

Surviving in Woman's world as a novel villain.

Chapter 21 21. God Of Singing

'1st and 2nd option are most suitable for now.'

Alex saw 1st and 2nd options are compatible with each other, So without wasting any time he chose both options.

As for the 3rd option, He knows about it. Madam Miller is not sick but her body has just gone into a deep sleep. Why?

Simple reason: lack of a man.

She had a special physique known as a lust fairy. As its name suggests, this body is a natural dual-cultivation cauldron made for sex.

A special thing about this body is that, It will enhance the power of both parties respectively to each other's strength without needing to have proper cultivation of technique.

The only problem is that to reap the gain of this body, One has to conquer it. Mean literally conquered sexually, Which is also a difficult thing as that body is made for sex.

If one fails in it, Then they receive backlash, All the yang energy in their body will suck dry making them impotent. They will also die early because their body became incomplete.

That's how her first husband died. Maybe she found out about the strangeness in her body. That's why she never had a man after her husband.

This is also a reason why after chasing the protagonists out, He himself didn't enter the ward. Doing that is equivalent to looking for death because the moment she senses a man around her, She will hop on them like a hungry wolf.

'I have to find a way for her too.'

Alex had a headache thinking about that woman, Although the system might have triggered the choice option but he couldn't take that big risk before but now with [Sex-Copy] Skill, he had little confidence.

Anyway, other than the protagonist, He didn't have to worry about anyone. Because when Madam Miller started avoiding men, she did not even want to touch them as her body would react to the slightest touch of a man.

But because of this others thought she had misandry. So there was no man around her. Even the caretakers, nurses, and doctors were all women. This is the reason why she has not woken up yet. If not, she has long since attacked a man near her out of her lust fairy body's instinct.

'System chose 1st & 2nd option.'

Alex didn't want to divulge in those things anymore, There is still a task at hand.

[Ding! The host has chosen 1st and 2nd options, Please complete them in 24 hours. (Current time remaining 23:59:57.)]

[Ding! Congratulations to the host for gaining the God-level Singing skill.]

As its voice fell, Lots of techniques, theories, and mysteries of the singing appeared in his mind, and a warm sensation spread in his throat.

It felt like centuries had passed but it was only a few seconds gone from the beginning of getting the options to now.

Netizen1 : Handsome Guy, Tell us. Why were you crying?

Netizen2 : Who made our Handsome guy cry, You tell this sister, My aunt is a manager in the Exotic company branch.

Netizen3 : Men Coffee emoji

Netize4 : Is he only going to sit there for all streams duration? He is just looking for attention. Men are like that, Stay safe queens.

Netizen1 : Go somewhere else you, Blue pill woman.

Netizen2 : Fuck off, Show little respect to the anchor, What are we gonna do if he stopped live streaming?

Licking Dog : Fuck Off

Cold-Beauty : Shut Up

Their silence on Alex caused chaos in the chat. Fans and regular viewers of Alex came out to defend him When other new people got impatient.

They were at a war of words in the comments, While Alex was lost in his thoughts.

"Ladies, Shut Up."

After he was done, These words escaped from his mouth. He was always rude and direct to his viewers but still there were some women who liked him.

And because of this womens stay even being berated by him from time to time, They became hardcore fans of his.

So no matter what he will do, they support him. An example of this is that Alex created this account for extra pocket money, So he used to demand money from his viewers. Most people left because of his entitled behavior.

But this remainingreimeing woman didn't. Whenever he came live he asked for money. When he receives itreceived, He will sing a casual songsound and leave. There was even a time he just came online for money and after receiving it, He log off without saying anything.

Still, these hundreds of women stayed, making them a hardcore fans of his.

"I am here to sing a song, This song is about love."

[Mr Gibberish sends "Handsome Guy" a Luxury Car worth 1000 coins.]

[The_Cultivator_0157 sends "Handsome Guy" a Luxury Car worth 1000 coins.]

[Simple3 sends "Handsome Guy" a capsule worth 100 coins.]

"Thank you so much for donating to me."

After he spoke, the chat calmed down but there were still some who were donating to him. So he stopped and thanked them.

He, Unlike the original Alex, was grateful to these accounts. He still remembers those people who were one of the first who donated to him.

"Now I will sing, For that, I will put the notification on silent, Remember after this no notifications will be heard by me."

Alex looked at the camera and said to his viewers before putting the notification on silent.

Ahem

HeAlex cleared his throat and held a mic in front of him.

Then he was ready to sing, There was no need for an instrument or music for him, Who possessed god-level singing.

A simple voice is enough to enchant listeners with the magic of his voice.

"Once upon a time there was a beautiful girl and there was a handsome boy....."

Alex started to sing, Lyrics of the song were not bad but not extraordinary either but as his words escaped from his mouth, the Whole chat fell silent.

Suddenly a vivid image appeared in front of everyone, A Love story scene. There was a very beautiful woman and there was a man.

This story is taken in ancient times, Woman was a rich official duke, While the man was just part of a servant group.

One day a man saw the duke and fell in love with her. He dreamed of being with her. He wanted to be her husband. Although he knew they were a world's apart in status but who would say this to his stupid heart?

It only knows how to love, There are no restrictions of status or logic considered by it that was the job of a loveless mind to it. So Man also didn't stop himself. After all, not all love stories are destined to have a happy ending. He just wanted to enjoy this dream, At least here he was with her.

But one day everything changed, Might be the goddess of fate took pity on him and interweaved their fate.

She came to him. A woman he love came to him and asked him to be her boyfriend. He felt like he was still dreaming, And might be hallucinating but this was true. His goddess really goddess was really coming to him.

He hurriedly agreed, He was afraid if he did not he would lose this God-given opportunity. Then there love story starts.

She even being a duke used to take some time out of her busy schedule, and every day comes to visit him.

They used to talk about love. He wanted to freeze those moments of two people and hide far away in his heart fearing this will just be an illusion and will end soon.

Unfortunately, it was worse than being an illusion, It was all real, it was all real except for the love she was showing.

There was no love for him in her heart, She just using him not even for his body as she didn't even touch him, Which was even worse for him, If that happens he was at least able to live with those sweet memories but in her eyes, he was not even worthy for using for his body.

He was just her shield, A shield that she used to dodge other's pursuit. At last, he understands that in her eyes he was nothing but a chess piece she used. She wanted to reach as high as the sky and he was just a simple step for her.

He was angry, He broke all contact with her, Thinking she will come to convince him, and when she come, He will forgive her. After all, he loved her too much but she never came but what came shattered his world.

There was an announcement that she is going to marry the 2nd prince of the Kingdom.

He was there when she married the second prince of the kingdom. She got what she wanted, A new height and power. So she didn't even acknowledge his presence when their eyes collided unconsciously, He got his clue, He wanted go to stage and demand answers from her.

But she and the prince looked happy, So he didn't say anything and just turned around and left, giving her his heartfelt blessing to the couple because again the heart does not listen to logic.

He went back home and locked himself in his room then he accepted the comfortable embrace of sweet death.

"I find you in the morning sun, and when the night is new, I will be looking at the moon but I'll be seeing you...Goodbye."

As Alex said these last words, The song came to the end but there was no response from the chat, There was only deadly silence that occupied the whole world.

Those trolls who were ready to start messing around couldn't move their finger anymore to type.

Fans of Alex are stupefied, They used to listen to his singing which was worse than dogs crying. They were ready to praise him for his singing but their lifted-up fingers didn't fall down. As if someone used a freeze spell on them.

Far away in the hospital's waiting room, Grace's eyes were shining with pride but her heart filled with a fit of jealousy, Tears were continuously falling from the bounds of her beautiful eye socket.

She hated, Hated that this man was singing this incredible song for another woman and not her for but then again she was glad that this song was not for her but for another woman.

She knew the man in that story is Alex and the woman would be Alia is the final song and his last goodbye for Alia.

This song tore her heart apart. She just wanted to rush to him and console him. Take him in her arms, Protect him from the cruel world, who hurted him this much.

The pain in his voice. Those pure raw emotions were tormenting her soul when she heard it but she couldn't stop herself from listening to it.

It's like a drug, Although you know it will harm you but you feel like you can't live without it.

"...."

The whole car was falling into darkness. In this dark world only the light of a phone felt like a source of light but that light was the culprit behind this darkness.

Natasha didn't dare to turn her head around because she glimpsed something unbelievable in the rearview mirror.

In the back seat, Alia was sitting holding her phone lifelessly, She felt like someone took away her soul leaving behind her soulless body.

Her beautiful dark eyes were red, and Her rosy jade-like smooth cheeks were stained with tears.

For the first time in her life, there was something other than coldness in her eyes. She was crying, The thing she never thought she was capable of doing.

"I find you in the morning sun, and when the night is new, I will be looking at the moon but I'll be seeing you."

She just kept repeating these words making her heartfelt like burning with hell fire.

"So he loved me this much. It was me who was ignorant.'

There was a self-defeat smile adoring her scarlet plump lips but this time it will not make her look like a high cold queen but a pitiful damsel who lost something important.

(A/N : I am trying my best to write as fast as I can. It was my mistake and I will for it.

Chapter 22 22. Regret

"Natasha, Am I a cold-hearted woman?"

Alia suddenly looked up front as if seeing the last straw of hope, She asked Natasha, Who was in the driving seat pretending to be dead.

Natasha didn't know what had suddenly happened to her eldest miss. One moment Alia was looking at her phone and the next moment she started crying.

There was a soundproof partition in the middle of the passenger and driver seat and one small transparent window in the center. So she didn't hear Alex's song but only saw the reaction of Alia.

Natasha seconds ago just casually glimpsed in the rearview mirror but the sight that she saw scared her shitlessly.

Her ice-cold miss, Who didn't even blink when putting the whole family to death, Was crying. Even she who was with Alia since childhood couldn't fathom, What is happening.

'Is the world going to end?'

She couldn't help but think that, After all, Alia, crying is equivalent to the sun coming out from the west.

Then she heard that question. There is no right answer to it. If she said Alia is cold-hearted then it's not unthinkable that she will end up on the bottom of the river until the morning, and If she said Alia is not Cold-hearted then that would be a lie, Which is the 2nd taboo of Alia, So no matter how she answers it. There will be a dead end.

"That- Miss how about you tell me what's wrong, I might be able to help you."

To save her life, She had to harden her heart and said these words. These words also touch Alia's bottom line, After all as being a control freak, She didn't like it when others didn't listen to her words but at least there will be no immediate threat of death.

But an anomaly happened. Other than being angry and giving her a cold death stare, Alia just looked at her with little hesitation before she spoke.

"I want him."

Like always there were few short word answers but this time her tone was not cold or demanding but requesting.

This change shook Natasha to the core. She even thought that the woman in front of her was not her miss but someone pretending to be one but the bone-chilling cold aura, Which unconsciously released from Alia's body , rejected that idea.

The woman in front of her is indeed the famous Ice Queen of the city, A infamous black rose in the business world, Alia Miller. Who at this time looks like a traveler without destination, Helpless.

And this condition of hers seems to happen because of a man. If this news comes out, She don't know how many people will be shocked to death.

"If you want him, Then miss the best option will be to use force, First conquer his body then his heart."

Natasha, A 25-year-old virgin gives dating tips to 24-year-old virgin Alia, So of course, she will suggest something like this one. As for it was a crime and all didn't matter to them.

Rules are for the weak, People in real power create rules, Anyway She understands the "Him" Alias mouth is Alex. A money hungry man. Just throw a few bundles of cash on his face and he will lay himself down on the bed for her miss.

She was just happy that her miss is not into scissors.

"Is that going to work?"

Alia, hearing that there was a chance, became excited. She didn't know much about romance and all things. She hated love and romance thinking it was a waste of time.

But the story she heard in that song captured her heart, She wants that love, She wants that love story. The happy moments mentioned in the song resonated with her.

She felt a tingling sensation in her stomach, Her heart felt bubbly, and for the first time, She genuinely felt happy. She didn't have to pretend.

But as the song comes to an end, That feeling also turns into distress. She wants that feeling back, and for that, she can go to any extent.

"It will work miss, Just make sure another party is drunk. After the deed is done, He has to agree with you, Then use the money to win his heart. Just send some expensive gifts. After all, which man doesn't like a gift? Then add some loving words, Then he will be yours."

Natasha said in so much confidence that it felt like she did a master's in this field.

"Okay."

Seeing her confidence Alia is also affected by it. She started thinking about how to approach Alex, So she can do the "deeds". After that just starts a barrage of gifts and some love words, She knows how much Alex loves gifts.

And then with some romantic words, She will win his heart, Then she surely will get that feeling back.

'Wait! He has to be drunk.'

Suddenly Alia looked toward the top floor of the building, Where Rose's apartment is located.

Click

After looking at an apartment for second, Alia didn't waste any time. She opened the car door and came down from the car, then headed towards the lift.

System notification kept ringing in his mind, There were thousands of people viewing his stream, Most of them were women. So there was a constant system notification. It was so much that he had to close the notification window for the time being.

"Goodbye ladies."

Alex didn't wait for others to recover from their shock and shut off the stream. This way he let others savor their emotions in peace and leave a good after taste in their mind.

"That was quite easy. Now I am free to open a harem and people will not even blame me for being a scumbag but only sympathize with me."

After Alex was done, He stretched his body, He stretched his body. Too much happened today. He traveled, Received the system and found out he was a villain, Saw that legendary heroine, and many more.

He needed his well-deserved break, Plus he was super drunk, and He need to sleep to let his body rest as god-level acting also took a toll on his body.

Now that he finally broke all of the connections with Alia, He didn't have to worry much about people's gossip, People only sympathized with him. All blame will be shifted o Alia making him this way.

'Hahh~ System, Tell me about Harem protection halo and god-level singing '

When all is done, He goes into the bedroom of Rose and jumps on the bed, While laying down in a comfortable position, He asks the system about those things.

He didn't get a chance to check their details before, Now that he had time he wanted to know. See if this halo will help him with the threat of the protagonist to the heroine and to see what else OP skill he unlocked with god-level singing.

[Ding! The description is like the following...]

Harem protection halo : Every man's dream is to have a harem but they are afraid of being green or fear of not being there in time of need.

Not anymore, This Harem protection Halo is made for this thing.

Effects :

â€¢ You can't put a green hat by your harem.

â€¢ Harem members will somehow survive any fatal attack as long they are in the harem and the host is alive.

(Note: It will not protect from internal friendly fire, So choose harem members carefully.)

â€¢ No longer be affected by protagonist Halo.

God-Level singing : Your singing not only affects the mind but the soul of the listener.

This creates vivid events in your song in other's minds and makes them feel like they were the ones who experienced the events from 3rd perspective.

Sub-Skill : Soul Resonance

â€¢ Soul Resonance : This skill will not have any restrictions of body of listener being the physical capability or incapable to experience events in the song.

If a singer sings a song for a specific party then that party will experience all the events in the song to a higher degree of 1st perspective like real life.

(Warning : Do not target a person and sing death and other depressing things in it, Because of real-life experience if the targeted party didn't have a strong soul attack resistance, They will die in real life.)

(Note: The only thing like harming others is considered a soul attack can be resisted by protection of artifacts or other skills but this things can't have any effect on the experience of the soul resonance.)]

'Can this also work on this protagonist?'

Alex's sleep faded a little and he forcefully activated god-level acting to ask this question. If he used soul resonance on the protagonist, wouldn't he be able to kill him?

Then he didn't have to worry about the protagonist anymore, Just sing him to death.

[Ding! There is no limitation to this Sub-skill, As long as there is no soul-resistant skill or artifact, The host can kill or injure anyone.

But it's highly recommended not to kill the protagonist this early or the host is going to have a hard time with others.]

"Wait!! What do you mean by others?"

Alex became a little sober because of this statement of the system. He ran with full power to stay awake. He wanted to answer the statement of the system .

As travel benefits, Hee received the whole plot of this novel in his mind but from start to end, There was only one protagonist in the whole book, The at the end he became so powerful that he with his harem transferred to the higher world.

And now the system says there is more than one monster like those? He already has a headache dealing with one of them.

[Ding! Host this is the novel world, So by the rules of the novel, There has to be at least one protagonist all the time.

Nathen Gayler is the prime protagonist in this world but he is not the only one. There are others as backups to maintain rules in this world.

The moment Nathen either dies or loses his protagonist status, The heavenly will activate those other ones.

But the host doesn't have to worry, As most of the protagonists were low-level ones like the son-in-law or Shenhao. They do not have strong combat power.

So it's recommended that the host should steal all the opportunities of the current protagonist because if the host kills the protagonist first, Most of their opportunities will disappear from the world and the host won't be able to enjoy the benefits of the Netori system, While raiding the heroines.]

".....Fuck It!!! Just deal with them when they come. Anyway, I don't have to worry about finding them, I as villains surely are the first to be targeted by them."

Alex is in no condition to worry about this thing, He will think about it tomorrow morning. So he finally let his body relax. A result of overuse of god-level acting and strong intoxication was that just as he relaxed, Drowsiness overwhelmed him and he quickly fell asleep.

Click Creak

Alex, who had fallen deep asleep, wasn't able to see the figure that sneaked into his room.

(A/N : I am working overtime, So there will be one or two more chapters today.

Don't forget to leave power stones.

Chapter 23 23. Sucked By Ice Queen (R-18)

Warm, Wet and Slippery.

This was a sensation Alex felt at the moment. He felt like a certain part of his body was sucked by a moist void. There was coldness but also warmth. He was feeling like a water snake colliding around his tower of heaven.

'Am I having a wet dream?'

Alex woke up from his sleep feeling this an incredible and comfortable sensation but because of tiredness, He wasn't able to open his eyes. So he misunderstood that he was still dreaming.

So he decided to enjoy it. At least in a dream, he enjoyed the luxury he missed tonight with Rose.

'This feel too real, right?'

But soon he was shocked. This is not like a dream at all. After the wobbly moment of up and down started, He started to feel his blanket also moving up and down.

Someone is down there, Gobbling on his stick.

This was his conclusion but he still couldn't open his eyes to see who was doing it. He drew his body to limit today, So now it was refusing to follow orders.

'Maybe she is Rose?'

This is what he thought, This is logical thinking. This is Rose's private apartment, So it's security is also not that bad. Without a key, it's very hard to enter it.

Plus only she knew he was here, And what happened with them before she stormed off, It's logical to think this person was Rose.

Glob Glob Cough Gag

The were globing moments down there broke his thoughts, "Rose" was trying to gobble up his whole upraised manhood in her cherry-like small mouth.

As a result, She choked and gagged and was forced by her physical instinct to prevent her from swallowing further.

Still, She did not give up. She landed lots of sloppy kisses with her scarlet red lips on his rod, completely coating it with her sweet saliva.

Cough Gag Cough*

Then she tried once again, This time because of the wetness, It easily slid all way deep in her throat until those scarlet lips of hers touched his base.

His whole manhood was submerged in the mouth of the heroine.

Alex was bombarded by both physical and mental stimulation, Although "Rose" was sloppy and inexperienced. She still understands what he wanted.

The warmth and comfort his dick felt in her mount, There is no equivalent of this anywhere.

"Rose" tried to keep his manhood as long as she can submerged in her mouth but because of lack of oxygen, She reluctantly had to took it out.

But she didn't stop there. After she took a breath, She started her movement once again. Her head was going up and down, and Her moist lips warped his shaft in the bounds of her mouth creating a vacuum in it.

Soon her moments pick up the pace, She was eager to taste the bitter elixir of life ejaculated from the tip of his member.

"Arghhhh!! Drink it all up, R- Alia!!"

Alex can't hold back anymore. He reached his peak. He is out of instinct, holds her head down, lifts his waist up and pushes his dick as far as he can in her warm mouth before unloading all his baby batter deep in her throat. He didn't let go of her head until he fully released himself.

Cough Glup Glup

She too didn't resist his action but obediently swallowed every single drop of it. Although on initial impact she choked but she still accepted all of it without complaint.

Plop

After a few seconds, His manhood softened in her mouth and was finally released from its bounds but "Rose" still did not stop and licked and kissed every inch of it of the remaining semen on it until it arose again.

Alex was both physically and mentally satisfied. He felt like all the tiredness of today's release from him, He was so relaxed that he nearly said her name out loud but thankfully he changed at the last minute, or his impression of "Rose" mind was destroyed. Then he didn't know if she would stop and go away, Giving him semi-blue balls.

He also never thought that the dumbass Rose in his mind could be this good. He now understands why those protagonists run after heroines like a dog.

These heroines are natural man-killers. Even without any experience, She was this good at it, So what happens if there is experience? He couldn't think of it.

"Do you like it?"

Suddenly Alex felt a cold soft body ascending towards his face, He could feel the cold touch of the bare skin of another party. The "Rose" did not have any cloth on her, She was fully nude.

After she reached his ears, She spoke in a husky seductive voice before she started nibbling the tip of his ear, While holding his erected manhood in her slightly cold hand.

"Like it."

A hot breath of hers hit his ear, The feeling of pleasure from his nether region and her surprise attack on his ear overwhelmed his senses. So that he couldn't distinguish that this voice does not belong to Rose at all.

He just wanted to enjoy this pleasure, As that's all he can do now because there was no extra strength to move his fingers.

When he held her head down before that was purely out of instinct, He couldn't move his body willingly at all.

"Do you...Do you want to do more? The more interesting stuff?"

Like a devil's whispers, "Rose" asked him, Her voice filled with lust, Which also affected Alex.

"Ye- "

[Ding! World choice is detected...

â€¢ [3] How can you as a host only think from your lower body?

Task : Reject Alia's offer and ask her to leave you alone.

Reward : -100 Favorability of Alia, Your dick will turn into an icicle.]

Like always, the system jumped in when he was about to make an important decision.

'...Alia!!!'

Alex's brain stopped working. He thought he saw it wrong but that was impossible because his eyes were closed. This panel directly transmitted in his mind.

This means the woman who was sucking his dick moments ago was also Alia. The infamous black rose, Also the number-one heroine of this novel.

This thing was unfathomable for Alex, He knows Alia was a clean freak, She even hates to touch other people if not necessary, and now that Alia was sucking him off.

To be honest, He felt a different kinda satisfaction knowing it was Alia but soon his fear of her kicked in. He looked at the option menu and clearly saw what would happen when she didn't like something.

In the first option, She will not be able to enjoy the pleasure of sex fully, So she will think sex is not worth wasting her time. Then as guessed she also will destroy his manhood, Because if she can't have it, No one else can. In this choice, only the first reward is a good thing.

The second option is an ideal choice as always. If he lets Alia know the temptation of sex, Then she surely will not do anything to him, And let him keep his manhood to enjoy later on.

As for the last option, It was always worse. As a trope of a cold domineering president. She hates when someone says no to her. Not to mention if he rejects her now, After what she did, She will really not shy away from freezing him to death, not to mention just his dick.

'System I chose the 2nd option, Convert all the Raider points and put them in my stats.'

Now he can't help but to choose the least dangerous option. He was already riding a tiger, So it was hard to get off now.

[Ding! All Raider Points are converted into stat points and evenly distributed into the necessary stats.]

The system also didn't waste any time and quickly followed his order.

Just as the voice fell, Alex felt power running through his whole body. Previous tiredness and drunkenness also vanished. He felt like he had just woken up from a long comfortable sleep.

His limbs and body felt like they have nearly infinite strength, His all-over stats were improved a lot.

"Alia~"

Alex opened his dark eyes, Just to see ice-cold blue eyes gazing at him with lust and desire.

When their eyes met, He also sensually called her name with his hoarse voice, He looked at that heavenly face close hand.

A fine bead of sweat on her forehead looked like expensive pearls, Those moist lips which were warped around his manhood moments ago also appears as the petals of a rose, Her flushed hot red face tempting others to commit a crime.

He has to say, No matter how bad her personality is, she looks like a goddess descending from heaven to this mortal plane.

'System shows her status.'

Alex looked at the alluring Alia in front of him and had a moment of hesitation. It seems not that bad to have her as his woman, So he decided to check if there is any loophole, Which he can exploit to keep his harem safe from her.

Chapter 24 24. Fuck The Heroine (R-18)

'Heroine stats are also broken, Thankfully I made the best decision before, or now I have to pack my things and leave.'

Alex saw the stats of Alia and felt helpless.

That's right, Alia is an awakened person, and that too a powerful one. In the early plot of the novel, B-Rank awakened is a supreme power, Not to mention she has the SS-Rank superpower. This means she can become SS-Rank awakened in future.

The protagonist is able to conquer her totally because of his super luck, If not for luck he too joined the list of icicles. After all, Frozen Heart is nearly impossible to melt.

Alex now felt fortunate that he chose to buy the Netori system. If not, he didn't know, How much time and brain cells he had to spend to melt her heart.

But now with the effect of the Netori Halo, He can just fuck her til he conquers her. He just has to ejaculate his baby batter in her to increase favorability. This may be his best purchase ever.

After he confirmed there was a chance, Alex didn't want to waste any time. He looked up at Alia with the same lust and desire in his eyes, There was also a touch of drunkenness.

He did not forget that he was supposed to be drunk, Plus he can use being drunk as a shield. Then he was free to turn her into as many positions as he wants.

"Why not but- I like to be on top."

Alex then made a move before Alia could react, He was on top of her naked body between her legs. A touch of cold hot bare skin of hers flared up flames of desire in his heart more violently.

"No I-Mhummm!!!"

How can Alia as a woman be willing to be on the downside? She wanted to complain and shift position but before she said anything, Her scarlet plump lips were caught by his slender once.

Alia was shocked by his sudden action. Seeing an opportunity, Alex slid his agile tongue into her sweet mouth.

The power of H-Tongue shows it might as a system product. As his agile tongue started to bully her soft tongue, Alia overwhelmed by pleasure.

"AHHHH! Huff Mhmm."

Her pleasure reached critical limit in an instant, Her body arched, A long slender fingers of hers clenched the bedsheet in her hand, While her other hand held the back of his head close to her.

A love fluid like a broken dam squirted out of her petals like pink labia wetting bed sheets. A few drops of fluid remained on her lower lips as the morning drew on the flowers.

"Huff Huff Mhmmm"

The whole room was filled with loud sounds of heavy breathing and moaning, Alia's brain was muddled because of her first orgasm. This kind of pleasure she never felt before, She needed a moment to calm down from the overwhelming pleasure.

But Alex didn't give her time. He wanted to listen to her pleading for him to stop not only for the system task but also for his own evil taste.

So he rudely grabbed one of her towering mounds and pinched her pink nipple of her without breaking their kiss

"AHHHH!! MUHMMM!!!"

Alia didn't know what happened. She felt a current running through her body as he grabbed her breast. That current was like a mighty wave of the sea hitting her, giving her paramount pleasure.

Then there was that pinch, Which was like a final straw that broke the camel's back. She didn't even get time to recover from her first orgasm and the second one came rushing. A gush of fluid sprayed from her hairless pussy.

Her legs warped around Alex's waist tightly, While both of her hands clenched his back, Her long nails like sharp knives trying to dig into his back through his white shirt.

Hiss

Alex sucked in cold air, A pain hit him from his back giving him a different kinda pleasure, He still didn't break their kiss. His tongue kept lashing her pitiful small one. His hand still rudely grasped her white jade-like softness, While teasing her erect nipples with his thumb from time to time.

His other hand does not sit ideally, It moved downward and positioned his busting veiny dick on the entrance of her unexplored sacred cave.

There is no need to shift position as Alia's legs were warped around his waist giving him the best angle for the takeoff.

"Mhummm...Mumm Huff Hhum~"

Alex didn't directly shove his dick in but first rubbed his dick on her wet folds, coating the tip of his glans with her love juices for smooth entry.

Because of rubbing seductive moans escaped from Alia's mouth. Her pussy was very sensitive right after the orgasm, So his actions were like putting oil in the fire.

Hearing those moans, His bones felt like they became a little soft, A lust and desire-filled voice of hers was too alluring, Letting his desire reach new heights. He no longer waits anymore. So after adjusting a little, He then pushed his waist forward in a swift motion.

Tear

Slam Bang

"AHHHHHH!!! TOO DEEEP!!!"

Because of the wetness, His dick easily breaks through the little restriction it felt on the entrance until it slammed straight into her cervix, With the blessing of perfect D his dick completely filled her vagina hitting her every weak point. A mixture of pain and pleasure bombarded Alia's senses. Her warped legs tighten their grip on his waists, Her nails clenched his back digging further in. Her body arched, lifting her pelvis high.

Her vaginal walls tightened and her narrow valley flooded with lots of fluid but was stopped from escaping by the "plug" which was blocking the exit.

"Too Tight."

Alex too felt pleasure and comfort rushing through him. Their kiss got broken, A string of saliva like a bridge connecting their mouth too got broken.

As her walls constricted, His dick felt like it was having a warm comfortable massage. Her vagina squeezing his dick without any intention to let go.

With this sensation, Alex nearly cummed but he was able to hold himself back. Then with little moments of rest, he moved his waist back before moving forward again.

The uneven patterns on her walls were like thousands of soft wet fingers trying to hold his dick back giving Alex an extraterrestrial sensation. Even if he gets to feel this for eternity he might not get tired of it.

"Ahhh~ Mummm"

When he moved his waist, Soft seductive moans of Alia rang in the room. This was a different kinda Alia, Which only he was fortunate enough to see.

Slam

"Ahhhah!!~ Wa-Warn me b-before doing that."

Alex couldn't help but once again slamming his little brother deep inside her until his glans kissed her cervix.

Alia squeaked in shock and complained to Alex. Now Alex couldn't help it, This soft warm Alia is way more tempting than the high cold one.

"Mummm~ Ahhh!!!"

He once again captured her soft moist lips in the bounds of his slender thin lips, His hand grabbed her white mounds of softness and his dick rammed into her inside like a mad bull.

"AHHHH!!!~ I AM CUMMING!!! CUMMING!!~"

With the combo of H-Tongue, Ecstasy Hands, and Perfect D, Alia transcends a new height of pleasure.

The surge of fluids gushed out of her pussy, Her body was shaking because of the excitement, and her brain long since shut down from the pleasure. Only lust and desire were a force running her right now.

Tear

Alex, without breaking their kiss, tears his shirt off his body. The only remaining barrier between their skin was his pants long before being thrown somewhere by Alia.

Finally, both of them are now naked, Rubbing their bare skin on each other as if trying to merge themselves.

Alex's bare strong chest landed on her erect nipples and her softness, Her hands wandering all over his back and neck, His hands from hovering on the outline of her water snake-like waist reached to her plump perky ass.

Slap

"Ohhh~ "

He slapped her curvy ass. From the impact, it also juggled and turned a little red, But other than a lustful moan, Alia didn't say anything. Seeing this, Alex lifted her round ass before he started moving his waist back and forth.

Pat Pat Puch Pat

The sound of bare skin hitting each other mixed with wet sounds of flesh ran in the room. Alex's scrotum hitting Alia's perky ass as he picked up his pace.

"Ahhh!! Mumm!! Ohhh~ Squirt Ahhhh~."

As he speeded up his pace, His dick started hitting her cervix each time he moved, He also coiling his tongue with hers, and his one hand also rubbing over her aroused clit. While other holding her ass up.

This simulation was too much for her, She had an orgasm one after another, She even forgot how many times she even cummed, She needed a break to cool down or she was afraid her body might break because of this intense pleasure but Alex was like a mad bull, Didn't stop at all, He kept ramming his hard dick into her small pussy.

"Argggggh!! I AM CUMMING!!! Squirt Squirt"

After some time, Alex also reached his peak. With the final push he unloaded all of his seamen inside her sacred cave, tainting its sacredness forever.

"AHHHHH!!! YESSS!!! AHHH!! MUHHH."

When Alex's hot semen is like molten lava ejaculate hitting her sensitive walls, Her body once again reaches its peak, Her whole body tightens up, Her arms hug Alex's neck, and her legs also tightened to limit on his waist. Before she yelled at the top of her lungs and with one last gash of fluids squirted out of her pussy with force that even when exit was blocked by his dick, It able to drip out of it.

Huff Huff

After that Alex lay down his body on top of her, Both were breathing heavily. Alia's eyes were blurry, Her face was filled with ecstasy, She looked toward Alex's face close at hand with little resentment and love.

"I-I never experienced emotions like this. Thank you for the unforgettable night.'

Alia just hugged Alex, Who was laying on top of her, and spoke with a little emotional voice. Her fatigue-filled voice was hoarse because of dryness and loud yelling before but it still was pleasant to hear it.

"Huh!? What do you mean? We are just getting started, Be ready for round two."

But Alex was as vigorous as ever because of the blessing of his upgraded stats, He pinched her delicate soft chin in his slender fingers before giving her an evil smile.

Gulp

Alia unconsciously swallows her spit looking at the beautiful yet dangerous smile on Alex's face. She wanted to stop and take a break but how as a woman can she say she can't do it? Her ego will not allow it. So she can only prepare herself for the upcoming storm.

The night is still young, and So does the desire in Alex's heart. This is going to be a very long night for Alia.

(A/N : Tell me If you like the lemon or let me change it.

Chapter 25. Conquer The Frozen Queen (Light R-18)

"Huff Ahhhh~ Ummm!!"

A lustful sound of morning and heavy breathing ringing d in the room.

The whole room felt like it suffered from the storm. Not one thing was in its place, Multiple expensive things were on the ground broken into pieces.

But two figures who indulged in the lust didn't care about them at all. They just enjoy the world of two people ignoring outside influence.

Bang

Shatter

Suddenly Alex slammed Alia's back on the wall. A painting worth hundreds of thousands of UC had fallen down on the ground but no one present there in condition cared about it.

Alex was holding Alia in his arms lifting her perky soft round ass in his hands, While Alia was clutching onto his waist with her long legs, While her hands warped around his neck.

Both were giving each other slobbery kisses, While Alex's little brother comfortably was in her warm cozy cave.

"Huff~ C-Can w-we stop now? I-I al-already b-begged you ma-many times Ahhh!!~."

Alia couldn't able to speak properly, They have been fucking straight for nearly six hours. For the first 3 hours gritted her teeth and didn't complain thinking she just had to endure a little longer. Alex will also not be able to do it anymore.

But she miscalculated, Even after 3 hours there was no sign of Alex getting tired at all. He was as vigorous as he was before.

She couldn't care about her ego anymore and asked Alex to stop but he said she needed to beg him, Only then he would stop.

How can she as a woman beg a man to stop? So she still somehow endured for one more hour but finally, she can't take it anymore.

She did shameful things such as begging men to stop. She might be the only woman in the history of this world to do this thing but to her horror, he didn't stop.

He still rammed his hot hard rod into her swollen red pussy. She had forgotten how many times she begged and pleaded with him to stop, Every time he just said just one more time.

It's been more than the 10 "just one more" times of his, Her body is on verge of falling apart. Before she tried many times to take initiative in her hand but every time she was utterly defeated by him.

She didn't have an ounce of strength remaining in her body, She was now at the mercy of Alex.

"Arghhhh~ I am coming!!!"

"Ahhh~ Ahhh!!! YESSS!!!"

Alex grunted, His glans swell inside of her before it shoots a huge amount of load into her overfilled hole.

Alia too can't resist the shock of pleasure and had one more of her countless intense orgasms.

"Huff Huff N-Not A-Anymore pl-please."

Alia lay her head on Alex's shoulder and asked pitifully, She can't take this more. She might never be able to go back to normal if this goes on anymore. Her body and mind will surely break under this intense pleasure.

"Okay, but we will start once again when you wake up."

Alex held her close to his body And dotingly said to her but When Alia heard these words, Her body trembled. She now has the shadow of Alex in her heart.

She regrets it. Why did she sneak into his bed yesterday? Before she just wanted to lie down beside him and wait until he woke up but she didn't know what happened to her.

Her body got hotter and hotter, She felt feverish, When she looked at Alex, He looked more and more tempting. But she still stopped herself.

When her body got even hotter, She took off her clothes more and more until she was butt-naked sleeping next to him.

After the events were a little blurry to her, She only knew she was licking something bitter, Then all those other things happened.

"Hey, Alia? Are you asleep?"

When Alex didn't get any reply from her, He looked at that celestial face laying on his shoulder, Her eyes were closed and her breathing was even.

She fell into a deep sleep.

'Number one Heroine, Is really something.'

Looking at the sleeping Aila, Who looked like an angel in her sleep but he knows this one is not an angel but a seductive demon with lots of blood on her hand, Alex thought about in his mind

Plop

Alex carried her toward the bed. With one hand he took off the bed sheet which was covered in various fluids, And laid Alia on the bed carefully. As he laid her down, His soften member came out of her, letting his baby batter drip from her cave.

"You might be a demon but now you are my demon."

Alex whispered these words seeing her peaceful sleeping face, He untied the grip of hers from his body and moved her in comfortable position.

Before going out of the bedroom he landed a quick kiss on her forehead, Then he took the bedsheet and walked towards the laundry room.

What he failed to notice was the two love-filled eyes gazing at his leaving back, and on that celestial face appeared an enchanting smile.

When Alex disappeared from her sight, She finally closed her eyes and fell asleep with that smile still on her face.

'System shows me a notification.'

After Alex came to the laundry room, He put that bedsheet on the washing machine, Then headed towards the kitchen.

While going he asked the system about notifications, System will block non-important notifications when he is busy.

'Not bad, Show me other notifications.'

Alex became a lot more calm after being wild last night. It can even be said that he was in sage mode, So he didn't have an extreme reaction to getting a superpower.

This reward was like a double edged sword. If used carefully it will be a paradise, if not it will be a nightmare.

He didn't have any plan to use this thing on current plot heroines, But there is one in mid plot in his mkmd, That he planned to use this on.

Alex was now dumbfounded. He knows he will get Raider Points. After his video got more views but he never thought that it was this early and this much.

[Ding! The host's reason for this live stream notification...

[MrGibberish sends "Handsome Guy" a castle worth 5000 coins.]

Just when you log off he gifted you, and because of this gift, Your stream was promoted by platform and hence it became viral. Currently your video is trending on the 1st position of the popular section.]

System jumps in and solves the query of Alex.

"No wonder, I got so many points. Thanks to him my stream got viral, I have to thank this guy later on."

Alex genuinely feels gratitude for this guy. If not for him giving a gift, He might have lacked points to raise his stats to this much, Then he would be embarrassed in front of Alia.

Shivers

"I should wear something."

A cold wind blew in from the air conditioner, Making his naked body shiver. So he quickly finished frying eggs and put them in two containers to keep them warm.

Then he rushed towards the bathroom, He washed the stink and various fluids from his body before he raided Rose closet.

After searching for while he found a unisex white suit and wore it, He didn't know where his pants went and he himself tore off his shirt. So he had to compromise.

Although the suit has a little loose front section but after a little tugging here and there, It was looking quite good on him.

Ding

After he was done, the phone in his pants pocket rang. When he checked he found out there were multiple messages and a call log from Grace. All of them asking if he was okay and the latest one is telling him about her mother going into the operating theater.

He didn't reply to her but just took a last look in the mirror before he took one container from the counter and finally left the apartment.

In the waiting lobby of the hospital Grace looked at her phone anxiously.

She was trying to reach Alex from last night. The last words of his made her worried. With the ending of that song, She was worried that Alex might do something stupid.

If not for someone needing to be present here all the time, She long since left to go and search for him.

But she still didn't stop trying. She even called Alia to inform her to check on him but she too didn't answer her. This made her so anxious that she wasn't able to sleep all night.

"Miss Smith, Your patient is ready for operation, We need you to sign here before we move any further."

A doctor in coate walked towards her and handed her consent form, Grace put her phone down, After reading the form. She signed it.

After getting a sign, Doctors quickly shifted Gloria Smith, Mother of Grace towards the operation theater.

Her heart was heavy looking at doctors and nurses taking her mother to the operation theater. She prayed for both her mother and Alex's safety.

"I said let me go inside."

A commotion in the lobby grabbed her attention, A normal-looking man arguing with hospital security.

Yes, Normal looking. Other than Alex all other men in her eyes are normally looking. She is a full-fledged-licking dog for a reason.

"If you don't let me go in, I will make a call. After that, you guys have to suffer."

That man took out a broken screen phone from his pocket, Threatening to make a call.

"Lunatic"

Grace muttered looking at that man, She felt that this man had a problem with his brain, So she didn't pay any attention to him and walked towards the waiting room.

"What do you say!?? Am I a lunatic? So wanna bet with me? As long as I make a call they will kneel in front of me to apologize, Believe it or not?"

She wanted to ignore it but the other party did not allow her. He rushed towards her and stood in front of her with a cocky smile on his face.

Now Grace didn't know what to do, She didn't want to argue with stupid person.

(A/N : Don't forget to leave power stones.

Chapter 26.Hypocrite Protagonist

'What a beautiful woman, She deserves to be mine.'

Nathen standing in front of Grace with his cocky smile, Gazing at her seductive curvy body. He didn't think that when he came to find a supporter today, he would get to see this enchanting woman.

From childhood, his dream was to create a harem of women. He didn't like why a Woman is celebrated when she had multiple men but a man taunted when he did the same.

He wanted those arrogant, High looking womens kneeling below him. He wanted to be the first man who creates the biggest harem and show the world that men are not weak.

Right now, He was waiting to see the woman in front of him wagging her tail around him after seeing his smile.

Most of the women he met were like that. They acted as if they didn't care but that's all just acting. They just wanted to gain his attention. When he showed his smile they came running to him like a dog coming to his owner.

"Sorry, I don't have time to waste."

Grace didn't even look at him, In her eyes, only Alex is worth looking at and had right over her attention, No other man is worthy.

She didn't want to argue with this lunatic, So she decided to walk past him and wait in the waiting room.

"Stop!! You called me a lunatic, You can't go without paying for your crime, or I complain that you harassed me."

Nathen didn't thought anyone could ignore his charm. He was confident in his looks, So much so that he thinks he is the most handsome man in the world.

All other handsome people other than him are just artificial ones, Who have gone under the knife.

But when Grace ignored him, His ego got hit, and his desire to conquer her also increased.

"What do you want?"

Seeing that Nathen was blocking her way, Grace's eyes turned cold. She was not as simple and soft-hearted as she appeared in front of Alex.

After all, She still is a business queen heroine of the future. Her personality toward others is cold and indifferent. Soft dog licking behavior of hers is only exclusive to Alex.

Grace wanted to leave. She can't leave now, Law's are quite biased towards men in this world. She didn't want extra trouble. She had to listen to Nathen.

"How about you make a bet with me? If I make those women kneel and apologize to me in 5 minutes, You have to come on a date with me and if I can't, I will lick your boots, Do you dare to bet?"

Nathen saw Grace stopped and tauntingly said to her, His gaze was focusing on the upraised curves on her breast.

Feeling his gaze Grace felt weird and disgusted. Any other woman might like it if a man looked at her like this but she didn't.

She unconsciously compared Alex with a man in front of her but found out that it was blasphemy to compare Alex with some lunatic.

"Fuck Off- "

"Why won't we dare?"

Grace wanted to refuse. Only the idea of going out with some man other than Alex disgusted her but before she said anything, A very familiar voice interrupted her.

....

"Thank you, Natasha, for giving me a ride."

Alex exited the very luxurious car and thanked Natasha who was in the driver's seat.

Yesterday Alex went back with Rose in her car, Because of that his car is still here in the parking lot of the hospital. So he was looking for a cab in the app downstairs of the apartment but then he saw Alia's car downstairs.

Seeing it was Natasha in the car, He was also not welcome and directly sat in the car, then asked Natasha to give him a ride to hospital.

Natasha was confused, She waited all night for her eldest miss to come back but she never did, And now other than her miss, Alex comes down.

'Did Miss fail to get his body?'

Natasha thought while looking at energetic Alex. In her knowledge, most men after sex become tired and will not be as energetic as him.

Plus if they had sex, Her miss should have come back a while ago, After all, men have very low libido. Once they came, It took them quite some time to do it again.

She knows the personality of her eldest miss, Alia didn't like to waste time. If she got what she wanted, She long since left that apartment. She did not come back means She failed.

She at first wanted to refuse to take Alex to the hospital but thinking he might become Mr. Miller means also her master in the future, She resultantly brings him here.

'System, Didn't the Netori system give me any rewards or points?'

Alex knew the way towards Grace mothers ward from yesterday, So he didn't need to ask anyone. He walked straight towards the lift and pressed floor number 3.

[Ding! There are, Do you want to view it?]

System asked Alex, To show notifications or not.

'Show me.'

Alex was on the lift, So there were still a few seconds to spare.

[Ding! Netori rewards are like the following...

The host gets Alia's Oral virginity and gets 1000 RP...

The host gets Alia's Vaginal virginity and gets 1000 RP...

The host who has Vaginal sex gets 200 NP(200×15= 3000 RP)...

Made Alia cum 69 times 30 NP (30 ×69=2,070 RP)...

You get a blowjob 100 NP (100×1=100 RP)...

You cum 16 times inside Alia 50 (50×16=800 RP)...

Total : (5,270 × 5 Heroine)× 2(NTR)= 52,700 RP)]

'So I can also get raider points like this, I have to speed up my process then.'

Alex looked at his Netori system notification and was delighted.

Heroine gave him multiple of ×5 and his stealing heroin from protagonists is also considered NTR hence he also got ×2 multiple.

This gives him more motivation to steal from the protagonist.

Ding

The elevator stopped at the 3rd floor. When the door opened and he was about to exit, He heard cocky boasting words. He didn't even have to turn around to see it was a different kinda breed named protagonist.

'So he wanna pretend to be a pig to get the heroine's attention, huh, It's a very old routine.'

Alex saw Nathen blocking Grace's way but he didn't worry about her that much, Being a licking dog, Her characteristic is that she will only look at one person and only one person, All others are trash in her eyes.

Weren't licking dog villains in those other novels the same? Other than the heroine they do not look at other women, No matter how beautiful they are. It's just gender-reversed here.

Alex was not in a hurry to go and stop the protagonist, He went to the side and dialed a number of Rose. After talking to her, He ended the call and walked toward Grace.

'What kind of weird fetish did he have?He wants to lick boots, is he really the protagonist?'

Alex came close to Grace just to hear Nathen talk about betting with her. A losing bet punishment caught his attention. Which normal man can say something like this? This makes me wonder if he misunderstood someone else as the protagonist.

But seeing the familiar routine he understood this is the protagonist, After all this betting routine is used so many times that, If every time he sees this routine, He received a dollar, Then he should have been a millionaire long ago.

Seeing Grace is about to refuse, He jumped in and stopped her. How can he let go of the chance to face-slap the protagonist?

Anyway, this is a reversed world, So the villain face-slapping protagonist seems reasonable, right?

"Who are you?"

Nathen looked warily towards Alex, He hated every man handsome than him.

"I am her boyfriend."

Alex looked at jealousy, envy, and hate in Nathans eye's When he said these words, He sneers in his heart. This is the reason why he calls the protagonist a hypocrite.

On one hand, he was talking about showing the world that man is also good and strong but he was the one who hurt them the most.

Not to mention in the plot of the novel, Because of his lust and greed for other wives, He made countless men impotent but also when those man found out, He killed them in cold blood.

Also when another man was trying to stand on their feet, and start some business or show their talents, It was he who first struck them down. In his mind only he can be strong and desire a woman, Others are not worthy to carve for frame and women.

"Boy-Boyfriend."

Grace's brain nearly shut down because of happiness. Her only love Alex said that he was her boyfriend.

She knows he might say it just to help her out but even if it was fake, She still was super excited to hear this from Alex's mouth.

Alex heard her muttering and was satisfied, This is the reason she was the first person he chose to come, Although later things changed drastically but he still prefers women like Grace in this world.

She and Alia are the complete opposite. Where Alia wants to control her lover, Grace just wants little attention from it. She will be happy with only that much.

There was also no threat of her harming his harem. She might even help him with them. After all, in her mind, as long as Alex was happy, She could do anything.

"Boyfriend??? I don't care, Do you wanna bet or not?"

Nathen was burning with envy. For the first time he was interested in some woman after coming down from the mountain but that woman already had a boyfriend. This boyfriend might have already used her body countless times.

'Fuck it!!! Just use her as fuck buddy, As for this man hehe~.'

Nathen might not identify Alex because yesterday Alex was wearing a mask and today he was without it.

But still, he hated Alex and decided to make him the first victim of his needle, Then when Alex became a useless man, He can use Grace as much as he wants, He might fuck her in front of him making her boyfriend to let him watch, Her begging under him.

"We agree."

Alex agreed with wasting any time.

"Okay then wait! Let me make a call."

Nathen said it with a cunning smile on his face, He then dialed a number in his broken screen phone and waited for it to be picked up by another party.

Alex had a slight gentle smile on his face but in his eyes fire was burning. He heard everything in Nathen's mind through his Thought Reader skill.

'System is his fiancée and childhood sweetheart back in the city?'

Alex asked the system. He doesn't like to invite trouble but once someone comes knocking on his door, He had to pay double.

[Ding! They both will be back in a week.]

The system said to Alex, Making his plan hard to put into effect.

'Wait!?! Didn't his mother live here in this city? There is also his hot master.'

Alex wanted Nathen to experience his taste in medicine but he found out that the people Alex cared for were not there.

But then he remembered there are two more people present in the city, That this protagonist cared about.

One was his mother who supported him in being the heir of the family, While the other was the protagonist's master, Who was also the big backbone of his in the early plot.

Beep Beep

Nathan dialed the call but no one responded from another side.

"He might be busy, Let me try one more time."

Nathen became embarrassed, Still, he did not give up and dialed one more time.

Beep Beep

Same as last time, No one responded. Nathen didn't stop and kept trying but everything was the same result.

Nathen's face turned redder and redder because of the shame. He didn't know what to say to others, So he did not stop calling.

Click

Finally, The call got picked up and another side responded to him.

Chapter 27.Put Sex Lock On The Protagonist

"Who is calling?"

A stern old female voice comes out from another end of the phone.

"It's me, Nathan, I am in your hospital but security is not allowing me to enter, They sayin- - Beep Beep Hello!? Hello!!?"

After the call got picked up Nathan's heavy heart had a sigh of relief. He arrogantly said what happened to him on the phone but another party after listing his name directly cut off the call.

Nathan looked at his phone dumbfoundedly. He met this old lady in this hospital yesterday while leaving. Seeing that she looked like someone with status, He helped her solve a problem with one of her patients.

It turn out that she was the dean of this hospital, She also became impressed because of his medical knowledge at this young age, So she offered him a place in this hospital as an trainee doctor under her directly, Making him gain both her support and little rights to talk in hospital

So he was confident that today he would be able to enter the VIP room but now it turns out he misjudged his importance in that old woman's mind, She cut off his call on his face.

Now he didn't know what to do. He never thought that he would lose. That's why he was able to raise the stakes so high but now he fell on his face. His backers refused to acknowledge him.

"Bro, Your time is running out."

Pat

Alex goes to Nathan and patted him on his shoulder.

'System put it on him, Now!!.'

As his hand landed on his shoulder he commanded the system.

[Ding! Sex Lock is put on target successfully...]

Nathan from now on, not be able to get sexually aroused, He loses sensitivity in his lower part...]

In a matter of seconds, The system's voice fell, and Sex Lock was successfully put on him and it had taken immediate effect.

[Ding! The protagonist loses -1000 luck...

+500 luck is added to the host...

+ 50 Universal stats received...

(Note : Host can only get half of the luck of the protagonist, While other can be either converted into stats or other things depending on how much luck is stolen.)]

Another notification about the loss of Nathan's luck came.

Alex was not surprised to receive this notification. For a protagonist like him, His little brother is the most important thing, Even more important than his golden finger.

Although he has tried to steal heroin before and even successfully raided 2 of heroines successfully, But that did not affect his luck because these heroines were not that important to his growth. They were just his early mild support and pleasure tool's.

But locking his ability to have sex is equivalent to cutting off most of his opportunities, As most, if not all of his opportunities were related to sex or needed sex to unlock.

'This Sex Lock does not seem to be a permanent thing.'

Seeing Nathan only lost 1000 luck points, He understood that this Sex Lock is not a permanent thing, Which is also reasonable.

Its protagonist, So as long as there is luck protecting him, He can turn around any condition in his favor.

"Take your disgusting hands off of me."

Seeing Alex's hand on his shoulder for quite some time, Nathan became angry and shook off his hand.

For some reason, he suddenly felt a feeling of loss in his heart. He didn't know what had happened but there was a feeling that he lost something very precious to him.

So he didn't wanted stay here any longer, He was going to turn around to leave.

"Where do you think you are going, bro?"

Alex stopped Nathan who was trying to leave. He will not let the protagonist go this easily.

"What do you want?"

Nathan looked at Alex with resentment, All his hatred of being embarrassed was put on Alex's head by him.

"Lick"

Alex raised the sole of his shoe and asked very politely to him.

"Fuck off."

Nathan was once again reminded of his shame, This act of Alex was like a tight slap on his face. He wanted revenge, He would kill that old bitch, Who betrayed him.

Nathen didn't want to stay here even for a second, So he turned around to leave. Anyway, no one dares to hurt a man unless they want to be canceled by people and punished by law. So he was confident no one will dare to stop him, Plus he still has the behemoth family like Gayler as a big support behind him.

"I said...lick!!"

Alex didn't play according to the routine at all, With the same polite smile on his face, He grabbed his shirt collar of Nathan, While with a flip of his foot and launched his shoe up in his hand.

When Nathan turns around to yell at him, He shoved half of his shoe in his open mouth.

"Ahh!! Agrrchhh!!"

Nathan only saw a black shadow coming toward him and then there was a gag reflex that made him understand what happened.

"I like a man of honor like you, You go above and beyond to fulfill a losing bet."

Alex wholeheartedly praised Nathan, As if it was Nathan who himself swallowed the shoe in his mouth.

"Mommy, What is that elder brother doing?!"

"Shush! Don't point it out, He might be a lunatic."

"Ohhh!~ lunatic elder brother hehe."

"Sigh This internet is making the new generation stupid. See what they are doing, In my day we-."

"Ohh, New content!!! Let me make a vlog, So guy today-."

"Is it a new Criss Cross trend? Why don't I know?"

"Do you wanna try it?"

"Of course, I never miss any new trend."

The bystanders talked a lot about looking at Nathan, Some even took out their phone to record. I guess they came to the hospital for a stroll.

Anyway, Words of Alex's work. He shifted all the blame to Nathan and created the fixed opinion in others' minds first.

This way no matter what Nathan says later, People will not believe it. After all, it's very hard to change someone's opinion when they already firm their beliefs.

"Ghhha Ahh~ I will kill you."

When Nathan realized what was in his mouth he quickly tried to pull it out but because of the size of the shoe, It stuck in his mouth. No matter how hard he tries, He can't pull it out. His jaws opened to their limit, So he can't open them anymore.

He panicked but thankfully he was in the hospital. He quickly ran towards the emergency room but he didn't forget to leave cruel words from his wiper open shoe filled mouth.

"My name is Alex. I'm a 3rd year music major in city-B collage."

Alex gave his information to Nathan, worrying that he might not be able to find out him.

Nathan didn't reply, He just rushed towards the emergency section but he remembered Alex's details, He made a note in his heart. When he comes out of the hospital he will ask his family to teach this guy a worse lesson before feeding him to fishes in river.

[Ding! -50 Favorability of Nathan towards the host. (Current 70 Mortal Enemy).]

"Pity"

Seeing Nathan's leaving back, Alex felt a little sad. He thought he would get to hear the legendary line of the protagonist of 30 years in that and 30 years in those but this guy just refuses to say it. This protagonist is no fun at all. He didn't play according to routine.

Alex thought he could play with the protagonist a little like a cat does with a mouse, While slowly taking down his luck, With his Villain halo he didn't have to worry about protagonist halo turning the tables but now he changed his mind, Because there is no fun in teasing him.

At first he decided to steal the opportunities of the protagonist but now he thinks that most of those things are useless to him as those are exclusively for the protagonist. They are either his skill or items that only the protagonist met conditions to use it, Other than the dual-cultivation technique in later plot, He was not suitable for other things.

So He decided to end this protagonist, and soon end it. Then play with the next one. That's why he tells Nathan about his information.

He knows Nathan being the combination of young master and little doctor trope protagonist will definitely use his family background to target him.

Which he wanted, The moment he did that and asked his family to target him, That moment his death countdown would start, and With a domino effect he would lose everything soon.

"Are you okay Alex? Did you get hurt? Show him your hands, It's all my fault, I have to step in to stop that lunatic. What if he had a weapon and tha- "

"Shush!!~ Stop talking"

Grace who was standing by their side came hastily in front of Alex and started checking his body worriedly for fear of him being injured, While blaming and questioning in one sentence.

She regretted letting Alex handle the situation. She thought the man would just argue and go away. It will not turn into a violent fight like a woman's but she never thought things would change that fast. Before she knew it. Alex's shoe was in that lunatics mouth.

Seeing Grace in front of him, Which felt like can talk forever, He put his long straight index finger on her cherry-like lips to make her stop talking.

"I am okay, I can handle myself, It's not like I did for you- Fuck it! Kiss "

Alex wanted to continue his act of brain dead tsundere but found that there was no reason to act anymore. Both people who he was afraid of creating problems were already raided by him successfully. He didn't have to worry about making their raid difficult anymore.

So he didn't speak, Held her round face in his hand and just landed his slender lips on her soft one, Locking their lips together in a kiss.

"Muhmm!!~"

Grace's eyes widened to the extreme, Her pupils dilated. She never imagined that Alex will ever kiss her, Not to mention he will do it on his own initiative.

All her worry and stress about her mother was forgotten for a moment, Only one thought of enjoying this kiss remains.

[Ding! +3 Favorability of Grace increased for the host (Current : 98 Obsession)]

System voice rang in Alex's mind, Confirming that he made the right move.

Now that Grace's affection for him is on the obsession level, He didn't have to continue acting like a disgusting tsundere.

"Muchhala!!~"

Alex broke their kiss, They were still in the lobby, So he didn't dare to French kiss her.

"Let's go."

After all said and done, He warped his hand around her slender waist and led her toward the waiting room.

Grace too followed his lead subconsciously, Her brain still needed little time to process what just happened.

Both Grace and Alex entered the waiting room. This is a personal room given to the relatives of the patients, Who have to stay here 24 hours for emergencies.

This room is not that big, Alex can't even stretch his hands sideways as the side walls stop his moments but it still had everything to live here.

There was one bed here, A portable electric water heater to make tea or coffee, A little sink for washing dirty utensils and a washroom for physical needs. Although not comfortable, one can still live here for the time being.

"Did you eat anything?"

When they entered, Alex sat down on the bed, Which also had enough space for only one person to sleep.

Then he took out the container he was carrying with him. Inside was a fried egg he cooked in the morning.

"Ye- No"

Grace recovered a little from her initial shock, Then she heard Alex asking the question.

Not to mention eating. From last night to now, She didn't even close her eyes worrying about Alex. So she was both mentally and physically exhausted.

But she didn't want Alex to worry about her, So she was ready to lie just to see. Alex taking out the tiffin box and put it in front of her.

Her heart felt warm, She never thought that Alex would personally bring food for her.

'Did he like me too?'

Grace couldn't help but wonder, She wanted to ask him so badly what's the meaning of the kiss before, Why he acted so violently with that lunatic and why he prepared breakfast for her but she didn't dare to ask.

She was afraid that Alex would say he did all that just willfully. She didn't want to break this sweet illusion of hers, This is the only good thing that happened in her life in years.

"I don't know what you like, So I just fried some eggs."

Alex took the still-warm egg from its container and served it on the clean dish, Which he took beside from the heater.

"Okay, Thank you for the food."

Grace was hungry, with the temptation of food with the extra effect of being cooked by Alex, Made her very eager to eat it. So she sat in the small stool.

"Ahhh Mmmm!!!~ "

She held a plate in her one hand and, While cut little piece of egg with the help of a fork, delivered it to her mouth. Then she was flabbergasted.

(A/N : Like always thank you for reading and have a good day 😊)

Chapter 28.Legendary Secretary (LightR-18)

Bang

Just as Grace took a bite, An explosion of flavor happened in her mouth.

The slimy spicy taste of egg rolled on her tongue like flavorful tentacles. Her brain wasn't even able to process what happened in the initial impact but soon it caught up.

Then there was that sensation like she was rolling in the slimy yolk of the egg, Trying to coat that yellow yolk all over her body.

"Uhhmmm!!!~ "

A muffled moan escaped her mouth, Pleasure, and excitement because of the taste reached to limit. Her body also not only mentally but physically too experiences a paramount of ecstasy.

Her hands quickly pushed and rushed to her nether regions to stop the impending gush of juices but her hands were a little late.

A large amount of her love fluid broke through all her futile attempts and gushed out of her delicate folds.

"Why I-Is this soo go-good!!~ "

Grace couldn't help but ask, She felt like if love has a taste then it will be this one, exhilarating, blissful with a little touch of pain and wanting.

She felt two pairs of eyes gazing at her, Grace quickly bowed down her head in embarrassment, She never thought that she would do something shameful like this in front of Alex.

'What would he think of me now? Is he going to look down on me? Of course, He will. Which man wants a woman with this bad performance, It's worse than pre-ejaculation- But it never happened before, So why now out of all times?'

A stream of thoughts ran through her mind. She didn't understand why she had this humiliating moment, Now in front of Alex of all the people.

Grace used all her willpower to stop herself from taking a bite again but she didn't know how long she could control herself.

[Ding! +20 Favorability of Grace increased for the host (Current : 118 Unhealthy Obsession)]

"Why are you not eating? Did you not like it?"

Alex heard the system's voice and became satisfied. This was his third successful raid in one day. With this speed, it will just take a few months to raid them all.

As for this Halo candidate, No one is better than the woman in front of him but now is not the right time to use this halo, It still has to wait.

'Sigh There are too many heroines.'

He felt pressure remembering how many heroines are in this world, That protagonist might even fucked the female dog if he had the chance. That guy is the embodiment of the saying "If there is a hole, There is a goal."

"No, I love it!!! It's just- Jus- No see I am eating it."

Hearing the question, Grace exclaimed. She really loved this food, She never eats anything near more delicious than this dish. It's just that she was afraid of her body's reaction to it.

"Ahhh!! Muhhmm~ "

Grace, fearing that Alex would misunderstand her, She took one more bite. Her body responded in the same way. Her two long legs were glued together while the sign of her overwhelming pleasure dripped from her sacred gap.

But this time, She didn't stop eating. She ignored her reaction and started inhaling the food.

Soon she was done eating, Her plate was so clean that it felt like it had just been freshly washed out of the washer.

"Huff Gulp Alex yo-you have magic in your hands, I-I never ate something this delicious."

Grace lay her upper body on the empty space by Alex's side on the bed. She had spontaneous orgasms in this matter of minutes.

Her body was now very weak and sensitive, A slight touch may cause her to tremble in shock and excitement.

"Thank you... Are you okay?"

Alex looked at nearly unconscious Grace and asked in worry, He likes this little fool, Who was madly in love with him.

So he stands up and lifts her body from the stool and lays her properly on the bed.

"Yeah...Yawn I am just a little sleepy."

Grace shifted into a comfortable position as soon as she landed on the bed. Exhaustion from last night came to her.

Now that there was food in her stomach, Her eyelids got heavy, She was fighting hard with her sleep to talk with Alex.

"So sleep or do you want me to sing you a lullaby?"

Alex picked up the strand of hair from her delicate cheeks to put behind her ear. This half-sleep Grace looks very cute.

"Huh!? I am not Yawn child."

Grace who was very sleepy didn't have hesitation or boundaries like she normally do. So she for the first time rejected something from Alex.

"What do you mean you are not a kid? Didn't you also wet yourself? Laughs"

Alex couldn't help but tease Grace and laugh, He unlike other women didn't have to worry about saying anything wrong or doing any brain gymnastics. He can be as free as he wants with her.

"What!!? That- I didn't, Do-Don't."

Grace's sleep faded away in instances, She sat up from bed in shock and embarrassment and looked towards Alex. She never thought Alex knew about what happened to her before, or even if he did, She thought he would never mention it.

But now he knows and even mentioned, She had nowhere to put her face anymore. Her face flushed red like a tomato and her eyes turned misty. She was on the verge of crying.

"Hey, Don't cry, I was just teasing you. I am more than happy that you had that reaction from eating my food."

Alex was startled to see tears in her eyes, He was just teasing her. He didn't want to make her cry.

He cupped her round chubby face, And with help of his thumbs, Wipe out the sneaky tears that escape from the bounds of her eye sockets.

"Really!!?"

Grace asked expectantly in the childish voice, She felt like she might pass out because of happiness, Her heart was racing and there was a butterfly in her stomach,

She wished, Even if Alex showed this kind of care to her once in a while, She would have no regrets in life.

"Yes, It's every man's dream to make his woman wet, Now sleep. Let me handle other things."

Alex spoke very lovingly in a doting tone, He held back her head and gently laid her down on the bed again.

This childish Grace also has her own unique charm.

'His woman? Did he talk about me? Am I his woman?'

Grace muttered these words, She became very confused. Love in her heart was telling her that it was what he meant but the logic in her mind denying it.

How can a handsome and talented man like Alex ever look at a poor and worthless woman like her?

Only a woman like Alia was worthy of him, Although she hated it but this was also a fact and reality she had to accept.

"Wait!! What are you doing?!!!"

Grace's thoughts were broken by the moments of Alex, Who at this time already down by her legs, Lifted her shirt and was just about to pull out her drenched panty.

"Removing this wet panty, Do you want to get sick sleeping in this wetness?"

He replied as if it was a matter of fact and started his moments once again.

"No, Please stop! I can change it myself. It's dirty down there."

Grace's face became bleeding red. She didn't get time to shave down for a few days as she was busy taking care of her mother.

Also she just moments ago had too many orgasms, So that place is still damp right now. She didn't want Alex to see this kinda dirty side of her and became disgusted.

"I as a man don't mind, Why are you as a woman worrying about it."

Alex said lightly and tried to take it off but Grace held it with her both hands tightly as if she was holding her life.

"Please don't."

Grace pleaded, She didn't want Alex to become disgusted by her, She didn't want to destroy this sweet illusion this early.

"Don't you hear?"

This time Alex spoke in a stern voice, Which directly made Grace stop all resistance, Her two hands obediently put down on the each side of the bed, While her legs became relaxed and her pelvis rose a little for him to easily remove her panty.

She was afraid of him being disgusted of her but she was even more afraid of making him angry, So She stopped all her resistance and prayed that he would not be too disgusted seeing her hairy dampness down there.

She turned her face sideways as she didn't dare to see the disgusted expression on his face.

Alex looked at this shy and fearful Grace with little desire in his heart. He had to do this now to close the distance between them as soon as possible. If not, this lovesick girl will never dare to express feelings in her heart in fear of making him angry.

Also, there was the threat of Alia, He was 101% sure that the moment, She woke up, She will contact Grace to taunt and boast about how she did it with him.

Although now Alia might dare to kill a woman close to him because of fear of angering him she will still do anything in her power to keep him only for herself.

He just conquered her heart, He still needed to tame her mind.

So Alex had to do something like this to Grace, So she would not be heartbroken by hearing it and had a confidence in herself to be with him.

"It's beautiful."

Alex finally removed her drenched-in love fluid panties, What came in front of him can be only be describe as a heavenly sight.

A pink-brownish entrance of her pleasure cave was hiding behind the shades of her curly black short hair, Which were glittering because of little remaining dew of love fluid on them. The only very little part of that holy slit was peeking out of this little hairy forest.

Gulp

Alex unconsciously gulped, He had the urge to eat her right here and make a negative distance between them but he held himself back.

He knew once he started, He would not be able to stop himself for hours but Grace was already exhausted and her mother was in the operating theater, Battling with death. It would be a jerk and very insensitive act of his to do that here.

"Do you hear Grace? I said it's beautiful, You don't have to be embarrassed showing this to me."

Alex once again said to Grace whose face was beat red, Refusing to look at him because out of shyness. Her hasten-up breathing shows how much impact his words had on her but there was a shy but sweet smile adoring her cherry-like lips, Enhancing her beauty to another level.

"Th-Thank you."

It was a very soft and low voice, If not for Alex's enhanced stats, He might not have even been able to hear it.

'H-He said It's beautiful again.'

She heard him the first time Alex said it. She didn't expect him to say that because in her study of the opposite sex, men prefer clean shaves down there and she even read that some men are disgusted by looking at hairy parts.

That's why she didn't want Alex to look down there but now, Her happiness had no bounds. He said it was beautiful two times. That was enough for her to be on cloud nine.

"You go to sleep now without worrying about anything If there is an emergency. I will handle it. There is still 1 or 2 hours needed to complete the operation."

Alex said to her and tugged her gently into a blanket. There is no need to change the skirt as it was not wet and as it was for the dampness down there?

He didn't dare to touch down there yet in fear that Grace couldn't handle the joy and might perish because of happiness. He had to move step by step with her.

So after tugging her, Alex threw the drenched panty in the overfilled laundry basket, As Grace didn't have any time to take those clothes to give them to the laundry.

Then he exited the waiting room.

Grace looked at Alex who left the room and closed the door behind him.

"It's nice to have someone to take care of us.

She muttered looking at the closed door, Two lines of tears slid on her delicate cheeks, But she loves this type of tears, They are happy tears.

She was glad he was there to take her place, She didn't tell anyone but she was afraid of being here alone. She really can't make herself sit outside of the operating room looking at that red light bulb.

Her mother is the one and only relative she had in this world. She couldn't even think of what she would do when something happened to her. That's why she didn't want to be here alone. Thankfully Alex is here, She was not alone.

So she stopped fighting with her sleep and closed her eyes, Praying that when she opened her eyes, She would get good news of her mother's successful operation.

"Hello sir, I am Suzen. The dean of this hospital. The 2nd young miss called me before regarding your bad experience here, I am here to apologize for your trouble."

When Alex exited the waiting room, He found at the entrance standing an elderly woman in the white long coat of a doctor. When she said it, She bowed to Alex apologetically.

She was the dean of this 1st city hospital. An hour ago, The 2nd young miss of the Miller family called her to complain about the bad experiences her friend had in this hospital.

This scared Suzen. Alex might not be afraid of Rose and even call her dumbass but in the eyes of others Rose is still the 2nd young miss of the big family like Miller.

The family who owns this hospital. Suzen became even more afraid, When she found out that the one who caused trouble was a young man she was became impressed with yesterday.

She didn't want to cause any trouble when she was about to retire, So she decisively cut off all contact with him, even taking back the position of attending doctor under her.

That's why Nathen suffered before, The reason she cut off the call hearing his name

"I was just going to come to you, Now you are here. Go call back doctor Liza in the hospital right now and appoint her in the operation theater number 2, The one where Gloria Smith is having an operation right now."

When Alex found out the identity of the other party, He didn't waste any time and ordered her.

Chapter 29 29. Liza, The Miracle Doctor

"Liza!!! Sir, she only takes very hard cases and her fees are also a lot. I read Miss Gloria's file, That operation of hers is a very normal one, There is nothing to worry about."

Suzen spoke after hearing the name of the best doctor in her hospital. Also known as miracle doctor.

She knows Liza very well, Who only takes a case that either challenges her or makes her interested, Other than that. She doesn't even go to see normal patients.

Liza is a doctor just for fun, She was not serious at all about money or the fame.

Suzen knows that because when Liza first came here, She offered lots of people treatment just for one dollar as her fees. Other than that they only have to pay for equipment charges, Just because she was interested in their case.

But nearly all of the relatives of the patients denied her offer thinking that she would not be a good doctor, If she was asking for this small amount.

This pisses her off, So she puts her price sky-high. The lowest she charged was 25 million for one surgery, Which was just her alone fees, Not including equipment, items, and other manpower.

This was 1.5 times more than a whole team of professionals with 1st class equipment charges.

Also because of taunting others before, Liza developed a bad temper. She refused to even come to the hospital unless she felt like it or She had to reach her minimum attendance requirement of the hospital.

"Just do what you are told to do, Don't ask stupid questions, If she refuses to come, Just say Alex Winchester asked for her, Don't mention who is patient to her."

Alex didn't bother to explain the situation to Suzen, Because it's very hard to do so.

He can't say he read the plot and knows that everything will go south in the last minutes of the operation, Right? If he did that they would put him in the Psychiatry department the next moment.

"Okay, I will call her back now."

Suzen broke out in cold sweat. Just now when Alex said his name, She felt the very dangerous aura released from his body. She felt like she was standing in front of Madam Miller.

She knows this is an aura of superiority, This pressure of higher-up on their subordinate. This young man in front of her is not a simple person. Maybe his identity was even scarier than the Miller family.

So Suze didn't waste any time. She quickly walked toward her office. She was personally going to call and ask Liza to come.

"She will come in 15 to 20 minutes, I still have time. Let's freshen up first."

Alex looked at Suzen, Then at his watch on wrist. He calculates the time Liza needs to come here, Seeing he still has time. He decided to go to the washroom.

'System, If I increased my charm too much, wouldn't others become suspicious?'

When he comes into the washroom, He stands in front of the sink, He looks at his face in the mirror and is washing his face, While talking to the system.

[Ding! You don't have to worry host, Because Charm is increased by the power of the system. People will make up their own logical reasons for your enhanced charms.

Also, the host possessed "Peach Blossom Eyes", Which will also help you avoid suspicion.]

The system answered his question very humanly, Also it shows the benefits of the system.

'That's good! Then add all the 50 universal stats points into my Charm and show my stats.'

Alex said to the system in his mind, He now gets used to the talking system through his mind.

He also was satisfied with the answer of the system. He always wondered why those people in novel's do not get suspicious when MC's charm is enhanced too much.

He was worried about people getting suspicious who he interacts with on a day-to-day basis. Anyone would be shocked if suddenly he had astronomical changes.

[Ding! Are you sure about this host? Do you want to add all 50 states in the charm?]

This time other than directly following the order, The system asked for confirmation again.

'Yes, Add all of them in.'

The system already warned him about the problems with very high charm and the trouble it will bring him but Alex now is not as afraid as he was before.

Now he had things to at least be able to save his life, Plus now that he was awakened. Those strong will only think his charm was the result of his superpower and not because of some other things.

Also high charm also had the advantage that, He didn't have to work too hard to conquer and tame women, especially with someone like Alia. High charm is very effective.

His current charm is just barely more than Alia, So how can he be able to put physiological pressure on her? So he needs to be better in the place she is most proud of, Like appearance, charm, and business.

For business, He has God-level skills, so he didn't have to worry about that, So he had to be way better than her in charm too. This way he had a higher chance to tame her.

'Not bad, I am stronger than the protagonist right now.'

Alex looked at his stats with satisfaction, There are two ways the system judges a person, One in a numerical way, While other alphabetical way.

Numerically, it shows the foundation of the person's body. These stats will determine the future of a person. As stronger, the body is more able to contain the energy from the world in it.

The alphabetical way shows the actual combat power, How much energy one has in their body, and how one will perform. These stats are purely judged for combat power, It will have close to no effects on the person's day-to-day life.

In simple terms numerical stats can be considered as body strengthening and Alphabetical can be thought of like Qi in the Xianxia novel.

"Now I just have to wai- !!?"

Alex closed the system window and was about to pat his face dry but froze in place.

He looked at the man in the mirror, There are no words to describe his beauty, Every word he could think of right now was unworthy to be associated with him.

His eyes are like a twin white dwarf stars placed in the darkness of the edge of the universe, His black hair was like made of darkness, looking dangerous but full of the endless temptation of the unknown.

His red lips were like they stole the colors from the twilight with unreal charm to them, His skin was smooth and milky white as if it was made of a heavenly jade.

His whole being is like integrated into heaven and earth, His every action were containing the avenues of the origin, He looked like the first being created by the almighty himself.

"Gulp I am so handsome."

Alex in shock touched his face with his long slender fingers, He was feeling very unreal right now. He felt like if he stared at the image in the mirror any longer, He might fall in love with himself.

He knows that he will look very handsome, When he adds stats to the charm but he never guessed it would be this much.

Right now he is more handsome than one can imagine. He right now has broken all the limits of charm and transcends into a new plane of existence.

[Ding! This is a reason why the system asked you to confirmation host, The most beautiful person in the history of this world, only had a 174 charm value.

And that is only because that being is made by the goddess of beauty herself. Right now with your charm, no man is equal to you in beauty in this world at present.]

The system tells the reason why it double-checked with Alex before adding points to the Charm.

'But didn't that mean now, I don't even have to try to raid the heroine? They will just fall in love with me, Just looking at my face, Right system?'

Alex asked in astonishment, Now that he was more beautiful than the most beautiful being, Then didn't that mean that heroines fell head over heels for him, Just by his appearance?

[Ding! Sorry host it will not happen, If only being handsome was qualification enough for being able to conquer the heroine, Then those villains in novels are also able to do it long before the protagonist plot even starts.

To conquer the heroine, Some special qualifications and requirements had to be met, Each heroine had different conditions. Like in all your three successful raids, You meet them.

Your Charm is not useless on heroin however, They are still affected by it. Like with your current charm even if the heroine had some special condition like Alia. They are still going to have initial 60 (Crush) favorability for the host. While the other will be initial 69(Crush) very close to love.]

'So that's how this works, No wonder those villains are not able to get heroin, Even being licking dogs off of them for years, While the protagonist can conquer it just by meeting them for a few times.'

Alex finally understands that a heroine is a heroine for a reason. Charm is good but he can't only depend on them, Unless a heroine has a face control characteristic. Only they can be conquered by just looking at him but those are like unicorns, It's very rare to find one of them in novels.

"Liza should be here."

After Alex washed his face and gave a touch-up to his hair, Then he walked out of the washroom and headed straight towards the operation theater.

"Where is Alex? Which ward was he admitted to?"

As he walked towards the operation theater, He heard a familiar voice, Looked up and saw a "young" woman in a doctor's coat asking questions to Suzen, The dean of the hospital.

"Looking for me?"

When he walked close to them he spoke looking down at the "young" woman.

Yes looking down as the "Young" woman was 32 years old, Loli.

Alex looked at the woman standing in front of him, Her height was 4.9ft, Her long blond waist-length hair was open flowing with the wind, Her eyebrow was crescent, Tall nose, and her very attractive light golden colored eyes. Her small reddish-plump lips were making her oval face even cuter. Her skin was healthy white with a red hue covering it.

And of course, As a law of loli, her milkers were also huge. Although not as big as her head, they were not small either. They were proper D-Cup.

"Who are yo-?!!"

Liza heard the voice from behind and turned around to look at the person to scold for interrupting her but just as she turned around, She froze in place.

She looked at the man in front of her, Who was the most enchanting and handsome man she saw.

[Ding! +100 Favorability of Liza increased for the host (Current : 140 Unhealthy Obsession)]

[Ding! Congratulations host for successfully raiding Liza (Current : 140 Unhealthy Obsession)...

Alex wanted to say something but his words were blockaded by the system notification.

(A/N : Thank you for the reading and have a good day ğŸ˜.)

Chapter 30 30. Unicorn Heroine

'What just happened?"

Alex didn't understand why Liza's favorability had increased so much that, He directly completed her raid.

Didn't the system say that Charm will not affect the heroine too much? Then why did she have this reaction?

"A Unicorn"

Alex subconsciously spoke these words. What a coincidence. He just talked about this type of heroine, and the next moment he found it.

"Huh?! What Unicorn?!!"

Liza's eyes glued on Alex's face, Because of that she heard when he said it, So she in confusion turned her small head left and right trying to see what he was talking about but she never let Alex's figure leave her from her field vision. She still looked at him from the side of her eyes.

"You are a unicorn, After all, it's rare to find loli nowadays."

Alex looked at her cute head moving side by side, He couldn't help it and lifted her up holding her underarms.

"You!!!...You are lucky, You are handsome."

Liza's anger rose to the limit. She hated when someone called her short. This is her taboo, And Alex not only called her short but loli and also lifted her up like a child.

Her temper of the young miss was about to break out just to see Alex's face, Then all her anger vanished in an instant.

'It's not bad if a handsome guy lifts me up, right?'

This thought passed through her mind. From childhood, she loved beautiful things. No matter what it was, As long as it looked beautiful, She wanted it.

Even her friends were needed to be beautiful, That's why she was a friend of that ungrateful little bastard from the Winchester family.

"Well, Thank you, Liza. You, too, Like always look cute."

Alex didn't want to embarrass her, So he put her down. After all, this is the reverse world. Him doing this to her is very humiliating in others' eyes.

"Yo-You? Do you know me?"

Liza was shocked that the handsome man in front of her knew her face. Her face flushed and she asked shyly, She really can't resist beautiful things.

"Of course, I remembered a loli, Who used to run after me asking for kisses."

Alex said and stretched her chubby cheeks with his hands. Well he too can't resist bullying cute girls.

When the system gave him a background, It also gave him memories of life with that background.

Liza in front of him is one of many people that got connected with him through his background.

Liza in front of him is the heroine, Who is supposed to appear in the later plot. She is also like him an heir to the White family, The Family on the level of his Winchesters.

They are also family friends as both Winchester and White family do not cross business paths, Winchester family business is focused on real estate, and weapon making, That's how they made their fortune

While the White family is in medicine, They focus on making many kinds of drugs. So there is no enmity between the two families.

So Liza often used to come to his house to play with him. We said it was playing but it's more about she was greedy for his beauty.

As mentioned she loves beautiful things. Even before the system enhancement, He had 130 charms, Which was more than enough to put him above all the models present.

So she used to come to his house, And often try to bully him, Asking for hugs and kisses all the time. When he refused to give her any, Other than to get them by force, She acted like a spoiled brat and cry until he give her a kisses and hugs.

You know she was 12 years older than him. He as a child wasn't able to see a grown woman cry in front of him, So he always used to give in. There are also used to be rewards for kissing her like a luxury car, and some private property in her name.

She always wanted to give him something in return, So he also liked her. It's just that according to the system, He runs away from his family to avoid an arranged marriage, So they didn't meet for 4 years.

'Wait! Was she grooming me?'

Suddenly Alex had a scary thought, Well from her actions it really looks like she was grooming him, But then Alex dropped that idea. This Liza is only smart in IQ, Her EQ is equal to Rose's IQ, Nonexistence!!!

"...Used to kiss!?? Wait!!? Are you Alex??"

Liza didn't even resist his action of pinching her cheeks. If it was someone else who dared to do this, Their hands had long since been removed from their body by her hidden guards but Alex got a free pass just because of his face.

In her mind, face is justice. Everything is fair as long as the other party is beautiful, Who is pleasing to her eyes.

"Of course, it was me, Hey Liza you became too skinny, Most of your nutrition is going here."

Alex stopped pinching her cheeks and lifted her gigantic milkers. They have quite some weight in them, But were not soggy but perky and firm

"What are you doing? It's sexual harassment. If I just did that to you, I would be locked in jail."

This time knowing the other person was Alex, Liza stopped him, and shook off his perverted hands.

"You changed? Before, You were not like this Liza!!! When I was little you always used to let me play with- Mhmm!!!"

"Shhhh!! Shut your mouth, Don't say something like this, It sounds very terrible without context."

Liza moved at lightning speed, She stood off her tip-top and blocked Alex's mouth, Restricting him from saying anything further.

Alex, who was half bending down, looked at the struggling Liza in front of him. Even when he, who was 6.2ft in height, was little bending over, She was just barely able to touch his mouth. She was that short.

'I am pretty sure the context was that she let me play with her mountains.'

Alex couldn't help but say it, He was pretty sure he was taken advantage of by this woman, He needed justice. Only her body can heal scars of his fragile heart.

"Okay! You are not sick then, Why call me here?"

Seeing that Alex was not going to speak of her dirty secrets, She let go of her hand from his mouth and asked.

She comes here in a rush, Just thinking that something happened to this bastard, Who didn't even contact her even once in these 4 years. She has a sickness of only liking and hanging out with beautiful people, Only has one friend, Alex.

When she got the call she thought something terrible happened to him. She didn't even eat anything before she rushed here, But now he was standing in front of her completely fine. This let go of worry in her heart but she had resentment for making her this worried.

"I am sorry, I know you must be worried but you would not come if I didn't do something like this."

Alex accepted his mistake and also apologized for making her worry. He knows her temper. If he pisses her off, She will refuse to operate on Gloria. She, unlike other legendary doctors in novels, did not take her hypocritical oath of doctor seriously because she had never taken one.

Her family also owns one of the biggest medical colleges and hospitals in the country, So it was very easy for her to receive an authentic degree.

She never even attended any medical college or studied medicine in her life either. She just asked her family to give her a certificate, Which they did.

As for why she was considered a miracle doctor? That's because of her privilege as a heroine.

'System shows me her status.'

'These heroines are no worse than protagonists.'

Alex, looking at the stats of Liza thought, He had recently met with 4 heroines in total. Two of them were awakened warriors.

'Since when did being awakened a person become like Chinese cabbage?'

Alex was really dumbfounded by looking at the ratio. According to the ratio in the novel, only 1:100,000 people are able to awaken their superpower.

And the current ratio of Alex was like 2:2. This is the privilege of the heroine, None of them are a normal person.

"Hello!? Earth to Alex, Why do you suddenly blank out? Are you okay? Let me take your pulse."

Liza stopped her temper when she saw that Alex spaced out, So she became worried again. She didn't know why but she didn't even bear the thought of him getting hurt anymore.

"I am okay, Just thinking about something, The reason I call you here is that I want you to treat a friend of mine."

Alex didn't let her take his pulse, She was a medical prodigy, If he let her take his pulse. She will surely be able to tell if he is a virgin or not.

Although in this world most women don't care about things like man being a virgin because there are no physical indications but rich women surely prefer virgin men, He still needed Liza's help. So he can't reveal the truth to make things difficult yet.

"Friend?! Is she a woman?"

Liza didn't know why she asked this question, These words just escaped from her mouth. She felt very uncomfortable just thinking about Alex being with some woman. She does not know the reason yet but she didn't like the idea of Alex to be with another woman at all.

"Smack She is 42 years old. Even if she is not a man and woman can still be normal friends."

Alex smacked her lightly on the head with the back of her hand and said the lie of the century.

Also, He forgets to mention one thing to her that even though Gloria is old, She is still a proper hot milf, With body that puts even young women to shame. She is still on his top 10 list of women.

"Ouch that's hurt!! Wait!? Are you telling the truth? Not lying to me right?"

Liza held her head in little pain and complained to Alex but her heart was a little eased hearing it was an old woman, Completely forgetting that she too was considered an old woman.

"Yes, I didn't lie, She is really a 42 years old woman."

Alex didn't lie and speak truth to Liza. It's just that he did not mention that he was interested in that old woman. That's not lying, right?

"Okay then, I will do it but you will owe me one."

Unbased worry in her heart finally vanished, Unconsciously a cute smile emerged on her small plump lips.

"Okay, I owe you, I will pay you back with "Interest"."

Alex said to Liza, While speaking he stretched the word "Interest" quite a lot but unfortunately, EQ of hers is nonexistent. So she didn't understand what he meant.

"Dean, Go and prepare me to scrub and other things."

Liza didn't get why Alex stretched out his word but she didn't care. Her heart was happy, So she said to the dean of the hospital, Suzen. Who knew that this was not her place to talk, So she was quietly standing by the sidet.

"Everything is ready, Doctor White."

Suzen said as she already prepared necessary things, When Liza confirmed she was coming.

"Okay then, Alex, you wait in the waiting area, I will come back in a little while."

Liza turned around to Alex and said, Then she entered the room connected to the operation theater to change and sanitize herself before she could enter the operating room.

"Young master I- "

Suzen was standing by the side awkwardly. She didn't know what to do, So she asked for permission to leave from Alex.

"You are free to go, Ms.Suzen. Thank you for your help."

Alex didn't want to trouble her anymore, So he also allowed her to leave. He thanked her for help as it was his habit to thank someone out of politeness for doing something for him.

"Okay Thank you, Young master."

Suzen sighed a relief, No matter how handsome Alex is, She can't dare to look at him fearing his status. With his interaction with Liza, She knew he too has a very strong background in treating Liza like that.

So she quickly slipped out of her.

'Let's see what I get after "Raiding" Liza, System shows me my rewards.'

Seeing he was standing here alone Alex decided to go back to the waiting room. While going he asked the system in his mind.

[Ding!...]

(A/N : Thank you for reading and have a good day ḡŸ~.)

Chapter 31 31. Holy Blessing Skill

[Ding! Congratulations host for successfully raiding Liza (Current : 140 Unhealthy Obsession)...

The rewards were being distributed...

Congratulations to the host for getting the "Holy Blessing" Skill...

Holy Blessing : This skill releases divine light from the possessor's hands to heal any being and put them in the peak condition.

Condition :

â€¢ Only can be used on living beings

â€¢ Peak Condition is only for the physical body

â€¢ Once used on any being, It can't be used again on the same being in next 7 days.

â€¢ Can only be used 3 times a day, Each time consuming 250 mana.]

'Wait peak condition?'

Alex now gets used to OP things coming out of the system and seeing them on the heroine's but these words stopped him in his tracks, and made him ask question in surprise.

[Ding! Yes, host, It's peak conditions.]

The system answered, making Alex fall into deep thoughts.

The peak condition is different from the prime condition. The prime condition means an initial condition of before without any injury or other hindrance.

But the peak condition means the limit of the human body, which means if it is used in the human then the person will touch the limit of the human body, Which is around 300 peak stats.

This means he could make an army of superhuman beings to do his bidding, Although they will not be able to pose much threat to the protagonist, They are still able to weed out the nuisance of other people from the protagonist's camp.

'Thankfully I didn't put "Super Secretary" Halo on Grace.'

Alex looked at "Super Secretary" Halo in the system inventory. He didn't forget that this halo also enhances all the capabilities of the possessor including physical ones without having any limit.

Now with this new skill, He can first use this Holy Blessing before putting this halo on Grace, His secretary candidate.

'It's quite a coincidence, right?'

Alex couldn't help but to think about it. He is not the protagonist, So a situation like this is a very weird thing for him. He as a villain should not be this lucky.

[Ding! The host, Villain Halo also grants the villain his own type of luck, Villain should have a strong subordinate, and hence situations turn in favor of the host to have a strong subordinate.]

'So my luck also works like the protagonist, it's just focused on the things related to Villain?'

Alex asked for confirmation. He at first thought his halo only protect him from the protagonist's luck. That's all its power but now it seems things are different than he imagined.

[Ding! Yes!! You can say the Protagonist's Halo of luck tries to give them the best opportunities for quick self-enhancement and Meanwhile Villain's Halo of luck tries to give them the best opportunities to improve their own foundation.]

The system explains how the Villain Halo works.

Alex's luck is not there for show, It still affects the plot but in different ways than protagonist's luck.

The reason is that the protagonist starts with nothing and needs a quick strength boost, While Villain had everything they needed, So they should solidify their foundation first before moving further.

Mostly the villain's main foundation is his family, subordinates, and talents. Currently, Alex didn't need a boost in family or in talent but he was still lacking in the subordinates.

That's why his Villain Halo makes a situation like this, Maybe even Liza's appearance here and his choice for adding points in the charm are influenced by this halo.

'Now where should I go?'

After confirmation, Alex fell into a dilemma. For the first time since coming into this world, he didn't know where to go next now.

Gloria, The mother of Grace is still in the operation theater. Which will need at least 2 more hours to be done.

He also can't go to Madam Miller as once he goes there, He can never come out in just 2 hours. Lust fairy body also has a very strong sexual stamina, After all it gets that name for a reason.

'Well, First add this halo on her.'

So he decides to do the things on hand, While he has this rare luxury of free time.

He reached the waiting room and entered, Just to see a peacefully sleeping Grace, Who still had a dried trail of tears on her beautiful face making her look very pitiful.

'Holy Blessing.'

Alex stood in front of her and muttered as he raised both of his hands toward her.

Shine

As his voice fell, Golden light came out of his hands and showered on the whole body of Grace. Sweeping into her body through her soft milky white skin leaving behind the glistening whiten jade like smooth skin, Then it runs throughout her body, and then entered in her bones strengthening every place it went but it didn't stop there, Golden string of light also entered in each of her cells and erased all the impurities in them, Even it strengthened a gens to a higher level, Elemating all the dormant or active bad mutation it carried with from generations.

[Ding! Holy Blessing is successfully used on Grace, Her body now is at the peak of a mortal human woman.

(Note: 50% chances are increased for her to awaken a superpower.)]

'This skill is very powerful.'

Alex looked at Grace, Who right now looked on par with Alia in charm. This light strengthens every aspect of her body, Including charm as that too part of the body.

'Put "Super Secretary" Halo on her.'

After looking at her changes, He commanded.

[Ding! "Super Secretary" Halo is put on Grace, All all-around ability is enhanced.]

Thisbtine nothing big happened, Just a very quickly ray of light escaped from his body and entered in hers.

'Show me her status panel.'

Doing both strengthening and enhancing in a row, He wanted to see, How much she improved.

[Ding! The target details are like the following...

(Note : Women like her are single-minded, Once they loved or hated someone, They will not change their view, So beware of it.)]

'Not bad, Enhancement increased her stats by 150 more than a normal human limit of 300.'

Alex looked at Grace's improved stats, and nodded in satisfaction. Now he had a loyal and beautiful supernatural secretary, Who can do anything as long as that thing is possible to do.

'Is she really the business queen?'

Alex looked at a sleeping Grace, rubbed his large hand on her head, rubbing her dark silky hair and thought about it in confusion. There was no cold distance aura on her body like Alia nor did the superior aura unconsciously leaking from her body.

She was as threatening as a little white rabbit, No one can look at her and say she will be a business queen, Who's name is enough to make her competitors piss themselves in fear, In a later plot.

Ding

Suddenly notification of the phone pulled him out of his thoughts.

Alex pulled his phone from his pocket and checked.

Alia's Bodyguard: Where are you?

These were messages from Alia's bodyguard, Natasha. Old Alex didn't care enough to know the name of Alia's bodyguard.

That's why he saved her name as her job title. The only reason he even saved her number was because most of the time Alia's phone was busy, So contact Alia through her, He needed Natasha's number.

But now obviously, It was not Natasha who was messaging him, It had to be Alia. After all her number was still blocked on his phone.

Alex just looked at it and then directly put her on the blacklist. It was not time yet, He still had to marinate her before he could make a move.

"Well, it's boring sitting here. Let's go and see what that guy is doing."

Alex got bored quite quickly, So he decided to go and see what his dear lovely protagonist was doing.

...

"I don't understand why young people like now this stupid. Boy, why did you try to swallow a whole goddamn shoe?"

A very beautiful female doctor checked the condition of Nathen and was complaining to him, Who was sitting on the patient's bed.

She saw lots of cases like this, Only a few were cases because of sexual accidents, Most of the cases were caused because people were doing some dumb trend.

After making sure he didn't have any difficulty breathing, She didn't dare to touch his jaw anymore.

She still needs to wait for the X-ray reports before she even thinks of moving the shoe, Because Nathan's jaw was open to the limit. If she was not careful, It might break into two as this action was putting too much pressure on the fragile single weak point on his jaw.

"I-IT nO-nOt Gol-gOiNg Slurp Br-BrEaK."

Nathan is also a little medical genius, He knows his jaw will not break even if they now try to pull it out. So he was trying hard to tell the female doctor in front of him that she can remove the shoe.

But because of open mouth it became very hard for him to speak. Every time he tried saliva dripping from his mouth, He was making a futile attempt to not let it fall.

If not for the wrong angle and natural fear of the body, He has long since taken this shoe out of his mouth. He will not sit here trying to convince others for help.

"Stop trying to speak, young man, I can't understand anything you are saying. Just wait a little longer, When reports come, I will quickly remove the shoe. Until then tell me if you can't bear the pain, and I will prescribe you some painkillers."

Seeing Nathan troubled to speak, She stopped him from speaking any further. At this moment, Nathan was holding a bowl that was collecting his leaking saliva because of his open mouth. So it did not get all things dirty.

"N-No Slurp YoU CaN pUILoUt."

Nathan didn't have the patience to wait for the reports, He felt very humiliated. Everyone was looking at him not because of his looks but because of the big black shoe in his mouth. He was like a clown in their eyes.

'I will kill that bastard but before that, I will fuck his girlfriend, mother, and sister. Everyone he cares about is in front of him. Make him face the despair, Only then will I give him the sweet release of death.'

Nathan gritted his teeth, He now hated Alex to death. A flame of revenge like a hellfire burning in his heart.

He knows how easy it is to get a woman on the bed. Then he was confident enough to blow their brains out and then with his main games wrap those women around his fingers.

That way he can first physiologically make Alex suffer worse than death, When Alex finds that his loved one betrayed him. He wanted to see that look of despair on his face before he would end the worthless life of that man.

Shivers

A beautiful doctor who was standing front of him checking Nathan's condition shivers in the cold. She felt the very deadly aura released from a man in front of her but quickly that aura vanished, Making her confused whether it was her illusion or not.

"A very good Idea, I should try it."

Alex was looking at Nathen from the far edge of the ward, Not appearing in his field of vision but as long as the person was in his sight, His thoughts reader skill can let him hear that person's thoughts.

So he heard everything Nathan was saying about him, But Alex's face didn't change much after hearing Nathan's thoughts. There was even a gentle smile on his face.

But his twin star-like eyes turned icy-cold like a glacier, With infinite killing intent contained in them. If Natasha was present here and looked at Alex this moment, She would be scared shitlessly, Because this is a look Alia used to have before she goes on a bloodthirsty rampage.

(A/N : Like always thank you for reading and have a good day ǵŸ~)

Chapter 32 32. III-Fated Character Role

"Good news, There is no problem with the jaw bone. We can now start to remove the shoe. Hold tight. If it hurts a lot, Say it, We have given you numbing agent, If it's hurt then it still needs time to kick in."

A beautiful female doctor holding an X-ray report and talking to Nathan.

She looked at his reports and it turns out, His bone is actually quite strong, stronger than an average man and even woman. This surprised her but this was also a green light to take the show out of his mouth as there is no threat of breaking a bone.

So she had started a process. Now they just have to wait for local anesthesia to start its work before she can start.

"OkAy*Slurp*"

Nathan couldn't wait to remove this disgusting thing from his mouth, He had to taste all the things on the sole of this shoe. This made him feel like dying. He felt very nauseating but he still bare it.

He hated every second of it. There was even a time he wanted to yank this shoe out of his mouth, But he resisted the urge.

With his angle, It's very easy for him to break a bone, He can't risk breaking a bone and hurting the symmetry of his handsome face.

So he still bears the disgusting feeling in his heart, He is counting every part of this humiliation and when time comes He will make that man pay every insult and humiliation of his with interest.

'Alex Winchester.'

He tried to grit his teeth in hatred but only realized that he was unable to do so. A huge black shoe was blocking all his actions.

'Protagonist is really something, Maybe he does have some weird fetish.'

Alex, who was standing far away in the corner of the emergency ward, Looked at Nathan's self-control. It's really not easy for a normal person to bear that disgusting feeling but he is able to do it.

But what makes Alex shocked is the fact that, There was a bowl in hands of Nathan but other than letting his saliva fall in it, He still tried to slurp that dirty spite of his.

'His luck is also good, He gets her as a doctor.'

Alex then looked at the attending doctor of Nathan in quite a surprise, He didn't think that she would be there at this moment according to the plot.

He knows her very well, Not normally but from the novel plot in his mind.

'Let's go and meet her.'

He looked at her and decided to meet her now to avoid sleepless nights or to say troubled thoughts later on. Good sleepless nights are quite welcoming.

"Hello, doctor, I think I have a fever. Can you take a look?"

Alex goes directly toward the female doctor, Who was about to remove the shoe from Nathan's mouth, and asked her to take a look at him

"Don't you see this is the emergency department, A general department is dow- !!! Okay, Ple-Please sir come with me."

Beautiful female doctor heard a sound from behind her and was about to annoyingly remind the person that this is an emergency section. Only emergency cases can be treated here. Feeling feverish is not an emergency but as she turned around, She saw that heavenly face.

She for a moment even forgot to breathe. That face was literally breathtaking, So she swallowed all the words she was about to say and asked the man in front of her to come to her office.

It's really an emergency. She can't afford it if anything happens to a handsome man in front of her. It will be a great loss for humanity. As for Nathan? She forgot he even existed.

[Ding! +90 Favorability of Xin Yan increased for the host (Current : 90 Obsession)]

Alex heard the sound of the system. He was not surprised at all. His charm was so much that it can even affect the heroines, not to mention a woman in front of him.

The woman in front of him belonged to the most ill-fated character type in novels, Supporting Female Lead.

In each friction, this type exists. In worse treatment characters neither villain nor the protagonist are able to compare with them.

They are just there to highlight the powers of another key role, And are sometimes even used as cannon folders.

If someone had to die, They would be the first to sacrifice. Their whole existence is to act as a ladder for other characters to reach higher to show-offs.

Most lucky supporting roles are the ones who didn't get any names. At least their fate will not turn worse but if some supporting role has a name 90% chance is that their life will turn into hell.

And if they are female supporting role then they are done, Their no place for joy in their life, They never even given any love interest from author fearing provoking reader, And if they are close or are rival of heroine, Then there are 50/50 chance that she will either get raped or has to sell her body for competing with heroine, Just to get face slapped by protagonist.

Xin Yan is an unfortunate villain in this ill-fated supporting female lead role, Who is also a rival of Liza. So her fate was already doomed.

"wAiT?? wHaT aBoUt mE??? BiTcH!!! Slurp"

When Nathan looked at Alex appearing in front of him, He wanted to hop on his body and tear him into sheds just like a mad bulldog does to tod-Ahem toys.

But he stopped himself from doing that, He sensed a threat from Alex's body, He didn't know how but whenever he was close to a person stronger than him, His body feels a tingling sensation.

This might be a superstition but this thing saved his life countless times when his bitch of a master sent him on deadly missions.

So he just throws draggers from his eyes on Alex's body. If eyes could kill, Alex would be dead thousands of times by now.

Then a shocking thing happened: A doctor who was supposed to treat him, Ignored him and, like a dog, followed him wagging her tail.

For the first time he was ignored by a woman, So he felt even more humiliating. He hated when others, especially women, ignored him.

'This disgusting woman's, One day I will conquer them all, Making them beg under me.'

His hatred increased in his heart. In his eyes, All women are dogs, That's why they weren't able to walk past seeing a man. He will someday conquer them all. This was his biggest dream other than having a huge harem.

....

"So what is happening to you, sir."

Xin Yan brings Alex into her personal office to treat him, As for why did she bring him here? Even though she didn't know. She just felt like spending some alone time with him.

"Actually, Nothing much happened to me. It's just every time I look at your beautiful face miss, My heart skips beats."

Alex looked at Xin Yan seated in front of him and said a cheesy line.

Now that he gets to see her up close, She actually does not look worse than any heroine. She has a tall body, Curvy figure, Silky black hair, Her long slender legs were wrapped in black silk, and A beautiful oriental oval face.

Sadly, She was just a supporting female lead role with a name, Her fate was destined for the worse ending. Her role in the whole novel was just to glorify the medical powers of the protagonist and Heroine Liza. So after that was done, Later on off screen family behind her would get destroyed and she went crazy from shock. She then spent her whole life as a mad beggar on the streets.

But now he is here, Plot is already started to go on an unknown path.

"What!!?? There- Heart racing, I- Let me check about that condition."

Alex's words shut off all her thinking capability. She out of her doctor's instincts and started to search for any disease related to heart skipping beats in books by her side with a flushed face.

"Stop, What are you doing Xin Yan? You can't find a cure for my disease in the book."

Seeing her flipping pages continuously, Alex grabbed her healthy white cold wrist and said very seriously.

"Do you know about the cure? Tell me, I can help you find it."

His seriousness also influences her. When his slightly warm hand grabbed her, A shock spread in her body. Her thinking got all messed up, and She didn't even realize what she was talking about. Her body was fully on autopilot right now.

"Yes, The cure for my disease is...Your body."

Alex, seeing this was the right moment, moved his lips near her ear and spoke these words.

Bang

His words were like cold water sprayed on the hot pan, It sizzled her heart. His crisp, rough, lust filled thirsty words near her ears make her feel emotions, She never felt before.

Her body felt like it was injected with drugs, Shaking and trembling in excitement. Her throat got dry and her lower half became wet. Her vision also became misty, and confused. Her brain was wobbly, She wasn't able to think anything at all. She might pass out at any moment now.

'Did I do too much?!!!'

Alex was startled by the extreme reaction of Xin Yan, He didn't even do anything yet and she was close to falling unconscious.

[Ding! Host, you are underestimating your Charm, Heroine's are protected by the will of the heavens. So your charm did not affect them to the extreme but these supporting roles were not blessed by that favor.

So all your charm was affecting her, It's suggested to not provoke her any further right now and let her calm down or there is a high chance that because of extreme stimulation, Her body will fall into a coma]

The system jumped in to save the day, It turned out that Alex still underestimated his charm.

Heroines had protection against his charm but other people didn't. So the horror of 190 stats started to take effect.

His simple words were enough to make another party reach the highest level of pleasure there is. After all, he was 6 times more handsome than the most handsome being ever born in this world.

'Didn't that mean I can't do it with normal people? If they have this extreme reaction?'

Alex asked in annoyance. He didn't want to bind himself only to those heroines, There were also a lot of very good supporting and villainous women he wanted to Raid.

[Ding! Host, you can raid them. It's just that you have to let them adjust to your charm first, Don't start with your ace cards with them like you do with heroines.

Go slow with them or they can't handle the simulation of your charm.]

The system, as user-friendly as it is, Instantly resolves the worry in Alex's heart. He just has to go slow with other characters. He can still have them.

"Here is my number, Call me when you calm down."

Hearing the system explanation, Alex didn't want to simulate Xin Yan any more. He still needs her for his future plan to counter the protagonist.

So he just took her visiting card from desk and wrote his name and phone number on the card. After doing that he put that card in the breast shirt pocket of hers subconsciously.

"Ahhh!!!~ Slam"

Just as his backhand touched her breasts over the shirt, She jerked back and with a shirk of moan, She had a super climax before passing out. She was about to slam her face into the glass desk in front of her but Alex was quick enough to prevent her from injuring herself.

[Ding! Congratulations host for successfully raiding Xin Yan (Current : 105 Unhealthy Obsession)...

Gulp

'My Charm is deadly.'

Alex looked at the extreme reaction of Xin Yan to his subconscious action and broke out in cold sweat.

'If my normal action has this big reaction then what would happen if I used my ecstasy hands just now?'

He couldn't help but wonder, His skill makes those heroines yell out in pleasure, So what happened if he used it on these people? He now became curious.

But he didn't dare to do anything to Xin Yan, He still needed her to deal with the protagonists, Not to mention he didn't want to harm her. He is a degenerate, not a psychopath who harms others just because of his curiosity.

'So who do I use this on to test?'

Well, curiosity kills the cat, He can't wait to know the powers of his skill mixture with his Charm. But sadly there was currently no one other than Xin Yan who meets this standard, So he had to drop this idea for now.

After making sure she was okay, Alex exited her office, closing the door on his back.

"Hey, buddy!! Do you wanna bet again? haha"

How could Alex miss the chance to taunt the protagonist? After all, he was the villain, It was his job to belittle the protagonist.

So when he saw that Nathan was still waiting to be treated he went to tease him.

"I wILL kILL yOu, BaStArD!!! Slurp"

Nathan was successfully provoked by Alex, His anger reached to peak, and right now, He wanted to cut Alex into pieces and feed them to dogs.

He can't wait to see the look of despair on that ugly disgusting face of his. He wanted to steal everything from Alex until he had nothing.

"Huh!? We think too much alike"

There was still a time of Thought Reader remaining, So he heard what Nathan was saying in his mind, Alex was surprised that both of them were thinking of doing the same thing to others, If this is not the Bromance then I don't know what is.

Ding

A notification from his phone disturbed Alex's thoughts, When he checked it. He raised his eyebrows in interest.

Unknown : !?=:

Messages were from an unknown number with only symbols contained in messages.

"Interesting"

Alex with a smirk on his face replied to another party and put his phone back.

"Okay, I don't have time to play with you. Get well soon buddy, So we can continue our game."

Alex politely and very caringly said to Nathan before leaving the ward.

Nathan hears of "game" in Alex's mouth, Shivered in fear, He has a very bad feeling in his heart.

(A/N : Like always thanks for reading and have a good day ğŸ˜.)

- Chapter 33 33. Truth

Chapter 33 33. Truth

"Phew~ Finally, Done."

Liza came out of the operation theater And saw Alex waiting in front of the operating room.

She hurriedly walked to him, As she had already taken out all the dirty contaminated dress and wore her normal one.

"Is everything alright?"

Alex looked at her and asked. In the novel, it didn't tell what happened to Gloria, It just said that she was sick and in an operation something major happened, Giving Nathan the protagonist of the novel a chance to shine in front of the heroine.

So he was worried about whether Liza could handle it. After all this was an opportunity for the protagonist. He is right to fear any unexpected events.

"Yes, Everything alright. It's a really good choice of yours to call me here. Otherwise, Her life would really be in grave danger, This doctor couldn't handle the things that happened later."

Liza was looking to get praise from Alex, So she was telling him what had happened in the operation theater.

"Who has thought that a Simple kidney transplant operation would turn out that serious?"

Liza tells Alex in excitement, She loves handling complicated cases and this one can be counted in the top 10 cases in her career.

"Was it that serious?"

Alex asked in shock, It turn out that Gloria had a kidney problem, Which was already a fatal problem if not treated, And then there are more add-on problem, So he was little worried

"Yes, It was serious, You know we normally don't take out failed kidneys, We just put another new kidney to the side, This is a normal procedure."

Liza's voice contained awe and surprise as she was talking, With excitement to say more about her loved topic.

Alex didn't interrupt and let her talk, He too was curious about what had happened to Gloria.

"But her case was different, It turns out there was a big tumor on the kidney, Which might be the reason why her kidney failed in the first place."

Liza continued to speak, She couldn't fathom how doctors could miss that big of a tumor inside her. Even the scans didn't show it.

This was almost impossible to happen as there were double checks before the operations. She in her long career never saw anyone make this big mistake. If not for her present here, This was a fatal mistake.

"Thankfully, That tumor was biennial and not malignant. So normally it was not an immediate threat but in her case, That tumor had to be removed before we could transplant a new one in it."

There was now a very good smile on Liza's face but that smile looked eerie in Alex's eyes. One of her perks is Medical Maniac. So these terrible things in others eyes are very fascinating things for her.

"But the problem at that moment was that There were no available experts in the tumor department available right now in the hospital. They still needed at least an hour to come here."

Liza's smile reached ear to ear. If someone who didn't listen to what she was talking about would think, This "little" girl might be talking about something funny.

Liza indeed thinks this was funny. In her eyes, the more serious the medical problem is, the more her blood boils to treat it. Learn about it.

Gloria's case is also different, cases like this need weeks if not days of preparation before the expert in this field can start an operation to remove the tumor.

Unlike other doctors, Who live close to the hospital and are needed on the call 24—7, They live a little far away and are not that busy. So even if the hospital calls them they will take an hour minimum not to mention the doctor still would have not operated on her, Until they have confirmation that the tumor really was biennial Before they even think of touching the patient.

That would take at least a few hours to get all the reports, But time is a luxury that Gloria didn't have. Right now both of her kidneys are not working and she can't even be put on the dialysis machine for fear of excessive bleeding.

"But I was there. That tumor also was weird. It even took me an hour to remove it. It was surrounded by lots of major veins and arteries."

Liza finished telling her story and looked at Alex to get praise, Just to see Alex looking at her weirdly.

"What happened?"

She put her index finger and her small plump lips and asked in confusion to Alex, She really didn't understand, Why Alex was giving her that look.

"You skip the main part, Smack Tell me if Gloria is okay or not?"

Alex had enough of her. He thought she would get to the main point, that's why he even listened to her big explanation but as it turned out, She didn't even talk about Gloria and only talked about her before she finished talking, looking at him to get praise.

That's why he smacked lightly on her head before asking himself the main question.

"Ouch!?! Why did you hit me? Also, do they even need to ask? The operation was successful, I was the one who was operating on her, So of course, she was alright."

Liza felt very wronged. She did Alex a favor but he not only even said thank you to her but also beat her. This was an injustice.

But when she looked at his face, All her anger and wronged feelings vanished. She thought that she said something wrong and that's why Alex hit her.

After all, face value is justice in her book, So everything Alex did is a fair thing.

"When can we meet her?"

Alex didn't want to argue with this maniac. So he directly asked about the main topic.

"You can't meet her today, Anesthesia needs 1 hour or so to completely wear off, And it will take around 1 hour for her to get conscious, Also she still needs to be in the next 24 hours of tight observation. So you can only meet her tomorrow. She is going to need lots of rest."

Liza was still a doctor, She still cares about the well being of her patients. It's just her interest was laying in some weird place, Other than that she was a completely normal person...well sort of normal person.

"Thank you, I owe you one, I don't have time right now, but I will give you a treat for this tomorrow as a thank you."

Alex was finally let go of his worry, Other people can still treat Gloria, It didn't have to be the protagonist. This also means that he can grab the things meant for the protagonist ahead of time, And not have to wait until the protagonist gets to them.

"Okay, Don't forget about it."

Although Liza was reculent to part away with him, She didn't want to appear desperate. That's why she agreed. Tomorrow they will be meeting anyway.

So Alex bid her farewell and walked towards the waiting room to give good news to Grace.

[Ding! +20 Favorability of Alia increased for the host (Current: 240 Unhealthy Obsession)]

Just as he was about to open the door, He heard the system notification pop up in his mind.

'Did she just eat it now?'

It's obvious how there was this big increase in the favorability, Alia should have eaten the egg's he fried in the morning.

He was just surprised that Alia took this much time to eat it. She should have been awake 1 hour before as it was when she messaged him.

'Think about her later.'

Alex didn't want to worry about Alia now. He had to leave her alone for the time being Until time was right to tame her.

Click

He shook his head and opened the door of the waiting room, and saw that Grace was already awake.

She was sitting on her bed, Gazing at her phone blankly. Her jade-like delicate cheeks had trails of tears running, Her whole body was shaking while trying to press down her heavy sobs.

"Grace, what happened?"

Alex was startled by this sight. He quickly came to her and asked hurriedly.

"Ahh!! No- Nothing happened, I-I was just worried about my mother. Tell me if the operation was successful, Mom is alright, Right?"

Seeing it was Alex who came, Grace got surprised and she quickly hid her phone behind her back. She then tried to mask the pain in her eyes before she asked him a question.

Alex didn't have to guess what could have happened here. But he also knew sooner or later, He had to face this for future development.

"Operations was successful and aunty is safe, It's just we can only meet her tomorrow morning as she is still under observation."

He didn't confront Grace yet and first delivered the news that her mother was alright, So the physiological pressure in her weakened.

"That's a relief."

Grace didn't have a big reaction but worry in her heart calmed down. After all, she didn't know about the complicated thing that later happened. She only thought that her mother was having a kidney transplant. Which was not that big or risky operation. It's just that this didn't stop fear in her heart. So he was really relieved hearing everything was alright.

This is the reason why Alex brought her here in the waiting room and let her stay inside, So she would not find out about how serious things had gotten and let worry without reason.

After all, he knew the magical powers of the heroine, So he was pretty confident that the heroine could handle it, And even if she couldn't He can gamble and enter the operating room.

Saving an important character in the plot is also considered a very big world decision, So he was confident that the system would jump in and give him options, Which will definitely include skill or something that can save her.

His confidence was laying there. That's why he was the one who signed in the consent form required for the tumor operation. He didn't let her know about it.

"...."

A very uncomfortable silence fell in the room. Neither Alex nor Grace speak of anything.

"Alia messaged you right?"

Alex was the one to break the silence, He knew Alia would do this and he was prepared for it.

"What!! No- She I-"

Grace didn't know how to answer him, She struggled to speak, She didn't anticipate Alex to speak straightforwardly like this, Yes it was Alia who messaged her and warned her to stay away from Alex.

Saying that they just had a simple fight before, And Yesterday night they solved it and even broke the final limit of their relationship, So she should not try to dig corners.

At first, she didn't want to believe that they crossed that final line, But she also knows Alia's personality. She will never lie about something like this, Her pride will not allow her to do it.

So they should really cross that line and take their relationship on the next level. She wanted to be happy for Alex, and She wanted to congratulate him.

Through the song he sang to Alia, She felt how much he love her, So she too was happy that he was happy but her mind was only agreeing with her. Her heart protested.

Why can't she have him? Was she not beautiful enough? Did she not care enough for him? Is her love lacking somewhere? She can even guarantee that she was the one who loved him the most.

She knew everything about him, What he likes, What he hates, What are his hobbies, What dish is his favorite, and What place he goes to when he is sad. She knows everything about him, The things that Alia couldn't bother to know about.

So she didn't understand, Why he chose Alia and not her. Is money the only reason? Did Alex hate her because she was poor? She was afraid this was the reason.

She wanted to earn money, So much money that she would not be less than Alia, Then she will ask Alex to marry her on equal footing with Alia but she realized that releasing Alia already have him. Her heart felt like bleeding.

She felt like someone jabbed a blunt knife in her heart and started to twist it. She felt so much pain that she can't even describe it in the words. Tears didn't know when it started to flow from her eyes.

"So did she say about how we fucked for hours last night or How I lusted after her body? If that's what she said then it was all true."

Alex didn't didn't hold back and said everything in a one go.

Crack

Grace felt like something had just cracked inside her, Tears like a river without a dam started to flow out once again from her red eyes.

At first when Alex said it she thought Alia might really lie but now Alex also confirmed it, That fantasy got broken.

A huge amount of sorrow washed over her. She felt like she lost something very precious in her life. For the first time she hated herself for being poor. She hated her fate which had only misery written in it as if destiny played some sick joke on her.

"Also, Although I was drunk but I also did it willingly, No one forced me."

Well, Alex said a half-truth, But this was necessary to tell Grace, It's better to learn this thing from him than from Alia.

Crack

There was that cracking voice again, She felt like her heart would literally break, A immense pain washed over her but unfortunately for her, Alex was just getting started.

(A/N : Like always, Thank you for reading, and have a good day ğŸ˜~'.)

Chapter 34 34. Hope

"You know, We didn't leave a single place in that room, Everywhere are traces of our lust and passion, You can see it if you shine blacklight in there."

Alex continues to barrage these sharp words like knife on Grace.

Crack Tear

Each word of Alex felt like a sledgehammer, Hitting on her heart. She didn't want to listen to this, She didn't want to hear him talk about how he made love to another woman.

She wants him to stop talking, She wishes this was just a nightmare she was having, and she will wake up soon.

Her whole being is in immense pain. She felt like crying but no tears escaped from her eyes. She just wants to wake up from this nightmare right now.

"Also you know, I fucked her so much that Alia had to beg me to stop countless times, You should look at her that time, She didn't look like her usual cold demeanor but the pitiful woman"

Alex didn't stop even seeing how much his words affected her. He had to do this. If he didn't, Someone else would, So it was better for him to give her a knife.

"A-Are you hungry, Alex, We should get something to eat."

Grace spoke in a very hoarse and unnatural voice trying to suppress her sorrow, To hide her pain from Alex and tried to change the subject, But her heart was in chaos, She couldn't bear it, She didn't want to hear how and where they made love.

"I lost my virginity to Alia last night. Didn't that make me a worn shoe or what they say? Ahem Yes, Broken goods right? Now I am broken goods in a woman's eyes."

Alex ignored her attempt to change the subject, He continued speaking and asked her a question.

"What?! No!! How can a man be broken goods? Man didn't even have physical characteristics to represent the purity and whole body. You are the same to me as you were yesterday. Nothing has changed."

Grace jumped up from bed hearing his question, And hurriedly spoke to defend him, Even though he was the one who was hurting her the most right at the moment. She still wants to defend his honor.

Actually, it was not the fact that he was with Alia that was hurting her but the fact that both Alia and Alex were in love was the reason why she was feeling this much pain.

She can handle it if it was just a physical relationship, Because that means she still had a chance, She is still able to steal him from that cold ruthless Alia but if they were in love then she didn't want to do it. If Alex was happy with Alia then she can only bless them with a heavy heart.

That's why these words of Alex are like a sharp knife slashing her whole being. Because in her eyes, This was not just a sexual relationship for physical needs but more emotional needs they fulfill through physical ones.

"Really? That's good to hear, So where am I? Yeah right! You should have looked Alia at that time she was-"

"ENOUGH!! Please stop talking about you and her fucking each other over and over again, I get it. You guys are in love and this is a normal thing for a couple to do."

Grace finally snapped, She howled at him in pain and anguish, She really can't hear him anymore talking about his last night with Alia. She still wanted to keep some little illusion of hope. Maybe she still had a chance but if Alex kept speaking it was not possible. That weak fire of hope will also extinguish in a barrage of his cold words.

"Why? Don't you like hearing it? Weren't we supposed to be friends? So what's wrong with me sharing my first experience with a friend?"

Alex retorted, He still has to hurt her a little more. Although he didn't like hurting her like this, he had to do it. If he got soft now, Then that would only be going to harm Grace even more in future.

"That- Yes we- NO!! Are we just friends? Just a friend? Then why did you kiss me before? Why- Why did you say it was beautiful? Are you just playing with me and my feelings?!!"

Grace broke out all her suffering in her heart, She didn't understand why? WHY? Why is he doing this? Is he not seeing her pain, Not feeling the sorrow in her voice? Then why does he keep hurting her like this? Does he just enjoy watching her like this?

"Grace- "

Alex wanted to speak, he too was not like this one bit but he had to do this right now. It was like a bandage. He had to remove it even though it would be painful.

"You are just playing with me, right? You like watching this hopeless girl dance like a monkey in front of you right?"

Grace was very emotional now. She didn't even let Alex speak anymore fearing it would be just another chain of sharp words Which would stab into her heart even deeper.

"Grace Tha- "

"So please Don't Sob Don't stop!!! I will be whatever you want, I will be the monkey for your entertainment, You can even hurt me like this as much as you want, I will not even raise a single word of objection but please don't stop."

Greece's delicate cheeks were stained by the constant flow of her hot tears, As she looked pitifully at him, with begging in her eyes, Then she directly kneeled on the ground and pleaded Alex to not stop playing with her. She wanted him to still be like he was in the morning even if that was just an act, Her delicate cheeks were stained by the constant flow of her tears, As she looked pitifully at him, with begging in her eyes.

Because even though it was fake, She was just a joke, A plaything in his eyes but for her it was real. She was happy, She had hoped to be with a man she loved.

That hope was the only thing that was keeping her together, Alex is the only good thing that comes in her life, He was the one who brought her Hope. A hope that made her realize that she was not worthless.

A hope that made her feel alive for the first time in her life, She can't lose that hope. She can't live if that hope is gone.

So even if it was fake, She wanted Alex to treat her the same way, She can be his monkey, He can do whatever he wants with her, and She would be happy to get that hope even if it was an illusion.

She rather lived in the illusion of hope than lived in a reality where it didn't exist.

"Sigh I was not playing with you, I really do like you, I like you very much."

Alex too kneeled in front of her, What he wanted was achieved, She finally opened her sealed heart to him. So now she will not be influenced by others by exploiting the weakness in her heart, especially people like Alia, Who are very good at mental warfare.

"Really??"

Grace raised her head, Her two red swollen eyes looked at him with expectation, Even after he hurt her this much there was not one speck of resentment in those big void-like eyes.

There was only the expectation, She didn't even bother to think whether what he was saying was true or not. As long as he said it, even if it was fake, It was enough for her.

"I am not lying, I do like you very much. That's why from this moment onwards, You will be my personal secretary, So you can always be close to me."

Alex cupped her rosy cheeks in his palms and with his thumbs gently wiped out the tears from her eyes and cheeks. He then spoke to her in a very gentle doting voice.

"Secretary? And me? Alway close to you?"

Grace asked in surprise and joy, All her worry and pain just vanished, A broken heart of hers that was on the brink of breaking into million pieces like a phoenix did a nirvana and healed completely just hearing his words.

She now felt like a raft lost in the sea finally found solace of the shoar, He became the lighthouse in her dark life of hers.

She even forgotten about Alia's issues, Which were tearing her heart and soul a moment ago. As long as Alex says anything sweet to her like this, She can forgive and forget anything.

"There is also one more thing, What I did with Alia yesterday was just for carnal desire, A physical need, There was nothing even close to love in that, We just threw ourselves in the passion and lust."

Alex looked deep into her honey-colored eyes, and said very seriously to her.

He knows even though, Even if she does not say it, This is the reason why she had this big reaction, and why she felt that much pain. So he wanted to ease the worry now.

"What? There was no love? Only carnal desire? A physical need?"

Grace's pupils dilated, She looked at the seriousness in Alex's eyes and understood that this was clearly not a lie, There was no love in their actions last night's actions.

Suddenly the body felt quite light, A worry in her heart vanished. The flame of hope which was about to extinguish, Re-ignited, And turned into an inferno of fire.

"Also, You are the first woman I've ever confessed to liking."

Alex didn't let go of her cheeks, He was still gently holding them and said in a very romantic soothing voice.

He hurt her before, So now he had to make up for it. Also, she was the really the first woman he liked and confessed.the

"I don't know, If I might be able to love anyone ever now, But I do know, I like you."

Alex still had to make a persona of a broken hearted man, So he said these words just to firm this identity in Grace's heart.

Then he gets his face very close to hers, Almost touching her cute nose, Before saying these words.

Bang

Grace couldn't handle this cold and hot treatment of his. First, he hurt her so much that she cried in pain and now he made her happy so much that she once again cried but this time in joy.

But she didn't hate this at all. If every time Alex hurt her, if he treated her like this, Then she would surely bear the soul-tearing pain everyday just able to taste this sweetness.

'How did he become this handsome? Or am I hallucinating?'

Grace didn't say anything, She just looked at Alex's divine face at close range. She didn't understand why suddenly he was looking this handsome but his charm also awakened the deep primal desire in her heart.

She seductively bit her lower plump lip before she made a move, Face oval face moved forward and her red juicy lips interlocked with his thin reddish ones.

(A/N : Like always that you are reading and have a good day ğŸ˜.)

Chapter 35 35. Am I Sadistic?

"Mummm~"

Grace's body moved on her own. Seeing Alex's face in front of her, The joy she felt when he said he liked her was too much for her little heart.

She wasn't able to control her urge and finally captured Alex's small slender lips.

As her lips touched his, A wave of current ran through her body. She felt like her whole body would melt. This kiss, like an aged wine, was extremely flavorful and intoxicating. An alluring moan escaped from her little mouth.

Alex felt her sloppy moments, She was just trying to devour his lips, She as an amateur in this field wasn't able to know what to do. After all, She had her first kiss in the morning.

"Huff I-I am sorry."

Their kiss lasted for a few moments before Grace came back to her senses. She hurriedly broke their kiss in fear and apologized in a guilty voice.

"Why are you apologizing, Grace?"

Alex let go of her cheeks, He raised his right, And with the back of his hand. He ran the tip of his slender fingers on her side cheek very slowly.

His deep eyes look in his honey-brown eyes full of meaning and doting.

"I-I shouldn't have done this without asking you."

Grace felt like she just ate honey, Her heart was sweet. Subconsciously a very cute and beautiful smile appeared on that heavenly face of hers, making her look like an elf that walked out of a fairy tale.

"What you shouldn't do?"

Alex moved his lips close to her right ear and spoke in an alluring tone. While his hand picked up a strand of her hair on her left cheek and put it behind her ear in a very gentle and careful manner.

"I...I sho-shouldn't have kissed without your permission, I am sorry."

There was trembling in her voice as she spoke. Her eyes didn't dare to look straight at Alex and were hovering in random directions. She didn't know if these actions of Alex were real or fake just to mess with her, But she didn't care about that right now.

Right now she just wanted to enjoy this moment. Maybe she would get heartbroken or in an immense amount of pain later, But she will gladly bear it as long as Alex is the one who was the one who hurt her.

Even pain given by him was a precious thing to her.

"Yes, You shouldn't, So how are you going to make up for your "Unholy" crime?"

Alex looked at this cute flushtarted Grace and couldn't help but tease her. He might have some sadistic traits.

He really can't walk past a cute girl without bullying them a little.

"Really?!! I am sorry. Tell me, I will do anything to make up for it."

Grace spoke anxiously. She didn't get the sarcasm in Alex's voice because her brain stop working when she was with him. Her stupidly in love heart took command of in its hand.

So she really thought that Alex was angry that she kissed him without getting his permission. This makes her panic, fearing that he will start to hate her thinking of her as a pervert.

'Why did I do that? Everything was going fine, He even said he likes me, Then why did I ruin it?'

Grace started to blame herself. When it came to Alex, She was really too sensitive. Even little things would make her think of countless worst scenarios as to how things could go wrong.

Maybe she is a big fan of Murphy's law When it comes to Alex.

"Everything?~"

Alex, whose lips were still near her ears, got even close to it and whispered in a very bewitching voice, Exhaling seductively on her blushing red ear.

"Gulp Y-yes ev-everything"

Grace subconsciously swallowed and said in a trembling shaky voice, She felt his hot breath on her ears, Her whole body nearly shut down feeling his action.

Her mind was already offline and now her heart too was showing signs of giving in. She can't bear this proactive Alex at all, It is bad for her little heart.

She felt like no matter what crime he would commit or no matter how much he hurt her, If he acted like this to her, She might forgive him for anything.

This thought was scary to her. She knew if she didn't stop she would fall into the dark abyss without any way to come out, and yet she didn't want to stop.

Even if it was Abyss, If there was Alex with her then that would be her paradise.

"Carefully Grace before promising something, You might regret it later, So think again Bite"

Alex spoke in a very enchanting voice, He at this moment, He was like a devil whispering in the innocent maiden's ears to push her towards the dark side.

After he finishes speaking he with white teeth bites at her ear's tip, slightly nibbling it.

'Am I sadistic?'

He thought to himself while looking at the flushed face of Grace. He didn't want to stop. There was a different kind of fun teasing a girl like her. He can't get enough of it.

'It's n-not fair.'

Grace's whole body became soft, When he nibbled on her ear, The tingling wet sensation was uncanny to anything she felt before.

She felt it was not fair, How can she be able to think if he sneaks an attack on her like this?

But she likes it, She loves him too much, Even his mild actions for her were precious little gifts fallen from high heaven.

"Th-There's no need to think, I will do anything to get your forgiveness."

Grace asked with some expectation in her shaky voice, thinking about some wild things in her mind.

As those fantasies get wilder and wilder, She quickly stops them. She can't handle that much love from Alex, Even if it was just in her imagination.

"Ohhh really? Are you sure? What you would do if I asked you to help me with courting another woman to fuck? Will you help?"

Alex still greedily nibbled on her ear like it was some extra sweet candy, Wetting it with his warm saliva but both of them didn't care about it, especially Grace didn't mind this at all.

"...I-I will!!!"

Grace was taken aback by hearing his words but quickly answered in a firm voice, She can do anything for him.

At this point, She might have long crossed the line of return, She just didn't know it yet.

"You will? Then how about that someone will be like Madam Miller? Will you still help?"

Alex's voice turned very bewitching. He looks more and more like the handsome prince of hell, Whispering and Tempting a ignorant woman to eat the forbidden fruit.

"Madam MILLER!!! Mother of Alia? It-It's dangerous."

Grace's volume rose a few decibels, And she quickly reminded Alex that this is very dangerous.

But she didn't notice one thing . She didn't deny helping him to get that woman but worried about the threat of this act to him.

As her prime competitor for Alex, She also did her research on Alia, She knew who Alex was referring to, and She also knew how much power the other party yielded, Not to mention that Madam Miller might have misandry.

That and the possessiveness of Alia, She will never sit and watch, Her "ex" putting a green hat on her head with her own mother.

Yes, Ex. In Grace's eyes, Physical relationships don't count. If there is no love then they have broken up, And Alex became the ex of Alia.

"Not that dangerous, I wanted revenge, Which satisfies my evil taste, So are you going to help me or not?"

Alex spoke to her in the same voice but started to use vulgar words to remind her what she was signing in for. He noticed that she was just on the brink of falling. A little more push and he will be going to have a cute little helper on his quest for survival in this world.

After all, although he liked this obedient Grace very much, But everyone has something they were possessive about, He didn't forget that he was a villain, Unlike the protagonist he had to take the initiative to keep peace in his harem.

Or An Asura field would create in his backyard, Although normally others will feel this is unnecessary thing to do seeing favorability of his woman's but he can't have any open end to leave to expose a weakness.

After all, he too was a big fan of Murphy's Law. If anything can go wrong, It will go wrong.

"Th- I will, I will help you to get Madam Miller."

These words were spoken by the same woman, Who felt soul-tearing pain some moments ago, Thinking about Alex being with another woman.

She actually still felt the same soul-tearing pain if Alex fell in love with someone else, But as long as there is no love, She didn't even bat an eye, He can be with as many as women he wants.

She just wished that when he was done playing, He will come to her. That's all she wants.

So if he wanted to take revenge on Alia by doing this, She didn't have any problem, She gladly helped him.

"You truly are mad about me, Grace. So one last question, If I said I want to fuck your mom, Gloria? Will you help me?"

Alex finally asked his final question, This is the last point, After this, there is no turning back.

Then he didn't have to worry about her. She would not become a variable for him in the future.

"...."

Grace wasn't able to say anything, She was ready to just say she will but words choked on her throat, They didn't come out.

She couldn't believe Alex would also want to do it with her 42-year-old mother. They were very poor, So it was not for the money he wanted to do with her mother.

It is also not because of revenge like in Madam Miller's case as her mother and Alex hardly ever met with each other.

She didn't understand, Why Alex wanted to do it with her mother. If he wants just to quench the thirst of his lust, She can gladly offer her own body for him to ravage as much as he likes.

There was also jealousy. Yeah, She was jealous of her own mother. How come she who was ready to do everything for Alex was not on this list but her mother who was old, And hardly even met Alex, Was on his list.

As for being disgusted by Alex's words, There was not an ounce of disgust in her heart for him. As said before, She can do everything for him. No matter what he does, It is the right thing in her eyes.

"So your answer is no? I should have thought that after all not everyone can be as truthful as me."

Alex said to her in disappointment and took action to stand up from the ground to leave.

Maybe he also has awakened some narcissistic traits or he got high on his own charm. Either way, he was talking nonsense in his last words.

"No!! Don't!! I will help you, No matter who the woman is, I will help you to get on her bed. Even if that woman is Madam Miller or...or My mother, I will help. So please don't leave me."

Grace panicked and spoke quickly, While holding the corner of Alex's shirt in a pleading voice.

When She saw him standing up, She felt like her life was slipping away in front of her. She can't lose him, Not now when she finally has him.

So she moved at lightning speed and grabbed the corner of his shirt. She would do anything for him.

It's safe to say, At this point she has completely fallen. What she has can't be called love anymore but an obsession, A deep unhealthy obsession.

She is addicted to the sweet feeling he gave her. He was the only light in her life, Which brought her the rays of joy.

Now she can go to any extent to keep this feeling forever. This is a scary power of obsession.

"You are hopeless, Grace."

Alex stopped and looked at her and spoke. He felt it in her eyes, She really can do anything for him.

"But this is the reason I like you this much."

He held her cheeks in his palms gently and said these words to her. He likes this obedient little woman, He unlike with other woman's not have to worry about saying something bad and causing trouble. He can be himself around her.

'I have to cherish her dearly.'

He couldn't help but to think about this. She is really precious to him.

Thump

His low soft spoken words reverberated in this small waiting room.

Grace's heart felt like it was rammed by a unicorn. His sweet words and gentle action were enough for her.

At this moment not mentioned if he ask, He wanted to fuck her mother now, but even if he asked her to join them she will agree.

She can do anything for this man, Anything!!!

"Here is your reward."

Alex can't be too stingy in giving a reward to the cute, obedient girl, Who was madly in love with him.

So he took initiative and captured her petals like juicy lips.

"Mummmmm!!~ "

Grace was on cloud nine, As he kissed her. Very seductive and alluring moans escaped her mouth.

Chapter 36 36. My Other First Times I (R-18 Medium)

"Aghhh mummm~"

Alex kissed Grace's plump cherry-like lips avidly.

Lustful and passionate moans of hers filled the small room creating a very sensual atmosphere.

Grace didn't know what was happening but she was enjoying it. The wet slippery sensation she felt on her lips was uncanny to her.

Her hands were hovering in the air behind his back, She wanted to hug him but was afraid that it would make him angry.

She didn't want to ruin it, Not again. She learns her lesson in the first time.

"MUHMMM!!! Ahhhhh~"

Suddenly Alex's sneaky long agile tongue slid into her mouth, Opening the barricade of her white teeth, And started roaming in it.

Very quickly, He finds her pink one in her mouth, and like a water snake coiled with hers.

This much stimulation she can't bear. Her hands subconsciously clenched his back with little strength.

Her whole body tensed up and with one last big moan which she was trying to suppress it, She reached her limit, and the next second she had a climax.

Her vagina wall clenched and her love juice escaped from her petal-like folds, Wetting the ground below her.

Huff Huff

"Are you okay Grace?"

Alex broke their kiss and looked at Grace, Who was struggling for air.

He got worried and asked her, She should not have weak lungs after the physical enhancement.

"Huff I-I am fine, We ca- Huff can continue."

Grace's whole body was in extreme pleasure, She didn't know that kissing can be this much exciting and challenging.

Alex was dominating her without leaving her anyway to escape other than to follow his lead and submerge herself into the ocean of pleasure.

And top of what's more exciting is that, This person is Alex, The man she madly loves. So the cocktail of love and lust overwhelmed her.

That's why her body is reacting like this. She was so excited that it made her body assume she was in threat, triggering the safety functions of the body.

"Let's take a one minute break."

Alex looked at her condition and held his raised up gun down, She had this extreme reaction. He had to go slowly with her.

So he lifted her body from the ground in a princess hug and put her gently on the bed.

Click

After that, he walked towards the door and locked it. This way no one would disturb them or walk on them when they divulge into lust.

Grace just looked at his actions without saying anything. Right now she was in a very dreamy state. She wasn't able to tell if this was a dream or reality.

She imagine, Being with Alex countless times before, But now she was going to do it with him. She couldn't believe it.

This whole experience was unreal to her. She was afraid she would wake up next second very disappointed in a wet bed.

"Why are you looking at me like this?"

Alex noticed her gaze looking at him weirdly and he couldn't help but ask.

Right now, She was looking very tempting. Maybe because of the enhanced charm or maybe the loss but full of desire filled in her eyes but her attractiveness for the opposite sex broke through the roof.

She was sitting on the bed, laying her back on the wall behind her. Her legs were slightly apart, Lifting her black skirt high, Which was giving him a glimpse of her nether region as she was still not wearing anything down there.

"No-Nothing, It-it's you look very handsome."

Grace pulled back to her senses, Her face quickly turned red like a tomato and in a flustered voice she answered him.

She noticed more and more that Alex was looking very very handsome than before, And because of that, Her madness for him also increased.

"Thank you, You too look ravishing, Right now Grace."

Alex slowly approaches the bed and with gentle moments comes too close to her. His voice also contains the meaning of desire.

But he, unlike Alia, Didn't start directly with Grace and wanted to go slow with her. Let her enjoy every second of this. At least he can do this for her, who can do anything for his happiness.

"Th-Thank you."

Grace didn't know why, every time she was with Alex she turned into a little girl. She wanted to scold herself. She was a woman. How come she was this weak in front of a man but everything she saw, that divine face, heard that celestial voice, She just couldn't help it.

"You are the perfect combination of cute and hot, Grace*Kiss*."

Alex couldn't help but say it, every time Grace acted like this, He felt like his blood was boiling. She would be a natural killer of man, If she was not in the reverse world.

That subconscious shy and yet seductive actions of hers, Were too much for any man to handle.

So he landed his lips on hers, Then there was no extra actions.

He was slowly yet passionately kissing plump lips of hers, Meanwhile his hands slowly unbuttoning her shirt.

His action was so gentle and careful like, She made a glass, fearing to break it.

He wanted to let her know with these actions that he too cares about her. She is also very precious to him. He wanted to spread the warmth of his passion in each and every part of her wounded heart.

"Mumhmm, Exhale mhummm~"

Grace was ready to face one more aggressive wave of pleasure but she was surprised by his actions.

She didn't understand why he changed his ways all of the sudden. There was also a moment of panic, Thinking that she did something wrong, Which made him dissatisfied.

But soon, Those worries vanished from her heart and were replaced with an immeasurable amount of joy.

She felt his care from his action, He was going slow because of worrying about her. She too was important to him and not someone to use as a tool and throw it aside after its work was done.

She wanted to cry. She didn't want anything from Alex before. Even his smile was enough for her but she never thought of a day, Where Alex would give her this gentle and sweet treatment.

This is enough for her, It doesn't matter if he will give her identity or not, If he would fuck around with others, As long as he still cares for her. She would be the happiest woman in the world.

"Grace, These eyes were made to look at the beauty of this world not to stain the face crafted by the gods."

Grace didn't notice but her happy tears of joy did escape from her eyes, Staining that beautiful craftsmanship of the god. After all, Only they are able to create something like her enchanting and alluring beauty.

He felt her hot tears wetting his cheeks, So he spoke in his husky voice, He looked at Grace's face whose closed eyes were kept shut.

"Let me help you with them."

Alex himself was very close to her and cupped her oval face in his hands.

Then he very slowly and gently, like a butterfly landing, Kissed on her closed eyelids, Then the second eyelid. After that, he kissed her cute little nose.

Soon like a dragonfly landed on her plump lips, Then on her delicate jade-smooth chin, After that at her white long neck, Then his kisses landed on her soft sweet bosom.

As he kissed softly, He was moving lower and lower, After bosom, he moved on her milky white flat stomach.

He then landed one kiss also on her lovely naval, Soon he got close to her lower abdomen, Where his action was stopped by the disgusting thing called a skirt.

Here Grace was overdosed by his romantic actions, This action of his was way too effective on her than the aggressive ones.

Her current feelings can't be explained in words, Each kiss of his was like sending a wave of current in her body and transcending her to another realm of excitement and joy.

Specifically, when he kissed her bosom and naval, She felt an indescribable phenomenon, This marvelous feeling outclass everything she felt before.

She felt like she would melt if this goes on, She was fearful and excited as he was moving lower and lower but to her disappointment, His moments abruptly stopped.

In annoyance, she opened her eyes, Just to see him unhooking her skit button with his teeth.

A shame and yearning came to her. She covered her face with her two hands but still left a gap in the finger to see his actions in longing.

"Here we go, Finally that disgusting thing is gone."

Alex successfully removed her skirt from her long smooth slender legs and threw it in the corner. Then his eyes fell on the sacred entrance of her pleasure cave, Where no man ventured before him and no one will after him.

This is exclusive just for him.

"Grace, Did I say before that your lips are very juicy and tempting?"

He looked at the dripping folds of hers under the cover of her bush and said in a teasing tone.

"You- I - Don't- Sorr- "

Alex's words crashed her once again. She didn't know how to answer this question. Alex did praise it before saying it was beautiful but she was too shy to say it.

A woman can also be shy in things like this especially if it was their first time.

"Th-Thank you."

She didn't know what to say, So she accepted the compliment and thanked him.

She was also glad, Alex wasn't disgusted by her. This is the 2nd time he praised her lower part. He actually liked her this way.

"Good girl, Here is your reward."

Lick

Alex was satisfied that she answered him, So he first spread hairs out of the way and stretched his long agile tongue, Then with one swift action, Licked over the outline of her wet entrance folds, Tasting the sweet elixir of life dripping from her.

Boom

"AHHHHH!!!! FUCKK!!!"

Grace didn't expect him to do this, She was not prepared at all.

As that hot wet tongue of his touched her folds, She felt like she was electrocuted. It was as if she touched the live wire, Her whole body trembled and the wave of pleasure from her vagina as a core spread throughout her body.

(A/N : There will be one more update today later in the day, So don't worry there will be some action, Not will be blue balls.

Like Always thank you for reading and have a good day ٩̂̈́.)

Chapter 37 37. My Other First Times II (R-18)

Grace feels an unprecedented amount of joy and elation.

She never thought that Alex would do something like licking a pussy for her, As most of the men were disgusted by even imagining this idea.

But he without thinking gave her that feeling of ecstasy, which other women can't get even after begging their boyfriends countless times, This fact also satisfy the weird taste in her heart

Huff

The sound of her heavy breathing reverberated in the small room, Her two white peaks which were bound by the restriction of her pink bra, Heaved up and down.

"Did you like it, Grace?"

Exhale

Alex didn't raise his head high but only looked towards her and asked. After the question, He lightly blows his hot breath onto the slit of her lower lips.

"Mhmm~ Li-Like it."

Grace's body felt like it was on the fire, As his hot breath touched her fleshy sensitive entrance, It felt like someone added fuel to her burning fire of lust.

She was not sure how long she was able to control herself, As each second was passing her urge to hop on onto his body and devouring thoroughly was increasing.

Only the fear of him getting angry was holding her back but that too became less and less effective.

"That's good to hear, After all this is my first time doing this."

Alex said to her so softly as if he was speaking to the child before stuffing his head in her crotch.

'First time? That means I am his first?'

Grace was taken aback, She thought he already did this with Alia yesterday night, and That's why he was able to know how to do this proficiently and was not disgusted by it.

To be honest, She felt a little jealous of Alia. She took all the first times of Alex, Which was her dream to get it.

But now he said she was his first, Didn't that mean she still has his first times? She was very elated knowing this thing.

She still did not lose to Alia, She did get Alex the first time, Not only normal first time eitherl but the one he didn't even do it with Alia.

In her thinking she didn't even notice that Alex was already stuffed his face down. At any moment, A wave of pleasure was going to hit her like a truck and drown her in lust and desire.

'Did he have any other first times remaining? If so, I wanted to get them all.'

That's the Grace though about, The joy of getting your lovers first is indescribable. She wanted to get as many of his first times.

Down between her legs, Alex felt her curly hair tingling his nose but it didn't stop him from moving further to explore the unexplored.

'This smell is very tempting.'

When he got close to her folded lips, The strong concentrated smell of hormones mixed with her released orgasm hit his face, making him more excited, His awakened dragon wanted to spread its muscles but bounds of his pants preventing it's escape

He pressed down his little brother to calm down, Then with his thumb and index finger, Removed the hairs aside, Which were covering up her dripping wet pleasure cave.

Lick Suck

After he unraveled the entrance, He gently unfolded her rose-petal-like lips, Exposing her pink fleshy cunt, and her erected cute little clint inside.

He curiously licked the entrance tasting the sweet fluid of her and then he landed in lips on her cute little erect clit and sucked it gently.

"AHHHHH MUMMM!!! FU-CK!!!"

Grace felt his action and like a current huge amount of pleasure bombarded on her, Her muscular smooth thighs subconsciously tighten squeezing Alex's head between her legs.

But this not only stopped Alex but he increased his sucking speed and then started lashing on her pitiful clit with his long tongue.

That tongue was like a hunter hitting her, She reached her limits very quickly. She put her backhand in her mouth and bit into it lightly trying to stop her loud moans.

Then she lifted her pelvis and little and pressed his head with her other hand even more onto her crotch and with the final yell, She had a climax. Every muscle in their body tightens for moments before she limply falls back on the bed, With her softened body.

"You cummed a lot, Grace. It's impressive considering how much he did before."

As Grace had an orgasm, Alex's face was very close to her cunt, So she squirted all her love juice on his face, Some even fell in his mouth, while he greedily drank those sweet juices.

Then he raised up his body and came close to her face, Lifting her chin with one finger, He commented.

It's really impressive. The amount of the release should be enough to make any normal person dehydrate but because of enhancement in the stats, She was totally fine. Making him wonder what her limit would be.

"Th-Tha sorr- Mummm"

Grace felt guilty and embarrassed. She was guilty because she pushed and squeezed Alex's head without his permission and was embarrassed because she just cummed in less than 15 seconds. Since Alex started to suck down there, This was very humiliating to her.

How can a woman last just mere seconds? In just 15 seconds she cummed. This was the disgrace of her femininity but she too can't control it.

That 15 seconds were barely held back by her. The pleasure and thrill of his action were too much, Plus the combination of this being his first time did the trick, She wasn't able to hold it in and was released.

But thankful Alex was not angry nor was he disgusted by her poor performance, On the contrary, he even praised her. She was happy, She wanted to say something but her lips were hot and sealed with his.

He was kissing her just after sucking her pussy, another woman might get disgusted by it but she can never be disgusted by his kiss.

So he also started to respond to him, She on her own put her small tongue in his mouth, Her two arms warped around his head tightly.

Slurp Lick

Alex didn't expect her to send her own tongue in his mouth by her own initiative, But he was only shocked for a second, He quickly starts sucking and licking her tongue with his.

He didn't know if it was his imagination but her saliva also tasted like sweet candy, So he divulged himself into it.

While removing his shirt and throwing it in the room without breaking the kiss, As his shirt was removed. The muscular white hairless chest comes from Grace.

Even though her eyes were closed, She felt his moments. Her hands left him and landed on his smooth chest.

Grace's hands started to run all over his chest and his abdomen 8-packs. Her slightly cold fingertips were running on his hot body, Giving Alex a different kinda feeling.

Soon her hands reached into his pant buckle, She can't wait anymore. Her sanity was nearly taken over by her lust. Her body is craving for attention. She wanted to taste his hot rod now.

Alex also didn't waste any time, He too wanted to calm down his anger of his little dragon, So he also helped her, and soon both were butt naked lying on the bed, Her pink bra rudely removed by him, Releasing her mounds from their captivity making them jiggle in the joy.

Then Alex took her into his embrace, Their hot sweaty naked bodies were rolling on that bed, Colling on to each other like a mating snakes.

"Ahh~ Umm"

His little brother from time to time rubs on her smooth stomach or on the damp hairy entrance of her pussy, making her release seductive moans and biting her lower lips under her white teeth from time to time.

"Huff Are you ready?"

Alex stopped rolling in the bed after some time and asked Grace who was under him. While he rubbed his fully erect cock's on her vulva, Covering it with her love juices all around till its base.

"Humm."

Grace didn't say anything, Other than a nasal voice of confirmation to him and bare herself to receive the unknown feeling.

There was little fear in her heart for the pain and the unknown, There was also happiness. The one who was going to make her from girl to a woman was her love, Alex.

So she was ready. She too wanted gave up her girl's identity and become a woman, Although she wanted to lose her virginity in some beautiful place after they had a very romantic date.

But it's not that bad, At least Alex will be one she was going to do it. She is happy with this fact.

If it was him then, It didn't matter if there was a romantic date or not, It also didn't matter if they were in some beautiful place or this cold hospital waiting room, As long as Alex was there with her. She is okay with this arrangement.

"Then here I go."

Alex grabbed her two legs to lift her pelvis a little high. Then he pointed his blushing cock which was fully covered in her love juices at her small pink hole.

After that, he adjusted the angle a little before moving his waist ahead, Although initially his cock experienced a lot of resistance but in the blink of an eye, His little brother fully submerged in her.

"FUCK!!!! AHFFF, WRONG-WRONG HOLE ALEX!!"

Grace shrieked in the pain, She felt her tearing pain as his cock rammed in her little asshole. A stinging pain mixed with pleasure hit her.

(A/N : Like Always thank you for reading and have a good day ૨૦૨૦.)

Chapter 38 38. My Other First Time III (R-18)

Grace felt very painful, Her tiny asshole felt like it would break apart as that hot broad long rod of Alex submerged inside her.

Yet she also felt a little weird. This pain was not only hurtful but also was a little pleasurable. She didn't understand why she did not feel that bad from this pain. She knew she definitely didn't have any questionable fetish.

"Ta-Take Gulp out."

But she still spoke to him in a pain-filled voice, It really hurt a lot. That sharp tearing pain was stinging her because tearing off her tiny asshole.

So she asked him to take it out, Thinking he did it by mistake and not on purpose. She didn't want him to freak out or become disgusted by putting his hot cock in her dirty place.

"Sorry, Grace but I can't. It feels too good here."

Alex leaned on her seductive naked body and whispered into her ears.

His dick currently felt like it was clenched in her soft warm cushions. The ring of her asshole was pressing all around his cock end, Refusing to let go.

Might be because of shock, Grace also tightens her clutch onto it giving him a weird but good kinda sensation.

Slam Pat

So he pulled his waist a little before once again slamming into her ass. His dick was completely inside her ass through his base. Her bubbly cheeks hit his crotch making a flesh hitting on each other's sound.

"Ahhhh~ It's h-hurt."

A wave of pain and pleasure once again hit her. She didn't want to admit it but she liked this sudden act of his.

A feeling of his hard hotness inside her is not only physical but mentally also quenching all the desire in her.

"Please bare it for a little while, It will start to feel good once you get used to it."

Alex grabbed her unrestrained boob and teased her erected pink nipple with one hand, While kissing and leaving the trail of wet hickey marks on her white neck he said to her.

"Wh-Why? No...Mummm~ Not my vagina? Th-That hole is disgusting."

A seductive moan escaped from her mouth as she was trying to speak. She was happy to hear he was so eager to do it with her, That he felt good, But she also was afraid that he would not like it or felt nauseated later on.

After all, that place is also very dirty. She can't take a risk of him disliking herself, So even though she weirdly likes it, She wants Alex to stop and do it with the right hole.

"No, Kiss You are too precious to be deflowered in a place like this. It has to be a special moment because you are special."

He spoke and landed his lips on hers and lightly kissed on her juicy cherry-like lips. His deep look at hers was full of doting and caring.

He also knows she wanted her first time to be like a fairy tale through plot. Yes, Although this is the reverse world, Some women also have fantasies like that. After all, everyone is built differently and has their preferences.

So how could he not fulfill her simple wish? It's really not suitable for her to lose her main virginity in a place like this.

That moment has to be memorable for her, A special one. Not here, not like this.

"So Grace, can you bear this pain for me this time, Please."

Alex dropped his voice and pleaded to her, His fire is already ignited, He has to calm it down.

"B-Be gentle."

How can she refuse if he asked her in this way? Right now she can even bear the burning of hell fire for him, Not to mention the little stinging pain.

So She turned her face to the side in shame and she muttered this words low as mosquito voice.

'I am special hehe~'

She didn't show it on her face but she was very happy and excited in her heart, She was laughing and giggling.

She was special to him. Even though he showed he cared about her through his actions before, She was still excited to hear it from his mouth.

She will never get tired of hearing her praises and the importance of him from his mouth. The rush she felt every time she heard him talk about it can't be described in words.

"I will, So be prepared. I am starting."

Slam Pat

Alex said to her and slowly pulled his waist back, Pulling half of his dick out of her pitiful tiny little bleeding asshole, Then with one swift motion slammed inside her again.

"Ahhh Argghn!!~"

A cry of pleasure mixed with pain was uttered by her as she felt his dick once again rudely enter inside her.

But she didn't complain, Her pussy started to secrete lots of love juices, Her ass also clenched onto his hard hot cock covering a seal trying to never let it escape from its bounds.

Slam Pat Slam* Pat

Alex at first was going slowly, but as Grace adjusted to his moments and pain, He increased his speed.

Soon in this room only bare flesh hitting each other and lots of loud breathing and seductive and sensual moaning started to reverberate.

Alex's both hands were holding her ass up bending her little, While his waist worked overtime to dig deeper into her.

Grace also was high on lust, Her face was filled with ecstasy and pure desire replaced the innocence in her eyes before.

The pain long stopped coming to her, Now she was only bombarded by the pleasures, an immeasurable amount of pleasure.

His dick was hitting and filling her with every sensitive point, giving her paramount pleasure.

"Haff I am- Am going to cum Grace."

Alex didn't plan to hold too long and turn pleasure into pain, So he also reached his limit.

Her ass was squeezing his dick very tightly, But this not only hurt him but her soft sensitive flesh ring created giving him a very comfortable feeling.

"Ahhh!! Ummhm Cu- Ahh~ Cum inside."

Grace also reached her limit, Her voice was trembling, A sensual and alluring moan was constantly coming out of her that tempting mouth.

As he spoke these words, She like she reenergized, A thought of receiving his seamen was overwhelming her senses.

A long fantasy of her going to come true, She will be filled by his hot baby batter. This thought also flared up all her lust, Making her reach the pinnacle of her pleasure.

"Argrrrr!! HERE I GOOO!!!"

Spurt

"YESSSS!! I AM CUMMING, I AM CUMMING FROM MY ASS!!!~"

Squirt

Alex grunted and with the final push of his waist, He pushed his whole dick inside her asshole, His glans swell inside her, and with pressure, his hot lava-like seamen filled her ass to the brim.

Grace felt his hot sticky liquid filling her insides and also had a very intense climax, Her pussy squirted and her ass tighten.

She yelled at the top of her lungs, threw her head back on the bed, and lifted her lower part even higher with help of her hands, Her two long legs warped around his waist.

She not only cummed from her vagina but also from her ass. This dual stimulus gave her intense pleasure.

Huff Huff

Grace closed her eyes to let her body time to take this overload of information, Now her whole body softened like it became limp. There was not an ounce of power left in her body.

Her breathing also became heavy, Making her two unrestrained white mounds enjoy the free ride.

Palt Plop

Alex's hard dick softens inside her ass and plops out of it with leaking white liquid.

"Did you like it? Or did It hurt too much?"

He lay his naked sweet body onto her hot one, Her two still erect nipples poking on his chest might be in protest of him stopping their free ride.

Alex lay his head near her ears and spoke softly, hitting her ear with his hot breath.

"N-No I- Huff like Huff It."

It's hard for her to speak properly right now. The stimulation of her body was too much. She needed little time to recover.

But that didn't stop her from answering, As his body lay on her. She wrapped her hands on his strong back and took him in a tight hug.

If she can't talk, She will go to show her liking for him in her actions. She really loved her first anal. This experience was unknown and adventurous but was also very pleasurable. She likes every second of it.

"Gi- Huff Give me Huff minute, Please."

Grace fears he will be angry not talking to him, So she replayed obviously very struggling with it.

"Take all your time."

Kiss

Alex looked at her, Who was on the brink of passing out. Maybe he used too much of his power. His perfect D, ecstasy hands can also run passively, Although in passive they are not as strong as when they are active but it seems it still has more than enough power she can handle currently.

So he gently said this and kissed her side rosy cheek. Before shifting his body onto the side and taking her in arms.

Because Grace was tightly hugging him, Her half body was on top of his muscular chest.

After that he didn't do anything, He just also hugged her and cuddled with her. Her warm soft naked body was really quite comfortable to cuddle.

...

"Why is he not picking up my call? We already did the deeds. Is he still angry at me? But...last night he was that proactive. It didn't seem that way."

Alia was seated in the living room sofa of Rose's apartment, Looking at the two phones on the coffee table confusedly.

She didn't understand why he was not answering her back. She had to use Natasha's phone as her personal number is still blocked by him and yet that too out into blacklist by him.

Normally, He at this period of time at least called her 3 times, Which of course was ignored by her because of work but now he didn't do it even once now that she was waiting for it.

'Is he also felt the same?'

Feeling frustrated and annoyed, She thought about it. She also used to ignore his call. Most of the time it was because of work but now she was at the receiving end. It felt quite sour.

She didn't like this feeling, She always wanted to be in control and now she loses her control making her angry and panicked.

No, She can't lose control. If that happens everything will be destroyed. She can't repeat the same mistake, not again. She needs that control back only then everything will be working smoothly and the event like those will never repeat itself.

"Where is he?"

She picked up her phone and dialed the personal number of Natasha and as always spoke vaguely.

She needs to know where he is, Only then she will be sure and rest assured.

"That- Miss, Alex is currently in the city 1st hospital, 3rd floor, In waiting room alone with Grace."

Natasha was sweating buckets downstairs sitting in the car. She comes back here after dropping off Alex at the hospital.

She then got a call from her miss, Her mood was very good, A little more than good. She asked her to buy some pain relief balm and other things.

It's odd things asked by her but she is also not only a loyal bodyguard but also a personal assistant, So she brings those things to Alia.

But now this is the 10th call after the first one. Each time she called, The coldness in her voice became more and more as the tone became calmer.

She knows someone provoked her miss, This is calm before the storm. The volcano will burst any moment now.

Now Alia asked her this question, She felt like this was a death sentence. How could she answer it? Say that the man last night took your virginity is currently with another woman alone in the room?

That would be instant death for her, Still, there is no way, She gritted her teeth and answered. It's not hard to know where Alex is. The Miller family is like a king in this Berlin city. It's very easy to know someone's location, not to mention Alex was in their own hospital.

"Okay"

Beep-Beep

Natasha only heard a one-word reply and then the call was cut-off.

"I am super dead."

Chapter 39 39. Alia's Past

"Hiss~"

Alia who was sitting on the luxurious sofa took a cold breath as she tried to apply pain relief balm on her red swollen private part

The lower part of the sore and burning with sharp pain hitting her senses. She now can barely move her leg much less walk, Only she knew how she managed to walk to the living room to grab her phone.

But she was not mad or had any resentment towards Alex. She didn't blame him a bit.

She decided to enter his room on her own and do those things, So she also had to face the consequences of it. That's her ideology.

If something happened to you, It was the consequence of your own series of actions. No matter if it's good or bad, You can't blame others for it, That's why she is this controlling, And the reason why she didn't blame Alex.

This sweet pain is always welcome for the consequences of her actions over the events of that day. She will never repeat the same mistake again, Never.

Alia opened a gallery on the phone and pressed one individual picture and looked at it with nostalgia and pain in her eyes.

This picture got opened and the whole screen was occupied by the figure of a little handsome man.

His face was 3 points similar to Alia. From his looks, he was quite young with a very happy smile on his face.

"I-I am so-sorry, I am so sorry brother."

She held her phone tightly in her embrace and sobbed, A ice queen, an emotionless monster for the world, A woman who titled as crazy by others because of her persona now crying pitifully like a little girl.

The man in the picture is or was her younger brother. A middle child between her and Rose.

She used to dote on him, He was sent to study abroad with her at a very young age, Rose was at that time just a little 1-year infant.

Although he was adopted by her family, she used to love him as her blood brother. Her mother had misandry, So she didn't even want to go near him. In that house only she was close to him. He used to run around her back like her little tail.

Wherever she went, He was with her. So the duo of she who was 3 years old and he who was 2 ½ years old were always seen together.

She was also lonely in that house, Her mother was always busy handling office affairs, As for her father? She never met him. He was dead after some time when she was born, Also because of her inherent cold personality other people and servants in the mansion stayed away from her afraid of offending her.

So he is with her keeping her away from that loneliness. She was happy he was there as he didn't care about her cold personality.

When they sent them to study abroad, She didn't show it on her face but she was scared, But thankfully he was there for her.

If not, She didn't know how she was able to manage in that unknown territory. She is not very good at communication. So he was not only her brother but also a only friend.

"It was all my fault, Sob If I was careful If I didn't let you do that. That will never happen."

Alia is overwhelmed by her emotions, It's hard to imagine that someone like her can also have this weak side.

When she had time, She opens his image, Not for remembering him but to torture herself. Not a single day passed in which she didn't remind herself that she was responsible for his death.

She was the sole reason why he died. If not for her he was alive and happy. If she took control of the situation in her hand at that time. He was with her right now.

They spent 5 years living abroad. Those years, although not that good but not bad either, She learned a lot. Surprisingly she was quite a fast learner.

Their life was going fine. Like every child at that age, They were carefree and full of innocence. They often used to play all day after school until they fell asleep in the garden behind the mansion made for them.

Their caretakers had to always carry them to bed. Those days were the best days in her life. She used to feel happy, sad, angry, all the emotions like all humans.

But that incident turns her into an emotionless monster. She knows she is a monster. Only a monster word is suitable to describe current her.

It was that incident that made her like this, The biggest regret of her life, and the moment she changed completely.

...

"Jake!! We should go now or the teacher will be worried."

An 8-years old loli Alia walks behind a boy around the same-age as hers, Yelling at him to turn back to their camp.

They were on a school trip here to camp. So Jake, a younger brother of Alia, dragged her to explore the surroundings on their own.

He developed tomgirl personality right now, So he was always used to doing some wild things like this one before but for his stunt she was worried.

Although there were no big predators or venomous animals in this place, it was still not safe to wander around in unknown areas. They might get lost or at least they would worry their teacher and get scolded.

"Come on big sis, I promise we just explore this little part near the river and we will go back, Anyway it's night right now, We can go back later. The teacher will not even know we are missing."

Jake, who was a head taller than Alia, turned around and spoke to her.

At this age, men grow faster than women. Only when the growth hormone in women kicks in, They start to grow like a wild bamboo.

"No!! We didn't know what was ahead. If you want we can come back here tomorrow, but for now let's go back."

Alia didn't budge, She was older here, So she had to be the reasonable one and stop his wayward actions.

If not for he is right now physically stronger than her, She has long since dragged him back to camp other than wasting her breath here arguing.

"Come on, Don't be like that big sis. I thought you were a courageous girl, But I think I was wrong."

Jake didn't want to go back, He wanted to see the river shore. They are so close to seeing the river, He can't turn away now.

He knew how to handle this Alia, So he started taunting her. This trick always worked as it was used and tested countless times by him.

"I- I am not a wuss. I am a brave girl".

Alia strengthened her flat chest and answered him. She is not a wuss, She is a brave girl.

Jake's words are quite effective on her simple mind of this age, So she easily falls into his trick.

"No, you are not brave, If you are brave. You come with me to check there."

He easily sees his big sis has been tricked by him, So he tries to provoke her more. He wanted to go there and see the river at night. For some reason, he had this extreme yearning to go there.

But he was afraid of going there alone at night, That's why he dragged Alia with him. After all, he was a child too.

"But teac- "

"Pakk Pakk, Alia is a chicken~. "

"I am not chicken."

"Pak pakka pakka."

"Stop!! I am not chicken."

"Alia is Chicken pak pakka."

"Okay fine, We go but we just take a peek and come back quickly."

Alia still had some sense remaining, So he still wanted to go back but Jake didn't give her a chance to speak and started to call her chicken.

He knows she hates when someone calls her chicken, This was his trump card, He knows she will definitely agree now.

And that's what happened, Even though Alia was more sensible than other children, At the end of the day she still was just a little girl, So she wasn't able to bear someone calling her a chicken.

So she agreed to go with him, A decision she will regret all her life.

"That's good, I love you big sis."

Jake got happy and wanted to hug her but she had a cleanliness freak OCD perk, So how could he be able to hug her? Alia in a swift move dodged his hug and walked ahead.

"Hehe~ "

Jake wasn't embarrassed by her actions. He is used to her acting like this. He just rubs his back and giggled before he quickly catches up with her.

"It's very beautiful, isn't it big?"

They finally reached the river, A sound of a strong current of water was both terrifying and enchanting to hear.

A full moon comes out of the dark clouds, Illuminating the whole place, adding a different charm to this celestial scenery.

"It's very beautiful."

Alia was stunned to see this beauty of nature, For a moment worry in her heart disappeared and only appreciation for this view remained.

"Let's take a closer look at the water."

Jake had the urge to get close to it. He didn't understand why but this urge was very strong. This indescribable feeling blocked off all the fear in his heart and he walked close to the shore.

"Jake stop, Don't go near or I will leave you alone."

Alia was startled by his actions, She wanted to grab him to stop his action but she was too late. He was already walked outside of her hand range.

She knew she was not strong enough to drag him back, So she also used her words to threaten him. This way he will come back as she also knew his weak point was that he was afraid of the dark.

"Please just wait a minute, I just wanted to take a look."

But he didn't take her words seriously, All his attention was on going there on the shores of this river.

"Jake, I will go away, Look I am going now."

Alia got frustrated when he ignored her, So to try and show him that she really meant it she turned her back on him and started walking towards the camp area.

Splash

She only took a few steps before she heard the sound of something or someone falling into the river.

This sound stopped her in their tracks, She rigidly turned her neck around in the direction of shore just to see that there was no figure of Jake anywhere.

Her brain stopped working, She didn't understand what she was seeing, Her brain didn't allow her to face this reality at all.

"JACK!!!"

She stared at that empty place for a few seconds before a fearful worried cry of shout escaped from her mouth.

Chapter 40 40. Birth Of Ice Queen

"No...No, NO!!!"

Alia just stared blankly at the empty place, Muttering to herself, Trying to understand what was happening.

She can't accept this reality, Not at all.

This can't be true. Her brother will not fall into the river. She wanted to rush there and look for him, But her feet were like they were filled with lead. It became so heavy that she couldn't move at all.

Not only her feet but her whole body were frozen in place. She wanted to yell at the top of her lungs, Shouting for help but her voice was also blocked in her throat. Her body was completely immobile because of shock.

"JAKE!!!"

Finally, her voice came back after a few seconds, So she shouted in an agonizing shriek and ran toward the shore.

But at the shore she stopped in her tracks, She looked around, Her two worried eyes were hovering over the surroundings finding his figure.

She still has a glimmer of hope that this was some sick joke, Jake just playing with her. He will come out from his hiding place any moment now, laughing holding his stomach.

This time she will not forgive him that easily for playing with her like this, She will sternly punish him for this stunt.

"JAKE!! Come out now, It's enough to play around!!"

Alia with her now hoarse voice yelled out, There was an expectation in her heart that he will come to the next moment, smirking and apologizing.

To her despair, however, he didn't come out. It's been nearly 30 seconds from the initial splash to now, In this mere few seconds of time. Alia experiences lots of emotions.

An anger for his actions, fear that something happened to him, hate for herself that she didn't stop him in time, Anxiety about what to do now.

These emotions were quite overwhelming for a child her age, She didn't want to feel this at all, She couldn't bear it.

'Should I jump too?'

This thought passed through her mind. She thought she could find Jake as a river should be flowing in the same way, right?

But she wasn't able to jump, Her natural survival instinct kicked in preventing her from doing this foolish thing.

At this point, she remembers that she can't swim. Jumping in the river is equivalent to suicide.

It's marvelous to see the inherent survival instinct work in real time. Alia who was still a child didn't realize the threat of jumping into this river but her body did. This threat of death was enough to stop her from harming herself.

"No. I have to, He should be afraid. Asking for my help."

Alia couldn't let her brother die, Jake's crying pleading for help looked passed through in her mind, His helpless drowning image was too much for her, As just like her he too didn't know how to swim.

So she had to save him. As a big sister, it was her duty, But she didn't know how to do this. She is still just 8 years old. No matter how high her IQ was, In situations like this one requires experience and a calm mind, Which she was lacking.

That's why she fought back her fear, The warning of her body of threat, the fear in her heart of drowning, and decided to jump in.

Splash

After making the decision, Alia didn't waste any more time, and she herself jumped in the river but as she landed in the water, She realized how foolish her decision was.

At first, she flowed with the current but soon she started to drown. That cold water went into her nose, eyes and mouth. She started to splash her hands and legs on the water out of instinct but that was quite futile in front of the force of this mighty river.

She started to suffocate. It was getting very hard to hold her breath, and soon she couldn't hold it any longer.

Cough * Cough*

As she exhaled, Her body inhaled on its own, also bringing the cold water of the river into her lungs. She started coughing violently trying to throw that water out but this action only filled her lungs more quickly.

As that cold water started to fill in her lungs, Her vision started to blacken. A very contrary feeling she started to feel in her chest. Other than feeling cold, She started feeling a warm burning sensation.

This time fear of death took over her completely and at this moment, Thought of Jake disappeared from her mind.

Now only one thought was in her mind, Survive!!

She didn't want to die, A natural fear of death terrified her. She wanted to see her mother again, She wanted to eat lots of sweet candy, She wanted to go to the amusement park at least once. There are lots of things she wants to do.

Alia's little child's brain finally collapsed. She wanted her mother to be here. Only her mother can save them at this moment. In her eyes, her mother is invincible. There is nothing she can't do.

But she can only think of it that way, Her senses started to dim down, As darkness started to take her in its embrace, Her eyelids became so heavy that she couldn't keep them open anymore. She wanted to sleep, A deep sleep so that she would not feel this terrifying feeling ever again.

'I don't wanna die, I didn't even save Jake yet.'

This was her final thought before she became unconscious. Soon she will become nothing but a floating corpse in this river but she can't do anything about it other than just wait for the reaper to come and rip her soul.

Rumble

At this moment an anomaly started to happen in her body. Her heart started to feel cold as if it was frozen. Extreme glacier chillness ran through her body.

Freeze

Alia being the one, Who has the fate of the main heroine, So she is impossible to die here. Her halo of protection was triggered and she became awakened, A dream of many humans.

Not only that, But the legendary SS-Class superpower, Ice Queen was bestowed upon her.

As she awakened her superpower, The whole river around 10 meters frozen solid, She herself was thrown out of the river onto shore by her subconscious thoughts controlling ice.

Even water in her lungs was frozen and forced out of her body on its own without leaving any injuries behind.

After all, how can she as an ice queen be able to get hurt by ice? Ice can't harm her at all.

Cough Cough

Alia coughed in an unconscious state, And her lungs started to work again. Although she still needs medical treatment but at least she was breathing, She will not die yet.

Sirens

She didn't know how long she was "asleep" but when she woke up, Only the sound of the sirens of police cars, and ambulances were all around.

Lots of people were talking in the background but she didn't understand anything. Soon a sharp pain struck in her brain, and a burning sensation in her chest came back.

"Wait, she woke up!! Alia, are you feeling any pain in your body? Tell me quickly about it."

Suddenly a woman which was wearing a doctor's white coat with group of nurse ran to her and asked her in a very concerned and fearful voice

She can't let anything happen to this girl under her supervision. The background behind Alia is very terrifying. She can't afford it.

"Nothing."

An icy cold word uttered by Alia, There was not an ounce of emotion in this voice. It was very plain like a robotic one.

This is not only a terrified doctor attending her but also Alia herself was surprised by her own tone.

Then she also understood one more thing, She couldn't feel the pain, or to say she couldn't feel anything, no sadness or any kind of emotions at all.

The burning chest and sharp pain in her mind were present there but she couldn't feel it. This is as if she was piloting her body from a 3rd perspective.

She knew it was there, But there was no pain. At best it was just like little pressure on her skin.

"Do- Gulp Don't worry, Heli ambulance will be here at any moment to take you to the hospital for further examination."

Doctor, although fearful of speaking in front of Alia, She still spoke little, She didn't want to enter the bad book, Alia.

"Jake?"

There were no emotions on her face nor did in her voice, Even talking about her brother, The reason why she even jumped into the river in the first place, She felt nothing.

As if she didn't care about if he is alive or dead. This feeling was very scary for her but unfortunately, even fear can't be felt by her.

Everything was cold. Her thinking became very clear. She only calculating with pure logic without any bounding of other moral or emotional factors, So she already had an answer to her question. They didn't find Jake.

If they did then he should be laying next to her.

"Th-They are still searching, Don't worry they will find your brother soon."

The doctor didn't know how to answer her. It was not something an 8 years old should know about but she still said it. The aura this 8-year-old released was very scary. As he saw through her already.

"...."

Alia didn't reply, She just closed her eyes to rest, Her heart was still like the surface of the lake, The news of they did not find him didn't affect her at all. She already knew it.

Jake was worthless in Alia's eyes, Not worth worrying about.

This is the origin, The birth of the cold emotionless Ice Queen, Alia.

"How long has it been? I had forgotten how pain feels."

Alia finally calmed down. After the decades she felt this emotion once again, She felt like a human again not just a cold calculating machine.

She used to see Jake's photo every day not only because she wanted to be torture herself but also to remind herself, She was human.

This photo was the last hanging thread, Which was kept her bound to her humanity, if not she long since became a bloodthirsty demon.

But today a miracle happened and she started to feel emotions. A long-lost feeling finally came back.

To be honest, She didn't hate her superpower for turning her into that cold heartless monster, But was grateful for it. If not for this power, She would be dead in that river that day.

Also, Her superpower is the one, Which gives her the strength to move forward from that trauma. If not she didn't know what should have happened to her.

"I should go and find Alex. He should be the first to know about this change."

Alia was not dumb like Rose, She can guess the reason why she was able to feel once again had to be Alex.

It's not a coincidence that after doing that with him, She gains her ability back. So she wanted to share her joy with him. He should be the first to know about this news.

She felt a bubbly feeling in her heart, She was happy and that she wanted to go and meet him.

'Will he be shocked seeing me like this? hehe~'

Alia couldn't help but imagine what would happen, When Alex saw her like this, What his reaction would be. She wanted to give him a surprise and see it herself.

She also wanted to show that bitch Grace, Alex is her man, So she should stay away from him. They already crossed the final line, While Grace just like every licking dog, Licking to end for nothing.

"Hiss Fuck!! It still hurts."

Alia wanted to stand up and walk but as she did, Sharp pain struck her brain. Still, she bear with it, and a weirdly strange steps walked out of the house.

...

[Ding! Friendly reminder host, System detected the appearance of a new protagonist, Being cautious is advised.]

"What!!?"

Alex, who was sleeping in the arms of Grace, was alarmed by the system's notification and woke up in an instant. He was confusingly looking at the notification panel.

(A/N : Like always thank you for reading and have a good day ǫŸ~ .)
