Chapter 223 221. Exploring Chamber Of Secrets (R-18)

"You...Why will it hurt?"

Gloria spoke out of instinct, She still thought this was some kind of last wish or some strange final dream in legend that was being fulfilled, So she did not care about moral issues anymore.

So when she heard it would hurt she could not help but curiously ask why it would? She is a mother of two, there is no hymen of such a thing, And she is also wet enough that it would not be going to hurt.

Then why did Alex say it would hurt? Did he not know how this sex thing works, So he just went by the things he heard on the internet?

If that is the case then she feels he is too cute, after which her heartbeat increases as she comes to realise that it would be his first time and so she will be his first time.

Even though this is not real in her mind, She still felt excited that it was hard to contain her joy. It's a weird kinda conquest. After getting able to get it for the first time with someone like Alex is an achievement in itself.

And still, if this is not his first time seeing how little he knows about this then he is still less experienced which is also a thing to brag about.

"Ohh, First tell me aunty when was the last time someone explored your chamber of secrets?"

Alex was amused by her reaction. Right now he was not under the influence of that stupid halo of that dumbass, So it would not take him a lot of time to understand the meaning in her eyes.

This woman is a spitting image of Grace, Well Grace is a spitting image of her, As both of them reacting the same way to his advances, it gives him also a sense of conquering.

"Huh!? What chamber of secre-Ehh!!"

Gloria when heard this strange word could not understand what he meant by that? Their family do have chambers but she didn't have her own, and Alex should not know about her family, So it made her confuse.

She wanted to ask him but then stopped abruptly as she got her answer from Alex.

"This is what I mean."

Alex spoke to her as he rubbed his glans on her dripping labia pushing just a little inside teasing her with it.

"So can you answer me now?"

Alex spoke to her in that seductive voice as he slowly took out that useless hospital gown off her, gently revealing her porcelain rosy skin underneath, Which surprisingly was even smoother and softer than Grace, Her grown-up daughter.

He asked her as the tip of their fingers grazed past the outline of her still-covered ample bosoms erected nipples tickling her, making her feel hotter and hotter as the flame of desire was blazing in her heart.

"I-I-I don't remember."

Gloria was awestruck by his actions, She felt like her body was set on a blazing inferno. There was also that strong itching all over her body with yearning to be touched by the man in front of her.

And so in this state she is hardly able to form a word. On top of that being teased by him in her this sensitive state, It was really hard to keep it together..

Even then this is asked by Alex and that too in a way that even if she wanted she can't deny him, So she honestly answered him.

Indeed she doesn't know when was the last time she was intimate with someone, all those memories are quite blurry but by her estimation it would be no less than 22-23 year's.

She used to be quite a busy woman. There was no time for useless things like sex, then there was a feud with her family and of course there was later Grace to take care of.

Amidst of this, she didn't even think of finding a partner much less go around being intimate with others, So this question was shameful for her to say.

How can she as a woman admit that she was in a dry spell for more than two decades? What kind of impression would she have of her? Is she not even good enough to get laid for that long? What does that say about her?

So it's better to say she did not know as it was not a lie, She indeed did not know exactly how much time had passed, This way she can answer him and also avoid her embarrassment.

"Well, it doesn't matter. After this, you are not gonna remember that anyway."

Alex tore open the hospital gown as he came to the realisation that to open it fully he needed to open knots of behind, Which was small work but he didn't wanna do it.

As he ripped that gown removing the only thing that was forcing Gloria, He saw the heavenly scene, Her body was like a work of art, small places were small big were big, She was just perfect.

Jiggle

Her twin mounds celebrated their freedom showing off their might, But it did not last long as Alex's evil palm seized them in his grip thoroughly enjoying her softness.

"Ahhh!~ B-Be gentle, Mummmm!~"

A sensual moan escaped from her tempting mouth as she showed a slight facade of resistance to Alex as he pinched her bud in his index finger and thumb.

This is killing Gloria, Even though it was not that long of foreplay but she could not wait for it to reach the final destination.

The love justice that was released by all this seeped through her sensitive petals drenching the hospital mattress below them, It is dying to get attention from the man for which it was so inviting.

But she also didn't wanted to appear as desperate, So she didn't beg for him to fuck her already but she was not sure how long she can hold off her that last bit of dignity till she would kneel in front of her desire.

"Giggle You know Grace also said the same thing to me at the start but later begged me to be rough with her."

Alex adjusted his position right below her nether region rubbing his cock head on her entrance, Which made her pussy twitch each time.

"Wait!!! What?? What do you mea- FUCK!!!!"

Slam

Gloria was lost in ecstasy as her urging cave finally got attention from Alex but hearing those words any anyone would come out of their blissful trance, She too came out of it with shock.

But before she could finish her sentence, She felt a hot hard thing ram into her tearing its way through expanding her insides filling each corner of her vagina.

It was shameful to admit it but she reached her peak just from that overwhelming hit of pleasure which hit her like a truck. She quickly hugged Alex tightly wrapping her legs around his waist as she released herself while his manhood was still inside her.

(A/N : Don't worry this is yesterday's promised extra chapter, today's chapter will come at the usual time.
