Chapter 141 141. Deus Power

Name : Rebecca Valentine

Species : Human

Awakened Rank : S-Rank

Strength : B++

Agility : A++

Mana : 1,000,000

Charm : 159

Luck : 9999 (Heroine)

Skills :

Bussines (LV 10), (LV 10), (LV 10)

Talent :

I Am The Best : This talent increases intelligence tremendously, The only problem is that it only kicks in when necessary doing IQ-related things, Most of the time possessors will have average or below average IQ in normal times.

Also skills can be learned quickly and to the perfection of the mortal level in quite a little time but only when the possessor really wants to learn those things.

Superpower : Time-Deus (S-Rank Upgradable) : As the name dictates, This is power related to time.

As one of the rarest superpowers one can awaken, Anyone who is in the hold of this power can be considered a time god, Who can control the time at will using their mana as a source of power.

Perks :

- Using this possessor can stop an individual person or group in time.
- Can permanently stop once it's own ageing as long there is bare minimum mana running through the body.
- Can see past, present and future with a lot of restrictions but without any significant backlash.
- Can also forward or reverse people or specific parts of them.

Special Perk :

Time Domain : Can create a domain of time, The stronger user and the mana input are the larger the range would be.

In the domain, users can do anything related to time as long as they have enough mana, But stronger ones can resist the strength of power.

Favorability : 89 (The Only One)

Summary : Rebecca is a hot-tempered woman. This is a trope of 2nd ML in the romance novel. Someone like her once loved someone then they will love that person to the end.

(Note : She tends to be easy going but don't be fooled by her easy-going appearance, She has a Gundeare personality.)

'She is really strong, no wonder the author had to sideline her to make the plot exciting.'

Alex read through all the details of Rebecca. He now gets why the author decided to sideline her. After all, her name is Deus, Making her kinda a wild card.

If she was always with Jake then there is no way he had to face any problem at least in the early and mid plot.

No matter what kinda threat they face, She can just pull Deus ex Machina, There is no way she could have encountered the trouble and hence gotten an opportunity to gain more strength.

So anything that might be the plot, author or world will be decided to put her away to give a chance for him to grow.

Alex on the other hand though not want to deal with constant shit like the protagonist, He rather stays home and chills letting his subordinate take care of the trouble.

It's just that he can mess with the protagonist thanks to his villain halo but others can't, So he had to do it in person.

'Her favorability for me is also quite high, 'System explains.'

Then he put his attention to her favorability of her for him, Surprisingly she had quite a lot more than any other heroine who did not spend time with him.

So he was rather curious how she could have that much favorability for him when he did nothing. Even if she heard the song, She would not be able to reach this much in an instant. If the system had notified him.

[Ding! It was all because of Rebecca's nature and how this character was built to host, She designed to compete with Alia, So as motivation to keep little logic in the plot, She "coincidentally" fell in love with Alia's man.

That's why there is this much initial favorability of her for your host."

System quickly answered him as he asked it reminding Alex that though this world seems real but it follows the law of the novels.

In Jake's plot, Alia will be with Jake, igniting her competitiveness of hers, and then as every brain-dead novel goes, She will fall for the protagonist rather than to fight with Alia.

This is a normal routine, So Alex did not pay attention to it, Was now more curious about her bloodline.

'System, what about her bloodline? Give more details.'

So he asked the system, There is no mention of it in the plot of "The Old One." It was his first time hearing it.

Though the name sounds kinda like a rushed silly one but looking at her mana breaks that impression, A 1,000,000 mana no normal person can have at all, Even S-Ranks stop at 1.5 million mana.

Though it was more than Rebecca but keep in mind that she is currently just a peak B-Rank and still able to go close to them.

This is a reason why Alex was very much interested in her bloodline as he was fighting in his mind about what first thing he will choose to copy, Her superpower or her bloodline.

He really never thought that he would face one day that he had to choose between things like this as most if not all heroines only have one special characteristic.

But Rebecca is different, She has at least 3 different kinds of characteristics, As that "I Am The Best" is also an OP talent if used carefully.

He even thought of copying it, As it is also a very helpful thing for him.

[Ding! Error, Sorry host your level of authority is too low to know this information.]

Alex waited to know more about her bloodline but he was hit with the error message and an apology behind it.

But this not only disappointed him but made him happy, Now he knows what to choose first, Time superpower can be copied later.

'Okay, I understand the system you don't have to apologise for, Also you made a spelling mistake, It is Goudere not Gundere.'

Alex does not mind that there is something he can't know yet, He can just increase his system level by doing stuff, So he just pointed out normal spelling mistakes before putting the system on silent as he still needs to talk with Rebecca.

Unknownst to him, If had waited to hear the reply of the system, he would have thought twice before messing with her.

[Ding! The system did not make any mistakes.]

"You know it is taboo to ask something like that right?"

Rebecca looked at Alex and questioned him as surprised by what he had asked.

It is really a taboo in the world of awakened warriors to ask someone about their superpower, It is a life and death secret that can't be shared casually.

"Well, Ignore it, You passed, I thought a stupid woman like her might really tell me, Guess you are not that stupid."

Alex little dazed but seeing Rebecca asking him, He just made a quick excuse for asking it.

He knows it is taboo to ask someone about their superpower but he wanted to distract them before opening the system panel.

That was because he had found that when he talked with the system, the time he feels like spending on the panel was way less than the actual one. That's why people did not get weirded out even though he spent quite some time talking with the system.

So he thought that if the System was messing with time Rebecca would be able to feel it, but now he knows that it was not the case.

The system does not mess with time but just changes his time perception by increasing his inherent speed of senses, making him able to feel like time is slowed down.

This is the reason why closing a system is something he blurts out things or needs a second or two to speak as it was a lag of getting used to getting in and out of that speed mode.

"Hey!! Stop that, I can't pay you 10 million for a day. At best I will pay 5 million per day, So are you willing?"

Rebecca was aggravated by his comment, She is not stupid, She proved that lots of times. At best she is slow but not stupid.

"8 million, Just look at me before saying your end of a deal."

When Rebecca talks about the business, Alex quickly shifts into the greedy businesswoman mode. After all he needs money now as all his money is reserved for other things.

There are Amara, Isabella, Alia, Helen, Liza, Xia Yan..., Well there are lots of people to ask for money from but who dislike more money, That too when someone delivers it to their doorstep. He was not that stupid to reject it

"6 million, This is the last offer, I did not have many funds in my hands, Most of it invested in new projects, Anything more and I will break the capital chain of my company."

Rebecca hesitated to hear Alex offer, Looking at his face, 8 million for a day did not sound that much but she really did not have left much cash in her hand right now.

She has money but most of it is invested in her new production line-up, And she can't just go ask money from her family to hire a man to fool them, Can she?

So 6 million UC of all she can offer right now, Which will be 60 million UC for 10 days.

"Okay, Deal, But I have a question, What happens if you get knocked up in these 10 days? And how much alimony will I get?"

Chapter 142 142. Lazy Villain

Alex, hearing her offer, was more than happy to accept it. Heck even if she offered 1 million, He still had accepted as she herself is a prize for him right now, A walking gold mine.

But he had one question bothering him for some time: What happens if she gets pregnant? Though he has the golden gun when activated can take care of the trouble he still wanted an answer.

After all, he did not want to be a single dad at all, Here single dad is not attractive but rather used goods which no one wants, So he wanted to make sure as he still needs to attack other heroines.

"...#@#&*#@#...Can not speak like a normal person??? Why are you doing this? Do you want to give me a heart attack or what?"

Rebecca not having it, She nearly got a heart attack hearing his words, Did she not say that he just wanted to pretend to be her boyfriend? So how can she get pregnant? Are they also going to "pretend" to do that by actually doing it?

She did not mind if they did it. She is rather excited but the problem is that he was not speaking like a normal person. How can she handle him if he is this much volatile all the time?

"I was just asking, You don't have to curse like a rough, You are no lady at all. Who will marry a hot-head like you? You might stay single all your li-"

"Don't you dare to say it and jinx me, I am warning you, I will definitely find a real boyfriend, Who will talk normally, Not like you. You know women also don't like over-smart men."

Alex was wronged. He just asked casually, She did not have to act like that, So he also talked back to her pressing her weakest nerve.

Rebecca is also bothered by not having a boyfriend, Not that there was no option but her standards were too high, She will not even look at a man who other womens are crazy for, Those college grass boys also are the same.

So up until now she was still single without even being alone in a room with a man, Which led her family to think she swing a different way. This is the main reason she needed to find a boy to pretend to be her boyfriend.

This way she can clear her name and wipe out any threat to her position as an heir, This is why she was mainly doing this, As for why she did not just get a real boyfriend.

Well the real reason was the plot of her, How can Heroine date other men before the protagonist? So there is that reason but another cannon reason is that she did not want to settle with anything.

She rather stays single all her life than to compromise with the standards she made, This is a reason why she did not want Alex to speak those words jinxing her.

"Well, I have this face so there is no way there is a woman who will not like me unless she is blind, But in your case, It's hard to say."

Alex knew how to tame a woman like her, He can't go by the standards she made as those were impossible to reach, And even with the system he needs at least a month to achieve it.

So he decided to go with the crooked route, That made himself irresistible to her, And this is his way of laying the foundation.

Rebecca was taken aback hearing his answer but seeing his face she get it, He indeed has the qualification to say something so narcissistic as this without seeing it as one.

Then she aggravated, He indeed has a backup, but what about her? What does she have to replace her shortcomings? She fell into thinking before quickly coming up with her answer.

"...I have money, a lot of it, So with it- "

"Yeah money is good but I don't think the standards you set for your man lack money, So your only advantage became nothing, Now tell why would a man of your standards choose you?"

"That- "

But Alex did not let her have it and ruthlessly crushed her argument. Yes, if according to her he did not know her standers for man, But he can guess, but even with a guess she felt depressed.

Yeah, Alex was right, The man she had in mind will not care about money, It's not that she wants a man with money but the personality of her man will not care if you have money or not, He will be with her just for her.

It was her intention before but now she had to use the money for her argument to counter the agenda she began with before. Now she started to doubt that man as she wanted to even exist in this world.

Though according to her the standards of the man she wants are low, All she wanted an extremely handsome man like no other, single-minded, not materialistic, super talented, singer, pianist, violist etc, A exceptional genius in business, A leadership personality, a righteous soul who will help anyone in need, etc.

Only this much her standards for a man, It's not too much to ask for at least in her eyes.

'This bastard meets most of those standards but why is he this unbearing? Only if he acts like a man, No woman can resist him but sadly his personality is a minus point of his.'

Rebecca was really not able to understand where she could find the man of her dreams. Then her eyes landed on Alex, She had to admit other than his volatile personality, He does meet most of her standers.

Only if there was a way to fix him, She might have had the man of her dreams in her hand, So Rebecca started to think about how to "fix" Alex.

'Too easy.'

Alex here on the other hand heard everything she said in her mind with an increasing grin on his face. This is what he wanted. He wasn't able to play with her standers, So he just changed the game.

Now she had to come and please him to conquer his heart. This way not only he made her do all the work but also lowered her expectation from no compromise to get all she can, Now he just had to wait until she made the move and just show some extra hidden talent of his.

Doing so he did not even have to work at all, He just had to reap the benefits of her work.

[Ding! Congratulations host for unlocking Hidden Achievement "Lazy Villain"...

Lazy Villain : Why should Villain work hard to get heroin when the villain is a prize? She should chase after him.

Requirement: Make 1 heroine thing about chasing (for love) after you (Met)

Reward : Can be able to upgrade any one reward of the last three rewards received before this achievement.]

When he was happy, System's voice came pouring cold water on him with that kinda name but after seeing the reward, he forgave the system.

He knows that he did not check the rewards he received from beating Natahn yet as he was busy with Helen, But with this, he can see which one is suitable to upgrade.

It's just a pity that this one has restrictions that can only be used on the three rewards he received before getting this one. So his plan of using it on God-level acting has to drop for a while.

After their talk Rebecca did not speak but was into deep thinking, Alex also did not bother her, rather he was happy that she was thinking about making his life easier.

Soon their car stopped in front of the big mall, Which is a destination Alex said before after all he was not going to drop this idea of going on a date with Xiao Bai and Grace, He did promise them.

"Get out, Remember tomorrow I will come to pick you up in your dormitory, Be prepared to leave for 10 days."

Rebecca looked at Alex gritting her teeth as he wrapped his one hand around Grace's slender waist, While the other one was rubbing Xiao Bai's head to get out of the car.

Seeing him acting like other women, A strong feeling of disgust appeared in her mind but not for Alex but for these women as they were the ones who make Alex like this one, Before Alex was not this unbearable.

"Did you not want me to unfreeze her? Or did you forget that I had put her in suspended time?"

But Rebecca grinned, Now she has a trump card that can be used to get back the little face she lost in front of him.

"No need Snap This will do the trick."

Alex also knew what her intention was, So he did not bother to ask her to unfreeze Grace, He just snapped his fingers taking out his extreme fire, Which was dancing in his fingers, Then he just threw it at Grace.

His fire will not hurt anyone he did not want to and is also strong enough to break through a space barrier S-Rank like Belladonna, So the time barrier of Rebecxa created around Grace was easily broken and burned by his tiny flame.

His flame burned time itself to take Grace out of her suspension, Though its power is based on Rebecca but still, her superpower is S -Rank and yet be able to do this without any problems.

This is the scary power of SS-Rank superpower, Which also says how powerful Aila is and the reason why she was the main heroine of two separate novel plots.

Rebecca looking in horror at Alex as he carried away confused Grace and Xiao Bai with him in the mall.

(A/N : Did you guys think of her (Rebecca)?

- Good
- Bad
- Overpowered

Chapter 143 143. Xiao Bai Is Cute

"C-can explain what just happened?"

Grace, walking with confusion written all over her face, asked Alex, one moment was in front of the hospital entrance and the next, she was with Alex seated in the car with a strange woman.

She was super confused. For a moment she even thought she passed out and woke up here but seeing the calm face of Alex, She dropped that thought and thought of an even more absurd idea.

'Teleported, We are definitely teleported.'

This is what she thought, As it was easy to think of then to think someone has frozen her in time. After all, time is the only thing current people can't get hold of. At least it was the truth for most of civilization.

Still she asked Alex to know what just happened, After all, it was understandably quite weird for her.

"Ohh, nothing much, That woman you saw stopped the time of an area putting you into suspended time, When we got here, I removed, Not a big deal."

Alex with Xiao Bai looking at the mall in amazement when he heard Grace a question, So he answered her without looking or thinking much about it as all his attention was on the mall.

This mall is a paradise for any heterosexual man, Anywhere he looks he will find the thing he loves. There were video games, and advanced pc sets, and There were also some limited edition things making him think that it will not be bad to spend little startup money.

After all, in the world of women, Man is the prize. So women pretty much buy anything to please the man they are trying to woo and like women love jewellery, Men love games and such things making this industry advance further and beyond.

Right now this industry was at least 100 years ahead of its time than the last world, making him wonder what kinda realistic games developers had made with this kinda technology.

"....Oh uhh okay..... Can you explain it again???"

Grace was not prepared to hear this at all. It was unrealistic to think of someone stopping time, If that thing was used properly all problems in this world from war to world hunger can be solved.

So he said this casually making her think she heard it wrong, Her still normal way of thinking caused her to resist this new information, She did not want to admit it as it will break her worldview.

"Grace, In this world a lot of things are way different than it looks, So never think that things are the same as they appear, Always have an open mind, It will help you to get used to new revelations."

Alex looked at Grace when he was asked a second time then he saw her struggle to accept these facts. She has been a normal girl since childhood. The only reason she has not freaked out is because her mother always tells her stories about it.

So she had an idea about this hidden world but can't get used to it after seeing it. That's why Alex said to her while pulling her towards himself, taking her into his warm hug.

Grace sensing the warmth threw out all those useless thoughts, For her if he was with her then she can even live in hell happily thinking it was her heaven, So these little things now did not bother her anymore.

"Hum, I keep that in mind."

Grace smiled sweetly as she too hugged him back, All her worry seeing his always gone away no matter how serious her problems are with him it did not sound that bad.

Even now the worry in her heart about her mother still not waking up was pretty much suppressed, And this new news of a different kinda world she was since childhood was also was easy to digest.

Seeing the two of them hug, Xiao Bai looked at Grace enviously wanting to replace her with herself, She too wanted to feel that comfortable warmth of his.

So after their hug ended as Grace had a thin face, Hugging him in a public place while others were staring at them crossed her threshold of shame.

Well yeah obviously people will be staring at them after all even if Alex still had a face mask on him, His charm had not been affected at all, It just made him look mysterious hiding his identity

"M-Me."

Xiao Bai saw an opportunity, She with her big wide icy blue eyes looked at Alex and stretched her two arms towards him asking for her, His chest-length stature of her makes her even cuter and the broken words of her trying to say something was just lethal.

"Awww Why you are soo cute??!"

Alex though does not look like it also has a little heart, So seeing her life this he too could not help but take her into a deep hug pressing their body so closely together that there was no room for air to escape.

This time Graces turn to look envying at them wanting to switch places.

Still, the trio go around shipping, eating and having fun. Alex too decided to buy lots of things and bills to send to Isabella, After all at least this much she can do after her son hurt his hands.

They are still a little red from the...what her son did, Yeah this time it was her son as he was being blamed.

Well now that Isabella is mentioned, Let's see what is happening there.

"Who did this happen? Tell me the name and I will personally send that person into hell."

Isabella is seated beside unconscious Nathan, She was at work when she got a call and just like before she had to come here hurriedly.

Nathan after all that beating he got and that spiritual pressure of Helen and in the end use of the forbidden technique pretty much took all the juice out of him.

His core was damaged, and his bones were also in worse condition than being broken as it was healed but wrongly, There were lots of bones in the wrong place bones in his body giving him immense pain.

The pain was so much that their doctors had to sedate him putting him in a partial coma to give his body time to heal.

So it was an understatement to say Isabella was furious seeing her son like this, She wanted to rip the head of the person who did this to her son.

She did not care who they are or what their background is, Now she just wanted justice for her son.

"Miss it was all young master. He wanted to show that the Gayler family was not weak. He challenged Miss Alia's boyfriend, Master Alex. At first he was hesitant but the Young master provoked him.

So Master Alex beat him but he was soft-hearted. It turned out he was an awakened warrior with healing powers, So he healed young Master Nathan completely, But then the young master went and provoked an S-Rank and the result was in front of you Madam.

Let me tell you, Seeing Young Master's condition, Eldest Miss was so fallen in grief that she announced a bonus to all the servants to get a blessing of their for quick recovery of young master, She also bought a private yacht to get a blessing from the sea god, Also she also decreased eating by a lot as she was on diet.

Well, there is also one thing that- "

"You said Alex, Is he alright? What happens to that S-Rank? Is she with him? If so, what were they doing? No scratch that tells me where they have gone, I will deal with the rest."

As always number one wanted to start his usual routine, And tell about how she felt bad about it by completely telling the opposite thing to provoke Isabella to follow the order of their eldest.

But unlike other times, Isabella did not get angry but rather worried. She looked at him and asked hurriedly, Her current worried appearance was way too drastic than seeing her son pretty much on her deathbed.

Number one was startled, He did not see their Madam to be this much seriousness, He thought of something going to happen to Gayler which can be a life or death thing for it.

After all, their always so calm madam reacting this way means there's really something terrible news.

"I don't know if S-Rank knows Master Alex or not as they were not together, Master Alex did not seem hurt when we bravely rescued the young Master and was bringing him here. Well, Master Alex was in the hospital but I don't think he will be there now.

That's all I know."

So he spoke everything he knew about it, Of course he still did not forget the protocol taught to him.

But Isabella did not care about his words again. After hearing what she wanted to know, She quickly turned around talking out her phone before hurryingly walking out of the house.

What she did not know was, When she was going, Nathan who was in a partial coma opened his eyes with a slight grin on his face.

He was awakened when Isabella entered this room, After all, the protagonist does have a weird sense to know when heroin is nearby but he did not wake up wanting to act to aggravate Isabella.

Now he knows his mother will not care about his background of the Miller family and get him justice, The look of worry on her face shows that she can do anything now.

Poor he thought that she was worried about him, Well there is still time to get to know his daddy.

Chapter 144 144. Unicorn Is Back

Trio of Alex, Grace and Xiao Bai wandering in the mall, While Alex was suppressing the urge to buy this whole mall, He wants everything in it.

Grace on the other hand was just tagging along with them as it was neither her first time seeing a mall nor she had any interest in those games. She did not understand why men buy and play these stimulating games when they can just go outside and do those things in real life.

Still, she was happy that Alex was enjoying it. Anyway, women are always being dragged to the mall by their men, So she was happy to get this opportunity with Alex.

"You liar, You said you will take me to dinner, I was waiting for you all night but you never called, I was worried and sick thinking about something that happened to you but here you are enjoying your day worry-free."

Suddenly their calm atmosphere got broken by the roar of a woman though it sounded too childish to be taken seriously.

When Alex saw her his first reaction was for her to call her out ignoring her angry look, After all if she is here then he did not have to think much, Here is his walking bank.

If he wants he can buy the whole mall, He did not get money from his family yet but she has full control of the family making it easy to take out funds.

So he hurriedly walked towards Father then she came towards him, And then like he did before called her loli before lifting her up and holding her two arms, Which she thought did not look happy but did not put any resistance.

"...You are forgiven but treat me now."

Liza was angry, Super angry that Alex bailed on her but seeing his face, Her face control trait kicked in and she instantly forgave him.

For her, anyone who is handsome deserved to be forgiven no matter their crime, Which might have made her worse jury but for Alex she was nothing but a blessing, After all his main force lay in his charm.

Which made her one of the few heroines that he did not have to worry about, Which made his life a little easier taking away the stress of keeping it together.

So he does like her and her personality is also not that hard to deal with, Her only requirement is that the person has to be beautiful for her to show this side.

That's why even though she hated someone commenting on her height and body, Alex got a free pass for it and even now she let him do this embarrassing thing just because he has a face for it.

Liza before seeing him was very angry. She thought that Alex would call her or inform her if he was running late but he did ghosted her.

She called him multiple times but he did not reply to her one call. She thought that something might happen to him as there are no fewer people who wanted to destroy the Winchester family. It's only because of their background that those people put on the leash.

But targeting alone pretty much abandoned heir of Winchester though still risky, much not that hard to do and can be done swiftly, So her worry was not without any reason.

That's why in a hurry she called Amara, Her friend who for a reason Always calls her Aunty, who Liza also hates. Not only men but also women did not want to be called old no matter their actual age.

It's just men who are upfront about it, While women try to pretend that they do not care. Where in fact they do care, A lot.

Well, That aside she does find out from Amara that Alex goes to hospitals, So in a hurry she reached to the hospital just to find out that he was not there, After using her network, She gets information about him being in the mall

So she rushed here wanting to ask him about it.

"Sorry, Liza I did not call you but are you mistaken? I said, "Tomorrow men today, Our appointment date is today at night, So I did not miss it nor I had forgotten it, It's just that I was running busy since yesterday, So I have not had time to reply to you."

Alex, after putting her down, looked at her and said it. He indeed had forgotten that he had promised her a treat as too many things happened in between like a ghost one, But after her reminder he realised it.

It's just that he asked that today will be his promised treat, not yesterday, As he planned on spending time with Alia through Rita and the ghost encounter changed that plan of his, That's why he was sure the promised date was today.

"Huh?? Really? You are not lying to me, right? Because you are, It's not a big deal, Just treat me to something sweet."

Liza looked at Alex with a strong gaze and said, Anyone in her family who saw her like this they might think someone had put their Madam in the illusion.

Yeah, She is not called as a young or eldest miss but as Madam, because she is a bead of the White family and she herself is in her 40s, the Same age as Helen and Isabella. It's just her superpower that affected her appearance.

This is also a reason why she did not have any friends after her disgust towards the "ugly" people. That other woman in her age was not able to talk to her like equals.

The only reason they even are in contact with her is the White family behind her, As two things are always in demand, One is weapons and the other is medicine, Which has crooked irony to it.

White family as being a giant in pharma is always in demand, Of course the Winchesters who make weapons also do not lack any attention.

That's why Liza feels so isolated, As she is smart enough to see through pretensions and follow the friendships of those people, making her feel lonely.

This is the reason she was obsessed with Alex. First his looks were to her liking and 2nd he did not care about her height or background, Though to be noted it was when Alex was a small child, Who did not know anything about the world.

"I am not lying but I will buy you sweets. It's just I can't buy much of it as I do not have much money to spare. After all, I am an abandoned child no one cares about them, They do not even send me a single penny up until now."

Well, Alex agrees but did not forget to use emotional backstory to take out money from her purse.

Don't judge him, He needs money to buy game-Ahem daily necessities to survive, So it was a matter of survival, So little white lies can be looked past.

"Really!? Did they not send you any money? How did you survive then? That's why you are with Alia? It's a really serious question of who are these two women staring at me?"

Liza was really taken aback hearing the Winchester family did not send Alex any money, Making a sad, dramatical story of Alex wandering on the streets hungry, and cold looking for a place to avoid the elements.

Then Alia might have come to him like a saviour giving him food and a place to stay, Which might help her to win his heart.

Now she was regretting why she followed the decree of the Winchester family not to contact him. If she did she should be the one heroine to save the handsome and win his heart.

If she did that she would not have to fight for his attention like right now, This will be the biggest regret in her life.

Then Liza sensed two sets of eyes staring at her, One was curious while the other was looking at her full of hatred and jealousy.

She turned around and looked at two women, Both of them exceptionally beautiful, helping her suppress the emerging flame of jealousy in her heart.

She had to ask Alex about them as they are beautiful, So she asked in the same sentence that her attention span is not that much and can be easily distracted.

"Well...She is Grace, the Daughter of Gloria, Your yesterday patient and my partner and that cute Loli is my pet, Xiao Bai."

Alex does want to say that his family sends some money like around 100 million UC which he spends all in one week but seeing that Liza changed the topic on her own, How too change it.

He first introduces Grace to her and then to Xiao Bai, He was not surprised she asked about them as they are beautiful and her trait is that she can't resist beautiful things.

But when he turned around the look on their face startled him, making him able to understand what just happened.

Chapter 145 145. Xiao Bai Is Not Happy

Alex looked at grumpy or angry Xiao Bai with a look of confusion, Up until now she had not shown or cared about any woman around him other than Helen.

That too when Helen wanted to monopolise him, Other than that she always stood by his side without any problem.

But now she looks at Liza with hatred. There was a threat for Liza in her eyes, Which was might be as much as Alia or might even be more than her, When looking at the woman around him.

This realisation threw Alex off guard, He was not sure how he was able to handle it if a powerful S-Rank like her turned Yandere, After all single Alia, Who is the peak B-Rank created enough trouble for him and there is also Belladonna, His so-called after his body.

So he really did not want to have one more S-Rank on his ass to deal with, As his hands were quite full.

"I-I loli, No you."

'Ohh!! Thank god it was this silly thing.'

Alex seeing her action was quite relieved, As it turns out Xiao Bai had no problem with her brain turning Yandere, She was just jealous that he called someone else Loli.

She might get insecure thinking Alex will not love her anymore if he has a second Loli around him, Which once again shows how childlike her brain works.

This is the same thing many children feel When they see their thing in another child's hand, And she being a territorial beast has this sense of belonging very high making her act like this right now.

Liza did not get angry at Xiao Bai for pushing her aside. Why? Because Xiao Bai is beautiful, So things like this might get someone else to be killed, As she is the head of a super big powerful family, and this might be considered as an attack.

But Xiao Bai got a pass, As Liza treats beautiful people and ugly people too much differently, She can't help it though as like Isabella, She had to pay a price for her superpower. Which is face control.

"Hey!! Who said I am a loli? This guy is an idiot. How can beauty like me be called a childish thing like a Loli? Alex, why did you not call me sexy or hot? Look at these things, They are double D you know, Not many people have it, You know size indeed matters, Stop believing those internet women trying to cope for lack of size."

So she said not to blame Xiao Bai but asked Alex why he did not call anything other than Loli. She held her two deadly weapons in her hands showing them to him, Which couldn't she couldn't even lift properly.

After all, as Loli in the wishfuliment novel, She had received the nutrition of millions of papaya by default granting her this enormous physics-defying twin mountains in exchange for height.

She also has a petite figure making her though look comical with this much of assets but also kinda hot.

Also what she said had kinda truth in it, Sometimes size does, Which is a bitter truth.

But Alex did not want her to win, He knew that once he let someone like her win even once then she will try to get control in her own hand.

This is an annoying part of a Loli, As they try to move towards the tsundere route, If not monitored properly.

Alex did not want to deal with a brain-dead trope like Tsundere, So he quickly decided to shoot her down as soon as possible.

"Yeah but bigger now always means better. Look at Xiao Bai, A proper C-cup, Not too big but not too small, Ideal to hold it in a palm comfortably, Not like those too big ones, Also look at her body, A proper work of art. Small things are small, and Big things are big, Proper curves and -"

"Uhm, Alex, How old is she?"

So Alex decided to talk, Talk a lot to contain the arrogance of this loli but while talking he did not notice the change of expressions around him.

Xiao Bai was happy to hear her praises and had a very happy smile wanting to hear more, By the way she still stuck to him like Koala preventing Liza from getting close to him.

After all, even if Liza said she was not Loli, Xiao Bai did not care about her opinion, She only heard and listened to Alex's words.

Grace on the side was also quite surprised but thinking about the weird world of Alex, She let off of her thoughts, Thinking age might work differently for his world, As now she knows time manipulation is a thing.

But she did not know how rare the time element is. She thought seeing someone casually using it misunderstood that it was an everyday thing.

Liza had the most extreme reaction. After all, among them she is a mature one though does not look like she is a proper adult, And her mind also not be as crazed as other heroines, At least she can think about hypocritical things like morals.

And right now Xiao Bai in her eyes looks like a 14 or 15 years old girl making her think Alex was doing something unthinkable.

"She should be around 12 hours old right now, But keep in mind that it is a safe guess, Rough estimate should be around 6 to 7 hours old."

Alex looked straight into her eyes and answered it. He knew she misunderstood him...well not misunderstood but he did not do anything to Xiao Bai yet.

He can do it and it was not even seen as bad as in the beast case they are considered as mature once they learn to turn into human form, But even if it was bad Liza had no right to judge him.

After all, According to her past actions, she was technically grooming him, It will be like a pot calling kettle black.

"....6 hours old? How stupid do you think I am to believe that?"

Liza was taken aback, Here she thought he would give a proper reasonable age even if it was made up but this guy was just straight-up questioning her IQ. How can one be this big and only be 6 hours old?

She is not that stupid to believe this ridiculous lie.

"Ohh, You don't wanna go there your fragile heart can't handle my estimation of your intelligence, Like right now, I said it in the beginning she is by pet but you still questing me, What do you think what people call this being slow or stupid, I think it is formal."

Alex did not back down and used his sharp tongue to counter her. He really did not want her to turn into Tsundere.

So he directly crushed her with his argument. He already said Xiao Bai is his pet which she might have forgotten about it.

"....She is your contracted beast? Which was born a few hours ago and able to turn into human form? Now you are really not respecting my IQ. There is no way she is as you said, Unless she is one of those in myth- Are you serious!!???"

Liza was not able to process what Alex just revealed to her, As said before legendary rank beasts are just myths, legends in folktales, People did not take them seriously after lots of empresses failed to find one.

So Liza thought Alex once again lied to her but then she saw a look in Alex's eyes, That smug look overflowing with confidence.

This means Alex did not lie to her, This Xiao Bai really is a Legendary rank beast, Well she also quite easily believes the other party is handsome, So she did not need much proof to convince her.

It had to be a mystery how the White family had not collapsed under her command, As this is too easy to exploit weakness.

But to think of another point, She is acting like this because of Alex's charm breaking through the limit of this world. No other person can take advantage of her face-control trait.

"Are you an Idiot??! Why are you telling this to me? This is a secret that should be well kept."

Now that she believes that Xiao Bai is that in myth legendary rank beast, She was annoyed that he told her, Even if there is no enmity between their families, One should not reveal this core secret this casually to anyone.

"Because I trust you, My cute loli."

[Ding! +20 Liza's favorability increased for the host (current : 160)]

As his words fell, the system voice also rang in his mind.

Chapter 146 146. I Want To Buy This Mall

'Finally, the last piece of the puzzle.'

As the system voice sounded in his mind, Alex had a wide smug smile on his face, He finally did it.

Now with this much increase in favorability of Liza. He, at last, has everything he needs to handle those two pesky pests walling in this city.

"Let's go, Liza, Now you have to buy me games."

Alex grabbed Liza's wrist and dragged her who was still in shock, Grace also followed them behind without any problem, After all, she is a girl who even offered her mother to him without any weird fetish.

So she was cool with it as long as Alex did not forget her, Xiao Bai on other hand had her guard up for Liza but seeing that Alex was with her, She did not care about much.

But Alex, contrary to them already cooking something in his mind, No it's appropriate to say he was ready to serve what he cooked long before in his mind.

"Wait!? Why should I pay? Well, I will pay but only this time."

Liza finally comes back to her senses when they enter the game shop. She was in so much of shock that Alex said that to her with that much confidence.

Since childhood, she used to people faking their intentions around her to get her favour, So she can tell when someone was lying to her or not. That's why she got affected by his words a lot.

Because she can tell those words from his heart and not a made-up lie, Which gives her mixed feelings. On one hand, she was happy that she holds that much of an important place in his heart.

But also, on the other hand, She did not want him to tell her this secret. She is at the end of his family competition even though they do not cross paths, It is still a liability to tell her this scary news.

If this news leaked, Even if the Winchester family wanted to protect Alex, They would have to pay the heavy price not to mention there is no doubt that Xiao Bai will be taken away, losing a great asset for his family.

That's why she agreed to pay for him, Though she had agreed but not this easily.

"Ohh Thank you, My unicorn. Clerk, please come here."

Alex thanked her and then quickly called out to the beautiful clerk standing in the corner of the store, Looking at them curiously.

"Okay sir, How can I help you today? If you want new-gen games we have-"

She quickly comes to them after Alex calls her out. She might be new here or might become nervous because of Alex's charm. Either way, she wanted to quickly tell them the script she taught before.

"Wait to stop there, No need to tell anything else, Just pack one model of everything you have and also buy all games this gen and past gen, And if you can, Please label the backward backward compatible games.

Also, build a gaming and work PC separately with the highest specifications you can, It did not matter if it will be overkill, Just make sure it will perform according to the given hardware and not bottleneck other components."

But Alex just cut her off mid-sentence. He did not have time to go through every piece of equipment here nor did he lack money making him have to choose, So he just bought all of it.

"Ehh, Excuse me what? C-Can you please repeat it? I might have misheard it."

The clerk was not able to process what Alex just asked. She quickly looked around trying to find cameras thinking she was being pranked, But she did not find any cameras pointed at her.

Well, she does find lots of phones trying to take a "sneak" pic of Alex but those were understandable ones, So confirming it was not a prank she thought she misheard, So she wanted Alex to repeat what he said.

"Newbie gets lost, This client is mine, You handle someone else."

Alex finds it funny seeing her flushed face. He once again wanted to repeat what he said but before he could do that 3rd person came from off-screen, A old fat super ugly woman with a big black mole on her lips. There were even a few hairs in it.

This hag of a woman came to the first lady and arrogantly said it and before another party could react, She just pushed her aside and stood in front of Alex and the group.

"Mona bu- "

"Shut up, You can't even have one simple client by giving them bad service, Go find some poor customers, Don't waste everyone's time here, This is an order from your superior."

A new woman whose name turns out to be Mona is a supervisor of saleswomen in this shop, So she used the authority of her superior to send that first clerk away from here.

'Go away, pretty face, I can't let you have a commission for this big of an order.'

Mona looked at the resentful woman in front of her, She wanted to come to greet Alex seeing he should be a rich customer, But when he called out this newbie, She dropped the idea but hearing his order she can't help it.

If she sells that much, Not to mention her promotion will be set in stone but the commission will be in the tens of thousands UC.

'Why did I feel like I saw this before? Deja Vu???'

Alex did not interfere in the argument between the two women as he was rather busy remembering where he saw this thing, He had a pretty strong feeling that he had seen this before but can't put a finger on a thing.

At first, he thought it should be a protagonist plot but when he looked around he did not find any man resembling the protagonist, He also looked closely at the clerk trying to remember if the heroine or not.

But in both plots of Nathan and Jake, there is no clerk heroine, Which was surprising as they were like bulldozers crushing villains and harvesting heroines all around.

And she is also not beautiful enough to be the rough heroine. Don't be misunderstood, she was beautiful but not on the level of the heroine. She is just close to it, Which is rare but can happen with good genetics.

So he was confused about why he encountered this plot. Yeah this is the plot as the face of Mona yelling at others, Urging them to slap her face, So there is definitely a face-slap going to happen but who will do it is a mystery.

"Fuck off you ogre, You what's your name?"

Alex wanted to wait and see who this plot might pull out but Liza being a face control could not tolerate someone as ugly as Mona.

Yeah as the tradition of in mall face slap, The one being slapped is always been a fat, ugly person irrespective of their gender, So here too Mona is unbearable to look at, Which provoked this medical maniac to the extreme.

She did not care to be polite, She directly lashed out at Mona and asked that old clerk to be back.

After all, compared to this monstrosity in front of her, That first clerk looked like a heavenly maiden. Right now she was on medicine for her sour eye to be washed off the filth, Mona caused by coming into her sight.

"Me? M-My name is Sandra, Sorry for the bad service, I just joined today, and I am not used to it. Once again sorry for the inconvenience to you."

Sandra quickly came forward in the angry eyes of Mona, and said to Liza in one breath, She just joined here today, So she did not know how everything works around here.

Well, this is also her first job. So this added to her nervousness.

'Defender of humanity, To be the more precise protector of man.'

When Sandra said her name, Alex's ears stood up. A definition of that name quickly appeared in his kind, This name like guessed did not appear in both plots but at first glance, this was also not something normal NPC should have.

Still, he was super confused about what her role is. At first he even thought she was a female protagonist but that idea quickly dropped as he saw how polite Sandra is, No protagonist male or female will be this polite, They talk like others own them money.

'Who are you, woman?'

For the first time, Alex comes across some he can't figure out. He can just use the eye of truth to see all the details of her but he did not want to do it. This is personal, So as long as it was not necessary to use it, He will not use it on her.

"I want to buy this mall."

(A/N : Any idea who she is?)

Chapter 147 147. New Type

'Protagonist? No, he is too handsome to be one.'

Alex was the first one to react to the arrival of this domineering man, who wanted to buy this whole mall.

At first, he thought this man might be the protagonist, As only those species can act this wantonly but when he saw the face of the man he changed his mind.

This man had a tall little strong physique, with crystal-like white hair covering most of his forehead, His nose was tall and slender, with Sword like eyebrows, and red slender lips, He was in a posh 3-piece black suit.

So this man was beautiful. On the system scale, he might be around 150-155, Which is 100 to 150 times more charming than his old self of 130.

As everyone knows the protagonist is at best looking better than the average person, But they can never be this beautiful. Maybe the authors of those novels are trying to compensate for something but anyway, this is an iron law.

The protagonist looks good but is never the best, they compensate for that with skills and their golden fingers to make a balance.

"Sir, this is a game store. If you want to buy the mall, You have to go to the management, Which is, I assume, on the top floor."

Alex knows this guy is not a protagonist and decides to go and help the poor guy who lost his way to give directions. After all, he is a respectable and responsible citizen of the country.

"Hum, Stay away gigolo, I don't want to be infected by your STD or that cheap colone."

A handsome man quickly made the distance between himself and Alex as Alex approached him for help.

He disgustedly looked at him and took out a white silk handkerchief to hold in front of his face and nose.

Two male bodyguards behind him also quickly came in front of Alex making a wall blocking Alex from coming in contact with their boss, Those two also had disgusting looks on their faces looking at Alex.

'Not a villain.'

But Alex did not mind it. He did not just go there to help but he also wanted to check if this man is a villain or not. Now he knows this man is not a villain.

That is because he was ho in possession of the Villain Halo makes other villains respect him and give him higher authority over them, So by reaction of this man he is not a villain, That is for sure.

But the strange thing is that this man not only had any good feelings for him but had immense disgust, Which is unreal. No normal person can disgust him at first glance as his charm is not just for looks but also for gaining the good feelings of others quickly.

This reaction only the protagonist and people in the protagonist's camp can show to him as their inherent disgust for him as a villain but this man is not from the protagonist's camp also, Why?

Because he is handsome, No protagonist wants a man more handsome than him in their group as again all handsome man is enemy of the protagonists

'Xiao Bai, Stay, Don't kill them...yet.'

Being rejected Alex just casually walked back to his place and put a hand on Xiao Bai's head, who was already ready to take out her claws to tear those people into shreds.

So he had to tell her through their telepathic connection thanks to their contract. These people are nothing in his eyes as they were all trained but normal people.

If he starts killing every person who disgusts him then he has to wipe out all of the protagonist's camps, Which is a very tiresome job, He preferred to let them kill themselves.

Which is strangely easier than manually going through them one by one, As it was very easy to destroy the shallow relationship between the protagonist and his people. You just need to know which buttons to press.

"Liza, stop it, Let's buy things and go on our way."

After controlling Xiao Bai, He had to put his focus on Liza who was ready to command her people to do things that will change the colour of the store's walls.

"Alex, I just want to talk to him, That's all."

That's the only thing she said in a neutral voice before she tried to walk towards that man.

"Liza, I will handle the issue, Violence is not always the best option."

"I just want to talk to him."

Alex wrapped his hand around her small waist, Which ended up being him picking her up in his arms because of the size difference, Which definitely provoked Liza's anger but she can't lash out at Alex, So she wanted to make that man pay for it.

"How about I cook something sweet today? What do you want to eat?"

Alex had to stop this crazy woman from doing something, Though she is in face control but that man had no effect on her because of two reasons.

One her affection for him was super high, So other men can't get into her eyes, 2nd is that though that man is handsome but the front of Alex, That man was worse than an ordinary person, So his charm can not trigger her face-control trait.

That's why he had to make sure Liza would not turn this man from "Is" to "Was", He wanted to see if he can use it in his favour or to see if this man can create variables in his previous plan.

"Really!!? Then I want Pudding, Cake, and Gulabmun,...."

Liza was easily distracted when Alex mentioned sweets, For sweet a tooth like her who likes all kinds of sweets, started mentioning what she wants, Which Alex half-heartedly listens to as he already knows her favourites.

Alex glanced at Grace who looked at him with raised eyebrows, As she can tell Alex was up to no good, He never likes to be wronged by others.

This is a reason why Grace holds a special place in his heart, As he did not have to worry about her like others, She can get a hint.

"Miss Sandra, Can you hurry up and buy those things I asked you for before? I don't have much time."

Alex, while carrying Liza in his hand comes to Sandra and asks her to hurry up, Ignoring or saying big-heartedly forgive that man for his behaviour.

"Okay, Please wait a minute, It will take a little time to gather and arrange all of the stuff you asked for, You can make yourself comfortable with those sofas or there is a cafe just around the corner, If you wish you can go there, Their cold coffee is one of the bests, It's on the house, I will pack the things in the meantime."

Sandra was startled to see the man. He was the last person she wanted to meet here, But now only he was here but he also insulted her customer. Thankfully, matters did not escalate.

She looked at Alex in front of her, Though he was wearing a mask, His charm was still there making her unconsciously attracted to him, Plus the gentle aura surrounding him calmed her chaotic heart.

So she quickly wanted to turn around and arrange things as quickly as possible, so as not to waste time with Alex anymore.

She gave a very heartfelt smile to Alex before she called her people to get things from the godown. She was ready to turn around and take out stuff available in the store.

"Stop!! Did you not hear I said I want to buy this mall? Which includes everything in it too, So you can't sell it to anyone else, especially not to this gigolo."

The white-haired man was angered when he saw Sandra smile at Alex. He was not able to hold back his anger anymore.

How can this woman smile at another man? She is his, No other man can make her smile, She too, How dare she smile at another man? That too in front of him?

He had to show the consequence of it later. First, he wanted to teach this gigolo a lesson about messing with his woman.

'Caught the bait.'

Alex smiled madly in his heart as he heard his words, He now had a pretty solid guess of what category this man and woman belonged to.

"Sir, You WANT to buy a mall, but you currently have not acquired it. When you do please then try to show off, I already tell you where management might be at this moment."

Alex once again politely turned to the man and said before urging Sandra in an eye signal to hurry up, He did not have time.

Which provoked the man. He did not like that Alex signalled his woman.

"Young master, I am extremely sorry for the delay. I contacted upper management. They will come here at any moment now to finalise the deal."

That white-haired man wanted to say but got interrupted by a tiny little fat man running towards them in a hurry with worry and fear on his face.

Seeing that, the White-haired man had a smug smile on his face, He turned and looked at Alex teasingly.

'Come on what are you waiting for? This man is unbearable.'

Alex ignored that fat man but said in his head waiting for something to happen.

"About time, Order them to come here in a hurry, I wanted to show some people their place."

[Ding! World choice is detected...]

'Finally, Take your sweet time.'

As word of that man fell, System in Alex's maid rang, making him excited.

(A/N : Any Idea which category these two belong to?)

Chapter 148 148. White Haired Dick

[Ding! World choice is detected...]

The select function is triggered...

â€¢ [1] Someone trying to face-slap you, How can you as a villain take this level of disrespect?

Task : Face-slap him both metaphorically and literally

Reward : Halo Of Iron Face

â€¢ [2] Isn't this man doing this for a woman? So rather than just give him physical pain, Give him physiological pain, make him fall deeper into despair, So deep that the pit of hell looks like child's play.

Task : Turn him into a miserable cuck

Reward : Steal any halo, skill, or talent of his.

â€¢ [3] What are you doing? Why get in between two love birds? It's not humane

Task : Just ignore it

Reward : Qi luck backlash, Suffer from worst fate for 48 hours

(Note : Because the host has the Villain halo, You will only be affected by slight bad luck for 24 hours.)]

'Are you really want to talk about humaneness while showing me the consequences of being a good guy? Anyway 1st and 2nd option.'

Alex said with the system in mind as once again like most of the time now, 3rd option was the worst out of the bunch, But this is useful for him to glimpse what will happen in the future, So he did not mind much.

He is just curious about how he can be affected by bad luck. This thing does not happen even when he messes with the protagonists all this time, which in itself is a great feat.

[Ding! The host chooses the option, Please complete the task to receive the rewards.]

The system voice also rang in his mind confirming his choices, Though he does not need to choose the option, Even if he just completes the task, He will receive rewards for it but he likes to choose, Which gives him an arcade-like feeling.

So after choosing it, He looked at first ready to strike when the situation presented itself.

"Yes sir, They will come here any second now, Look where they are."

The fat man quickly wipes out the large beads of sweat on his forehead. He really does not want to provoke the man in front of him.

This man is capable of shaking the whole of Berlin city with a stomp of his foot, and his reputation is also not that good. There are rumours that once he did not like someone, They ended up at the bottom of the river the next day.

So he was very fearful, Not wanting to join those countless other individuals. That's why he was so excited when upper management arrived, Which was a group of 2 women and one man.

"Mister Dick, Sorry for the delay, But you should have come to the top floor in the management, After all, though this is our mall this store is given on lease."

A man who looked like the leader of the group came in front of the now-known Dick, The white-haired man and said it.

The voice of upper management was to blame but was hiding it enough that it can't be used against him.

"Roger, We are old acquaintances, So I'm going straight to the point, I want to buy this mall, Right here and now, Say the price, I will pay in full."

Dick did not mind Roger's words as it was his usual way of speaking, He was rather concerned about the mall, It was very important for him to buy it.

Sandra working here means she signed the contract, Which means she is now bound by it. As long as she does not receive a better offer of a job, or the place of this shop changes, She can't leave this place for at least 1 year.

If she wanted to, she had to pay a hefty fine for breaking this contract, Which she did not have at all.

So when he has control over the mall then he will also go to have control over her. For a year she can't get away from him and will be under his eyes.

He did nothing more than that, Money is not a problem for him, All he wants is control over her.

"Sorry, Dick you have to be disappointed but I don't think that our family will sell it to you. Also, I don't have to remind you of the consequences of interfering with others' business fields."

Roger had no expression on his face nor there were emotions in his voice, His words were plain but they hold an infinite amount of soul-wrenching sharp intent. If Dick dares to break that delicate facade of peace among the families.

Then he will be torn into pieces with his family.

"Roger, Miller's family also got into real estate, Which was my family's territory. Why did they walk free? Do you think that is fair or right?"

Dick did not back down but looked straight at Roger and said word by word.

Alex's ears stand up hearing the Miller family, As he starts to improve his plan even further to make it foolproof.

"Since when do you care about fairness or right? I just wanted to say to you Mr. Dick is that, If you have guts go to the Miller family to complain, For now, fuck off."

Roger countered the argument of Dick glancing at Sandra busy gathering stuff for Alex, Then looked straight into Dick's eyes before asking him to fuck off.

After that, he was ready to turn around and go away with his two secretaries. He felt that it was a waste of time to argue here as he did not think Dick will offer any good deal.

"40 billion UC, And a written promise that I will not expand business in the chain stores in 10 years, Is this enough to rethink the offer?"

Dick still did not react to Rogers's words, Rather he had a smug smile on his lips, As Roger turned around to go away, He casually said his prize waiting to see a shocked reaction from Roger.

"What!!!!? Ahem Are you gone mad? This mall is only worth around 25 billion UC. You wanted to lose 15 billion UC just for her?"

Roger as Dick predicted, stopped in his tract and turned around to look at him in shock. He was really shocked. Only a madman will pay this much for a mall.

Though this mall was profitable, now because of a surge of e-commerce profits are getting lower and lower, and it is estimated to drop 5-10% at the end of the year.

Everyone in business knows that, The family he works for also shifted most of their things to the e-market. They also wanted to sell this mall.

Dick also knows that, The only reason Roger refused to sell it to Dick is that he knows Dick had an ulterior motive to buy the mall not to do business and so will not give a good price but he never considered that he would pay nearly double.

"I don't have the authority to give you a word, Let me call my family to confirm with them."

Roger, as a trained person in the market, quickly comes out of shock and asks for time to confirm before going to the corner and dialling the call to his superiors but this deal is already done.

Now he just needs confirmation, No one will leave these huge profits at all.

"You gigolo, Now get out of this mall, Now it's mine. I don't want to be infected with diseases you are carrying from sleeping around."

After Roger went away, Dick came to Alex and said it in a cold domineering tone, Now that he owns it he has the authority to kick Alex out.

"Mister Dick, You still yet to own it, This might be hard for you to understand but the deal is only valid when two parties agree, Which is an interestingly universal thing."

Alex did not mind him at all, He just made a mental note to give 10 fold back to him later but for now, he let Dick be.

After all, The higher he flies the faster he will fall. He already sends a message, Which will airdrop trouble for Dick soon enough.

So after saying it to him, Alex walked towards Sandra "helping" her with a thing to get things quickly.

Which in Dick's eyes seems that he failed and is now scared, So hurry up to buy things to leave, As to save face, Still jealous of his woman being nearby to another man who was eating him alive.

And Alex here wanted just this thing. He purposefully now only slowed down the speed of Sandra but also made Dick angrier and angrier, So he made him burst out all at once.

"Okay, We will be waiting for you Madam."

Roger spoke on the phone politely, After bidding respective farewells, He came back to Dick, Which finally made him take away his rage-filled eyes from Alex and Sandra being in the same room.

"My Madam personally will come here soon to deal with the matter."

He did not waste time and said it to Dick, Which made Dick raise his eyebrows, Though this business transaction is quite big but it was not big enough to pull out Mdama, Head of the Rogers family.

Still, he did not mind. Rather he was glad he would get to see that legendary figure he heard much about.

"Sandra, I want to ask, are you single?"

Alex felt their gaze on Dick going away, So he turned to Sandra and asked without giving any prelude.

(A/N : Hey, Thank you guys because of you I just booked a Ps5 disc one, Which is also my first gaming-related and most expensive thing, So thank you to all. (PC is too expensive to build here all thanks to a surge in GUP price.)

Like always thank you for reading and have a good day ğŸ˜.)

Chapter 149 149. Alex, The Green Tea Bastard

"Huh! When did you get here? Wait!! What did you just say?"

Sandra was so busy gathering stuff as soon as possible that she had not realised that Alex had been helping her.

She was just thinking one thing, which is to get things asked by Alex as soon as possible to let him go out of there. As new Dick will not go easy on him if he stays here any longer.

But then she noticed what Alex asked her. She was not sure how to reply. It was the first time any man asked her about it, and that too by a super handsome guy.

"I-It's complicated, You see that man there is...was my-"

"Husband, Or I say he WAS your husband, right?"

Sandra wanted to say something as she looked at Dick with complicated eyes, But before she finished her sentence, Alex did it for her.

She in shock looked at Alex with hesitation and alertness in her eyes. This is a core secret of Dick. He was embarrassed to call her his wife.

He not only never announced her as his wife but also purposefully suppressed the news, So Alex knows this means he came here for her with a hidden agenda.

"Hey don't look at me like I am a villain, I know this because I am very much familiar with that look you gave him. After all, not so long ago I was standing there in your place."

Alex quickly shot down the wall of worry that emerged in her heart And said his reason for knowing her secret.

Well, he was not wrong. After all, Alia's plot was quite similar to Dick's because both were tropes of domineering presidents in the dog blood romance novel.

That's right he encountered his first Female Lead (FL), The one who was forced into marriage by the Yandere trope Male Lead (ML).

Yes, Males can be Yandere too, and they are scarier than female ones, As they do not look cute enough to be slid as a quirky perk.

After all, humans judge things mostly on how good/cute they look and how they make them feel, This is a reason why useless animals like pandas get VIP treatment even though they are dumb as fuck and contribute nothing.

While important beings like Bees and Wasps, Which are crucial for a healthy ecosystem, get ignored, Just because they do not look cute.

No, they are not ignored by bees/wasps because they bite people. That is because even 100 bees/wasps aren't able to cause damage to humans as one panda can. After all, that thing is a wild animal that is like a bear. They eat bamboo, So there is no need to doubt their bite force.

Also bees and wasps only attack when provoked or feel threatened, Which can be ignored seeing how important a role they play in our world but still they get ignored all because of that they are not cute enough.

'Wait! I am in the reverse world, So Dick can be cute in people's eyes here, While Alia is a bad guy.'

Alex wanted to say the unfairness of the world, How there is a duality between gender but seeing he was on the beneficial side he shut up.

"What do you mean?"

Sandra was not able to understand what Alex meant, but she felt in her heart that he was not lying, So her guard against him lowered but did not go away, She was still beware of him.

"I too did not want to marry a woman my family decided for me as she was just like him, Controlling, extremely possessive and sadistic, So I ran away from home."

Alex looked at Sandra who looked at Alex with complicated eyes. She can hear the pain, Unwillingness in his voice, the same as her when her family forced her to marry Dick.

It's just that Alex got a chance to go away, and she didn't, Which made her a little jealous of him.

"Hey, I know you are thinking, I am lucky, right? I, too, thought that while running away from home, I decided to create my own life, Free from all, but then I found out that there is a sharp difference between fantasy and reality."

Alex glanced at Dick to check if he was not looking here. After confirming, he indeed was not looking here, Which would ruin his plan, Alex decided to speak, His voice full of hopelessness, resentment, and agony but surprisingly there was no regret in his voice.

"W-What happened?"

Sandra was affected by his raw emotions and couldn't help but ask him out, She really wanted to know as she too was walking down the same path.

"A lot, I was abandoned by my own family, and they also break all contact with me. My sister who loves me so much did not even come to meet me in these 4 years. Well, I also found out that I was known and praised just because of my family. Without it, I was nothing, nobody.

No one cared how good or talented I was. They only knew I was abandoned and had no background, So my talent was useless. I also did not bring any money with me in a hurry, I was just 18 years old, barely an adult, In a new unknown city without a penny in my pockets.

So you can guess what happened to me, right?"

Alex had a melancholy look in his eye as if he was once again living in that time while talking about it.

Sandra was stunned. She never thought that this handsome man also has to suffer this much. In her eyes, life is easy for men, especially handsome, but now it seems this is not the case. At least she got a job to feed herself, But as a man, how can he handle being alone in the new city.

This Berlin city with its lighting charm is also known as the city of dreams among locals, Because of the number of opportunities here for young people, but this is only the front. It was dark and cruel as it looked bright and lovely.

If this city knew how to lift then this city also knew how to crush someone.

So she can just imagine what he might go through at that time.

"S-So how?! Gulp How do you manage?"

Sandra was herself getting emotional as the raw emotions of Alex were enough to make her remember her struggle which now she knows compared to Alex was nothing.

So she could not help but ask, She hoped he will get a good ending even though he was standing in front of him in one piece, As she was too much invested in the story

"I was cold, hungry and mostly afraid. I was taken care of by my family as I was made out of glass since childhood, So for me, it was way scarier and harder to get used to, I thought I would die in the unnamed alley soon.

But then she came, Though she had a cold-uncaring attitude, I still liked her as she was the one who fed me, and gave me warm shelter, while others did not bother to give me a second glance. You can even say I had fallen for her at first sight."

Alex said as one very beautiful divine smile adorned his slender lips.

When Sandra heard about a woman, She for some reason did not like it. An infinite amount of disgust appeared in her heart, not only for the woman but even for Alex too.

But hearing his story and what he goes through resonated so much with her that her disgust for him went away. She can understand why he did what he did, She might do the same thing.

"Not going to ask what happened next?"

Alex stopped and stared at Sandra, Who also looked at his breathtaking face, Which was still covered by that evil face mask, preventing her from appreciating it to the fullest.

But when their eyes met, She quickly dodged it, not daring to look at them. His enchanting eyes were as deep as a void threatening to swallow her whole, She was not sure if she could come back once she had fallen in them.

Still, she couldn't help but want to look at him. A desire to look at beautiful things is inherent, She is not an exception to it.

"Why? She is the woman you fall in love with, and then it was happy ever after, didn't it? This is how every story ends."

Sandra spoke, but her voice had a sour feeling which even she got surprised by. She and this man had nothing to do, Heck she does not even know his name, She can't be jealous of him being with another woman.

But she was, For some reason every time he mentions that woman, She felt a bump in her heart as if someone took something from her.

"Well, My story is different, As it was not the end but the beginning of it. It turns out She was using me, not even for sex as she did not do it with me as I was not worthy in her eyes but for the fame.

I was just a trophy she wanted to show others. You know I know that, I know that from the very beginning, but I had a futile hope she would change. One day, she will love me back if I just drown her in my love.

But it did not happen, Alex who for his self-respect even gave up his family now became a green tea in other's eyes, He who was there for love in other's eyes became money hungry gold miner.

I did not care about others' opinions about me though. For me only she was important, She is the reason why I was even ready to bear those humiliating insults but sadly to my disbelief, she also shared the same opinion.

5 Million, 5 million was the price and worth of me and my love in her eyes, So I give up trying, give up on the futile hope that she will love me back someday, and give up on the thought that I deserve happiness.

After all, How can I be happy when I give thorns to the family, Who always showered me with flowers? Everything happened to me because I deserve it."

Alex was so emotional, Tears were flowing down from his obsidian-like eyes, leaving wet trails behind them.

Sandra was also not in any good condition too. She, too, was crying. She did not know why she was, but she just wanted to cry, take that heavy feeling out of her heart.

It was hurting her so much seeing him hurt.

[Ding! +30 Favorability increased of Sandra for the host (Current: 89, Only one)]

(A/N : My PS5 arrived, So early update, As I was afraid I would forget to upload it once I started playing it.

Also, You guys did not forget Alex is very good at emotional manipulation, right?

Like always thank you for reading and have a good day ǎŸ~'.)

Chapter 150 150. Manipulating Female Lead

'Old weakness of Female lead, being too emotional.'

Alex smirked in his heart hearing the sound of the system. It's really too easy to manipulate female leads, as they are meant to be "perfect" women.

Yeah, authors always try to make them "perfect" or "Ideal" women who can't do anything wrong or bad and if they did then it was the fault of the world not hers, She is a pure kind-hearted woman.

Yes, even if she forces another man to marry her, She did nothing wrong. It was the man's fault who did not love his oppressor, As they have inherent diseases of victimhood.

In their eyes the whole world is against them, Only they suffer the most, others are just evil, Not that they have valid reasons to hate her.

But because of that, Alex loves these types as they are very easy targets to tame. Their strongest trait is their biggest weakness.

He did not even have to think much to make FL fall for him, like right now, In just one conversation he pretty much conquered her heart.

Though Sandra is not like those entitled Female leads thanks to the reverse world laws, She still follows that default route of FL, So Alex had to fix only one thing which is the monogamous nature of FL.

Females lead hate or even disgust if their man was even in contact with another woman, As most of the time ML is a virgin and had no prior relationship, Also he had to reject other women no matter how beautiful they are just for FL.

As true to that nature, He saw the disgust that appeared on her face when he mentioned another woman. Even for him, there was disgust on her face, but he who was prepared quickly resolved it.

Now that he pushed down her bottom line, He can push as much as he wants. After all, now that she changed her mind, it will not take much to lower even more.

"After that it was obvious, I left her and as retaliation, she blocked all my way to earning enough to feed myself thinking it will force me back to her, But I was adamant that I would rather die hungry than to go back to her.

I decided to take away the thing she most desire, Just like she takes away my love for her, I know she is obsessed with "purity" thing, Scoff If I was not "pure" she would lose interest in me, I didn't care about anything anymore, I had nothing to lose.

So I did it, I tainted my body, and became a broken shoe in those internet people's words. Look at the irony, I protected myself all that time for her, and yet I gave up myself just to get away from her.

I was sad-No I was broken from body to soul, A shell left of my past self, But I was glad I will get away from her, Not because I hate her, Far from it, I know love in my heart for her was so immense that if I meet her again, I will have forgiven her.

This was a step of mine to get away from her. I loved her, and wanted her, but I can't lose my self-respect, My free will, For which I sacrificed everything for her. Now she will hate me, despise me, or so I thought.

Well, it turns out her obsession was bigger than her hate for me, She still did not let me be, So the cycle began, I already tainted myself 1 time, Which did not have much effect on her, So I did it again to surpass her obsession for me with her hate for me.

I didn't know when 1st time turns into 2nd then 3rd and so on, At one point I even forgot why I doing it but every time I did it, I even forgot about the pain, I was feeling alive again, unlike before I'm enjoying doing with others, It was not disgusting as before, Which was become the only source of my happiness, My love for her also decreased Sigh Or I thought so.

One day I saw her and realised no I did not forget her. There are feelings in me for her, Same as before but now there was an additional emotion of hate, Other than she hated me, I hated her, and I blame her for my actions.

I know this is a cowardly thing to do, but it was easier to believe someone else was responsible for my descend than to accept it was all my fault, So I did that, Which became the regret of my life.

So take this suggestion from the man who walked on the same path as you are walking on, give up, This path only leads to hatred and self-loathing.

Go to him, Anyway, it was a little sacrifice of dignity, But at least you can walk in the world with heads up, Rather than taunted by every 2nd hillbilly, I don't say it, but it hurts, It re-dig those wounds I try to forget about.

So Sandra, take this suggestion and give up. It was good for both of you."

Alex finally finished speaking. He did not know if he ever spoke so much at one time, but Sandra also did not disturb him, as she was looking for a glimpse of the light of Alex's success.

She too was on the way to doing what he did. She wanted to hear the good news that everything will work out eventually or at least get words of encouragement from him, but all she got was a hopeless future.

He even said to accept that man, How can she accept him? Not only is he extremely possessive but also did not love her at all, Even if she is a woman she is not an animal, Who sees the man she can't hold herself back.

She wanted an emotional connection, A true love or at least an illusion of it, which seems impossible with Dick.

Even now he was coming after her because she hurt his ego by divorcing him, His obsession brought him here not love.

"In your suggestion what will work on him?"

Sandra hardened her heart and asked Alex in a determined voice, So what if this path will be hard? A man can walk past, then why can't she?

She agrees with what Alex said, She rather ruins her life herself than to give up her free will and let others do it for her.

Even if she will fall into the abyss, It will be because of her actions, She will be happy as she is the one who is responsible for it.

She looked at Alex, amazed by how quickly he solved the problem which she was struggling with for a year. She also felt pity that this pure soul of a man had to go through all that. Now there was a special place in her heart for him.

She did not know what that place meant, but she knows he is special to her.

That's why she was comfortable asking him about the solution to not having the slightest idea that she had already fallen into Alex's hand.

"Sandra listen don't do this, He looks rich, You will have a luxurious comfortable life if you-

"I don't think your "her" was any less rich, Then why did you not choose to be with her?"

Alex again "tried" to change her mind, but it only makes Sandra even firmer in her decision. She spoke cutting Alex's sentence midway, asking him a question in return.

"TouchÃ©, But Sandra, are you sure there is no turning back from this? You will only fall deeper and deeper."

Alex said in a concerned voice, while making sure that Dick was not looking at them, He was so close to totally conquering her, He did not want any disturbance to ruin it.

Though he already told Xiao Bad to create a low-grade illusion around him through his connection with her, Which Dick can't see through being a normal man, But still he was worried as he did not know if his Villain halo can counter FL or ML halo.

"I am sure, Even if I fall, That's all be my fault. There will be no one to blame but me, I rather prefer this one."

Sandra had a firm face as she spoke these words. After hearing Alex's story, She was ready to do anything to get away from Dick, Anything.

"Okay then I have two options here, 1 has 50/50 chances of working, while the other one will 100 percent work. Which one you will choose?"

Alex did not waste any time and went directly into the topic as Villain dies from over-monologuing. He will never do that, He is a good villain.

After 2 minutes of long monologue

That's why he knew he would never lose. He's just now waiting for Sandra's answer.

"2nd one."

Sandra just said it without giving a second thought to the 1st option, She did not want to take any chances, If there is a foolproof option, She will choose that one.

"Really, are you sure? You did not even ask me why I did not use it on "Her", Why?"

Alex asked in confusion, but in his heart, he smiled like a maniac. Of course, he knew why she did not ask him as a trait of FL is that they are smart enough to connect the points but keep in mind that in the face of misunderstanding, It goes offline or even works against it.

'System, use eye of truth on Dick.'

Alex, seeing he has time, decided to check the stats of the man going to turn green.

(A/N : Like always, thank you for reading and have a good day ?.)

Chapter 151 151. Licking Dog ML

[Ding! Please specify whose dick you want information about.]

The system's voice fell making Alex speechless but he can't even be bad as he indeed did not phrase it right making the system misunderstood.

'System uses it on ML Dick, No wait, Humm....Sigh Just show his information.'

Alex wanted to rephrase it but found out it was very hard not to misunderstand with that name, So he gave up. He used his eyes as an indicator and asked the system to do it.

He can use "Eye Of Truth" without the help of the system but he prefers the system as it is the quick and safest option.

Summary : Dick is a cold-hearted domineering CEO, This is a proper ML trope in the romance novel. Someone like him once loved someone then they will love that person to the end no matter what.

(Note : ML can forgive and accept anything FL will do no question asked, But do act angry on the surface, Which can be solved if FL also became angry.)

'Yes, A proper ML's stats, I wonder why a low-grade villain when they follow behind their supposed fiance called licking dogs, While ML spoil some stranger did not, In his eyes ML is way more licking than them.'

Alex was not in the slightest bit surprised after seeing the stats of Dick, As an ML he too had to perfect for the "perfect" woman FL.

They are always superior to other men around them, They also somehow know or in fact master in the things which are miles away from their supposed speciality of work.

But that's how ML works. It's dangerous to question their logic as a crazy fan of those ML's will hunt you down for saying anything against their "husband."

So he drop the idea and focused on the other thing, He is also not surprised with luck being indefinite as Dick is yet to be officially chosen as ML, After all in every romance book there are 2 or 3 extra ML candidates, Which can become ML depending on the preference of the author.

ML get their luck from FL, Yes they do get from FL as any time she is close to him, ML will get into serious trouble.

Which in others' eyes is a bad thing but for the ones who are favoured by luck it is an opportunity, So ML gain more power, strength and connections, While FL enjoys it.

This is how FL and ML mechanics work, Which is why the Luck of ML is indefinite as he did not have his luck, He just merely use FL's luck.

'But why is there something missing about Dick here?'

But Alex had one question in his mind about stats of Dick, He felt something is missing,

It's quite an op that Dick has pretty much all everyday skills maxed out but according to the ML standers it was just barely making it, There is still something lacking in him.

[Ding! The host "Eye of Truth" can only tell all the hidden details of the person, Background and such external things are not covered in the current level of skill, You need to upgrade the superpower for it.]

System sensing its host's confusion quickly answered, Which is what he needed.

Alex now gets why he felt something lacking in Dick. It was the background. After all, which MP did not have a super OP background that can crush all lower families?

It also shows the limitation of the Eye Of Truth. Though it can show everything about a person without a problem but it can only show the person or target, Ot did not mention other things related to the target.

So he had to figure Dicks background out which was not as hard as his name gives away, He is from the Wilson family, Ranked 4th family in Berlin city.

"You did not do it because you loved her, So you can't make yourself to hurt her."

Alex gets out of the system, Though he now gets used to the time difference in both places, It still makes his head buzz a little, Which is though annoying but not to worry about.

So when he stabilised, He heard the words of Sandra. It took a second for Alex to understand that she was answering his question, Which he asked before looking at Dick's stats.

He already knew her answer but he had to stay in his character to push her forward, So he showed a surprised look as if he did not expect her to say something like this to him.

"If you can guess that then you should also guess that what I am suggesting will not be easy, It might hurt Dick a lot, Do you still wanna do it?"

Alex asked her fully knowing that species like FL will do things the one they specifically told not to do, After all they are "Independent" women.

So he knew the answer to her. He is well aware that the more he forces down the idea of her being with Dick, The more she will resist it. That's why even if it was nauseating to suggest something like that, He had to do it.

"Why should he be hurt? And even if he did, what it has anything to do with me? I do not know him enough to love him nor do I care enough about him to hate him, So I did not have anything to hold back."

Sandra, like Alex predicted, did not like his suggestion at all, but not for the reason might have guessed. She was more angry about how Alex suggested she to be with another man. Is she not beautiful enough to take advantage of her weakness?

She thought men are possessive creators, But Alex did not show any kinda attraction towards her, making her doubt her own charm.

"Well true, I also think he did not love you, So he too will not go to get hurt just going to be super disgusted by it."

Alex lies through his teeth, Though Dick does not "love" her yet, In his heart she is only for him, So he will shatter seeing the thing Alex decided to do with Sandra.

He also did not care much. After the deed is done, Sandra will fall into his camp, And ML being ML will be a good little cuck, So he can do this without much worry.

"So what do we have to do? What is the plan?"

After Sandra made a firm decision she wanted to do this, She asked Alex what the plan was though she had little expectations about it in her heart.

"Coma on girl, Don't be too naive, If you can guess before things then you can tell what my plan will be, We are going to fuck, That too in a place where he can see it."

Alex raised his eyebrow and boldly said to her, According to the story he told her, He already did this many times, So he did not have to pretend to be modest like he had to in front of other women.

"Wha- That, This- Yo.."

Well Alex's words broke her mind temporarily, As excitement overheat her brain, Yes like all other FL who did not have a kid of a stranger who is definitely not an ML Wink She is a virgin.

So she was excited hearing it, Plus Alex's charm is there to simulate her to this extent.

'Woman'

(A/N : Like always thank you for reading and have a good day ǎŸ~".)

Chapter 152 152. Water Meat

'Xiao bai I will be back in 20...30 minutes, Until then be a good girl and stay with Grace.'

Sandra had not come out of her shock yet and was still dragged away by Alex, So Alex had a chance to give Xiao Bai a heads up, He did not want to make her panic again.

'Huh...No, You need.'

Xiao Bai, hearing his words, quickly looked at Alex's position in fear but found out that he was not there.

She anxiously wanders her eyes all around and thankfully finds him walking towards the secluded storeroom.

She quickly said in her mind ready to walk towards him, For her being with him is the safest place.

Yeah, even though she holds a feared and respected S-Rank power, She is afraid of being alone, Which is an inherent thing of beasts after they imprint on someone, Plus the contract between them makes a special bond between them.

This can be seen from the fact that Her eyes now become misty. An S-Rank warrior is now on the verge of crying out because of fear of being away from him.

'No, Xiao stays with her, I will be back quickly I promise okay?'

Alex turned around hearing her words just to see what she was up to. He quickly commanded her to stop. He understood it would be hard for her to separate from him but he had to.

Sandra is too close to being fallen in his camp, Not only that she is also FL, Which is one more insurance against the protagonists, As you can't be too careful with beings like those.

If he conquered FL, Then there will be fewer variables and his previous plan will work smoothly. He really can't afford to fail now.

That's why he did not want her to be with him. Though there is nothing wrong with her bringing them with him as she is a mature woman, In other words, legal. So if he wants he can even add her in fun.

But he still decided not to, She was still not able to say words carefully yet, At least wait till she can speak properly before taking her V-card,...It did sound bad but it was not, She is legal, Just not learning how to speak properly yet.

'But- '

'I will give you a shiny neck bell for being a good girl, Also One extra treat today, Okay?'

Xiao Bai even after his command did not want to listen, It is really hard for her to be away from him, Specially since it is not long since she hatched, So this world is still unknown and fearful for her.

But Alex was relax because he knew there is Grace who will take care of her in his absence, So he bribed her as it is a universal card of convincing people.

'....Okay, But soon come.'

It worked. As part of the cat, She was too weak to shine and ring things, So the bell is her achilles heel, So she had to give in.

Seeing she now not moving or following him, Alex gave her a comforting smile before entering the store room.

Xiao Bai looked at Alex as he closed the storeroom door. A worry was too obvious in her eyes but she could also sense that Alex wanted to do something important that's why she did not do too much.

She looked at her side at Grace, Who did not mind the absence of Alex as thinking being a man, He should have gone wandering around in the store to look at things.

Grab

Xiao Bai did not mind, Just looked at the empty soft hand of Grace then reached out her small hand and grabbed Grace's hand tightly bearing herself to be away from Alex for 30 minutes.

"Huh!? Are you hungry Xiao Bai? Should we go and eat something?"

Grace was looking at a man who insulted Alex hate in her eyes, Though she did not show it but she is no less protective of him than other women around him, It's just she can tell he was up to shenanigans, So she kept shut.

But her mind does cooking plans to get revenge sooner or later, and she will not forget this insult of her man.

When she was in her thoughts, She felt something unusually warm and soft grabbing her hand. When she looked down in surprise she found out that Xiao Bai was holding her hand, While biting the thumb of the other hand.

Grace could not handle this overwhelming cuteness. She had the urge to lift her in her arms but stopped herself from doing so. She did not want to take the risk of making her angry.

So she asked her if she wanted to eat as it was past noon, Grace thought she should be hungry, Which is why she held her hand.

"She does not need to eat anything, She is self-sufficient."

Liza, who was also throwing daggers towards Dick turned around to say it to Grace.

As an S-Rank beast, That too was a legendary one, All needed energy got to her from being surrounded by the mana or spiritual power depending on their cultivation type of hers.

Normal food did not give any energy to them as it is filled with lots of impurities and such, So they abstain from eating anything else.

"Water meat."

As Liza's words fell, Xiao Bai answered Grace's question without even looking at Liza. In her eyes this woman is her competition for Alex's affection, Which means she is her enemy.

"Water meat? Do you mean fish? Do you want to eat fish?"

Grace too ignored Liza, making her feel embarrassed. She asked Xiao Bai if she meant fish by the water meat.

"Hum hum."

To which Xiao Bai nodded excitedly, Grace smiled knowing what she wanted and so the duo walked towards the exit of the store as a clerk named Sandra said to them that there is a cafe around the corner.

If there is a cafe then there will be a food court. Now they just have to find a place that sells fish in the mall, which is the hardest task.

"Hey wait for me!"

Liza looked at Dick contemplating about giving order to her hidden guards to teach him what happens when provoked by a warned person but decided not to as Alex warned her about it.

So she ran after the duo of Grace and Xiao Bai, As she too thought that Alex should have gone to look for things, Which will take a while.

"Finally those disgusting women are gone."

Dick sighed a relief when he saw the trio walk out of the store, He was very comfortable being gazed at by the two of them, especially the short one who was not looking away at all.

Just looking at him with her eyes filled with lust (Sorely mistaken), He did not get how a hooligan like her got here but then thinking she was with that gigolo, He understood, What did he expect from a woman like her?

It was not the first time women were crazy about me and tried to get his attention. Every day there were lots of women running behind him to get his attention, But they were all from high-class families.

Each one trained from childhood to act respectfully. That's why he did not feel much weird around those women but Liza at first glance looked like a malnourished low-class woman.

So she can be like this, there is no strangeness in it, But he still is not like it, in fact, he hated even being disgusted and stared at by another woman since he met that little white bunny.

First, he hated her to the core, In his eyes, she was or still is a woman who used him to help her family but now he did not know why he couldn't stay away from her.

Since she left the house, he did not feel like going back there anymore. He hated the fact that she was not there? She is his possession, He brought her in exchange for saving her family, How can she go away like this?

No, she can't run away from him. She has to be with him even after death she can't go away.

This is what he thinks now. This might be the reason why he wants her back. At least he thinks so, As he did pay in billions to save her family.

That's the strong feeling he did not know about which is obviously weird but still love is interpreted as the unwillingness of losing his money, Which is his signature plot of misunderstanding of a romance novel.

"How much time madam is going to take to come here? Wait? Where did that little bunny go?"

Dick shakes his head, throwing out those thoughts. He now wanted to focus on putting a leash on her neck, So he was annoyed that Madam was taking this much time.

He was looking around the store and found out that Sandra was missing, He did not even notice when she was gone.

He quickly looked around but still could not find her or that gigolo. He became anxious as he started running around to look for her.

Chapter 153 153. Sea King

Outside in the store, Dick was running around searching for Sandra in panic and anger, While inside the secluded storeroom, Alex was staring at Sandra who did not dare to meet with his eyes.

"You don't even know how to do this? Are you not lying, right?"

Alex asked her in surprise, How can in this day and age she not have the slightest idea about that thing?

"Don't look at me like that, I am not lying, My family was very traditional, I was not even allowed to have a phone not to mention the internet is a forbidden thing in my household."

Sandra still dodged his eyes. She did not have the guts to look at him while saying this to him. She pretty much has no idea how the outside world works.

Her family though rich but had too much backward thinking, No electronics were allowed in their household, Which is an irony as they are in the electronics business, No wonder they go bankrupt.

"Still, This is the 21st century. You at least need to know how to make a call. God, how did you survive all this time? You don't even know how to make a simple call."

Alex did not agree with her argument at all, Even if her family was a traditional one, She was away from her family for 1 year and 2 months. She should have at least learned to make a phone call.

It's not even like she was not in contact with electronics, Wilson's estate should have plenty of things to get herself familiar with in more than a year.

"I-Dick said I didn't need a phone, I also did not get why it is important. It just used to make a call, I can do that from the public telephones. So I also did not buy it, Not to mention it cost too much money, 250 UC, I don't have that much now to waste on that plastic thing."

Sandra said not willing to lose face in front of Alex. She really thinks phones are only used to make calls, And that's all. She kinda knows it can take pictures and show the media but the one she saw was at least 10 years ago.

So she did not know what current smartphones are capable of.

"...You work in an electronic shop, How do they even hire you?"

Alex put the +18 thing on hold, This is more important to know. He at first just wanted her to make a call to her co-workers and make an excuse, Which prevented them from coming here but he unravelled this thing.

This is even crazier to happen than FL knowing how sex works, Which is a common trope of romance novels.

"No, I work in a game shop, An electronic shop I guess is downstairs. Also, this is my first day, So cut me some slack."

Sandra "corrected" Alex, You can now officially say she is technologically illiterate.

"Fuck it, Can you tell me a schedule of your coworkers and what is a possibility of them coming here?"

Though Alex is curious, he also has his own limits. He did not want to go into that argument. At least not right now. Not enough time, He will continue this useless but important debate later.

"Humm...They should be on break or gossiping somewhere as at noon there are not many customers, Some of the things you asked are here but now that I am also here, Others will not probably not come here, But why?"

Sandra put her index slender finger on her chin to think or look cute before she answered Alex.

He too looked at her doing this and found out that she is an FL for a reason, Though her charm is just around 140 barely touching the criteria of heroines, But she made that up with her inherent aura.

To be fair most of the heroines do have their own aura like Alia having an icy cold one, But Sandra is unique, Simple actions of hers provoke primal instincts in man. It is really hard to resist not falling for her.

Like right now, She just did a casual action, Which normally he will not care enough about but now his eyes are automatically attracted towards her. He did not notice before but she is quite a beautiful woman.

It might be because there was Grace and Liza before, So she fell behind but now seeing her individually, she did not look bad at all.

Her figure though not as wild as Liza or enchanting as Helen, It was simple and ideally curvy, It was simple but also unique in her way.

She has buttock-length hair that was dark black like a shadow. Her eyes were crisp dark brown, nothing special still because of the simplicity it gave her a quiet special look.

Same for her nose and lips, Both have nothing special but are well crafted, The only thing that may be unique was her slender long milky white neck, Which will be highly desired by any dweller of dark blood-sucking beings.

Her height too was a normal average of 5.5 ft, But even then it has given her quite a different look.

She looks too simple to be considered as special but rather than being her weakness this is her strength, Her physical traits are simple but were also perfect.

Her special aura and the symmetry of her body give her simple body an uncanny look, Which is irresistible for anyone.

"Hello, Are you there? You have not answered me, why do you need to know this?"

Sandra walked to Alex and waved her hand in front of him as seeing him going black staring at her.

Though she had an idea why he might have asked her for it, She still wanted to hear from her so as not to make assumptions and hurt him.

Because no man would want to do it here in the storeroom, She was also quite nervous, this being her first time and not knowing much, So she was still saying stuff without thinking much.

"You really don't know? Sandra?"

Alex comes out of his thoughts and says to her in a suggestive voice lifting his one eyebrow high.

He just now finds out why Sandra is FL, Even though he being a sea king* was affected by her aura, Which is a feat not to scoff off.

Still, because of that, he was even more excited to steal her from Dick, Though now that he thinks about it, His system should be changed to something else.

It is a Raiding system, Which was supposed to help him raid heroines means conquering their hearts through his words and actions, But all he was here doing is to fuck them till submission.

[Ding! As long as the host raids heroin, the system does not mind what the host use to do it, Nothing is off the table, Once favorability crosses 100 it will consider raiding them, Then which will get you a reward.

Though first crossing 100 favorability and then doing +18 stuff with them gives you extra stuff and buffs but it is optional.

(Note : Kissing and 1st base thing do not count as 18+ stuff)]

The system might have guessed what Alex was thinking as he did not put any effort to hide it, So it has to come out and explain to him.

'Wait!! Extra rewards? Why did you not say that earlier?'

Alex put Sandra on hold for a second. He opened the system panel and asked the system, Now that he thinks about it, He did indeed not receive additional rewards for Alia and Helen as he did with Grace and Liza.

The first reason he did not notice was because of the large amount of rewards he received in that time frame.

2nd is he does receive rewards from them but those were from his "Sex-Copy" skill, but because he received rewards he did not pay much attention to them.

Now that the system said it, It clicked him, He indeed did not receive any additional rewards from them.

[Ding! Host like it said it is an option and the system did say that raiding will give you rewards. You did not ask for a tutorial of the system before you started raiding heroines.]

The system said it innocently as it was really not its fault for Alex not knowing this fact, he did not ask, So it did not tell, And now he asked, System also told him.

Alex was speechless but in his defence who goes through tutorials on things they know pretty much all about? Didn't he use the system just fine? The system should have told him if it was necessary.

[Ding! The host you are the villain, So you should have to be careful and look through everything, After all, the devil is in the details.]

The system answered him, Even though the system's voice was a plain old mechanical one, Alex still felt it was gloating as the words said by the system are the ones technically he said it to it, When he chose all the beast's eggs.

And now he made the mistake, So hearing those words was like a slap in the face, But a good kind, At least he saved himself from losing another extra reward knowing this thing.

After all the more the merrier, Can't be too careful when it comes to the protagonist.

So now with a new side mission in mind, He closed the system panel, Looked dead into Sandra's dark brown eyes, Who was shocked and shy from his previous question.

Boom

[Ding...]

Chapter 154 154. Hidden Secret

Just as Alex removed that white face mask from his face, Sandra was shocked to her core. Her eyes went wide open, and she was not able to believe what she was seeing at all.

Yes, That face mask was as useless as trying to hide the sun with the palm of my hand but at least it let you glimpse at the direction of the sun but without it, you can't look at it.

The same thing happens here, Though she can see he was an exceedingly handsome man a little more handsome than Dick but now seeing him without the mask, She was ashamed of her previous statement.

Comparing Dick with him is like trying to compare the light of a firefly to the lustre of a moon. It is a foolish thing to do.

Alex did not look like any man at all. He looked like a divine being who walked on this mortal plane. She couldn't even look away from him, Her eyes were like a magnet attached to metal from his figure.

[Ding!....]

[Ding!.....]

[Ding!...]

'...System what just happened?'

Alex was stunned in place just like Sandra but for a different reason as system notifications a few times rang in his mind.

He did not expect this at all, He only thought he would get a quick slight increase from the face reveal to make the next thing a little easier but this is not what he expected, Even face control unicorns like Liza did not have this extreme reaction seeing his face.

This caught him off guard not giving him time to think about possible reasons, But he doesn't need to as there is a system to explain to him free of cost.

[Ding! The reason this happened host is that she is a Female Lead and not a heroine, And because of that-]

'She did not have heavenly protection of heaven like heroines do, Which job was preventing my charm from affecting them too much, So she was feeling the full extent of my charm.'

The system took the lead to clarify the matter but Alex cut it mid-off as he gets why she showed this extreme reaction.

Like said before every heroine has the protection of heaven to prevent them from being too stimulated by the charm of other people, As they are meant to be for the protagonist, Who at best are slightly above average looking people.

But Sandra being a female lead did not have that privilege, Not because she is lower than heroines though, Rather she is 1 rank higher than them.

The reason they did not have it is very simple, FL does not need it. That protection exists to prevent the protagonist from getting green but FL did not have that problem.

In fact, the reason why she even showed this extreme reaction is that as FL, Her partner (ML) should be one in a million or even a billion in terms of looks, So in her case her status effect rather than lowering his charm lethality for her it enhances it.

After all, most of the FL are face-control women and there is also no restriction of being monogamous as some FL can even open their own harem.

[Ding! Congratulations to the host for successfully raiding Sandra, A Female lead...

Hidden Secret : As its name says this is a hidden secret, When the time is right it will reveal itself giving the host a large boost of all around.]

'Not bad, My own deus ex machina, Though I expected to receive something like this from Rebecca, not FL Sandra.'

As one can tell rewards correspond to the female speciality, So Alex expected to get something like this from Rebecca as this is literally in her superpowers name, But Sandra giving this is also not that odd as FL also has her own strong plot armour.

'Now, I have one extra life.'

Alex now feels safer as now with this "Hidden Secret" thing, He can afford to make mistakes as this thing can save his ass, When needed, So he can go a little crazy if he wants.

"Sandra, What I am going to do next might sound odd or even you will feel uncomfortable for a while but you have to promise not to stop me, Okay?"

Alex was in a good mood, So he decided to also share that happiness with her. It's just that he had to be careful about his sex-related skills as once again she is not protected by heaven and hence will not be able to handle that raw power.

If he did too much he might break her completely, Which he did not want to do....at least yet.

"Humm"

Sandra was just staring at his face, Alex didn't even know if she had heard what he said to her but when he got an affirmative hum or he just assumed it was an affirmative, He took that as her consent.

The system's voice fell and 100,000 RP of his got deducted from his savings but seeing it had now crossed the mark of 10 million, He did not care much about it.

He finally put his eyes on Sandra, Now there is nothing to do then to admire her thoroughly.

"Ahhh!~ !!"

This action of his pulled Sandra out of her trance, A shocked yelp escaped from her mouth, Which suddenly stopped as her eyes met with his void-like dark eyes.

She was once again lost in them, These enchanting eyes were like a wide infinite darkness of the universe, Scary but also enchanting.

Her face was just an inch away from his, She could feel his warm breath grazing past her rosy cheeks, Which flushed even more after the realisation of their current position.

Her body was tightly warping in his arms, She could feel his fastening strong heartbeats, Her heart too was racing, Her eyes were wandering between his eyes and slender lips hesitating to do what her whole mind and body were urging her to do.

So he did what any sane person does in this situation. He grabbed her by her milky white neck with force to choke her and pushed her back till her back slammed on the wall behind them.

Bang

A pain hit Sandra's mind, her eyes in shock and confusion looked at Alex. She wanted to ask why he did this or rather she was curious about how he was this strong.

His grip on her neck was no joke. It was nearly suffocating her and that push was so strong that she was not able to put up any resistance to it. She needed an answer though why he was doing this.

"Alex wh- Mummm!!~"

But before she could say something her lips were sealed by his, He rudely bit her lips before sliding his wet slippery tongue into her mouth taking advantage of her surprise.

Sandra was confused about whether to enjoy her first kiss or try not to suffocate as he was still holding her neck blocking her airway.

"Muhmm Ummm Ahhh!~"

She wanted to say that to Alex but her mouth was blocked by his mouth, So only a seductive moans escaped from her mouth. She was trying to suppress those but she couldn't help it, He was just too good.

His tongue found her and now he was rampaging in her mouth, while she helplessly could only take wave after wave of pleasure hitting her whole being.

She was still somehow able to manage it but when his other hand sneakily climbed onto her body and strongly and rudely grabbed her boob and started foundling it, She dropped to her knees, There is no way she can fight back.

It was hurting, It was giving her so much pain and yet his savageness, the fierce raw passion of his was also igniting flames of desire in her heart.

It is weird. She hates being dominated and controlled by others. This is the reason why she left Dick in the first place and yet when Alex is doing the same thing to her rather than getting disgusted by it, She is enjoying it.

Alex can taste a metallic taste mixed with sweetness. He knew it was blood from her bleeding lip, So he just rubbed the tip of his tongue over it, making Sandra shiver in his arms.

Her body was heating up second by second, Her burning red hot face now was also filled with glistening beads of sweat adding a few points to her beauty.

But it was a pity that Alex, rather, was in the mood to bully her. He brought her close to climax multiple times during this small amount of time but he did not let her have her release, Making her moan in annoyance.

But he was enjoying every second of it, So it will go on for a while.

"Where had she gone? Huh, Storeroom? I did not check there, Let me take a look."

Dick searched all around but he did not find Sandra at all. He was on the verge of giving up on finding her on his own and was ready to let his man search for her but suddenly a thought of checking in the storeroom popped into his mind.

Though it was weird, he couldn't think of any reason for her to be there as her job was just to introduce the product. He still decided to go there as there was a strong feeling in his heart that she would be there.

So reached the secluded storeroom, And was ready to knock on the door ready to not receive any reply but his action was halted as he heard weird voices coming out of the storeroom.

(A/N : Question, Do you want to read the next part as an NTR (Netori) type of writing or a normal BDSM one?)

* NTR (Netori)

* BDSM

* Both (I prefer this one)

Chapter 155 155. Beginning Of Cuckery

Dick was standing in front of the door like a statue. His hand was still hovering in front of the doorknob but he had no guts to go ahead and open the door.

As he heard the weird voices coming out of the room, It was like the sound of animals breathing heavily with lots of unrecognisable sounds he was not able to understand but could tell it was the voice of a man and a woman.

"Hum he, Pe-people nowadays are wild, I-I should go look for Sandra."

Dick hummed and passed a nervous chuckle interpreting this situation as someone else doing indecent things inside the storeroom, So he was ready to turn around and leave from here as soon as possible.

But not able to, His legs were not moving at all, As if they are rooted in the ground not willing to move.

"Move, Move damn it, Why are you not moving? Why? Why she- Why is it hurting me this much? Sob"

Dick tried to move his legs to no avail, So he started cursing and asking questions about why they are not moving. He just wanted to leave from here as far as he could.

Every time he heard those sounds, He felt hurt as if someone plunging a blunt knife into his heart, It was ripping him apart. He felt like someone took out his soul and shred it into a million pieces.

He tried to deny it with all his willpower but facts were in front of him. He was too familiar with the voices of people inside the room, At least one of them.

There is no doubt it was the voice of Sandra, His ex-wife was in there making those sounds and there is no question of what these sounds are about at all.

Even though he never ate a pig, He seen pigs running, So he had an idea of what was going on in there.

He wanted to barge inside of the room, Stop what his woman was doing and punish her for it. He also wanted to end the life of that man right then with his bare hands for touching his forbidden but his body was just not listening to him.

He was frozen. He tried to move his body but it did not follow his command. He might have doubted if he was paralyzed not for the fact that his body was shaking uncontrollably. He did not know if it was because of anger, sadness, shock or just out of the cold.

Thump

His body felt cold all over, There was no strength remaining in his body to do anything, Even standing was becoming impossible and finally, his wobbly legs gave up making him drop to his knees on the ground.

Does he feel pain in his knees from that impact? He did not know, Nor did he care about it. All his attention was on the door in front of him.

He did not want to listen, it was like torture to him but for some fuck up reason he can't help but wanted to listen to it, He know it will hurt him, Hurt him a lot but he still wanted to do it.

This is like masochist behaviour, but he swore he just wanted to know why it was hurting him so much.

She was nothing to him other than being his property then why was she being with another man hurting him and causing him so much pain, Why was this pain not going away and why was he crying?

Tears were non-stop coming out of his light blue eyes, He did not understand what had gotten into him. The moment he heard the voice of her and another man, He was startled and started bawling like a baby. He tried and tried but the tears just wouldn't stop.

He felt like centuries had passed since he encountered this nightmare, Time had slowed down for him, He was not able to hear or see anything in his surroundings, All he was hear was her moaning because of another man.

All he can see was the images running in his mind of her being with a other man than him, Which was a different level of torture and the most fucked thing was he was imagining her being with that gigolo.

He knew she was not that low-level of a woman. After all, she being a woman did not try to do anything to him, Even living with him for 1 year as husband and wife. Rather, even if he tried to initiate it, She outright denied him. She was a woman who denied sex from him, HIM.

Which indeed hurt her ego, Which might have ignited his desire to make her his and make her beg for him but then they got divorced, And those emotions rather than being dismissed got even more intensified.

So the reason why he came here was to make her his but now what he was listening to? The woman he thought was hard to tame was now moaning like an animal under some random man.

So she did not have a problem with sex but him? Is he not worthy enough for her? What he did not have? Which that man has? Why was she like this in front of another man but not him?

Lots of thoughts were going through his head, His mind was in chaos, and He could not think straight, His brain was becoming foggy, He just wished it was a nightmare, He would wake up any second now.

But it was not, And he knew very well of it, This is a reason why he even hates himself, Why he was not doing anything? He has the power to ruin anyone present inside that room, So why is he not opening this single fucking door?

Simple, because he is afraid. He knows what is happening inside but there is still that thin film of paper of doubt that he might have misunderstood the situation, she might be doing something completely different.

The hope this door represents was too big to cast away. He knows it is a false hope, There will be no way she was doing something else but still false or not the hope was there.

An illusion of light in this darkness, Which was preventing him from falling into total despair, So yeah he hates being this weak but he still can't lose her yet, She is his and only HIS.

He owns her, She can't escape from him, so what she taints her body now? He doesn't care, He will just make sure to give her double the pain he was feeling right now, He will make her completely his.

Suddenly Dick stands up with new strength, Yeah it was just sex, What a big deal, It is a common and natural thing that too for women it was even more casual, She should be just letting off her steam.

Dick has an epiphany about why he was even bothered by her sleeping around with a man? It was just sex, What a big deal?

The pain Sandra caused him he can pay her back in double later on, And now it was even more fun to conquer her body and mind.

So he should not care much about her body being tainted, He cares only about her unyielding resolve, A strong will not bend in front of anyone.

His objective always was to break that, That still has not changed. Her using her body did not change that fact.

Dick's back straightened up, He clenched his fist with his newly regained confidence, He looked at the door and was ready to knock, Don't care anymore if he saw her naked in another man's arms.

Heck, he will be glad, the more hurt he is now, the There will be more fuel to burn the flame of revenge in his heart, And the more pain Sandra had to go through.

"Fuck!!! Please let me cumm already, I am begging you!!~"

But suddenly all Dick's resolve shattered into thousands of pieces like a glass bottle hit by a stone as these words fell on his ears.

What did he hear? The woman he thought will never yield in front of anyone, A strong woman he wanted a break to conquer said something like this? No, Impossible!! It will never happen, He was hearing things.

"Hehe, I-I am hallucinating, M-Maybe it was not Sandra inside, I am mistaken, She will never say something like this ever."

Dick was stunned in place for quite some time before a slight chuckle escaped from their mouth as he laughed at himself for thinking too much.

Now he was doubting that the woman inside was even Sandra, After all these words can't be said by a strong feminine woman like her.

He even dropped the idea of opening a door and was ready to turn around and go away to look for Sandra.

Did he know what he was saying was highly unlikely? Definitely, He knows but rather than accepting the fact that Sandra was begging some man to let her cum, It was healthy for him and his mental health to think she was not Sandra.

The only thing that held him together was that he could get his revenge by conquering and taming her, Making her his property. He can't lose that, No matter what.

"Thecc~ Sandra are you not ashamed to say this? Well, I can let you cum but you have to work for it."

"Okay, I will do anything but just let me release myself, ahh!~~"

But fate was not with him today, As he took one step to leave, He heard those words eliminating any possibilities he created for coping.

Now that his coping excuse was utterly destroyed, So does his regained confidence, He was once again on his knees but this time without any glimmer of hope.

(A/N : I wanted to make more NTR (Netori) but fear I will repeat Belladonna's mistake, But if you want I can make it more extreme either with a re-edit (16 days later as privilege has only 300 words limit to change) or in the next chapter, It's up to you.

Chapter 156 156. Nailing Someone's Love, It's Fun (R-18)

Her well-kept hair now was messy, Her slight makeup of hers was also messed up, and her Black mascara of hers was running down from her eyes onto her cheeks, As choking and whatnot provoked her inherent instincts.

Still thanks to her FL aura not only did this make her look ugly but illogically made her even more attractive, The dismissal in distress current state of her can provoke an urge to protect in a man.

Alex too was affected by her, Especially when begging him to let her cum, His heart even skipped a beat, and A overwhelming amount of lust, and passion in her voice even influenced him.

His blood was boiling, A soft moan escaped from her cherry lips that can soften any man's bones, Even though he said and experienced the raw attractive power of FL, He was still once again surprised by how one simple action had this astonishing effect.

But who was Alex? He was born a sadistic guy, So even if he was influenced by her aura it did not sway him away from his main motive, That is to conquer her.

Yes, conquer her, Her having 200 favorability does not mean he conquered her, Rather he just set the beast free, and now he has to tame it.

As an FL, Of course, she will not agree with her man being with another woman. They hate those things the most. Even the reasoning and the sad backstory he told her will only work for her to accept his past but it does not guarantee she will allow it further.

Unless, He took the lead in his hand rather than allowing her to march forward. As all FL will try to do it if given the opportunity.

So he decided to eliminate any possibility of it once and for all.

"Thecc~ Sandra are you not ashamed to say this? Well, I can let you cum but you have to work for it."

Alex looked at her misty eyes, confused but ecstasy-filled face and sneered at her, He spoke taunting her as how can as a woman she will say such a shameful thing? Where is the pride of women?

But while talking he did have a teasing smile on his face, A sadist inside him was quite enjoying the given situation in front of him.

"Okay, I will do anything but just let me release myself, ahh!~~"

Sandra in guilt looked down, She indeed was ashamed of saying something like that but she can't help it.

Alex was too teasing, Every time he touched her it felt like she held a live electric wire. A wave of current rushed through her body, Pleasure, pain, and excitement-like emotions bombarded her mind.

She can't think straight, Her legs were shaking so much that, If not for the support of Alex she would be lying on the cold floor of this storeroom.

Her pantie was already drenched in her love juices, Which though embarrassing but she was not in the condition to care about it at all, She was rather more concerned about the fact that why he was teasing her.

He let her be get as close to him as possible for release but at the last moment will stop his action making her helpless, She felt like a fish on the chopping board flapping around, While Alex holding a knife but the only difference here was that she wanted to be slaughtered by him he just not giving that final strike at all.

She always keeps her on edge just a little away from that sweet release tempting her yet it is far away from her, Being just a dream.

It was making her frustrated to no extent She wanted to yell, shout, complain and even walk away from it but she can't, Though each second is like torture to her his touch is like a drug, Very addictive.

She can't just get enough of it. Each time he touched her she felt like thousands of ants were crawling on her body, It's like an itch she can't scratch.

So she can only beg him, hoping that he will take pity on her and finally let her experience that euphoria, For that she was ready to do anything, Anything means ANYTHING.

"So you have to work hard then."

"Ahh!~ Please be a little gentle."

Sandra moaned at his action without even realising it, She out of instinct did try to hold her hair back but other than that she showed no sign of resistance at all.

"Ohh, Then why are you moaning like a dog in heat?"

Alex did not let go, He looked straight into her eyes as he started to unbutton her white formal shirt with his other hand as he was still holding back her hair.

He knew the weakness of FL the most. It appears as if she is a full-fledged M but she is not. Apparently, the new generation of FL is like her are like this kinda trash treatment for some reason.

The rougher and inhumanly you treat them the more they become attractive to their more abusers. He read too many of such werewolves, vampires, and mafia type of shit novels, So yeah even if it does not look good, but she enjoys it and She asks for it.

Well, that sounded bad but you get a point.

"N-No, I that, Ahh!!~"

Sandra did not want to admit it at all, How can she admit it? As a man she likes abuse? She did not have that kinda extreme beta fetish, She is an alpha woman who just happens to moan when being hurt, Nothing else.

If it was then it would be a sign of her being a woman, She can take pain happily.

Yes, Copium is also a strong thing for FL as they can even interpret the abusive relationship as a loving one.

Still, Sandra was not able to say anything in her defence as while she was thinking of words, Alex already unbuttoned her white shirt exposing her surprisingly wild black bra, Which did not fit to her personality.

But Alex did not think much, He just grabbed those two mounds of her with quiet force, Making her release a loud moan.

Not only pain but wave after wave of pleasure hit her whole being, She did not understand how he simply grabbed her boobs? Is he that skilled?

A strand of jealousy took birth in her heart. There can be only one reason why he can be good at it, And that is practice. How many women did he sleep with? Did they also have to suffer like her begging to get released?

Why she-

"FUCK!!!!~~"

Sandra was thinking but suddenly a wave of pleasure like a tsunami hit her. She didn't even get a chance to understand what was happening before her whole body tilted, and Her back arched in an arc.

She yelled top of her lungs, Her breathing was quickened to the extreme, She had reached the pinnacle of euphoria and yet she did not get what she was urging, begging Alex for it.

She was on the edge, A slight touch, A little graze will be enough to push her to that paradise but he stopped it at the last moment.

"Why!?? What do you want me to do before you allow me to have a climax?!!"

Sandra was so frustrated and annoyed that she wanted to cry out loud, and fall on her knees to beg him to give her that release.

So she asked him about what he wanted. Her eyes were misty, Her cherry-like lips were parted as she was heaving for air, She that moment finally broke all her barriers and bottom lines.

Now all she wants is to get her sweet release. She was now ready to break any rules, laws, bottom line and even morals. She did not have enough strength to care about anything else anymore.

'Fuck, Did too much.'

Alex on the other hand looked at his hand in shock, He just pinched her nipple through the bra, Also he just slightly increased the power of his ecstasy hands as he always does provoke their body.

But he did not expect at all that Sandra would react to this much to his slight increase in strength, He was also as shocked seeing this as Sandra was.

This time he did not want to take his hands leaving him hanging once again, But in shock, he had to take his hands back fearing the pleasure might break her mind.

'Wait! She did not have heavenly protection, So just like Xin Yan did not have any resistance to my skills.'

Then it clicked to him what was happening. Just like Xin Yan, the ill-fated female supporting doctor, Sandra also had no inherent resistance to his skill.

Suddenly an evil smile appeared on Alex's lips knowing this fact, Though both Xin Yan and Sandra did not have a resistance to his skills.

But unlike Xin Yan, Sandra is an FL which has other protection methods mena she can go as crazy as possible without fearing to break her at all.

So he looked up at Sandra with excitement in his eyes before asking the system to increase his skill power before he held back her head and kissed her strongly.

(A/N : BDSM will come in the next chapter but will not do too much.

Chapter 157 Don't Buy, Double Updated.

Her well-kept hair now was messy, The slight makeup of hers was also messed up, and Black mascara of hers was running down from her eyes onto her cheeks, As choking and whatnot provoked her inherent instincts.

Still thanks to her FL aira not only did this make her look ugly but illogically made her even more attractive, The dismissal in distress look of her provoke an urge to protect fromr in a man.

Alex too was affected by her, Especially when be begging him to let her cum, His heart even skip a beat, and A overwhelming amount of lust, and passion in her voice hel even influenced him.

His blood was boiling, A soft mone escaped from her cherry lips that can soften any man's bones, Even though he said and experience the raw attractive power of FL, He was still once again surprised by how can one simple action have this astonishing effect.

But who was Alex? He was born a sadistic guy, So even if he was influenced by her aura it was not swayed him away from his main motive, That is to conquer her.

Yes, conquer her, Her having 200 favorability does not means he conquered her, Rather he just set the beast free, and Now he had to tame it.

As for FL, Of course, she will not go to agree with her man being with another woman, They hate those things the most, Even the reasoning and the sad backstory he told her will only work for her to accept his past but it did not guaranty she will allow it further.

Unless, He took the lead in his hand rather than allowing her to let the march forward it. As all FL will try to do it if given the opportunity.

So he decided to eliminate any possibility of it once and for all.

"Thecc~ Sandra are you not ashamed to say this? Well, I can let you cum but you have to work for it."

Alex looked at her misty eyes, confused but ecstasy-filled face and sneered at her, He spoke taunting her as how can as a woman she will say such a shameful thing? Where is the pride of women?

But while talking he did have a teasing smile on his face, A sadistic inside him was quite enjoying the given situation in front of him.

"Okay, I will do anything but just let me release myself, ahh!~~"

Sandra in guilt looked down, She indeed was ashamed of saying something like that but she can't help it.

Alex was too teasing, Every time he touched her it felt like she holds a live electric wire. A wave of current rushed through her body, Pleasure, pain, and excitement-like emotions bombarded her mind.

She can't think straight, Her legs were shaking so much that, If not for the support of Alex she should be lying on the cold floor of this storeroom.

Her pantie was already drenched in her love juices, Which though embarrassing but she was not in the condition to care about it at all, She was rather more concerned about the fact that why he was teasing her.

Chapter 158 157. Nailing Someone Else Love, It's Fun II (R-18)

"Mummm!~ Mummm Uhhh Huffing Humm~"

Loud sounds of moaning were reverberating in the quite dead storeroom giving a touch of life to it.

Sandra didn't know what was happening to her, As Alex kissed her roughly and slid his agile tongue into her mouth, She felt like she was in heaven.

He kissed her before which was also too good but this was something else, She did not have any words to describe her current feeling at all.

She can only describe her current state as a sizzle after sprinkling water on the hot pan. Her body felt like it was lit on fire, and Her whole being was burning hot.

Her pussy was even wetter then a Mawsynram*. Her pussy was also burning, craving for attention from the rude man who enjoyed seeing her being desperate.

Her bountiful breasts were also heaving up and down grazing onto his strong chest, Even though there was fabric between them, She can still feel his comfortable warmth making her even more aroused.

Her nipples were so erect and hardened that they might cut through a diamond at this point. He was still holding her hair back as he was kissing her, The forceful way he was using was also not light still she loved this strange feeling.

But nothing comes close to what is happening in her mouth, Alex is like a savage rampaging in her mouth, Her pitiful tongue was getting bullied by him, She tried to fight back several times but the end result was an utter defeat.

As his tongue was exploring every corner of her mouth, She only received wave after wave of ecstasy filling her whole body, Both of their saliva mixing, In normal times it will gross her out.

But now there was nothing much more addicting than tasting each other. It was like fine wine. The more she was savouring the more complex taste she got to experience it, She pretty much became drunk just from this kiss.

Still, there was one complete, It's logical she should have been cummed at least a few times from this much stimulation but she didn't.

Her body was indeed filled with lust to the brim, Ecstasy was even penetrated into her bones and yet she was still on that damned edge, So close and yet so far away from paradise.

"Want to cum? Well, you gotta earn it, Love."

Alex finally broke the kiss, Pinched Sandra's chin and spoke as if he was from the downside world country.

But that's not important, Inplimportanting is important that he can hear Dick on the other side of the door. Sandra as a normal person did not have super hearing, So she can't hear it. But he who is not only an F-Rank but also a possessor of a beast body has no problem to hear it.

And oh man, the thrill of ready nailing someone's love is just uncanny, cherry on top it is that the lover also gets to hear every bit of it. Normal people just find this as a show of power but for sadistic Alex, It was like a drug.

So more than ever he wanted to bang a woman in front of him.

He on the one hand grabs her hair back, While pinching her chin with force, He purposefully not allowing her to release at all, Which became possible all thanks to the lust metre.

Yeah, He did not forget that thing after buying it from the Netori store, He just did not have anyone to use it on, Now he found a use for it.

This not only helps him make her more and more desperate to the end where she can do anything for it, but He can also get to torture Dick outside the storeroom hearing how his "possession" is begging in front of him.

It's fun, he was hitting 3 birds with one stone as if not mentioned enough time before he was sadistic loving every second of it.

"What do I have to do?"

Sandra did not waste time and went straight to the point. She feels like she will die if she does not get that sweet release, All she can now think about is lust, Her mind long lost critical thinking.

All decisions were not being taken by her pussy, Which says a lot.

Alex said while pulling her hair back, A hum of slight pain escaped from Sandra's mouth but as Alex lessened his grip, She obediently got on her knees facing his crotch.

Her face was bright red, From embarrassment but she was not in a condition to care much about it, Pride and such useless things stopped being mattered to her when. She begged him.

Pang

Finally escaping from the evil bondage of pants, It stretched itself resulting in it jumping out of his zip comedically slapping Sandra's face.

"S-So big!!?"

Sandra came to her senses a little from the slap of that hard hot thing but then got stunned seeing the size of this monster.

She did not know it can get this long and fat, All she was thinking was, Aren't 3 inches considered big enough? She studied in college, So 3 inches is big enough, 4 inches is considered a limit.

So how can he have this big one? She was not able to wrap her mind around this fact at all.

Thankfully she didn't even have to, As before she realised it, That monstrous thing was pushing onto her soft lips.

Out of instinct, she opened her mouth, To which Alex did not miss it at all, With one push of his waist he pushed more than half the light of his schlong into her tiny mouth till it reached the back of her throat.

Cough Gag Cough

Sandra was not ready for this at all, As expected her body strongly resisted this action of Alex. She was coughing and gagging trying to push that thing out of her mouth out of instinct but Alex did not let her.

He was still holding her head in the same position just backing his waist a little to give her a slight breathing room.

"Relax, It will just hurt the first time, Later you get used to the pain."

Alex was enjoying that warm moist mouth of hers as his dick lay on her soft tongue, He spoke to her to calm down her panic as he waited for a second for her to get used to bulging in her mouth.

Then once again without any warning, he gave one final push ramming his dick deep into her mouth and then to her throat still her cherry-like lips were touching the base of his dick.

Choke Gag Gag Cough

Sandra had a more extreme reaction. Tears were running down from her eyes which ruined her mascara for good that time. There was a visible bulge in her throat as his dick entered her throat blocking her airway.

This should be quite fearful and scary for some people but Sandra on the other hand had a satisfying look in her eyes, And if one looked closely past his dick occupying her mouth, There was also a smile on her face.

Of course, she was enjoying his rough treatment though he still did not dare to do too much as there is a risk she might become a sex-crazed woman, After all, FL status will protect her mind from breaking but it will not do much help for addiction, Especially when it was not harmful to her.

That's why Alex was still holding back a lot, But his skills were working at 50% of their power, Which does not sound much until one realises his skills normally only use 10% power on the heroines.

Alex grunted as he felt the tightness of her throat. An unconscious swallow of hers trying to free her airway was giving him a slight massage.

She might also learn quite fast as her slippery tongue was rolling around his dick. A trail of saliva was dripping down from the corner of her lips, As there was even a little puddle where she was sitting as a sign of her excitement.

Surrp Surrp Phwee Gag

To Alex's surprise, Sandra learned a little too fast, She on her own started to wobble her head back and forth onto his rod, Her soft lips also wrapped around his length allowing her to create a small suction inside her mouth as she started to suck on it.

Her cheeks because of a suction sunk the inner side of her mouth dragging on his dick, Her tongue gods know it learned was now becoming quite professional in this so little time and was running across his whole length even up and down and the side of it did not let go.

She did this while going down on his dick. Such a complex thing she learned pretty much in a matter of seconds, And the surprising thing is though she was doing nothing special like Alia did but what she was doing was just perfect.

Even Alex did not want to hold back and release himself in her, As she somehow knew what he wanted and manoeuvre according to it.

"Arggh drink all up, Sandra!!!"

So Alex did not hold back, Why should he? Sandra needed to be tamed not him, He can enjoy as much as he wanted.

Spurt Spurt Spurt

He held her hand and shoved his dock as far as he could, To which Sandra did not show any resistance, his cock head swelling as he emptied his balls in her throat.

Cough Phwff Cough

Sandra choked because of the amount of it but she somehow quickly managed to get adjusted to it, As only in a matter of seconds she was like a professional drinking it all up.

Alex held her head till he released every single drop of it to which Sandra had no problem as she even learned how to breathe while his dick was deep in her throat.

'I should have checked her stats before doing this, She is definitely not normal.'

Alex looked at the lustful face of Sandra and thought of it. He did not think as FL she will have anything special as though FL do look mighty but they are mostly normal but Sandra seems a special case.

But right now was not the time for that. He pulled out his dick from her mouth which even made a plop sound, and lifted her up, Ready to finally tame her.

(A/N : I notice there are double chapters uploaded yesterday, I was not the one who did it as sometimes decides to upload double time when you have a bad network.

It happens to me in my other novels but I did not think this being contracted novel can also face this issue.

I am very sorry for it, But I can't delete it even if I wanted to as it did not allow me to do it. Give me a suggestion on how to do it, As right now it says "published premium chapters are not allowed to be deleted".

Once again I am really really sorry, I will make sure it will not happen again.

Chapter 159 158. Nailing Someone Else's Love, It's Fun III (R-18)

Alex lifted her up and patted on her head, While giving her advice on how to suck a dick, A quiet family-friendly interaction, I must say.

"Pant Pant C-Can you please?"

Sandra was panting for air, Though she somehow learned how to breathe while gulping on this monster. That was just barely keeping her away from suffocating, But her main concern was the same as before.

Her eyes were misty, The trail of massacre left behind on her cheeks was showing a different kinda beauty, A desperate look in her eyes while asking or say begging him can force any man to commit a crime.

"Well, It was not that satisfactory a job with my standards....But seeing that you have given your best, I let you off this one time, Now ready to be a woman."

Who was Alex? He is a guy with virtually no morals and fucked up sense of humour, So of course he was weakest to her simple but addicting charm.

So he grabbed her by her shoulder before slamming her back on the wall. He raised her smooth chin with his index finger and thumb, As he spoke to her in the most gentle, warm tone possible.

Gulp

Sandra couldn't help but gulp. She isn't able to understand him at all, His words and actions are showing two drastically different people, and what is worse she can't able to decide which one she likes more.

She loves getting gentle treatment from him, It is very little time that she knows him but his small little actions make her heart sweet as if she had eaten honey but his rough, wild side was also quite addicting for her.

Like right now, The words she spoke and the break he took just to mess with her were rude, evil, bad and yet she loved it. The helpless feeling she felt in her heart hearing those words was hard to describe in words but she did not hate it at all.

And then she heard he would give her what she wanted, Make her feel like drinking a chilled bottle of water on a hot summer afternoon. It was just heavenly comforting for body and soul.

She was so excited that she wasn't even able to speak. All she was able to do was to look at the work of celestial art in front of her, Hoping, waiting to receive that honour from him.

Alex saw her condition was now perfect any more then this will be stretching too far, This is more than enough for his next plan, But for now, he just has to fuck her brain out.

So without further ado, He unhooked her bra and slid down her mini skirt till she was with her bare boobs exposed standing in front of him, And wet black net panty which was dripping her love juices.

Some of it even slid down from surprisingly thick thighs. From this condition of hers, one can tell how much she was suffering through trying to bear the pain of holding herself back from hoping for Alex's body and having her way with him.

"Look what is this? Our little beauty was too desperate it seems."

Alex pushed himself onto her as both of them front-smashed together, Then casually said as he ran his fingers over her wet panty lightly grazing her already super sensitive pussys labia.

"Huhmm mumm~ Pl-Please d-don't Uhhmm~"

Soft crips and seductive moans escaped from Sandra's mouth, Her hand trying to stop him from touching her there. She was too sensitive right now. She wanted to cum very badly but also did not want to appear as a 30-second girl, Who cum at just the touch of a man.

She doesn't care if it was someone else if she gets to cum but Alex is a different story sadly she did not have enough strength to resist him at all, Her hands feel weak and her legs soften from that light touch.

His action was like sprinkling water on a hot pan. It reawakened that lust she was trying to suppress, Her pussy started tingling and burning as if it was on fire as more and more juices it started to secrete.

Alex on the other hand was enjoying her desperate look. He can feel her erect nipples trying to dig into his chest, A twitching of her pussy as his finger grazed over her lower lips was quite satisfying.

"Do you want this thing inside you, Sandra?"

Alex held his dick and rubbed over her drenched panty, By doing that he not only aroused Sandra more but also coated his glans with her juices for lubrication.

"Huff Y-Ye-s P-le-a-se g-i-ve me Ahhhh!~"

Sandra was barely able to hold herself from all this teasing. Not gonna lie she loved him making her beg for it but her body also has limits, She was on her last leg right now, She can't guarantee after that she will be able to control herself.

As his cock head was rubbing against her pussy, Though still parted from the piece of cloth, Sandra hyperventilating because of her excitement.

Finally, she was going to do her, She was not even able to speak a word properly to Alex, Her eyes locked on below, Cursing that damn panty which became a hurdle in her joy.

Alex heard what he wanted, So in the expected and excited eyes of Sandra, he slowly slid her panty down to her knees.

"Ahh! Ouch."

Then without any warning, he lifted her right leg up high, removing her panty from that leg and making it fall on the ground from her left leg.

Sandra couldn't help but yelp in sudden shock. She needed a second to understand what was happening and when she did, She had nothing to complain about.

As she saw and felt a hard hot thing rubbing against her labia, Her right leg was on Alex's shoulder making her have to take support from the wall by the side at an angle to stand on one leg.

And so she did.

"Ahhh!!~ Muhummm!!~"

Alex after rubbing his glans over her entrance of the forbidden chamber for a while, Adjusted an angle and the In one swift move of his waist entered inside her balls deep tearing her tiny pussy and expanding her insides to accommodate his member.

Sandra though prepared still yelled out at the top of her lungs in pain and ecstasy, She thought she was on the nine heavens.

She felt the sharp pain of her skin tearing apart but that was quickly replaced by the sensation of something filling her whole, She felt how her inside shifted and expanded to make space for his member.

It was hard, hot like she put a hot iron rod inside her, But when it reached deep and hit her cervix, She finally understood the meaning of life, A Nirvana.

She was filled with nearly infinite pleasure and ecstasy, A current ran through her body wave after wave sending shivers in her body and making her shake.

She never felt anything like this, She reached paramount pleasure, As the floodgate opened inside her.

She finally got what she was begging him for, That sweet sweet release.

Like a shaken soda can ready to spray out her love juices trying to calm the burning fire of lust inside her but the exit was blocked by Alex's member, Her vaginal walls tighten as she cum giving Alex a quiet massage.

Sandra was right now not in a condition to move at all, Her hair was all over the place and wet with her sweat, Her tongue was sticking out of her mouth dripping her saliva from it, Her eyes were rolled behind as her whole body was spasming out of control.

All in her mind right now was just ecstasy, Though she can't think much now but it was worth the wait for her, She never had this huge orgasm, It shook her whole being and yet it was still going like a never-ending melody of life.

Slam

Sandra's body was too sensitive right now. She was still going through that orgasm, But Alex on the other hand had other plans.

He did not wait for her, he took out half of his dick outside her now bleeding pussy and rammed once again deep inside her hitting her cervix resulting in making her cum once again.

Slam Slam Slap Slam

After that his onslaught started, Alex rammed his hard ruthless dick in her tiny pussy, Sandra begged Alex but only this time it was to stop making her cum over and over again. What an irony.

"Do you really want me to stop?" Slap

Alex asked as he slapped her bubbly ass cheeks, Once though her ass was average but it was still perfect for slapping and foundling.

"Huhmm, Fuck me!!~ Ahhh!!~"

"Please stop, She asked you to stop, Why are you not stopping sniff Sandra says something, Why are you begging him? You are not like this, Not the one I know."

Outside the storeroom, Dick kneeling in front of the door crying, welling his heart out, It was unbearable to hear this, He did not want Sandra to moan and beg like that, Not for another man.

If Sandra felt like she was in the 9 heaven, He had gone through seven chambers of hell in this short while.

Each word of hers slashed his heart, Killing a little piece of him inside and yet he still could not stop hearing them at all.

What is even more pathetic was that he has a small raging boner inside his pants hearing Sandra getting rammed like that.

"I am pathetic"

Dick looked at the small taint in his pants and could not help but curse himself for it but still, he did not move away from there, Hearing how his still officially legal wife getting her brain fuck out.

Chapter 160 159. Alia Does It Better

Slam Slam Pant Slam

The sound of wet flesh hitting each other was reverberating in the storeroom mixed with loud moaning and grunting sounds.

Alex at this moment was grabbing Sandra's long black hair and pulling it towards himself making her head bend back slightly as he non-stop pounding her.

Sandra on the other hand can only stand still barely supporting herself with the wall and enjoying the surge of ecstasy occupying her body and mind, She did not know how much time had passed, She had even forgotten the count of how many times she cummed.

All she knew was that she wanted more, She wanted him to constantly ravage her like this till eternity, She got addicted to this will be a very light thing to say about her condition.

He was completely lost and broken. She knew from now on she can't leave without this man at all, Which is quite strange considering she still did not know his name.

But at this point, she does not give rat shit about his name, or his past. All she knew was that he is the one, The way he made her feel no man will ever be able to do even in their dreams.

Before she had a little thought of consideration about giving in front of Dick, After all, he was not a bad choice. Any woman will kill to get what he was offering her.

He is a rich, handsome man with a clean body, As far as she knew at least he was in no contact with any woman until now, Plus he was even ready to give her whatever she wanted, And in return, she just had to bear with his overbearing possessive nature.

This sounds like the dream of any woman in the current era. Obviously, she too was a little tempted here and there she fell into a dilemma to give in to Dicks childish demand but now is different.

The mere thought of being with someone else other than this heavenly man repulsed her heart making her feel nauseated.

"Arggh, Sandra I am close, Where do you want me to cum?"

Alex grunted as he reaching close, He sped up his waist moment as he asked Sandra, Though he asked but no matter what her answer will be, He still going to cum in her as he needs to trigger Netori Halo of his for to torture Dick even more.

"Ahhh! Mumm~ F-i-ll m-e up Ah~"

The pain from this strangely did not hurt her or rather it did not hurt like it normally does. It was different, It hurt but not in a bad way. She felt like this action of his was showing his passion for her, This made her even more horny, Which she did not think was even possible but here she was.

Most of the words spoken by Alex could not be heard by her, All she heard was cum and those were the first words uttered by her.

She is surprisingly able to think through this one. A motive behind her words was not only to experience getting filled by him but also to baby-trap him.

Though men normally do this and it is a disgusting thing to do but she was not in her right mind, All she wanted was to be with him in any way possible, If it means baby-trapping him then she will do it.

Then she will spend the rest of her life atoning for him but she will not have regrets for doing it, As that is the thing she will get to be with him.

'Huff, Typical FL.'

Alex sees through her thoughts as this is a normal FL thinking process, As the only way to have the man they wanted is through bearing that man's child, This is an FL novel trope, So it was reasonable Sandra was also affected by it.

panda---novø1,coM But Alex also has his own ways to deal with it. Golden gun will prevent any unwanted pregnancy and can even give a 100% rate on the pregnancy if he wanted, It all depends on his choice.

To be honest, He was tempted by the idea of knocking her up and letting ML Dick raise his kid, But knowing the other passive of Golden gun he dropped the idea, After all, he had to keep his bloodline pure.

"Then be ready, Here I come Grunt."

Alex pulled her hair back even more, He was quite surprised by the tensile strength of her hair, Which was not normal but he will look into it later.

At this time, He grabbed her bubbly ass with one hand, While speeding up his waist moments, His hard hot dick was rubbing her insides expanding it as it was coming in and out of her reddish pussy.

Alex grunted, When he said to her, Her pussy tightened making her vaginal walls wrap around his member giving him a simple but perfect kinda stimulation.

"Take it!! Grunt"

Spurt Spurt Spurt

He did not hold back, With a final push he rammed his dick balls deep inside her pussy, His balls tightened as his cock head swelled and with a quiet force, His lava-like hot semen sprayed out of it, Tainting her inside forever.

"FUCKKK!!! I AM CUMMMMMMING!!!! AHHH~!!!"

Sandra felt his hot semen filling her inside also had one of her countless orgasms but the difference between them was it was the biggest she had till now, Even bigger than the first one.

She was not able to keep in mind that she was in the storeroom of a shop during working hours, Thankfully Alex made sure no one else was able to hear them, Of course except for one person.

Huff Huff Huff

Sandra lost all strength in her body, She was constantly spasming as her face was filled with ecstasy, She was huffing and might pass out at any moment, The only thing which was keeping her together was Alex was still filling her up with his jizz.

Plop Drip

Sandra could not stand anymore, So she sat on the ground with her back to the wall for support. She huffed for air trying to gain back her lost strength.

But Alex did not give her breathing room, He grabbed her head and shoved his glistening member coated in her and his love juices in her mouth to which she showed no resistance at all.

She rather greedily started licking and sucking on his dick, Her small tongue was quite agile as she was able to lick the whole length of his leaving no untouch.

The energetic look of her sucking on his dick was quite contrary to her look exhausted look a few seconds ago, If not for the tiredness between her eyebrows and her barely naked body in front of him, It doubt people that the one being fucked her brains out was a different woman.

Sandra, ignorant of her state was lost in her job, She somehow even figured out new tricks as while sucking his dick and trying to take full length inside her throat, She with her hand started fondling his balls lightly.

Her fingers were gently but precisely able to run all over his ball without hurting him, Which on the first try was impressive.

"Good job, Sandra, But Alia does it better."

Alex patted her head gently as he said the worst thing a man says to a wom- no someone, anyone after they had sex with one another.

That is taking another person's name and on top of it calling other is better than the one you slept with. This kinda comparison will shatter anyone's self-confidence into a million pieces and make them hate the speaker for eternity.

But we are talking about FL here, Who eats this level of disrespect as breakfast. So there is quite the opposite effect on her for his words.

"Alia??"

Sandra did not know how to describe her feelings right now. She should be livid, call him a bastard playboy and such before walking away from her but she did not feel like anything like that at all.

All she felt was jealousy towards the woman who he praised as better than her. All she wanted to do now was to prove to him she was better than the whore of a woman he was talking about, Who only took advantage of him.

But after that, she didn't want to ask about that woman as she did not want to come out in front of him as insecure, But curiosity got the better of her as she blurted out these words before she even realised it.

"Ohh, Alia? She is "Her" in my story."

Alex fixed his clothes and gathered Sandra's clothes which had fallen on the ground. He came to her and spoke as he started putting on her clothes back on her.

Sandra was only able to just stare at him in shock not knowing how to react to this new revelation.

(A/N : I decided not to go BDSM directly as people might still misunderstand it, So I will go slowly later on, Now focus on the story as now the plot will start to unfold.

Like always thank you for reading and have a good day 😊.)
