

The Supreme God

Chapter 271 The Mastermind Is Here (Part Two)

Austin looked at the direction of the voice and muttered to himself.

"Alright, saves me the time and effort from going after him myself. Finally, let's get this over with already. I'm tired of being chased after."

However, Steward Su had been using his position as the Steward in Sun Sect to train a group of close disciples.

He must have brought an army of disciples with him, like a king going out into the battlefield with his personal guards.

In order to avoid facing a dozen enemies alone, Austin decided to let Violet help him out.

After all, Johnson had immersed himself at the medium stage of Earth Realm for more than ten years. His understanding in the realm was very solid and his combating strength was also more powerful than most of those at medium stage of Earth Realm. He might be at par with some warriors at the premium stage of Earth Realm.

Austin wanted to prepare thoroughly for such a battle. Better safe than sorry.

So he communicated with Violet through his mind.

A beautiful and bewitching woman emerged from a green fog. It was Violet.

Hmm? 'Violet, how come your demonic power seems to be stronger than before?'

Austin's spiritual sense was so strong that he recognized Violet's increase in power instantly.

Violet, covering her mouth with her hand, chuckled, "Yes master, my current cultivation base is already very close to the medium stage of Earth Realm in the human territory.

As I explained to you last time, the powerful crystal is a great supplement for my breakthrough during cultivation. It's like the perfect energy booster.

All this time, I have been using the powerful crystal to practice and my progress has been surprisingly several times faster than before.

will rise to a higher level. Isn't this getting breakthroughs in their cultivation. Many diabolic beasts, although naturally strong, couldn't rise up in their cultivation through practice like human beings do. This is one aspect which separates man from so much progress in her master, please try feeling my spiritual sense

Her spiritual sense by ordinary people. Only a warrior who also possessed the power of indeed surprised by what he just felt. It was truly amazing and much stronger. It's stunned. It seemed that the powerful crystal was indeed a great supplement for days for practice and unexpectedly made so much progress in both demon power cultivation base and spiritual out the long-term accumulation of cultivation, but there was no doubt just how effective the powerful crystal was believe that this powerful crystal has a great effect using the powerful crystal for practice, your cultivation base of spiritual sense will definitely improve dramatically," Violet said to it is to try it right now, but first we must take care of what's coming told Violet of their current situation at hand

Austin and more than a hundred meters away, Austin and Violet faced Johnson who had brought along more than 20

each other, quietly assessing each other

And then...

have nowhere else to hide were burning with hatred, eager to swallow Austin alive. He was like a raging bull ready to charge at that I'm going to hands together and stood nonchalantly. He had an easy expression and a "Kill him this instant!"

Sun Sect swarmed at him and surrounded Austin and

All the disciples of Sun Sect were young men with strong sexual desires. They were awestruck when they laid their eyes on the beautiful Violet.

Some of them were already having some naughty thoughts arousing in their minds. They were like animals in heat.

"Ha, what a lucky day. I can't believe Austin is accompanied by such a seductive little lady.

Steward Su will definitely kill Austin this time.

After Steward Su takes care of him, I will definitely get a taste of this woman. I'm sure that Steward Su will not object to it."

"Austin, did you murder my nephew Marvin? Confess brat! Don't even dare to hide anything. Otherwise, I will make you beg for your own death!"

Johnson asked loudly, his attention solely on Austin. He didn't even care that Violet was there, as she was an insignificant fly in his mind.

"Don't yell like an old prick! I can hear you just fine you know. Yes, It was me. I killed Marvin. He tried to kill me multiple times just so you know. He deserved to die!"

Austin said in a calm and menacing voice.

Johnson listened to Austin's admission and the anger in his heart blazed even more, especially when he saw Austin admit it in such a casual way. He was like a volcano ready to erupt and spew out his anger.

Austin did not even reveal a hint of panic. Where does he get his confidence from?

"You vicious little brat! Austin, how could you kill your own fellow! You must die for your sin!

And how dare you face the steward of Sun Sect with such a disrespectful attitude.

Austin, I am now declaring your two sins as steward. One is the murder of your own fellow, and the other is disrespecting your superior.

These two were clearly stipulated by Sun Sect. You committed both crimes without hesitations. Get on your knees and surrender!"

Johnson said in a determined manner. He glared at Austin, trying to pressure Austin as the Steward of Sun Sect.

The Supreme God

Chapter 272 Fighting With Johnson Su!

Johnson tried to display no lack of vigor in his identity as the Steward when he saw Austin.

All the two dozen disciples who had come together with Johnson were his deliberately cultivated henchmen from the Sun Sect.

Seeing that Austin was in a weakened state, all of them began shouting fiercely at him.

"Austin, how dare you kill the younger apprentice, Marvin! You're not stepping out of here alive today!"

"Austin, why don't you kneel down in front of Steward Su and plead guilty? If you surrender now, he might show you some mercy."

"That's impossible! If this guy kneels down and pleads guilty, he might suffer a little less. But there's no way he'll be let off easily after the crime he's committed."

"Cut the crap. I don't think this guy cares about it at all. He doesn't seem to even think that he committed a crime."

In my opinion, we should first beat him to a pulp and then ask him to confess his crimes."

Austin stood up with the chest in his arms and laughed. "It's true that empty vessels make the most noise!

That guy Marvin always made trouble for me. I think I already let him live for too long!"

"How dare you! Come on, take him down," Johnson roared angrily.

Suddenly, two disciples from opposite sides of the crowd sprung at Austin.

Both of them were at level nine of Energy Gathering Realm. They wanted to control Austin with their bare hands.

But before they could even approach him, Austin staggered in front of one of them and gave him a punch.

Austin's bodily movement skill was lightning-fast. It was hard to see him move with the naked eye. He moved so fast that all the disciples felt like Austin was standing in front of them at once.

With their slow reflexes, it was impossible for them to avoid his attacks.

Crack! Crack!

With a scream, the first disciple flew a dozen meters backward. His entire right arm was bent at a strange angle and white bone was jutting out of his skin.

With a flash of his body, Austin appeared in front of another disciple.

This disciple was shocked by what he had seen just now. He had barely come to his senses when he saw Austin standing in front of him.

He didn't have time to summon his sword, so he hastily waved his hands in a circle in haste, producing an illusory old wooden stake from which there was the smoldering smell of murder.

"Withering Tree Fist!"

The disciple shouted loudly, and the illusory old wooden stake came shot out and smashed into Austin.

Instead of dodging the wooden stake, Austin moved forward.

Bang!

illusory old wooden stake smashed heavily against Austin's chest, almost his physical strength and moved stake had torn right through the cloth covering his chest and left a deep circular mark wasn't too and punched the disciple with highhandedly scare thousands of air seemed to contracted inward, and then, with a bang, Austin's fist penetrated through the disciple's body and poured down from his chest and his including Johnson, were slightly distracted was it possible?

was a complete

mere matter of seconds and with just two punches from his bare fists, Austin had killed two disciples at level nine of Energy by using just his physical strength, was extremely cruel. He was like a beast that relied on

"Hurry! Attack him!"

who were at various levels of Energy Gathering Realm, would be able to stop Austin, and that shocked

at the same time and rushed toward Austin, intending these amateurs to sword and headed in front of her and attacked the group of disciples. Then, she zoned in on the disciple closest to her and looked at illusion. Moreover, recently, with the refinement of the powerful crystal, her spiritual sense power has advanced considerably, making her display

He found himself lying on a big red embroidered quilt with a hot, naked woman who was panting to distinguish between reality and illusion in a moment like this. His body immediately reacted to the illusion. He turned over bit into him. Her escape, but it was too was shattered at once. In the real world, the throat of the disciple had been snatched by the illusory claw created by Violet's magic power, and there was a stream of blood pouring with their eyes and looking at her lustfully. They could barely swallow their saliva as they peered at her delicate scored a knockout against a disciple who was at level nine of Energy Gathering Realm, every disciple was shocked. All of them were suddenly afraid that if they were not careful enough, they would hated Austin to the core. He watched with sharp eyes as Austin approached him.

Sword and rushed directly to Johnson.

you to pieces!" Johnson into a terrible torrent of black vital energy, accompanied front of him, shrouded by black fog. Every now and then, there were sounds of screaming quickly expanded in violent black vital energy, the claw ground the air as it flew to that one stroke, the Spectral Claw would exhaust Austin's vital energy and Earth Realm. Compared

great damage to Austin had no effect the dark ghost claw that was

He spread his Illusory Swordsmanship and watched as more than thirty sword-lights shot out at once.

They glinted in the air as they hit the ghost claw that fell from the sky. Johnson's eyes filled with disbelief as he watched cracks appear on the illusory ghost claws. Then, the ghost claw shattered with a loud crack, shooting smithereens all over the sky.

This ghost claw was formed by Johnson's vital energy, so once it was broken, he would be in a weakened state.

He took several steps back in shock.

'How is this possible! I didn't think this fellow had reached the Earth Realm!'

Johnson was completely shocked!

The sword Austin had used still retained about 70 percent of its strength, displaying the vital energy force of its medium stage of Earth Realm.

Moreover, Johnson felt that although both of them were at the medium stage of Earth Realm, the power of Austin's vital energy was higher than his.

It had taken him about seven or eight years to reach the medium stage of Earth Realm. This fellow had only been at cultivation base at level six of Energy Gathering Realm half a year ago.

How had he suddenly reached cultivation base at the medium stage of Earth Realm?

This fact confused Johnson.

Now that the fighting has begun, there was no need for Austin to be polite to him. With a flash of the Violet Royal Sword, more than thirty sword-lights appeared again.

At the same time, level three sword intent burst out as well.

With the existence of both vital energy force of the medium stage of Earth Realm and level three sword intent, Austin's pupils filled with sword aura. "Swoosh!" As soon as his eyes swept away, tangible sword aura appeared next to him one after another, framing the thirty sword-lights.

Instantly, the sword aura was full of vigor and looked like a long river. The ferocious sword intent was created on the sword-light and glowed with magical luster.

With more than 30 sword-lights in front of him and the omnipresent sword aura in the sky, clouds, and mist, Johnson found it really difficult to distinguish them.

He felt like his vital energy was locked by the invisible swords.

As soon as Austin displayed his level three sword intent, he could completely block the vital energy of any opponent who was at or below the medium stage of Earth Realm in an instant.

'This fellow's swordsmanship is so brilliant, ' Johnson thought to himself.

He felt no sense of superiority to Austin now.

Originally, he had thought that he could easily catch Austin, who was only at Energy Gathering Realm while he himself was at cultivation base of the medium stage of Earth Realm. He had been more worried about how to torture Austin.

But now, he realized how wrong he had been.

In fact, he felt like he was the one in a dangerous situation here.

His strongest unique skill was the Spectral Claw. In this emergency, he couldn't use any other skill. The black ghost claw immediately appeared in front of him.

But as soon as the enlarged ghost claw appeared, over thirty sword-lights flew toward it.

Bang!

When the ghost claw crashed into the thirty sword-lights, it exploded into black spots all over the sky.

The Supreme God

Chapter 273 Killing Johnson (Part One)

As Austin defeated Johnson's powerful Spectral Claw, Johnson felt a severe shock like he were struck by lightning. At the base of his throat, a sickly sweet liquid oozed out and blood began to trickle from his mouth.

"Well, you and your nephew are guilty of doing cruel fiendish things. It is time someone took justice in their own hands and sent you to hell to reunite with him."

Austin was clear on this. He was determined to kill Johnson.

The thought aside, Austin was surprised to be able to easily defeat Johnson with just a part of his strength. He had even suppressed his cultivation base and nonetheless been successful in achieving his plan.

Maybe, Austin thought, 'I am way stronger than most stewards in the Sun Sect. Now is my chance to show my might and prove my superiority.'

"You were hiding so well, you little bastard! Humph, you want to kill me? That's not as easy as you think.

I am the steward. If you kill me, the whole sect will come after you."

Johnson wiped the blood off his mouth and stared straight into Austin's eyes. He had been posing as a steward to intimidate Austin all this while.

But now that Austin had confronted Johnson, Austin was determined not to let his 'steward' status bother him anymore. In fact, nothing could stop him from killing Johnson.

Worse comes to worst, Austin would kill all the sect's disciples.

Since no witnesses were present, who would really be able to guess that it was him who killed Johnson?

"Funny, is it? You think I dare not kill you because you are the steward? Sorry, I don't care. Even though you are an Elder, I couldn't care less about either of these things."

Austin was determined to prove his words right. He was using all his strength, his vital energy of the premium stage of the Earth Realm to attack by using every part of the sword intent of the Illusory Swordsmanship.

Each light comprised a flood of lights which were driven by the vital energy force of stage of the Earth

when he saw the stupendous like Austin has the vital energy force of the premium stage by the vital energy from the sword-light as he couldn't even twitch his body to suppress the

Before he could even try to fight back, his leaking vital energy began to form a Spectral Claw right in sword-light

pins pricking the ear claw smashed to smithereens.

hurricane blew towards him, blowing him backwards. Untethered and helpless, Johnson flew like a kite mighty that all of Johnson's vital energy and energy meridian drained him empty. Weak and lifeless, Johnson stared just a single attack, Austin had accomplished what he wanted. Now that Johnson was powerless and helpless, Austin darted

"You deserve hell!"

boxed the poor man into cover. Before he could think of a better

a loud noise,

tears of excruciating pain away, Johnson moved his arm to find it snapped into two.

"Not finished yet!"

victorious move by attacking his lose another the only recourse. Otherwise, Austin would the deafening sound echoed again.

His other arm too didn't survive Austin's punch and was broken.

Austin's jabs were as quick as light. On the other hand, Johnson with his broken arms collapsed on the ground after a single thwack from Austin.

And with that Johnson began to bleed profusely.

Lying on the ground, Johnson looked pretty much beat and dead.

"Well, well, I am surprised to see that the little bastard is already this strong. You hid yourself so well. Plus, your vital energy has already reached the premium stage of the Earth Realm!

My nephew and I shouldn't have gone against you! What a mistake!"

Johnson smiled wryly. Limp, he had strength left to twitch just a handful of muscles. After all, Johnson was on the verge of death. He felt embarrassed to have his arms broken by Austin in just two punches.

But nothing stirred inside Austin. He had no mercy for him and so, took out his Violet Royal Sword. Thirty beams of sword-light blazed towards Johnson like flames about to lick him into a fatal fire.

Even if Johnson was reluctant to die this way, he was just too weak to protect himself against this fate. Austin's sword-light was all over Johnson.

His heart, his chest, his mouth and his head. Not a little part of his body survived. There were wounds across his whole body.

In a moment, Johnson's head drooped. There was no sign of life from him, besides his wide gaping eyes that had last been mortified at the slaughter he was about to face.

Austin's rising powers meant not a good fate for the rest of Johnson's disciples either. The vulnerable group was killed by Violet without being able to land a single blow on her. Violet's cultivation base of energy was equal to the preliminary stage of the Earth Realm and was inching every minute to the next level.

On top of that, Violet's illusory self and quick moves as a nine tail demon fox was more than what was needed to kill the disciples of the seventh to ninth level of the Energy Gathering Realm.

In just a short period, Violet had vanquished about half of them.

The Supreme God

Chapter 274 Killing Johnson (Part Two)

And the rest were now too scared to fight her. So they started looking for ways to escape.

On top of that, Austin had killed the strongest among them, their leader, in just a few moves. The others had been subconsciously depending on Johnson to protect them. But seeing him die this poorly, egged them on to run for their lives.

Eight disciples remained and all seemed to be at a loss on the strategy ahead. Suddenly, a faceless person screamed to run and all of them scampered like an army of mice frantic to leave the battlefield.

Austin has killed Johnson by his hand! Whether Johnson deserved this or not, the Sun Sect wouldn't go easy on Austin once these witnesses spread the word on what they had just seen.

So, Austin had to kill them all!

He waved his Violet Royal Sword and again, the thirty beams of sword-light dashed at each of them. Carrying overwhelming energy, the sword-lights were hungry for blood.

To ensure that no survivors get left, Austin decided to call his level 3 sword intent.

As soon as it was called, a blazing sword-light pointed at each and every one of them, just a hair's breadth away from their necks. No disciple dared even breathe.

But they need not. Because, just within a second, flesh was pierced right through and blood was gurgled out by scores of impaled bodies.

The attack was so brutal that there wasn't any margin for survival. In just one blow, Austin had killed eight disciples of the Energy Gathering Realm.

Austin's vital energy of the premium stage of the Earth Realm, his Illusory Swordsmanship and level 3 sword intent had made him almost invincible.

Violet was beyond astonished at killed the men in just a snap of his fingers. Open-eyed, to bury these dead bodies in case it leads to a

Austin put his Violet Royal Sword to use and dug a huge pit behind a dense thicket. Then, the twenty bodies including make sure that no one could suspect there were into the pit, he searched the dead man for another the mighty Sun Sect, one of the five powerful sects, and a cultivator of medium stage of Earth Realm, Johnson was bound vital energy crystals since he was badly in their bodily movement skills to travel for three hours. They were ten kilometers away from the battleground when they had took out the Space Ring from Johnson were around 300 thousand vital energy crystals, some cheap Energy-boosting Elixir, some Energy-prevailing Elixir than that," Austin vital energy crystals were not meager, but all of this wasn't quite enough for a Space Ring from Steward Meng of the Medicine stewards. How come Johnson was than the Sun Sect. Plus, there were several pill popular and earned copious amounts of much richer than Johnson the crystals in Johnson's Space Ring, Austin found on it: Spectral Claw.

Spectral Claw. It was his most precious possession after all. Austin put the jade slip in his Space Ring and decided to study it once he Johnson's Space Ring was fifty cubic meters which was relatively big.

Austin put it inside up, Austin set out

Austin planned to stay at the Peace Town for a good ten days as he asked the elixir shop's owner to buy the elixir he needed to reach Overlord Body-refining Formula stage 3. He couldn't leave before he got it.

In the meanwhile, Austin was hoping to strengthen his vital energy and learn how to refine the pills.

There was a long way ahead of him, so Austin had to put every minute to use and improve himself. He knew there were many people who would want to kill him so the fights would keep on coming.

While Austin was on his way back to Peace Town, the five figures getting a whiff of him being there rushed to the Peace Town. Located at the foot of the Sun Mountain, home of the Sun Sect, it was certainly an advantageous location for them.

"Humph, Austin was just a little bastard of the Energy Gathering Realm from some sect. Why did boss send five of us to catch him.

He doesn't deserve that much!

I think one of us was enough to take care of him."

It turned out that the five Wolf Generals were sent by the leader of the Blood Wolf Team, thirsty for Austin's blood.

"I was told Austin isn't a normal cultivator of the Energy Gathering Realm.

Patrick was killed by him."

"Humph, that's because Patrick was too lazy to work hard. His cultivation base was the worst among our Thirteen Wolf Generals. Really, he always brought shame to us."

"Okay, okay, now that the boss had ordered us to kill him, it's upon us to fulfill his wishes.

Even though Patrick was weak enough to be killed by a nobody, he was still one of us. The little bastard has shown no respect towards us and made Patrick's death a humiliating one. It's like a slap on our faces. Once we catch him, I won't let him take it easy. It'll be a death by torture for sure.

It's time we sent out the message—that no one should even think of messing with us, especially a nobody!"

The Supreme God

Chapter 275 Refining The Lowest-ranked Elixir!

Five Wolf Generals of the Blood Wolf Team were exclusively sent out to kill Austin.

The five Wolf Generals meant to corner and kill Austin near the Sun Mountain. However, after some investigation, it was clear that Austin was not in the Sun Sect, but in Peace Town.

They immediately left for Peace Town.

Blood Wolf Team's spies were almost everywhere, spread out over the Violet Orchid Empire. On their arrival in Peace Town, they sent their men to search every inch and seek out Austin.

Peace Town was a town, going by its name, but its numerous population and vast territory impressed one as a small city.

It was definitely not easy to seek out a person in such a place. . . .

Austin sat in a room belonging to a tavern in Peace Town.

A purple-brown herbal pot accompanied with ten doses of medical materials sat in front of him.

This time, Austin still planned to refine the muscle-generating powder, which was actually an elixir and not a powder as against its name.

Austin was doing this to learn the process of extracting the essence of the herbs.

He had almost mastered the extracting steps and all he had to do was to practice more in order to speed up the process.

Only after you got rid of the impurities could you get the essence of the herbs. And only after that could you blend them into one elixir.

And because of this, the refining process was the most basic yet most important step of them all.

Every pill refiner, including the high-ranked ones, would practice this basic step as often as they could to get the ideal speed and purity.

The more attention paid to the refining process, the purer was the herb essence. And purer essence meant a more qualified elixir.

Clearly, Austin had a great understanding of the importance of this basic step.

Five of the ten doses of medical materials at hand were used to practice extracting the herb's essences, and the other five to practice blending the essences.

Austin released a breath he had been holding. He then put his hands on the underside of the herbal pot. A stream of golden fire, driven by the vital energy, started transferring through to the hand.

And then, without warning, the fire simmering in his hand, rushed into the herbal pot.

Egged on by the herbal pot, the fire multiplied in intensity in a matter of seconds.

muscle-gathering herb into the pot from above.

herbal pot. He was able to grasp the herb's location and would affect eyesight, but

and the temperature, Austin realized that he ought to lower the flame, or there was a danger power

herb needed, it started to shed its bark. The herbal juice roasted to a point where all was left of it was some first tried to refine elixirs. After that, he well this time and heart leapt with hand moved slightly as he tossed one vigor-generating fruit into the herbal pot. With the help of his spiritual sense, he changed the direction and power of his vital energy to get the perfect flame with which medical essences that had was no fire or place five-tail herb were achieved one by one along with the others, lining themselves up in the was high time to blend the different kinds of essences right proportions, or it would badly impair the quality and the power of herbal essences was yet another was not any less important than the process of extracting the essences.

put his whole heart

golden flame had wrapped around all the essences and brought them together. And then, he switched the fire to the strongest mode.

hot flame. And that meant it needed a energy inside his body began flowing into looked to be unstoppable. The golden

of time went by, the mixture turned into what was beginning to look like a quite rough. The color was not equally blended either, a little green here and a little red there. It was a strange object full of the 'elixir'. 'It is almost done. Just one step left. It's the last but I can't and withdrawing were the four steps to refining an elixir. One exact location of

into the pot in order rotate slowly under the flame.

his spiritual sense, the golden fire had become moderate enough to hour more to finally close by. It was the moderate fire, when suddenly, Austin changed his vital energy's direction and power. The flame immediately morphed into a dangerous, terrible one, Moments later, Austin changed the intensity of the fire again. He turned it into the smallest fire and as it died down, a jade-like elixir revealed itself within the herbal pot.

As he looked at the round, jade-like elixir, Austin couldn't stop smiling. He stretched his hand, and the elixir flew out and came to a rest above his hand.

With the hand taken away from it, the golden fire inside the herbal pot went out immediately and began to cool down.

Staring at the elixir, Austin sniffed it. A medical aroma accosted his nostrils, one that almost made him drunk. He had never thought it possible, but his grin widened, and he knew he hadn't smiled bigger. Ever.

"I succeeded in refining an elixir! For the very first time!"

Even though this particular elixir was lowest ranked in order of quality."

"I have succeeded in refining an elixir for the second time now. Does this mean that I can claim to be a pill refiner?" he wondered aloud.

He was surprised that he was able to refine the muscle-generating powder so quickly and smoothly.

After the entire process, Austin found that he was all wet. He had been working on for about an hour, and every muscle inside him was sore and aching. As the vital energy had been continuously pumped into the herbal pot for a long time, his reserves were now down to forty percent, with sixty percent having gone into the pot.

"Judging from this, I am not so great at the basic process. Refining just one elixir has worn me out so much!"

Austin fetched an alabaster flask and put the elixir into it.

Though he had succeeded in refining a muscle-generating powder, he was still uneasy. Maybe because he was not so sure about its quality and power, he kept asking himself, 'Has it met the same standards as those elixirs in the elixir shop?'

Austin decided to show his elixirs to a few elixir shops, which were always collecting and selling elixirs for a living. He wanted their masters to judge it.

After a good rest, Austin started to refine another muscle-generating powder.

In the end, little mistakes meant that four of ten doses of the medical materials went to waste.

But six of them, Austin successfully turned into muscle-generating powders.

Concluding that his yield rate was about sixty percent, Austin wondered to himself, "How is my yield rate? Is it high or not? Is it good enough?"

Austin was brand new to this field and had learned everything by reading books, all by himself. This meant that there were many questions that he had that were still unanswered.

It took him a whole day and night to finish refining ten doses of medical materials.

Austin was exhausted at the end of it.

The moment he lay down, he fell into a deep sleep that spanned a whole day and night.

When he finally woke up, he took his newly refined elixirs and made his way to a street full of elixir shops.

The Supreme God

Chapter 276 The Message Of Unearthly Fire (Part One)

Austin arrived at the elixir store with only one bored and sleepy waiter attending the shop.

He looked up at Austin lazily and told him they would purchase all kinds of qualified pills.

Then Austin took out six muscle-generating powders which he refined by himself.

The waiter nodded while identifying them carefully. Then his mouth slowly curved up into a smile. He was well pleased with the products.

"Well, they look good. I'd say they are on the superior qualified section. How about 150 vital energy crystals each? This is our usual price for that quality. Though we sell those inferior ones with the same price.

But I reckon you will understand the difference between selling and purchasing. After all, we need to make ends meet."

"What? You mean their quality is that good? Are you sure about it?"

Austin was way too surprised.

Hearing Austin's disbelief, the waiter looked a bit annoyed, "What do you mean? You don't trust me? I had been here for more than eight years! I am not a newbie here!

Not to mention I have identified level One pills over a hundred times already, I even identified Level Three pills several times!

And here you are accusing me of making mistakes? This is unbelievable!"

misunderstanding! Look at you, so experienced. How can you be wrong? It never occurred to him that he did such a great job six muscle-generating powders? I can offer you a better eased his look because

I

are 1000 vital energy crystals hundreds of them are the price I promised, and the extra one hundred vital it happily.

honest, those 1000 vital energy crystals were insignificant compared with Austin's huge wealth

He earned it by refining pills on his own. It was his ability to make a fortune! Nothing total of no more than 200 vital energy crystals, and then Austin got 1000 vital energy crystals after refiner was such a decided to further develop his skills in pill refining to acquire more vital energy crystals and resources.

to glance over the herbs on the shelves. He planned on was ready to refine Energy-promoting of Energy Gathering Realm would definitely get stronger and their skills more refined after using it.

pronounce and profound. With the help of Energy-promoting Elixir, their speed and quality of absorbing vital energy would pill for warriors at the Energy Gathering

The Energy-boosting Elixir has a more significant effect as compared to the Energy-promoting Elixir.

So after selecting all the material needed for producing such pills, Austin left the store with a happy heart. Outside was a busy street filled with people from all walks of life buying or selling pills.

Quite a few pill refiners were among the crowd busy selling their creations.

As Austin was about to leave, he heard an interesting conversation from roadside which caught his attention.

"We have to hurry, man! I heard that the Ganges Auction House would be selling an Unearthly Fire! You know what that means right? It is every pill refiner's dream! With an Unearthly Fire, a pill refiner can easily be promoted to the next higher level! It's like the miracle drug of pill refiners. Who wouldn't want it?"

"Of course I know what an Unearthly Fire is! I'm not stupid. But it seems like you are quite interested in it. So how much money are you willing to spend for it?"

"Well, honestly I don't have much. As you know being a Level One pill refiner, the highest price my pills can get is just over 1000 vital energy crystals. Besides, my living expenses alone is quite costly. There's just too many things to buy in order to survive. After all these years of being a pill refiner, I wasn't able to save much. So I don't really have much right now. Life is so hard, especially for the likes of us. Level One pill refiners are nobody in the industry! We are just like a dirt, trivial and insignificant."

"Come on, man! You have five concubines! I will be more surprised if you have plenty of money left! And you have to spend some money in order to have a good time with your beautiful concubines! Do you really even have the time and energy to refine pills? Well, Buddy?"

"Okay, okay. You know, everyone has his hobbies and stress relievers. I am just human after all. I have needs to satisfy as well.

So what about you? How many vital energy crystals did you bring? Are you even confident that you could bid for the Uneathly Fire?"

"Oh, buddy. Are you kidding right now? I am just a level one pill refiner like you. Why would I even dare to buy the Uneathly Fire? That at least costs about hundreds of thousands or even more vital energy crystals. It's definitely something we can only dream of having! But let's just go there and have a peek. It must be fun!

The Supreme God

Chapter 277 The Message Of Uneathly Fire (Part Two)

We can witness how others will fight for it! I'm sure they'll be like hyenas fighting over a piece of meat."

Their voices gradually faded in the distance as the two drifted away toward Ganges Auction House.

Austin's interest peaked the moment he heard the words Unearthly Fire.

In the Elixir Foundation, there was an explanation about the Unearthly Fire.

Generally, the fire of pill refiner was refined using their own vital energy.

The higher and stronger the cultivation base and vital energy of a pill refiner, the better quality and level of fire one would be able to produce. This would then produce a more effective pill.

However, besides the fire which pill refiners enhance by vital energy, there was a particular fire which is more powerful, and that was Unearthly Fire! The skill that pill refiners do with the use of the Unearthly Fire to refine pills was called Borrowing Fire.

The reason behind the name was quite literal actually. Unearthly Fire didn't come from something inside, and it had nothing to do with vital energy. It was the kind of fire created outside. Hence, it came to be known as Borrowing Fire.

While only the fire refined by vital energy could be considered as Refining Fire.

In this vast world, Unearthly Fire was created from fallen meteorites or lava that have been roasted for thousands of years and even more.

Compared to ordinary fire refined by vital energy, Unearthly Fire was way more powerful. Not only can it refine pills but also increase their effectiveness! But, obtaining such fire is quite challenging. They are usually hidden in some remote and dangerous area. Even if you were lucky enough to get it, you would still have to face the huge burden of making it as your own.

would end up empty-handed. Because it was extremely hard to control the Unearthly Fire. One necessary step for a pill refiner to control Unearthly Fire was to insert the Unearthly Fire into their body and have it burn inside. Easy enough? Well an instant to burn an ordinary human body into ashes. Like paper

Fire was definitely dangerous! Many pill refiners have died trying to achieve it. Only a few pill refiners were able to refine and cultivate Unearthly Fire by sheer luck.

crop. So it was not a surprise that Borrowing Fire was, countless pill refiners still risked their lives chasing it, like a moth darting into the flame. They would do everything in famous and have a bright future ahead. But if they lost, it would only mean death understandable that all the pill refiners hold complicated feelings for Unearthly Fire, they fear that Austin

Austin's desire had been sparked up because of the conversation he had just overheard. Licking his lip gently, Austin's eyes gazed longingly on the direction of Ganges Auction what it is, it wouldn't hurt know what kind of Unearthly Fire it is. What's the harm crooned to then he suddenly turned towards the Ganges Auction House, like an excited boy hurrying towards divided into two huge sections, one was Heavenly subdivided into eight kinds, therefore, 16 kinds in total. But Heavenly Fire was said to be much better than Earth Fire.

Auction House was not far away. It only took so marvelous and gorgeous. It was even more stunning than the Imperial Palace. How luxurious a middle-aged charming woman standing

She was exactly the same person who made business with him the last time.

So he went to her directly.

Seeing a customer coming her way, the woman beamed professionally.

"Distinguished guest, what is it that you seek? To auction or to bid?"

"Beautiful lady, I heard there was an Unearthly Fire on sale. Is it true? Can you tell me more about it?"

"Lady?"

the woman was stunned for a moment because of his sweet-talking. Austin was wearing a big cape, she couldn't see his face well and was clueless of his gender or age.

But she responded quickly, Austin's voice sounded young, so she replied with a smile, "Dear, you look quite young, you must be a prospective pill refiner!"

she deduced that Austin was a pill refiner in an instant. The reason was quite simple really, only pill refiners would be interested in the Unearthly Fire.

"But what you heard is true. There is an Unearthly Fire on the auction. Let's take care of some procedures first and then you can enter while waiting for the auction to begin."

So Austin obediently completed the procedures and entered the auction room. But, there were no vacant seats available the moment he entered.

The Supreme God

Chapter 278 Chief Elder Of Flaming Sun Valley

Austin walked into the auction hall and was immediately greeted by a staff member.

"Sir, would you like to be in the general area or the VIP area?"

"Oh, there are two separate areas? What's the difference?"

In the last auction that Austin had gone to, everyone had sat around the auction stand in the same hall without any partition.

"Yes, we've just introduced this system in our auction house. Guests in the VIP area have priority in the auction for the same bid. The general area is in the lobby while the VIP area is a separate room with a crystal screen that broadcasts the auction in real time."

Austin actually liked observing everything that went on at an auction.

However, right now, he needed to hide his whereabouts. He would be a lot less conspicuous in a separate room.

"I'm going to the VIP area."

"Okay, distinguished guest. Please pay 50, 000 vital energy crystals for a VIP card which will be valid for one year. All our VIP cardholders will receive the same treatment at any Ganges Auction House in all the towns and cities in the Violet Orchid Empire."

"What? 50, 000 vital energy crystals?"

Austin gasped.

Even though it seemed to be too much, he went ahead and paid 50,000 vital energy crystals for a VIP card.

Then, a coquettish waitress walked over to him.

"Distinguished guest, your VIP room number is 63. I'll be your guide for today.

I'll be serving you exclusively during the auction."

The waitress was dressed in a bright red tightly-fitted gown. It was gorgeous and delicate and hugged her body at all the right places, showing off her curves. There was a silver ribbon tied around her waist, accentuating how small it was. Moreover, there was a slit in her gown under which her snow-white legs peeped out every time she took a step forward. And finally, the small smile on her face made her look confident and charming. All in all, she looked sexy and seductive from head to toe. Any man would fall for her. Sure enough, as she led Austin to room 63, many of the men they passed by turned their heads around to ogle at her. They all looked at Austin with envy for being lucky enough to get this waitress.

Of course, Austin didn't even notice them. As he followed the waitress to his private room, all he could focus on was the twist of her tiny waist and how sexy she looked from the back. He was completely attracted to her.

Austin's luxury box was over 300 square meters in size with a luxurious carpet on the floor. The walls were thick and soundproof.

Many special metals had been used to block outsiders from eavesdropping. This was the reason the Ganges Auction House was so successful and had branches all over the Violet Orchid Empire—it really paid attention to all the details.

waitress poured some tea for Austin and set everything up for him, intentionally bending over and twisting her waist would get any could barely resist the temptation of such a seductive himself to ignore all the hints that she was dropping and suppressed in Room 63 in the VIP area, was a crowd near the clearing in Flaming Sun Valley where Austin had killed more than a dozen people. In front of the old man, a young man in a yellow shirt was kneeling on old man walked back and forth in the clearing where Raymond had been killed, as if checking obvious that after the disciples of the Flaming Sun Valley, including Raymond, Madden, and Rankin, had been killed by Austin, their bodies had been devoured by wild he looked at one of the skeletons. He squatted down and gently picked up the incomplete bones as tears

the Chief Elder sad and desolate over the loss back to the valley for a proper burial," red cloth bag. They carefully picked up Raymond's bones one by one and put

and said, "Chief middle-aged man was a steward in the Flaming Sun Valley. Dwayne had come here with three stewards and more than a dozen elite figures from the Flaming Sun Valley, most of whom were here is the sign of the array! I think Raymond and the others were killed in an attack of an array," said a charming middle-aged woman, another steward from the right. Raymond was indeed killed in an attack of an array," Dwayne said, moved his cold eyes to the young man in what's going voice was quiet with suppressed

Elder, I was separated from Raymond at the entrance of Ganges Auction House.

a

And why did Raymond go after know the reason. I didn't dare to ask me to find an inn in Peace Town and come back, so I came here looking for Raymond. That's when was afraid that I would be punished by you when I returned to the valley, so I didn't dare

my loyalty to the Flaming Sun

He had always been an extreme person, and the had brought along the elite members of the

"Austin?"

He kept repeating the name with his eyes full of resentment.

"Do you know who Austin is?"

Chief Elder, I really do not know."

The disciple in the yellow shirt trembled on the ground. Every disciple in the Flaming Sun Valley knew that their leader had a bad temper and was unreasonable.

"Wow, you're really useless," the Chief Elder said coldly, his lips turning up into a sneer.

"Please spare my life. Please spare my life!"

The disciple in the yellow shirt was so frightened that he began kowtowing.

"Chief, I know Austin's identity," said a voice all of a sudden.

One of the disciples in the crowd stepped forward and looked at Dwayne. He was none other than Weaver, who had gotten beaten up by Austin in front of the entrance of Lotus Tavern.

He would definitely recognize Austin as soon as he saw him.

Weaver didn't have a good cultivation base but he was good at flattery. In the Flaming Sun Valley, he had been the most trusted follower of Raymond. Every time Raymond went out, he had always taken Weaver with him.

But since Weaver had had to spend several months in Flaming Sun Valley to recover after being beaten up by Austin, he hadn't been with Raymond this time. Otherwise, he would be dead too.

The Chief Elder of the Flaming Sun Valley had specifically asked Weaver to come along because he thought that Weaver would know something about this incident that he didn't. And now, it turned out that he was right.

"You know it? Good, very good. Tell me."

The Chief Elder couldn't wait to find out.

"Austin is an outer disciple of the Sun Sect. He's insolent and has always acted tyrannically. He beat up Raymond and his disciples for no reason.

He's the one who broke my arm. I had to rest for two months before I recovered.

Raymond's death must have something to do with him."

"Austin is just an outer disciple of the Sun Sect?

How dare an outer disciple of the Sun Sect kill my grandson? Even Theon, the head of the Sun Sect, would respect me.

Anyway, fine! Let's go to the Sun Sect. I will see how Theon is going to explain this to me!"

The Supreme God

Chapter 279 The Auction (Part One)

The foot of the Sun Mountain was bearing witness to a lot of hustle and bustle right now.

Red flood-dragon horses, about a dozen in number, could be seen galloping from a mile away, swift as the wind. Before long, they reached the mountain and came to a halt in the blink of an eye. The man leading this company of horses was the Chief Elder of the Flaming Sun Valley, and his name was Dwayne.

The red flood-dragon horse was a rare saddle horse which had earned its name because its head resembled the flood dragon and its body looked like a horse. It could travel tens of thousands of miles a day and was originally a level three diabolic beast. People had managed to tame a number of them and now, they were used as saddle horses.

Evidently, a horse-like body didn't mean it being a horse, and the red flood-dragon horse, even with its equine body, was still so expensive that only very large sects could afford it.

Besides, not everyone had the ability to tame a level three diabolic beast.

Although there were a small number of red flood dragon horses in Sun Sect, they were reserved for the six Elders and the Sect Leader only.

Austin was not qualified to ride them, nor was anyone else regarding that, even though he had already become a principal disciple.

The horses had come near the Sun Mountain. Dwayne had mobilized half of the red flood-dragon horses in the Flaming Sun Valley in his search for the man who had killed his grandson.

The horses were quite conspicuous wherever the riders went and drew a lot of attention. Therefore, as soon as the company arrived at the foot of the Sun Mountain, the disciples guarding the door immediately noticed them and sprang to attention.

Still seated on his horse, Dwayne ordered them in a loud voice, "Go to Elder Jaime of your sect. Tell him that his old friend Dwayne is waiting for him."

The guards were surprised to know that their sect was being visited by people from the Flaming Sun Valley. The latter was quite famous and acknowledged to be far superior to Sun Sect itself. What business could these men have?

Also, there were a dozen men in the team, and each of them was riding a red flood-dragon horse. Clearly, they were very powerful and must have been famous in their own sect.

Thinking about all this, the guards didn't want to mess with the company and immediately sent the message he was ordered to.

After a short while, a short but shrewd old man with flashing eyes rushed out of the door to greet the company.

to see you! I can't believe you've come the six prominent Elders of you to say so. I hear that the disciples in Sun Sect are quite extraordinary. Today, I have come here in person just about his tone that left Jamie flabbergasted.

name! We have been friends for decades, and I will certainly not be partial to our disciples. I am the Chief Elder of the Flaming Sun Valley and was extremely powerful. In fact, it had to. As for the disciples he had mentioned, he really didn't care who they were. There were tens of thousands of disciples in the Sun Sect, and it didn't matter if they lost one or let him do whatever he wanted to. As far as he face softened after he big of a deal. Is there an outer disciple named

"Austin?"

the name.

But Austin

A principal disciple. No teeth when have to ask. Is Austin the one dropped all pretenses,

and his face twisted astonishment at the news.

he was also secretly happy to hear that.

I don't have to lift a finger to make that

Sun Sect and won favor with the top leaders. Much as he had issues the grandson of the Chief Elder of the Flaming Sun

"What? Austin was so bold that he dared to hurt your grandson! Dwayne, to be frank, Austin is a notorious bully in the Sun Sect, and he is showing no signs of stopping his campaign to do evil.

I am sure as hell going to report this to our Sect Leader and ask him to expel this vicious maniac who slaughtered the innocent at will and tarnished the reputation of Sun Sect. Once he is out, he is at your disposal!"

Jaime tapped his chest and said.

Dwayne was pleased to hear him say so. He nodded in satisfaction at his friend's proposal and replied, "That's very good. Thank you Jaime, for your help."

Jaime nodded his head and invited the company up to the mountain where the Sun Sect was situated.

...

In Peace Town, outside the Ganges Auction House, five murderous, brutal, and cruel men smelled blood and entered the Ganges Auction House.

"Are you sure that Austin is inside the Ganges Auction House?"

One of them asked another in a low voice.

"Yes." The man replied. They were members of the Blood Wolf Team. "We have several hidden spies lurking in the Ganges Auction House and they found Austin's name in the guest register. According to our friends, Austin is inside today!"

"Okay then. Let's get inside and find out where he is. When the auction is over, we will follow him.

Oh, almost forgot. We can also see if there is something in the auction that interests us." The man grinned.

Ganges Auction House was the most famous, largest, and the one having the most widespread chain of auction houses in the entire Violet Orchid Empire. It had branches almost everywhere.

In fact, one could say that it was monopolizing the auction house business in the whole empire.

"Sure. It's a good chance for us to look around and see what the Ganges Auction House has to offer. What I am wondering is, Austin is a mere nobody at the Energy Gathering Realm and we are five Wolf Generals. So why has our leader sent us to kill such a weakling? It's a waste of our talents doing such a petty job. Why did he make such a fuss over this trifle? Anyone could have killed him.

The Supreme God

Chapter 280 The Auction (Part Two)

Anyway, if we can find a couple of treasures in the auction, it will be a worthwhile trip for us."

The five men entered inside.

...

Inside room 63 of the Ganges Auction House, Austin was busy in his meditation and his eyes were closed. He had been sitting like this for a while now and the maidservant was angry and resentful at his nonchalant manner. He had been acting like a monk or a hermit.

'Damn! What kind of guest am I stuck with? Is he a eunuch or something? Why the hell isn't he reacting to all my seduction efforts?' She thought furiously.

The maidservants in the VIP area were officially paid to serve the guests. But the tips they received far outweighed their salaries if they could satisfy those guests through sex.

As the ticket to enter the VIP area of the auction house could only be afforded by the very rich, the maids were sure to receive highly generous rewards for their efforts.

But this particular maid hadn't expected that she would encounter a guest that day who was completely oblivious to her honey-trap.

Ding-dong! Ding-dong!

The bell rang out through the hall of the auction house and its resounding tinkling sound could be heard across the whole building, which was extremely large in size. The hubbub of the crowd gradually waned and gave way to a calm and anxious silence. Everyone turned their eyes towards the center of the hall where a crystal platform was situated. Their gazes were filled with anticipation and enthusiasm.

"Ho ho ho! Hello, everyone! I am sure that you all are getting impatient. So, I will skip the cliched opening lines and start the auction directly."

before. His eyes ran down the hall which was packed with a dense crowd, and a wide

VIP area

reverberated through guests really wanted to see and hear and was aware of what they didn't like. Therefore, he cut off the crap of greetings and got straight to applause burst out on his first dialogue only. The old man faces. They were all extremely rich

This is an auction by the Ganges Auction House. I assure his hands, and announced, "Now I declare, the auction of huge crystal platform, as in size and glittering coldly under the harsh stage lighting, slowly rose up from the table that lay before the old man. The aura that surrounded this sword sent shivers down some people's spines. It it's extremely powerful! It is made out of dark steel buried under the sea for tens of through butter. Did I mention that there is a level three diabolic of water or ice nature, this sword is a perfect weapon to battle sure you are, don't be stingy with your money today. Money is precious, but you have in his hand and gave it a shake. Cold air began to rise from the sword and formed wispy mists around it. He turned towards the crowd and remarked a diabolic core within muttered. He didn't have Sword. The Cold Blade Sword was indeed very rare and very powerful, but it was in no way, better than the Violet Royal Sword.

he had bought this item, he would possess two similar swords, which would be totally unnecessary and a complete waste of his money. Although Austin had a lot of vital energy crystals with him, he still had to pay for the materials he was going to use to cultivate the third stage of the Overlord Body-refining Formula. Moreover, Austin had planned that once he had enough money, he would also purchase the materials for the fourth stage, or even the fifth stage of the that formula. It

So, now was not the time to squander his vital energy crystals.

Therefore, Austin didn't have the slightest intention to bid for the sword.

He knew better than anyone else that the best item was always shown last in such situations.

However, Austin's lack of interest did not mean no one was interested in the sword.

A good weapon to a warrior was like a herbal pot to a pill refiner. They were both indispensable and the higher in power and ranking, the better.

So, after the old man's words sank in, the bidding amount rose steeply and several times.

After several rounds, the Cold Blade Sword finally fell in the hands of a lanky man with a humongous price of six hundred thousand vital energy crystals.

After the first item was successfully auctioned, a dazzling array of treasures appeared on the table one by one for auction; precious armors, martial arts skills, cultivation methods, herbs and many other paraphernalia.

Most surprising of all, one of the items for auction turned out to be a beautiful lady. Austin's jaws dropped open when the girl was brought onto the stage.

She looked very young, most probably at the tiny age of twelve or thirteen. But her body shape was insane!

A G-Cup glamour teenage girl! She blushed scarlet at the numerous gazes boring into her.

The appearance of this gorgeous and beautiful girl immediately brought out the animal lust that was hidden inside the men present there. They became horny and seemed ready to pounce on her at any time.

In the end, the girl was sold for four hundred thousand vital energy crystals. The insane count of zeroes in the number made the old man conducting the auction grin from ear to ear. Austin calmly looked at those ugly men through the crystal screen in his room. He was sitting still with his eyes slightly closed, waiting for the item that would attract him.

