

Surprised Wife With Twins (Ivan and Jennifer) Chapter 127

The girl saw that Spencer was looking at her and walked over.

Spencer frowned and drank his wine.

"Spence..." the girl stood in front of him and asked in a low voice, "Why didn't you invite me? I'm your girlfriend. I should be here to celebrate with you..."

Everyone was in shock.

Girlfriend?

Was this Spencer's type?

"Listen, from now on, you are not my girlfriend anymore," Spencer said in a casual tone, but he wasn't joking.

The girl felt a lump in her throat and looked aggrieved. "Spencer, how could you do that? What have I done wrong? I have been obedient to you the whole time and I always listened to your words."

"If so, get out of here. Now!" Spencer said coldly, "Fuck off!"

The girl felt so aggrieved. With tears in her eyes, she bit her lips.

"Just go. Spencer doesn't like to repeat his words."

"Spencer has dated a lot of women before. Just forget him. He never settles."

The girl turned around and left in unwillingness.

She had only dated Spencer for 12 days and got dumped for God knew why. They had never even kissed and she became his 78th ex-girlfriend...

He never settled with anyone, but women kept throwing themselves at him.

It was all because he had this handsome face and mesmerizing charm. He didn't have a type and he chose his girlfriends at his will.

He dated them and broke up with them all so randomly

"Spencer, that was your type?" someone asked straightforwardly, "Even I wouldn't be interested in that."

Spencer didn't answer his question.

He danced to the music while drinking.

He was having the best time of his life!

He was about to become an actor with tons of fans. He could do whatever he wanted from now on!

"Spencer, are you sure you can get Georgia?" someone asked curiously.

Another guy snorted and said, "What are you talking about? There is no woman Spencer can't get."

Spencer didn't say anything.

In his eyes, the only challenge he had ever encountered was Jennifer!

He loved to fight with Ivan! It gave him a sense of accomplishment.

"Brothers, cheers!" Spencer said loudly, "No matter where I end up, we will always be friends! As long as I find a new site, we'll start a new club there in the future! Right now, you just have to focus on the competition!"

"Cheers!"

"Cheers!"

A distance from them, the young women noticed Spencer and became excited.

"Hey! Isn't that the guy who's going to play the hero in 'Love in Violet Gold Bay'?"

"Yes! It is him! He's so hot!"

"Let's go ask him to take a photo with us! I just followed him on Twitter today!"

Then, they all walked up to Spencer.

"Spencer! I am your fan. Can I take a picture with you?"

"Spencer, you are so handsome!"

This evening was a bustling and exciting one.

Spencer didn't put on any airs. He took pictures with all those women because he was in a really good mood tonight.

In the Emerald Bay.

Ivan got on bed after a shower. He cared much about his health and seldom stayed up late.

Jennifer sat on the couch facing the window, lost in thought. If she was to get close to Aubree, she needed to be someone else.

In that case, she couldn't show Aubree her face. She needed a mask.

As for her voice, it was a simple job. She just needed some voice disguise.

Jennifer was determined to cure Aubree.

She didn't do it for the one billion, but for Ivan.

Somehow, she found that she had started feeling different about Ivan. She wanted to get the feelings under control, but she was worried that her efforts would be in vain.

Ivan was a dangerously attractive man. They were right about him.

It was all so easy for her to fall for him.

For he was such a together man. He didn't like having much contact with women, which had saved a lot of women from getting their hearts broken.