Chapter 222 220. Cute And Hot (R-18 Light)

"Huh...Ahhhh!~"

Gloria was still processing what Alex said when she felt the ground below her feet slip away as she was about to tumble down on the ground in panic she screamed.

She reached out in a desperate attempt to grab something in order to prevent herself from falling but all she was able to grab was a warm soft but muscular thing stopping her fall.

It is a weird mixture of things. It has the appropriate hardness but also has that warm softness giving an uncanny sensation to her. There was deja vu that she knew what it was but she just was not able to put her figure on it.

Squeez

So she by instinct squeezed that thing making her feel amused by how muscular this thing was. She can feel the distinct muscle and the power in it.

"Hey, at least ask me on the date first before trying to go to 2nd base."

A very seductive voice rang in her ears which sent a wave of current through her body making her bones soft. Fortunately there was no need to fear of falling as she was not on the ground.

"Wait!? You..How..That..."

Gloria finally opened her eyes and saw that breathtaking face which had been hunting her for a while now, But then she was even more bizarre thing.

Right now she, like a prince was being held in the arms of Alex, While the soft muscle thing she was so amused by was nothing but his smooth exposed chest.

The moment she realised that she withdrew her hand at lightning speed being flustered by what she just did, she was being shy like she was a teenager with her first love.

Well technically Alex is her first love but she is not teenagers, But grown ass women of mother of one daughter.

Either way she looked cute and hot at the same time showing off her mature feminine charm that young women can only dream of getting one day.

Alex afterwards did not waste time on teasing her any more, He slowly lay down that flustered fairy on the bed and slowly took off his white shirt reveling his upper muscular physique.

Glup

There was gulping sound come from his behind as Alex felt the burning gaze of desire stick on his body wanting to devour him whole.

Alex knew that given her what she wanted and teased that adultLolii who was going through the crisis on her own.

How badly she wanted to take a bite of this forbidden fruit right now but she holding herself back so as not to make things awkward for Alex.

If not for the threat of Bellondona, Liza would not be able to stop herself right now and jumped on this beautiful hunk's body.

But that damn witch is there, It's okay Alex mess with other low-status women, It doesn't matter much as long as he is being clean about it to Bellondona.

It's just the moment someone like her try to take a bite at him, It's no longer be matter of Alex just playing around, It would be war between two families as her action would be labelled as trying to steal Bellondona's finances.

She being older than both Bellondona and Alex will be the culprit and so as punishment not only she will be needed to bleed a hefty fortune of her family but worse would be she will not be allowed to meet Alex.

That threat of never being able to see her cutie pie was her motivation to hold herself back and just watch others enjoying what she yearned for. What an irony, The fortune that gives her right to be with Alex is the same one that prevents her from being with him.

'This loli's brain is online, That is new.'

Alex seeing her restraint over her desire, Normally this woman who has the mentality to take what she desires without any worry would have hopped down on him seeing him in this state.

But maybe what he said to her in the car actually affected her more than he realised or she is doing this for a different reason.

Whatever may be the case may be, Alex was happy she was behaving well, and so if you act well, You get a reward. That is a universal rule.

Zip Drop

Alex unbuckled his pants and then straight away dropped them on the ground standing butt naked in the ward.

"My eyes are up here you naughty unicorn."

Alex with a sly smile on his lips just turned around to face Liza whose eyes nearly popped out of her eye socket by the utter disbelief of what she was seeing.

Her mouth is unknowingly half open and this woman is legit drooling his whole stature and manhood, A string of her saliva was dripping down unbeknownst to her.

"No, I-I-I was not staring at anything."

Liza panicked being caught red-handed like that ogling at a man half of her age, That too who is technically her nephew by the relationship between two families.

So she outright refused it but there no power in her words not her eyes leave from his wand, Those twin pairs of gems were locked onto their target trying to get a look of that monster as much as she could.

"Why not? Well, pity I especially turned for you to see, Sigh anyway if you don't want to watch it in action, Please close your eyes."

Alex, being sadistic, replied in his regret-filled voice as he once again turned back facing Gloria leaving stunned Liza looking at his back.

'Damn it, Why did I even open my mouth?'

Liza cursed herself for saying stuff too quickly, It was obvious Alex was teasing her but she turned his feelings around making her regretfully lose the right to view that piece of art.

Just now hopefully he would forget this embarrassment of hers after he comes out of his trance later.

"Aunty, It might hurt a little, But don't worry I will make it worth the pain."

Alex after teasing did not waste time and quickly hopped on the bed, sitting on her knees in between the slender legs of Gloria who was just staring at him like a deer in headlight.

She did not even dare to make a squeak, hearing she might fear Alex off from doing this. She just looked at him confused but excited as he positioned himself between her.

It was only when she saw Alex with his throbbing beast making her way towards her moist trenche that the situation fully got into her mind, Which made her face crimson red.
