

Surprised Wife With Twins (Ivan and Jennifer) Chapter 48

“Are you busy with your work recently?” She asked softly.

But he didn’t answer her question. As long as she spoke, he somehow became more wary of her.

She didn’t ask any more questions. She was not the kind of people who would ask for a snub.

However, she would unconsciously remember what his mother had said today. Catherine was a trusted member of the Marsh Group, while as Ivan’s wife, she knew nothing about the business of the company.

The scene that Catherine came here that day also appeared in her mind.

That woman was tall, cold, beautiful, and capable. She was very suitable for Ivan in all aspects.

Everyone thought they were a perfect match, didn’t they?

Thinking of this, she couldn’t fall asleep.

In the children’s room next door, Alfie was sitting cross-legged with an iPad in his arms.

In the past few days, he had been defending the Marsh Group’s defense system. Thinking that R-Alan Group would cheap shot, he wanted to make a perfect defense system for his father, which could resist attacks from bad guys.

At the same night, in the headquarters of R-Alan Group, the programmer who had been monitoring the system shouted excitedly

“It’s in Emerald Bay!”

Everyone fixed their eyes on the screen and captured the fast-disappearing signal. It was indeed in Emerald Bay and they were pretty sure.

“Last time the signal was in Bright Star Kindergarten, and now it’s in the Emerald Bay. What does it mean?” Someone asked.

“If it’s Ivan, he doesn’t have to go to the kindergarten to deal with us, does he?” Another people questioned. “He is so busy. It’s impossible for him to defend us himself.”

“But who else can live in Emerald Bay?”

“His wife is a vulgar woman. She used to help the poor in the village,” Someone didn’t take Jennifer seriously at all. His tone was full of contempt. “It can’t be her who hacked our system.”

“Pay close attention to the location of the signal. It would be best if this person can be used by us. His technique is by no means comparable to that of ordinary people.”

“How long will it take to repair our system?”

"I just contacted the well-known foreign hacker, J, to help us remotely, but the price is a little expensive."

"Strengthen the defense!"

The R-Alan Group was also very interested in the design that the Queen wanted, because it was an honor that could not be bought with money.

As long as the Marsh Group messed up this design and R-Alan Group designed a work that satisfied the Queen, R-Alan Group would win this battle.

The next morning, after getting up, Jennifer made breakfast herself. She cooked millet oatmeal, sandwiches and fruit salad.

When Ivan came to the dining room, the table was full of delicious food.

Alfie excitedly pulled him to sit down, "Daddy! Mommy made all these by herself. Have a taste!"

However, Ivan noticed that she dressed casually today with a high ponytail. It seemed that she was in a good mood.

"Okay, let's have breakfast!" Jennifer took a seat in a white dining chair. "There are many people in the amusement park this weekend. You don't have to wait in line if you go there early."

He just looked at her without saying anything.

Alfie and Diana quickly changed the topic. "Why did mommy mention it first? She should wait for daddy's invitation," they thought.

After breakfast, the kids pushed them into the yard. "Go!" The driver opened the door and the children pushed them into the car again.

"Have a good time!"

When the door was closed, Jennifer looked out of the window awkwardly, but the kids waved their hands excitedly.

She was so... forced to smile and waved at the children. "Behave yourselves at home."

Ivan turned around to look at Jennifer. "Did she instigate the kids?" he thought. "Amusement park? How childish!"

But since he had promised, he would not break his promise.

After the car was started, Ivan sent a message to Finnley with his mobile phone.

"I'm not going to the company today. You take charge of everything."
