Chapter 341: 339. How To Train Your Dragon VI (R-18)

Alex couldn't help but to curse in his heart as he felt the little action of this little big succubus. His already fully erected third leg was being squeezed under her plump body teasing, rolling between her soft hot smooth stomach to her wet slippery pelvis.

The pre cum of his already releasing mixing along with her celebratory love juices.

As she moving her big butt, She intensely or unintentionally rubs her wet folds over the length of his manhood.

If not for the fact Alex is still wary of her currently unstable S-Rank powers, He would have long since chartered her uncharted grounds.

After all, it's okay to raid a beauty like her but he can't ignore her being an S-Rank with special characteristics.

It's nothing like doing with other S-Ranks like Amara or Helen, Because even though they are S-Rank, They make sure to keep their power in check not to harm him in their excitement.

But he can't be sure of such with Liora that she would remember about his weakness when in this extreme heat.

Alex can tell once he showed her the way, she would like a hungry wolf try to quench that burning passing in her body as soon as possible ignoring everything else like a beast.

He really can't take chances, Even though he has an SSS-Rank body now and even though his warrior rank is still a F+, His actual power is that of a peak A+ warrior after all the powers and effects were imposed on his body.

But he still couldn't risk it now. He felt the weirdness of Liora more and more. Before he was 100% sure of his physique to handle her onslaught but now he was only just 95% sure he could handle it.

Yeah just 5% hesitation but for someone like him who is a firm believer of Murphy's law, It's impossible for him to move further without being 100% sure it would not backfire on him.

After all, He did not forget that his main Villain of this world, So if there is anything that can go wrong would go wrong.

'System upgrade my physique with 1 no-wait 2 points.'

Alex gritted his teeth and commended his system to upgrade his physique right away by 2 points, After all he didn't want to take any chances.

[Ding! 2 physique upgrade points are deducted (Remaining: 2)....

As soon as the system voice fell, Alex felt that familiar warmth spread across his whole body giving him comfort incomparable even to the uneasy beauty on his body.

For a moment Alex lost in that warm comfortable feeling feeling more and more light as if not even his body but soul was purifying, getting rid of everything bad from his being.

For Alex it felt like eternity but it was nothing but a fraction of second before everything vanished and he heard the system notification rang in his mind.

'It was worth the 2 upgrade points.'

Alex sneakily clenched his fist and felt the power contained in his body.

If before he had the peak A rank power, Now not only he can bear the brunt of S-Ranks attack but if they dumb enough to go into close combat with, He can easily subdue them by his combat powers alone.

"H-Heyahh...yo-u promised."

When Alex was feeling his new gained powers, He heard a desperate almost begging voice near his ears making his blood boil as his lust peaked when that warm breath from her gasping of his hit his ears.

"Oh of course Liora, I don't have any choice then to fulfill your wish."

Alex closed off the system window before he replied with an evil grin and replied to the Liora who was laying weakly on his body.

Her face laying near his head gasping while her plump body on his going up and down with their each breaths.

It was weird and kinda gratifying seeing the overbearing powerhouse like her in this state because of him.

At this moment she really looked like an docile harmless rabbit, Who can't do anything but to look cute and fluffy.

But Alex didn't let himself get carried away by this false sense of security. He knows how dangerous this girl is, not seeing normal Huwomen life anying more than an ant that can trample under her feets anytime she wants.

If to get what she wanted she had to wipe out millions, she would not bait an eye to eo so, There is a reason why she considered as a Villain.

That's why even though Alex like always wanted to tease her, He discarded that idea as he already pushed her too much, There is no saying what she would do once she snapped out of fustrstion.

And so with glint in his eye he made a move and flipped them over laying on top of her gasping plump naked body.

"You have to take responsibility for this, okay?"

Alex spoke in his seducing voice as he hovering his fingers from her wide thighs reaching towards her wet nether region in the crazed eyes of Liora.

(A/N: Sorry for being this late, I don't know what happened. I lost all motivation to do anything before, I was just sleeping 12 to 15 hours and then playing games for 10+ straight non-stop.

Thankfully I am feeling a little better now and so there is an update, and given I had this much free time, I had polished the ideas of upcoming plots.

Sorry for not replying to you guys before, I hardly checked my phone these days.

Like always thank you for reading and have a good day.)

Chapter 342: 340. How To Train Your Dragon VII (R-18)

Liora's eyes were crazed as she looked at the man mounted on her body.

She even ignored that he once again flipped her over without any warning.

Right now anything can be forgiven and everything can be ignored by Liora as her full attention was locked onto the outrageously beautiful but unreasonable man.

She was being tortured here, feeling like thousands if not millions of ants biting her whole being, giving her urges to scratch the itch in the places she felt embarrassed, especially when it insitify in front of this man.

Every time their bare naked skins make contact, an unknown euphoria is washing over her body.

All her senses were bombarded by the various type of stimulation that it was hard to keep up with what's happening even with her enhanced supernatural physique gifted at birth.

Rather because of her enhanced senses she was getting overwhelmed.

Her eyes were locked on to the ridiculously handsome man laying on top of her.

The cold-hot skin of her mixed with sweat and what not was meeting with him as she can feel that hot hard thing of Alex was laying on top of her glistening nether area making her harder to control herself from going berserk.

As his finger tip grazed on her big strong thigh near that place, The twitching and urging her to do something she had no idea about.

So all she could do was to give him an pleading look as she can't keep this torture anymore, She is afraid that if she didn't extinguish these strange desire soon, She might end up doing something that she would regret it later.

But it was hard to keep it calm, especially when this pretty man keep teasing her.

"Remember Liora, You wanted this okay?"

Alex also sees that this little devil was on her last leg. If he didn't take action now she would really end up destroying the whole if not half of the city just by throwing a mild tantrum.

And so he holds his rock hard hot member in front of her wet pinkish folds rubbing his glans on them coating it in her juices preparing to venture into the uncharted.

"Mmmmm....Y..es."

Liora couldn't do anything other than to moan through her weakly parted lips agreeing with him.

She couldn't comprehend what Alex said as her senses were being overwhelmed by many kinds of extraterrestrial stimulation making her drown in it.

But she didn't care about what she was agreeing with. No matter what he wanted she was ready to give in regardless of the consequences.

Especially after that hard hot thing of his rubbing of her soiled wet slit sending waves of pleasure like a current throughout her body.

"Okay then, It would hurt a little, So please bear with me."

Alex, seeing that Liora once again admitted she would be fully responsible for this, decided to chart the uncharted place of the cousin of his "loving" fiancée.

He held his throwing already impatient member coated in Liora's juices on comically small entrance of herse compared to the current enormous size of his cock.

In the current state it would be a struggle to put even a tip in and that too would tear up her tiny pinkish hole hiding behind her glistening folds.

But Alex ignored it as he already consulted with system about this issue and he himself can see the anomaly of her physique, So he just pushed through.

*Pull*

*Slam*

*Tear*

*Shriek*

So he literally pushed through by pulling his waist back literally before slamming in with full force making her tiny slit tear open and expand taking 2 whole inches of his veiny enormous dick glans.

Liora couldn't help but shriek in the shock as pain and pleasure overwhelmed her.

The unfamiliar thing like pain clashed in her mind with an unknown desire for such pleasure.

She couldn't understand why this pretty face with an empty brain boy in front of her made her feel the unfamiliar sensation of pain, The one which only a handful of monsters like her mother and cousin made her feel before.

On top of that her mind fell into chaos trying to figure out why she loved such pain mixed with that unknown pleasure flowing in her whole being.

The pain she hated before considering it as weakness now she wasn't able to get more of it.

When feeling that hot throbbing naughty intruder tearing through her embarrassing place expanding her insides trying to move furthermore, She just wanted to go crazy and push it all the way in ignoring all physiological warnings.

And when she thought of this overbearing intruder as the thing of this heavenly boy in front of her, Just took her obsession off into the unprecedented levels.

This strange mental state on top of the already lust filled body of hers put her into the berserk state.

Her obsidian eyes turned ebony with luster around her pupils, The milky white skin of hers now has the blackish hue over it and on the skin there were shiny blackish patches like the scales of a snake started to appear.

Her slender pinkish fingers underwent the changes, The lady like fingers of hers like now like an claw of Apex predator on top of the food chain.

Though the appearance of it has not changed much, still appearing as normal huwomen just increased in size but her nails now like each individual daggers which can tear through anything.

They were grown to 2 inches in size with a slight inward curve like a claw.

But the changes didn't stop there, Her body also started to grow in size going 6ft to the 7.5

tall increasing not only her height but everything of hers started to get bigger.

The relatively above average size breast now grew into the unheard size surpassing the legendary "ZZZ" cup size.

Normally such a huge size mostly stops being attractive because it looks weird on the average stature of women ruining the aesthetic beauty.

And yet on the current Liora it's not look weird nor disproportionate as she right now like a miniature dwarf giant with her 7.8ft body laying on cold floor.

".... What the fu-Arggg?!"

Alex, who already prepared for the unexpected events, was still taken aback when Liora within a seconds grew to such a big size.

It's just that before he could come back to his senses he felt the crushing pull on his waist as her big thighs latched on to his waist with full strength of Liora pushing him on to those gigantic soft bosoms of hers.

But Alex didn't get a chance to enjoy such luxury as felt a feeling of doom arise in his heart. 'Fuck...No wonder this family of monsters all are fatherless.'

(A/N: Sorry for such a delay guys, There was an issue going on but don't worry it was fully resolved and so updates would be started as normal.

wrong on my part and I apologize for it.

Chapter 343: 341. Charting Into Uncharted

'Fuck...No wonder this family of monsters all are fatherless.'

Alex couldn't help but speak in his mind as he felt the crushing pressure from her bare naked cold fleshy thick thighs wrapped around his waist in a deathly grip with unreserved power.

As he lay on her two gigantic peaks, trying to understand what was happening, He found himself in the deadly embrace of Liora.

Her two pillars-like long arms wrapped tightly around his body, making him unable to move an inch no matter how much he struggled.

He at this moment feels like being under the hydraulic press ready to be crushed into a bloody mess any moment now.

And that's because Liora was not holding back at all, Her S-Rank physical powers were running unrestrained without holding back or rather she was not in a state to have any control over at all.

Unlike Amara she didn't have any artifact that put restrictions on her powers nor was she like Helen who had just woken up from deep slumber unable to fully tap into her peak S-Rank powers.

Liora was in her peak condition without any kinda restriction on her use of her S-Rank powers, Hence why Liora being in a frenzied state was not holding back her strength even a little bit, Her unrestrained might of the S-Rank was on full display here putting Alex into a deathly embrace.

**Gulp* Fortunately I upgraded my beastmaster physique.'

Alex felt a little dry in his throat. He gulped as he thanked his lucky stars that he decided to upgrade his beast physique rather than save points for later.

After all, this is not something any average awakened woman can handle, much less a man. Right at this moment, if there was someone else other than him, They would have long since turned into a puddle of blood under such strong, crushing pressure.

And yet Liora, without any hesitation using it on Alex, not even caring if he can bear it.

If not for him upgrading his SSS-Rank Beastmaster physique to the SSE+ Rank Beastlord physiques, He would have been in a very difficult condition right now.

But thankfully, he did upgrade it, as right now, other than the pressure on his body; he is not feeling even an ounce of pain or discomfort being hugged like this by Liora.

So now, though, he was feeling a little uneasy about not being able to move much, but that was psychological; his body itself was lying comfortably on her seductive enlarged figure. "How can I mo-.....I will manage it."

After the initial shock, Alex came to his senses as he felt the head of his rock-hard cock being squeezed by her wet fleshy vaginal walls trying to welcome this naughty guest even further to fill her up.

Alex too couldn't bear it anymore; he at first wanted to complain to her that he couldn't move, So how could he do anything further? But then, seeing that crazed look and her current state, he dropped the idea.

She was already running on the primal animalistic instinct, He saying anything not only fell on deaf ears, It might just be going to make her go even more crazy.

So he decided to take matters into his own hands.....quite literally.

Though Liora's arms tightly wrapped around his body, making it impossible to move, his hands were exempt from her evil clutches because when she yanked him towards herself, He used it for the support of his body to soften the landing on her bosom out of instinct.

So Alex stopped supporting himself on both of his hands and laid all his body weight onto the frenzied unusually cold body of Liora below him.

After which he tilted his body a little to the left side putting his left hand near her messy ebony hairs, While his right hand made its way downwards gliding his soft fingertips from her flat stomach to her thick thighs before rudely grasping her big plump ass.

*Gasp~*

A sensual gasp released from her half parted mouth uttering the confused sensual moan not understanding why from his simple touch she felt like her body was set on fire.

Her hands clutched his back more tightly as her legs grasped his waist pushing the head of his rock hard dick further inside her wet squeezing vagina.

*Slam*

He though prepared was helpless to do anything as she tightened her grasps onto his waist ramming his dick inside straight into her well lubricated pussy till his member's head slammed into something sending shivers of pleasure in his body.

'What was that? Why did it feel like a hard metal sheet?'

Alex asked himself in confusion, When his head slammed onto that thing, Though it was still fleshy but it felt like he rammed his dick straight into a thin metal sheet.

'Do those weirdos put a chastity seal or something?'

Alex couldn't help but to think about it because he was damn sure that what he slammed into was supposed delicate hymen of hers.

Normally he does not consider such a ridiculous thing but considering her whole family is filled with weirdos like Belladonna and Child throwing mother of Liora he couldn't put past them that they not just sealed her pussy off for "reason".

Alex do not give a fuck about why they would do that as he damn sure it would not make any sense to him, He just took a break to think how to break past it now.

"Mummm...Hh..u~?"

Alex is here contemplating how to break the "barrier" when frenzied Liora couldn't wait any longer. She was like a wild animal who tasted the blood for the first time.

It was impossible for her to stop now to hear any reason, So when Alex's member halted his descendent into her uncharted cave she just confused for half a second.

But when she realized what happened, She just pulled Alex's waist towards hers pushing his member inside, While not even wasting a second to think of the reason why he was stopped in the first place.

"Wait?! Fuck!"

Alex quickly realized what she wanted to do the moment he heard her confused moan but all he could do was to just wait and bear himself for her to do what she wanted to do.

*Pull*

*Bang* *Tear*

*Slam*

As expected the moment Liora pulled him towards her, His member once again rammed into her wet cunt before banging into that fleshy strong thing but this time however it wasn't able to stop the intruder from charting into her uncharted.

By the force of Liora, Alex dick head forcefully tore through the obstical sliding straight into it till he was balls deep into her overflowing vagina striking her cervix.

To Alex's astonishment his currently busting 18 inch cock really fully submerged into her.

"YESSS!!!~"

Liora overwhelmed by the sudden rush of pleasure as she shrieked at top of her lungs before tightly her graps on Alex even more.

Out of instinct, her claw-like palm clenched onto his back dragging her dagger like a sharp long nail trying to dig into his flesh.

As she clenched her thick thighs tightened even more around his waist, not allowing him to move even an inch.

Then like an animal in heat, She raised her slender neck towards Alex before parting her slender lips and biting into his collar bone digging her teeth into him with full force.

"Fuck!!! You forced me to do this, Xiao Bai lend me a hand."

(A/N: I don't even have an excuse for such a long delay, I take full responsibility for it and make sure it would not repeat again.

Thank you for showing your support and giving gifts to lazy ass author like me []

Like always thank you for reading and have a good day [].)

Chapter 344: 342. Sentient Dildo

Alex couldn't take this one sided slaughter anymore.

He was pretty much being used like a sentient dildo by Liora manuring him on her will without giving any heeds to his safety and wellbeing at all.

While all he could do was to let her be as he can't do anything to oppose it no matter how hard he would have tried, Thankfully he did receive some essential passives and buffs.

If he did not possess the "Almighty D Protection", His dick would have been snapped and squeezed fruits in the juicer grinder.

And even if it somehow survived being hit into that "seal", It would still be turned into a bloody paste as her vaginal walls were squeezing his rod right now as if he put it straight into the stone flour grinder.

'Why is Xiao Bai not responding? Is she asleep?'

Alex is taken aback when he finds out that Xiao Bai did not respond to his call.

He quickly tried to communicate with her through her contract but even then she did not respond.

He for safety searched his Beast space and found out that both her and Shapira were in there safe and sound, They were just laying on the grass not moving.

This made him a little anxious. He ignored Liora who was scratching and biting him as she was spasming, being bombarded by the intent alien sensation of pleasure.

Alex then tilted his head from her bosom and glanced around the room and as he guessed everyone in the room was laying on the dining table looking like they were in a deep trance. 'No wonder my sister didn't come rushing in to see Liora in a berserk state.'

Alex looked at Amara who was laying on the dining table like she was in deep slumber.

Which explains why she didn't just rush out the moment she saw Liora being so overbearing towards Alex.

After all it would have been strange if a bro-con like her would just wait in the sideline watching him womanhandled like this.

'I have to look into this but first deal with this ferret in heat.'

Alex guessed what might be the reason for their this state, So though he still wanted to look into the issue he was not that anxious about it.

He looked at the Liora still spasms under him with an annoyed and helpless look.

This woman was clutching him tightly with full force. How can he do anything if she likes this?

He had to do something because if he depends on hers then his dick may turn into the pickle first soaking in her juices before even considering letting him pull out.

'System, use it now.'

Alex finally decided to take the control back as he gave the system the command.

[Ding! Invoking the beast contract authority....

Activating the beast physique passive...

Successful building connection between Master and Beast.

Host now possess the power of your contracted beast, (Current awakened ranking S++ Rank)

(Note: Safety measures are active, Host doesn't have to worry about overdoing it causing a catastrophe.)

(Note: If the Host wants you can shut them off but it's not recommended given this is your first time experiencing the power of S++ Rank.)]

The moment Alex words fell, He heard the system voice rang in his head following through his command in instances using his contract authority to build the connection between him and Xiao Bai.

Just then Alex felt the surge of power filling in his each being, The spread of warmth contrasting the unusual coldness of Liora's body.

*Bang*

*Open*

Then there was a loud bang on his mind before he felt like some kinda door opened. Before Alex could even process what had happened his brain flooded with many kinds of information.

There was information about how to fight, how to attack, How to identify weak spots of his opponents, How to exploit them, How to kill in one shot, How to retreat just before jumping forward to attack and many more.

This information, unlike his immortal martial art, was all about how to think and fight like an apex predator embedded in his mind like a natural instinct.

After which another set of things were revealed to him, These were the special skill sets exclusive to Xiao Bai, which he now can use too.

All in all his senses also heighten to another level allowing him to hear even the flutter of fly's wings from miles away.

Then he got what he really wanted as he felt something hot like lava running through in his veins at lighting speed, His muscle though not changed in size felt tight and compacted containing immeasurable power.

'So this is what being an S-Rank feels like.'

Alex clenched his left fist unconsciously feeling the might containing his whole being.

If not for the fact that he was aware of the future plot and the power level, He would have deemed himself invincible long ago.

After all, right now he was feeling that if he wanted he could wipe out the whole city just on his whim and he knew that's not unbased feeling.

He currently has the might to really wipe out the whole city without any issue.

There was even a hint of thought to just leave and wipe off both Nathan and Jake in one fell swoop but he quickly pushed those thoughts out as he was not stupid enough to really dare to do it.

If killing protagonists was that easy then this species would have gone extinct long ago.

"Mummmhfff....~"

Alex's chain of thoughts got broken by the sensual moans of Liora reminding him the reason

He borrowed the power of Xiao Bai.

"Well let's deal with you first."

Alex said with the devil smirk as he reached out his evil clutches and made his move.

(A/N: Sorry for a few hour delay, Here was a power outage for some reason.)

Like always thank you for reading and have a good day [.]

Chapter 345: 343. Must Be A Wind

'Open the beast space.'

Just as Alex spoke the ground under them glowed in the mysterious hue of blinding light, opening the portal directly dragging both of them in it.

*Bang*

Both of them appear in the sky the next moment after which gravity took its course hurling them in terminal velocity towards the solid bedrock in the far remote area in his dedicated beast space.

Because Liora was below him and holding him tightly in her grasp she was the one who bore the most brunt of this fall landing on her back creating a small crater around them.

And yet there was not even acknowledgement from her of such a thing as if dropping from such height was not even worth her attention, She was still holding onto Alex in her deathly grip.

'Where are we?'

Meanwhile Alex too is not bothered by such height as he was safe in her enlarged body and he currently possesses the legendary S-Rank prowess.

Rather he was surprised where they landed. He didn't know where he was in this space but from his contract with Xiao Bai he knew he was very very far away from her.

So much so that in fact he even dared to say they were worlds apart.

[Ding! Host you are not that far away from Xiao Bai, You are just in the desolated area 236,000,000,000,000,000 km or 25,000 light years away from her.]

System seeing the host asked it a question, jumped up and solved the query of its host. 'Wait?! How far?'

Alex couldn't help but ask in surprise, He knew his beast space was quite big but he never thought that it was this big at all.

After all, no matter what it is called at the end of the day this is still just a fancy pocket dimension. How can it be as big as light years?

[Ding! Host you are 236,000,000,000,000,000 km or 146643601368010800 miles or 25,000 light years away from her.]

The simple minded system really thought Alex was just confused about the size and so explained it once again, even giving the imperial measurement.

'System, why is this place so big?'

Alex ignored this system response as he couldn't help but to ask in fear that this was not some pocket dimension but a some different world as if that is the case then he coming here would be nothing but inviting himself trouble.

[Ding! Back to the host, The beast space as name suggests is a dedicated pocket dimension for the beasts to provide them a place to be in their natural habitat in their original form with the best place for their cultivation.

Because of that this space is so big as it has dedicated places for each and every kinda beast there is for their original form, not just humanoid ones.

(Note: Host this is not a real world, It has its own set of laws which it follows, so you don't worry about destroying the place as it can repair itself from any damage.

(Note: Only the Host and beasts/beast related beings can entre in this space.)]

As a user-friendly system it was quick to answer Alex in the simple manner.

This is not some strange other world as guessed by Alex, It is still pocket dimension, Just from the standards of the system.

'Fuck!?'

Alex used to system shenanigans so he was not surprised knowing this information rather he had a very ominous feeling reading the note of the system.

System never gives useless notes, So it giving a note that this world can repair itself means it fully expects them to trash this place.

*Gulp*

Alex felt his throat dry as he realized what can be the cause of destruction.

He looked below Liora who was without any care in the world marinating in her bliss. Though his face buried in her gigantic breast, It was not that hard for him to look at her given the sheer size of her current mind giving him an elevated view.

That devilishly charming face, her ebony disheveled hair spread across on ground, her eyes were tigtly shut, her half parted lips gasping for air as her wrinkled eyebrows showing she is annoyed by something.

*Bite*

For a moment, Alex felt his heart soften as he looked at the helplessly cute Liora. But those thoughts were quickly discarded as Liora, annoyed, wrinkled her nose before baring her fangs and sinking them into his collarbone once more.

Reminding Alex that she belongs to that family of Lunatics.

"Liora, How can I do anything if you keep holding on to me like this?"

Alex spoke to her in his devilishly sweet voice trying to convince her to loosen her grip on him.

His dick is still balls deep well lubricated insides, He can't do anything else if she kept holding onto him like this.

Though he possesses the S-Rank prowess now, he really does not want to use it till it's last resort.

After all, using force means provoking her authority, Which in beast terms is a declaration of war.

Which is not good for them, when both of them are attached by their genitals.

Liora outright ignored him like words just a wind.

She was still biting down on his neck, While she was clenching her claws on his back, dragging her sharp dagger like long nails over his bare skin.

"*Sigh* Please don't make me do this."

Alex still gave her one more chance. As a firm believer of Murphy's law, He wanted to resolve the issue without any violence, unsure about how fiercely she would react.

He was once again ignored by her as if he had not spoken a thing.

Even Alex realized how futile his attempt was. It's like asking a dog to willingly throw out a piece of meat in their mouth or asking kids not to gobble down choking hazards.

"...Just remember you forced me to do this."

Alex gave up the peaceful route as he used his strength to forcefully open her grasp of her legs onto his waist.

*Flash*

Just as he did that the closed eyes of Liora shot open.

(A/N: Liora R-18 would end in the next 1/2 chapter sorry for dragging it out.

Like always thank you for reading and have a good day.)

Chapter 346: 344. Apex Predator

Liora opened her deep obsidian eyes filled with rage and confusion, she stopped nibbling on his neck staring straight at Alex lying comfortably on her bosom.

She couldn't comprehend that the "thing" in front of her dared to show resistance to her actions.

This made her both angry and confused. She was angry that someone dared to challenge her authority, Which crime deserves to be given capital punishment by her nature.

But she was also confused by how a mere "thing" can challenge her might.

Yeah "thing" as even though she felt the aura of beast from Alex gaining her affection but that only valid for "normal" Liora.

This fierce state of hers can't see past anything. For her, anyone weaker than her did not consider as being but a "Thing", Though Alex is her most favorite "thing" in the world but he is still a "thing" to her.

A thing that can be used as she wanted, If the "thing" wanted to be acknowledged by her as being then that "thing" has to earn it by gaining power compared to her, If not then "thing" would be hers to use as she pleases.

That's the law of survival of the fittest, The unchallenged law of the jungle she follows.

It's just that she never thought about one day the "thing" really earn enough might to challenge her, Not to mention that "thing" being a man.

"What are you staring at? Have you never seen a handsome man like me before?.... Of course not."

Alex saw her obsidian eyes staring at him intensely as if wanting to gobble him whole. Anyone being stared like this by the peak condition S-Rank powerhouse like hers would have wet their pants by her involuntary release of speck of oppressive aura.

But who is Alex? Other than being terrified of Liora, He just let his narcissist side shine to praise himself even more.

After all there is no going back now, He already ticked her off, No matter what he said now would fall on her deaf ears.

So other than going back to the defensive stance, He chose to take the offensive one.

*Thump*

*Sunk*

Suddenly the bone crushing pressure descended upon them sinking the crater they created even further.

Liora may not be in condition to understand what he said but from his tone she felt like he was mocking her.

How could she bear such humiliation? Even if the "thing" in front of hers is favorite thing in the world, she would not allow such disrespect towards her.

"Come on, Stop this facade women, We both know this can not harm me."

Alex didn't even bother to resist such pressure at all.

He jokingly looked at Liora feeling pity for her that she is too simple minded in her berserk state.

How could he not feel pity? This woman descended such pressure on him completely forgetting that he was currently laying on her.

So when the ground sunk under such pressure, He was lying comfortably on her soft plump body enjoying her facade trying to deter him.

And even if she really wanted her attack to harm him, He would still not be bothered as why would he?

He was before able to resist it of his physique, And now he had might of the S++ rank.

It would be strange if this attack even tickles him.

*Zoom*

Seeing Alex not bothered by her aura, Liora for the first time acknowledged Alex as an opponent, a threat and so decided to fight back.

The black sparse black scales on her body started to blow in the black almost blinding light covering her whole body.

Even her size decreased going back to her normal size.

Normally a decrease in size would be a sign of weakness or defeat but since when do word normal apply to her?

For her, going back to her normal size is taking a battle stance because that's the form she reserved for combat as she is well acquainted with the size.

Yes, She is always in her battle really to throw hands at a moment's notice.

Her increase in size before is nothing but her winding down in excitement.

Her going back to her original size means she is not messing around anymore.

The blood running around her veins would not allow her to ignore such blatant disrespect towards her authority.

She, as an apex predator in her region, had to show him why she got that place.

'Oh she really decided to go all out, That means...'

[Ding! World choice is detected....

•[3] You have to be eunuch to resist such a thicc beauty dominating you.

Task: Let Liora dominate you.

Reward: She would use you, dominate you daily.]

"Jackpot."

As expected by Alex, The moment Liora decided to get serious, System jumped out triggering the selection options.

He quickly took a look at the last option task and seeing there was no prediction of immediate future in the reward he didn't even spare a second wasting to acknowledge the system sentence.

He would not deny that he is into Liora's being like this and the 3rd option reward little bit but he knows he can't give into the temptation, If he did so his fate would be sealed.

'1st option is as always safer option but it's not good for the long run, 2nd option however tricky but always suited for my needs.'

Alex glanced at the task and rewarded contemplating what to choose.

Though both options rewards are titles but from his past experience he knows the best reward is always given by the 2nd option.

'System I chose the second option.'

Alex thought for the second before making a choice.

Right after that he hugged glowing Liora before pulling his waist back just to slam back in.

"AHHHHHH!!~"

(A/N: Sorry I caught the cold hence why yesterday update missed

Like always thank you for reading and have a good day.)

Chapter 347: 345. Quite Slow (R-18)

"Ahhhhh!~"

A sensual lust filled moan unconsciously released from Liora's mouth as she tries to resist showing weakness in front of him but she just couldn't hold it.

She was overwhelmed by the newfound pleasure as that naughty intruder slammed into her hitting her every sensitive spot as if it had the cartography of her insides.

Liora clenched her white fangs, digging her dagger like a nail in his back, clenching him more, Her alluring naked body tightened as all her muscles became tense raising her battle aura sky high as if she was in she was struggling, fighting some major battle.

But sadly it did not last more than a second, the battle spirit of hers she raised so high just now got broken into a million pieces and gushed out with her love juices.

"AHHHHHH! Fuckkk!!!!"

*Spurt* *Spurt* *Spasming* *Spurt*

Liora yelled on top of her lungs as she lost the battle within herself.

Just as Alex pulled his dick back for to slam in a second time, Her love juices gushed out with so much force that even his dicks couldn't block from spurting out.

Her love juices sprayed out from her pleasure slit covering Alex's lower part and ground below them.

"*Huff* *Pant* H-how-?"

Liora in aftertaste of bliss asked herself in a daze as she couldn't comprehend why she lost control over her body. She is not only a S-Rank but also a full fledged warrior with actual battle experiences.

She trained her body to the degree that she can even control her breathing and heart beats on will without any issue.

So it was reasonable that she was utterly confused why all of the sudden she lost control over body.

On top of that she was so surprised at finding herself out of breath, Which she thought was impossible given her origin and yet she right now is like a fish out of water gasping for air.

"Oh thank you for your compliment, Miss."

Alex, who was mounted on top of her, said shamelessly to her in a cheeky voice attracting bewildered Liora's attention.

Liora did not understand what he was saying but she was damn sure he was mocking her. This realization was about flare up her berserk state which was calm down because of the aftertaste of her orgasm once again.

"*Gulp* No Wait Stop- NO! FU-AHHMmmmm~!"

Liora who was ready to lash out suddenly had an ominous feeling in her eyes. She looked up and saw Alex positioning for the re-entry.

His unreasonably beautiful face was just a few inches away from hers that his hot breath was hitting her face, palming the flame of the unknown desire inside her.

She for a moment of lost looking at face as for the first time she had such feeling for the huwomans until she felt his moments.

Both of his hands were holding on to her knees spreading apart her legs as he moving his hips for the right angle.

For some reason she was terrified of the thought of him going back inside her especially now that she was so sensitive down there after the mess she made down there.

So going against her conscience, Her pride she pleaded for him to stop as that's all she was able to do in her current state.

But alas, she sadly encountered the sadistic devil in flesh named Alex who did not show pity. Alex ignored her pleas before he moved back as once again he slammed his rod deep inside her wet tight vagina in one smooth go.

As feared by Liora she wasn't able to bear this stimulation of once again being filled up with bliss.

She was pushed on the verge of losing her mind as she was moaning and panting trying to contain this sensation to no avail.

*Punch*

*Bang*

In her desperation she clenched her right hand into a fist before slamming straight down on the ground beside her with full force.

Just as that fist landed on the ground the whole place shook and sank down shaking the whole place creating rupture in the ground creating the around magnitude 7 earthquake.

Yeah by mere physical prowess she shook the whole place and yet it couldn't help her single bit as she once again cummed as his rock hard rod hit her deepest part.

Liora's body became a little soft because of this back to back orgasum, feeling helpless and humiliated that she was in such a condition because of the man in front of her.

In fustrstion she stretched her neck and bit down on his neck while her right hand was once again back on his back scratching and digging to vent out her humiliation.

"Tch...Can't even last a second? Maybe you have poor kidneys, Do you need a pill or something to perform? haha."

Alex was unbothered by her tantrum, Rather he flamed her angre even more seeing how cute she acts when things do not go her way.

He reached down and whispered into her ears with a sadistic smug smile, Directly questioning her womanhood and attacking her femininity by offering her a pill.

Then to put salt on the wound he just laugh on her face.

"*Huff* *Huff* You-You..Now you made me *Huff* An...mmmm...angry."

Liora was laying in the ground helpless marinating in her own bliss.

For a moment she even ignored the fact that she was so helpless in front of Alex thinking this is not that bad if the price of it was enjoying this treatment.

But then she heard his sarcastic words and mocking smile and she lost it.

She opened her eyes, shot open in embarrassment and shame, staring at Alex face up close.

Then she spoke trying to act intimidating to him but when she spoke just a soft breathless voice filled with lust came out zero deterring effect, Rather it was more inviting him to bully her more.

Which made her more embarrassed and angry, So she decided to take control back.

She yanked herself and with one swift movement put Alex down and was laying on top of Alex.

"*Huff* Hehe now *Pant* 1 show you."

Liora mounted on top of him looked at him with a smug smile showing off.

"You are quite slow, aren't you?"

Alex also looked into her eyes smiling back with the same smug smile as he spoke to her.

(A/N: Sorry guys I have come down with the cold for the last few days plus there were festivals going on hence why I wasn't able to update it but don't worry I would compensate for the missed days.

Like always thank you for reading and have a good day [].)

Chapter 348: 246. Liora, A poor stupid soul (R-18)

"No, I am quite fast."

Liora retreated in her defense, being offended by him calling her slow.

She might have some performance problems going on here but she is quite confident in her ability in combat, which after strength and defense, speed is her forte.

"No no, You are quite slow to not realize what situation you just put yourself in."

Alex pitying her intellect lend a hand giving her hint about her fuck up.

"What about it? You are now below me so I can do anything I want hehe."

Liora, A muscle brain did not get the hint Alex gave to her with such a benevolent heart.

All she thought was that now he was under her, he could no longer bully her, rather now she can avenge her humiliation with interest from him.

After all, In her eyes man in this state are as helpless as the fish on the chopping board.

So what if he somehow has the power of the S-Rank? At the end of the day he is still a man, Which she can just overpower with raw strength.

"Oh you poor soul, *Pat* *Pat* There there, don't feel down too much."

Alex, seeing she still did not get it, couldn't help but feel sympathy for such an adorable fool.

He reached out his right hand and patted her head softly to console the poor soul for being born stupid.

"Wha-....You stop giving me that sympathetic look, I am fast I swear."

Liora enjoyed the head pats given by him calming down rage building up in her but she couldn't take that sympathetic look of his looking at her.

It's the same sympathy filled with pity look people give to young disabled individuals.

And she is by no means disabled.

"Don't worry, I probably would not think any less of you."

Alex did not respond to her, He continued with his own thought train as he spoke to her casually picking hair strand sticking on her face and putting behind her ear in natural motion. "You- "

Liora could not take it anymore, What is he even talking about and what did he mean by he probably not think any less of her.

Is he not even sure of himself? That saying is true, Man's heart is like a sea of needles.

You can never know what they think of you in their heart.

She wanted to retort to him quickly as she didn't want to think any less of her.

As no matter how unreasonable he was, He has the capital to be so.

"Shhh!~ Don't try it anymore Liora, You might pull a muscle or two up here."

But before she could speak out, Alex slender index finger put on her plump lips halting her from speaking any further.

Then he with his addictive sweet spoke such provoking words as he tapped on her forehead.

Well it would have been provoking words if Liora understood the meaning of words he spoke. Liora genuinely thought he was concerned about her and hence why he did not allow her to speak.

This made her heart feel sweet like she ate honey thinking he cares about her as this is the first time someone actually cares about her well being, Others just want to defeat and kill her.

As for what he was concerned about and how that related to this situation? She did not even think about that at all.

'Is she really this dumb?'

This time it's Alex's turn to be taken aback by her reaction, Though he through the plot in his mind knows that she is quite impulsive but he did not think she was this dumb.

But then again her strong point was always her strength, So she never needed to use her brain to do anything.

"Anyway, Now it's time to fulfill my end of the deal."

Alex shook the unnecessary thoughts out of his mind and put focus in front of him.

After he still "needed" to uphold his end of the deal.

"Whah- Wait stop that chea- Hugnnmm~"

Liora who was lost in joy of caring about her had sudden bad feelings as his words were heard by hers.

And as she feared she felt his "sneaky" left hand reaching down gliding on her hourglass waist before grabbing her bubbly soft plump ass.

She wanted to protect, yell foul for his sneak attack but the moment he grabbed her ass all that escaped from her mouth was a moanful grasp.

Her whole body became soft, laying on top of Alex as she was melting by his mere touch.

It's like she was being electrocuted with pleasure and bliss, his hand was being the epicenter of such a phenomenon.

She is not even able to gather her thoughts about resistance under such intense stimulation bombarding all her senses making her mind go blank.

Her legs became soft like a jelly pushing his rod even deep inside her.

'System pushes to 20% past the safety limit.'

[Ding! 20% extra restriction lifted past safety limit....]

Alex commanded the system to increase the power beyond the recommended limit by it.

So the moment he used his ecstasy hands it sent wave after wave of pleasure in their being making her helpless to do anything.

It's just that he still felt like Liora might still have some resistance left given her origin, So he pushed to pass 20% more than what she is able to handle safely.

"Hunfff...Mummmm~"

A seductive sensual moans released from her mouth as she senselessly lay there letting him mold her ass as he pleases.

"Mummmhfff-huh!???"

Liora moaning and grasping couldn't understand what was happening, So by instinct she wanted to try and stop him to get little time to make sense of this situation.

It's just she then realized a horrifying thing, she can't move at all.

Her lover's body already became numb, While her hand was currently trapped below him under the weight of both of them.

"So you finally figure it out, It's pity that it's too late *Slap* *Wobble*"

Alex seeing she finally realized who she fucked up couldn't help but to prise her.

It's just that it was too late to regret it, Alex already reached his right hand out slapping her right ass cheeks making it wobble by the impact before grabbing it ruthlessly.

(A/N: Wait there would be one more update today again to end her R-18 scene. Like always thank you for reading and have a good day.)

Chapter 349: 347. Drowning In The Pleasure (R-18)

"Ahhummm~"

All Liora could do was to moan senselessly as he was massaging and molding her ass cheeks spreading squeezing as he pleases rubbing his rock hard cock inside of vaginal walls.

Though she wanted to try to struggle, retreat, fight back but she was neither in the physical condition nor was she in the mental state to do any of it.

Seeing that she was helpless to do anything, Alex started shifting position to the more comfortable angle, being ready to ravage her.

"D-...Mummmm, do...*pant*..nnt nummm..."

Liora in a panic stuttering voice tried to deter him from doing what he wanted to do.

Which was ironic as she was the one who forced herself on him in the first and now she was terrified by the thought of him actually doing it.

If it was any normal time she would have just shut her mouth and allowed it to happen as that was better then showing weakness.

It's just she dared not to allow him to do anything further no matter how much her body was carving and protesting against her decision.

As she was not sure what would happen afterwards, She was already on the verge of losing her mind just from his teasing. If he really goes all out, Then she was not sure at the end she would remain the same.

"Oh, don't be hasty Liora, I am "doing" is now."

Alex hearing such a sultry yet terrified voice of hers couldn't help but want to bully her more. The stark contrast between her usual domineering not putting huwomen life in eye to this weak pitiful woman terrified by the thought of man in front of her making love to her.

Her being the cousin of his crazy fiancée was just cherry on the top making him more excited to bully her.

So his sadistic nature came out, He in his devilishly tempting voice replied to her as he rudely grasped her both soft plum ass cheeks lifting her up a little.

*Pull*

*Slam*

"No...Tha-..Noo..Ahhummmmm- FUCK!!"

Liora panicked and wanted to struggle hearing his words as fear quickly set in her heart.

She was really terrified of him fearing that overwhelming pleasure would break her.

But Alex did not give her any heeds, He already lifted her ass a little higher for angle, So he pulled back a little before slamming his rock hard manhood back in her cozy wet insides. "No, Ahhhhh..Uhhmmm~"

*Squirt*

*Squirt*

*Clench*

*Spasming*

*Twitch*

As she feared, The moment his hard thing rammed inside slamming onto her cervix nearly piercing into her uterus.

The tearing pain along with the overflowing pleasure bombarded her mind making her go blank, senselessly savoring such a painful pleasure.

Liora was already on the verge of losing it and this was the final straw as she wasn't able to control it any longer.

The flood gate broke open as she shrieked in ecstasy tightening her whole body, Her vaginal walls clenched around his hard cock making it a semi seal as her love fluids squirted out of her soiling her and Alex nether parts.

"*Huff* *Pant* Ho-wh....Ahhummmmm.. *pant*Mumhmm..."

Liora was out of breath by such an intense orgasm, She was panting utterly confused by what just happened.

Her tense body became soft as she lay on Alex completely opposite of how they started. She needed a moment or two to process what just happened but Alex did not give any time. It's just even Alex was edging too long and wanted to release, plus he would never let go of such an opportunity to bully others.

So he was already in the right position and just pulled his cock from her clenching twitching pleasure cave before ramming it back inside.

This time Liora was completely and utterly lost, The little bit of sanity remaining in her was washed with her new orgasm as she threw herself into the pleasure to drown in it.

"MumhmmmmAhghhhmm~..."

tongue

Liora completely lost her mind and finally embraced the bliss running purely on instincts.

She was moaning, shrieking growling and scratching like a feral animal.

Her small mouth was half open sticking out her pink tongue dripping saliva in a trail as her eyes turned up, losing all her thoughts other than the pleasure.

"*Kiss* MummmmmAHhhhhh~"

Seeing her in this tempting state like this Alex couldn't help it as he grabbed back of her head with his right hand pushing towards his face before locking their lips.

He was kissing her, wondering in her mouth, coiling with her tongue mixing their saliva savoring each other's taste like addicting wine, While his left hand held onto her bubbly ass cheeks, keeping her in an angle where he was like an engine piston moving in and out of her wet cunt.

Liora long since lost her mind as she was in euphoria by his actions, addictively enjoying every section of such dual stimulation.

She even couldn't count how many times she had an orgasm as she liked coming from each thrust.

There was even a small puddle of her love juices formed below them making one wonder where all that liquid was coming from.

"Muuhaa Here Arghh *Swell* *Spurt* *Spurt*

Amidst her euphoria Alex break their kiss making her annoyed wanting to protest but halted hearing his words feeling his glans head swelling inside her before exploding filling her inside with his baby batter.

"AHHHHH!!~Mhummmmmmm *Spasming* *Spasming*"

Liora didn't know what happened, Why there was suddenly hot lava like liquid coming out of his naughty intruder but she was in no state to care.

The moment that sticky liquid spurt out filling her up, she reached at peak of bliss as she had her best orgasum lasting for minutes spasming twitching from such a intense climax.

"Hey, You are not tired right? Let's go for round two."

Alex looked at breathless still spasming Liora as she spoke in his sweet yet devilish voice.

It was literally devilish for Liora though as when she heard him, She looked towards him in shock and horror imagining him like a devil crawled out of hell.

She wanted to say something but didn't had any strength left in her to do so. Well even if she had it would have been futile as just as he said he started the 2nd round.

(A/N: Sorry guys for delay, I was became sick again, Also I just couldn't able to write the R-18 scene with Liora as she didn't even know what Sex is so its was hard to make it interesting or sense and if sex did not make sense in the wishfuliment novel then what is even a point of it. So let's end it here with her (for now), Go with others as those are quite interesting. Tomorrow is a voting day here so the update would be super late but there would be 2 chapters late at night.

Like always thank you for reading and have a good day.)

Chapter 350: 348. Cure For Stupidity

"AHHHHH!-"

A loud euphoric shriek of the women reverberates in the land of the beast as it declines, adding new touch to the vacant space.

"Huh? That's it? Did I get scammed with fake Liora?"

In the middle of the small crater, below the source of that euphoric shriek another slightly annoyed and confused voice of man sounded being full of skepticism of the passed out naked women on him.

'Hey system, aren't these S-Ranks supposed to have stamina and vitality to last days in battle without tiring themselves out?'

Then how come this peak condition monster of being even in S-Rank warriors passes out this easily? Do I have the fake Liora here or what?'

Alex looking at the euphoric tired face of passed out Liora couldn't help but ask the system out why she passed out just doing the deed for 6 times at max.

Yeah that sounds like a lot but for normal people, For awakened warriors especially S-Ranks this is not that big of deal.

For example, Helen even coming out of the coma and being in the weakest state was able to keep up with him to the end, Alia was tired out before her.

Same for Amara, Even her choker ancient artifact put restriction of her powers keeping it at normal huwomen levels, she still did not pass out by her sheer physical prowess.

So it was very strange for him to see Liora, The peak condition S-Rank without any restrictions passed out by him messing around a little.

[Ding! Host she is the real Liora, You did not get scammed, Rather she lasted a lot longer time in coitus then she supposed to be creating the new record in her family.

The previous record held in her family was whooping 45 seconds by her mother, Which consider as legendary record no one else comes close to till now as most of them only last 30 seconds or so before passing out.]

System quickly responded to Alex clearing any doubt of his fearing he would misunderstand. 'So her whole family is 1-dump chump, Why?'

Alex hearing the longest someone lasted in the family was mere 45 seconds taken aback as why these monsters have such low stamina.

Normally he would have said genetic disability but he scratch that idea as once someone reaches the S-Rank they cast out all impurities transcending mortal body limits.

After which they do not even need to eat nor it is necessary for them to breathe as all necessary nutritions and power were provided by Mana or the spiritual energy.

So genetic disability reasons can't be applied here as Liora's mother is also one of 7 military S-Rank of the country.

[Ding! The host reason is simple natural selection, The Hoard family practice is too physical centric and top of that they have gifted physiques and high level of bloodline.

But that is their issue as their bloodline is quite overbearing making even the women who received couldn't able to bear it, so almost all of them could not even survive past their infancy.

And those lucky few who survive are the strongest, toughest members who possess purest of the bloodline making them an unstoppable force in the combat trashing all others.

It's just that they are so strong, fragile things like men can not survive the rough mating ritual. Often than not they turn into meat paste before they even have a chance to get hard.

Plus as you see, They go into a berserk state while mating, Which do not help as if nature is nerfing them to control their population.

So the Hoard family was on the brink of extinction as there is no new generation to replace old, Hence the elders of the family used forbidden arts to tap into their ancestors knowledge and put the "curse" like restriction on anyone who possesses the Hoard family's bloodline.

This made so any time the Hoard family members wanted to mate, the "curse" gets triggered making them lose most of their strength by draining their stamina rapidly making them exhausted and pass out.

Though male still not able to survive their mating, at least it gives them time to pass down their seeds.

Which is why Liora passed out even being in her peak state.]

System fearing Alex would misunderstand and blame the system, explained it to him in detail.

'Wait, Her last name is really a Hoard? Hahaha.'

Alex, hearing the long explanations of the system, comes to this conclusion and bursts out laughing seeing the irony of her habit of hoarding stuff.

[...]

[Ding! The bumper offer, The "Cure for Stupidity" is available only for a low low price of 9,999,999 Raider Points, Grab the deal before it's too late.]

System was speechless by Alex's reaction. It explained its host so diligently and the host was amused by the simple last name. It was clear that Rose's influence was still on his IQ.

System could not bear to see it's host acting so stupid, So like an online pop ads jump out and offer cure for his stupidity.

*Click to Buy*

Alex abruptly stopped laughing as system notification rang in his mind, Hearing what it said he realized he fucked up, knowing saying something would just embarrass him more, He just clicked and brought what it was selling.

*Wooosh*

*Vanish*

Just as he brought the *Cure for Stupidity*, A warm current ran through his whole body before vanishing.

"Ahh Fuck!!"

The moment that warm current vanished, Alex IQ came back online clearing his haze.

It's just the moment his brain started working normally, He couldn't help but curse out himself seeing how many stupid moves he makes.

His brain started overclocking to do all his backlog overthinking to deal with the mess he created.

'Why did I provoked this beast? If that my crazy bitch of a fiancée found this out, This whole city would be razed to ground agrhh! How could I be this stup-!! That damn dumbass Rose.'

Alex after calming down, broke out in cold sweat as post nut clarity hit him.

Liora is the cousin of Belladonna. If Belladonna gets to know that Liora put the green hat on her then, That nightmare would go berserk.

If that happens there is no saying what she would do afterwards but first she would attack to end Liora.

But if that happens then civil war would break out in the Hoard family as though Belladonna is strong, the Hoard family is not weak either.

They would never allow their heir to die in hands of Belladonna nor would she allow Liora to live breath anymore.

And if those two behemoths clash, World around them has to pay the price for it and there is even a chance these two drag others in their mess too.

'Have to fix this mess quickly but what to do, what to do?...Idea, This might just work.'

Alex, in panic mode, runs the hamster wheel in his head at full speed thinking about the way to get out of the mess.

He after thinking for a while had an idea, which was thought crazy might just work.

.... Near Miller Manor....

"Hey, Stop sleeping on the road, I need to take my chariot home."

(A/N: Sorry guys for the missed promise, I caught cold again, I was barely able to get out of the bad as my whole body was in pain (I think it was not a normal cold but the 2020 virus is not sure though), I am feeling better though.

Also can I skip the R-18 scene? It is taking too much time plus there is also writers block on it. Don't worry I would make sure it would be added later and not not affect the story that much,

Do I skip it?
