

Surprised Wife With Twins (Ivan and Jennifer) Chapter 264

“Spencer, I...” Jennifer didn’t know how to explain that, “I just don’t know how to refuse you.”

“What about when you begged me to give blood to him? What did you promise me?” Spencer stared at her coldly, “And what did you promise me last night?”

She felt so guilty.

“I almost died trying to save him! You know that, right?” He stared at her with fierce eyes and his tone was angry, “I just told you I love you. And you want to leave without saying goodbye?”

“I don’t know how to face you.” She felt guilty, “I can’t give you anything.”

“So might as well not face it?” He was angry.

“Spencer, thank you very much...”

“Don’t say thanks.” He frowned, “I won’t force you, but I also have the right to pursue you, right? We are both single.”

“...” She didn’t know how to answer.

“You and Ivan are over, have you read the news?” He raised his lips lightly, deliberately provoking, “He is going to marry Catherine and he has prepared a grand wedding for her.”

She was silent but a little sad.

“And where can you go?” He looked at her, “Leave Arkpool City? You will never see Alfie and Diana in the rest of your life.”

And that deeply hurt her.

Spencer put away the coldness in his eyes, sighed, and said seriously, “Stay here. Let’s get along as before and just pretend nothing happened. I will help you take them back.”

Something flashed in her eyes.

“I like you and will never force you.” Spencer said, “I was drunk last night but I didn’t do anything to you, so you can see that I am reliable, you can rest assured.”

“How are you going to help me get them back?” She was concerned about this issue.

“Don’t leave now.” He said, “I’ll find a way. How is your relationship with their servants?”

Jordan and Marry?

She got along pretty well with them.

Spencer said, "We can start with them. Ivan can't be at home 24 hours a day, right? He has to go to the company."

Jennifer hadn't seen them for several months. Although she didn't worry about them, she missed them very much.

"In short, leave it to me, and I will manage to do that as soon as possible." His lips curled slightly, "If you leave without a word, I'll make Ivan suffer."

She held her breath, and looked at him intently, seeing that his smile was a little cold.

"The news about his car accident was not reported, and they didn't know about his memory loss." Spencer showed a smug expression, "Once this news is exposed, it will cause an uproar in the financial field, right?"

"Spencer, do you know what you're saying?" Although she sat quietly, her eyes were cold, "Don't threaten me. I won't sit still."

"This is not a threat. I'm just reminding you to stay by my side." He asked lightly, "Is it wrong to keep someone you like?"

"..."

After a while, he stood up, "Okay, I'm going to film today. Be my guest."

Looking at his back, Jennifer sat on the sofa with a trace of anger in her eyes.

Two hours later, Tammy came in again.

Seeing that she was still sitting in that position, she felt very sorry, "Miss Brooks, would you come downstairs and have breakfast?"

"How did he know I was leaving?" Jennifer looked up at her, "Has he been sitting outside for the whole night?"

"Yeah." She nodded and persuaded, "Please don't leave. Even if it's for Mr. Marsh, Mr. Lawrence is not afraid of anything and he's really gonna go public with his amnesia."
