

The Supreme God

Chapter 481 Refine The Scorching Evil Fire

The Golden Sun Scripture Austin had activated was masculine. The golden vital energy that rapidly flew on Austin's body formed a layer to protect him from any harm.

When the Scorching Evil Fire sensed Austin's spiritual soul, it made a move to defend itself. But it wasn't hostile towards the intruder.

As it continued to swell up, it formed a head-sized scarlet fire and tossed itself towards Austin. It gave off a strong heat as it floated in front of him. Despite Austin's high cultivation base, he was still having some difficulty in defending himself from the overwhelming power the evil fire was releasing.

The temperature surrounding Austin increased tenfold as it reached several hundred degrees Celsius.

The water started to vaporize in the air because of the increasing temperature.

"No pain, no gain! Make or break!"

Austin muttered, fixing his eyes on the Scorching Evil Fire.

Readying himself to absorb the evil fire, he opened his mouth.

Hoo!

Austin then swallowed the head-sized Scorching Evil Fire.

As he completely swallowed the Scorching Evil Fire, he shut his mouth. At first, he felt nothing. But after a while, his body began to tremble violently. His face turned deadly pale as if he had been struck by lightning.

his mind to endure the seemingly unbearable pain caused by the fire. He closed his eyes and activated his spiritual sense power to see what was his body

golden vital energy inside the energy meridians was destroyed

the meridians deflated cramps and muscle tension. His face looked like blood was drained pill gifted to him by Angus that could give off a chill. He initially thought that he could have some control over the Scorching Evil Fire because he had the pain, he immediately stuffed the pill into tongue, Austin could feel a started to shiver and noticed that thin ice chips started forming on his hair.

the spots

Austin heaved a

pain, but it also healed

Lotus Elixir pill had worked its wonders beyond took effect, Austin focused on controlling the Scorching Evil Fire attached his spiritual sense to it that the Scorching Evil Fire started to calm down and flow towards the path according to and guiding it

Fire had gotten accustomed to its new habitat and started to accept it. It had also stopped becoming better at keeping the Scorching Evil Fire under control Evil Fire even if it would take him a whole day. He sat on the

During this process, Violet got out of her Illusion Bead and stood beside her master to protect him. Since he was focused on the evil fire, Austin wouldn't be able to keep an eye on his surroundings. If someone sneaked into the bottom of Fire Valley, there was no way he could detect it instantly making him prone to sudden attacks.

A day had passed and nothing unusual happened.

Thanks to Violet who kept an eye on Austin, he could focus on taming the Scorching Evil Fire. Austin finally opened his eyes which were sparkling with great joy.

After spending a whole day with it, he finally was able to control and refine the Scorching Evil Fire. From now on, the Scorching Evil Fire which ranked third among the Unearthly Fires belonged to him.

The rapture he felt was beyond words.

It was a day full of surprises indeed. Aside from taming the Scorching Evil Fire, he had also managed to subdue it. If without Angus' help, he wouldn't have gotten to the bottom of the Fire Valley and met the evil fire, not to mention tame and refine it.

"Master, you have refined the Scorching Evil Fire, haven't you?"

Violet asked with delight.

Austin nodded in confirmation. He got up and stretched his body, cracking his bones since he had been sitting all day.

He then reached out his arm and extended his index finger. He concentrated his mind until a scarlet fire emerged on the tip of his finger and rose slowly.

He uttered spells under his breath.

Then he said casually, "Explode!"

The Supreme God

Chapter 482 The Emperor Library

The Scorching Evil Fire on Austin's finger was as red as blood. Suddenly, the fire doubled in size and began to spread rapidly. The once soft, almost calming fire was now fierce, untamed and dangerous. The flame danced swiftly engulfing everything within its reach. In just the blink of an eye, everything had been swept into the fire.

Austin crouched down to prepare and launched himself into the sky like an arrow at full speed. The fire danced wildly on his right palm. He quickly approached a gigantic rock and without hesitation, he raised his hand and hurled a fireball directly at it.

The flame immediately engulfed the rock. Under the flame, the rock melted into a waft of hazy smoke; not a fragment left behind. Beneath where the rock was, a huge, deep pit formed. It was filled with boiling magma, seething with thick smoke and a loud roar.

"Wow!"

Austin inhaled a huge breath of the hot air, clearing his head. He then lowered his head, fixing his eyes on the huge pit he just created as a mischievous smile spread across his face. He was satisfied with the power of the Scorching Evil Fire. In fact, it exceeded his expectations.

"Master, the Scorching Evil Fire is more powerful than we imagined. It's invincible."

Violet stared at the deep pit and the seething magma with open-mouthed wonder. She never expected that such a tiny flame could possess such marvelous power.

"That's it. The true way to manifest the Scorching Evil Fire's power is to find the right tamer. The tamer's capabilities will determine the extent of the power of the Scorching Evil Fire. Angus told me this is the true secret to its power.

I am far from being strong enough to activate the fire's full energy.

But I believe that I can increase my abilities."

Austin said with confidence.

Austin summoned the flame back into his body. Then something strange occurred.

The moment when the fire retracted back into Austin's body, he and Violet simultaneously found that the fire also went out when he did this.

'Did all this happen because I summoned back the Scorching Evil Fire into my body?

Does this explain everything that happened in Fire Valley?'

Austin was stunned.

had no intention to linger any longer than he needed to in the valley. After Violet had

Austin, as the valley was empty, like an eerie, abandoned house. Its former occupants, those ugly fire beasts scattered over in great quantities, seemed that the Fire Valley would soon disappear for its loss of the Scorching Evil Fire. Austin never expected that his experiment with the Scorching Evil Fire would valley in the blink of an eye.

spotted the cave that Iris and Anna were hiding in and headed directly for it, day and a half since you entered the Fire Valley, Austin.

the Fire Valley was. She and Anna were only able to enter five or six hundred meters of the valley before the fires began to engulf them.

the valley for a whole day and a half! Austin was just a young man, the same age as Anna and even a couple of years younger than Pure Dream Convent. They had even been sent to take a part in the Outstanding Talents Exchange Games on behalf of their sect. However, their skills were low spirit, she gave Austin a complicated gaze. She felt a mixture of things at Austin. She peeped at him from time to time from the corner of her eyes. Her face turned crimson every time when she fixed her eyes on

God. That's what helped

Austin replied matter-of-factly.

from Austin's response, Iris understood his refusal to tell her more about his adventure in Suddenly, Anna shrieked.

The Fire Valley! What happened over head and looked in the direction of the Fire Valley. To her amazement, all of the fires had ceased. It was now full of thick rolling smoke.

seemingly the only in there? Why did all the fires in the Fire that Austin must be a critical factor behind it. She had a strong desire to figure Austin cleared his throat before continuing, "There have been some answer was quite ambiguous.

sure that the changes were primarily because of the Scorching Evil Fire. All the fires went out as soon as he tamed the fire and summoned it back was complicated. His face betrayed him and Iris was able to get what she wanted. Though she had no idea what exactly happened,

She was in disbelief. Looking at this young man in front of her with widened eyes, she wondered what the hell he was actually capable of. The Fire Valley had basically vanished in a matter of minutes and it was because of him!

"Austin, what's our next move now? According to the notes left by the ancestor of the Pure Dream Convent, there are several places worth exploring in the first circle of the Mysterious Nether World."

Iris got over her initial shock and asked for Austin's advice. There was no way for her not to believe in Austin's unique and astonishing strengths and skills.

"Our next move is to enter the second circle.

We will continue to learn and grow more in the second circle."

Austin said in a measured tone while looking directly at the entrance of the Mysterious Nether World.

"We'll access the second circle and find the soul-recovering fruit there. That's our next goal.

Then we'll go to the Emperor Library to find secret books for advanced martial skills!"

"The Emperor Library?"

Iris and Anna had already known that the soul-recovering fruit was kept in the second circle of the Mysterious Nether World, but they had never heard of the Emperor Library. This was news to them.

"Yes, the Emperor Library. It is located in the second circle of the Mysterious Nether World. It houses many books for advanced martial skills.

If we're lucky enough, we can even find some books for martial skills at the seventh or eighth levels."

Austin announced confidently. He had recently learned all about the realm of the Mysterious Nether World from Angus. He recorded it in his Soul Sea and, compared to the simple notes made by the Pure Dream Convent ancestor from his short, shallow experience in the Mysterious Nether World, the information in Austin's Soul Sea was an encyclopedia and very informative.

There was no denying that Austin had mastered everything one needed to know about the Mysterious Nether World.

"Martial skills at the seventh and eighth levels?" Iris and Anna were startled by this. Neither of them was jealous by nature, but they could not help it when it came to advancing their martial skills.

Austin could read the envy in their voices.

The Supreme God

Chapter 483 Heading To The Middle Circle

The seventh and eighth-grade martial arts skills were very precious and rare. Even the Peripatetic Sect, the most powerful one of the five major sects, had no such high-grade martial arts manuals in their possession.

In the five major sects of the Violet Orchid Empire, high graded martial arts skills had been regarded as the treasures of each sect, and only the best principal disciples could learn and practice them.

The seventh and eighth-grade martial arts skills were things that were only heard in legends.

So when Iris and Anna heard that there were such martial arts skills in the Emperor Library, their eyes glowed in excitement.

"Well, in that case, let's hurry up and try our luck in the Emperor Library, or we'll be outrun by others and left out with nothing."

Austin was also looking forward to getting his hands on such high-grade martial arts skills.

So far, the highest grade martial arts skill Austin had practiced was the Overlord Body-refining Formula, which, according to what Lois had said, was a grade seven martial arts skill handed down from her ancestors.

However, after he had succeeded in practicing the fifth stage of the Overlord Body-refining Formula, he had always felt that there was something incomplete with the formula.

Austin speculated that the formula he acquired was not the complete and refined variant. If it was not, there should be some higher levels of cultivation manuals beyond the fifth stage.

The Overlord Body-refining Formula he was practicing was an incomplete grade seven martial arts skill. So he was eager to go to the middle circle too, for a complete one laid in the Emperor Library. Acquiring it would make all the risks he had taken in the Mysterious Nether World worthwhile.

"Okay, let's go."

Austin waved to Iris and Anna and headed for the middle circle of the Mysterious Nether World. Although the girls knew that a greater danger awaited ahead, they were not afraid at all. Austin's formidable strength assured them of their safety. They believed that they could overcome any threat and make it to the Emperor Library. With that in mind, they quickly followed him.

The Mysterious Nether World was vast and wide, with massive mountain ranges and primeval forests in its surroundings. Diverse landforms included rivers, grasslands, and swamps. It was a paradise for diabolic beasts whose roar could be heard from far away.

On their way to the middle circle, they encountered a lot of fierce diabolic beasts, among which were some rare and even extinct species in the outside world. The diabolic beasts were so ferocious that Austin and his partners' advancing speed were slowed down a lot by the beasts' attacks.

Once, as they were passing through grassland, the ground suddenly opened and three huge cracks appeared in front of them. Three giant insects with dozens of meters long rushed out of the crevice. Their huge and ferocious mouths, full of smelly poisonous saliva, tried to swallow Austin and his partners in one gulp.

The three giant insects were all fifth-level diabolic beasts.

Fortunately, Austin was able to sense them even before they broke out of the ground. He used the Wind-commanding Skill and retreated at once, grabbing Iris and Anna.

Then they all worked together and killed the giant insects.

With Austin's current strength, he could deal with any diabolic beast under the eighth level.

were only low leveled beasts, Austin, Iris, and Anna were all stunned to see hundreds of thousands of ants gushed out together. At a glance, the ground beyond the crevice silently screamed in total eclipse, as if it was a wriggling black sea with spiritual sense could feel the army of the cannibal ants from a long distance. So when he found them, he told Iris and Anna about the situation, and they decided to escape from the diabolic beasts, there were many more hazards in the Mysterious Nether

Its erosion ability was so powerful that it could corrode everything into a pool and could extend to a broader range. It could also Austin about the chilling mist beforehand, he was able to take precautions and avoid the fog as soon as he found it.

the process of avoiding the cold fog, they saw several Black Bone Elephants shrouded by a large cloud of the white fog. Within seconds, as the mist gradually drifted, skeletons that, they also picked some rare herbs they found on their way the one hundred young warriors who entered the Mysterious Nether went their own ways they finally reached the junction of the outer and circle of the Mysterious Nether World is right up on a hillside, overlooking the dreary

so familiar with the couldn't help asking the question that had been pressing her for and merely relied on the notes left by the ancestor of the Pure Dream Convent to find past three days, Austin was able to lead them to the edge of the middle circle, as if he knew all the routes in the Mysterious Nether World. Iris hunch," answered

tell others about the secret believe Austin, but she dared not to ask more questions. She knew they were only acquaintances and have a rest for a few hours before we enter

Iris and Anna were. He then led the way to had been traveling with him over the past three days. They didn't have a good rest cultivation base was the lowest among the three. Besides, she was accustomed to a pampered life as the high-ups of the Pure Dream Convent all liked and spoiled her, so it was difficult for her to stand the dusty and dangerous life in the Mysterious Nether about to reach the woods,

Iris as she saw how he gradually reduced his speed.

stood for a moment, extending his spiritual sense to the woods to see what was going on to be here too," Austin uttered smilingly. .

woods, an open area was surrounded by dense trees which helped in clearing the surrounding and making it a suitable place to rest.

filled with more than 20 people were sitting or standing in the open space guys are going too far! We had worked hard to collect these herbs. Why should came out from the center of the clearing, causing ridicule and laughter from the people around.

men surrounded a man and a woman.

"Ha-ha, fatso, you better know your place. It's already kind of us not to beat you up and rob you of all the herbs. Come on, give us all your herbs and we will spare your life.

You have two choices—hand them over to us yourselves, or we'll force you into surrendering them."

A young man made clear as a smile crept out of his face.

"You are imperial royals! How dare you rob us? Do you know that the emperor will severely punish you for doing such despicable things?"

"Ha-ha! Be punished? Don't be silly, fatso. All of us here are from the imperial royal family, pure-blooded and distinguished in status.

You lowly commoners! You don't deserve to be our equal, let alone be in the same place!

Do you really think that our emperor uncle will punish us for robbing you of some herbs?

I really can't understand why he has allowed so many lowly common men into the Mysterious Nether World.

The Mysterious Nether World has always been owned by our imperial royal family. Everything here belongs to us. You don't deserve to be in this place!

Ha! You can't take any of these herbs with you.

Hey! My patience is short. Hurry, and hand those herbs to us," a young man in black ordered arrogantly.

"Dewey, we're outnumbered. Let's just have it their way.

Give them the herbs. We'll be able to collect some new ones on our way," the woman explained to the man beside her.

She was well aware of their situation.

The two besieged were Dewey and Maria, who belonged to the Youngest Prince Reuben's camp.

Looking at the more than 20 young cultivators from the imperial royal family around him, Dewey touched his Space Ring which stored all the herbs he had collected since he entered the Mysterious Nether Word. He had worked hard and risked his life to fight many diabolic beasts and gather the herbs, among which were even precious sixth-grade herbs. He'd rather die than hand over all of them.

Although unwilling to do so, Dewey knew that they would never let them leave unless he would surrender the herbs. After all, there were more than 20 of them, and he and Maria were obviously outnumbered.

So after he struggled internally, Dewey finally gave in. He gritted his teeth and looked at Maria. Both of them took out all the herbs they had collected and placed them on the ground. Then they both turned around, hoping to leave the place.

"Wait a minute. You can't just go now!"

Just as Dewey and Maria were about to leave, a voice was suddenly heard.

"Phillip, what do you want?"

Dewey turned and looked at the young man in black. He had a long radiant sword hanging on his back. It was Phillip, who also came from Prince Reuben's camp.

The Supreme God

Chapter 484 Confrontation

Philip was standing beside a good-looking man in his early twenties. The young man in his yellow robe radiated a graceful aura and a golden folding fan was in his hand.

"Philip, you were supposed to be loyal to Prince Reuben! You knew very well that those people are supporting the Grand Prince, yet, you still took their side.

How do you plan on explaining it to Prince Reuben?"

Maria shouted at Philip.

"As the saying goes, 'Man struggles upwards, water flows downwards.'

The Grand Prince is the most sociable and powerful among the ten princes. I am certain that he would sit on the throne one day. I cannot work for Prince Reuben if I want to gain the Grand Prince's good side.

Besides, Prince Reuben favors Austin over me. I feel like he doesn't value me anymore, so there's no point for me to follow him," Philip defended himself.

"It's clear that he has betrayed Prince Reuben. Don't waste time on him. He's disgusting and I don't want to see his face anymore!"

Dewey sneered with repulsion.

A crooked, stern look flashed in Philip's eyes.

He moved closer to the young man in yellow and whispered in his ear. As he spoke, he studied Maria from head to toe with his lewd eyes.

Maria didn't like the look that Philip just gave her, and she had a bad feeling about it.

"Let's get out of here, Maria, before Philip gets us into any trouble," Dewey whispered to Maria.

The maid obediently nodded her head and quickly followed Dewey towards the woods.

"Stop them!" the young man in yellow robe ordered.

Immediately, seven cultivators swarmed towards Dewey and Maria and stopped them from leaving. Dewey and Maria abruptly stopped and were forced to step back. Then, the seven cultivators pushed them back to join Philip and the young man in a yellow robe.

As Dewey assessed, the seven cultivators who blocked their way were at the premium stage of the Earth Realm.

These seven cultivators were being led by a brawny young man in purple who had reached the preliminary stage of the Mysterious Realm.

Despite being at the premium stage of the Earth Realm, Dewey and Maria were still at the disadvantage in this situation. Aside from being outnumbered, they were also outpowered given that one of these cultivators was at the preliminary stage of the Mysterious Realm. If they fought back, they would surely not stand a chance.

"Hahaha! You're Maria Wu, right?"

You may not be that appealing, but I like your sexy body. You can still satisfy our needs.

Well, I initially planned to let you go.

heard you two were birth, yet he defied the Grand Prince. His arrogance and execute him in the Mysterious Nether World.

now know about our plans, we might as well kill you here your clothes and do them a good job. What do you say?" the youth die, you pervert!" Maria was so upset that her face turned livid.

breathing started to may, I would like to have

Maria up with his obscene on you, Philip Song! You're a

Dewey scolded indignantly.

Any

her. But leave something for my men to have some fun with," the young man in yellow said.

at Maria with a greedy look in his eyes, Philip walked up it, Maria. Looks like we have no other choice but to face. As she flipped her palm his vital energy that spread across think you can win over my crew, do you? You're wasting your time!"

the young man in a young man's facial expression changed as if something had caught his attention. His eyes quickly moved away young man's gaze and quickly turned to see what could of the woods, they caught sight of three lad looked around and his eyes lit up as he spotted Dewey sorry, I didn't expect that you would have some company," the lad were no other than Austin, Iris, and finally dawned to them that it was indeed Austin,

"Austin..."

had already figured out what was happening even before arriving here. He knew that Dewey and Maria were in happening here, Dewey? Are these angel was sent to their rescue. They their hearts and their eyes have incredible power, but there's no way he could easily bring down twenty cultivators hired by the royal family and Philip.

we're as good as dead

be here right now," Dewey said

a yellow robe had recovered from his shock and burst into laughter.

grace

a surprise! I was looking for you!

it seems like fate was in my favor and the winds took you here by purpose! Now, I

his men and they didn't move. A cold smile crossed

As Austin, Maria, and Dewey were surrounded, the young man in a yellow robe put away his folding fan.

"Get down on your knees, Austin!"

Do you know your crimes? You have lambasted the image of the Grand Prince!" he said with a grave expression.

He pointed to Austin as if the latter was already a convicted criminal.

"I don't know what you're blabbing about."

Austin raised his head and leered at the young man in a yellow robe indifferently. He didn't like the tone of the young man and the accusations he had made against him. He felt the urge to kill the arrogant man but tried his best to calm himself.

"Tin, he is from a powerful family. He is the only son of the Hand of the King," Dewey reminded Austin in a low voice.

"Screw you! I don't care who you are!

How dare you accuse me of anything!"

Austin shot back acidly, glaring at the pretentious young man.

The crowd was stunned to see Austin disrespecting the young man in a yellow robe.

They turned their eyes from Austin to the young man, holding their breaths as they wait for what would happen next.

"How dare you talk back to me like that!"

The young man's face darkened with anger. With a twisted face, he chided, "You really have no respect towards people with power! Who do you think you are? You're just a peasant, no one!

"I'll make you regret being alive this day!"

He trembled with fury. No one had ever dared to offend him especially in front of his servants and people.

Going ballistic, he commanded his men, "What are you waiting for? Seize this man immediately!"

As the son of the Hand of the Orchid Empire King, he felt insulted and embarrassed. He wouldn't let a lowborn person like Austin treat him like that. 'If I didn't teach this brat a hard lesson, I would be the laughingstock,' he thought. His rage knew no boundaries this time.

Four of his men obediently acknowledged the order. These four cultivators were giving off dangerous vibes. Judging by the vital energy force emitting from their body, it was safe to conclude that they were at the premium stage of the Earth Realm.

More than that, these four cultivators would potentially breakthrough to the Mysterious Realm.

But despite their strength, they were still no match for Austin. After all, he had already reached the medium stage of Mysterious Realm. The four cultivators, however, had underestimated Austin. They couldn't see through his real cultivation base because he had compressed his vital energy. This could all be like a child's play to Austin.

Austin smiled faintly and took a stride forward to fight with his enemies.

As Austin made his move, the four cultivators had activated their powerful martial arts skills. Their strong and aggressive vital energy force spread in all directions.

Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang!

In an instant, the four cultivators were violently pushed backward. Austin's applied force was so strong that the four cultivators' bodies were pushed a little deeper into the ground and left four slightly deep long drag marks on the ground.

Their fall was so hard that they felt like their body parts were dislocated. They struggled to stand up and fight back but failed.

The Supreme God

Chapter 485 Fighting Against Five Mysterious Realm Cultivators

"Bastard!"

The face of the young man in yellow darkened when he saw the four cultivators of the imperial family being knocked down by Austin with a single blow.

"How dare you hurt the imperial cultivators! You deserve to die and go to hell!" a young man in black shouted and hurried towards Austin. He summoned his vital energy force and reached out to attack. Soon, the vital energy took the shape of a black palm. It rushed toward Austin's chest, emanating coldness. "Bone Melting Palm!" the young man in black yelled.

A rage filled his indifferent face. Sensing his vital energy force, Austin could tell that his cultivation base had reached the preliminary stage of the Mysterious Realm.

Seeing the black palm turn into a fist and rushing towards him, Austin didn't use any unusual or special skill of his. He knew he could dodge it easily so he waved his fist and got ready to smash it. With the extremely strong physical strength that he possessed, it was very easy for him to fend off the attack of the black fist.

A few seconds after the fists clashed, the black fist exploded with a bang.

It was clear to Austin now that a punch of 30, 000 pounds was enough to withstand the attack from an ordinary cultivator of the Mysterious Realm.

Seeing his attack go in vain, the young man in black trembled a little, and staggered two steps backwards. However, before he could stand firmly, Austin appeared in front of him like a ghost. He clenched his fingers into a fist and got ready to punch the young man in black.

"How dare you!"

The young man burst into anger. He struggled and tried to dodge the deadly punch. Austin was swifter than him. It was futile to try to escape from Austin's attacks.

With a bang, the young man was hit on the right arm. His arm got crushed into pieces and the flesh dropped on the ground. Blood splashed everywhere.

He let out a miserable shriek as his body was sent flying away by the impact of the punch like a kite with a broken string, leaving a beautiful arc behind him. Then he fell on the ground, fifty meters away.

Everyone was shocked and dumbfounded.

They couldn't believe that Austin had broken the arm of a cultivator of the Mysterious Realm with one blow.

The moment of silence was broken by the loud shouts of a few men.

And moments after that.

"How dare you!"

"You're risking your life!"

"It's totally intolerable!"

Another five imperial cultivators rushed over to Austin. From the vital energy that emanated from their bodies, Austin could tell that three among them were at the primary stage of Mysterious Realm and the other two were at the medium stage of Mysterious Realm. These were another five cultivators of the Mysterious Realm coming towards him!

Five strands of powerful vital energy force split the air and young man in me how many people you can defeat," was gloating too.

he immediately turned to the young man to fight against me at five imperial cultivators and sneered, staying shameless! How can the five of you fight against one person! It's unfair. Tin, I'm but curse. He strode out and summoned all his vital energy to be their vital energy secretly and were Maria and Iris were all at the premium stage of the Earth

if his friends made moves, they couldn't help him.

are no match for me," he shouted.

get into things which were more complex, so he stopped his friends immediately.

eye, a hundred beams of sword radiance formed five strands and shot towards the five imperial

"Clang! Clang! Clang..."

of clashes rang out.

strands of sword radiance with their palm, claw, sword, knife and stick cultivators were very surprised. They hadn't expected Austin to be able to fight against five of them, without cultivator, who had used his palm to resist Austin's sword radiance, struck with his full force, trying to vital energy took the form of a golden palm. It was so sharp that it looked as if it could tear anything and everything apart. Being wrapped in terrifying coldness, it rushed towards Austin.

"Great Vajra Palm!"

"Chilly Demon Claw!"

"Heart Pricking Sword!"

weapon thrust his sword ahead. A slim, colorful sword radiance with sharp killing intent moved in Austin's direction. This swordsmanship could even cause hallucinations. Once surrounded by the sword-light, the person was unable to move and could only watch the

"Thirteen-way Wild Wind Knife!"

Suddenly, a fierce gale sprang up, lifting sand and stones up

"Earth King Stick!"

last one among them used a stick. Soon, are not ordinary! Among the young generation of cultivators in the Violet Mysterious Realm cultivators in the imperial family. And they are so powerful and young. It is no wonder that the imperial family front of him, Austin thought with a opponent

his eyes. Quickly he shot ten Spiritual Sense Flying Needles into the Soul Sea

Two needles entered into the Soul Sea of each cultivator.

Compared to Austin's spiritual sense power, the spiritual sense power of each of those cultivators was still very weak.

Sensing that they were being attacked by the powerful flying needles, the five of them were anxious. They immediately summoned their own spiritual sense power to resist the needles in their Soul Sea.

Engrossed in that, their attacking strength and speed slowed down.

Taking up the opportunity, Austin summoned the Wind-commanding Skill. He floated forward and appeared in front of the cultivator who was using the palm as his weapon, and left a shadow where he had been.

With a loud rumble, the strong vital energy exploded, emitting a brilliant light.

As the soil got scattered everywhere, a huge hole of a dozen meters wide and five meters deep appeared where Austin had been. Everyone walked backwards in a hurry to dodge the soil being thrown upon them.

When the five cultivators attacked at the same time, the power was really terrifying.

However, they didn't seem to be proud, but were in a state of panic, as the Spiritual Sense Flying Needles hadn't been driven out of their Soul Sea yet.

With five against one, Austin's momentum kept rising. He collected his strength into his right arm, and waved a punch of 30, 000 pounds.

His powerful fist split the air and hit the cultivator, who was using his palm as a weapon, with a bang.

This cultivator was at the preliminary stage of Mysterious Realm. He felt his heart being struck. The next moment, he was thrown away, as though he was struck by lightning.

The combination of each punch of 30, 000 pounds, ten Spiritual Sense Flying Needles which were five times more powerful than earlier, plus the Wind-commanding Skill, enabled him move at an incredible speed over a short distance, Austin began to gain the upper hand.

After eight rounds, all the five imperial cultivators were annihilated. They were seriously injured and were no more in a position to fight back.

Everything happened and ended so quickly!

The proud expression that had been on the young man's face, quickly disappeared.

Philip, who had planned to watch Austin get beaten up, was shocked too.

Some in the crowd were shocked, while the others were in a state of panic. Nobody dared to make a sound, except the five cultivators who were knocked down by Austin. They were groaning with pain.

"Anybody else wants to fight?"

Austin asked with an indifferent tone, stretching his neck slightly.

The young man in yellow clenched his fist, but he didn't do anything. He looked at Austin with a dark face. There was hatred and viciousness in his eyes.

Philip swallowed hard. He looked at Austin with malice and fear in his eyes. He could tell that Austin's competence had improved a lot since he had participated in the Outstanding Talents Exchange Games.

During the competition of the Outstanding Talents Exchange Games, it had taken Austin a longer time to defeat Leo, who was at the medium stage of Mysterious Realm. However, this time, he had managed to triumph over these five Mysterious Realm cultivators with only eight moves! Obviously, his progress was significant.

The Supreme God

Chapter 486 Leave For Emperor Library

Although Philip was unwilling, he was very well aware that Austin was way more powerful than him. Even though, just half a month back, Michael and Philip were able to pin Austin down at Prince Reuben's estate. Who would have imagined that Austin would become so powerful within such a short span of time?

"Philip, I never expected that you will bite the hand that feeds you. You betray our Prince Reuben!"

Austin remarked and shook his head in dismay. He glanced at Philip's face and could not ignore the indifference in his attitude.

"Let's go!" Austin commanded in a stern voice and turned around.

Austin started to walk out of the woods followed by Dewey and others.

Some young imperial royal warriors were looking at the son of the king's hand. There was a young man in yellow attire. While some of the royal warriors waited for his command, some of them couldn't help intercepting Austin and his companions.

But they stopped themselves when the young man in yellow attire gestured them with his eyes.

Moments later, Austin and his fellows left the woods.

"My lord, should we let them go like this?"

"My lord, though Austin is very powerful, we have the strength of at least twenty men over here. I firmly believe that if we fight in collaboration with each other, we still have a great chance of taking him down."

All we need is a command from you to just rush out and tear him apart!"

Several warriors grumbled and were very unwilling to let Austin go like this and do nothing.

"No!"

The young man in yellow attire named Tolkien shook his head slowly with a serious face.

"He is too powerful for all of us put together at the moment. We can't stop him if he is determined to leave."

Don't be in haste. Both of my elder brothers have gone to the Emperor Library to fetch the high ranked martial skills. After they achieve that, they will surely spare some time to deal with Austin.

Humph, if my brothers want, even a dozen of Austins will not be able to combat with them."

There was a distinct mark of pride in his voice, Tolkien, as he mentioned about his two elder brothers. Tolkien's brothers were elites of the young royal siblings. Even the emperor himself never stopped appreciating them.

"Well, well. We'd rather go to the Emperor Library and meet my elder brothers.

There are martial skills of eighth and ninth levels in the Emperor Library. And there are plenty of them. If we can get even one of them, our trip will be worthwhile.

Had it not been for that fatty and the bitch, we would have met my brothers earlier."

The royal warriors were seemingly excited by Tolkien's words. Their eyes sparkled as they heard him.

After all, the attraction of the high ranked martial skills was too tempting for each one of them.

The young man gestured them by hand to make a move and then the rest of them marched out of the woods.

"Austin, I assure you that I will make you pay for your deeds in no time. I promise I will definitely make you cry for death."

leaving the woods, Tolkien glared at the way taken by Austin warriors left, a shadow suddenly flew out from behind a tree. It seemed that the shadow was quietly witnessing the whole event from miles to himself, "Emperor Library! Martial skills of eighth and ninth levels! Ha-ha! It seems that the

we will rob them of all their achievements even before they can even anticipate anything like strong stature and an extremely intimidating demonic aura that could not forehead that almost looked like it was alive—hideous as a creature could be, his hand, summoned nine yellow cards and planted nine rays of spiritual sense into the cards. In an instant, the cards turned into nine from the Mysterious Nether World. Seeing the yellow lights, the warriors reached out their hands, and then, immediately, the lights turned into yellow cards again and landed on their hands. Thereafter, the warriors used spiritual sense to enter the cards and read the message planted in their heads at the same time had an evil smile on their faces. Then they flew away had already traveled far away from the being rescued from the royal warriors. However, to their utter surprise, Austin appeared suddenly and beaten five

our eyes off from you!
felt thrilled when I saw the royals turned numb and humiliated! It's cool!
You're just incredible!
this ever since I was born. But, now, I admire you! You my idol from now Austin all the
it,
are flattering me.
like this. It makes ears off. But both Dewey and Maria were literally unstoppable. The moment, Dewey stopped, Maria started expressing her gratitude.
you very much for can't bring myself to imagine about core awe of Austin's incredible advancements from the premium stage of Mysterious Realm. However, Austin's befitting and well that it would be a cakewalk for Austin to beat her in a fight.

is of my age, yet his power has reached way above mine' Maria

she had met, none had

It's my honor.

had caused trouble for you because of me. So there is no need to tell that Maria thanked

"Eh?

never met these two beauties eyes sparkled at the sight of Iris and Anna.

beauties, nevertheless they were attractive. Both had delicate are Iris and Anna, the disciples met them by chance. Then we made

Austin explained, smiling.

aware of the power possessed by the disciples of the Pure Dream

two beauties by

I envy you!"

Dewey said as he glanced at Iris and Anna, measuring them with his eyes from top to bottom with his flirting eyes.

Austin and Maria were not surprised at Dewey's behavior at all, as they knew him very well. However, Iris and Anna were embarrassed and their cheeks turned red, just like ripe apples.

"By the way, how come you are attacked by those royal warriors?"

And, how come Philip was staying with the royals?"

Austin asked curiously.

Then Maria told Austin the story.

Dewey, Maria, and Philip met one another soon after they entered the Mysterious Nether World.

As they all served for Prince Reuben, they formed a team.

However, Dewey and Philip always had a lot of conflicts with each other, because they differed in their opinion towards Austin.

Philip became furious when both Dewey and Maria expressed their inclination more towards Austin than him. That made Philip split with them.

A few days later, Philip encountered the royal young warriors.

Surprisingly, all of them supported the Grand Prince in the game of the throne.

Moreover, they would chant crushing suppression on those who served the other princes and made them serve the Eldest Prince instead. If they dared show the slightest unwillingness, the royal warriors would behead them immediately.

Prince Reuben's unflinching trust towards Austin was the root cause of Philip's being envious towards him. Philip hated Austin's guts. Philip changed his allegiance as soon as he was asked to.

And not only that, Philip abetted the royals to hunt down Dewey and Maria.

They tried to escape by all means but failed. They got caught. And what happened after that was known to Austin.

"I see."

Austin said heaving a sigh. After hearing the whole story, he creased his eyebrows and started to introspect deeply on the possibilities of the expectant winner of the throne.

Judging from all this, the grand prince enjoyed great power. Unexpectedly, more than twenty young royals supported him.

And thus, he is most likely to win the game of the throne.

Austin had offended the grand prince by taking away his brides, Ivy, and Sue in the midst of their grand marriage celebration. Ever since that incident, the grand prince hated Austin. He gave standing instruction to hunt Austin down and tear him up.

Needless to say, the grand prince's anger could only be pacified only by Austin's death.

As Austin, reflected on the fiasco between the grand prince and himself, one thing became very clear in his mind.

"Hmmm, such being the case, I surely have to prevent the grand prince from winning the throne. Because, if I fail, the prince would undoubtedly slaughter me using every possible means. He could even order the whole empire to stand up against me."

'It is said that there are still many powerful older masters alive. They would all be pretty tough for me to fight against.

So, I must and should stop the grand prince.

Soon I will go back to the Emperor Library. I am sure to find the soul-recovering fruit at the second circle of the Mysterious Nether World. I will take it out and give it to Prince Reuben.'

Austin took a prompt decision and urged everyone to set out for the Emperor Library immediately.

Hearing of the Emperor Library, Dewey and Maria became very excited and followed Austin without any hesitation.

The Supreme God

Chapter 487 Arrival At The Emperor Library (Part One)

Austin and the rest of the group had finally succeeded in entering the second circle of the Mysterious Nether World.

In the second circle, they had encountered many demonic and diabolic beasts. They had soon discovered that the beasts populating the second circle were mainly at the sixth and seventh level.

This was different to their previous encounters while in the first circle of the Mysterious Nether World. The creatures there were far less powerful as they were mainly of the fourth and fifth levels.

However, cautiously they had tried their best during their travels to avoid confronting these new and far superior demonic and diabolic beasts, which were at sixth or seventh level in their strength. Fortune smiled on them and they were able to make smooth headway in their journey whilst avoiding any unfortunate encounters.

By the evening of the next day, they had finally crossed the dense forest, where huge trees crowded together to form a thick canopy, and they arrived at an imposing mountain which dominated the skyline where it rose formidably from the forest.

The mountain didn't seem to have any peaks. It was overgrown by lush greenery and monstrous trees for as far as the eye could see. It appeared more like a massive beast reclining in the dense jungle than a mountain. When looking up they could just barely distinguish a huge, ancient building atop it which was obscured by the tree line near the summit.

"There at the top is the Emperor Library!"

Austin exclaimed to the others, while gazing at their destination with undisguised excitement.

"Tin, we should hurry up and immediately begin ascending the mountain," Dewey said impatiently. He was always a rash person.

"No, not now. I've noticed that there are some people resting at the foot of the mountain. Obviously they arrived here before us and they also know about the existence of the Emperor Library. We should not rush blindly into the unknown.

Besides, it's very late now. I assume that those people also plan to stay here and rest for the night. They will in all likelihood also climb to the top in the morning and seek to enter the Emperor Library.

stop and rest for the night. We to access, and we will need our strength," Austin said, quickly shaking his head to emphasize his point.

right and they could vaguely see bonfires flickering because Angus had told him about it. But how did these other travelers also know about it? Austin felt a strange sensation his spiritual sense and sought to detect what was happening ahead of them at are the cultivators sent by the royal house. So, it seems that the royal house of the Violet Orchid Empire also knows about group of people crowding around the bonfires ahead of them was the warriors from the royal house that he had met not long others found a suitably level piece of ground nearby and set up camp for the night. They had brought all the equipment needed for outdoor camping, conveniently stored in their Space Rings. Immediately and efficiently they unpacked their equipment from the Space Rings and had finished setting up the foot of the mountain. A group of about them wore a yellow robe. He was the son of the prime minister, with two of the men who sat making him stand out among the group. The strong vital energy force emitting from him was surprising, making everyone who met on the ground, he kept his back very straight. He personified an extraordinary spear standing the royal laws. He has repeatedly harmed several royal cultivators. He has done the most man, and it appears that only you two possess the necessary skills and abilities

Austin is the current champion of the Outstanding Talents Exchange Games.

young and the honor has made him forget who he is. He

How strong is he really?" the handsome young man in yellow asked with a subtle frown.

"According to my observation, and judging by the vital energy force emitting from him, I would guess him to be at the medium stage of Mysterious Realm.

But his fighting ability is better than what he should be capable of. He possesses much stronger fighting abilities than what is common to cultivators at his level."

"Huh! He's merely a cultivator at medium stage of Mysterious Realm. It's so absurd that you would make such a fuss about him.

Don't forget that your cultivation base is at the premium stage of Mysterious Realm. You could swiftly and easily kill this weakling. He's after all only at the medium stage of Mysterious Realm. Don't make such a joke, and then expect us to act on it," the man in the golden robe sneered.

Tolkien's face became expressionless after he heard this, and he was a little embarrassed.

He had always been subservient and even servile in front of his two brothers, never daring to act against them.

"Tolkien, forget about Austin.

Our priority now is to enter the Emperor Library and retrieve those high grade martial arts skills hidden there.

All other things can wait.

Austin is only a clown. He doesn't deserve any special attention. If we should meet him along the way, then we can quickly kill him," Tolkien's brother in yellow said slowly, filled with self-assurance.

"Okay," Tolkien nodded and dared not contradict them by speaking more about Austin again.

The Supreme God

Chapter 488 Arrival At The Emperor Library (Part Two)

Few stars were visible through the boughs canopied above them, and though the moon shone brightly, it was still dark beneath the trees. The night was bitterly cold. And everyone huddled around the fires for warmth, except for one man.

In his tent, Austin sat cross-legged in meditation. The cold did not bother him and, though his breath steamed in the biting air, he focused on the task at hand. His consciousness wandered back into his Soul Sea.

His spiritual sense had improved by five times, and Austin planned to cultivate the fourth level of the Spiritual Sense Flying Needle.

Austin knew that the power of his spiritual sense far outstripped that of the Sky Realm warriors. But he had no idea of just exactly how strong his spiritual sense was.

Regardless, he believed that it was strong enough for him to accomplish the fourth stage of the Spiritual Sense Flying Needle.

After slowly diving deeper into his Soul Sea, Austin began following the instructions for the fourth stage of the Spiritual Sense Flying Needle. He began to use his power of spiritual sense to refine the Flying Needle.

One Spiritual Sense Flying Needle. Two Spiritual Sense Flying Needles...

The Spiritual Sense Flying Needles arose one after another in his Soul Sea.

The speed with which he refined the Spiritual Sense Flying Needles this time was faster than ever.

After about two hours of meditation, ten Spiritual Sense Flying Needles were refined in his Soul Sea.

to the ten Spiritual Sense Flying Needles he had previously refined, Austin now had twenty Spiritual Sense Flying Needles at his Austin could cease the cultivation of the Spiritual Sense Flying Needle, which was a martial arts skill concerning the cultivation of spiritual sense. He had now mastered all the stages in according to his command. After a short while, Austin had become much more skillful at manipulating them. It became as a warrior's Soul Sea, even if he was a very strong warrior,

Flying Needles ever attacked an Earth Realm warrior's Soul Sea, and the warrior turned out to be weak in strength, that warrior's Soul Sea might be immediately destroyed had no time to dodge attacks from such skills as they couldn't see the attack coming. And when they finally one

Austin fell asleep without the next morning as the first

Maria, Iris, and Anna also the Mysterious Nether World with the purpose of exploring wondrous lands, improving their skills, and hunting treasures. No one would waste time on his Space Ring, his spiritual sense detected that the royal group companions. They set off, secretly following in their strengths. Over half of that group were at the Mysterious Realm of warriors in the Violet Orchid Empire would be them were all royal warriors, and he was not afraid of common Mysterious Realm cultivators. But with the help of the spiritual sense, he could feel that there were two streams of strong energy waves undulating from could tell that these two cultivators were powerful figures to be reckoned with. Even he himself might not be able to

It seemed that the royal house was the most powerful force in the Violet Orchid Empire. Its solid foundation gave it an advantage and it was able to cultivate young warriors who would reach high levels in the martial arts.

Earlier, Austin had planned to ignore all the other groups and directly go to the top of the mountain where he would force his way into the Emperor Library.

However, after sensing the powerful strengths of this royal group, he decided to change the plan. He would secretly follow behind them at first, and then decide what to do once their destination was revealed.

After half an hour, Austin and his companions finally reached the top of the mountain.

At the top, an ancient square came into view.

The square was paved with vivid blue stones. It appeared as if the place had existed for thousands of years. At the end of the square stood a three-layered palace, which looked both magnificent and regal. It exuded a special aura of eternity which permeated the air, making people look at it in awe.

The doors of the palace were firmly closed. They could see four huge shadows at the doors, two by each side. Upon closer examination, they found that the shadows were four sculptures. Each of them was three meters high and in the shape of a warrior. They looked strong, and every warrior sculpture had a saber tied at their waist.

There was a painted sign hanging above the door, which read, "Emperor Library". The words were beautifully written in a kind of ancient styled calligraphy.

Looking at the words on the board, everyone was thrilled, and their eyes glinted with excitement. The building was the Emperor Library, where sixth and even seventh grade martial arts skills manuals were housed.

Austin and the group with him hid behind an ancient tree, the trunk of which was so thick that it would take at least four or five people to encircle it with their arms.

At that moment, the twenty-odd warriors from the royal house stood in a line, side by side in front of the palace. Austin noticed that Philip was among the group. Obviously, Philip had also come.

The Supreme God

Chapter 489 Breaking Into The Array

Gathering before the palace, the young cultivators sent by royalty seemed to be discussing something.

"Austin, what are they waiting for? Why don't they just get in there?"

Maria whispered to Austin out of curiosity after watching them for a while. To avoid prying eyes, Maria stood too close to Austin while she talked. Her breath smelled as fresh as orchids, causing a pleasant feeling to ripple over Austin's body.

"The palace is surrounded by a special array. Look carefully and you will see the faint layer of an energy ray," Austin replied to her in a low voice.

Once they had reached the top of the mountain, Austin sensed that the palace was safeguarded with a special and secure cover, probably due to some kind of a protection array.

Cautiously approaching it, Austin judged that the protection array was a mysterious one with a profoundly long history. However, as time passed, its power had gradually decreased. Now, probably only ten percent of it was left.

Even so, destroying the protection array was not so straightforward.

Austin explained this to Maria.

Dewey, Iris and Anna were right beside them, listening to the conversation, so they got to understand the dilemma as well.

They turned to the palace and perceived a very thin layer of energy ray encircling it.

Also blocked by the array, the group of young men was trying to work out a plan.

After some moments of deliberation, they started to move. It seemed that they wanted to break into the array straightaway, using sheer force.

The young man in front was the first to take action. Dressed in a golden robe, his long hair was spread out across his shoulder. Suddenly, beams of golden light appeared around his feet, gathering into the shape of a spear.

He stamped his foot and the spear started to tremble violently. Shafts of brilliant golden light speedily merged together on the point of the spear. Within seconds, the spear had grown to an enormous size—to about forty meters—before it dashed out like lightning.

Zing!

The spear blasted its way to the protection array.

Austin was stunned by the formidable attack.

'His vital energy force is ruthless!

Is he at the Sky Realm? He certainly could be!"

Austin was stupefied and thought to himself. He didn't expect the young man to belong to the Sky Realm.

Dewey, Maria, Iris and Anna were all at the Earth Realm. With limited cultivation bases, they could feel the extraordinarily strong motion of the vital energy force, but they couldn't tell the specific base of the young man in the golden robe.

As Austin stood rooted to the ground in surprise, the spear composed of the violent vital energy force collided against the cover around the palace, causing ripples on its surface.

was a slight tremble, the cover remained solid as ever as it weathered the attack of the Sky wearing light yellow robes joined tranquil, his hands folded behind of blue vital energy molded together above him before they attacked the protection array around the palace consecutively. As they darted ahead, Boom!

of a sudden, the ripples on the surface spread and awestruck once again. This young man

Unbelievable!

two cultivators were at the Sky Realm had taken him aback. With a serious expression on the face, he pondered over the course of action before him even as his situation was rapidly going out learning of the existence of the Emperor Library from Angus, he thought he was the only one who just needed to get inside the palace and that the young cultivators sent over by to him if they wanted had found out that there were two cultivators at the Sky Realm among the

a lot of the royalty, the two cultivators at the Sky Realm would certainly trouble Austin once they figured out that he was in their

was confident in his skills and experience in fighting. Even rivals at the premium stage of the Mysterious Realm were of no concern opportunity of acquiring the high-level manuals in the Emperor Library?

Sky Realm, the odds

the efforts their group had made, it was not easy for Austin to just turn around and retreat. It seemed such a waste.

to wait and watch, looking for an opportunity to strike at the best moment.

example of the young man in the golden robe, the rest of the cultivators too

Boom. Boom...

entire square reverberated with deafening noise. Powerful beams of vital energy two cultivators of the cover appeared to dull little by little before it saw it that the protection array was about to prospect, the attacks shall

Austin quietly.

can do in this strong cultivators. I'm afraid in deciding what to do next,"

believe they are stronger him, Austin was invincible in his generation. He could hardly imagine anyone defeating Austin. That

But Dewey was also aware of whom Austin was referring to. The first cultivator was in the golden robe, the other in yellow ones.

Suddenly, Austin grew alert. His eyes darted to the other side of the square, lush with a verdant primeval forest.

'Others are hiding in there. How do they know about the Emperor Library?'

With the help of his spiritual sense, Austin detected about ten people lurking in the woods.

More acutely, he found that they were all at rather high cultivation bases.

Judged from the aura surrounding them, almost every one of them could equal Austin in strength!

It was so unusual. What brought these many elite cultivators over here?

Those hiding in the forest were clearly not on the same side as the cultivators sent over by the royalty.

Among the one hundred young cultivators who passed over to the Mysterious Nether World, only about twenty of them were affiliated to the royalty. The rest were from different sects of the Violet Orchid Empire.

The very best among them had taken part in the Outstanding Talents Exchange Games, where Austin had obtained a basic understanding of their strengths.

Strictly speaking, the contestants were no match to Austin.

So where did these lot of cultivators come from?

Were they from the Heavenly Dragon Holy Kingdom? Did they come to the Mysterious Nether World for some kind of an undercover operation?

Yet, according to the young man from the Heavenly Dragon Holy Kingdom, whom Austin had met earlier, they could send no more than ten cultivators over. With restrictions in place that allowed them to assign only one person per day, it would take at least ten days to achieve that goal.

It had been only four or five days since Austin killed him, so the cultivators were unlikely to be from the Heavenly Dragon Holy Kingdom.

A myriad of thoughts bounced around his mind. He was utterly confused.

Crack!

A noise resounded from the direction of the palace.

The protection array was nearly broken!

Austin focused his attention on the cover around the palace once again.

The energy light was fading quickly. The cracks appeared to become more visible.

Finally, after a loud explosion, the cover broke into innumerable pieces, stirring up a huge cloud of dust.

The protection array had been destroyed.

"Let's go inside!"

Overjoyed, the young man in the golden robe waved over, telling his companions to enter the palace behind him.

The Supreme God

Chapter 490 Entering Into the Palace

Once the men from imperial royal family broke off the energy shield of the protection array, they became excited. Their eyes shone with fervor and anticipation. They started rushing towards the palace gate. They were hungry—like an impoverished man who had just sighted food. They looked crazy.

The man in the golden robe took the lead. He stamped the long golden spear right beside his foot. All of a sudden, the spear exploded into a shining golden light and dashed towards the palace gate at breakneck speed.

The palace gate was made of two giant, formidable rocks. It was tightly shut.

The man in the golden robe drove the golden spear under his foot and rushed to the gate. He didn't linger. That shining sharp golden spear-light boomed onto those two rocks.

Boom!

With a loud explosion, the two rocks turned into tiny pebbles by the sharp golden spear-light, remnants of the rocks spattering into the air.

The man in the golden robe bolted and disappeared through those crushed stones like a sharp arrow. He had broken into the palace!

At the same time, the handsome man in the yellow clothes entered immediately after the man in the golden robe. He stepped inside the palace.

The rest of the members from the imperial royal family also activated their bodily movement skills. In a moment, all of them broke into the palace.

"Tin, shall we go in too?"

When Dewey saw that everyone from the imperial royal family had entered the three-layer palace, he asked Austin anxiously.

Maria and others also looked at Austin, eagerly waiting for his reply. In this small team, Austin was obviously the most authoritative one. It was his word that would be considered as final.

Austin used his spiritual sense power to lock ten shadows at the edge of square. They had a considerably strong presence. The ten shadows were going to move soon.

Austin knew that these ten people would definitely break into the palace once they realized that the people from the imperial royal family had entered. They were obviously unwilling to lag behind. Without doubt, they would enter and fight for the treasure inside.

his team went in at this moment, there would be too many people in the palace. A would then take his would draw to an end, he would take his team to swoop in and clean the mess. The cultivators of Sky Realm in the imperial royal family. The ten strong power, Dewey, Maria, Iris and Anna made up the entire team and they were too weak.

at the palace, his team was the weakest in regard why Austin didn't want to be rash in his decision-making. There was our time. Let us be to the

was some movement from the a sound which went "haw-haw-haw" coming from the edge of square. It sounded similar to laughing. Then, the ten shadows appeared in the square.

they used bodily movement skills and floated through the gates like ten they were startled. Austin of course was not. The four of them hadn't reached Mysterious Realm. Hence, they hadn't generated their own spiritual sense powers. That was why they were unable to know the existence of these ten people beforehand.

go

we go inside, we must perform no more than our capability. Whenever we have a chance, we will take the opportunity to seize who just entered all have powerful cultivation bases. If we get into any conflict with them, our lives would immediately. Do not be reluctant. Life is more precious than treasure.

at the same time, I will try to grab as many treasures as possible. Don't worry, I will details about the Emperor Library sent by Angus. With the help of the details, he had come to know that the most precious treasures were in the third floor of the palace. He worried that Dewey and the rest would have a conflict with the other two groups because of the treasures. With the cultivation bases of Dewey and the rest three, if a conflict broke out, it would be next to impossible for them

them

Dewey, Maria, Iris and Anna saw Austin's solemn face, they knew that they had to follow weak. The most important thing for them was to keep their lives intact. If they

They nodded their heads in agreement.

"Okay. Let's go inside."

Austin waved his hand and asked four people to activate their bodily movement skills. They darted into the palace.

Just as they entered, a sense of intimidation prevailed over them. Right in front was a vast hall.

In this hall, there was some awe-inspiring power that was in display. The power was great enough to make people feel themselves really small and insignificant for unknown reasons.

Fortunately, the power would gradually become weak enough. Otherwise any cultivator would be suppressed and would be unable to move.

Feeling the power remained everywhere in the hall, Austin also felt the tension. The owner of the Emperor Library must be horrible. Judging by the power that remained, people were already feeling insignificant. Austin couldn't imagine how horrible the owner would have been when he was alive.

As they just entered into the hall, Austin and his teammates lifted their heads to see what was inside. The sight stunned them.

In the hall at this moment, two groups who had entered were now standing opposite to each other. It seemed that a verbal fight had already transpired.

Austin and his teammates also found another shield in front of them. Above the shield, seven colors kept rotating and layers of energy ripples oscillated from time to time.

The space that the shield enveloped was massive. In the shield, hundreds of colors were dancing and it looked like a swirling set of rainbows.

Every color seemed to hide a book. The flashes of colors kept dancing inside the shield.

More than that, above each color, a number was displayed. Some number had the digit five. Some had six.

Hundreds of colors pirouetted around with those numbers.

"Books about martial arts!"

Every one narrowed their eyes when they saw those dancing colors in the shield. They all gazed in eagerness. Everyone was sure that those dancing colors were the books about martial arts that were famed to have been housed in the Emperor Library.