

The Supreme God

Chapter 3521 Save The Premium-grade Divine Gods

All the divine gods around the Fallen Divine Valley had already dispersed.

Trapped in the Fallen Divine Valley for a long time, most of the divine gods grew restless and longed to return to their homes. Therefore, upon regaining their long lost freedom, they rushed to return to their cosmoses.

Meanwhile, not too far off from there was a chaotic void, within it was a broken continent that was left abandoned for many years.

A large group of divine gods were collectively gathered in a place. The atmosphere was lively, with bright faces immersed in drinking.

The sounds of the clinking of glasses filled the air before they gulped down their wines in one shot.

"Freedom never felt so sweet!"

"I agree. Only after being trapped did we realize the true value of freedom!"

"From now on, let's put the Fallen Drive Valley behind us and move on. Let's start anew with a clean slate and a better life!"

Intoxicated with all the alcohol they consumed, the divine gods voiced out their inner thoughts and shared their joy.

At that time, Austin was preoccupied with observing the two restriction spells and three streams of energy in a corner of his Soul Sea.

The two restriction spells and three streams of energy seemed not worth a second glance after all.

However, Austin knew that the energy they contained inside them was nothing short of terrifying.

After all, it was the sky-devouring dog that had put them into his Soul Sea.

'Should I formally acknowledge the sky-devouring dog's master as my mentor?'

Austin collected his thoughts for a brief moment as he pondered over the situation.

"By the way, why aren't there any premium-grade divine gods coming out of the valley? Don't you think that's a little unusual?"

Otis spoke abruptly, interrupting Austin's train of thought.

"Yeah, you're right. It's been two days since we came out and stayed here. They should have made an appearance by now. I wonder what happened to them," Keysley said as he scratched his head in confusion.

"I thought if the premium-grade divine gods also come out of the valley, there was a chance we could find our people.

The most important task assigned to me, Austin, and Ingram was to locate and get a hold of Master Frost and Master Brain in the Fallen Divine Valley. However, we failed to find either of them.

It seems we're in a tough spot where our mission is doomed."

Tyrone hung his head loosely over his neck with a defeated expression on his face.

"Indeed. That's a shame.

That evil baby buried under the Karakoram Mountain on Earth is still in the hatching stage. Perhaps, the time when it will be born is drawing near.

Once it's born, it would bring about nothing but chaos and turmoil, and people would be forced to live in fear with no hope of escape.

Under such devastating circumstances, we need Frost's and Brain's assistance more than ever,"

The moment they united with them, three premium-grade divine gods instantly recognized Otis and the other gods of the light.

Frost, Brain, and Oswald were once hailed to be the top masters in the god of light.

They were only inferior in ranks compared to Parker, Alethea, and Emperor Haidar in strength.

Those medium-grade divine gods including Otis and the preliminary-grade divine gods were the subordinates of the three of them.

"Sirs, what took you so long?"

Is it because the competition just ended?"

Otis asked giving in to his curiosity of their absence.

"Competition? What are you talking about?"

Frost, Brain and Oswald exchanged confused glances among themselves before eyeing Otis up in bewilderment over his question.

Noticing their dilemma, Otis went ahead and explained to them what he meant.

"It turns out that you are all qualified to leave the Fallen Divine Valley once you succeed in a competition.

But I didn't come across such a competition.

I had been trapped in a land of death. Not too long ago, a voice echoed through my ears and asked me if I am a god of light from the three thousand big and small universes.

Naturally, I nodded along and replied with a yes.

Shortly after our brief exchange of words, I was sent out,"

Frost explained.

"Me too,"

Brain and Oswald spoke in unison.

"The three of us were released just because we are the gods of light. It doesn't make any sense,"

Brain said as he tilted his head in confusion.

Meanwhile, the voice of the sky-devouring dog rang out in Austin's Soul Sea.

"I released all the people you asked me to."

"Thank you, sir. I appreciate your help,"

Austin said gratefully as he cupped his hands and bowed in respect.

"Take care of yourself and don't get killed.

When you've made the decision, just let me know.

I'll wait for you!"

The sky-devouring dog's tone reflected anticipation as it said from the other end.

Once it finished speaking, silence lingered in the air as the sky-devouring dog went silent.

"The situation in the three thousand big and small universes is serious. Let's go back,"

Frost said with a grim expression on his face.

After saying that, he looked ahead and gave his sleeve a slight wave. In response to his gesture, a blinding bright beam of light erupted as it flew out from it. The wind around the light fanned its intensity and made it grow in size. Gradually, the light emitting from his sleeve turned into a huge floating airship right in front of them.

The Supreme God

Chapter 3522 Fighting Over The Territory (Part One)

While Austin and the gods of light were on their way back, the three thousand big and small universes were in utter chaos.

The gods of light and the gods of darkness there had clashed and were locked in a confrontation more than once.

Fights or battles broke out between the two sides a little too frequently.

Since the ancient times, the two sides had been sworn enemies.

Every now and then, the members of each side would cross paths constantly. The grudge between them had been exacerbated instead of dissipating over the years.

At present, both sides were fighting over certain territories.

After the ancient divine battle, the divine gods of both groups left the three thousand big and small universes.

For a long time, no divine god had made their appearance anywhere in the three thousand big and small universes.

The Ancient Peace Agreement was what remained, maintaining the peace and order.

Because of this, most of the universes were neither controlled by the gods of light nor the gods of darkness.

Under such a circumstance, creatures within their own universes had the choice to remain neutral and select their own rulers.

For example, the Fallen Immortal Cosmos where Austin was from was ruled by him.

However, with more and more divine gods from either party coming back, the peace and order had begun to grow weak.

The gods of light and the gods of darkness had again started to fight over the worlds and universes to expand their spheres of influence.

one of the preliminary-grade divine gods said coldly.

As soon as the words were out of his mouth, he pointed at the Heavenly Majestic Pot and a ray of golden light flew out from the tip of his finger.

Boom!

The beam of golden light exploded half way and produced hundreds of thousands of energy waves. They came at the Heavenly Majestic Pot and the people who were standing behind him.

Despite being the most powerful in the group, the Heavenly Majestic Pot was only at the Divine Realm. The others were at a much lower realm than him.

To make matters worse, he couldn't even defend himself facing a divine god's attack, let alone a bunch of helpless creatures less powerful than him.

"Run! Now!"

the Heavenly Majestic Pot shouted.

Behind him, many people of the Divine Sect took out their Teleportation Runes in a bid to activate them. They had to get out of there if they wanted to live.

This was the Heavenly Majestic Pot's plan. He had collected lots of Teleportation Runes and had given them to his men in case the need arose just like this one. They could use the runes to quickly escape.

The Heavenly Majestic Pot also took out a Teleportation Rune in an attempt to activate it.

Another preliminary-grade divine god burst into laughter. "Ha-ha! You think you can escape from me, but you can't!" he sneered and chuckled.

With a wave of his hand, a white ball flew out of him with lightning speed. Then it suddenly slowed down in a semi-time freeze and floated in the surrounding space.

In the next second, the people of the Divine Sect who witnessed the entire thing screamed in panic, running in all directions and not knowing what to do.

"Oh no! Sir, the Teleportation Runes are not working!"

"How ridiculous and pathetic! My Divine Locating Bead is the natural enemy of your Teleportation Runes. No matter how hard you try get away with it, it's not going to happen," the preliminary-grade divine god said in a dismissive manner.

'I'm finished now!'

the Heavenly Majestic Pot thought, already feeling defeated.

Just as the Heavenly Majestic Pot was resigning himself to his fate, a thunderous roar resounded from out of nowhere.

"Don't be so cocky, you damned weakling!"

The source of the booming voice was an old man who turned up with an outstretched hand.

Boom!

Endless beams of golden light shot out from his palm.

With a loud crackle that sounded like the space snapping in half, the preliminary-grade divine god who took out the Divine Locating Bead was sent pummeling through the air.

By the time he steadied himself, he had eaten dust and spat out blood.

"Ha-ha! I didn't expect that the Divine Locating Bead would fall into your hands."

Another old man also appeared out of the blue, and grabbed the white ball.

"No! Give it back, you damn rascal!"

the preliminary-grade divine god yelled out.

He felt that the connection between him and the Divine Locating Bead had been cut off.

"Ha-ha! It is mine. Come and get it if you can. Do you think that I will give it up and hand it over to you? Wake the hell up!"

"In the meantime, since we are already here, I'm afraid, I will have to kill you first, Heavenly Majestic Pot!" he continued.

The chief of the Mu Clan waved his scimitar at the Heavenly Majestic Pot.

The Heavenly Majestic Pot didn't flinch. He bolted towards the chief while activating a secret martial arts skill. In a burst of light, the two were soon engaged in a fight.

What happened in the Heaven God Cosmos was just a case. Such things happened almost every day in the three thousand big and small universes.

At the same time, in the Underworld Cosmos of the three thousand big and small universes, there was a huge dark palace.

"Is it really related to that tree?"

It was said that Austin had indeed found the whereabouts of the chaotic world tree in that prehistoric relic.

Later, the chaotic world tree suddenly disappeared. At that time, Austin was chased after by thousands of divine gods. To avoid them, he broke into the World of Darkness.

The divine gods all died in the World of Darkness, and none of them survived it.

However, Austin was able to return to the three thousand big and small universes unscathed.

Considering all that, it was highly likely that Austin had got his hands on the chaotic world tree.

Perhaps it was the chaotic world tree that had made the Fallen Immortal Cosmos invisible."

A voice rang out in the palace.

"Ha-ha! If that's the case, then it's a good thing for us.

Look for the Fallen Immortal Cosmos and the chaotic world tree at all costs. As long as that tree is still in the three thousand big and small universes, we must find it," another voice said.

The Supreme God

Chapter 3524 The Journey Back

In the chaotic void of the three thousand big and small universes, divine gods covertly moved around. They seemed to be using all kinds of secret techniques and magic treasures to search for something.

These gods had all lived for quite a long time so that they had grown sophisticated through lots of experiences.

Using all their skills and treasures, each one of them searched every spot and corner they passed through.

At the same time, many of the divine gods surrounded the outside of the three thousand big and small universes.

They were from the gods of darkness side or the isolated alien spaces.

They were all sent out to search for the traces of the chaotic world tree.

Meanwhile, at the edge of the three thousand big and small universes, there existed a special space unknown to many.

In this special space, a small tree was hiding itself.

This was the chaotic world tree, and it tried to keep itself out of sight of anyone all this time.

"Those guys seem to be looking for me.

Humph!

They had divine gods surround the outside, and now they're searching here. Where should I hide?

How troublesome!" the chaotic world tree sighed.

"I don't even have any idea when Austin will come back.

If they find me here, I'm on thin ice. I guess I have no other choice but to run away and leave this universe community.

It's not like Austin can't find me if I go. Besides, I need to hide soon. I'm sure Austin will look for me when he got here."

After some pondering, the chaotic world tree had finally come to a decision.

"Hmm? Wait, I think I've found something!

I just used a secret divine skill I learned from my clan. It's related to space and time, so I'm pretty sure I sensed some traces of the small tree in the chaotic void of the three thousand big and small universes.

It's a bit faint but I have no doubt it's the tree we've been looking for!"

a god of darkness suddenly cried out.

When the other gods heard about this, they all rejoiced.

The news quickly reached the base camp of the gods of darkness and isolated alien spaces.

It's no wonder that he obtained such achievements at such a young age," Keysley said with a smile.

"Well, no one could deny that he's a gifted one.

We are lucky to have him in the Fallen Divine Valley.

Then, of course, the gods of light are even luckier to have him."

Frost, Brain, and Oswald also expressed their approval.

Austin must have really won their trust so that the three premium-grade divine gods could say these words.

As they travelled back to the three thousand big and small universes, the divine gods took the opportunity to talk about their lives and their experiences in the Fallen Divine Valley. Everyone was there except for Austin.

After boarding the airship, Austin wasted no time and directly entered a secret room to cultivate in seclusion.

Every minute was precious to him. He still had a lot of things to do and enemies to face.

He couldn't be complacent with his current strength.

Inside the room, Austin was sitting with his legs crossed, and he was concentrating his vital energy to feel his realm.

Previously, before entering the Fallen Divine Valley, Austin had experienced the Apotheosizing Doom.

However, in the middle of overcoming the tribulations, a god from the underworld used the Nether Pictures for Deceiving Heaven to launch a sneak attack on him. Because of this, all of Austin's efforts to break through the Apotheosizing Doom became meaningless.

But later, Austin's combat power made a breakthrough through the cultivation of the Introduction of Vital Energy Circulation.

This way, even though he was still at the Divine Realm, he gained superior strength that was almost equal to the divine gods.

Then, when he was already inside the Fallen Divine Valley, Austin met Elliot's junior fellow disciple, Frey.

From him, Austin got his hands on a Divine Blood Grass.

According to Frey, the possibility of achieving a breakthrough to being a preliminary-grade divine god would be increased by at least sixty or seventy percent by taking the Divine Blood Grass.

Currently, the medicinal power of the Divine Blood Grass was still stored inside Austin's body.

He didn't try to utilize it while he was still inside the Fallen Divine Valley because special rules were being enforced in the place.

But now, he finally had the perfect chance to use it and break through to the next level.

'It had definitely loosened up a little bit, but there also seem to be some invisible shackles.

Anyway, I must do whatever I can to break through and become a god!'

Austin was already in the process of his cultivation, hoping to achieve positive results before they arrived at the three thousand big and small universes.

At the same time, the airship was still moving forward at top speed. Little by little, they were getting closer to their destination.

The Supreme God

Chapter 3525 It Was Discovered

In the three thousand big and small universes, the atmosphere remained tense.

"Damn it! If it goes on like this, my whereabouts will soon be exposed! This is not good!"

the chaotic world tree cursed angrily and anxiously from where it remained hidden. It had made sure that it was in a very secret space that was hard to find.

In addition to that kind of safety measure, during this period of time, the chaotic world tree kept changing its hiding place to avoid being tracked.

The gods of darkness as well as the people from the isolated alien spaces were searching for it everywhere. Their scope of detection was shrinking and they had been working double time with their search.

Because of this, they seemed to have locked onto the chaotic world tree.

The main reason why they were able to trace the chaotic world tree was because in their team, they had some divine gods who were good at some secret techniques related to space and time. They could easily trace the time and space and thus determine the movement of the chaotic world tree and the aura it left in the three thousand big and small universes.

Pretty soon, they would be able to pinpoint the exact location where the chaotic world tree was hiding.

Gradually, an encirclement within the perimeter where the chaotic world tree was, began to form.

The space that the chaotic world tree could move around was getting smaller and smaller. It was just a matter of time before they found it.

At that moment, it was the most wanted entity in the universe. Not only the gods of darkness and the divine gods from the isolated alien spaces were searching for the whereabouts of the chaotic world tree, but some divine gods from the underworld also came, whether intentionally or unintentionally, to pay close attention to the progress of this search.

The big shots of the underworld had already guessed that the gods of darkness and those from the isolated alien spaces had been searching for some extremely valuable treasure.

Otherwise, they wouldn't have put in so much effort.

What was more, even the Divine Corpse Palace, which was floating at the edge of the three thousand big and small universes and had remained silent this whole time, reacted to this search. One day, with no one expecting it, the two dark doors of the palace opened a crack.

Several gigantic figures came out silently. Only the cold winds at the gates greeted them as they emerged from inside the palace.

Then all of a sudden, they disappeared into thin air.

At the same time, in the headquarters of the gods of light, a lively discussion was going on.

"Recently, the gods of darkness, the people from the isolated alien spaces, and those from the underworld have all sent a lot of their people in search something or someone that could prove very useful or valuable.

I suspect that it has something to do with the Fallen Immortal Cosmos."

Peterson, Morphy, Jarvis, Devin, and other divine gods were gathered in a hall.

A leader of the gods of darkness barked his orders around.

Not long after, the gods of darkness and those from the isolated alien spaces formed a circle and surrounded the edge of the three thousand big and small universes, heading towards the spot where the chaotic world tree was hiding.

"Nooooo! Damn it!

I have been found!"

The chaotic world tree immediately noticed the surge in the presence of aura in its surrounding. Seeing that a great number of divine gods were aggressively rushing toward it, it became frightened and trembling, unable to move out of fear.

It was known to all that although the chaotic world tree was an incredible treasure which was invaluable, it barely had any fighting skills.

In particular, this chaotic world tree was still in the first half of its life and fairly young. It still needed a lot of time to reach the maturity stage.

At this point, with its current ability, it was not enough to deal with these divine gods with malicious intentions.

In the headquarters of the gods of light, everyone also noticed that something wrong.

"Something is fishy! Let's go and check out what's going on!"

Before long, a large number of the gods of light left the base camp and appeared in the chaotic void of the three thousand big and small universes. They rushed towards the gods of darkness and those from the isolated alien spaces.

At the same time, back in the underworld, the monstrous corpse miasma was surging, and a group of divine gods also burst out from the underworld. They had brought some of the miasma along with them, blanketing the entire area with an unmistakable deathly stench.

Apart from that, in an area in the chaotic space, several figures merely stood and watched. "Ha ha, it seems that some priceless treasure is about to appear and cause a huge battle among these competing parties.

Well, we, the Divine Corpse Palace, can also sneak in. Let's see if we can have a chance to snatch that treasure," one of them sneered coldly.

"You bastards. What do you think you are doing, sneaking around like that? Truly you are plotting something shady! You are despicable! You fight only with unfair practices.

I will not let that happen and I will have to kill you first!"

With a roar, Jarvis waved his spear that gave out blinding divine light, and pointed towards the enemies with strong, almost insane murderous will. He was evidently furious.

Meanwhile, the gods of light, the gods of darkness, and the creatures from the isolated alien spaces were already at a stand-off from afar!

The Supreme God

The main leaders of the gods of darkness were two ferocious beasts—the thoroughly-odd beast and the fire-disaster beast. They had enormous sizes as they were like humongous mountains.

The two evil beasts were famous for their ferocity and cruelty in ancient times, and no one dared to deliberately make an enemy of them.

As they faced the gods of light, the fire-disaster beast let out a burst of deafening laughter. "Ha-ha! This is all that you can assemble? Well, I shall slaughter all of you today!" it declared in a mighty voice.

Its massive body was constantly blazing with flames, which scorched the space around it.

"Ha! Don't be too conceited you ugly beast.

I'll make you eat your own words!" Peterson snapped in contempt.

Among the creatures from the isolated alien spaces, there also stood a huge strange beast. "Ha-ha! I smell flesh and blood. I should be grateful for this feast that you prepared for me!

I wonder how all of you would taste. I hope you won't let me down," the strange beast said as it licked its lips.

It was staring intently at Peterson and his companions while drooling so much like a gluttonous beast.

It looked like a toad with a bright red skin, where blood kept oozing out. Its mouth was so large that it was more than ten times larger than its entire body. It appeared so peculiar and dangerous at the same time.

Judging by the overwhelming energy that it was releasing, it could be easily determined as a medium-grade divine god.

"This is disgusting! The gods of darkness even colluded with these monsters from the isolated alien spaces just to make trouble in the three thousand big and small universes.

My blood is boiling that I want to crush them all!" Morphy said through gritted teeth.

Both sides kept on exchanging intimidating stares, waiting for the one who would attack first.

The people from the underworld and the Divine Corpse Palace were also watching the scene from the distance. They were also ready to take action if they found the perfect opportunity.

At the same time, the area where the chaotic world tree was hiding had already been surrounded by the gods of darkness and the creatures of the isolated alien spaces.

Although the chaotic world tree remained invisible, the gods of darkness who were skillful in spatial power had already figured out its general location, so they were closely keeping watch to its movements.

They had detected its traces, thus if it moved recklessly, it would surely be found.

In this case, even if it wanted to escape, it couldn't just do it easily.

"This is annoying! Even if I managed to get away, I would surely sustain serious injuries while doing so.

I don't have many choices, do I? The Invincible Escape Skill could be my only viable option.

But if I use that, I don't know how long it would take me to recover my strength.

Well, it's much better than being dead!" the chaotic world tree muttered to itself in frustration as it continued to hide in the dark.

Meanwhile, an airship was fast approaching the three thousand big and small universes.

"Ha-ha! We're almost there."

"Finally, we're coming home."

"It's been such a long time. I can't wait."

Some gods of light cheered inside the airship.

"The legendary three thousand big and small universes, huh? I'm excited about it," Bernie said with high expectations.

He and the other divine gods from the other universe communities in the Sea of Chaos were also looking forward to seeing the three thousand big and small universes with their own eyes.

After all, this place was very famous, powerful, and prosperous during ancient times.

Most of the divine gods who were born in ancient times must have heard of the exceptional reputation of the three thousand big and small universes.

After being stuck in the Fallen Divine Valley for so long, these divine gods were yearning for an adventure at such an esteemed area.

Inside one of the secret chambers in the airship, Austin was still sitting in mediation. He was silently ruminating over his vital energy realm.

'Forcing me to stop going through the Apotheosizing Doom caused me several internal injuries. These held me back in reaching a higher vital energy realm.

Fortunately, after taking the Divine Blood Grass, those injuries are now almost completely healed, ' he pondered.

"It's a good thing that Frey didn't lie to me. The Divine Blood Grass is indeed potent. After consuming it, I instantly got better.

If it weren't for that herb, who knows how long I should still wait before making a breakthrough?

Right now, I have a strong feeling that it won't take long before I officially become a divine god," Austin said with a grin on his face.

Austin was currently focused on breaking through to a divine god.

There were so many responsibilities that he still needed to take on. And in order to cope up with all of them, he needed to acquire greater strength and become a divine god.

"Hmm? It seems that the airship is already close to the three thousand big and small universes.

I wonder how things are going.

I hope everyone's okay.

I can't wait to see them," Austin murmured to himself.

The Supreme God

From the airship, they could all see that they were getting closer to the three thousand big and small universes.

Their faces lit up with excitement as the premium-grade divine gods—Frost, Brain, and Oswald—got up to check the view.

"Ha-ha! I didn't think I'd get the chance to come back after such a long time.

I wonder how everything is right now in the three thousand big and small universes,"

Frost spoke in a peaceful tone.

He gazed at the three thousand big and small universes in the distance. He seemed to be feeling nostalgic.

"Me, too. Although I've been away for such a long time, it seems like I just left yesterday."

Brain fixed his eyes at the view while he replied to Frost with a smile.

"Wow, Brain. I didn't expect you to be so sentimental!"

Oswald teased Brain and tapped him on his shoulder.

Even Otis, Keysley, and all the other medium-grade divine gods aboard got up and stared at the distant three thousand big and small universes. Although they were thrilled that they were getting closer by the minute, they couldn't help but feel nervous about what was waiting for them there.

While everyone took their time to appreciate the view in front of them, Frost broke the silence.

"By the way, the three thousand big and small universes are in chaos right now. Since more and more members from our side and members from the god of darkness side return, the battle between us and them will only rage on.

We're going to have to surprise the enemy to gain some upper hand.

I think it's best that we keep a low profile and sneak back in there so they definitely won't have any idea what's coming for them."

The other divine gods were taken by surprise when they heard what Frost said.

Everyone fell silent for a few seconds, and then Brain and Oswald nodded in agreement.

"You have a good point, Frost.

If we swagger back in public, it will alert the enemy and they would be able to plan an attack against us.

We'd better come back without being noticed. That way, we can catch them off guard and ambush them," Brain elaborated as he rubbed his chin.

"You're right. We have to prepare for this," Otis followed.

He and the others all nodded in agreement.

While they talked about strategies, a figure suddenly appeared in the hall and stood in front of the crowd.

"Austin! Ha-ha! You're finally done with your cultivation!" Otis exclaimed.

He warmly welcomed Austin since he had not seen him in a while.

Right after he spoke, he slightly bowed and walked away.

"Austin! How about we join you so we can help?"

Otis called out to him as he stared at Austin's receding figure.

"Thank you, everyone. I appreciate that you want to help out, but I think you should go back to the three thousand big and small universes secretly as planned.

I'll just meet you there!" Austin yelled out.

When he finished his sentence, he was already out of the ship and had just activated the Reincarnation Token. In the blink of an eye, he vanished into thin air.

The Reincarnation Token had the spatial coordinates of the three thousand big and small universes, so Austin would get there in no time.

"Austin really has a way of teleporting himself to anywhere quickly, huh? He does have something up his sleeve,"

Frost expressed his admiration for Austin.

"Ha-ha! Indeed. He surely is mysterious. What an interesting young man!"

Oswald remarked as he clapped his hands.

Even Otis voiced out his high regard for Austin.

"That's true. I don't think there's a reason for us to worry about him. With his strength, he won't be in any danger unless he confronts premium-grade divine gods."

"Well, then. We'll just stick to the plan.

Let's keep a low profile and go back quietly," Brain concluded.

Meanwhile, Austin was so frustrated and angry that he had to think loudly. He murmured to himself in the spatial channel and said, "With my current strength, I should be able to kill a lot of those divine gods.

Since those people of the gods of darkness always opt to give me a hard time, I will definitely get back at them and teach them a lesson."

He had a look in his eyes that could easily scare people away.

At this point, chaos still filled the three thousand big and small universes.

The divine gods from the god of darkness side and the isolated alien spaces had a chaotic space surrounded.

The space had been locked down through lots of arrays that were set up by divine gods and magic treasures.

Somewhere in the universe, a divine god paced back and forth while he talked to one of his comrades.

"After our investigation, we learned that the tree has been hiding in this space.

We'd better find it soon. The chaotic world tree could perfectly integrate into space.

I don't know everything about that tree yet, but I have no doubt that this one of its superb abilities.

Once we break this space, we'll definitely be able to get our hands on that chaotic world tree!"

The Supreme God

Chapter 3528 Austin's Return

"What are you waiting for? Break this space immediately!

We need to find that tree as soon as possible!" a junior leader of the gods of darkness shouted at the divine gods.

"All right. Let's do it together!"

The other divine gods responded actively. They were very eager to break the space where the chaotic world tree was hiding until it showed up.

A large number of gods of darkness, as well as creatures from the isolated alien spaces, quickly gathered and surrounded the said space. They activated their divine powers one after another, ready to smash the space at any time.

In the distance, seeing that a large group of divine gods suddenly gather, Peterson immediately knew that something wrong was going on. With their location, he assumed that they might have discovered where the chaotic world tree was hiding.

"Everyone! Listen to me. We have to stop those bastards! We can't let them destroy the space where the chaotic world tree is located!"

He secretly sent an urgent message to the other gods of light nearby.

Upon receiving Peterson's message, the gods of light cheered up as they were also itching for battle. They couldn't wait to crush the gods of darkness who had been a thorn in their flesh since a long time ago.

At the same time, in a certain chaotic void of the three thousand big and small universes, a space barrier suddenly began to tremble. The space surrounding it started to distort.

Then, from the void, Austin stepped out.

'Finally, I'm back, '

Austin said in his thoughts as complex emotions surged from within his heart.

He immediately released his spiritual sense to perceive the situation. In just a few seconds, he realized the general state of the three thousand big and small universes.

"Hey, brat! You're back at last!

You've got to help me. I'm in a total bind!

A large group of divine gods has surrounded me. I won't be able to escape this unscathed!"

The chaotic world tree immediately sent a message to Austin through its spiritual sense as soon as it sensed his aura. It felt so surprised and pleased that he suddenly appeared at this crucial moment.

"Don't worry. I'll take care of them. You can relax now."

Upon knowing that the chaotic world tree was still safe and sound, Austin felt so relieved. A huge chunk of heaviness in his heart was lifted.

He was grateful that he decided to come back ahead of time, or he might have regretted it.

"Really? Relax?"

Boy, I appreciate your confidence and courage, but you don't seem to understand the situation!

What are you going to do? Face all of them by yourself? There are so many of them!

Just get in here and help me get out of this place.

Brat, let me just remind you that if something terrible happens to me, your beloved Fallen Immortal Cosmos will also suffer!" the chaotic world tree said anxiously to Austin.

He also threw massive punches that were as fast as lightning. There were flesh, bones, and blood that splashed in all directions.

It was a massacre.

Some preliminary-grade divine gods who were killed didn't even realize what had happened until the moment of their death arrived.

Everything happened in just the blink of an eye.

The divine gods could just see his silhouette. Wherever he appeared, his enemies would be slain mercilessly.

In a flash, he could kill about seven preliminary-grade divine gods.

"Damn it! He's just alone!

Can't we do something about him?!" one god of darkness shouted in panic.

He trembled as he saw that they were being killed one by one.

Everything that was happening was inconceivable for them.

The powerful fighting power that Austin was displaying was incomprehensible.

He was slaughtering preliminary-grade divine gods left and right effortlessly.

Even some medium-grade divine gods didn't have that capacity.

"What's happening?

How did he become that strong?!"

"Is that really Austin? There must be something wrong going on!"

Most of the divine gods were too shocked to take action. Their bodies froze as they saw the cruel deaths that befell on their companions.

"Oh, there're still so many of you?

Just go to hell, will you?!" Austin shouted as he paused briefly from attacking and looked at how many were still standing.

This time, he released a greater amount of energy without reservation.

Whoosh! Whoosh!

He wanted to finish it in one go so he employed the Triple Avatar Skill. He called his avatars, twenty one deities, and three heavenly dragons to aid him in eliminating his foes.

Crash! Boom!

The small purple sword soared like a purple sun and burst out endless purple sword radiance that drowned the entire space.

Crash! Splat!

With his powerful attacks, more and more divine gods were killed.

At the same time, in the distance, a large group of divine gods led by the two fierce beasts, which were the thoroughly-odd beast and the fire-disaster beast, were confronting the gods of light led by Peterson, Morphy, and the other senior warriors.

"What the hell?!"

Listen, all of you preliminary-grade divine gods! Stop fighting that guy head-on! All of you will be slaughtered!" the thoroughly-odd beast shouted to its companions.

Being a creature with a very strong spiritual sense, it easily discerned that none of the preliminary-grade divine gods would be a match for Austin with his current strength.

The Supreme God

Chapter 3529 The Slaughter Would Never Stop

Crash! Splat!

Several bodies of preliminary-grade divine gods were constantly hit by Austin's vicious attacks and exploded one after another.

As for the medium-grade divine gods, Austin decided that it wasn't the time to confront them yet. He planned on eliminating the weaker ones first before he shifted his focus on them.

Besides, it was so easy for him to evade the preliminary-grade divine gods. With his extremely quick bodily movement skill, no one could catch up to him, and no one could also escape from him.

Trying to prevent Austin from further killing the preliminary-grade divine gods, several medium-grade divine gods tried to block and surround him.

However, Austin just instantly vanished and continued hunting the weaker divine gods, disappearing and appearing here and there.

There was no way for the medium-grade divine gods to catch up to Austin.

"Damn it! Run for your lives!

Get away as far as you can from that merciless devil!" the medium-grade divine gods shouted as they gave up from chasing Austin.

All the preliminary-grade divine gods from the god of darkness side and the isolated alien spaces were totally freaked out. They screamed as they fled and dispersed in all directions.

None of them dared to look back and face Austin anymore. They would be walking towards their death if they did.

With what was happening, the chaotic world tree took the opportunity to escape. All the divine gods that were previously surrounding the space where it was hiding were now gone.

It quietly moved to another space and hid very well.

The gods of darkness and the creatures from the isolated alien spaces had no time to care about the chaotic world tree right now. They needed to keep their eyes on Austin or they would be killed.

"Where do you think you cowards are going?!" Austin roared as he saw them quickly fleeing from the battlefield.

"It's futile. You can't escape from me!"

As soon as he said that, he chased after the preliminary-grade divine gods.

Austin activated his bodily movement skill to the extreme. He moved so fast that only his shadow could be seen. His body flickered here and there, killing every preliminary-grade divine god in his way.

"No! Aaargh!"

"Stop it!" All the preliminary-grade divine gods screamed in helplessness.

"How dare you kill our people like livestock!

You're going to regret this.

The gods of light charged with burning determination and excitement. They released tremendous strengths that surpassed their peak state.

With this, a fierce battle broke out between the two huge forces.

Previously, there were only smaller scale conflicts that arose from time to time. But now, it was an all-out war to settle all the scores.

Immense divine forces, as enormous and vast as the sea, continually spread out in all directions, affecting the entire three thousand big and small universes.

The battle among the divine gods was extremely horrifying.

All the creatures residing in every corner of the three thousand big and small universes could feel that the heavens and the earth were shaking. The suns seemed dimmer as compared to the brightness emitted by the blinding divine forces.

At the same time, they were witnessing abnormal visions and apparitions as the battle ensued.

There were streaks of blood-red lightning surging from the starry sky, and heavy blood-colored rain also poured. Ominous winds blew that sounded like a gloomy requiem.

As several divine gods were killed simultaneously, the laws of heaven and earth were also distorted, producing these abnormal catastrophic visions.

"All right! I'm going to beat the shit out of you first before I make you vanish for eternity!"

In the battlefield, Austin's body-flickering movements created several mirages. Wherever he went, the preliminary-grade divine gods that were caught by his deadly skills would be slain mercilessly.

In terms of magic treasures, he had his Chaotic Striding Boots on, and the purple sword, both of which were chaotic magic treasures. These were his main weapons in obliterating his enemies.

In terms of bodily movement skills, Austin's speed couldn't be matched even by the medium-grade divine gods.

In terms of strength, Austin possessed the powerful secret realms in his body. From there, chaotic energies gushed out endlessly. Also, with his excellent comprehension of swordsmanship, he could produce the sword radiance with the energy of about thirteen billion sword attacks and other powerful secret sword techniques.

Thus, no preliminary-grade divine god could really measure up to him in his current state.

Even medium-grade divine gods would have a hard time when they faced him in battle.

"Austin! Don't be a coward!

Stop pursuing them and fight us instead!"

The medium-grade divine gods from the god of darkness side and the isolated alien spaces attempted to block and corner Austin again, in order to let the preliminary-grade divine gods on their side to escape instant death.

However, Austin was like a ghost that just vanished in front of their eyes and passed through all of them with so much ease. Even if they tried catching up to him, they would just waste their energy.

"Fuck this!

Retreat! All of you, retreat!" the thoroughly-odd beast roared all of a sudden.

Even the other gods of darkness weren't shocked by its decision. It was as if they were just waiting for it to give the command.

As the thoroughly-odd beast witnessed with its own eyes how Austin had slain over twenty preliminary-grade divine gods in just a blink of an eye, it realized that they couldn't win this battle.

If things went on like this, it was afraid that all of the preliminary-grade divine gods would be slaughtered. Thus, it would mean that they would be outnumbered. These preliminary-grade divine gods still had the potential to upgrade into medium-grade divine gods, but if they lost their lives today, that chance would be lost.

The bottom line was that they couldn't afford to lose so many warriors if they were to continue this all-out war with the gods of light.

The Supreme God

Chapter 3530 Meeting Colby Of The Underworld Again

Upon hearing the thoroughly-odd beast's order, the preliminary-grade divine gods of the god of darkness side and of the isolated alien spaces fled in the direction of their stronghold, their hearts drumming, chills creeping down their spines.

Austin had sent fear racing through them like a forest fire through dry leaves.

"You're not going anywhere!" Austin roared.

With that, he bounded after them, rage burning deep inside of him.

"Go get Austin. We can't let him hurt more our men," the thoroughly-odd beast and the fire-disaster beast bellowed, their voice filled with anxiety.

A lot of divine gods who worked for the god of darkness side had died at Austin's hands earlier that day. The thoroughly-odd beast had no intention of seeing more divine gods fall.

"You little bastard, don't be presumptuous!"

Several medium-grade divine gods of the god of darkness side rushed toward Austin, trying to block his way.

"Do you think you can get in my way, you weaklings?" Austin sneered at their feeble attempts, his loathing for their audacity leaking from his every word.

He dashed forward, his body a blur, a lightning strike that was near impossible to follow. Catching the medium-grade divine gods off guard, he changed his path, got past them, and went after those preliminary-grade divine gods who were fleeing.

At that moment, the gates of the Underworld Cosmos ripped open.

Ignoring the gates, Austin focused on hunting down his prey. They would not escape him. That, he swore.

Dark corpse miasma gushed from the gates, spreading in all directions.

Its foul stench choked the air.

Then, a crowd of people rushed from the gates.

A giant beast led them. That creature was none other than the devilish nether beast of the underworld.

A huge black coffin shot into the sky above the crowd. Its ominous form cast a long shadow.

Standing within the coffin, hands behind his back as if he were the master of the entire universe, was a man with eyes that could pierce a person's soul; eyes to give nightmares to a nightmare.

"Austin, give that Nether Picture for Deceiving Heaven back to me right now!" the man in the coffin shouted, voice as cold as a corpse.

He stared at Austin, eyes full of killing intent.

This man was Colby of the underworld.

On the day Austin was in the middle of completing the Apotheosizing Doom, Colby distracted him with nine Nether Pictures for Deceiving Heaven. As a result, Austin failed to break through to a divine god.

Later, Colby entrusted ten superior elders of the underworld with a Nether Picture for Deceiving Heaven so they could hunt down Austin.

What a surprise!"

Colby threw his head back and cackled.

In the next instant, he leaped off the coffin. Strong black mist swirled from his body, enveloping him like a living cloak.

He bolted forward, hand stretched out toward Austin.

The black mist trailed from Colby as he hurtled toward his target. Colby was a black streak in humanoid form, cutting a swath through the air.

Although Colby was aware Austin was much more powerful than those of Austin's level and could take out preliminary-grade divine gods, he didn't take Austin serious.

In Colby's mind, Austin could not be on par with him. The gap between them was great. He would show Austin what real power was.

"Old bastard, go to hell!" Austin screamed.

Tremendous chaotic energy massed from the secret realms inside him. Austin gathered the chaotic energy on his fist, unleashing a punch at Colby.

Both parties released infinite runes. Their energies collided. An explosion rocked the area like a massive thunderclap, a wave of air and power blasting away upon the energies' impact. Such was the power unleashed that it would have blown away, would have torn apart anyone who was not a powerful cultivator.

This was a fight between opponents of immense strength.

"I can't believe that Austin dares to fight a medium-grade divine god head on."

Everyone was dumbfounded at the scene.

The chaotic void shook violently with each impact, with each clash. The effect could be felt in the air, the earth, the sea. It encompassed the world.

Austin and Colby became blurs as they battled. One emitted a bright golden light, while the other released the black fog. The light and the fog filled the space for up to a billion miles. Light flickered in the black fog, slicing holes in it. The black fog congealed around the light, choking it. Back and forth the battle went, becoming a dance, a rhythm of golden light and black fog.

Bang!

Finally, a figure was flung away. The figure spat out blood.

"Austin, are you all right?"

Peterson, Morphy, and other gods of light yelled, shock filling their voices and expressions.

The figure was Austin.

Steadying himself in the void, Austin wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth.

"I'm good," he answered.

"Humph! Brat, I didn't expect your body to be so tough.

But it doesn't matter. The game just started.

I will slowly rip you to bits,"

Colby chortled, voice dripping with hate.

Although he had the upper hand in the first round, Austin hadn't sustained serious injuries.

Austin was far stronger than Colby imagined.
