

Surprised Wife With Twins (Ivan and Jennifer) Chapter 421

Ivan didn't see Pippa. He sat in his chair and stared at the changing room.

After about five minutes, the door opened.

Jennifer appeared in his sight, lifting the hem of her dress and walking over. She was elegant, as if she was shining brightly.

He rose to meet her. His eyes were soft, and his heart was only for her.

The dress was well-fitting and simple with a round collar. This dress set off her slender neck and her elegance very nicely.

Sequins adorned the whole dress. Under the light, it was so beautiful that he couldn't even take his eyes off it. The whole dress was made of comfortable fabric, and the exquisite workmanship could be seen and felt.

Just because Jennifer was wearing it, the dress looked more expensive. It was luxurious and elegant.

"Is it beautiful?" she asked playfully when she saw how he had been unable to look away.

Ivan held her and looked at her affectionately. "My wife is the most beautiful woman in this world!"

When she heard such cheesy words, a pretty smile appeared on Jennifer's face. She was like a flower.

"Go get your hair done, honey." Ivan took her to the dressing table.

"Mrs. Marsh, we have got quite a lot of experience in hairstyles. You can tell us what you want."

"I trust you." Jennifer was friendly, "Do as you see fit."

"Okay."

Then the stylists began to do her hair, smiling and gently. It was their pleasure to just help her with her hair.

After Pippa had done her hair and makeup, she felt that the person in the mirror was so unfamiliar! It seemed just like she had used ten filters.

She couldn't help taking out her phone for a selfie. She was just like a child!

From time to time, she made cute gestures, changed her background. But she couldn't take a full-length picture of herself. Oh, what a pity.

"Mr. Marsh." Pippa stood in front of Ivan.

Ivan looked away from his wife and met Pippa's eyes. He looked very calm and didn't think that she was too beautiful to recognize.

“Could you please take a full-length photo of me?” Pippa asked expectantly. Although she was smiling, she couldn’t help feeling anxious.

Ivan, with his noble temperament and mild eyes, reached for her mobile phone.

Pippa put her phone in his hand and said, “Thank you!” Then she turned and ran away.

She had already chosen her background and with a confident and calm smile on her face she posed in a pose that could make her legs look longer.

Ivan did not take photos casually. He moved his noble bodies, found a good angle, and took more than one photo of her with professional methods.

“Change your posture,” he reminded sometimes.

Pippa did as she was told. Her various poses were captured by Ivan.

Ivan treated Pippa well because Pippa had once told him something.

It was also because Pippa truly wanted him to be with Jennifer.

So whether she was an employee or not, she could be a friend.

After Jennifer put on her makeup, Ivan took them to the car and went to the banquet.

As the heroine in the drama, Georgia hoped that she could be the brightest star tonight.

After putting on exquisite makeup, she came to Spencer. “The director said that I’m your companion tonight.” As soon as she finished speaking, she took the initiative to hold his arm.

Spencer put his hands in his pockets. He did not push her away, but his eyes were cold.
