

Surprised Wife With Twins (Ivan and Jennifer) Chapter 55

"Mommy." Alfie didn't want to affect their relationships, and said anxiously, "Go out, this is between me and Dad, and it has nothing to do with you, mommy!"

"Why doesn't it have anything to do with me? You were born to me!" Jennifer walked toward the man and was eager to protect her son. "He's only six years old. What does he know? Did he make you angry? When you come back, you are in a bad mood. Whom do you show your temper to?!"

Ivan's eyes were cold. "You gave birth to him, you raised him. Then ask him what he did?"

"What can he do as a child?" Jennifer was speechless and believed in her son.

At this time, Alfie couldn't stand it. He didn't want daddy to quarrel with mommy!

He was meant to match them up. How could they get into a stalemate?

So the little guy said softly, "Dad, I'm sorry, I wouldn't do that anymore. I didn't run to your study and hack your computer for no reason. I'm sorry."

Jennifer was shocked about this!

She couldn't believe it and looked at him, "Alfie, you...!"

"Mommy, I'm sorry." Alfie confessed directly and sincerely, "I promise I will never do this again."

Jennifer finally knew why Ivan was angry. If it was her, she couldn't bear it either.

"Alfie! Come here!" She grabbed him by the ear and lifted him out.

"Hurts... It hurts!" Alfie's whole body was almost lifted, and he instinctively protected his ears.

It startled Diana and Ivan. She was angry, not acting.

Ivan and Diana went out, hearing the door of the next room slam shut!

Jennifer's stern voice came out

"Do you think that if you are smart, you can have no bottom line?!"

"Your behavior is no different from stealing!"

"Do you think it's great? Do you think everyone else is stupid? You can't be found?"

"If you dare to hack other people's computers in the future, I will break your legs!"

"Mommy, I'm sorry..." Alfie's nose was sour and he sincerely repented. "I promise I won't do it again. I'm sorry."

Ivan was sympathetic when he heard his son's cry.

“Why did you hack his computer? Do you think you are better than he? He takes this place as his home, so there is no defense!” Jennifer looked fierce. “If a person doesn’t feel secure at home, how sad should he be? You keep saying that you want your father, but what did you do? Are these things a son should do?”

“I’m sorry...” Alfie realized that he was wrong. “I went to the company that day and heard that daddy was very concerned about a project in the design department. I want to know about this project and want you to design so that your relationship with daddy can be better.”

The little guy lifted his eyes and cried, “Mommy, I hope you can be together... Not only physically, but also spiritually...”

Ivan, who listened to these words outside, had a strange emotion in his eyes.

Alfie just saw something about the design.

“There are designers in his company. I don’t need to do this.” Jennifer told her son, “Remember that no matter how capable you are, you must learn to respect others. It’s wrong to spy on others’ privacy. Can you do it?”

“I remembered it and will never forget it.”

For the sake of the child’s sincerity in admitting his mistake, Jennifer was not that angry. “Go apologize to him. I won’t speak for you.”

When the door opened, Jennifer was slightly shocked by seeing Ivan and Diana standing outside.

Diana turned, looked up, and said sincerely, “Daddy, I’m sorry, I’m also involved... I promise won’t do that in the future.”

Before Ivan could speak, Alfie bowed deeply. “I’m sorry, daddy. Please punish me. I was wrong. It has nothing to do with my sister.”

Jennifer looked at them and walked away. She didn’t want to get into it.

Ivan looked at her back and didn’t blame the children anymore. He believed that they would not make the same mistake in the future.
