Chapter 224 222. Storm Is Coming (R-18)

*Huff* *Huff* *Huff*

Sound of heavy breathing was reverberating in the room, As two figures can be seen laying on top of each other on the hospital bed.

Gloria's hot breath was hitting Alex's neck where she put her head on rest because she didn't have any strength remaining in her body, Her body was still wrapped around Alex like a snake.

From time to time it was convulsing because of the aftertaste of that orgasm still bombarding her senses.

Gloria just lay below Alex still recovering from her intense orgasm, She never before experienced anything like this exhilarating, This was soothing out of this world.

It's not that she did not have an orgasm before but never like this one, Heck she still was not how this is humanly possible, This orgasm broke all her defence.

The hypocritical morals she was afraid of were washed away in the flow of her love fluid and so was the shame she was feeling in the beginning. Right now even if she finds out this all was actually happening and not a last wish vision.

Rather than being panicked she would be excited as he convinced her that whatever she has to do or face to get him, It would be all worth it.

And now she was more than before convinced that they two are meant to be together, Just look at how he was feeling her insides, His manhood as if specially created for her hitting all her sensitive pieces.

She was like a lock of which Alex is one and only key. It is a perfect match, There is nothing to complain about, Just perfect even in minute parts.

"Don't tell me you're done, I have not started yet."

Alex, after giving her a moment to calm down, Spoke to her nibbling on her soft ear and whispering coquettishly with his lethal charm.

*Bang*

The moment Gloria heard that her heart nearly jumped out of her body to the extent this shocked her.

How many women yearn to hear these words come out from their beloved? Unfortunately, not everyone has that fortune. Most men just want to sleep after doing one quickie saying they are tired making them use their hands for the rest.

But here the man asking her for more rounds while she was out could in the first push. She didn't know if she should be embarrassed or happy about this but either the case she just hit the jackpot.

"No, but I want to be on top."

Gloria in that excitement did not hold back and answered honestly but also told her desire to be on top

After all, she is a woman. How can she just lay down and let the man do all the work like this? It should be her role to provide him pleasure, Give him as great a time as she possibly can.

Only that way he will not leave her in search of someone better than her.

"Sorry but I can't do it, I like to be on top...Also how can I give you a paramount of pleasure while laying down?"

Alex denied her request. If it was normal times, he had no problem letting this plum milf do the job and try her best to please him in anyway possible but this is his life and death thing.

He can't take a chance with that kinda threat and so he took the lead.

"But..."

"Shhhu!~ Not a word, Just lay there and enjoy, If you like it don't forget to give me verbal compliments just like Grace do*Kiss*."

Gloria still did not want him to take the lead but she halted in her speech as Alex's slender finger rested on her erogenous lip, Which is her weakness.

Just as he touched her lips, A shock wave ran through her body. Though the severity was not as strong as that first initial hit but it was not any worse, This muddled her mind for a moment.

Even her vaginal walls once again tighten around Alex's manhood as she is utterly deflected by that one move this quickly, This shows how much sexually compatible they are with each other as he knows all her weaknesses.

Seeing her stop like deer in headlight, Corner of Alex's lips raised in his trademark evil smirk as he increased the power of Ecstasy's hands and H-tongue for the next move.

So he just quickly spoke his words not forgetting to make sure that she should hear the name of Grace as it would be useful for later parts.

After which without giving her a chance Alex landed a kiss on her erogenous lips, Her second-most sensitive part completely sealing them with his plum ones.

"Mummmm!!~"

Gloria just like before drowned in the sea of pleasure forgetting the key information Alex just dropped on her, She just wanted to be lost in this ecstasy.

That soft warm touch of his on her lips and the simultaneous twitching of his rod inside her is the thing she never knew wanted this badly.

She just enjoying herself without caring for a hot whether or not she would get addicted to this. All she knew was to enjoy herself for once in her life.

Alex on the other hand kept their kiss intact as he traced his fingers over her seductive curvy outline as he reached her perky ass.

So he just squeezed it making Gloria moan in his mouth as he lifted her ass a little up in a position it would be easy for him to kiss her and so did his deed.

For someone like Alex who now has lots of experience in this stuff, it did not take much to align her in such a position that he didn't need to use his hands any more for support.

After which his left hand traced back to her left unattended boob, while his right hand combed through her hair as he supported her head a little higher, bringing her closer towards him.

She too wrapped her free hands around his neck, pulling him towards her lips as her grip tightened around his waist, trying to take more of him inside her as she was once again itching for the action.

*Pull* *Slam* *Smack***

This was a signal for Alex, he did not miss it, he raised his hip up nearly pulling himself out to her pussy before slamming back in, making a wet fleshy noise.

The left hand of Alex also twisted and pinched the erected pinkish nipple of hers while his tongue swirled on her highly sensitive lips.

"OHHHHH!! FUCK!!!!!!~"

All the sense of Gioia was suddenly bombarded by the overwhelming pleasure, way more than previous one, Gioia forgot about everything, she just dug her nails in the back of Alex and released that primal howl as her whole body became tense as floodgates broken off her cave.

*Bang* *Gush* *Spurt* *Spurt***

A huge amount of liquid secreted from her walls, tightening around his dick, massaging Alex, but because of that, that liquid could not be able to move out and so tried to push the naughty intruder out.

But how can it have the strength to push back that monster? All it was doing was to prepare the field for the storm that was about to set off there.
