

Surprised Wife With Twins (Ivan and Jennifer) Chapter 454

"We'd better go fishing right now, after we are finished, we will bring you some fish. You know? The fish here are really delicious."

"Just go and leave right after you're done," one of Hanson's men said.

"Okay! Thank you!" the farmers smiled. "Here, take all the cigarettes." Then they walked away.

Hanson's men looked at them. It seemed that they were really farmers. Their waists were slightly bent, it must be from year of farm work.

At this moment, in Rowan's house.

Ivan and Spencer had been staring at the red dot on the tablet computer for three minutes, finally, the red dot was moving ahead.

They breathed a sigh of relief.

Yes, the "farmers" were Ivan's men and they had managed to sneak in.

"Since the money is ready and your men are in, should we ask Hanson for the address now?" Spencer couldn't wait anymore, and he was getting angrier and angrier about Hanson.

Ivan turned his head and looked into his eyes calmly. "You need to think about the bigger picture. We need to keep everyone alive."

Spencer was irritated and didn't want to reason with him. "We're alive here, but what about Jennifer? Do you love her at all? How could you be so calm?"

"I love her, but I don't want you to die," Ivan answered.

Spencer looked into his eyes and saw the mixed feelings in them.

"Just call him and tell him the money is ready," Ivan said in a low voice. "And I want to know how Jennifer is doing."

Spencer had also been worried about how Jennifer was doing.

Therefore, he called Hanson.

On the second floor of the abandoned warehouse, the sudden ringing of his phone interrupted Hanson's game, he frowned and looked up irritably. He met Jennifer's eyes.

Jennifer wasn't sure if she could escape this place. If Ivan and Spencer came, this maniac might kill everyone, including he himself.

She had to be careful.

Instead of answering the phone, Hanson gave a hint to his subordinates.

Soon, his subordinates tied Jennifer's hands behind her back. It all happened so fast that she didn't even have time to struggle.

"Be careful!" she was in pain, "It hurts!"

"Be gentler," Hanson said to his men.

After tying her hands behind her back, Hanson's men messed her hair. Jennifer didn't have time to and couldn't avoid.

Her hair was soon in a mess, she looked as if she had been slapped in the face for multiple times.

In Rowan's house.

"He didn't answer my phone." Spencer started to feel worried, "Why didn't he answer?"

There was anger in Ivan's eyes. Hanson, that despicable man!

"What should we do now? He has taken all control," Spencer asked, "He didn't give us the address. We can't do anything."

It seemed that he was still somewhat calm. But before getting the address, they couldn't take any action.

Ivan thought and said, "He's coming for you, not Jennifer."

"Then why did he answer my phone call?" Spencer couldn't figure it out.

At this moment, he got a call from Hanson and saw his profile picture.

Spencer immediately answered it, then he saw Jennifer's embarrassed look.

Her hands were tied behind her back and there were two men on each side of her. Her hair was in a mess, so was her clothes. There was blood stain on her face as well as her clothes. Moreover, there was a towel stuffed in her mouth.

"Jennie!" Ivan felt heartbroken seeing her like this. There was hatred in his eyes.

Spencer really regretted it. His lips trembled and he couldn't say a word. He really shouldn't have messed with Hanson.

Seeing the two through the phone, Jennifer kept shaking her head. However, she couldn't struggle out or say a word.

She really didn't want them to come.
