

Surprised Wife With Twins (Ivan and Jennifer) Chapter 53

Spencer didn't answer back and stubbornly refused to look at him, who didn't like Ivan very much.

Jennifer found it strange. Who was he?

Next second, Ivan put the candy into Jennifer's hand!

She was taken by surprise. When she reacted, he turned around and left.

"Hello!"

Jennifer chased to the door, threw the cotton candy into the garbage can, and then went out. "Wait for me!" What was the matter with leaving her alone at the police station?

Catherine was stunned by seeing that she threw what Ivan gave her!

This made her jealous!

How could that woman trample on Ivan's love? What Catherine couldn't ask for, Jennifer despised it so much.

Spencer noticed Catherine's expression. He looked at the back of the two leaving and then at her, "Who is this woman?"

"..." Catherine didn't answer.

He snorted coldly, "It's only superficial that he doesn't get close to women. Men are the same. Why does he pretend?"

In the leaving Lamborghini, the driver saw Mr. Marsh's bad face through the rearview mirror and asked cautiously, "Mr. Marsh, do you want to go back to the amusement park or Emerald Bay?"

Ivan looked at Jennifer with his cold eyes.

Jennifer felt his sight, turned to him, shook her head, and said, "Let's go home."

Ivan looked back without saying anything.

After a look, the driver drove to Emerald Bay.

Jennifer wondered if he would agree if she said she wanted to go back to the amusement park.

What did that look mean?

Jennifer remembered the boy named Spencer again. What was his relationship with Ivan?

Spencer didn't like Ivan. Ivan was cold on his surface, but he cared about him. It was not hard to see from his reaction while he was answering the phone.

Jennifer turned her eyes and found that Ivan's eyes were as sharp as a blade, and his icy momentum was a little scary.

"Hey, who is he?" She could not help asking.

The man closed his mouth tightly, pretending not to hear what she said.

As his wife, Jennifer felt that she didn't know the man at all. It seemed that he also had his secrets.

Emerald Bay was getting closer. The Lamborghini drove into the yard and stopped in front of the villa.

"Get off." The man's voice was low.

Jennifer looked at him, seeing that his face was cold and he had no intention of getting off.

"..."

In the few seconds she hesitated, Ivan looked at her coldly. "Do you want me to repeat it for the second time?"

"Don't you go home?" She asked.

His expression gave her the answer. Jennifer shrugged her shoulders and turned to get out of the car.

Why had he changed since he met Spencer? There seemed to be a fire in his heart, which could burn whoever came close to him.

Before Jennifer entered the living room, the car drove away...

In the children's room upstairs, the twins chatting in front of the French window saw what happened downstairs, their smiles were wooden, and they were silent.

Alfie sighed, propped on her elbow, and looked pitifully at the car that was gradually moving away. "Why does mommy come back so early? Daddy doesn't get off. Have they quarreled?"

"I see Mommy is unhappy."

"Why did Mommy get off after the car stopped for so long? Were they quarreling?"

The two little guys were full of doubts.

Diana began to worry. "How can we get mommy to promise to help design the work?"

"I don't know." Alfie also looked sad.

"Brother, do something."

After a while, something flashed through Alfie's black jewel-like eyes, "We can figure out this project first, and then convince Mommy."

“How do we know? Do we ask father directly or go to the company to ask others?”

Alfie put his mouth close to his sister’s ear, whispered something, then took her hand and went to the study!
