

Surprised Wife With Twins (Ivan and Jennifer) Chapter 109

Jennifer stood in the doorway in shock, upset by what Catherine said.

Catherine got up and walk toward Ivan. She put down the coffee cup on Ivan's desk, pressed her hands on the desktop, and said earnestly, "Ivan, even if you try to confront Aubree, it's silly of you to sacrifice your own happiness."

Jennifer stopped in her tracks and calmly clenched her fists.

"Ivan, I can always wait for you. Whenever you make up your mind and divorce Jennifer, I will be willing to be your wife."

Ivan was annoyed and wanted to drive Catherine out, but the moment he raised his eyes, he saw Jennifer standing at the door.

"Sorry for the intrusion." Jennifer turned around and wanted to leave!

Ivan got up, pushed aside Catherine, and quickly ran after Jennifer. Catherine almost stumbled to the floor.

She lost her balance, turned around and held onto the couch, nearly breaking her foot on her heels.

In the corridor full of bas-relieves, Ivan grabbed Jennifer's arm and stopped her in front of the elevator.

Before Jennifer could figure out what was going on, she was dragged back to the office.

"Ivan! What are you doing?!" Jennifer struggled. "Let go of me! I don't want to see you and her!"

Catherine watched in dismay as Ivan brought Jennifer in and took her straight into a secret chamber!

The filing cabinet was rotatable.

After Ivan walked in, the filing cabinet restored to its original position.

Catherine looked towards that cabinet with resentment and bit her lower lips.

How dare Jennifer resist! Ivan took the initiative to hug her.

But Jennifer pretended to be unwilling. What a hypocritical woman!

The chamber was where Ivan rested, and inside it was a bedroom, which Catherine knew.

She had talked to Ivan about a scheme in it.

The chamber had a big floor-to-ceiling window, so it was well lit.

Ivan threw Jennifer onto the wide and soft bed!

Images of her eating with Spencer kept haunting Ivan! It made him frown over and over again.

Jennifer saw the anger in his eyes as if he wanted to eat her up.

“I didn’t mean to disturb you. Why are you so angry?” Jennifer said guiltily, “I’m sorry for being here. I’ll go now”

Hearing that, Ivan was even more furious! He ripped off his tie and he got into bed!

“You bastard! Go away!” Jennifer was shocked and panicked. “Ivan! Are you crazy? Get out!”

“As your husband, it’s legal for me to sleep with you!” Ivan was so angry that Jennifer even didn’t know why he was annoyed.

Jennifer was also very angry at what Ivan did! She thought Ivan was just like a crazy wolf!

In her extremity, Jennifer grabbed Ivan’s arm and bit it hard.

Jennifer tried her best.

Ivan clenched his teeth and got sober with the pain.

He was forced to let go of Jennifer.

But Jennifer didn’t let go of Ivan’s arm.

Jennifer didn’t stop until she was exhausted, and she stared at Ivan with hatred.

Ivan stood in front of the bed and said angrily, “You went to see Spencer Lawrence again!”

Jennifer was shocked.

She didn’t expect Ivan was annoyed at this.

“Well, I’ll explain.” Jennifer was here to explain.

Ivan, however, turned to leave. Jennifer hurriedly got up and followed him out, “Stop!”

Seeing that all their clothes were wrinkled, Catherine was heartbroken.

She even saw the hickeys on Jennifer’s neck! Both of them were gasping.

Ivan looked at Jennifer, turned his eyes to Jennifer, and grabbed her wrist. “Let’s go home now!”

After Ivan and Jennifer walked away, Catherine fell onto a chair in distress. She felt she was like a joke to Ivan!

Everything Catherine did tonight was in vain.

Catherine rarely mustered up the courage to tell so much to Ivan, but Jennifer ruined it!
