

Surprised Wife With Twins (Ivan and Jennifer) novel

Chapter 21

"Is she so important?" The woman was unwilling to believe it. "Is Jennifer living here? Ivan gave her the permission?" But what she knew was that he had always been very aloof from women!

The butler's silence was the answer.

Catherine looked at the butler. Her pride was shattered, and her heart sank to the bottom.

Her beautiful and cold eyes were full of disbelief and unwillingness.

At this time, in the living room of the villa.

Jennifer picked up a phone and dialed the number of Ivan.

She sat down on the sofa and said, "Ivan, I'm warning you. You can play with any women you like outside, but can you please tell them not to bother me? It severely affects my mood, and I can breach this contract too! If one day I get caught in the press hooking up with a guy and ruining the reputation of your family, don't blame me! Remember, I can do whatever you've done to me as well!"

After that, she hung up the phone angrily!

In the clean and gorgeous CEO office of the Marsh Group, there was a man in a suit who was confused.

Finnley walked into the office and said, "Mr. Marsh, what you told me to investigate..."

Ivan raised his hand and dialed the butler's number on the phone. He asked in a low voice, "Who went to the house?"

"Mr. Marsh, Miss. Collins has just arrived."

Ivan frowned slightly and ordered calmly, "Set up the security system to make sure that she and her car will not be allowed to get in anymore."

"Yes, sir."

Ivan put down his mobile phone and looked at Finnley. "What did you find?"

Finnley reported respectfully, "Sir, I'm sorry that I couldn't find out the relationship between Mrs. Marsh and Zack Clarke, and they are just like two strangers. They didn't know each other."

It was strange.

At Mya's birthday party, Jennifer didn't look at Zack like she didn't know him. Ivan was lost in thought.

Finnley reported, "I'm not sure about the relationship between Emma and her, or you suspect that she is Emma. But there is no direct evidence yet."

There was nothing they had found out.

Ivan didn't say anything, but he was sure that there was something that had been done with Jennifer's background because it was so uncommon that everything was so clean.

"Find out how Mya and she met." Ivan suddenly thought of something. "By the way, there is a man named Edward Hart in Sunshine Village."

"Mrs. Marsh knows medical skills. She once cured the old Mr. Saunders' chronic disease, so Ms. Saunders admires her very much and wants to learn from Mrs. Marsh. According to the villagers, Ms. Saunders drove a luxury car to the village and stayed with Mrs. Marsh for more than half a year. Only then did Mrs. Marsh agree to make friends with her."

Ivan was a little surprised when he heard this.

Finnley continued, "As for Edward, he is 20 years old. He is the disciple of Mrs. Marsh. He has been with her since he was 15 years old. Now a village doctor. As a young man who is indifferent to fame and fortune, he devoted himself to studying medicine. He gets along well with Alfie and Diana."

Finnley was very thoughtful.

However, Ivan seemed to have encountered unprecedented resistance. His eyes were as dark as a black hole.

He had to know everything about the woman who was close to him. He could not let her become a time bomb.

"Contact Mya for me. I want to see her."

"Yes, sir."

Ten minutes later.

In the coffee shop downstairs of the Marsh Group, Mya bit the straw and looked at the man whose arms crossed in front of his chest without blinking. This handsome face was so charming.

The two looked at each other. One was cold, and the other was innocent and appreciating this pretty face.

"I really don't know what's the relationship between her and Emma. Even if you ask me ten thousand times more today, I will answer you the same way." Mya was a little scared by his stare. Her pink lips let go of the straw and she sighed.

At the same time, her cell phone rang. She took out her mobile phone and said, "My friend asked me to practice yoga. I should leave now!" She took the bag and stood up. "Even if you kill me today, I will also give you the same answer!"

Before she finished her words, she ran away quickly.

Ivan thought that it was wrong to meet her today. It was a waste of time!

At the same time, he was more curious about Jennifer. What magic could make the daughter of the mayor keep a secret for her?

In the meantime, Catherine's car turned back to Emerald Bay. She wanted to drive in, but she was stopped at the gate.

"I lost an earring!" She looked out of the window and said, "Let me in to look for it!"

"I'm sorry, Ms. Collins." The guard refused. "Mr. Marsh has instructed. Without his permission, you can't step into Emerald Bay again!"
