

The Supreme God

Chapter 351 Outstanding Talents Exchange Games (Part Two)

Although I have such a high cultivation base and can be an outstanding one among the young cultivators of the Violet Orchid Empire. But I yet to reach the vistas where I can proclaim to be the best one. The one I know, Caden of our Bloody Hero Gang is really powerful and I am not sure if I can defeat him.

At the most, I can try my best to secure a position in the top ten or even the top twenty. I will feel elated if I can have a place in front of so many powerful cultivators," the man replied to the first one.

"Oh? I never knew you were so modest! And that too, with such a high cultivation base. No wonder our seniors have chosen you as the most important disciple," replied the first one.

On Austin's right side, the group of cultivators was in high spirits yet well-behaved. Each one of them was young, about twenty years of age. Apparently, they should belong to a good sect.

Hearing their conversation, Austin learned that they were all cultivators from the Bloody Hero Gang.

The Bloody Hero Gang was one of the five huge sects in the Violet Orchid Empire, with almost the same strength of the Sun Sect.

"What you said is right. The Outstanding Talents Exchange Games is held by the royal family and it must attract all the young cultivators of the Violet Orchid Empire.

It is said that the purpose behind the royal family holding the Game is to help the young and deserving cultivators. If they want to enhance our strength of learning martial arts better, they should pay much more attention to youngsters.

Keeping that in mind, the royal family has made the rule that the age criteria for all the participants in the Game has been restricted to be under twenty-five years of age.

And all the awards of this Game will be offered by the royal family. The royal family owns an unfathomable amount of treasures that could amount to hundreds of times more than an ordinary sect! The awards are really amazing and I think all the cultivators will be tempted to achieve those...' the first man said.

especially that for the top three. I believe it is a dream for most will be awarded three drops of Ancient Magic Liquid, 15 million vital energy crystals, three medium-grade genuine weapons of attack features. He also has the opportunity to select three martial arts manuals in the royal martial arts storage, will be awarded one drop of Ancient Magic Liquid, 10 million vital energy crystals, one low-grade genuine weapon of attack features. He also has the opportunity to select one martial arts manual in the royal martial arts storage, 300 guards, 500 maidservants, 500 other runner up will be awarded 8 million vital energy crystals, the opportunity to select one martial arts manual in the royal martial arts storage, 100 guards, 100 maidservants, 100 other servants and a palace in the location of the royal have the opportunity to enter the Mysterious Nether World for trials and searching treasures. The Mysterious Nether World is a small-type secret location under the royal family palace and it is connected to another world? Is there really any other of the Mysterious Nether World. Except for the members of the royal family,

"Yes, that's true..."

conversation between the disciples of the Bloody Hero Gang, Austin deduced Outstanding Talents Exchange Games were really attractive. Even mysterious place in the whole of Violet Orchid Empire. It was said that there were numerous treasures and good opportunities for cultivators in the Mysterious Nether World. It was been under the control of the royal family and was not open to ordinary people.

opportunity to get access to it this time.

shall I attend the Outstanding it carefully.

Valley and the Blood Wolf Team are trying to chase and kill me within the Violet

But the Violet Orchid Empire is actually under the control of the royal family, which is far stronger than the five big sects. The top three of this Outstanding Talents Exchange Games can win the award of a palace in the area of the royal family's control. This is just what I need at this moment.

Okay. So I will take this opportunity to fight for the championship.' Austin made up his mind quickly.

"Haha! Of course, there will be one position among the top three belonging to our Bloody Hero Gang. I vouch for Caden. He is so powerful and has a good possibility to enter the top three."

"You are right. After all, our Bloody Hero Gang is one of the five big sects. It is normal for the disciples of our sect to secure one position out of the top three."

As the disciples of the Bloody Hero Gang were boasting about themselves...

"Hmp!"

Suddenly, around the left table, a young cultivator with strong aura made a strong remark, "Since when did Caden of the Bloody Hero Gang become someone? In my eyes, he just obtained fame for hollow!

He is not as strong as so many disciples of our Peripatetic Sect. It's only us, the disciples of the Peripatetic Sect can have the capability to cultivate real talents. All the other sects are only small ones.

In my eyes, all the top three positions will be occupied by the disciples of our Peripatetic Sect for sure!

Don't think of yourself to be a great cultivator, you ignorant young people!"

"Oh?"

The Supreme God

Chapter 352 Let's Fight If You're Not Convinced

The warriors of the Bloody Hero Gang, headed by Carter, followed the voice. Fury flashed in their eyes.

Austin tilted his head to look at the young men.

They were about 20 years old, fair-skinned, mostly at the medium stage of the Earth Realm.

Almost everyone in the group was swollen with inordinate arrogance.

"Oh, they are the disciples of the Peripatetic Sect," Austin muttered to himself.

"Well, I know you are strong, but you are not strong enough to occupy all the top three slots. Do you really think there is no other talent in the Violet Orchid Empire apart from you?"

Even the warriors of the Bloody Hero Gang feared the members of the Peripatetic Sect.

"Haha!"

A young man belonging to the Peripatetic Sect laughed disdainfully.

"Since ancient times, the Peripatetic Sect has been the most powerful in the Violet Orchid Empire. If you don't believe me, just wait and watch!"

Austin's brow furrowed as he listened to their conversation.

He thought to himself, 'All the outstanding warriors from every famous sect will attend the Outstanding Talents Exchange Games, so the competition must be very fierce. It won't be so easy to defeat all the young talents in the Violet Orchid Empire and make it to the final three.'

I'm strong enough as I have reached the premium stage of the Earth Realm at such a young age, but the young geniuses of other sects can't be underestimated. I have to look before I leap.'

In addition to the young men of the Peripatetic Sect, there were also other warriors from other sects in the tavern. Soon after the Peripatetic Sect and the Bloody Hero Gang quarreled with each other, the disciples from other sects also kicked up a rumpus because they supported different candidates, so the tavern was full of noise.

However, the imperial capital city was governed by strict law, so the warriors didn't dare to fight with each other, but still parted in discord.

Austin silently ate all the dishes on the table. He patted his stomach and felt half full. He got up, paid the bill, and left.

It was evening when he left the tavern.

The rosy dawn was like a dream, and the starlight was like a poem.

Warriors from different places were rowing on the lake, talking cheerfully with each other.

Mists and waves stretched far into the distance. Beautiful girls were singing merrily and dancing gracefully, entertaining their guests.

But Austin was not interested in such debauchery.

He took out a note from his pocket, on which there was an address.

It was from the teenager that Austin had met in Peace Town. He had asked Austin to assist him in the imperial capital city six months later.

That was why Austin had come to the imperial capital city. He asked passersby about the address and once he was satisfied, he strode away in the direction that had been pointed out to him.

Before long, a large palace-like building came into view.

hall. From the bottom of the steps, ancient trees were planted along the steps, making help but wonder, 'What a splendid house! That teenager must have

How dare you guard shouted just as Austin was his hand, and showed it to quiver in his voice, "I'm so sorry that I

Austin was surprised that guard had addressed him respectfully as "my lord" at the sight of out. Austin remembered that he had been following the teenager in Peace

send someone to Peace Town to invite you here. And was a little embarrassed at the middle-aged had to keep my word,"

a prince's me must have been born with a

the middle-aged man down the steps.

a number of attics, towers, pools with group of beautiful young girls passed by them. As they caught sight of the middle-aged man and Austin, they knelt on both knees to show their eyes were kept fully occupied. He expressed his amazement and wonder. "It seems that you live a rich life

It's nothing, young man," the middle-aged man said with a faint smile.

serve my young master loyally, I promise that you can also live this enviable life. You know, you will have money to if my young master takes the throne, he will grant you the battle to seize the throne, his bright eyes were brilliant with a delicate, elegant room. He said with a smile, "Young man, please take a break first.

to help as promised. It is completely unnecessary to stand on ceremony," Austin said politely, refusing the kind offer that the must. You're our distinguished guest. We can't treat the middle-aged man left with a loud guffaw.

head and stepped into the room for fragrance. Several pictures of beautiful ladies were hanging silks were busy serving good tea, snacks and fruits. When they passed by Austin, they made eyes man, we can give you whatever maidservant hinted rather obviously laughter and refused delicate, tender voice from outside the room reached his ears, "Young swordsman, dinner is ready. My young master sent "Okay. Thank you."

a smile, patted his clothes, and walked out red. Outside the room stood a "Hello, young swordsman."

courtesy. Could we proceed to Austin said softly.

corridors and stopped at the door of a of delicate lanterns hung under the eaves, emitting soft, rosy light.

entrance of the hall. The pleasant smells of rouge and powder, wine and dishes wafted swordsman, this slightly and led the way to the Austin stepped towards the hall after thanking her.

When he reached the entrance, more than a dozen maidservants knelt down together.

"Young swordsman, please come in," they said sweetly.

'What a life the teenager leads!' exclaimed Austin inwardly.

'What does he do? He has so many maidservants to attend to his daily life. He really lives on the fat of the land.'

"Austin! Long time no see!" A voice rang out the moment he entered the hall.

The teenager who had invited Austin to the imperial capital city six months ago at the Lotus Tavern in Peace Town came out to greet him.

"Please come," the teenager said affectionately as he led Austin to a large wooden dining table in the middle of the hall.

The table was tens of meters long and several meters wide. Hundreds of men and women were sitting at it.

As Austin came into view, all of them stared at him up and down.

He could sense the indifference, the fury, and the intimidation in their eyes.

Austin also looked them up and down, studying them as they had done him.

They all had calm breaths and sharp faces. Some had scars on their faces; some had lost their eyes, ears, and noses; some were fierce-looking; and some had swarthy, rough faces. To sum it up, most of them looked ugly.

Surprisingly, all of them had reached the preliminary stage of Earth Realm.

"Austin, they are also my distinguished guests. I had to try very hard to get them to join me. Together with you, they will help me complete my great cause," the teenager explained.

"Right. It's time to tell you my real name. My name is Reuben Qin," the teenager introduced himself.

"Hi, Reuben," Austin greeted Reuben politely.

Before Reuben could say anything, three strong-looking young men and a woman with a large head and big ears stood up at the same time.

The woman said in a voice dripping with sarcasm, "My lord, I heard that you had recruited a sect disciple in Peace Town. But he's so unexpectedly young and inexperienced, like a suckling baby. My lord, you should know that you will contend with other princes for the throne. Why do you recruit such a good-for-nothing boy?"

"Ha-ha!"

The other people in the hall burst into laughter.

"My lord, let him go! Look at him. He's too frail to stand a gust of wind. How can he fight?"

Reuben was embarrassed. He explained to Austin in a low voice, "I'm so sorry, Austin. These warriors are capable. They know no fear of death and kill people like flies. They are arrogant, unyielding and beyond control. Well..."

As a matter of fact, Reuben had an axe to grind.

He wondered how Austin would solve this problem. He was too smart not to jump at the chance though.

Austin's lips hardened and an angry mask shadowed his face as the other warriors looked down upon him.

Soon a vicious sneer curled the corners of his mouth.

He spat out, "You're mere rabble!" He then turned to Reuben and said, "My lord, this bunch of bums can't help you achieve what you want. I'll eliminate the dregs which will only waste refinement resources today!"

After a pause, he gave the others a look of death and added, "Let's fight if you're not convinced."

The Supreme God

Chapter 353 Building Prestige (Part One)

Austin came along with Reuben to his palace where Reuben gave a banquet and welcomed Austin. However, during the dinner, three strong young men and a fat woman suddenly stood up and attempted to challenge Austin.

However, he still couldn't understand why Reuben didn't stop them. It seemed as if Reuben only wanted to see how he would deal with the situation.

Honestly, the cultivation base of all the young people around the table had already reached the Earth Realm. Austin's cultivation base was ahead of most of them since he was already at the premium stage of Earth Realm. He also had used his Magical Aura-changing skill to hide the fluctuation of his vital energy and real cultivation base.

These men and women looked down at Austin since he seemed to be too young to have cultivated senior levels of martial arts.

On the other hand, most of the audiences were eager to see Austin make a fool of himself by confronting the three young men and a woman at the same time.

'Haha! I was under the impression that this dinner was held especially to welcome my arrival. It turns out I'm wrong.

It's fine. I know that I can't talk with any sense to warriors. It's only after winning that people will listen to you. Only the best warriors can give orders and expect his orders to be obeyed.

I have to teach them a lesson if I want to stay here, safe and sound, ' Austin thought to himself helplessly.

With these thoughts in his mind, Austin decided to focus on fighting and winning as they were the things he needed now. Being kind and nice to everyone could be futile at this point.

and elegant Austin at this situation. Thus, he had to show his other side, the ferocious and aggressive warrior. It would you just come over here and confront me if you have something from him as it covered the man. How dare you consider killing us? You're the three young men and a woman who had looked down on him. They were snorting as his words had irritated them to the hilt. How dared this young man threaten them like this was a big blow to their reputation.

man a warriors' mind, the woman with a big head and huge ears attacked Austin first. She released her medium stage of Earth Realm vital energy and roared with so much anger. She jumped and plunged to Austin like a hungry tiger ready to kill her prey. Kicking her legs, the air between her and Austin exploded with a deafening sound. Countless fireballs ignited between her legs and began flying towards feet were suddenly coming to Austin from every possible direction.

"Wind-fire Kick!"

to have been perfected by molten iron and copper, shining with cold light. They were both sharp and indestructible. There was no doubt that they looked terrifying as her rich vital energy surrounded them. It

igniting flames

mastered. Killing ten elephants within a minute would be easy if they were touched by her flame. Thus, those warriors who knew her skill and viciousness chose to keep a long

It's awesome that she can kick her feet with a strength of ghost fire she created with her feet may be poisonous, but then, my Golden Sun Scripture is capable of neutralizing this kind

She isn't capable of even hurting me a bit. She's just making a fool of herself publicly. What a harmless, fat, ugly woman she is!' thought Austin while rolling his eyes and adding, 'Okay. I'll fight with her if that's what she wants. I need all the people here to know who I am anyway, so defeating her can be useful.'

Austin stayed calm as he watched countless feet covered with ghost fires approached him. All that could be read on his face was his contempt for this woman's useless skill.

It was just a few seconds before the fat woman's feet touched him that Austin suddenly stretched out his hand and stroke her feet, releasing a strength that was more than 8, 000 kilograms. His movement created a gale that was strong enough to tear the air between them.

Bang!

Came a deafening sound.

A pair of feet and a pair of hands collided violently, followed by cracks coming from breaking bones.

Not a split-second and the fat woman's painful scream was heard.

She had fractured her feet!

Worse, the impact of what happened sent her flying away. Blood spurted from her fractured feet as broken bones could be seen. She tried to stand up but failed. She did it again but it was useless.

Meanwhile, countless locusts were flying across the room towards Austin. No, they were not locusts at all but ghost fires. Ghost fires could engulf and destroy everything they touched and there was no way to prevent it. With the look of it, it seemed that Austin was really destined to die here. Burnt to toast.

The Supreme God

Chapter 354 Building Prestige (Part Two)

All the ghost fires surrounded Austin and exploded at once. The ignition of each one set Austin's whole body to flames.

However, there was not even a single strand of panic that could be seen on Austin's face. He even smiled coldly at them. It was then that a golden light appeared and engulfed him, giving him the best protection.

Those ghost fires, deadly as they were, could do nothing to harm Austin.

They seemed to have confronted their mortal enemy.

A few moments later and whatever was left of the flames evaporated.

There was nothing left of Austin's clothing.

Series of deep breaths resonated all over the place as the audiences were all dumbfounded.

They couldn't believe the horrible nightmare happening before their eyes. How could this be possible?

How could a regular guy defeat a warrior from the medium stage of Earth Realm with just a single move?

More so, Austin didn't even bother to use anything more than just his human strength to defeat the fat woman's ghost fire.

That explained why Austin was so arrogant and proud. The young man's body was simply indestructible. He both had impenetrable defense and super-human strength. There was no doubt that he could easily crash and destroy anyone who was from the medium stage of Earth Realm with just one move.

Young as he was, Austin must have been cultivating martial arts before he was even born for him to make such impressive progress in such a short period of time.

the maximum extent

addition, many other methods could quicken the process of body refining, such as taking spiritual drugs or soaking the body in a special bath. Many warriors thought little of the body refining skills and despised any warrior who used them. Thus, they concluded Austin to be someone opportunistic for that he was much better than people know that desired results could be produced faster with the body refining skills. It wasn't the universally accepted method used for cultivating martial arts and therefore was abandoned they might not improve their skill anymore once they reached their body refining limits. That would be the miserable ending the vital energy. Nothing else but the vital energy could help human beings reach new levels of martial audience admired his fighting skill even after defeating the fat lady. They understood the advantages and disadvantages and inexperienced. Although he could be a good warrior and fighter by refining his body to vital energy was for? Kill me now! I've dedicated ten years

dark red blood

she instantly

What's wrong with have always been treating her like a precious pearl in my hand! Who the will kill you to be Monica's brother. He promised to shouted and

He applied his vital energy to his fist and ran with the maximum speed. His desperation and accumulated, his fist was unstoppable

"Die!"

Howling sound of wolves coming from hell filled the place.

At the same time, the man reached out a hand at Austin's direction and suddenly, a giant wolf of 8 meters in length and 4 meters in height appeared and pounced on Austin.

Austin measured the man's strength and concluded that he must be at the medium stage of Earth Realm.

Since Austin himself had already entered the third stage of Overlord Body-refining Formula, he believed that he was capable of resisting attacks from warriors of the preliminary stage of Earth Realm.

Besides, he also owned a flesh body that was capable of handling 8,000 kilograms of strength. Same as this beast!

He wondered what would happen if he chose to attack them first. Moreover, he was suddenly curious if his body could take an equally strong attack just like what this Wolf-meteor Fist had.

Austin hated to expose his other unique skills.

It would be worthless to defend himself and argue with the other warriors there since they already considered him naive and obsessed with body refining.

Being adventurous had always been one of Austin's good natures. After he made up his mind, he acted without any hesitation.

He didn't believe that a warrior of the medium stage of Earth Realm was capable of blowing him to death.

His vital energy cultivation at the premium stage of Earth Realm actually made him capable of neutralizing some of his enemies' attacks.

Calmly, Austin clenched his fist and stretched his arm. He then released a strength of 8,000 kilograms and without a word, punched the wolf pouncing upon him.

Bang!

The banqueting house trembled a bit, throwing some of the cups, plates, knives, and chopsticks off the table.

The Supreme God

Chapter 355 A Busybody (Part One)

Austin took a few steps back before he could steady himself.

Apart from the dull aching pain in his arms and a slight tightness in his chest, his heartbeat had also accelerated a little.

Otherwise, his body was unharmed.

He had resisted a stroke from a warrior who was at the medium stage of the Earth Realm with just his flesh and nothing else!

'It looks like this lad's body is hard as nails!

But I'll see to it that I ruin his prospects for further cultivation.

As of now, there's no denying that his battle skills aren't inferior to any other youth here!

"Let's see how many punches you can survive, boy!"

Unwilling to accept that his full-scale blow had been blocked, the young man roared and went to throw another punch.

'I just meant to demonstrate my power! I have no intention to keep fighting with you, ' he snorted.

Austin suddenly disappeared. Like an apparition, he appeared the next second in front of the young man, faces almost touching.

There had been a dozen meters separating them, but Austin's moving to stand before the young man in the blink of an eye left the young man reeling a little.

"You..."

The young man had not yet thrown his punch when he found Austin standing before him. Dumbstruck, his reaction was slower than Austin's next move.

An extremely horrifying coolness rose from the bottom of his heart, spreading along his arms and legs. 'Is this man a ghost?'

lost in a trance, Austin focused all his extraordinary power into his hands, grabbed the young man's right arm and pulled it directly, putting in 8000 pounds of force into the

"Fizzing!"

was ripped off his shoulder and blood poured down like

"Ouch!"

scream was heartbreaking to splashing blood. He looked around with his hands on his back, pride written largely on his will spare his life because I do not want my skill, please step

Seckill!

without a young man within seconds, using his physical a primitively bloody scene to make sure that they were overawed and the medium stage of Earth Realm with bloody violence is other two young men who had stood up to provoke and throw out Austin were almost at the same level cultivation base had just reached the preliminary stage of Earth Realm, lowered and glanced at the young man and woman who were writhing on the ground. The bloody scene of the one-armed man and the footless woman shocked him as the turned to sneak a glance at Austin, but found cruelty glittering in his sharp

the two young men returned to their

"Hmm?

my ability

lips on an otherwise

all of whom were silent and still, looking at Austin in fearful silence seemed to drag on be easy for me to defeat these two men in the snap of a finger. But why should I behave like a savage?' he asked himself, a strength levels turned the matter over a sort of body-refining formula to the peak. His bodily movement skill is as swift as a ghost. With such physical strength and demonstrate their own power, decided not

Prince Reuben noted that Austin had overwhelmingly defeated his challengers.

"Such a talent!" he muttered with great delight.

The other warriors considered Austin as being only physically strong with his vital energy cultivation base at the Energy Gathering Realm.

Reuben had had no doubt that Austin had reached the preliminary stage of the Earth Realm in his vital energy cultivation base when he had encountered Austin in Peace Town. And now, he was awed to discover that Austin was also a master cultivator of the body-refining and the bodily movement skill!

Austin had crossed Reuben's expectations by defeating warriors who were at the medium stage of Earth Realm without any difficulty. As he thought this, a great joy filled his heart.

His admiration for Austin grew in leaps and bounds.

Laughing excitedly, he stepped forward and grasped Austin's hands tightly with all the enthusiasm he could manage.

"Alright, alright, friends. Take it easy. What just happened was an incident of little importance. Come here, let us enjoy our drinks!"

Reuben led Austin to be seated right next to him. It was obvious that Reuben was determined to get Austin's support.

Austin didn't protest and complying with the wishes of the host, took his seat beside Reuben.

"Wow! Look how haughty he is, so intoxicated by success."

"An arrogant man with no manners." . . .

Several guys sitting across from Austin snorted and sneered at him.

Their murderous intentions were revealed just for a split-second, but that was enough for Austin to get an idea of how they all felt.

Austin's spiritual sense had already reached an extremely high level, surpassing most warriors in the Mysterious Realm. The ability to sense and the soul strength he possessed were also much higher than any commoner, which is why Austin was able to gauge the unfriendly atmosphere in a heartbeat.

As Austin looked up again, he found several young men sitting across from him looking at him in what could only be blatant hostility.

'Now what?' Austin thought, his anger beginning to flare again.

The Supreme God

Chapter 356 A Busybody (Part Two)

He glared back at them, his eyes sharp and fierce.

"Do you have any complaints about me?"

If you do feel resentful towards me, then step forward and air your views openly. Nobody dared come forward and slug it out when I asked earlier.

Why wait until now to show me your true faces?"

Do you really think me that good-tempered to take everything lying down?"

Austin had jumped to his feet as he had started speaking, his eyes fixed pointedly upon the hostile young men sitting opposite to him.

Reuben, watching Austin's facial expressions, interrupted him as the silence began to weigh down on them.

"Take it easy, brother. They are also my guests. We'd better not hurt our friendship, Brother Austin, please let me introduce them to you," Reuben continued after a pause.

"This is swordsman Dougie, who comes from an aristocratic martial arts family in P City.

This is swordsman Cyrus from the Joy Gang.

Swordsman Robbie, an independent cultivator with a solid cultivation base.

And swordsman Hassan who is a principal disciple of the Peripatetic Sect."

"Oh?"

Austin looked around as Reuben introduced them to him.

These were the four people who had just sneered at Austin.

Now, they were just sullenly staring at Austin.

Dougie was a handsome young man of about twenty years old, with a fair complexion and gentle temperament. He looked like a scholar who was well-read in the classics. But a sinister and sly spark shone through his narrow, slit-like eyes. His vital energy cultivation base belonged to the premium stage of Earth Realm.

that was tied on his back was telling about his ability in swordsmanship. His vital energy cultivation base was just at the medium stage of the Earth Realm. But when seen along with his half-concealed sword aura, he was at a high level in the hideous scar in the shape of a centipede that ran around the corners of his mouth, along to cover his mouth as he coughed from time to time. Even though Austin felt the fluctuation of his

Austin, am I

with a smile.

power at such

really think that is enough for you to be supercilious and treat us like have wise counsel for means, go ahead

deadpan. "Please feel free

Since you like to go straight to the topic, I will not beat about Dougie spoke slowly.

bodily movement skill, you are already incredible to seckill ordinary warriors at the two people who you just Realm. You beat them so easily because their realm

it. You have no reason to feel so more than enough to serve as a normal warrior has many martial experts who are much better than you.

nerve to agree to Reuben's invitation and sat down beside him just has both the talent and the moral integrity is you? You have overrated your own abilities.

take my counsel. You'd better

I got it! Ha

out laughing.

it now. Turns out you guys were just envious of the fact that Prince Reuben asked me to came here to answer Reuben's call. And you are jealous help but laugh at Dougie's say to you as we are

"Oh?"

Dougie said sarcastically, his voice cold as ice. He was already furious at how Austin was taking this so casually, but his words had cut through Dougie.

"Go ahead with whatever you have to say."

"Brother Dougie, you need to mind your own business!"

Austin teased.

"Anyway, I would like to sit beside Reuben tonight! So what?"

BANG!

Dougie jumped to his feet and slammed his hand on the table. His face turned blue with rage.

"I can't believe you're fool enough to reject an offer that would save your face!" Dougie all but yelled.

Accompanied by a roaring, Dougie's vital energy force that was at the premium stage of the Earth Realm cultivation base, spread out and engulfed Austin.

Austin stared at Dougie without any trace of fear.

"Calm down, my friends! Please take it easy. For my sake!"

Reuben said, half nervous, half exasperated.

"Pretty good, Austin. But for now, I won't fight with you. For Reuben's sake," Dougie glared at Austin coldly as he seated himself again.

Mirroring Dougie's action, the other three men also sat back down.

Then the feast began as Reuben clapped his hands. Many beautiful young women came up and served them with delicacies and wine, their slender figures clothed by gauze towels as thin as a cicada's wings.

As they walked, they looked like catkins in the wind, weak and boneless. When the warriors' eyes fell upon them as they served food, they sometimes reacted coquettishly and some other times, pretended to coldly reject them. They had softened every male warrior's heart with their enchanting smiles and slender, sexy figures. The men could hardly control their desire and lust.

Austin also felt his body relent at the sight of these attractive young women. At the same time, he marveled at Reuben's luxurious life that was filled with music, women, and sensual pleasures.

The feast went on for more than an hour before it finally ended.

The Supreme God

Chapter 357 The Mysterious Nether World (Part One)

At the welcoming feast held for him, Austin intimidated the other young cultivators. There was no one who wasn't affected by his presence or who was unaware of his power.

Seeing Austin's prowess as a cultivator, Reuben was quite enthusiastic to meet him. He even raised a toast in his honor at the feast, attempting to win Austin over.

"Austin, please come with me," Reuben whispered in Austin's ear as the feast was coming to an end.

Austin was puzzled, but he gave a slight nod and followed Reuben quietly.

Reuben took Austin to a side hall guarded by three middle-aged men possessing steady auras. Their cultivation base of vital energy had already reached the premium stage of Earth Realm.

Austin was pondering over all that he had seen. He couldn't stop wondering, 'Reuben's house is a palace, and he lives in considerable luxury. What's more! He has guards who are in the premium stage of Earth Realm to protect him. Looks like he has powerful backing.'

Reaching a spot far away from the rest, Reuben asked Austin to sit down.

"I've got a present for you, Austin. I hope you'll accept it," Reuben informed him with a smile.

"That's very kind of you, Your Highness," Austin replied politely.
"Thank you."

Austin instantly understood that Reuben was actually trying to lure and buy him, hoping that he would work for him.

Austin didn't say no or reject the proposal impulsively. He wanted to see what Reuben was going to use or offer him to solicit his services!

welcoming feast that evening, all the cultivators he met were young, around 20 years old. He speculated that Reuben was times, signaling his servants

the present

hands, slowly stepped into the side hall from the sides. Their movements were gentle and graceful. The moment they walked in, a sweet seductive fragrance filled the side hall. It was a heavenly five girls. They were all under the age of 18, but their bodies were perfectly developed—soft, curvy figures and ample breasts that looked as if they had been squeezed to stay best of the best and were to describe the five girls as natural beauties with heavenly fragrance that could excite any and knelt said in a clear voice, pointing towards vital energy crystals, bottles of magical pills and a batch of elixirs, only for you. Among the magical pills, there are some Body-Strengthening Elixirs refined by the pill-refining guru in imperial capital city, which is specially designed for cultivators who concentrate on practicing in satisfaction and hope he looked at Austin and said, was a vague and calm smile on his face as he waited for part, they know a lot about sex. They are good at pushing the joy of sex to the extreme. And they're all virgins... I'll give them to you too. From now on, they will be your slaves, and you may treat them as it pleases you and allow them to render their services and give you pleasure. How do you to say to at the same time. They had no the

at the pretty girls, Austin martial arts. So, I have to spend most of my time and energy on cultivation and in the pursuit of a higher realm. Although I can't say that I am undisturbed when

"Aha?"

Reuben was stunned to hear Austin's words.

"Austin, you're really an outstanding man of strong will. Excellent! With your single-minded focus on martial arts, your achievements are bound to be extraordinary.

Ha ha! Knowing someone like you has made my trip to Peace Town worthwhile.

To tell you the truth, I've presented the same gift to the young cultivators you saw this evening at the feast. Unlike you, at the sight of millions of vital energy crystals and the fabulous maidens, most of them had their eyes lit up with ecstasy, and they immediately promised to serve me with all their heart.

You are truly different from them. I also noticed that when you saw two million vital energy crystals, you were unmoved as if they were dirt. Then you turned down these five fabulous maidens without hesitation. You've really impressed me, Austin!"

Austin resisted the temptation so as to concentrate on cultivating. This made Reuben repeatedly compliment him and express admiration.

For young men like Austin, who were full of vigor and vitality, wealth and beauties were what they dreamed of, yearned for, worshiped and desired.

Austin's focus on martial arts made Reuben regard him as a cultivator of higher value.

"Wow! Your Highness, this is really flattering. You called me alone to this side hall after the feast, and served me wealth and beauties. There must be a reason for this. Just tell me what it means, Your Highness."

Austin came straight to the question without beating around the bush.

"Ha ha! Austin, you're really an outspoken man. Well, I won't hide it anymore," Reuben remarked with a soft laugh.

The Supreme God

Chapter 358 The Mysterious Nether World (Part Two)

"Austin, you addressed me as Your Highness like other young cultivators, but you don't know who I am. Do you? I think now it's time to tell you. Austin, you might be aware that the current Emperor of the Violet Orchid Empire is Emperor Arthur. The Emperor has ten sons, and I am the youngest one. In the imperial capital city, everyone calls me 'Your Highness' when they see me."

"Hiss! Huh!"

Austin gasped uncontrollably. He couldn't believe that Reuben was the youngest son of the current Emperor. He was speechless.

It meant that the young man in front of Austin was actually a prince!

No wonder, Austin saw the houses, food, and furnishings all marked with luxury, dignity, and splendor since he stepped into Reuben's palace.

It was really a life of luxury and extravagance.

Austin soon regained his composure and continued listening to Reuben's story.

"Austin, now that you know my father is the Emperor of the Violet Orchid Empire, I wish to share a few things with you. Soon, one among his ten sons will succeed him as the sovereign of the Violet Orchid Empire.

And according to the royal family's rules, who among the princes will take the throne is decided by a battle. Only the one who wins that battle can become the true successor to the throne.

The directives of each battle for the throne are different, and specific directives are determined and laid out by the present emperor.

The directives of this battle were decided a year ago.

get to know and win over in the Outstanding Talents Exchange Games held in the imperial capital city to the top 50 young people will go on a month-long test of treasure hunting in the Mysterious Nether World, which out and gives it tell you the truth, Her Majesty, my mother, has a strange illness that has left her spiritually confused for years. Only the soul-recovering fruit in the Mysterious Nether throne actually has two purposes: one is to decide on the successor of the

about the causes and effects of what he with complete openness and total honesty. Prince Reuben clearly had this said, "Oh, I see! But there's this strange illness for a long time, and your royal family is in charge of the Mysterious Nether World. The royal family could have sent someone into the Mysterious Nether World to find young talents to go to the Mysterious Nether World in search of and experienced masters to get else that you don't

Reuben smiled softly.

indeed under our royal family's control, yet we can't send anyone into it as mystical and always closed, and can opens every thirty years, and closes after under the age of 25 can enter the Mysterious Nether World. The cultivator who is above the age of 25 is expelled by is extremely strong, and can even wound the most capable cultivator or make them fall

At the same time, for cultivators, the Mysterious Nether World is full of opportunities. There are countless vital energy crystals, magical pills, elixirs, various secret martial art books, many spiritual weapons, even sacred weapons and Secret Weapons.

However, as you know, opportunities are always accompanied by dangers.

The Mysterious Nether World is fraught with dangers. In addition to the treasures that can drive cultivators crazy with greed, there are numerous demonic beasts and diabolic beasts of high-grade. There are all sorts of traps and arrays, and species of exotic creatures that are not found in our world.

It's a place filled with danger and adventure for young people under the age of 25. It presents them a chance to take up risks as well as make use of opportunities." Reuben presented all the facts before Austin.

"Well. I see. If my guess is correct, the real purpose of the Outstanding Talents Exchange Games which the royal family specially holds, is to have the battle for the throne among the princes, and to ask the young talents who achieve the top 50 to search for the soul-recovering fruit in the Mysterious Nether World. Isn't it?"

Austin asked as he felt suddenly enlightened by all those details.

"Yes! You're really smart, Austin.

The Outstanding Talents Exchange Games is actually the battle of the princes to seize the throne and to find the soul-recovering fruit.

However, those young talents who are in the top 50 in the games and qualify to enter the Mysterious Nether World, but are unable to win for any of us, are not given up or abandoned by us. We will definitely try our best to pull them on to our sides after the match.

Honestly, in the Violet Orchid Empire, our royal family is the most powerful in terms of strength. As long as we are willing to pay, there is no talent that we cannot win over."

Reuben said those words with a proud smile. What he said was true! The power of the royal family was indeed superior to all the sects within the empire.

When a prince desired to have someone at his side, only a few young talents could remain unmoved.

The Supreme God

Chapter 359 Two Principal Disciples (Part One)

"That's all about it now, Austin. Now, I have been completely honest with you and told you everything. You can believe me when I swear to you that I have been truthful with you. I have held nothing back.

You can easily defeat warriors at the medium stage of Earth Realm within seconds. I'm very impressed by your strength. I hope you will help me get the throne."

Reuben said and looked at Austin with great sincerity in his eyes. He looked truthful at the moment.

"Your Highness, I'm a man of my word. When I was in Peace Town earlier, I had promised you that I would help you, and I will certainly keep my words. Rest assured that I will be on your side.

Also, I promise you once again that I will try my best to be at least among the top 50 in the Outstanding Talents Exchange Games and obtain the qualification required to enter the Mysterious Nether World. I will find the soul-recovering fruit after I get in there and help you win. I am very sure that you will get the throne," Austin replied in a clear loud voice but in a polite tone.

This was a bold pledge to make, but he said all of this with certainty. He was positively glowing with confidence.

"Okay, with your words, I feel much relieved now. If you have my back, then I am sure that I will win."

Reuben was overjoyed. He seemed terribly impressed by Austin and believed in him a lot.

"Then I won't disturb you further, as you have to rest for now. The Outstanding Talents Exchange Games will kick off in ten days. You are welcome to stay here at my palace until that time and prepare for the fight. You need to be rested and in peak condition to win the fight," Reuben replied and then ordered, "Take Sir Austin back to his room. No one is allowed to disturb him without my permission."

The five maids who had been given the order bowed down.

"Yes, Your Highness."

They slowly got to their feet and escorted Austin out of the hall.

grasping his arms and enthusiastically leading the way for him, Austin gave a wry smile. However, he is indeed extremely talented. I wonder what surprises he'll bring retreating figure gradually disappear into the you think, old man appeared out of nowhere by who were all at the premium stage of Earth Realm got down on one knee and bowed to him in reverence and awe, "Sir was Milton Yu, was in his sixties. His breaths came in fits and starts, as if he had one foot in the grave. However, his eyes looked firm, and would occasionally flash hundreds of young talents you drew over, this one perhaps meaningful smile as he gazed towards the direction in surprised. His habit was that whenever he would hire a young warrior, he would consult the old man in secret. The old was taken aback when he heard that Milton Yu thought so highly of Austin. This high opinion boosted Reuben's confidence in royal prince, Reuben had a residence which was quite magnificent main castle and surrounding it, various winding paths led the sky. A silver moon was hanging like a great luminous pearl on the radiant breast of heaven.

... . .

dressed and intoxicating girls walked with graceful steps, their chiffon skirts fluttering in the night the palace our prince has specially arranged for you. You are at liberty to do anything you like for your cultivation in here. Without the prince's permission, no one is allowed to disturb you," One of the five girls, a pretty one with an oval face told and her coquettish tone would have melted any man's heart. Obviously, these girls had been specially trained how paused for a short while. Her watery eyes shone under

Austin need us

asked with a bewitching smile, her voice tantalizing.

"No," Austin replied nonchalantly and in a short manner.

The ideology of serving any man they were asked to was instilled deep into the bones of these women. They had been taught how to please men from the time they were born. But Austin had no interest in them.

"Very well. The prince has ordered us to serve you in the following ten days. If you need anything, we are here at your disposal."

There was a flash of disappointment in the five maids' eyes once Austin refused, but they didn't dare disobey him. After they took Austin into the palace, they bowed and left.

Austin shut the door before them and walked to a small hall in the palace.

The walls there were embedded with luminous gemstones. Moonlight poured in through the windows and the whole place was bathed in a delicate halo. What an idyllic scene!

"Hmff! The royal family lives such a luxurious life. Damn, we common people could never imagine these things!" Austin heaved a deep sigh.

He had never lived in such a beautiful and comfortable place. It was a totally new experience.

However, there would be time to admire beauty later. For now, he was quite worn out by the long journey to the imperial capital city. He felt fatigued both physically and mentally. He went to sleep early that night and didn't wake up until it was already late in the morning the next day.

... .

According to his plan, there were two things he needed to do after he had gotten in touch with Reuben.

First of all, he had to find the headquarters of the Sky Dragon Elixir Shop in the imperial capital city. That place was his best bet to pick up the materials he needed to cultivate for the fourth stage of the Overlord Body-refining Formula.

Secondly, he needed to try and get in touch with the two girls he had met in C Village and check whether they had arrived there safely or not. Austin had made the two corpse generals escort the two girls and their vehicles back to the city. So once he had made sure of their safe return, he would also take back the two corpse generals.

The Supreme God

Chapter 360 Two Principal Disciples (Part Two)

Both of these corpse generals possessed significant strength. Even Austin himself was not confident that he could beat any of them if he had to go up against them.

The truth was that the ten corpse generals he had gotten from the Ghost Valley were his most powerful combat forces. In all of his arsenal, these two were his most powerful cards.

If he could really manage to get the qualification required to enter the Mysterious Nether World, the ten corpse generals would certainly help him a lot in the fight. He would be like a tiger with wings.

After finishing the lunch and trying out the delicious dishes of numerous kinds that the five beautiful maids brought him, Austin walked briskly out of Reuben's palace and went to look for the headquarters of the Sky Dragon Elixir Shop.

... .

At the Sun Mountain, inside the Sun Sect, there was an area where people could see rows upon rows of pavilions, terraces and towers lined beautifully with eaves turned gracefully upwards.

Easily mistaken for some royal or commercial part, this was the residential area for the disciples of the Sun Sect, who paid a fairly hefty amount of rent. Every house in this area was specially arranged, with pavilions, terraces and towers inside, and flowers, trees and other plants decorating the yards, making the place extremely quiet and elegant. Also, every house was equipped with a small Energy-gathering Array, which could be of great help to the vital energy cultivation of the disciples living inside.

In a spacious yard in one of the houses of this area, two young men were sitting in the garden. However, their spirits seemed to be in contrast to the beautiful house. Something seemed to be bugging them.

"Uggh. I had never expected that it would turn out to be like this for Austin. He was forced to leave the Sun Sect permanently. I really wonder where he has been these past days."

The man who spoke was of a stout figure, looking simple and honest. He was the best friend Austin had in the entire Sun Sect, Evan.

"It's hard to say. Austin has offended the two most powerful groups in the entire empire: the Blood Wolf Team and the Flaming Sun Valley, both at the same time. I heard from Murray that now both of these groups are chasing him to hunt him down.

The Blood Wolf Team and the Flaming Sun Valley are the two top powers in the Violet Orchid Empire. In fact, they are the super powers that no one dares to challenge.

hope Tin can make it through safe and sound," the other man said. He away from Sun Sect and left, Evan and Herbert were quite worried about him. They were like two grumbling housewives, sighing and groaning as they cultivation base has reached the premium stage of Earth Realm. With always had confidence in Austin and he knew in cultivation level. He has made quite a number of breakthroughs and entered the premium stage word I can think of which was quite happy that I entered the eighth level of Energy Gathering Realm in one breath. At that time, Austin was at the ninth level of Energy Gathering Realm. I thought that I had finally managed to me that he would suddenly reach the premium stage of get carried away and did something imprudent in front of him. Otherwise,

He could compete with a few of the Elders of the than me. But when it comes to Austin,

but laugh

"Yes, you're right."

felt his face blush. He was well aware that Evan was telling the do outer disciples Evan and Herbert live a loud voice rang out men in their early twenties arrived in us, but we stood up and asked It's you two. Okay, we are principal disciples of the discuss something with you," one of the young men of the

Evan and Herbert were taken aback.

Principal disciples were the top level disciples in the sect. In fact, among all the disciples, they were elites who enjoyed the most cultivation resources of the sect.

The position of the principal disciple was above all other disciples.

Evan and Herbert couldn't even imagine that two principal disciples would come by and talk to them directly. They felt extremely flattered and didn't know how to react. They were very nervous and bashful and didn't know where to put their hands.

"Haha! It's okay, don't be nervous.

Let me put it this way. I can only tell you this about the friend who asked us to come here: his surname is Lin."

When he disclosed the surname of the person, he suddenly acted mysteriously and intentionally lowered his voice and said it into their ears.

"Lin? Tin!"

Evan and Herbert were confused at first, but they soon got the clue.

"Hush! Simmer down! This is the residential area with several kinds of people around us. It's not a good place to talk. You can follow us to a quiet place and we'll talk about the business at hand," the young man said. His eyes flashed a cunning light, as if celebrating the success of his plan.

"Okay, let's go."

At the hint that these two principal disciples were sent here by Austin, Evan and Herbert agreed without any doubt or hesitation. They immediately followed them and walked out of the house.

The two principal disciples had never expected that their plan would go off so smoothly.

They secretly exchanged glances, with smirks crossing their faces in a sinister sort of way.

