no right to interfere."

Hiding at the tree, Austin raised his eyebrows when he heard this. 'Their relationship is surely complicated. Gaining money by cheating, climbing up the career by relying on other's power and influence. Interesting!' Austin thought.

Suddenly, Lois interrupted the man.

"And we have come to this stage that if I don't tell you the truth, then I'll be accountable for you."

"The truth is my brother didn't die of illness. Scott poisoned him!"

Lois gritted her teeth, her beautiful face twisted.

"What the hell? Scott poisoned Gilbert?"

The men were dumbfounded.

"Come to think of it. Gilbert is a medium stage Earth Realm cultivator and he couldn't possibly just fall ill and die. So, it turned out that Scott did murder Gilbert!"

"Hundreds of years ago, our great grandfather was a master of the Imperial Realm."

"Imperial Realm?"

All the men, including Austin, were shocked upon hearing it.

According to legends, the Imperial Realm was a supreme level which could enable the cultivator to control the forces of nature, and even to shake the heaven and earth.

Lois's great grandfather turned out to be a master of Imperial Realm. That was an amazing new discovery!

"I swear it's true! My family had been very prosperous. It just declined because of some misfortunes. And it was only my brother and me in the family now.

But there is a secret manual about the martial art that was handed down from our ancestors. It comes with a dozen of middle-grade spiritual weapons and a top-grade spiritual weapon. Although I have never studied the manual, the outline of the book says it is the seventh grade martial art."

A dozen of middle-grade spiritual weapons and a top-grade spiritual weapon, and a secret manual about the seventh grade martial art!

These were the things that they had only heard in legends. The three men were not able to say a word, but their eyes glimmered with greed.

"These things have always been kept by my brother. But the secret slipped out when I got drunk with Scott. I didn't expect that he would be so unscrupulous. He found a highly toxic poison and poisoned my brother and took the spiritual weapons and the secret manual."

The three men turned to one another with the same expression of dawning comprehension, and surprise after the whole story sank in.

"Besides, as a core disciple of the Peripatetic Sect, my brother has accumulated a fortune of more than one hundred thousand vital energy crystals over the years. But now, all the spiritual weapons, the secret manual, and the vital energy crystals were taken away by Scott."

The men's cheeks were aflame upon hearing Lois. Their breathing became faster and they exchanged glances. They each saw the endless greed in one another's eyes.

The Supreme God

Chapter 113 The Price You Pay For Eavesdropping

Being one of the key disciples of Peripatetic Sect, Gilbert had awe-inspiring strength. Over the years, he also accumulated a substantial fortune from his prestigious status.

He possessed a dozen of medium-grade spiritual weapons, one top-grade spiritual weapon, and a manual on a seventh-grade martial arts skill. Those items were certainly of great value.

"That seventh-grade martial arts skill is called Overlord Body-Refining Formula that can enhance the corporeal body. When a cultivator masters it, his or her body will be as strong as steel. And the cultivator's strength will be overwhelming, too.

The first chapter of the Overlord Body-Refining Formula introduces a potion that a cultivator must make before he starts practicing this skill. The potion requires a wide range of ingredients. The cultivator should gather all the ingredients and boil them in water in a furnace, and then bathe in it.

My elder brother was trying to collect those ingredients for many years. So far, he had found everything except for the sap of the vigor tree.

However, Scott poisoned my older brother and took away the manual of the Overlord Body-Refining Formula. Then, he came to this Grand Desolation Mountain with that bitch Barbara when he learned that there were some vigor trees growing here.

That's why I brought the three of you here. I hope you can help me work out a plan to kill that Scott!

Now that I've told you everything, it's up to you if you'd like to help me.

If you assist me, I will be more than willing to share those treasures with you. You can have three-fifths of them, while I take two-fifths.

And I promise, after we kill Scott, you can have me as you like. What do you say?"

Upon hearing that tantalizing offer, the three men were suddenly intrigued. They could not help but lick their parched lips and measured up Lois's well-developed desirable figure.

Then, Nigel shouted out of the blue. "Deal! Damn it! No pain, no gain. I'm not a guy who's afraid of getting into trouble. Whatever, you can count me in!"

Elton and Lyle both agreed. "Great then, it's settled!" exclaimed Lois.

After finally talking the three men into it, she was quite overjoyed.

She then gave a broad smile, "Perfect! Now, let's waste no time. We'd better set off for that area with vigor trees at once!"

Elton, the one who had the least control over his lust, suddenly grabbed Lois's plump buttocks and breathed, "Sugar, seeing you swing your cute butt like that makes me want to take you right here, right now."

He grinned obscenely.

"You bitch!" Austin cursed, forcing himself to calm down.

Despite the striking disparity in strength, he would not place himself at the mercy of his opponents.

Taking advantage of the moment that they relaxed their vigilance to taunt him, Austin leaped up and cast his Wind-commanding Skill. As if possessed by the God of Wind, he crossed ten meters with one step and easily skimmed past the four like a streak of smoke.

"What just happened?"

"How can he be so fast?"

When the four saw Austin's astonishingly brisk movements, they were all taken aback and could not help but exclaim with surprise.

However, just as Austin slipped through the gap between two opponents and was about to break through the blockade, something unexpected happened.

"Ghost Shadow Rope!"

Nigel abruptly gave a howl before making a quick grab on Austin. Simultaneously, a set of menacing yellow vital energy shot out from his palm. It instantly turned into a long rope and twined around Austin's feet.

All at once, Austin's ankles were reined tightly by a powerful force. He was trapped like a helpless swimmer who got entangled by water plants.

"Vital energy materialization?" Austin gasped.

When a cultivator reached the Earth Realm, his vital energy could leave the body and attack. Varied combat techniques came with vital energy in different shapes.

By comparison, a warrior at the Energy Gathering Realm could never separate his vital energy from his body. The most he could manage was to attach the vital energy to his weapons.

Hence, the ability to separate and substantialize the vital energy was the symbol of cultivators at the Earth Realm.

"Planning to escape? How could you a silly kid at the Energy Gathering Realm escape the four Earth Realm warriors just like that?"

Nigel snorted, feeling quite smug about their power.

"Get back!"

With a flick, that vital energy string controlled by Nigel hauled Austin back. Austin fell heavily onto the ground. He was rather woolly-headed, and his vital energy also became disordered by the sudden change.

The Supreme God

Chapter 114 Two Dogs Strive For A Bone And A Third Runs Away With It

'Violet, can you hear me?'

At this point, Austin was reminded of his helping hand. He called Violet in his mind with his spiritual power.

'I'm here, Master. I've been cultivating my energies. Why didn't you call me earlier?'

Violet's voice came from the Illusion Bead. She seemed to have some idea of what was going on outside. She then continued, 'These four cultivators are very powerful. One of them is at the preliminary stage of Earth Realm, and the other three are medium. I am clearly no match for them. Even if I used my illusion skills, I could only bewitch them for a while, but it wouldn't buy you too much time. Considering our comprehensive strength, it's only wishful thinking to defeat them.'

Violet estimated the situation and gave her impression of the situation to Austin.

'We don't have to defeat them. We only need to escape from them. And all you must do is buy me some time,' said Austin in return.

'I can confuse them for a few seconds. But, Master, never underestimate the cultivators at the medium stage of Earth Realm. They can use their energy to form an avatar to attack the enemy from miles away. They are capable of things that you can't even think of, ' said Violet with extreme worry.

Austin reasoned, 'The worst that can happen to me here is death. If I want to survive, we must take the risk. Can you cut off this rope on my feet? The Ghost Shadow Rope?'

"Yes, I can, Master, ' Violet gave a positive answer.

'Good. I will distract them with Spiritual Sense Flying Needles, while you cut the rope off my feet and confuse them with illusion skills. Then we'll flee at the highest speed. Oh, I almost forgot. Are you able to follow my speed?'

Austin suddenly thought of Violet's safety problems.

Violet felt very grateful and her heart warmed up by Austin's words because her master treated her so nicely. She answered, 'Don't worry, Master. Nine tail demon foxes like me are good at illusion skills and we move very quickly. Although I am no match for these four men, I am able to escape them.'

'Well, then, it's settled! Let's wait for that one to move a little closer.'

Austin felt assured and started to discuss with Violet about the routes to escape.

"Hey you, asshole! I initially planned to give you a quick merciful death, but since you dared to use your stupid bodily movement skill to escape, you'll face the wrath of a cultivator at the Earth Realm! I will skin you alive then I'll feed you to my dogs!"

roared Nigel as he pulled Austin towards him.

Suddenly, Austin moved. He darted a Spiritual Sense Flying Needle towards Nigel, wringing it in his brain that caused great pain in his soul.

As Austin planned, a sudden pain penetrated Nigel. A shiver ran down his spine as he felt the thing breaking his mind. His heart sunk as he tried to force it out.

As he stumbled in pain, his killing intent disintegrated.

"Yes, indeed. You seem very observant," Austin answered, glancing him from head to toe.

Lyle seemed very happy as he continued, "No wonder you have the guts to enter this dangerous zone filled with level-three diabolic beasts. You're talented with such two secret weapons! You're a good man!"

Nigel was completely bewildered by Lyle's words. He then asked, "What's this bullshit, Lyle? Why are you talking to him? Let me kill him so we can continue with our journey!"

"Nigel, please wait a moment. I have something to ask him," said Lyle with a grin.

Nigel knew that Lyle was the brain trust of them four. He grunted in discontent but stepped back when asked.

Smiling, Lyle continued, "Young man, rest assured that we will never hurt you. We are very friendly to talented cultivators like you, and we want to present you a gift to show our sincerity. Please wait here for a moment. I will talk some reasons into my pals."

"Really? You'll let me go? And you will give me a precious present? That's so kind of you!"

Austin pretentiously said. He also faked a relieved tone.

But he was fully aware of what Lyle was planning to.

Austin's spiritual sense attacks were intangible and unpredictable. It was difficult to guard against and impossible to dodge from. It was the best skill to attack and disturb the enemies.

It could be the best skill to use in their combat with Scott. The only reason Lyle was befriending him was that he wanted Austin to aid them in the combat. When they attacked Scott, he wanted Austin to help disturb Scott's mind.

In battles between the master cultivators, even the slight negligence could lead to fatal consequences. And if Scott was distracted, they would have a great chance to win.

Austin sneered inside and decided to wait and see.

He then told Violet, 'Violet, wait for my signal. Let's see what they'll do.'

Austin was also coveting the loots they mentioned. The collection included a dozen of medium-grade spiritual weapons, one top-grade spiritual weapon, a skill book of seventh grade martial arts skill, and a hundred thousand or more vital energy crystals.

When he had heard them talking about that powerful cultivator named Scott and his friend Barbara, he knew he was no match for them nor to loot the treasure from them.

But now he had the opportunity. If these four men were to hunt Scott and fight him for the treasures, it would be difficult to tell who would score a success.

And if both sides sank, he might gain some benefit from the result. As an old saying went, "Two dogs strive for a bone, and a third runs away with it."

'I'd better take the risk. Anyway, I don't think I can escape from them anymore. I've already used my spiritual sense attack on them. And if I attack them again, they would certainly be prepared.

Now, it would be better for me to follow them to Scott. Maybe, I can get my hands on that exciting treasure. Like always, opportunities come from danger.'

Austin had always been brave, rational and consistent. And after weighing his options, he had made his decision.

The Supreme God

Chapter 115 The Unexpected Helper

The four people gathered together and whispered to each other.

"Nigel, what do you think of the bodily movement skill of that little guy?" Lyle asked.

At that moment, Elton and Lois also looked at Nigel waiting for his response.

Nigel frowned and answered, "His bodily movement skill is quite unusual. I must say that I won't be able to catch him up. But his weakness is his low cultivation base, so I can still defeat him in a second."

"In this case, Nigel, do you think you can make provision against his spiritual sense attack?"

Lyle asked him again.

"To tell you honestly, there's nothing I can do about his spiritual sense attack. How can we deal with it when it's invisible?"

Fortunately, this guy's spiritual sense is not too strong to be a threat to us since we are in the Earth Realm. He can only distract our minds. So, he's still no match for us," Nigel replied.

"You're right!"

Lyle said and suddenly laughed out complacently.

"What's so funny, Lyle?"

Lois was puzzled and asked.

"An unexpected helper! This guy can be our unexpected helper!"

Lyle suddenly added.

"Guys, killing Scott will be a tough job for us. We will probably fail if we are not careful enough. If that happens, we would certainly die here in the outer part of the Grand Desolation Mountain.

If we have extra help, we have a better chance! This guy is special. At only the seventh level of the Energy Gathering Realm, he has such a quick bodily movement skill! Plus, he can give off spiritual sense and attack others with it! If we go against Scott with him, what will happen then?"

But little did they know that Austin had clearly read all their secret glances.

'I'll take the risk and join them, ' Austin made up his mind soon.

He raised his head and pretended to be greedy, "After we make it, is there really a reward for me? I have been looking forward to a spiritual weapon for a long time."

"Ha ha ha!"

the four could not help themselves laughing loudly.

Lois looked at Austin emotionally, as if she had fallen in love with him. She got close to Austin and glanced at him in an exceedingly fascinating and charming way. An inviting smile found its way on her face.

"You silly boy. Of course, we will offer you a reward. You alone are not sure to get something in this area full of level three diabolic beasts. It is dangerous here and you may be eaten by the cruel beasts. But you will surely gain a lot if you join us! After we kill Scott, anything we give you will be enough for you and even beyond your imagination!"

After she finished talking, Lois helped Austin stand up.

"You poor little guy. Are you hurt?"

Lois' body gave off a good smell like orchid or muskiness. She spoke gently and her motion was slow. Her soft body slightly touched Austin's arm. She was so charming and elegant that even an iron-hearted man could be attracted and turned soft by her in a moment.

However, Austin clearly knew that Lois was a slut. In his eyes, this woman was not only pretentious but also actually as dirty as mud.

He felt goosebumps all over his body. Reluctantly, he said to her, "Okay. It must be my lucky day to meet you guys here! Count me in! I'll go with you to kill Scott!"

"Good! Now, time to go!"

Lois smiled with satisfactory.

The four had regarded Austin as weak, simple-minded, and afraid of death. It was so easy to convince him into joining them in exchange for a reward.

But Austin had his own plans in mind, 'When they are fighting with Scott, I will just stand by and watch. If something bad happens, I will run as quickly as possible. If both sides are badly hurt, I will have all the advantages. Guess I have the best plan!'

Soon, Austin left with the group to hunt down Scott.

The Supreme God

Chapter 116 Being Ignored

The five people soon sped up and headed toward the region where the vigor tree was located.

Scott should be there. Since he practiced the Overlord Body-Refining Formula, he relied on the medicinal power of the vigor tree sap to strengthen his practice.

After a day and a night on the road, the group reached the periphery of the vigor tree woods!

As fourth-level demon beasts and diabolic beasts would frequently appear in the forest, Nigel and his companions didn't dare to be careless. They followed Scott's trail through vigor tree forest carefully, as if treading on thin ice.

Austin released his spiritual sense power to monitor everything around his team members. On several occasions, he detected fourth-level demon beasts and diabolic beasts. Many times, they almost crossed paths with those beasts. Austin felt so nervous that his heart felt like it was about to burst out from his chest.

Every time he saw such a beast, Austin would remind Nigel and the other four people not to alarm the scary beast.

As a result, Nigel and the other four people were very glad that they had asked Austin to join their adventure.

Otherwise, they might have gotten into trouble while walking through the vigor tree forest. If they ran into a fourth-level demon beast or a diabolic beast, they would be trapped and in serious trouble.

Austin's spiritual sense power, on the other hand, could detect creatures in their surrounding area and help them to avoid the fourth-level demon beasts and diabolic beasts. Once he found such a beast, they could detour in time, and avoid a lot of trouble and danger.

It was not long before they reached a dense forest.

"Be careful!"

Austin suddenly whispered a warning.

The other four people stopped.

"Did you sense another fourth-level beast?"

Nigel whispered.

Scott was in his mid-twenties. He was dressed in a white robe. Although tall, he had a well-proportioned form. His skin was fair, like white jade, and almost as perfect skin as that of a beautiful woman's. He had a very handsome face and a casual and elegant bearing. All in all, he could be described as a handsome man.

Barbara was in her early twenties. She was petite and cute. Dressed in pale yellow clothes, she looked elegant and noble, like she came from a middle-class family.

"Barbara, pay attention to the liquid. As soon as it turns green, pour the vigor tree's sap into the furnace. At that time, we can enter the medicine furnace together and refine our bodies," Scott said. He seemed excited and eager.

After a pause, he continued, "Once I have soaked in the special liquid, I can practice the basic skills of the Overlord Body-Refining Formula. Then I will have the extraordinary power to carry an object weighing five hundred pounds with one hand. And Barbara, since you're a woman, you can't practice the Overlord Body-Refining Formula. However, according to the introduction in the secret manual, this kind of special medical liquid has great benefits as it will improve a cultivator's physique and enhance their vitality!"

Immediately, a sweet smile spread over Barbara's beautiful face.

"Scott, even though this liquid is not too beneficial for me, you are sharing it with me. That shows that you are so affectionate toward me. I will remember your gesture for all my life," Barbara said shyly. Her eyes were filled with affection for Scott.

"Barbara, my love for you will not change until death separates us. This is just a furnace of liquid. Why shouldn't I share it with you?"

Scott gazed sincerely at Barbara as he spoke.

All of a sudden, Scott shouted. "Who is it?"

Come out at once!"

As soon as he finished, Lois, Nigel, Elton, and Lyle entered the open space, followed by Austin.

When Scott and Barbara saw Lois and the others approaching them, they became silent. Murderous will flashed in their eyes. Their strong and heavy momentum was exuding quickly and silently.

Meanwhile, Lois, Nigel, Elton, and Lyle had summoned their vital energy in preparation to fight with the couple at any time.

"Hmm! Lois, you bitch! You dare to ally with outsiders to attack me? Do you think you can defeat me with just a few punks?"

Scott bellowed in an angry, disdainful, and impatient tone. Apparently, he was irritated and wanted to kill all five people.

"Heh, heh, even your friend at the seventh-level of the Energy Gathering Realm is here. One more look at him will be a great insult to me," Scott said dismissively as he scanned Nigel and other three as well as Austin.

Then, he faced the other members of the group as he warned, "I'm going to advise you to consider your strengths first! Do you want to lose your life for an insignificant woman?"

When he spoke, Scott did not pay attention to Austin at all. It was as if he didn't exist. He had enough reason to behave like that. Considering Scott had a much stronger cultivation base level and that Austin who was only at the seventh-level of the Energy Gathering Realm, he was not a threat to Scott.

The Supreme God

Chapter 117 Full Moon Radiance Skill

Austin felt awkward when he realized that Scott was ignoring him. But he could do nothing. The world paid attention to strength alone. The ones with great power were respected, while the weak were like tiny ants, scrambling to and fro in fear of someone stepping on them.

"Huh, what made this group of losers come to disturb us? Everyone, cut off one of your own arms, and then get out!"

The expression on Barbara's face was cold. She was by no means weak, for she had a powerful cultivation base.

Backed by her elder brother, who was a core disciple of the Peripatetic Sect, she didn't find it necessary to deem the inner disciples significant in any way, and that included Nigel.

"Hey!"

Nigel snorted and pissed off at the dismissal.

"Scott, human beings die in pursuit of wealth, and birds die in pursuit of food. Since we are already here, we won't leave so easily. As the saying goes, one who has seen wealth must get one's share in it. Why don't you give us a part of Gilbert's fortune? If we fight over it, you might not win. You are at the middle level of the Earth Realm, which three of us are already at. You think I am scared of you, you gigolo?"

Nigel's vital energy unfurled from his body for everyone to see. His robe swished dramatically although there was no wind to help it along.

"Scott, you've returned kindness with ingratitude. You've forgotten all about decency and morals at the first sight of fortune. You murdered my brother. I've never met a more unfaithful person. You abandoned me once you were done using me! Today, you must repay for all of it!"

The veins on Lois' forehead bulged out. The rage on her face was a significant turnabout from her usual charm.

"Hah, the winner takes all, as always! All the world's affairs are such. I have nothing to say about what happened to Gilbert. As for my abandoning you after using you? I don't know how many boyfriends you had before me. You think I would have pursued you if not for Gilbert's wealth, you little moron?"

Scott drawled, laughing openly and without any sense of guilt.

He was intelligent enough to know that these people were willing to risk their lives since they had come to him. He didn't make any false claims. Meeting them, he gave them tit for tat so his authority was maintained.

"Scott, why do you bother talking to them? The liquid medicine has almost been boiled. Hurry up and kill them. Otherwise it will influence your cultivating effect."

Barbara's beautiful eyes were still cold. An unsheathed long sword appeared in her slender hand out of nowhere, shining bright like river water.

Elton and Lyle followed orders and employed their most powerful martial skills, darting over to Scott at the same time.

Lois took out a long silver whip that branched into a number of whip shadows blanketing the sky. She moved to attack Barbara.

In an instant, a fierce battle had begun.

"You sure are over-confident!"

Scott's moon spun like a wheel and with a low sound, it prepared to attack.

It smashed Nigel's Ghost Cutting Skill and Elton's Black Demonic Foot straightaway. The machete, a low-grade, level-three spiritual weapon that Lyle held, was knocked out of his hand.

The moon had not exhausted its power yet. It revolved, flying straight to Austin. Scott seemed to want to kill him conveniently.

Austin felt a sharp power take a grip on him, suppressing his entire body forcefully. An unavoidable feeling of powerlessness washed over him.

At this crucial juncture of life and death, the vital energy in Austin's body streamed forth. The golden ball with the size of a walnut activated itself in his elixir field and boundless vital energy emerged out, seeping through and flowing all over his frame, illuminating him in gold. Austin felt the pressure on his body vanish.

He moved one step, ten meters away and used his Wind-commanding Skill.

Austin was astonishingly quick.

Scott scrunched his brows, surprised at Austin's speed. He had dodged the attack so easily.

Crack! Crack! Crack! Crack! Crack!

As Austin ducked out of the way, Scott's moon slashed into five big trees, hacking them in succession before finally dissipating into thin air.

Scott looked on, satisfied with the outcome of the Full Moon Radiance Skill.

"Sometimes, battles between cultivators don't rest on their cultivation bases and realms alone."

The aura around Scott's body seemed to rise and climb gradually. He appeared to get taller and bigger, like a crowned emperor facing his world.

"Talent! Talent of the martial arts decides one's victory or defeat... Of course, as common folk, you probably do not understand that! Your mediocrity fails you!"

The Supreme God

Chapter 118 Master Of Mysterious Realm

As his confident aura continued to increase, Scott quickly created another shining moon using his vital energy.

"Every one of you here today must die!" he roared.

Then Scott unleashed a howl of fury.

The moon hurtled towards his enemies with overwhelming momentum and looked unstoppable.

Seeing such a powerful demonstration of strength left Austin feeling bitter.

He initially thought Scott was just an ordinary man who had taken advantage of his relationship with Lois to gain strength.

But now, he understood this man they were up against had exceptional talent in the martial arts.

Although Lois, Nigel, and Elton were almost at the same refining level as Scott, their fighting abilities still could not match their opponent.

After listening to Lois' motivational analysis, Austin believed they could easily defeat Scott and Barbara because of their 5-2 advantage.

However, watching them struggle in fighting with Scott made him realize how wrong he was.

"Boy, why the hesitation? Are you having second thoughts?"

Momentarily distracted in the middle of her fight with Barbara, Lois had to question Austin. There was no doubt in her mind how urgent their situation was.

Her strength slightly prevailed over Barbara's, so she only felt a little pressure during the fight.

Still, she was well aware that victory for them depended on the outcome of her companions' battle with Scott.

The only way to win this battle was for Nigel, Elton, and Lyle to kill Scott. Otherwise, not only would they fail to get what they were aspiring for, but also they were likely to lose their lives.

And Barbara was very clear on this as well, so instead of attacking Lois, she concentrated on defense. And this was why Lois didn't easily defeat her opponent.

Austin sighed in resignation. His plan was to remain detached throughout the battle and observe from a safe distance while waiting for the chance to benefit from the anticipated violent ending.

However, it was becoming clear that Nigel, Elton, and Lyle were nowhere near defeating Scott, much less killing him.

And the skillful disciple knew that if he stood around, Scott would not easily let him go once he had disposed of the three people charging at him.

It was this thought that eventually pushed Austin to decide to step in.

Suddenly, he bowed before the bushes around the field with his hands clasped.

"Excuse me, grand master in the shadows. As far as I know, I've never offended a master of Mysterious Realm.

What would be your reason for stepping in our fight?"

A master of Mysterious Realm?

Scott's sudden action and words confused Nigel, Elton, and Lyle.

But Lyle, who was the sharpest of the three, immediately analyzed the situation and read their opponent's mind.

"It's amazing how quickly you managed to notice the presence of the great master, Scott.

But, it's useless for you to waste your breath now, because he's here today specially to deal with you. Still, he isn't going to fight with you before we fail to defeat you.

So either way, you are definitely dying here today!" he scoffed.

As he finished speaking, Lyle winked at his two companions.

Fortunately, Nigel and Elton immediately understood what he meant.

"Yeah, there's no way for you to escape now, Scott. But if you surrender directly, we can grant you a swift death.

Otherwise, you're going to regret being alive!"

Although Lois could fare well in a one-on-one fight with Barbara, Austin's intervention gave her a better advantage. Both his smooth bodily movement skill and elusive Twin Shadow Blades had helped put Barbara's life in danger.

It was not long before Barbara's entire body was covered with wounds resulting from their attacks.

She was already sweating profusely and panting for breath. It was clear Barbara was nearly at the end of her strength.

While assisting Lois in attacking Barbara, Austin spared some of his spiritual sense to observe the other side of the battlefield.

He sniggered when he heard Scott mistaking him for a Mysterious-Realm master.

Gathering up his spiritual power, Austin produced another Spiritual Sense Flying Needle and controlled it to shoot towards Scott's brain.

Sharp pain forced Scott to pause and shake the feeling off.

Nigel, Elton, and Lyle noted the pause and realized Austin was attacking him with spiritual-sense skills.

All three seized the opportunity and attacked Scott in sync. Nigel's Ghost Shadow Chop, Elton's Black Demonic Foot, and Lyle's level three low-grade spiritual weapon charged at the enemy simultaneously.

The Supreme God

Chapter 119 All Of Them Dead!

When Scott recovered from the searing pain, Nigel and the other two men had closed in on him and were about to start attacking again.

Even though his cultivation base was high, there was no way for him to prepare for it in such a short time. So, he became a bit restless.

He raised one hand and waved it in front of his chest quickly. Soon, a Mysterious Ice Shield began to form.

But he was still a little slower than the others. Just before the Mysterious Ice Shield completed formation, Nigel and the two other men's forces came charging and hit the shield heavily.

Bang!

The loud sound jolted the surroundings.

The forming shield burst into pieces and ice chips scattered in all directions. Scott opened his mouth and blood gurgled from his throat and came out of his mouth. His face turned instantly pale.

Even with his power, he was still hurt terribly when the three Earth Realm cultivators hit him at the same time.

Excited over what happened, Nigel laughed.

"Hahaha! He's been hurt badly.

We can kill him now that he's weak.

Well done, little buddy!" he called out to Austin.

Injuries notwithstanding, Scott overheard Nigel. 'Little buddy?' he thought to himself.

Eyes feral, he raised his head to look straight at Austin. He suddenly realized it was this young man who made the spiritual attack on him moments ago.

'This guy must have a Secret Weapon with him that can mount a spiritual sense attack, ' he thought.

Realizing there was really no Mysterious Realm cultivator present, Scott was immediately relieved.

Then he looked at Austin, with a gaze so sharp that it could pierce the body. 'This guy is as weak as an ant, yet he has managed to hurt me terribly, ' Scott thought furiously.

Realizing his mistake, Nigel immediately regretted shouting. His words alerted Scott that there was no Mysterious Realm cultivator on his side, and the spiritual sense attack was only from Austin.

Seeing Scott's expression, Austin realized the situation had turned for the worse. Although Scott was badly hurt, it was still going to be easy for him to kill the young disciple.

As expected, Scott stepped back and took a pill, which he quickly put in his mouth.

Then he started running his vital energy. A round moon immediately appeared before him. It glowed mysteriously, with its killing intent aimed at Austin.

With all the stealth he could muster, Austin used his bodily movement skills and headed towards the fighting place to avoid being noticed.

When he was about 400 meters away from the battleground, he stood still to allow his spiritual sense to cover the rest of the distance.

Through his spiritual sense, he checked out the place. It was remarkably quiet now.

What he sensed was that there was no life there.

Was the battle finally over?

Suddenly, Austin was gripped with excitement as he sensed that only dead bodies were in that place, and no one seemed to have survived.

Did all of them die in the fighting?

The disciple couldn't hide his exhilaration. Using his Wind-commanding Skill, Austin moved around the battleground swiftly as a ghost.

Soon, he came to the location where the actual combat took place. Hiding behind a huge tree, he let his eyes do a sweep.

As he had previously sensed, there were a total of six bodies scattered on the ground.

It was messy with all the blood, as well as body parts that were all over the place.

The place resembled a slaughterhouse!

The most miserable case was Elton's. His limbs, including hands and feet, had been severed from his body. His head was most gruesome because there was only half of it left!

And in that remaining half was an extremely horrifying expression. The one eye was wide open, and in it could be seen that he was frightened to death!

Scott was likewise injured everywhere. The most severe wound was on his chest, where there was a deep cut. It appears that Nigel had inflicted this wound using his Ghost Cutting Skill.

Lois's head was severed neatly, and he saw her ever-beautiful face beside her body.

The sight of bloodied and cut up human bodies and the metallic smell of blood made Austin want to vomit even though he was usually a strong-minded person.

But once this nauseous feeling passed, he again turned excited.

Laughing aloud, he said, "Things did happen as I expected. This fight actually resulted in the decimation of both sides!" As the reality of it sank in, Austin felt overjoyed.

He was the only one alive now, so he had more than enough time to collect his harvest.

Happily, Austin approached Scott's body first. He quickly found his Space Ring around one of his fingers on the left hand. Without the slightest hesitation, he took it off.

Examining this with his spiritual sense, he found it measured thirty cubic meters, and the space was filled with a lot of things.

The Space Ring he earlier retrieved from Rafat was only five cubic meters. But this one was five times bigger than his first harvest, and he felt his heart pump in excitement.

He went ahead to collect the Space Rings from all the other five dead bodies and put them in his Space Ring, without looking at them.

It was not the right time to look them over carefully. The young disciple decided that once he had enough time, he would examine each one thoroughly.

The Supreme God

Chapter 120 The Overlord Body-Refining Formula(Part One)

After collecting all the Space Rings that were spread around the area, Austin's roaming gaze finally stopped as they landed on a giant metal bucket right in the middle of an open space from which the medicinal vapor was rising.

Somehow, everyone had managed to deliberately avoid hitting the bucket even when they were furious. Most probably because they all knew that the medicinal liquid in it was priceless and precious for everyone.

"Overlord Body-Refining Formula... .."

Austin recalled what Lois had told him earlier, "Scott extracted the sap of vigor trees in order to cultivate the Overlord Body-Refining Formula." It was precious and rare!

According to Lois, the Overlord Body-Refining Formula, an inheritance she had received from her ancestors had later turned out to be a grade seven formula.

Grade Seven formulae were a rare occurrence around the entire globe. They were invaluable, extraordinarily difficult to find, and difficult to process even for the great sects.

The Overlord Body-Refining Formula was extremely powerful as well as remarkably useful for body cultivation. However, the preciousness of formulae related to practicing vital energy increased from the well-known fact that the vital energy level of a cultivator reflected his/her true powers. In fact, it was the sole way of measuring it.

Thus Body cultivation, which allowed a cultivator to improve body constitution and strengthen vitality, was usually regarded as an auxiliary and complement effort to vital energy practice.

Giving too much time and effort to one's physical practice was often seen as catching the shadow and losing the substance in the chase.

Therefore, physical-practicing formulae were typically not welcomed by cultivators and they avoided, more so if the formula was not very expensive.

But, even if that were true, the grade of this particular formula alone was high enough to attract several cultivators.

A wry smile settled on his face.

After the guiding principle, there was also an introduction about the powers of the Overlord Body-Refining Formula in the slip.

The whole formula had been divided into five levels.

In the first level, the formula was supposed to enhance, clean, and refine the cultivator's skin and bones. With physical fitness transformed, it was said that a single punch could have landed a 1000 pounds of force. That didn't come cheap though, and cost the equivalent of 5 hundred thousand vital energy crystals.

In the second level, skin and bones would become extremely hard and the body would become as hard as iron. The formula claimed that a second level cultivator could have resisted an all-out attack by a cultivator of Energy Gathering Realm. Also, his or her single punch would have been able to land 5, 000 pounds of force. The cost doubled this time and reached a million vital energy crystals.

The third level would have fully transformed the skeleton and the veins. This would let them resist the invasion of most toxins. The body would have developed a slight resistance to fire and water, which wouldn't be able to damage you easily. It would also be able to resist an all-out attack by a primary cultivator of Earth Realm. The punch strength was increased to eight thousand now. But the cost tripled now and reached 3 million vital energy crystals.

The fourth level was ridiculously strong. It would make the skin be bright and jade-like, and one's flesh and blood would no longer be mortal. It would have made you invulnerable against mortal weapons, and you would have been unsusceptible to fire and water. An all-out attack by a senior cultivator of Earth Realm wouldn't have damaged you and your single punch could have landed 10, 000 pounds of force. The fourth level cost the equivalent of about 5 million vital energy crystals.

In the fifth level, the cultivation of Overlord Body-Refining Formula came to the Major Achievement Stage. This was the most powerful one and was beyond anyone's imagination. At the fifth stage, the flesh body would have been able to resist an all-out hit by a secondary cultivator of Mysterious Realm. A single punch would have landed 15,000 pounds of force, but the price was equally ridiculous. It cost the equivalent of about 10 million vital energy crystals!

"OH MY GOD!"

Austin's heart beat wildly on reading the thing, and he exclaimed 'oh my god' out loud, thinking, 'If cultivated to Major Achievement Stage, the flesh body would actually be able to resist an all-out attack by a secondary cultivator of Mysterious Realm. That's horrific and fascinating at the same time.'

There was only one Mysterious Realm cultivator in Sun Sect—the Leader, Theon.

So, in other words, if someone could actually cultivate the Overlord Body-Refining Formula to the fifth stage, his strength would have been comparable to Theon. And that was only about his physical strength. One's spiritual strength could always be increased.
