

Surviving in Woman's world as a novel villain.

Chapter 41 41. New Protagonist?

"What happened Alex?"

Grace woke up because of Alex's surprised voice and asked worriedly.

"Nothing, It...It was just a bad dream. You go back to sleep."

Alex forcefully calmed himself down, He made a simple excuse and asked Grace to go back to sleep, Although her physique is enhanced but there is still the mental fatigue of the past few days, She needed her deserved rest.

"Ohh, It was just a bad dream, Are you okay now?"

Grace's worry was dismissed hearing it was just a bad dream. She looked up from his arms and smiled sweetly.

'It was not a dream.'

She thought to herself, She was feeling unreal before, Thinking about all that happened was just her dream but now seeing him here, She confirmed. It was not a dream. He was really here, Which means they also did those things.

Giggle

A lovely giggle of joy was uttered by her as she tightened her embrace on him and cuddled in his arms before closing her eyes and falling asleep.

'System Speak, Where the fuck new protagonist come from?'

If it was before Alex should have teased Grace but now he didn't have the mood to do it, All his attention was on this notification sent by the system.

He knows there are other protagonists but weren't they supposed to come out when the original protagonist of this world, Nathen, died? So how come there is this new one?

'Is Nathen get killed off or what?'

Alex couldn't help but think about it. It sounds impossible for this to happen to the protagonist but maybe his action created a butterfly effect. On top of that, he also lost his 1000 luck before weakening his protagonist halo.

And there is no brain-dead halo too, So if the protagonist provoked someone terrible, There is a chance that he just burped and reincarnated somewhere.

[Nathen is well...At least he is alive. The reason the new protagonist pop-up is that Nathen loses his luck. Heavenly will should have detected the changes in the plot and taken this major decision to keep up with changes.]

The system jumps out and replays to him.

'So Nathen is alive huh!? Wait! Didn't this mean heavenly will also detect and knows about me? Shouldn't Villain Halo prevent that from happening?'

Alex sighed in relief, Nathen is alive. He will be too sad if that guy dipped out without tasting his own medicine. After all, A good bro must lead his other bro on the right path. He wanted to do this all because of Nathen's own good.

But then he became confused. His Villain Halo also has the effect of hiding him from the heavenly will, But now the system says that the heavenly will detected him, Doesn't that mean that it knows his existence?

If that's the case, The threat level of this world turns up a notch. He was in no place to compete with a heavenly will at this moment, So he had to kill off Nathan in one move but he was reluctant to do this, At least not before letting him taste what despair tastes like.

[Ding! No host it's actually exactly the opposite, Heavenly will only feel changes in this world, But it couldn't sense the reason why there were these changes. This never happens as the heavenly will is nearly omniscient power in this world.

This is the reason why the new protagonist pop-up to sniff out the cause of it.]

A system like always didn't mind explaining things to him as long as it was not core sensitive information about that capped by Alex's system level.

'So that's why, So I don't have to worry too much but have to be cautious, Right?'

Alex understands why the new protagonist pop-up. This is protecting the majesty of the world and insurance for Nathen, The protagonist of this world.

That's why other than giving Nathen some OP opportunities, It activated another protagonist. This way the thing that causes changes Which means he will target new protagonists and give time to Nathen for growing into invincible existence, This new protagonist bait lay for him.

But unfortunately, It didn't know this not only works against the protagonist but it's also very beneficial for him.

Now there is a new protagonist means new opportunities, Nathen's opportunities were pretty much useless to him, But maybe this new protagonist brings some surprise.

'System, Tell me an estimated time for this new protagonist to reach me.'

Alex then asked a very important question for his plan against the protagonists. As Villain, he should definitely be targeted by the "Hero" of this world.

So it's not a question of if the protagonist targets him but when.

[Ding! According to current data, The estimated time is 15 days but take note this time is not accurate as changes in the world might cause him to appear early.]

The system actually also can be called a nigh-Omniscient thing, So it's not hard to calculate the estimated time of a new protagonist. If he upgraded it further, It might also do more things.

'Mhmm.15 days huh, Well it's more than enough time to be fully prepared, Also can I buy a novel plot of that protagonist?'

For Alex, 15 days is enough time to become strong. Didn't he just in one day become awakened with the SS-Rank superpower? So 15 days are overkill for him, Who has a broken thing called the system.

Now he just wanted to know the plot of that protagonist novel, Knowing yourself and your enemy will win every battle. So it's very necessary to know more about this new protagonist, So there will not be some unexpected events.

[Ding! You can buy everything in the system mall host, The plot of this new protagonist will also be available just for a mere 200,000 RP.]

A system like a salesman boosted itself before mentioning the price of the product.

'What!!? 200,000 RP? The system that's too much, Don't you think?'

Alex was shocked by the price, Although now he has nearly 400,000 RP because of his video going viral and the points he received from Alia spending his half worth in one go is really hard to bear for him.

[Ding! Host this is a discounted price, Don't forget knowing the plot is equivalent to opening the god perspective, For that this price is not that much.]

The system didn't want Alex to be misunderstood, So it tells the reason.

This price is really not that much considering its actual use value. Knowing the future for someone like Alex, It's really a deadly weapon to use against the protagonist.

'Well... then buy it.'

Alex was embarrassed. He did know the meaning of knowing the plot. That's the reason he even asked for that in the first place. It was just that hearing that high price, He lost his cool.

But now that he looks at it, 200,000 RP does not sound that much. By knowing the plot he is able to gain more than double of that value in no time.

[Ding! The plot of the "Hidden mighty little brother of the cold president" is transferred into the host's mind.]

The system voice fell and all the plot of the novel appeared in the mind of Alex. He can just think about it and the plot of it pop-up in his mind like opening a book.

'Mumm, I didn't know there was this little brother of my demoness. This story is getting interesting.'

Alex rubs his chin, Thinking about this plot. It's news to him that there was a little brother of Alia. In the novel plot of Nathen, It's not mentioned at all.

If he didn't interfere then this Jake guy should not even be able to appear in front of Alia and she should have joined in the harem of Nathen.

Because it turns out that Alia is also the main heroine of this Jake guy's novel, So two protagonists can't share one heroine but now that story is changed.

This also means that Alia lost her position as the main heroine of Nathen's novel, and became main heroine in Jake's. Which is also reasonable after all, This Nathen guy only includes virgins in his harem, Others are just playthings of his, and with Alia's personality and luck, It was impossible for that to happen.

This Jake guy is also interesting. He is a proper man of culture, Only interested in married or mature women. In normal words, he was into Milf's and putting a green hat on others.

'What a disgusting person, How can someone want to steal another man's woman? I have a righteous young man stop this evil man's claw from hurting others

Pfft- Just kidding, I don't like competition that's all.'

Alex tried acting as that self-righteous protagonist but he wasn't able to. He just doesn't want others, especially the protagonist with abilities and the blessing of luck to compete with him. That's all of it. He was not afraid or ashamed to admit it.

'Now should I go to Madam Miller or wait for the right moment?'

After he got the plot of Jake's novel, He also understood that Madam Miller became the heroine in his novel. After all, Nathen includes a virgin in his harem, So Madam Miller should not be in harem, and as the law of the wishfulfillment novels, If mother and son are not related by blood then they will be 101 percent chance that they are going to fuck.

The reason Alex wanted to wait is that, In the plot, there are some OP things Jake pulled out that "cured" Madam Miller completely. As his body was not as strong as Nathen, He will never be able to handle the Lust Fairy body. So this is the cheat he was given by the world against it.

[Ding! World choice is detected...

The selection function is triggered...

Please choose the following option...

â€¢ [1] As a villain how could you bear to wait of protagonist for you steal heroin?

Task : Fuck the mother of Alia and Rose.

Reward : Motherfucker title will be upgraded

â€¢ [2] You as a villain need losts of courage. How can a villain be afraid to ask what he wants?

Task : Make Alia agree of you fucking her mother.

Reward : Harem Protection Halo (Internal)

â€¢ [3] What!? I am a good guy, There is a good girl like Grace in my arms, So I am not going anywhere.

Task : Just go back to sleeping with Grace

Reward: Grace will be half frozen, Alia's heart once again completely frozen, and will never be able to melt again.]

'Huh? Huh!?? HUH!???'

Alex was surprised that system options were triggered but what made him petrified is the last option reward.

He always looks at the last options for the reason that it gives a glimpse of what is going to happen in the future.

Knowing that part it's not hard to guess what will happen if he goes back to sleep with Grace now. Alia will surely come barging into this room.

Alex looked at the current appearance of their, Both at this time were completely naked and were in each other's embrace, This room also filled with the smell of lust.

Not to mention Alia, Even if it was someone sane-minded person, They will lose their shit seeing this scene of their lover, So it's not hard to guess what Alia will do when she sees them in this state.

'System, Choose 1st and 2nd option.'

Alex slowly breaks free from Grace's embrace and covers her in blankets before walking around the room, Grabbing his scattered clothes then he hop in the shower.

While he was doing that, He chose the first and second options. Although he wanted to wait until Jake took out that OP thing but reward of these options is too tempting, especially the 2nd one.

He urgently needed that reward, So he didn't have to worry about finding that his woman's started a deadly battle royal between themselves.

So it was a sound difficult task but he had to do it. If not he would lose his basket and eggs at the same time, He will do something about to get that OP thing from Jake.

As for the 1st option, He chose it because it was very compatible with the 2nd option. If he didn't choose it would be a waste of opportunity, Plus it's name was quite tempting.

Pitter-patter

Alex started to take a shower and washed his body thoroughly. He can't have a weird smell on his body, Or Alia will go berserk.

'System buy me some clothes, shoes, and good cologne'

As he was ready to come out, He asked the system to buy this things, His shirt was drenched with the love juice of Grace, While his shoes he gave to poor Nathen to fulfill that guys fetish, So he didn't have shoes, He was walking around in shoes in Grace waiting room, Might be provided by the hospital.

They are comfy but they didn't suit him, But who asked Alex to have this big heart, and that he took pity on Nathen.

As for cologne? It was for extra measure, As Alia is an awakened person, Her five sense is also very strong, Even after washing herself, She might be able to smell little remaining time on him.

"Sleep well Grace, I will come back later at night, Okay?"

After he puts on clothes, wears shoes, and sprays cologne on himself, Then comes to sleep with Grace and whispers to her.

"Humm."

Grace lazily in half-sleep state replied as she stretched her body in a blanket and turned her face towards him.

Chuckle Kiss

Alex knew what she wanted. He laughed at her childish antics and planted a kiss on her forehead. This brought out her beautiful smile, Which was very beautiful as the moon came out from behind the clouds.

He saw that smile and had the urge to not leave by her side but well he had to, If not this room turns into a bloody battlefield .

'I will surprise you, Hehe~'

Alia stood in the elevator and pressed floor number 3, While she had time she gave a little touch-up to her makeup.

Normally she doesn't wear makeup but today she did. Not only that, but she was also giggling on her own from time to time.

She felt like she was going insane but the thought of seeing Alex again made her heart bubbly. She never felt this, So she this was a very unreal feeling to her.

Ding

Soon the elevator stopped at the 3rd floor and the door opened. She was ready to walk out of the elevator but halted her moments, Seeing a person standing in front of her.

(A/N : Well I fell asleep last night, So couldn't able to write it, That's why late update, My bad ٩ٲٲ...)

Like always thank you for reading and have a good day ٩ٲٲ.)

Chapter 42 42. Breaking Alia

Alia stopped in her tracks and looked at the figure of a man standing in front of her, He was appeared as of he personally made by god himself, He had a radiance like a sun and luster like the moon. He was just standing there and yet, She felt like she could watch him for eternity and still not going to get tired of it.

Who else is this person other than the cunning man who stole her heart? She took closer look, Alex front of her was extraordinarily handsome.

'Why didn't notice it before? Am I that cold-hearted before that can't even see this handsome man who was in love with me?'

Alia blamed herself. She heard how much Alex loved her in his song. That song had so much power and love that even her cold-heart felt warmth.

That was the power of his love and she ignored this man thinking he was a money hungry person, Just throwing money at him to calm him down.

'I hurt him too much, I have to make up to him in all our lives.'

Alia regrets it. She felt the pain of getting ignored and rejected by the person you love in the morning. She can't bear it even for one morning and Alex here bears it for the whole 1 year.

She thinks that even if she tried to make up for him all her life, It will still not be enough for the pain she caused him.

"Alex! What a surprise, I'm looking- Hey I am talking to you."

She became excited seeing him. She greeted him and wanted to reach out to him but she was totally ignored by him like some insignificant person. He didn't bother to pay her any attention.

If he had done this before, She would have made him pay a very heavy price for ignoring her but now, There was only fear and apologies in her mind.

She hurt him a lot before, So it's a given that he will be angry. She just has to resolve his resentment with time. Anyway, they already done the deed, He will not going to run away from her.

Ding

Alex didn't even look in her direction and entered the elevator, Then pressed the highest floor of this hospital 20th button.

Alia also didn't exist, He was the reason she came here, So she stayed inside with Alex.

Awkward Silence

"Well...Those fried eggs were quite tasty, I ate them all on my own."

Alia couldn't bear the awkward silence and decided to be the first to break it.

Normally, She is the one who makes others uncomfortable like this but now that the table has turned, It's putting quite a pressure on her, If it's someone else she will not care but her favorability for Alex is long crossed 200 points, So his every action is held very significant value in her heart.

Alex ignored her once again, He just looked at the arrow indicator flashing on the top of the elevator door.

"Alex, Well I know you are angry, How about we go shopping? We can buy those new games man-loving nowadays, What it says, War god or something."

Alia was desperate to hear his voice, Even if it was just for yelling at her, She wanted to hear it, This silent treatment of his is like torture to her.

She was new to this dating thing, So she spoke about the most common thing. It's said games are the best things used to gain forgiveness from your man.

Although her business mind didn't get the temptation of games, Like they didn't even have any good resell value like the jewelry of women, She still tries her best to calm down his anger with this things.

If the games didn't work, Then there is always a car option open. Anyway, didn't people say cars are the second love of a man? She is ready to spend any amount of money to make Alex talk to her, Right now.

Still no reply, Alex is like a wooden statue standing in front of the door, Looking at the little indicator bar.

"How about we go and buy a new car? Your EV is now became old model, right? Let's go buy something powerful like a ghost or poison model of bull and horse brand."

Alia didn't like this at all, Her ears dying to hear his voice but he was not speaking to her, So she even pulled out this big temptation, Hoping at least he will talk to her.

"...What am I in your eyes? A whore or prostitute?"

Alex finally spoke, His voice is very plain without any emotions in it, A dry void of any warmth.

"What!!? No why did you say- !! Alex don't misunderstand me, I am really sorry, I know I hurt you before, I am just trying to make up for it."

Alia panicked. It might be the first time after being president, She panicked but the thought of him hating her was too much.

So she started babbling about this stuff. She did not mean to humiliate him, She just followed the trend as she didn't know anything about dating.

"Making up with me? How? Getting into my bed at night, and going down on me? You know I was drunk and you still did it, There is a special word for this action of yours, you know."

This time his voice contains hate and anger with a touch of disgust. Alex was glad that he had this god-level skill. It made his job very easy.

Right now, He was doing this to break Alia's mindset, So she will be ready to do anything to get him back. That way he can complete 2nd and 1st tasks, If not for he creating opportunity there is no way in hell she ever suggests him doing something with her mother.

"Tha- I...Sorry"

Alia was tongue-tied, She didn't have any argument against his words, She indeed committed a crime yesterday, It's just that at that time she didn't think much of it.

All her thinking was only following logic, not morals or emotions, So It was the best decision in her mind. But now it turns out she committed a crime and even hurt Alex.

She can now only apologize and pray for his forgiveness.

'I definitely take care of Natasha, When I go back.'

Alia gritted her teeth and thought about it, This idea of getting his body first and then the heart was given to her by Natasha, Hence she became the target of Alia's anger.

Although she didn't blame others for her misfortune, that didn't mean she would let go of the one who was responsible for it.

Shudder

'Why did it suddenly become chilly? Am I going to get sick or what?'

In the car downstairs of the parking lot, Natasha shuddered in the cold and looked left and right to check if any windows were open but they were all closed, Making her confused as to why she suddenly felt this cold.

...

"Too late, Too little."

Back in the elevator, Alex said to Alia. His tone of full of giving up and losing his confidence, He at this moment looks like a soldier who lost his war.

"No, I will make up for it, Tell me I will do it for you, No matter what you want, I will provide it for you."

Alia became scared, That voice he used is like he was saying he had given up on her, He gave up on his love for her.

Her heart felt like a truck rammed into it. It was very painful but not because he gave up on his love for her but because of that she hurt him to the extent that he finally gave up hope for their relationship.

No, she can't give up like this. She had to try to salvage their bond back. She could give anything at any time if he asked, No matter if it was money or her company. She was willing to hand it over to him for her crimes.

Ding

The elevator finally reached the top floor and opened its doors. Alex was about to walk out but was stopped by Alia.

"Please tell me, What I can do to make up for you."

Alia desperately wanted to protect their relationship, She can't lose him, Not when she now can feel the joy and ecstasy of love.

She also wanted to shower him with her love, Spoil him rotten, Show him how much she also loves him but right now she might even lose the right to be close to him.

"Leave!!!"

Ice-cold words of his answered Alia, After that he tried to walk past her.

"No!! You are not going anywhere."

Alia didn't want him to fade away from her line of sight. She was afraid that if she let him do that, She might not see him again.

So she pushed Alex in the elevator and closed the door. After that she directly pushed the emergency stop button. No one allowed to leave this elevator until Alex tells her what he wants for to forgive her.

'There she is, It taken quite more time then I estimated.'

When Alex saw Alia doing this other than panicking, He was happy in his heart. This is her possessive nature starting to come out. He at first thought she didn't even let the elevator reach to the last floor but it looked like she was getting hold of her possessiveness.

But still she couldn't able to control it, But this way it will create an opening for him to strike, When she becomes more desperate, Which will be his golden opportunity.

"...."

Alex didn't say anything to her but just looked at her with a judgmental gaze As if he knew her intentions and was disgusted by it

"What?? Why are you looking at me like that? I will open the door when you answer me, What you want me to do for you to forgive me."

Alia felt very painful in her heart because of his this gaze. He looked at her like she was some disgusting thing. She didn't want it. She wanted those hungry eyes Which were wanting to ravage her gazing at her last night.

"Alex tha- Hiss."

Alia wanted to walk close to Alex but she didn't pay attention and stretched her leg a little too long. As she done that a sharp pain come out from her nether part and struck her brain, halting her words.

She clenched her lower half in agony, Alex was really not merciful yesterday, It was hurting like hell to her now even with her awakened strong body.

"Stand still."

Alex this time couldn't stand and see her in the pain, So he got close to her and gently supported her. This was completely the opposite of the cold treatment he was given by her a few moments ago.

"Fairy Blessing."

Alex then put his hand on her crotch and used holy blessing skill, He deliberately spoke the wrong name in front of Alia, It was for to lay next step.

Shine Groan

A golden light shone out of Alex's hands and entered Alia's body, As the light started to penetrate her into her skin, She groaned in comfort. Her pain from below also vanished in the instant.

"Alex this- Mummm"

Alia wanted to question in surprise but her words were stopped by a pleasurable moan as that light didn't just stop after healing pain near the crotch but started to spread throughout her body.

Alia was shocked by this but his power was just getting started.

Chapter 43 43. Hot And Cold

"Humm~!!!"

A sensual moan escaped the half-open scarlet lips of Alia.

Her eyes turned misty and her vision got blurred, She wrapped her hands around Alex's neck, As her whole body hang on his.

The golden light penetrated every inch of her body, From her muscles to even her bone marrow, She felt it as it was rushing through inside her.

But other than pain, She only felt ecstasy, This golden light is like a current of ecstasy, bombarding her with pleasure.

"Ohhh, my Gawd!~" Whimper

In the end, when light entered her genes and improved them, Her body reached to limit, She held Alex tightly in her embrace, Her body tensed up before she released herself.

Huff Huff

Alia's modest chest was heaving up and down, As she stood in the elevator with the support of Alex.

She didn't expect it would be this easy to make her cum, But that light was too cheating. It was stimulating her every part, making her forget to even think for a second, But now that she recovered, She was embarrassed to even meet Alex's eyes.

Well it was not all golden lights fault, Alex also used Ecstasy hand on her, Hence why she had this big reaction.

"If you are done, Get off me."

Alex's cold voice rang, Pulling Alia out of her blissful aftertaste.

She looked up ahead to his face and became confused about why he was angry but soon she remembered. She trapped him here. She pretty much took him as a hostage. Anyone will be pissed off, not to mention she also hurt him lot before.

"That- You are also awakened, person?"

Alia asked the dumb question because of her anxiousness. The reason being she wanted him to keep talking even if it was just to scold her.

This way at least he will talk to her, So she can figure out ways to decrease his anger toward her.

"...."

Alex didn't say anything to her, just tried to shake off her body half-heartedly from him.

"That question is kinda dumb huh, You are obviously an Awakened person."

Alia felt embarrassed. It was quite clear Alex is awakened person the moment golden light came out from his hand. It was she who asked the stupid question but in her defense, She panicked, She was not thinking straight.

"So your power is healing, huh?."

Once again trying to start conventional she asked stupid questions. She hated this feeling of being dumb, Her brain was usually as fast as a rocket, now was even slower than a snail.

It's quite clear he has the superpower to heal and yet again she asked the obvious.

'Wait!!? The superpower of healing? Will that work on mom?'

Alia then realized the key part, Superpowers are supernatural things, If normal things didn't work for a person then superpowers should definitely work.

She had long since thought of doing this but it's very very rare to find an awakened person not to mention the one who has the power to heal.

But now it's turned out that Alex, Who was with her for nearly a year not only an awakened person but also has the superpower to heal, She now regrets not telling him about her mother before, He might be able to wake her up long ago.

She thinks his superpower has to work on her mother, After all it did work on herself, She can now feel again. So it's highly likely to also work for her mother.

"Well, Kinda, It's complicated."

Alex this time did answer her, His voice also contains warmth for her, This threw Alia off track, She was not able to understand if he was angry with her or not.

If she does not have a love brain at this moment, She is surely able to see that Alex was doing the oldest trick in the book, the Hot-Cold treatment. This trick not only makes it easy for others to agree with you but the main point is that they will feel like they are the winner in the end, Gaining the affection of others.

But sadly her brain was not working straight, It's like saying goes that says in love your IQ dropped by half? That was happening with her.

"Complicated, How?"

Alia didn't understand what he meant by complicated but as soon as she spoke she regretted it. In their world of awakening, asking someone about their superpower is Taboo, Some even do not show their power in front of others, In fear that it can be used against them.

Alex already was way too generous that he not only showed his superpower to her, But also used her because she was in pain.

"Actually my power doesn't work on everyone, I need..well let's just say I need to have a "connection" with them."

Alex spoke to her, Although his tone was still distant but he still explained to her. After all, this will lead him to step further into screwing her mother with Alia's consent.

"Ohh, What connection?"

Once again she did the taboo, But she couldn't help it. She was not in the right state of mind right now. All she could think about was to maintain this state of Alex. At least this way he was talking to her, unlike giving her the cold shoulder.

Also, her heart felt strange warmth. Like it said before, saying your superpowers in detail is taboo. Although Alex did not talk about it in detail, he outright said her weakness of his skill.

This proves that he didn't see her as an outsider and still loves her as deeply as before but he is just hiding that love behind a mask of anger.

'...Can you let me go now?"

Alex avoided the question, Now is not the time to go to the main point, He still had to soften her before he can go to that route.

Normally, It's kinda impossible to do this to anyone who has a possessiveness perk but Alia also had a spoiler perk, Which spoils it's lover to bone, Now he just had to let that perk overwhelm her possessiveness. This way he can pretty much convince her to do anything and she will let it go.

"No, Not until you tell me, What you want to forgive me."

Alia also didn't continue to talk about his powers. Now she was more worried about other things, She already had a hunch that Alex has a strong background, and Now he revealed his powers, She was sure of it. He should have a pretty strong background. After all superpowers are dependent on genes, Mostly If parents have superpower, Their kids too get those superpower genes.

There are also other ways to awaken but that too need money and power, So it's set in stone that Alex had a very strong background.

This is the more reason she will not let him go without him forgiving her. After all, what will she do if he leaves her forever? She will not be able to find him. No matter how much she tries, Those big families are good at these things.

So she didn't want to take risks. Even if her actions may anger Alex more, She will not let him get away from her until he forgives her.

"Forgive you? For what? Did you do something wrong?"

Alex had hate and jokes in his voice. He looked at Alia strangely and spoke as his tone was full of mocking.

"I-I hurt you before, Ignore your love an-and last night did that without your consent, For that forgive me."

Alia was ashamed, and angry at herself, and apologized. She felt regretful for her past actions. If she can feel and see Alex's feelings for her before, It will never happen.

She also regretted her last night's actions, To be honest, She just wanted to sleep next to him and ask him to do it when he woke up, But she wasn't able to control herself. He smelled so good and was looking more and more tempting. Her body also became feverishly hot.

Then one thing led to another and in the end, she sneaked into his blanket and put her face on his crotch. She should have stopped there but she wasn't able to. Soon she even gulped his hot wood in her mouth.

Even her OCD of cleanliness didn't trigger as lust occupied her mind, She only wanted to extinguish the fire in her but this way she didn't consider the effect of her actions on him.

"Huh!? You don't even know why I am angry at you, So what you are sorry about? I don't care about the past. I sensed the anomaly in you, After spending time with you, Yet I loved you too much to leave. So your past action does not have much effect on me, Although it hurt me a lot but I don't blame you for it."

Alex once again tries to shake Alia off of him but fails miserably, He is just a mere F+ rank awakened, Meanwhile Alia is proper B rank awakened, It's wishful thinking that he can shake her off just by his strength.

Well, He also didn't hate it. Who can hate the beauty in their arms? Alia as the main heroine in both novels, So she is more than qualified for the title of beauty. It's just that he still had to act, If not how could he be able to bang her mother?

"Sob I-I sorry."

It's hard to think that there will be a day, When this famous black rose of the business world, Cries like a little boy in front of the man but now listening to him speaking, Tears run out of her eyes on their own, She hates herself even more.

He didn't even blame her but understand her problem, This hurt her more than she realized it. If he blames her, She at least eases her guilt but his talking like this not only touches her heart but also makes her realize how good Alex is for her.

How much did you have to love someone to ignore her past actions? She can't imagine the pain he must be in all this time, Yet he didn't even complain to her, or even understand it.

Has she saved the universe in her last life so that she gets this good boyfriend in this one? She knows she didn't do any good thing in this life that makes her deserve to have him.

"Hey, since when did you unlock this feature, I thought you didn't come up with this crappy function . Sigh Stop crying, I really don't care about your past actions."

Alex joked sternly but also gently reprimanded her to stop crying.

Hearing him, Alia also forcefully stopped her tears thinking seeing her tears might be also hurting him.

"As for last night? You should be thankful to the person that suggested you do that. If not, I should have gone home this morning. If I were you I would give a bonus to that person for the advice."

Of course, He didn't forget about Natasha. He said this just to save her ass. Alex knows the personality of Alia, The moment she exits the hospital, Natasha had to face the wrath of angry Alia, So he said this eases her anger for Natasha.

After all, He also has some plans for that girl, So it's not good for him, If Natasha ends up at the bottom of the river.

"Really? Sob So you are also not angry because of that? Th-Then why are you angry?"

Alia was surprised and then became fearful. She couldn't imagine what she should have done if Alex was gone from her life.

It was not even a day that she realized her feelings for him and yet she couldn't fathom the idea of separation from him.

So she felt thankful for Natasha, anger for her also turned into gratitude. She will definitely give Natasha something very good as a reward.

But then she became confused. If not for this thing then why was he angry that he broke up with her? She wanted to know to avoid that from happening again and make Alex forgive her.

"Simple reason, Your possessiveness. I get it, You want your man to be with you and even get a little jealous when I talks to other women but you can't try to cut off all my contacts, figuratively and literally, I am not the thing that you want possession of, I am an alive human being with my own fucking will."

Alex said in anger, His tone was very hateful and disgusted. He even used vulgar words. This is to show how much she caused him problems and pain.

"I...I tha-"

Alia was speechless, She had never even thought of this being an issue. Don't you have to protect a person if you love them? She didn't think there was anything wrong with this but now Alex said it means there has to be something wrong with it.

So she wanted to apologize but she knows apologizing is not going to do anything, Now she had to prove it to him with her actions.

"Tell me what I should do, Alex? I will control my possessiveness, I promise. Just give me one chance"

Knowing why Alex was angry, Alia was ready to change. If doing so she can get forgiveness from Alex then she will do anything for him.

'Finally, You took the bait, My little demoness.'

Just as Alia said these words, Alex smirked in his heart, Now is time, This is the golden opportunity he was waiting to arrive.

(A/N : Like always thank you for reading and have a good day ḡŸ~'.)

Chapter 44 44. Fall

"No you can't do it, You think you can but trust me you can't."

Alex outright denied her request, It's not time yet. There is still a little more push needed for Alia to fall, Only then he will be able to do what was planned for it.

"No, Please trust me. I can change, Just try to give me a chance."

Alia jumped up in his arms, She looked at him with a face full of determination, She is determined, If her letting him talk to other girls can resolve his anger then she is able to make herself do that, For him, she can control her urge to take control.

"No Alia you ca- "

"I can, Please just give me ONE chance, Tell me what to do and I will do it."

Alex wanted to deny her again but Alia cut him off mid-sentence.

She can't let go of this god given the opportunity, She had to resolve his anger, Then she can do stuff couples do, Like going to the beach or dating in fancy places like people do in movies, The Alex will be harras by the goons, So she will jump to save the day and gain his admiration and affection, Didn't the all the love story go like this?

She wanted to experience all that stupid stuff with him. Before she used to think those things were a waste of time but now, She couldn't wait to go with Alex. As long as he is there then every second is well spent.

"....Are you sure? I might have to hurt you a lot, That might even make you hate me. Did you still want to do it? I will not recommend it, Just end our relationship here and bid farewell on the good terms, I will go back home an-and yo-u to fin- Sob."

Alex started to push her further and further towards the edge, A little more push and she will completely fall too deep. That's what he wants. This way she will be kept in check and not go berserk.

So he started, He used his words as weapons and bombarded on Alia. Each word of his leaves deep wounds on her heart. At first, he has given her hope but the next moment, He snatched that away from her.

As he spoke, His voice got heavy like crying. At the last word he choked on his tears and couldn't say any further. A lone tear escaped from his red eyes.

It's like he can't bear to separate from her or see her with another man but he forces himself to end things for their own good.

"No no no, NO!! I just will do anything for you, for the US. So just tell me, "The pain thinking you will leave me is way worse than anything you will throw at me."

Alia is scared when Alex talks about completely ending their relationship, She can't, She will not let that happen.

He is her forbidden, Her love. She can't give up on him. If there will be pain or suffering she has to bear to keep by her side then she is willing, She can go to any extent to not let him get away from her.

So she exclaimed, And demanded to know the thing she had to do. She can't lose him, Not now when she finally knows what love is.

".....Are you sure? Alia you are going to hurt a lot, You might even start to hate me, Now do you still wanna do it? Think very carefully, Alia. If you pass, We will be together but if you can't do it then it will be goodbye."

Alex spoke in a heavy voice, He said very clearly what she will lose and yet didn't say anything about what she had to do to keep him, He still let that thing stay as a mystery.

This is a simple tactic a salesman uses. First say pros and cons, and let your client choose first before saying a price. That way they will most of the time surely buy that thing just because they already decided to buy it.

Alex doing the same here for Alia, If she already decided on following his test then she will follow through to the end and not try to think of alternatives. She will only walk on the path he paved for her and the best thing about this is that She will think she was the one who chose this to do it, Not him as he gave her a "choice".

"No, will you tell me what I have to do?"

Alia didn't even consider what might be his task or think about other options as any businesswoman will do, She just agreed without knowing anything about it.

The worst mistake a businesswoman can make is to agree without knowing the terms and conditions of the task, But she didn't care about it at all.

All she knew was not to fail. No matter what he threw at her, She had to harden her heart and bear it. If not, she might really lose him forever. She will never let that happen.

"Okay then, Tell me if the friend you want to use my power is a man or a woman?"

After doing all this, Alex was sure to take a step further now. It will be a matter of minutes until he breaks the news.

But for some reason other than being anxious, He was excited about it. Just thinking of taking permission from your girlfriend to bang her mother is quite unique and exhilarating.

There is too much mental satisfaction, It is worthy enough for him to take this risk. Anyway, What could go wrong? At best she will be angry at him for some time, He can handle a little temper of hers.

"Huh!?...Wh- Woman, She is a woman. How do you know, I need you to use your powers for moth- a friend of mine?"

Alia does not understand the meaning of his question, Like why he needs to know the gender of another party, But when she looked into her eyes. She understands it.

He might be jealous of that person as a man, That's why he asked her, That's the reason. She felt this was quite cute. There were also butterflies in her stomach because of it. She loves this feeling a lot.

Well, She didn't realize it but she got caught in the effect of "Peach Blossom Eyes", So she has this brain-feed moment, It's quite a convenient thing to have for the raid, Alex didn't have to spend extra time on thinking about logical reason, His target does that job for him.

That's why Alia answered quickly, So Alex will not misunderstand her, But she got curious and asked about how he knows she needs his superpower for others.

As for why she didn't tell her it was her mother? She didn't want to hide it but Alex already said it was her friend. She didn't want to point it out and make him angry that he will again start to give her the cold shoulder treatment.

So she just goes with the flow. Anyway, it's not important to know if it was her mother or friend, Right?

She can tell him, That "friend" is her mother after they were done with the task, So Alex will not be angry at her.

"I spent 1 year loving you, I know the meaning of every action, You will never ask me those dumb questions If you are not in urgent need of my superpower to use it on someone. But that person can't be family. After all, If it's family then you should have told me, So I assume the next best option, It will be friend."

"murmur It's hard to imagine you have friends, to be honest."

Alex had time to explain this and also solidify that she will not blurt out, That the "friend" they are going to see is her mother. This way his plan is foolproof.

The state Alia is showing right now, No matter what happens, She surely is not gonna reveal it. Giving him an escape route too. After everything is said and done, He can even throw all the responsibility saying he didn't know, and can even guilt trip Alia to escape from the consequences.

'Why does it exactly sound like by book definition of gaslighting? Well, I might be imagining it, Alex stops overthinking and focuses on the current task.'

Alex stops himself from overthinking illogical things, Anyway right his focus should be on banging his girlfriend's mom.

Have to say he felt both weird and excited thinking about it. He was going to unlock the feature most man's dreamed of doing in his past world but wasn't able to achieve it. But he was soon going to step into uncharted territory. May the power of anime and god be with him.

"Th-That's logical."

Alia was glad that she didn't say it was her mother, If she did that it should really piss Alex off. She makes a pact herself not to let Alex find this out until he was not angry at her anymore.

Before that under no circumstances, She will let him know about this fact. No matter what happened, Alex should not know about it.

As for his muttering under his breath? She didn't care about that. She even agreed with him. It's really hard to imagine her having a friend, Given her cold-blooded nature. Onky Natasha came anywhere close to being something called a friend.

Plus he admitting he loved her for year was done the trick, She didn't care what he wanted to do she will do it, Her body is strong she can handle getting little hurt.

"Okay then, Let's go and meet your friend, But before moving forward with this, I once again wanted you to confirm that you will do it no matter what I ask you to do, Do you agree?"

Now everything was in place and ready, Now all he needed to do was to give her a final push, Then she would fall completely. So he even changed the words to do task for him to do anything he says, This is also the reason why he asked this question multiple times.

"I am ready, You throw anything at me I will handle it."

Alia was confident in herself, And readily agreed. She couldn't wait to get this over with and go on the same romantic date with Alex.

She already planned everything in her mind, Now she just needs to make a call to arrange it.

"...Thank you and sorry in advance, I definitely will hurt you a lot in the next few hours. You can pull out any moment you want if you can't bear it. At least then we should have a good wholesome end to our relationship."

Alex was hesitant as he spoke and once again offer her the "option" to quit but also make it unusable as this is also an ultimatum.

This is nothing but a false choice, Alia feels like she has a choice but actually, He was leading her by the finger.

"Sob I love you, Alia Kiss You are really the best girlfriend, A man could ever ask for."

Alex embraced her curvy body in his arms and spoke very emotionally, After that he planted a sweet gentle kiss on her scarlet lips before praising her.

She was a really good if not a great girlfriend. After all, she was giving permission to her boyfriend to bang her mother on her own. Which girlfriend does that? Tell you not many.

"Now let's go and let me fuck that important person of yours."

Just after Alex finished praising her, He threw this bomb of information at her quickly and swiftly, As he prepared himself for the impact.

"Okay, Let's go and do it."

Alia also enthusiastically spoke these words contrary to Alex's expectation. He was surprised and looked at her, and then he found out the reason.

Alia didn't even listen to what he was talking about. After the kiss her brain stopped working and might even be crashed, So she didn't understand what he was saying. Her ears were hearing but her brain didn't process that information, So she just agreed.

[Ding!...]

Chapter 45 45. Strange Settings Of Alia

[Ding! The host completed the 1st task option...

All requirements were met...

The rewards were being distributed.

Congratulations to the host for getting "Harem Protection Halo" (Internal)...

Harem Protection Halo: As its name suggests, This halo is for the protection of harem members from inflights, So the possessor can be relaxed and worry-free about trouble in his harem from going out of control.

Effects :

â€¢ Members of the harem will not directly harm other members in harem physically.

â€¢ Aura of protection is granted to the members of Harem from each other. As long as they are harem members and the host is alive, They will not be able to kill each other, They somehow will survive.

â€¢ It's highly likely that they will be able to agree to do stuff, Which they normally wouldn't with members in the harem, So you can unlock new duos of them.]

The system jumped in as soon as Alia uttered those words. After all, technically she had given him permission to do it with her mother, So the task of the system was completed.

'Well...That was easy.'

Alex couldn't help but think about it. He was rushing his brain to calm Alia down and convince before but it turns out that he didn't need to be prepared at all.

The task still can be completed, When Alia gives permission, No matter if she understood what he was talking about or not.

'This is a loophole, So the task can also be cheated.'

Alex also learns a new thing now, Task can also be cheated by loopholes. As long as he does not cross the given conditions, He can do whatever he wants to complete the world choice option.

This also means that, He finds an easy way to earn rewards. Just find loopholes in the requirements and he didn't have to spend too much time making extra plans for the aftermath.

It might be the system purposefully leave it there, To give him more freedom to act.

'Well then, Now I still need to do that?'

Alex fell into contemplation of his thoughts, He first thought that he needed Alia there to get permission from her.

He had a whole script ready for making her convinced to take permission from her but now it does not seem necessary to do that. This way at least Alia didn't have to see him banging her own blood mother and get hurt by it.

'System gives me estimates of what emotions Alia will experience, If I did it in front of her?'

So he asked the system, This is because there are two ways to resolve the possessiveness of Alia. One way is to go slowly and in small doses until it will go away.

Other options are to use shock and more ruthless ones. That is when you force someone to let go of their possessiveness by using fear, threat, or other things.

This is how things work in novels, Although there is a chance that he will break a person completely but that only applies to the common person.

If it's someone like a heroine then there is no way this will fail, As all heroines are protected by the world, So they also have enough defense against mental shock like those ones.

Still, Alex asked the system to make sure that Alia will not experience too severe emotions. Hence he had to know before doing anything further.

[Ding! A request from the host is being processed...

Calculating all the future estimates....

Estimates of Alia's emotions of seeing the host doing with her mother are like the following...

Hate : 0%

Anger : 0%

Despair : 0%

Depression : 0%

Envy : 25%

Jealousy : 50%

Competitive : 95%

Love : 99%...]

'What!?? How?'

Alex was stupefied looking at the system panel.

It's reasonable that Alex was stupefied. After all, how can Alia not hate or even be angry seeing him banging her mother?

As everyone knows, Alia is a very possessive woman. Even messing with little things like a notebook of hers has very terrible consequences. That was reason enough to make someone "Transfer" out of school.

So it was hard to imagine that someone like her will not show negative emotions when she will see her beloved man fucking her own mother? It does not make sense at all.

And what is even more unbelievable is that not only she will not feel hate or anger but it seems that she would rather like it or compete for it.

How does that even make sense? Alia is not the cuck protagonist of NTR. It's not possible for her to act like the system estimated.

'System, did you make a mistake?'

Alex wasn't able to fathom the result of the estimation of the system, So he asked if the system misunderstood him or not.

After all, It's not possible for Alia he knew to act like this, Not to mention just a few moments ago. He also confirmed that she will react extremely negatively if she sees him with another woman in the reward options.

Plus, Who is Alia? Not only is she the Cold-CEO Trope but she was and is the heroine of two novels.

'Wait!? Heroine.'

Suddenly, Alex had his light bulb moment, He might have understood the reason behind it, He was ignoring the obvious thing.

[Ding! The host there is no mistake in the system estimates, You guessed right, She will react this way because she is the heroine.]

The system answered his previous question and also confirmed his theory of why Alia will act like that.

It's actually not that hard to guess, On the contrary, it's quite obvious.

It is all because she is the heroine of the novel, To be exact the heroine of the harem novel, Which is also a not serious but wish fulfillment one.

And she was and is not only one but part of both Nathen's novel plot and Jake's plot's. Both protagonists are pretty much incompetent at taming someone like Alia.

As Alia didn't need them for anything, She was self-contained, So their tricks that worked on other women of saving the beauty is useless on her, and they also neither had the guts, mind, or heart to pull something like this extreme on Alia.

So heavenly will have to make it easier for them. That is because as the law of the wishfuliment novel dictates, If there is a mother and daughter, Then they have to share the bed with a protagonist.

It's absolute in every wishfuliment novel to happen, In both novels of Nathen and Jake these two women were added to the harem. Even Nathen who only adds virgins had added Alia's mother at top of his female partner's list.

So Alia will not react the same way when her mother is involved as she will with others. This is a strange setting set up for her by the heavenly will long before to allow the protagonist to unlock the legendary duo of mother and daughter.

'Damn, It's too unfair.'

Alex felt very helpless. He had to work his ass off to even get close to the option of mother and daughter to even think about it, And these bastards of heavenly will can get it by default. Wasn't it too unfair? He hates it.

But well at least now he gets to enjoy the benefits of the thing heaven reserved for the protagonist. So it's not a that bad thing...I guess.

'Fuck it, Big deal get back at them with interest.'

Alex throws off all his unnecessary thoughts, Anyway, he already knew how unfair the novel world is to people other than the protagonist. This gives him more reason to go against the protagonist without much worry or holding back.

Also he is deemed as a villain by the world, So he will be the villain that no protagonist is ever able to deal with. He will show those entitled bastards of heaven what happens when they mess with a person loved by the world like a villain.

"Let's go, Alia, We waste too much time here."

After everything Alex said this to Alia in his arms, Who was still in her own blissful world, So she didn't answer him. The three words "I Love You" he said to her were reverberating in her mind over and over again, As a very charming smile adored on her scarlet lips.

So Alex let her be and pressed the button to start the elevator and selected floor number 3.

This is also the setting of this damned world. After all, how can the special VIP room be on the same floor as the common general ICU?

This is also arranged by the luck of the protagonist. If not, How can the protagonist be able to meet Grace and Gloria? It was all already planned and made for the protagonist to come and pick it up.

If he did not interfere before, Madam Miller should have already fallen in Nathen's pocket and he also had lost Grace's affection and that would seem right in others eyes. All because he was considered to be a villain, There was no chance to leave him but thankfully he had a system, So he didn't need to worry about much.

Ding

The elevator reached the 3rd floor and two doors of it opened sideways. Alex wanted to walk outside with Alia in his arms but his steps suddenly halted.

"How?"

Alex looked dumbfoundedly at the man in front of him as he was trying to process the situation.

(A/N : Like Always thank you for reading and have a good day ğŸ˜.)

Chapter 46 46. The Mummy

'What happened to him?'

Alex dumbfoundedly looked at the man in front of him, Who was covered in bandages all over his body, His both hands and legs were also warped in the white plaster, He was pushed out on the wheelchair. When you look at him, it's not hard to feel pity for him.

Of course, That's the case for others, Alex here didn't care about this man being this much injured at all, What he cared about is how this man turned into a fucking mummy.

"Hey buddy, what happened to you?"

Alex with Alia in his arms walked towards the "Mummy" with a devilish smirk on his face.

"Huh?...YoU!!! KiLi HiM, klll HiM rlgHt NoW!!!"

Man was in a wheelchair, Hearing someone talking to him, He turned his face towards the sound. At first he wasn't able to process it but soon he came back to his senses but then he tried to point at Alex and started to speak with very difficulty because even his mouth seems to be injured.

There were two men in black suits and sunglasses standing behind him. One was pushing his wheelchair, While the other was just walking behind them.

The man in the wheelchair was yelling but these two people completely ignored him. Their faces were rock solid, Without any emotions at all.

"YoU bAsTeRdS dOn'T fOrGeT tHaT I aM AISo HiEr Of ThE fAmIly? I Am NaThEn GaYIEr YoU tRaltOrS."

Well, it turns out this "mummy" is none-other than an old friend, Nathen Gayler. The main protagonist of this world.

As for who made him become "mummy"? That's the mystery even our guy Alex wants to know. When he left him, This guy was alright other than a shoe in his mouth but it was just a few hours from then and he turned into this Egyptian dead pharaoh.

"Sorry young master, We don't understand what you are talking about, You will be better if you just keep qui- huh!? Argh!!"

The man behind Nathen nonchalantly said to him, They actually don't care to give any respect to Nathen, Because they are royal subordinates of their elder miss, The sister of Nathen.

So they are quite hateful towards Nathen. As he stands against their young lady, Only reason they were even here was that the hospital called that he was injured.

No matter how much they hate this arrogant Nathen but he is still a candidate heir for the family, They can't just let him be, Plus there is also their Madam Gayler's support behind Nathen, So they had to come here and get him.

It's just that as he was talking, A very powerful pressure like a mountain came and started crushing them. It was so strong that he couldn't even give birth to the idea of resisting it.

He right now, So glad that he was not the target of this pressure, He just felt the residue of escaped power.

"UHNNN!?! Do SoMeThInG!!

Nathen yelled out in pain as he was the target of this powerful pressure. He didn't understand what was happening today. How in just one day he was able to provoke two powerful awakened masters?

He didn't understand at all. Normally, He is able to walk sideways in the world of the force Awakens. Only his master was the one that was able to put him in situations like this one.

But just today, He met two strong awakens that put him in place, He was not this unlucky before.

'It's all this damn, Alex's fault. If I entered that room, No one would dare to do this to me.'

Even in pain and pressure, Nathen's thoughts fell on Alex. All the blame he put on Alex's head.

It may be the instincts of the protagonist or the way of their thinking but he was right on the point. The things that happened to him mostly because of Alex.

Crack

There was a breaking sound, This sound coming from his bones. They were already fractured and forcefully pulled together before plastering it, But now under this pressure, they started to shift and change their positions again.

If this goes on any longer, His bone will be turned into fine powder.

'This basterds, When I become the heir of the family, I will make their life a living hell.'

Nathan cursed this man in black behind him. They were supposed to protect him in a situation like this one, But they did not even move an inch to even try and pretend to help him.

They just stand there like they see nothing. He hates them to the core now. He will surely make them regret doing this to him for the rest of their life.

"That's enough Miss Miller."

After taking his sweet time, Man walking behind Nathen with another man in black, Stepped out.

As he makes his entry, A strong wave of pressure is released from his body And countered pressure, Alia puts on Nathan.

"Huh!? What!?"

But to the man's surprise, His pressure can just push Alia barely back as it soon came back with a double of force, Still targeting Nathan.

Crake Carak

Nathan felt it, Most of his bones are completely broken, without the use of the superpower for healing he will be disabled for the rest of his life.

Thankfully, He has the superpower for healing, But that didn't help with the pain as his broken bones were piercing his internal organs.

It's all thanks to his superpower of healing, Which helped him to avoid major organs and start healing to stop internal bleeding, this is the reason he was alive. If not, He should have died in a very painful death right now.

"Miss...Please give a face to the Gayler family and stop."

The man in black now sweating buckets, He is also B-Rank Awakened, same as Alia. But he wasn't even able to slightly counter her powers. He knew this eldest miss of the Miller family was stronger than him but he didn't think the difference would be this big.

This is the perverted power of the main heroine and top of that Alex used holy blessing in her, Which once again solidified her foundation. Right now she can even beat an A-Rank person, Not to mention a B-Rank that didn't even have a name.

Usually man in the black, loves watching Nathan in misery but he can't afford it if Nathan dies under his supervision, So he quickly moves to put the family behind him. He hopes that Alia will sell their family some face.

After all, their families are not friends but they are also not enemies, No one wants to create unnecessary trouble for themselves.

Crack

"...."

Nathen finally couldn't bear the pressure and was on the verge of falling unconscious, Alia completely ignored what that man in the black was talking about, All her attention was on Nathan.

Why she will not? This "Mummy" just said to kill her beloved, That was a crime enough to give him the death penalty in her eyes.

She was enjoying the confront in the arms of Alex, She was in bliss but this man came and ruined it their world of two people

"Okay, That's enough Alia."

Seeing that Alia might really kill Nathan, Alex had to step in. After all, right now the luck of Alia is higher than Nathan, She might have a chance to kill him.

But if she couldn't, Then that means the protagonist's luck would jump in. Then they surely became the assistance for the protagonist to gain new powerful followers. That's how every plot goes.

The protagonist's life is threatened, Someone powerful takes pity on him and lends him a hand, Then if that person is a woman, She will be added into the harem and if it's a man, He will die protecting the protagonist in the later plot.

Both of these scenarios were not good for him. Either way, it will create a new enemy stronger for him.

Hearing Alex speak, Alia quickly pulled her pressure back, She didn't want to create a bad image of herself in his eyes. It's just now she was super angry hearing those words and wanted to end this man in front of her who had the guts to even think about killing her man.

Huff

As the pressure on him disappears, Nathan couldn't help but breathe quickly, He saw death just a moment ago, For the first time in his life he felt that he was going to die, This never happens to him before, No matter what situation he was in, He was always sure he will survive for some reason but today that feeling is disappeared.

The only breath of death lingers around him, And what is worse is that in both events he didn't know why he was being attacked, He was just minding his own business and he got targeted.

He is innocent, This world is way too unfair to him.

"YoU bltCh-..."

After Nathan calmed down, He wanted to curse the person who did this to him, completely forgetting that just a few seconds ago, This is the woman who put him in front of the gate of hell. If she wanted she could have easily pushed him in and ended his story.

It's that because of the protagonist's personality, He had unreasonable confidence that he could provoke powerful people and get away with it, But unknown to him, The things that protected him from others tricks were long destroyed by Alex.

So Nathan, Who was once again filled with confidence and wanted to say some hard words but the moment, He saw the face of Alia, He swallowed all the words.

He never seen anyone as beautiful as the woman in front of him. He felt like he was falling in love with this woman but then he noticed something that stung in his eyes like sharp thorns.

This beauty that he thinks he falls in love with was in the arms of his most hated person. Alex.

That disgusting man's arms were wrapped around the waist of this woman. He hated it. Why did Alex get the beautiful woman and not him? Does that seem fair?

"Hey, aren't you with your girlfriend- Ummm."

Nathan will not allow Alex to enjoy two beautiful women, Not to mention that the other one is this powerful, So he decided to ruin their relationship. That's why he wanted to say that he saw Alex with Grace before saying she is his girlfriend. This way this strong woman will clearly dump Alex.

But before he completed his sentence, A black object darted towards him at high speed and stuck in his mouth.

He felt like deja vu. He experienced this same thing before early in the day. The similar size shoe of Alex was right now in his mouth. It was even stuck deeper than before, Which completely blocked of his ability to speak.

"Het guys, Take him always, He will not speak much now that I have given what he loves."

Alex then said to the man in black standing behind Nathan in a very easy voice, As if he was doing Nathan a favor.

Well he is indeed doing him a favor, If he said about Grace to Alia, Nathan will be first on to face her wrath.

"Uhhmmm!!! Kimm Himm!!!"

Nathan became furious and agitated, He made lots of noise from his mouth commanding the men behind to kill Alex but they once again ignored him.

"Thank you for your favor sir, We Gayler family owe you this time."

The man behind Nathan was trained in the family, So they knew who to provoke and who not to, Alex in front of him was on their no-no list.

As his aura and temperament was extraordinary, Showing that his background was not simple, So they just simply thanked him for both leaving their young master's life and shutting his mouth off, Before they pushed Nathan's wheelchair into the elevator, While he was still trying to struggle but because of his injuries couldn't do much.

'Who did this to him?'

After the elevator gate closed, Alex couldn't help but think about it. It's not easy to hurt the protagonist. Even if he lost his little luck, This guy's luck is still over 9000.

[Ding! It's a friendly reminder to the host that, You have to quickly deal with Madam Miller without wasting much time or you will not get the opportunity to complete the task later.]

Alex, who was thinking about who might do this to him, was started by the system notification. He didn't understand what happened to the system and Why it was giving a warning without telling him about the reason, System normally tells him the reasons but this time it didn't mention it.

"Alia, Let's go and do the job first without wasting our time."

Alex was curious but he didn't waste time and quickly dragged Alia, who once lost in her bliss with his arms around their waist into the VIP room, Where Madam Miller is admitted.

(A/N : Like always thank you for reading and have a good day ǎŸ~".)

Chapter 47 47. Stupid Author

"Quite advanced technology you got here."

As Alia and Alex entered the ward, Alex looked at the surroundings, Which looked like they were directly taken out of some sci-fi movie.

Multiple glass like tubes were scattered all around the wall of the room, As greenish fluid was running through them.

Large monitors were also present on the walls, Which were showing countless data, Which Alex did not know the meaning of.

"Yeah, This is all specifically made for my Mo- Ahem I mean my friend, These are the things that were keeping her...well alive, As she is in coma for a while now."

Alia, who was half out of her trance, heard the words of Alex and said, This room was made just for her mother, As her mother's condition was quite unique, She is unconscious, So she can't eat or drink anything.

These tubes carry the nutrition in their body. This fluid was quite famous among the awakened society, As it had power to keep the body in ideal state without doing anything, Alia had to pull out some hidden connections to get her hands on this thing.

The monitors here show and monitor the quality, quality, and pressure of the fluid at all times, So there will be no mishap because of over or less dose of fluid.

"Really? That's a figure. After all, it's impossible to find this thing here in the city. You really had to use some heavy favors to get this thing."

Alex had already known how and where this thing came from. It was just in Alia's eyes this is his first time coming here. He can't act too knowing, No matter how docile Alia looks now, He didn't forget that she is still the black rose of the business world, Who kills people without blinking.

So he asked questions to her to both avoid suspicion and let her guard down and relax. That's why he purposefully decided to query about these things here to lead her according to him.

He also asked this because this thing is made for awakens as most of them wouldn't be able to quench their hunger just by normal food. After all, a stronger body needs more nutrition.

So some crazy scientists came together and made this stuff and sold it at the price of gold. Just 10ml of this liquid cost nearly around 15,000UC. Which is a sky high price for even awakened people, Only those with power and money can afford it.

"You have no idea, Those lunatics didn't want to sell it to me at all, I really have to use some heavy favors to acquire this little batch."

Alia said in a very wronged tone, God knows how many favors she had to use and owe to get this one person batch of nutrient fluid.

She goes through all that trouble only because this liquid is also very good for the normal human. Actually, this is more effective on them than the awakened person, It's just that this thing the one who made is made this fluid exclusive to the awakened people, For some fucked up superior being propaganda.

So Alia had to cash in some heavy favors to get this thing from those crazy science freaks.

"Well, If you tell me this before, I will be able to get you this thing in just one phone call."

Alex spoke as if he didn't care about it, But his tone had a touch of irritation. He said this not to just boast about his family background to soften Alia even more but also to remind Alia that she didn't trust him, Which also increased the guilt in her heart.

"Tha- Speaking inaudibly Sorry"

As Alex wanted, Alia felt once again guilty and frustrated with herself.

Thinking that, If she trusted him, Not only she didn't have to pull all those strings to get this fluid for her mother but also she would be able to gain more affection from Alex.

Right now she clearly heard the irritation in his voice. He was not happy that she hid this from him. This made her happy and afraid.

She was happy to see he still cares for her but now she is also afraid of him finding out that the "friend" of hers is actually her own mother. She is scared of thinking about Alex's reaction to the news.

'He might never want to see my face again, If he knows the truth.'

Alia couldn't help but contemplate the plausible outcome of that scenario, Which increased her anxiety even more. A decision to hide her "friend" being her mother was even more deeply rooted in her heart.

"Let's go to meet our "Sleeping Princess."

Alex once again took counter measures so that she would not ruin the plan. Others might say it's unnecessary to do this again and again and that he already did enough, But in a situation like this, there will never be "enough" counter measures. His well-planned game will fall into scrambles with even one slightest mistake.

So he had to do this. If not, her heroine's luck would trigger and make it very hard for him to move forward. There is also a system warning. That's why he didn't want to take a risk. Hence he wasted this little time to make sure he will not fail.

Now he was ready to meet the mother of Alia, Madam Miller.

"Huh?!-...Bed!!!"

Alex right now was standing in front of the entrance of Madam Miller's chamber. This is part of the ward she is placed in, Which had been surrounded by the wooden walls and on them hanging the signs of man should stay away.

But what surprised him was that unlike in his imagination, Madam Miller was not in some futuristic cryogenic chambers, But she was laying on the bed, not those normal hospital beds but luxurious queen size bed, While a few tubes with greenish fluid were stuck on her face like an oxygen mask.

First of all, it doesn't make sense to him at all. Not to mention it's a totally impractical way to inject those fluids into her body but it's so inconvenient for doctors. They have to first shift her onto the hospital bed, Which has wheels and made for jobs like that to move her from here in an emergency.

Not to mention this queen size bed will be very uncomfortable as she has to sleep in it 24/7. That too in the same position most of the time, Pain of bed sores are enough to agony of the hell.

Alex saw no other reason for this setting other than that it will make it convenient for the protagonist to go straight to the point of fucking her.

Because Madman Miller's body will react and hop onto him like a hungry wolf, If a man gets close to her, This is the also reason why Alex didn't enter her little chamber yet, Because once they start, It will be nearly impossible to stop until he conquered, Her body.

Right now, Alex was just waiting for some ridiculous reason to justify this, He is damn sure there is one.

"Yeah, She hated hospital beds, So we had no choice but to move her to her favorite bed."

And there was that ridiculous reason he was waiting for, Alia said the reason as if it is a matter of fact but Alex here had to use his acting skill to stop himself from bursting out laughing because how stupid that sounds.

I mean did the author of this novel even consider it before writing something like this down? He didn't respect the IQ of his readers at all.

How gullible did he think his readers are? Just because he wanted to have a place for both of them to fuck, He gave ridiculous reasons as Madam Miller hates hospital beds, Like those beds are only made for comfort? They are there mostly for safety and convenience, not some stupid preference.

The author who wrote the novel plot of Nathan and Jake is seems to be quite stupid.

"What about those big tank chambers? Didn't those are most suitable for her condition?"

Alex couldn't help but ask, His brain hurts when he thinks about this reason, I mean if Madam Miller hated hospital beds, Then Alia should get those tank chambers.

Those are actually quite suitable for Madam Miller right now. Not only will she be suspended in the liquid, Which makes her not have to worry about bed sores but also fluid easily reaches all the places very effectively.

Although those tanks cost a fortune but for Alia, it's the price not worth mentioning at all.

"That...I never considered."

Alia was dumbfounded by hearing Alex's question, She had to pause before she answered in a very awkward voice. She had never given thought about those tube chambers at all.

".....Sigh Forget it, Just drink this "liquid courage" and follow what I say, If you fail we will bid our farewell."

Alex didn't want to talk further about the logic behind the queen size bed. He felt that he just lost a few IQ points just by thinking about it. He just decided to think that this is a novel world.

Here, Things work like this, He has to deal with it.

So Alex ignored the logical errors and decided that this was the time, He will going fuck the mother of Alia next for real this time.

So he buys red wine from the system mall with high alcohol content and gives it to Alia. He didn't want her to be sober during their "act".

"Ohh, Red vine, This is my favorite. Thank you. You just say what I have to do and I will do it."

Seeing Alex handing her the red wine in the name of liquid courage, Alia became happy, because of course red wine is her favorite drink. He didn't even need to take a look at her plot in the novel to know this thing.

As for why she didn't freak out from him pulling things out of nowhere? Because Aila knows Alex is an awakened person, So she didn't find anything strange in him doing this because some superpowers give perks of spatial storage, especially those auxiliary superpowers, Which is Alex's awakened superpower.

So Alia didn't care about that, What she cared about was his last words. She bares herself to face the "test" of Alex, She can't fail here. She will lose too much if she lets that happen.

"Okay, You go sit there on the couch and start drinking, I will begin working on making the "connection"."

Alex gave an order to Alia, Which she readily followed and sat on the couch in front of the queen bed in Madam Miller's chamber and started drinking red wine tastefully , looking excitedly at the front unknown to the life changing event she was going to face next.

Alex here too took a deep breath to prepare himself and took a step into the chamber.

Swift

As he entered the chamber, The figure sleeping on the bed opened her deep enchanting sky-blue eyes in a flash, Which were full of lust and desire.

(A/N : There might be one more update today, (At night), Which will be R-18.

Like always thank you for reading and have a good day ğŸ˜ˆ.)

Chapter 48 48. Madam Miller (R-18)

On the bed was laying a very beautiful woman with mature charm radiating from her. Her buttocks-length light blue hair was scattered on the bed around her

Her face was like carved by a god was otherworldly beautiful with two crescent eyebrows above her eyelids. Her long black eyelashes add to the extra point in her beauty to her sky-blue enchanting eyes, Which have a unique charm to them like an open sky.

Then there was her delicate nose with a tall straight nose bridge, Which was just above her juicy soft red lips. At the end was her jade-like smooth chin. Her long slender neck had its own special charm. Anyone who sees it will want to leave their mark on her sickly white skin because of the lack of sun.

Right now she was wearing only a one-piece hospital gown but she looked nothing less than the fairy who came out from the fairy tale.

Well...It should be the case, If we only looked at her face but her body was nothing but a crime, A taboo.

Her chest was humongous as her twin peaks were standing there defying gravity, A mere weight of those things might be able to crush someone to death. If she wants she can feed whole village babies with those milkers.

Her waist was also nothing but the seductive charm of succubus, It was perfectly arched in the position to show off her curves. Her butt was also big and perky looking very comfortable to fondle.

She is the woman with the face of an angel and the body of a demoness.

At this time this otherworldly beautiful woman was supposed to be in a coma, But as Alex stepped into her little room, the situation changed.

She shot open her enchanting light-blue eyes with overfilled desire and lust in them, Although she still didn't move her body but Alex knows that she will hop onto his body like a hungry wolf the moment he goes close to her.

Gulp

Alex couldn't help but swallow looking at this enchanting seductive woman, Although her face might not be as beautiful as Alia, The main heroine but she makes up for her unholy body.

Her body looks like it was made to seduce and tempt others, Not just the opposite gender but also the same sex can also be enchanted by it.

'Worthy of being "Lust fairy" body.'

Alex had to admit it, The women he had seen up until now couldn't even hold a candle in front of the mother of Alia, Which is saying a lot as all if not most of them were heroines, It's all thanks to her physique.

The Lust Fairy body is created to awaken the primal instincts and the first sin of humans, This body is made specially for sex.

"Alia, No matter what happens next, You are not allowed to move or do anything unless I say so."

Alex gives a final reminder to Alia, He didn't want this room to turn into a bloody battleground awakens.

"Humm."

Alia only nodded and answered in a nasal sound. She didn't show it on her face but she was also very nervous. Alex had given her this ultimatum. She knows can't fail here.

"Okay under his breath Good luck to me."

Alex was also quite nervous but also excited. He didn't know how Alia would react. Although the system confirmed she would not react negatively, he was still not quite sure.

The system before said until the first protagonist dies, No new protagonist appears but then Jake pop-up, So he can't be too sure about the system estimates.

But thought about doing it with Alia's mother in front of her was making him horny and excited for it, The mental stimulation was too great.

"Hello, If you can hear, I am- Whoa!!?"

Alex got close to Alia's mother, As he was about to introduce himself, Her body suddenly reacted. Before he could understand, He was thrown onto the bed and she was on top of him.

She in the process also took off her mask and his pants at one point in one swift action, Right now she was seated on top Alex, Only in a one-piece hospital gown. Which was very much unqualified for the job, Showing him all the things that should and should not be seen by him.

"Fin-Finally, A man."

A crisp voice uttered by her as she looked at Alex greedily, As if the next moment she would devour him.

"Hey, Wai-FUCK!!!"

Alex at least wanted to put up an act in front of Alia for a little while but this woman had different plans. She moved at a speed Alex couldn't keep up with, and the next moment...Well, she devoured him or at least part of him in her little tempting moist warm mouth.

When he felt that sensation he couldn't help but to yell in shock and pleasure. It's different, Way too different and pleasurable than when Alia did it.

That sensation, warmth, and comfort were uncanny, He felt like pure bliss. And it did not stop there, Her little greedy tongue started to roll around in half-hardened rods head.

His male chicken started to get bigger and bigger in her mouth as she greedily started to lick the precum from the tip of it.

"Ho-How yo-Arrrggghhh are you d-doing this?"

Alex does not know what is happening right now. Every time her warm-wet tongue rolls around his hot rod's head, It is sending waves of currants down from his spine to in his body, making him shiver in pleasure.

"Alex!!! Do-Do you need help?"

Alex there enjoying the feeling of heaven while Alia here felt like she fell into the pit of hell.

She was happy seeing her mother wake up suddenly but what happened next shocked her to the core. She clenched her fists so hard that her nails dug into her palm, The event that unfolded in front of herself made her unable to react.

"Kill her!! Kill her!! Kill her!! KILL HER!!!"

In her mind only this thought reverberated. This woman dared to touch her beloved Alex, This woman deserved to die, She should kill her, Here and now.

When she came to her sense a few seconds later, She wanted to dash toward Alex and save him from the clutches of this old woman and end the filthy life of her, She even forget about "this" woman in her mouth is her own mother, All she knew was this woman touching her man, She has already given her mother death penalty in her mind.

But she didn't dare to move at all. She still remembers Alex not allowing her to move until he will tell her to move. That's why even if she wanted to go berserker and tear that bitch into pieces, She controlled herself.

"Ye-Yeah...Te-Tell me h-her na-Argggh name Pant."

Alex heard Alia's words but he was in no state to care about her for now, All his mind on the bliss he was feeling in her mothers mouth.

"Okay, I will no-Huhh!??.....Helen."

Alia was ready to storm and throw her mother aside from Alex, Then teach her a lesson for daring to touch her man, At least this what she wanted to do when she heard Alex's first sentence of needing help but before she could move, She heard that needed her help not to save him from her mother but he just wanted to know the name.

She was confused, angry and super envious, jealous and horney...Wait, that's strange.

Anyways, She paused first before she told the name of her mother to Alex. Then she just sits back on the couch taking a huge gulp from the wine bottle Alex lent her. It turns out she really needed this right now.

"Than-agrrgk Yo- Fuck!! Ho-w you even doing that Helen!!!"

Alex needed Alia to tell him the name of her "friend" as he forgot to ask her before, Although he knew her mother's name but Alia has to tell him this, So she will not become suspicious of him.

He then like always wanted to thank her for her help as his habit but he couldn't couldn't focus at all.

Because as his rod got bigger and harder, It couldn't fit properly in her tiny mouth and it started to touch the fleshy wet walls of her cheeks making it hard for her to continue rolling around her tongue, But this not only not hindered her actions but she even started to take advantage of it.

She slid his rod along with her fleshy cheeks wall deeper inside her mouth, While continuing her tongue action when there is space in between moving it back and forth.

Soon she rounds her juicy soft red lips on his completely hardened member to make an air seal, Then starts to suck to create a vacuum and move her head up and down in a straight line.

While doing so, She collected lots of spit in her mouth rolling her tongue along his member, With every stroke, she took his member deeper and deeper inside.

Then after collecting enough spit mixed with his precum, She then swallowed it and pushed her head forward until her soft lips touched Alex's hot rod's base.

When she swallowed, His hard hot rod also entered into her throat along with the spit giving him smooth entry.

"Grackk Cough Cough Gag Mumm"

As his hard member entered inside her throat, Helen had an immediate big reaction, She coughed and choked on it. There was still a gag reflex that was urging her to pull out his hard thing from her.

But Helen didn't care at all, Her delicate cheeks were stained by the painful tears but her red eyes on the other hand had a pure raw lust in them, While her face was filled with ecstasy.

She didn't even wait to get used to this feeling and pain but started pushing his rod in and out of it.

Her hands were not idle either. One hand of hers was playing with his dangling balls, While the other one was between her legs, Helping her rubbing her entrance folds.

"I-I am close...Careful!!! Ahhh Hang! Spurt Spurt Pant."

Alex couldn't last very long under the stimulations and reached his peak. He didn't hold back at all and pushed her head down with both of his hands until his whole member was engulfed in her mouth.

Then with a last yell of pleasure, He uploaded all his hot semen inside her mouth and throat, Helen didn't showed even tiny bits of resistant and let him do whatever he wanted.

"Cough Cough Choke Gulp Ahhh!!~"

Because of the huge amount of load, Helen got surprised and choked on his thick cum but she still bore with it and waited until he was done.

When Alex completely released his baby batter, He took out his half-soften member out of her moist mouth.

Helen didn't spit out his hot semen but closed her mouth and greedily gulped it. She drank every last drop of it, And after doing that she raised her angelic face towards Alex from his crotch and opened her mouth to show him that she swallowed it, Then she licked her soft red lips to make sure she didn't miss a single drop with a look of ecstasy on her face.

Seeing her like that, The softened member of Alex, Which was out of commission because of it just unloading, Was once again hardened like a rock and was ready to go for another round.

Alia on other hand, Didn't know what to do as she just stared blankly at the two figures on the bed going at it, Not knowing what she was thinking about in her sinister brain.

(A/N : Like Always that you for the reading and have a good day ૨૨.)

Chapter 49 49. Sadistic And Masochist (R-18)

In the room there were three people. Two were in bliss, While the other was not sure of it.

But thankfully or sadly the present two did not care about the third one. At this moment only lust and passion were on their mind.

"P-put in me~ Pant"

Helen lifted her head from Alex's crotch and looked at him with infinite lust and desire. She was breathing heavily as her hot breath hitting his crotch.

She then lifted her white hospital gown high exposing her flat stomach and lower body, She held a corner of gown in her silver teeth and with one hand cupped her humongous breast, While her other hand go toward her hairless nether region, She with her thumb and index opened her sensitive folds showing her sacred pinkish entrance with a look of temptation and spoke in inviting tone.

Gulp

Alex felt his throat dry looking at her, He was not a virgin anymore, He was confident that he can't be overwhelmed by the woman because of his skills and stats but right now with Helen, He has shown how wrong he was.

From the beginning, She was the one leading the game. He was just lying back and enjoying the bliss. Although he didn't hate this feeling at all, Rather kinda liked it, As she was really good at it.

Her body feels completely different, The technique and skill Helen used were also very unique and powerful, Nothing compared to Alia or Grace, Although they were also good at it but Helen was on the another league, He now understands why most boys prefer milf over girls of their age.

It's just that, He can't just lay here and take it, can he? He needs to conquer her body not enjoy it. So he has to be in the driving seat. He is reluctant to take charge but he has to take control in his hands.

[Ding! World choice is detected...

The selection function is triggered...

Options are like the following...

â€¢ [1] How can you give up on the bliss of her service? Just let her have her way with you.

Task : Just lay back and relax, Let her handle the rest.

Reward : NTR (Netorare) Halo, 99%... chance of being cuckolded by Helen â€¢ [2] You are a man, Take control in your hand and fuck her brains out.

Task : Well... Take control in your hand and fuck her brains out front of Alia

Reward : Golden Gun, Upgrade Halo of Netori

â€¢ [3] For god's sake, Alia is still sitting there. Did you forget about her? You are NTRing her, Don't you have heart?

Task : Be loyal to your girlfriend and don't fuck her mother.

Reward: Helen will rape you, Alia will die, Say bye bye to your little brother]

When Alex wanted to move forward with his plan, The system came out and triggered the option function.

He out of habit first looked at the 3rd one. There is no secret there. Like most of the time, this is the worst option.

But now even the first option didn't look good. He didn't even need to read the description of NTR (Netorare) Halo. He got an idea just from the name of it.

So his best will be 2nd option. It is what he wanted to do in the first place, and Now he can even get a reward for it.

"System, I chose the 2nd option."

Alex selected this option, Then looked at Helen, Who was trying to seduce him. Then stole a quick glance at Alia, Who was unlike in his expectation, Was very calm. Just looking at them with confused eyes.

"I will put in but.....I like to be on top."

But Alex didn't have a mind to take care of Alia right now though, There was a bewitching witch on him, Who was getting impatient. If he wastes more time, She will not wait for him but start on her own.

That's why he took control in his hand, lifted up his body from the bed, and moved his face close to hers.

His dark void-like eyes stared deeply into her light sky-blue eyes with undisguised intent, While he locked her in a staring contest, His large soft hands were put on her silky shoulders.

"...Woah!! No, I Will- Hiss~"

Helen stopped for a second, Finding herself lost in his enchanting eyes. Alex took advantage of her trance and with one quick powerful turn of his hands, made her lay down on the bed and got on top of her between her legs.

At first, seeing what he did, Helen wanted to go get up and take charge again, But she halted her actions as she felt something hard and hot touching her sensitive folds, She unconsciously moaned because of stimulation

"Do you want me to do it or not?"

Seeing that she still had little will to resist, Alex spoke domineering. When he finished his sentence, He used the full power of ecstasy hands and pinched her erect nipple.

"UHM MMMM!!! HARDER!! PINCH IT HEARDERRR!!! AH HHHH!!!~"

Alex stupidly looked at Helen, Who warped her long legs on his waist and cummed from he pinching her nipple.

He thought she would complain a little about him doing this something like Alia and Grace did but here not only she complained but she rather enjoyed it.

'Is she a masochist?'

He couldn't help but wonder, If she is not then she will not have this extreme reaction just now, Because although he used ecstasy hands but she asked to get pinched harder, That is not normal.

'Test it out to see if I am right or not.'

Alex wished he still had remaining use of thought reader skill right now, So he should know if he guessed right or not, But he couldn't do anything about it. He had to use practical ways to test it.

"Wh-Why Pant sto-Hunnggg!!!"

Helen asked in annoyance and reluctantly because Alex stopped his action of pinching her tits and looked at her with a smirk on his face.

She didn't care about what he was planning on doing but right now, She wanted to experience that feeling again. That's why she was ready to take initiative on her hands again but she felt a bolt of pleasure rushing throughout her whole body.

That is because Alex is pinching her clit very roughly, Sending shivers of pleasure mixed with pain in her body and mind. Her legs tighten on his waist on their own and her thigh muscles clenched strongly as she once again gets to feel the bliss of release.

'Okay, She is.'

This action hers confirms that she indeed is M, So he can go crazy and not have to hold back fearing of hurting her and make her angry.

'System, lower 5% safety function of all my pleasure related skills.'

Alex's heart was strangely excited, The evil taste in him couldn't help but wanted to go all out.

[Ding! The safety function is lowered by 5%, Be careful not to use too much or they might lose their mind.]

The system confirmed his request, The safety function is there to prevent his woman from losing their mind because of extreme pleasure as it will restrict his full use of the potential of his skills, And right now he lowered it.

"Helen, Do you want this inside you, right?"

Alex held his erect penis head on top of her wet pinkish petal like folds and asked in a seductive voice, While rubbing his hot sticky glans over them.

"Hummm!!~ Y-Yes."

Helen felt blots of current running through her, Her mind wasn't able to think of anything to extinguish the undying hunger in her heart.

She wanted it, She yearned to feel that hot hard thing inside her. It's been decades since the last time she even touched a man, Now she is no longer able to hold back her desires.

"Then beg."

Alex stretched his hand toward her and pinched her jade-smooth chin with enough force to turn it red and lifted up, making her look at him.

"Tha...."

Helen was stunned and was unwilling to beg this man in front of her, Even if her mind was filled with lust right now, But she still has her attitude of being the head of the Miller family.

So how could she beg for a man in front of her? She will never agree to it.

"Huff Huff Pl...Please give it to me, I am begging."

Well...Sometimes women also think from their lower part, Helen is in serious need of a dick right now, If she does not get it, her carving will never end. So even if she had to beg for it, Then she will do it, As long as she will get to fuck.

Plus he treating her like this making her even more wet, The rude pinch on her chin not only hurt her but flamed the fire of lust inside her even more.

Alex felt quite unreal. He looked at Helen begging for his dick under him then at Alia who was staring with a weird look in her eyes at them from the couch.

This giving him a different but addicting taste, Think about it, Your girlfriend's mother begging for your dick under you, While your girlfriend watch two of you two fuck, This was paradise for someone like Alex.

"Good girl, Here is your reward Slam"

Alex let go of her chin and caressed her delicate cheeks before he forcefully grabbed her light blue hair on the head and rammed his rock-hard dick deep inside her tight pussy.

"Ahhhh~! DON'T STOPP!!! Squeal"

As his member violated and rudely unfolded her lips and entered inside her forbidden cave, Helen jerked back in shock and pleasure. She never felt this way. The pain of his rude entry stretched her wet walls forcibly, and yet she only felt intense pleasure from it.

This pain was so good that she felt that she might get addicted to it. His penis filled all her insides, Touching all the sensitive places of hers at once, It was as if it's specifically made for her.

In excitement, she cried out a moan and squealed as she tightened her walls around the whole length of the hard shaft.

This one move was enough to make her cum again, She clenched Alex's dick inside her, Not willing to let go at all.

"Ahhhh~"

Alex lifts her from bed and gets her face close to his by pulling her hair. It was very painful, and because of it, She got more horny. This pain and rush. She liked it...No she loves it, She wanted to get more abused by him like this forever.

She didn't even hide her enjoyment as she happily let out her lustful sensual moans.

"You love this, Don't you horny bitch."

Alex sat on his knees as they were still connected to each other. He didn't take his dick out of her but rather he made her sit on his lap holding her bare naked bubbly butt cupping in his both hands.

She also warped her slender arms around his neck and laid her head on his shoulder, Breathing her heavy hot breath on his neck, As her sweaty hairs strands were stick on her otherworldly face.

Slap

Then he gives a loud slap on her tender ass.

"Say, Did you like it or not, You bitch. Slap"

He gave more slaps leaving five-red finger marks on her milky white ass cheeks.

"Yess!! I like it. Please spank me more, Harder."

Helen didn't want to hide or say she was not in a condition to think anything about hiding right now.

The more abusive words he used, The more aroused and horny she became, The unyielding fire of lust of hers finally started getting satisfied.

His every slap sends shivers in her, That stinging burning after the pain is like a fine wine to her, With endless aftertaste. She felt she might cum once again any moment now.

"That's more like it, If you are honest then, I will fuck your brains out, Slap"

Alex once again slapped as hard as he could, creating a loud sound but only a moan of lust, Which escaped from her soft lips, not the groan of pain neither did pain on her face, There was only ecstasy.

This made him more excited and started becoming more courageous. His strength started increasing and so did her moans.

"Ye-Yeah, I-I will be, Just fuck my brains out, Please~ Ahhhmumm!!!"

Helen was in bliss and felt like was on cloud nine, she was enjoying every second of it.

Pat Pat Slap Pat Slap

After hearing that, How can Alex be able to hold back? He grabbed her soft perky ass and stretched apart the crack as his fingers dug into her skin, Then he started ramming his dick in and out of her at high speed.

It was hard to do this, While kneeling on his knees and having Helen on his lap but there was more than enough motivation for him to keep doing it.

A sound of sensual blood-boiling moans, Bare wet flesh hitting each other, and slapping reverberated in this room.

"I-I am about to..to Argghhh!!! Squirt Squirt Pant Pant*"

Alex soon reached his limit, He didn't even properly tell Helen before ejaculating deep inside her.

"YESS!!! FILL ME UP PLEASE!!! CUMMING!!~"

Helen didn't know how many times she cummed in this short period of time but this one of hers was the best of all of them.

She felt his lava like hot sticky liquid filling her up and she also cum because of it. She was breathing heavily as she reached her limit but her eyes still have that crazed lustful look, Which means she is not done yet, She wants more.

"Alex...."

Alex also wanted to go for another round but halted his action hearing the weird sound come from the direction of Alia.

Chapter 50 50. NTRed Alia (R-18)

----- POV Alia -----

I didn't know what was happening in front of me. Everything was real and yet felt so unreal like a vivid dream.

What I am seeing is that the man I was madly in love with is in bed with my mother, The one and only person I admire in this world.

It now seems foolish how happy I was when my mother woke up. How could I have known that this would begin my nightmare?

It all started when Alex got close to Helen's bed. My mother suddenly hopped onto him and dragged him onto her bed. To my utter disbelief, My mother, Who I always thought of as misandry, took off his pants and put her face close to his crotch.

At that moment, I was full of rage. I wanted to kill this woman, Kill her who dared to blasphemy MY man, But I didn't dare to move at all.

Alex warned me before, If I moved without his permission, He will leave me forever. So I had to bear it, Had to watch my own mother putting my boyfriend's dick in her mouth with that ecstatic look on her face.

But that didn't hurt nearly as much as listening and seeing Alex's reaction. He didn't even resist my mother's actions at all.

And what is that look he is showing? When I did the same thing to him last night, He didn't have that look nor did he came so fast.

'It may be he was just in shock. That's all that to look about. If I wake him up he will come back to his senses.'

I thought, This has to be the reason. If not...If not then that means he prefers my mother over me but that's impossible, right?

He loved me unconditionally for a year. It's not possible he will lose his love just because of one blowjob from my mother. Yeah, it's never going to happen.

The Alex I knew is not that kind of lustful and hungry guy. It has to be he is in shock, and That's why he is acting like this. That's the only reason and nothing else.

"Alex!!! Do-Do you need help?"

So I asked and surprised myself. My voice was hoarse and trembling. I didn't even notice how anxious and afraid I was right now.

My body was shaking, my eyes were trembling as the extraterrestrials emotion, The alien feeling that I don't know occupied my heart.

I am not familiar with this emotion as It's been more than decades since I feel any feelings, So I am not sure what this emotion means but I am sure of one thing, I hate it, My heart felt like it will burst because of pain and I felt like vomiting every time I see Alex's dick in my mother's mouth.

That happy expression of his was like someone putting salt on my open wound, It stings and hurts a lot. Those excited, satisfied moans of Alex were like sharp needles digging into my body.

I just wanted this to stop, Well...I could stop it. I just had to look away and close my ears but my body didn't move at all. I just looked at those two enjoying where I was tortured by my unknown emotions.

I have decided, The moment Alex asks me for help, I will go forward and remove that disgusting head from this woman's body, Who dares to put MY man's dick in her mouth.

"Ye-Yeah...Te-Tell me h-her na-Arggghh name Pant."

Then I heard Alex's words. At first, I was happy and ready to move and attack that bitch but soon his next words struck me like thunder.

He actually didn't want my help at all. He wanted to know my mother's name. Didn't he doing this too much?

I mean, He asked me my mother's name, While my mother was sucking him off? Did he even forget I am his girlfrie- Wait!

'Currently, I am not his girlfriend. He broke up with me yesterday, So there is nothing wrong with him doing this right now to other women. It was me who was in the wrong.'

Suddenly realization struck me, Alex had broke-up with me. Although it was all played and directed by Rose alone, I was the one who ignored it. If I cared enough about Alex before, Rose would never dare to do those things.

'So it was his way to get revenge on me? If so, Then I have to bear it. He bears with me for one year, I can at least bear him for a few minutes-...hours.'

I understand now, Why Alex said what he is going to do is going to hurt her alot, And why he was persuading her to back off too many times before.

'Even when I wanted revenge, He was caring about me. How could my worthless self be able to make this man fall in love with me? I have to apologize once again when this is all over.'

I felt my heart warm, That alien disgusting feeling also reduced a lot, and now there are new emotions taking place in my heart, which I also don't understand but I kinda like this feeling.

"Okay, I will not-Huhh!??.....Helen."

So I answered, If for revenge he wanted the name of my mother then I will give it to him. Anyway, I know Alex loves me a lot. If after this he will come back to me. Then I don't care who and how he fuck someone as long as he will be back to me.

If hurting me is what it takes to get him back, Then I am even ready to jump into the pit of fire for him.

Then I also realized key information, It was my fault this was all happening. If he knows that the woman who is sucking off is my mother, He will never do something like this with her or to me.

But I was also glad he didn't know about it. If not he might actually leave me without giving me a chance, As this looked like a last moment decision.

I am pretty sure he just wanted to scare me off at first. That's why he said those things and asked my friend's gender but when I agreed, He got confused and just went with the plan. He might even not want to go this far, It was just this bitch taking advantage of him.

This is what happened, Alex is just a victim of a crime of their mother and daughter.

'Wait!!!! What was he doing!??'

I was so lost in my own thoughts that I didn't pay attention to the two people in the bed.

Right now, Alex put my mother under him and was rubbing the head of his hard-hot rod on to Helen's entrance, The same rod he used to devour her for last whole night.

I didn't know how I felt about this one. On one hand, I was extremely jealous and angry at my mother for forcing him to do those things.

Yeah she is forcing him, There is no argument about this fact.

But I also felt strange as I watched him rub his head on her wet sensitive folds. This feeling was hard to describe but I also wanted to see how Alex made my mother feel miserable and beg him for mercy like he did me yesterday.

This is kinda like taking revenge on her, isn't it? My mother who is even for me is a high and mighty person begging for mercy under my own boyfriend as he rams his hard dick into her.

"Mumm~"

When I was thinking about it, My hand unconsciously went downward into my skirt and started rubbing on my wet folds from over my lace black panty.

Just imagining my mother begging to stop in that lustful voice under Alex made me feel hot. It was weird and wrong on so many levels, But I was never a woman who cared about others' set values.

As long as I like it, Then It's right in my eyes. At this moment an image of my begging mother was exciting for me, So this is right.

"Huff Huff Pl...Please give it to me, I am begging."

Here I was just in my own fantasy but then I heard those words. My eyes shot open as I looked at my mother lying on the bed, Separating her sensitive wet folds with her sender thumb and index finger showing her pinkish hole to Alex and begging him for his hard long dick.

"Uhhmm~!?"

The stimulation of this scene was too much and cummed, Moaning seductively as I tried to press my moans down.

When I realized what I did, I panicked and looked ahead of the two people in anxiousness but then I sigh with relief when I find out that they didn't notice. He didn't notice.

Although I don't care about others' opinions, I do care very much about Alex's opinion. If he thinks of me like a pervert, Who gets off seeing my mother begging for my boyfriend's dick, I will never be able to show my face to him.

"Good girl, Here is your reward *Slam"

Then it happened, Alex domineeringly shoved his hot rod inside my mother's small pinkish hole very rudely. My mother jerked and convulsed by his action.

I know looking at her that she just had an orgasm from Alex putting his hard long member in her. Well, weirdly I felt proud for some reason.

My boyfriend was able to make someone have an orgasm just by putting his "tool" in them. It's making me proud and happy. There is close to no man in this world that has this power. That means my Alex is very special and unique. This fact made me even more excited.

"Good girl, Here is your reward *Slam"

"Ahhhh~! DON'T STOPP!!! Squeal

I heard the squeal and moans of my mother. As she threw herself into the lust, This is so weird and made me angry but at the same time it was also making me feel feverish. Mostly when Alex took a sneak peek at me, I nearly had an orgasm.

Thankfully, I stopped rubbing myself when he looked at me or it would be too weird as I don't know what to say to him and yet I hoped that he sees me masturbating when he was doing it with my mom for some reason.

'I am the worst, Alex is going against his heart and doing this to punish me and here I am here enjoying it, Shame on me.'

I felt ashamed but that didn't calm down the heat in me at all, When Alex started to go wild and fuck my mom like a wild animal, I once again lost myself looking at them.

It looked painful as Alex was treating her very badly but my mother only uttered sensual moans and had that ecstatic look on her face. There was no pain on her expressions at all, Only lust felt like is a permanent tenant on her face.

I didn't know when I unbuttoned my white shirt button and was freed by twin peaks from their bind from lace black bra and started fondling pinching them.

My other hand also did not stay still, It went downward then I lowered my dark blue skirt and black lace panty. Then with my cold fingertips, I started rubbing my super wet folds nimbly at first but as mother and Alex speeded up, So do my hands.

"I-I am about to..to Argghh!!! Squirt Squirt Pant Pant*"

Alex reached his limit and emptied his balls deep in side my mother.

"YESS!!! FILL ME UP PLEASE!!! CUMMING!!~"

My mom also reached her limit and hugged Alex tightly before she shrieked with pleasure and had a climax.

"Ahhh!!~"

Looking at the hot but taboo-forbidden scene in front of me, I also couldn't able to hold it back and cummed.

'Why was he so rough with her? But it looks like she enjoyed it. Does Alex love doing like that? But doesn't that mean she will steal Alex from me, If this continue?'

When I had an orgasm, I started to think straight and realized that, If Alex felt so good with my mother, Then what if he decided to stay with her? Do I have to call Alex as dad from now on?

No, I can't let that happen, I will not lose Alex to some 40 years old mother of two ugly hag, I also have cards in my sleeves to please him, I will definitely not lose.

"Alex...I can join you?"

I didn't even realize what I said as my husky voice reverberated in the this small room.

Chapter 51 51. Alia's Forbidden Fruit (R-18)

----- Still Alia's POV -----

'Huh!? What did I say? No, No, NO!!! What I meant was to be with him, not with both of them, But now the way I said it, It sounds very wrong.

'Will he hate or be disgusted by me?'

I was shocked by the words I uttered in my mind. This is strange, I didn't want to say those words at all, I just spoke without thinking about it.

What do these words mean, I don't even think about it to know that Alex will misunderstand me. I am so fucked right now, If he thinks of me like a pervert, Who wanted to share my man with my mother- Wait! He didn't know this was my mother.

Then ain't that mean, He might agree to it, Just to hurt me more? Will I agree if he said yes?

'What are you thinking Alia, That is your mother, A MOTHER!! You can't do that....or maybe- No, I can't!!'

I found myself getting excited when I thought about sharing Alex love with my mother. What's wrong with me?

It's one thing for a father and son to share a woman but it's totally different when the tables are turned. People like watching those father and son things, But I am sure that Alex would hate it.

And this one of mothers daughter is even more disgusting than two men sharing a woman, and yet, Why do I have the urge to join them?

Why do I want Alex to agree with me? Is something wrong with me?

'Just say something, Don't stay silent Alex!'

I looked at Alex, The man I love. He does not say anything just looking at me with that strange look in his eyes.

I fucked up, He will now going to hate me, and I will be a disgusting pervert in his eyes from now. Why did I say it like that? This was my one chance and I ruined it.

"Okay, But what will you do here?"

But suddenly I found a light. He spoke and not only did he speak with me, but he also agreed. That- What should I do now? Should I lay my mother down and go on top of her or below her?

Wait! Do I seriously consider this? She is my mother...But Alex asked me to do it. He will be sad and disappointed, If I didn't do this right? So it's not that I am doing this because I want to be, I am doing it for Alex.

Yeah, That's right. It is just for Alex not for me. I should go quickly before he chang- I mean before he gets angry.

"Should I come there?"

But I didn't move directly, Alex still did not permit me to move. I need his permission. I will not make that stupid mistake and lose everything.

"Yeah, You can come here but before that you should remove everything."

Alex's words hit my ears but my brain didn't react to them at all, Thankfully my body did.

I removed my white office shirt and skirt, Then threw away black lace bra and panties somewhere in the room. I asked Natasha to buy this set just to show it to him tonight.

Anyway, it didn't matter. Now all I care about is what to do? My mother was sitting on my boyfriend's lap Who was kneeling on the bed, While they were still connected from their bottom. So there is nothing for me to do.

'Why has he not softened yet? Last night he did go soft after coming for a while? Am I not as attractive as my mother, So he reacts to us differently? I will show him that I am way better than this old hag.'

In my thoughts, I walked towards the bed and saw those two still connected to each other, As Alex's dick was still hard and was inside my mother's surprisingly tiny hole.

I once again don't know how I feel about looking at them. There was jealousy, envy, and tons of complaints, and yet, Seeing them like that made me feel like a kinda rush. A thrilling feeling that I wasn't able to explain but was quite overwhelming.

The huffing and panting of my mother was like a beautiful medley to my ears, And when I think about her this state because of my man, I even feel my wet I become down there as it was trailing down from my legs.

There is something wrong with me, Now that I remembered. When he was drunk and kissed Rose, I also let Rose go quite easily.

Normally for crimes like this, I prefer torture or even death but I go soft on Rose, Why? Do I enjoy seeing them make out? But at that time I wasn't able to feel anything at all so how can I enjoy it?

'Maybe I should stop here and go to a psychiatrist to get myself checked.'

I thought about it, If I move forward with this right now, I will never be able to go back to normal, I have a feeling of this. This is my last chance to go back, I should take it.

"Are you coming or not?"

A voice my man, For I am crazy about, who right at this moment is still inside my mother broke my thoughts and asked me a question, To which answer I already decided.

"Coming..."

Fuck it, I rather be crazy and enjoy the taboo than to be sane and be lonely. What's even good about being sane gets you? Nothing!! At least the crazy get to enjoy their life.

So, I agreed and hopped on the bed with my butt naked body. But now I am embarrassed. I don't know what to do.

My mother was in Alex's lap, So the plan of getting on top of her was dropped, And I don't know any other ways to do a threesome.

'Oh, gawd~ Just being here makes me reach... Maybe it is enough. If I just stay here and watch them first after Alex is done with my mother, It will be my turn.'

As I sat on the bed, Which is now sticky. I couldn't help but get more and more excited. I don't know what is happening to me but I felt like I was set on fire. My whole body was hot as if I was on fire.

I needed a release soo badly but I didn't know what I was supposed to do. It was just yesterday that I was introduced to taste of sex. Before that, I used to think it was disgusting and a waste of time.

And now here I am, Sitting on the bed which was covered with various fluids of my mother's and the love of my life's illicit activities, and yet, I was in the wrong here to get off from this.

But this strange feeling is very addicting, I can't help it, This is like forbidden fruit. I want to take a bite and commit the unforgivable sin, Throw my damned soul in pleasure and bliss of lust.

"Why are you sitting there? Come in front of me and help me hold her ass."

I was planning on just sitting away this time, Was commanded by my man, Who let me remind you was still balls deep inside my mother.

"Okay~ "

And I followed his command and got in front of him, Which also means I was just behind my mother's butt naked body.

I don't know if I am a good daughter or not, But I am damn sure I am the best girlfriend out there. After all, which woman should do this? No one, Not even that whore of woman named Grace will not be able to do it.

That dog licking is always bothering my man. I should have taken care of her long before if not for I didn't care about her. It's just now that Alex was with her alone in the waiting room. Did they also do it? I couldn't help but think about it as jealousy filled my heart.

'No it's not possible, Even if Grace forced herself on him. With Alex's stamina, He will not stop for at least 5 to 6 hours. I personally experienced it.'

But I thought it over and dropped that thought. Anyway Grace Is not a threat for me, As she did not love Alex enough to allow him to do this like with her mother, I mean no sane woman would allow it, It's all because I am too crazy for him, That's why I allow it. That's the only reason, Nothing else.

This also makes me feel like I am special, Alex will not find a 2nd woman like me in this world, Which means the chances of him leaving me is negligible.

I just have to make sure I show him how much I love him. That way I will win his heart forever.

"Why are you daydreaming? I said to hold her ass for me."

Alex's domineering voice reverberated in the room. I listened to it and felt like, This way of Alex also has his own charm, doesn't it? See how overbearingly he asking me to hold my butt naked mothers ass, While he was ramming his long hot solong inside her tiny hole, right?

I have fallen too deep aren't I? Hehe~

"Okay, Like this?"

I did as Alex told me to do, I stretched my hands and held the firm perky ass of my mother. Which now it was all red with palm prints all over it.

Squeeze

I couldn't help but to squeeze it. It was a subconscious action but I am quite jealous of her for having this good ass.

Then I inspected the red marks, The strength used was not light at all, Alex didn't hold back his strength when he spanked her.

"Ahhhh!! Mummm~"

But when I touched the "wounds", Other than a painful groan, My mother released a very lustful satisfied moan, Which made my hand tremble in excitement.

I felt a hot cold feeling coming from her ass cheeks, Hot because of the spanking and cold because it was covered in their combined fluids. I can feel sweat, cum and her love juices on her ass cheeks.

Before, I never even thought about going near this stuff because of my cleanliness OCD, But now I couldn't get enough of it.

It might be strange to say but I think I love my moms perky ass covered in my boyfriend's love fluids.

"Stick your body with hers, or Your hands will slip."

Alex spoke again, Huhhh, Why is his voice so addicting? I can listen to him talk all day without getting tired of it.

I didn't even care what he said, I just followed what he wanted me to do, Pull out that useless hospital gown from my mothers body and stick my bare necked cold front body with my mothers sweaty hot back. It's was a weird sensation but I like it.

I then used both of my hands and cupped mothers two ass cheeks and lifted them high up to make Alex's job easy.

"You are perfect Alia, Come give me a kiss."

Alex was happy to see what I did and wanted to give me a kiss.

I couldn't wait to kiss him. I am also burning with lust. I need something to hold on, So I put my chin on my mothers shoulder and stretched my neck towards him.

"Mummm...Mumhhh~"

Alex grabbed the back of my head as now his hands were free and locked me in the deep kiss, Well... It turned out to be a mistake, This kiss only inflamed the fire in me more. As his agile tongue started wandering in my small mouth, I swirled my tongue with him, Tasting each other's saliva like it was a rare delicacy, So there was no regret at all, Only passion.

Slam Slam Slam Slam

"Ahhhhh!!! Yesss, More more Ummmm~~!!"

When we were kissing, Alex moved his hips, Slamming his dick deep inside my mother. That woman who felt like was out of commission after intense pleasure woke up instantly and started to enjoy my Alex dick.

Alex started ramming into my mother pussy fucking her brains out, While he was holding back of my head french kissing me, I who was also laying her chin on the same mother who currently getting fucked.

Ohh god, This is sooo wrong on so many levels and yet feels right and super hot.

But why?!! Why I still couldn't able to accept the fact that I am a freak, Who like to watch my boyfriend fuck my own mother.

"Slam Slam Slam Mummmhh~ Slam"

"Ye-Yes~ Keep going, Don't stop!! Hngmn~ Squeal"

But that didn't stop me enjoying it at all, Alex sped up his moments and with his other hand took me into a hug, Making my mother squish between our naked bodies. I felt my erect nipples were sticking to her back but I don't think she even cares about it, As right now she only had Alex huge cock in her mind.

"Arrgggg Pant Take all of it Squirt Squirt"

Alex didn't hold back and reached his limit. With a final push of his waist he put his dick balls deep inside my mother's pussy and released his hot baby batter inside.

"AHHHH!!!! YESSS, FILL ME UPPPP~ Whimper UMHMMMM~"

My mother also cummed once again as Alex's hot semen filled her cave painting it's walls white.

I just hope that my mother is in menopause. If not and she gets pregnant, I don't know what to call the child, Who will be born, A stepson, or A stepbrother.

"So Alia, Wanted to take her position for the next round?"

I was lost in looking at my mother with jealousy and envy, When this words fell on my ears.

"Please, Fuck me!!!"

I couldn't help it. This all was too teasing me. Only I know how hard I was bearing this, Holding myself up until now. I am in urgent need of Alex's care and attention.

"Okay, Lay down, You are a bad girl, Bad girl needs to be punished."

He spoke as he put my mother on the other side of the bed and pulled out his hot still hard dick from my mother's ravaged pussy. His cock was covered in semen and my mother's love was fluid.

He held it in front of my face, As I was already laying in bed, There is only one explanation for this. He wanted me to clean it with my mouth.

He wanted me to lick and suck the sign of his and my mother's illicit act. Like hell am going to do that disgusting thing

Lick

I didn't want to but will my body listen to my mind at this point? Obviously not!

My pink tongue was sticking out on its own and started licking the tip of his dick. It was salty and sweet but also way too addicting.

Ring Ring

I just wanted to suck every inch of it but suddenly my phone on the ground rang.

Chapter 52 52. Alex Paradise (R-18)

----- Alex POV -----

'Huh?'

To be honest, I was surprised when I heard Alia's words.

I mean she is the main heroine of the novel, A ice-cold CEO trope, If she didn't bother with me fucking her mom in front of her is already a limit but now what she said?

Does she want to join? Am I going to open a legendary mother-daughter duo with her? I always thought the first one would be Grace and Gloria but here we are.

Even before I start my gaslig- Ahem My well-planned wordplay to tic- Cough I mean convince her to agree with me, Alia herself offered this to me.

If this is not a paradise then I don't know what is, Do I die mid-way doing Helan and reach heaven or what?

"Okay, But what will you do here?"

There I said it, If she had any second doubt, She can back away now. This way if she is not ready, she will not push herself and then create a mess that I have to fix. I already have too much on my plate, I didn't need any other troubles.

Now there is that fucker Jake pop-up, Nathen is also still alive, God knows when he will be able to get that duel cultivation technique, So I can finally end the pathetic life of Nathen.

Now there is also that unknown person who beat the shit out of Nathen and turned him into a mummy, I don't know who that person is but it is surely strong as the system specially warned me.

I just don't know if that person is a friend or foe, I hope it's a foe. If it is a foe then I can pit two protagonists against each other and get fisherman's benefits.

It would be fun to watch two children of luck be at each other's throats. I don't know if daddy dao of heaven will feel sad or angry When it see that happening.

'She is not moving, Maybe she dropped the idea. Pity but a good thing I will think about ways to open a mother and daughter duo with her later with full preparation.'

Well, It's a pity that she is not joining but it's also good, I haven't put ideas on her mind yet. It is not safe to let her join, I need a well-built plan, To convince her to do it with her mother.

Maybe I will say something like I have a strange physique or I am dying and need to do this to survive or just admit I want to fuck her together with her mother.

Anyway, there are multiple ways to tric- Ahem Convince her, So I better not rush it and provoke this walking bomb.

"Should I come there?"

But I realized that It's not that she didn't want it or back away but she didn't get my permission to move, She still strictly following my words of her not moving without my permission.

Well, This obedient Alia is kinda hot. Just thinking about this woman who was a legend of the business world, The one everyone was afraid of, Is acting like this in front of me.

This kinda powerplay is turning me on, As my sadistic personality wanted to explore even more, How far I can push her.

"Yeah, You can come here but before that, you should remove everything."

I gave her permission. The idea of doing the number one heroine and her mother together was quite overwhelming. I as a villain never supposed to get this treatment, Only the protagonist gets to enjoy this but here I am, As the villain asks the main heroine to remove her clothes and join her mother naked on the bed.

Gulp

I gulped as I looked at her as she quickly removed her clothes and showed her seductive curvy body. She as a heroine has a charm to seduce any man.

"Are you coming here or not?"

But I noticed that she was just standing here not moving an inch, So I asked her in an overbearing voice.

"Coming..."

I didn't expect her this quickly respond me, And even hop onto the bed, I know how clean freak she is, So her doing is surprised me quite a bit but excitement get the best of me, I ignore her state of mind and just appreciate the view front of me.

Her mother was on my lap as I am balls deep inside Helen, While her daughter was standing behind her mother, Looking at us in envy.

I don't know what is happening to her but I don't have enough blood in my brain to think about it right now. All my thinking is done by my lower half at this moment.

"Why are you sitting there? Come in front of me and help me hold her ass."

So I didn't even think about the consequences of her doing this but let her join us, I even let her hold her mother's perky ass for me.

Just saying those words was like a current running through me. This feeling is very hard to explain in words but I am sure of one thing, I am loving it.

I should make this my new goal to get as many pairs of mothers and daughters as I can find.

'Is she daydreamin?'

Even though I said it, Alia didn't move. I thought I might have pushed her too much, But I didn't want to show weakness. That's why I overbearingly asked her to stick herself on her mother's back and hold her ass.

If you want to tame someone like Alia then you have to be more overbearing and domineering than her, Don't show weakness or you will be done for as the game you set up will backfire on you.

'She really did it?'

I saw Alia move and she has actually done what I told her to do. She got close to us and lifted Helen's butt high to make it easy for me. It was an unexpected but quite a welcomed surprise.

I couldn't control the rush and excitement and asked for a kiss. Alia didn't even hesitate and put her chin on her mother's shoulder, Stretching her neck to push her face towards me.

I lost my last remaining thinking capability as I held back her head and captured her scarlet lip with mine. I then wondered about the agile tongue in her small mouth as I started playing with her pitiful tongue.

Pat Pat Pat

While I was kissing her, I decided to be even more courageous and started banging my rock-hard cock inside Alia's mother's wet slit, While I was still kissing Alia.

My kiss deepened with Alia and the speed of my hip increased, I with a free hand of mine hugged Alia's back squeezing Helen between us.

Squirt

I reached my limit, I pushed my rod deep inside Helen and emptied my balls inside her.

Huff Huff Pant

All three of us were panting and huffing. I looked at Alia's face, Which was red like a tomato right now. It was very tempting, Giving birth to the desire to take a bite at it.

So I lay Helen on the side of the bed and pull out my still-hard member out of her ravaged slit.

Then I decided to push things a little further and hold my dirty sticky rod in front of Alia's small mouth as she was already laying on the bed because of my order.

Lick

I didn't expect her to lick it but this increased my confidence even more.

Ring Ring

Just as I was about to go even further, Alia's phone on the ground rang disturbing our moment.

"Are you going to pick that up?"

I looked at Alia between my legs, holding by a hardened member in front of her scarlet lips.

"...No, Work can wait."

She just hesitated for a second before she ignored the ringing phone on the ground.

She stretched her slender arms and warped her slightly cold fingers on my busting dick, sending shivers down my body.

Lick Lick Glob Glob*

Alia started to lick the head of my cock as she cleaned it. She moved further, and further down on my shaft, Until she took half of it inside her mouth, Cleaning it thoroughly and coiling her small tongue around my shaft to take every last bit of juices of from it.

Soon she started taking more and more of my dick in her mouth as she was done cleaning the part until her soft scarlet lips touched the base of my shaft.

I felt a tightness warm inside her throat. I didn't know how she was doing this but she was way better at it than yesterday but she was still way behind her mother's technique. She still needs a little more practice.

But now, I just wanted to see her limits, To see how far I can take this, So I pulled out my dick from her mouth.

"Wh-Why...am I not good enough? I-I will do better trust me, Just give me one more chance."

Alia might have misunderstood my action but I am not going to explain it to her, It's actually in my favor if she misunderstood.

"Do you like taste of it, Alia?"

I held her smooth chin with my index finger and looked them into her eyes before asking her. I am not sure if what I am going to do will work but it won't hurt to try it.

".....Yes!~"

Alia didn't want to answer it at first but when I tried to let go of her chin, She quickly grabbed my hand and shyly answered me.

I looked at her face, Her eyes were dodging mine as she wasn't able to focus on one place hovering her eyes in shame.

I have to say, If I ignore her personality she is my dream girl. It's just that I can't ignore her personality at all. That would be the biggest mistake I would make if I ever did that.

So I decided to go more forward and my sadistic personality came to the surface.

"If you really like the taste of my love fluid, I mean if you really like it then, Are you going to let all that go to waste."

I smiled sinisterly as I spoke and pointed at the "sleeping" Helen. To be precise I pointed my fingers at the gaping slit of her which was still dripping my white semen from it right now.

"What!!! How...I -But"

Reasonably Alia reacted as expected, She never thought of me asking her to do that. Maybe I am pushing really too far but now, I really wanted to experience the thing even the protagonist wasn't able to experience.

After all, in which novel did you find the main heroine cunnilingus her mother's pussy when her boyfriend just cummed in it?

So he wanted to be the first to do that, He wanted to experience the forbidden love of mother and daughter.

"What? You don't like it or you don't love me? If you love me then didn't everything of mine supposed to you're? So would you let your friend have what by right is supposed to be yours?"

Here I go again, The words came out of my mouth, Which even I couldn't believe will work on someone but I am sure they will work on Alia.

These words are specially designed to target her possessiveness, She can't let others have her things.

"Mine? Yeah, Right! It is supposed to be mine How could I share it with my mo- Cough friend, Thank you for pointing that out Alex, I love you muah~"

Bingo! As I expected, Alia reacted the same way. She quickly stood up and kissed me on the cheeks before going on her four and sticking her head in between her mother's crotch.

Lick Lick Slurp* Slurp

"Ahhh~ Mummm~"

Alia started to do her job, Licking and sucking every bit of my jizz out of her mothers delicate slit. Her action also brings Helen in the mood as she holds Alia's head down in her crotch.

'I could not wait to see her come back to her senses and remember this thing.'

I looked at Helen who was right now enjoying her daughter's service. It would be interesting to know how Heaven will react to this all.

But then my curiosity pushed aside as my eyes landed on Alia's tight ass, Which was sticking high into the air right now, As she going down on her mother. I felt the hardness of my little brother increasing as I witnessing this scene.

Without wasting a second, I go behind Alia and touch her smooth jiggy ass. Alia is first startled by my action but after realizing it was me, She ignores it and tries to put all her attention on getting back her things from her mother.

Here I started rubbing my solid cock in between her ass cheeks to remove all of the liquid for the lubrication. Then after enough lube, I put its head on her pink hole and pushed in with my waist.

"AHHHH!!!~ NOT THAT ONE!! ALEX YOU BY ACCIDENT PUT IT IN THE WRONG HOLE Grunt Whimper"

Alia jerked and shouted as a sharp pain hit her mind. She was grunting and whimpering because of the pain. She struggled slightly at first out of natural reaction but when she saw I was not moving away, She stopped her struggle.

"There are no accidents Lick"

I was half inside her tiny asshole, I didn't move my waist but lay my body on her silk back and whispered in her ears then licked her earlobe.

....

"Why did my sister not picking her phone? I will be late to visit mother."

In the office, Rose dealt with all of her work and was waiting for her sister to come and give permission to leave.

Normally, Her sister, Alia should be the first one to come to the office but right now it was long past the noon, and yet she still didn't come here.

That's why she gathered enough courage to make a call but to her surprise her sister didn't pick up her call, Which never happened. Someone will definitely pick up the call, Even if her sister was busy.

"Is she dead?"

Rose couldn't help but think like that, After all only that is a reasonable reason for Alia not to pick up the call and not coming to the work.

"Forget it, I first go visit mom, I am sure my sister will not mind me, If I just go to visit mother."

Poor child Rose, Thought it will be alright if she goes to visit her mother without Alia's permission, Totally ignorant to the events taking place in that room.m, Which if she witnessed might get herself in big trouble.

Rose didn't know it and by her daily routine, She left the office building and drove towards the hospital.

(A/N : Okay, This R-18 will end in the next half chapter, Sorry for dragging this long.

Like always thank you for reading and have a good day ٩٠٠٠.)

Chapter 53 53. I Need To Be Punished More -Alia (R-18)

----- Alia's POV -----

What Alex said was right, He is mine, So I have right over his things, Which means the jizz flowing down from my mother's slit is also mine and mine only.

I can't share that with her or I don't want to share that with her at all. I let her enjoy my man, Which is already doing her a favor.

After all, how can an old hag like her ever be able to find the best boyfriend like mine? No matter how good her body looks, she is still an old woman, Alex is way out of her league.

Look at that body, Those chiseled muscles of his chest, Those 8 packs on his abdominal muscles which make him look like a greek god, There is that his otherworldly face, that was even able to charm the gods, And last but not least his long hard schlong.

Normally on average men only have 3 inches but look at him, It was at least 8 or 9 inches. It's nearly 3 times the average size.

Not to mention how good it felt inside me. It made me feel like it was custom-made just for me, It fills every place of mine perfectly.

'Maybe we are soulmates, That's why we are so compatible with each other, That has to be the reason for it.'

I used to think, Soulmate is nothing but a fairytale created by those men, Who don't have anything else to do.

But now, I started to believe it, Aex has to be my soulmate, My one and only.

He was the one who freed me from my curse. I can finally feel again, I can feel alive and human. If not for him, I don't know if I am even able to live much longer or am I even alive before. I used to feel like a heartless cold robot, That was just doing things that it was meant to do.

But after last night, Everything changed. He became light in my dark world, the warmth of my icy heart. He was there for me in my time of need. I still couldn't believe, Someone like him could fall in love with me. I used to think I was unlovable.

All people either come to me for my beauty or my money, But only he came to me for me only. He loved me without wanting anything from me and I misunderstood his pure love, Thinking that he was also one of those money-hungry mans.

He has more money than me, So he was not after my money. As for looks, He left me way behind not only me, No one can compare him in his looks, So his love was pure and innocent, It was I who tarnished it and played with his heart.

I am worse than those scumbag womens out there, But thankfully he was giving me a chance, A chance to do things right, I should make amends with him.

So I followed his words, I put my face in my mother's crotch, stuck out my small agile pink tongue and licked Alex's jizz coming out of her slit.

It was salty and kinda sweet. I was not only tasting Alex's semen but also drinking the love juices of my own mother.

It's too wrong. It might be disgusting in the eyes of others, I might even be worse the daughter of all time or the Beta female in the eyes of women on the internet.

But I don't care at all, If Alex said me to take what belonged to me, Then I will take it back, I don't give a fucking shit if I have to take that thing back from my own mother's pussy, I will gladly lick thoroughly this hairless slit of hers to get what is mine.

And as it turns out, It is actually not that bad. It tastes weird at first but now it's quite edible. I just have to ignore the fact that what I am drinking or say licking is coming out of my mother's slit, The same place I at some point come out of, Which was a way harder thing to do than it felt like it.

Thankfully, There was Alex here to help distract me. I felt a warm hand on my ass. I was at first startled. I didn't expect someone to touch me there right now. It sent shivers down my body as I felt those hands fondling my ass.

I was about to turn around and to show the consequences to the person, Who was daring to do this to be but then I realized it was Alex. I will never forget that tingling sensation I got from his hands.

So I let him be, If he wants to play with my ass, It will be my honor to let him do that, It's good thing that he is still attractive to my body and not bewitched by this old hag, Although this woman is old but I have to admit, She has a killer body.

Even I as a woman was envious of it. No wonder Alex hates my blowjobs now, This woman had decades of practice didn't she? So I could even compare? I will be better than her, I just need to practice more.

I was afraid he would no longer attract my body after seeing and tasting this enchantress's body, But it seems I was wrong and he was still as excited about me as he was last night.

I was concentrating on licking my mother's- Ahem Okay I have to stop saying that, I am busy at taking back Alex's sweet-salty love fluid form this woman.

Yes that sounded much better, It turned me on, As it sounded kinky, If I am using that word right as I didn't know much about this stuff.

"Mummm!~"

I moaned as I felt Alex rubbing his hard shlong between my asscheeks, But my moan was muffled because someone's cave blocked my mouth at this moment, Which I felt glad and sad about it.

I am glad that Alex will not hear my horny moans and think of me as some bitch in heat type of girl who moans, While licking other women's pussy. Who will do anything for sex, I am not that woman, I am doing this all just for him, Although I am enjoying it but that's all because he is here.

If not, I will never do this disgusting thing for anyone other than him, But I was also sad that he will never know if I am enjoying it or not. This was supposed to be my punishment and I am here enjoying every second of it. This was no punishment for me at all.

This is some kinda reward, At least I feel like this was more like a reward and not punishment.

'I should find another way to punish myself later for him, It's not fair I enjoyed this one, Maybe ask Alex fuck Rose? Then I surely will be sad and hurt right? If that does not work, There is Natasha, And even if seeing Alex with them does not hurt me, Then there is that whore of a woman Grace, Yes!! Seeing Alex with her would definitely hurt me. Now I just have to convince him to do it with them.'

I thought about it, It's not fair for Alex, He suffered so much because of me, For 1 whole year he was only get hurt and insulted by me, And this was supposed to be my punishment, This was supposed to be my moment to change and felt the tiny bit of pain he goes through because of me.

And yet, I didn't feel any of that. What I felt was a strange excitement. I needed to feel some pain to feel worthy of forgiveness from Alex. I needed to make this fair for him. I was not supposed to be forgiven this easily.

It's just that I have to find virgin womens, Not those overused trash, Those womens are not worthy of my Alex. Even if it is for revenge against me, He deserves better, He always deserves better.

Also I think virginity is the case, That's why I didn't feel bad when he was with this woman.

I looked up from Helen's crotch position to look at that lustful face, Looked at her, getting excited by her own daughter's mouth.

But I didn't have an opinion against her, I am not a hypocrite, I am doing the same thing, I have no right to judge someone, At least not her.

I focused on more important things, Now I decided, Let Alex fuck Rose in front of me first, I know Rose is still a virgin and is very easy to control, So she will not became a threat to me, She can't steal Alex from me.

All this could happen in a controlled room, According to survey, It hurt more when your lover to fucking your own siblings, Let's hope that's true.

And even If I mean If this still didn't work then there is Natasha, She has been with me since childhood I knew everything about her, She is also very easy to control.

Most importantly, She is also a virgin. She never had a boyfriend or even got close to any boy as she was always with me like a shadow. Seeing her with Alex surely hurt me a lot, right?

After all, In most of the news I read, a Woman became heartbroken when finding out that their husband was cheating on them with their bodyguards. I should be crushed to see Alex making love to Natasha, right?

If there is something wrong with me and I still do not feel the soul-crushing pain, My last option will be that whore, Licking dog Grace, She was worthless in my eyes, If Alex was with her then that surely- no that will definitely going to hurt me way more than I can imagine.

I don't know what I will do when I see them in the same bed, So that would be my last option. At least this much I can do to redeem myself, Alex deserves better me, So I have to be better, Which never happened if I didn't experience the pain.

I need to remind myself how precious and important Alex is to me. I need a scar to keep reminding me, What I will feel and lose if I make the same mistake again.

"AHHHH!!!~ NOT THAT ONE!! ALEX YOU BY ACCIDENT PUT IT IN THE WRONG HOLE Grunt Whimper"

My thoughts were broken by the sharp pain coming from my behind, I felt my flesh tearing as something long and hard tried to enter inside me.

I subconsciously struggled. I know what this long hard thing is. I am very well acquainted with it. This is my man's thing, which shows how much he loves me, But right now this thing was in the wrong hole.

I think Alex made a mistake. That place is very dirty. You should not put something as sensitive as that part in there, So I warned him.

Although I felt this pain was quite strange yet addictive, I am more concerned about Alex's health than pleasure. I didn't want anything to happen to him, Just because I didn't tell him about his mistake as I was busy enjoying it.

"There are no accidents Lick"

Contrary to my belief, Alex does not stick his rod in my butt by mistake at all, He did it on purpose.

He lay his hot smooth muscular chest on my back, Giving me joy every woman dreams of experiencing and then whispered these words in my ear.

But what is even more foul than this action was, He licked the tip of my ear. How am I able to resist him when he does something like this?

My brain stopped working as I felt his stick pushing more and more inside me, It was tearing my asshole wider and wider as it was making its entry, His head was digging deep in me pushing my insides higher.

I was in pain but it was nothing compared to the satisfaction of taking all of his first times. Now I am completely his, From both heart and body. Now I just have to make amends to keep his heart.

I took his first blowjob, Sex, and now even his first anal experience, I am so happy that even that pain turned into passion and love for me.

Soon he was completely inside me as his crotch touched my ass cheek.

Grunt

I grunted in passion mixed with pain, Alex dick completely filled my insides, I can even feel it's throbbing as it lay there.

"I am moving now, Be careful."

He said it as he started to move his waist, I once again felt that tearing pain, It was very hard to do this but I don't give a fuck about the pain at all.

All I have in my mind is that, Alex was inside my ass, Fucking tearing my asshole, While I was licking his jizz out of my mother's pinkish pussy.

Yeah, I know I am a bad girlfriend too, I have a fix that as soon as possible, I need to be punished for my crime to redeem myself.

Pat Pat Pat Pat

I felt Alex's slender fingers run over my dripping slit, transmitting a wave of pleasure in my body as they collected enough of my love juice to put on my asshole.

When he did that, I felt it was a lot easier for his rod to move in and out of me. Now the pain had mostly stopped, What remained was pure pleasure.

Alex sped up his speed as his crotch started banging on my asscheeks. He straightened up his body as he grabbed my ass with his wide soft hands, Before he started ramming inside my pitiful bleeding pink asshole.

But the more rough he was with me, The more I enjoy it, I also started licking more enthusiastically my mothers pussy as I wanted to take out every drop of Alex jizz out of her.

"Arggghh Take it Alia!!!~"

Alex keeps ramming in my until he goes as deep as he can in that tiny hole and emptied out his balls.

"AHHHH! UHHMHMM CUMMMING!!~ Slurp Slurp"

I felt the head of Alex dick swelling inside of me, Then there was that my favorite hot shower of his love fluid in my ass as if he was trying to fill me whole.

My mother also reached her limits as she held my head tightly on her slit before she squirted all of her live juices on my face.

I didn't waste a single drop of it as I completely blocked the exit with my mouth, I drank everything as she released it. To be honest, I didn't even get to taste what it's like but I still love how it made me feel.

With this dual stimulation, It was impossible for me not to have a climax as I was already on the verge of losing myself before, So I also released my warm love fluid on the bed, On which my mother was sleeping on for a few weeks.

Huff Huff Pant Pant

I was huffing and panting. In these 24 hours, I was the most tired of my whole life, As it was nearly impossible for me to get tired of being a B-Rank awakened, But in sex both mind and body had to work hard, Making me exhausted.

"Wait!! What time is it?"

When I had an orgasms, My mind cleared. I quickly realized the key detail which I had forgotten.

I quickly lifted my head up and looked at the wall clock. It was going to be 5 in the evening, The time Rose came to visit their mother daily.

I looked at the surroundings and then at the clock. I didn't know what to do now, I can't let her see me like this. If she opened her big mouth and said that this woman, who I was giving oral treatment just a second ago, is their mother, I didn't know how Alex would react.

Plop

I stood up in a panic, which made that tool of my man fall out. Although I was reluctant to pull it out before I hopped from the bed and started wearing my clothes.

"I will be back in a few moments, Please you two continue."

I didn't have time to talk it through with Alex, so I just bolted out of the door, After I properly wore my clothes.

....

"Who are you?"

Rose was standing in front of the elevator door, wanting to get out of it but her way was blocked by the figure wearing a black cloak.

(A/N : And you thought Grace is the only one going to help Alex with making a Harem. Sorry I this R-18 was too long, Rose will be added later.

By they way who do you think the figure in black is?

Like always thank you for reading and have a good day ǎŸ~'.)

Chapter 54 54. Pretending Or Not?

"Are you Rose Miller?"

A figure in the black cloak asked Rose as it entered inside the elevator with a tempered voice, making it unrecognizable as male or female.

"Who is asking?"

Surprisingly Rose, unlike her usual self in front of Alia or Alex, answered in a very confident tone, Her voice contained a hint of coldness just like her big sister but slight touch of warm playfulness.

There was no fear or any dumb reaction that she was supposed to do according to her normal routine, But right now there was only disgust and annoyance looking at the figure in front of her.

It's like the Rose, Alex knew and this one is two completely different people, Rose was not her stationed dumbass type heroine (Male leads brother) trope but kinda like cold heroine with her own majesty.

"Huh!?"

The figure in the black cloak was surprised. According to the details it has received, Rose was supposed to be the dumb one.

Here this figure was hoping to have some fun with this dumb young miss of a big family a little but now it seems that the details received are tampered with by someone or they are completely fake.

'There is a rat in the gate, I should inform the dragon lord about it.'

The figure thought that someone was messing things up inside its organization, That's the only reason it can think of to let this thing big mishap happen.

After all, their organization is too big. They have eyes and ears everywhere. It's impossible to get the wrong information. It was clearly the job of someone from inside.

"I said, Who is asking?"

Rose took a step forward in a very threatening manner. There was cold glistening killing intent in her eyes, As if the figure in front of her was already dead in Rose's eyes.

"....."

The figure didn't say anything or it was unable to say anything. Right now, its whole body is shaking. Every cell in its body was crying out, Yelling at it. All kinds of alarms were going off inside its body.

A threat, A Deadly threat. If it makes a wrong move now, it will surely die here. After a long time dancing on the edge of the knife, It was at this moment it experienced this long-lost feeling of overwhelming fear.

A hooded figure was afraid for its dear life. An even idea of countering an opponent not able to arise in her heart.

"...Rita, Just Rita, I don't have a surname."

A woman in her early 30s standing in front of Rose, With her killer-alluring curvy body, Her long waist-length red hair was tied into a ponytail, Her skin had a slight tan on it making her sexier.

Her eyes were crescent-like like a curved weapon, Her eyes were as black and deep as the inside of the gun barrel, A tall nose was adding lots of extra charm to her face as her luscious lips were tempting others to commit crimes.

Her chest was a decent size as it was compatible with her hourglass figure, Then there were her tight buttocks over her long slender legs.

Her legs were enough to make her a very successful model if she decided ever to join a modeling career, As they were long and have big thighs, Her legs have a muscle which were clear cut with her delicate feet hiding in her shoes.

Well...She not just unraveled her face but she took out her whole hood because of fear.

Right now she was wearing a pencil-cut dark blue dress as the light blue top was covering her upper body. There was not a single piece of jewelry on her, As those things might get in her way of doing her job.

"So Rita, Why are you stopping me?"

Rose asked in a very slow voice but the elevator filled with a thick killing intent. If she did not get a satisfactory answer, The woman in front of her would cease to exist.

"That- Gulp I am here for miss Alia- Charck Choke."

Rita was scared shitless. She felt like she was standing in front of a wild predator and she was prey. One wrong moment and she will be hunted by her opponent.

So she wanted to confess why she was there to avoid misunderstanding but as she just uttered Alia's name, Rose grabbed her neck, Her slender finger wrapped around Rita's white charming neck as she started struggling for air.

She saw the crazy look in Rose's eyes, The same look their dragon lord shows when he talks about Alia.

She never gets it. Why are these people so crazy and obsessed about Alia? She is also not bad looking compared to Alia, So why does the dragon lord not even spare her a glance?

Although she didn't care about the current dragon lord, Her loyalty belonged to the throne of the lord but still, She was confident about her looks, She can't tolerate being ignored by him.

But right now, She doesn't have time to think about anything. She was more concerned about saving herself. Her vision was going dark and she would faint any moment because of lack of oxygen.

"10 seconds, Tell me everything or you will die."

Rose's voice is still without any hit of emotions. This scared Rita even more as she knew this was not a bluff, Woman in front of her would surely kill her if she was not satisfied with her answer.

'Why the fuck I even send to do this job? I am a killer, not a spy. This new dragon lord is too incompetent.'

Rita was in a both mental and physical struggle, Trying hard to loosen the grip of Rose but it didn't budge an inch. Those fingers were like iron clutches. No matter how much Rita tried, She was incapable of moving them.

She was cursing the new dragon lord, Who sent her here to investigate, She is a killer god damn it, This is not her job at all, If she survives this, That new dragon lord had to give her proper reason for his incompetence.

"Only 5 seconds remaining, Better start talking"

Rose tightened her grip on Rita's neck but other than struggling and grunting, Rita didn't utter a single word. She hates a new dragon lord now but she is loyal to the organization. She will not speak vital information about the task. This was a basic training they go through.

So Rita just closed her eyes and waited for death. She didn't even know why it was so important for the dragon lord to get information about the Miller family as urgently as he wanted. He from last night was acting weird, But now it was not her concern. She wanted to enjoy the last remaining seconds of her life.

"Time is up."

Rose's voice was chilling cold and she increased the power in her hands.

Tap Tap Tap Tap

Just as she was about to finish the job, The sound of her heel hitting the floor reverberated in the hallway.

Rose identified the coming person just by their footsteps as she quickly let Rita go of her grip.

"You better thank your stars later because you are too lucky Snap"

Rose looked in the direction of the sound coming from and then at Rita, surprised about the coincidence that saved Rita's life.

But she didn't have time to think too deeply as the sound of footsteps was getting closer, So she quickly snapped her fingers, Which emanate a golden red light filling the whole elevator.

"What are you doing here? And who is she?"

Just when the golden light disappeared, Alia turned towards the elevator just to see Rose inside of it.

She was glad that she was not late, Or Rose would have seen something that she was not supposed to see.

"Si-Sister th-that I-I di-did eve-everything, S-so com- Gulp come to meet mom."

Rose had a 180-degree of change the moment she saw Alia, The confidence, that killing intent she was showing just a moment ago all vanished, And the dumbass Rose we all love and know appeared once again.

She was stammering right now, Trying to tell her big sis that she had done what she was told to do, But she was shaking in fear, thinking Alia would be mad at her for leaving without her permission.

"I will talk about that later. First tell me, Why is there this unconscious woman with you?"

Alia was in a good mood, So she ignored Rose's crime for now. What she was more concerned about was why there was an unconscious woman in the lift with her little sister.

Looking at it, This woman does not appear to be of normal origin. The cloak on this woman's body reminds her of something. She just can't put her finger on it.

'Wait!!! A woman!? She looks good, If she was a virgin then she is the best candidate for me to be punished. Let me check first.'

Alia suddenly has a light bulb moment as she looks at the face of an unconscious woman. She wanted to find a woman and look at her luck. She just got out of the room. She found one.

If Alex is having sex with some rando chick, It surely hurts her, right?

Looking at her, This woman should be in her early 30s, So Alex's chance of leaving me for her is negligible. So she decided that if this woman is a virgin then she will be the first test subject for her deserved punishment.

"Huh!? What woman Holy shi- Ahem I mean I don't know anything about this sister, I swear."

Rose didn't react to Alia's question, She looked at where Alia pointed, When she saw there was an unconscious woman with her in the elevator, She was startled and wanted to curse in surprise but quickly stopped herself, When she remembered that Alia was standing in front of her.

"Sister, Let's leave. It has to be a ghost. She was not there when I entered the elevator."

Rose quickly runs off the elevator and hides behind Alia, Poking her head out and looking at the woman laying inside the elevator floor.

Although Rose fears Alia too much, she still sees Alia as a big sister, So when she encounters a "ghost", She hides behind her.

"Stop being a dick and help me carry her to...Well, carry her to an underground area."

Alia didn't bother with Rose's reaction, She used Rose's habits. What Rosenis most afraid of is the supernatural things. Anytime she watches a scary movie, She somehow manages to find a way to sneak into her bed.

She gets tired of kicking her out of the room all night but she always sneaks in bed. In the end, she has to let Rose sleep in her bed. Even at those times her fear for Alia does not work at all.

So Alia let her be. What she was more interested in was whether this woman was virgin or not. She had to check it, So first she had to bring her to the underground then decide later what to do with her.

As for consent and such? Sorry she didn't about those things, All she cares about is her redemption for Alex, All other lives are now as worthless in her eyes as they were before.

In her mind this woman was looking like she belonged to the dark line of work, So she was sure that there would be no problem, No matter what she would do with this woman, Neither Alex or her going to have trouble because of it.

"Ok-Okay, But be careful, If it bites you. You will turn into a ghost, I seen it in movies"

Rose hesitantly walked into the elevator holding corner of Alias shirt keeping her eyes on the lying figure in the elevator.

"....."

Alia didn't watch many movies but even she knew that biting things are for zombies, not for ghosts, But he didn't bother with the stupidity of her sister, It's common occurrence for her.

She had to get her work done here quickly and join Alex and her mother, Before they were done doing it.

So she took out a black card from her jackets pocket and pushed it into the tiny slit below the number panel, Before she typed a series of numbers on the floor.

Then elevator started to descend.

...

Huff Huff Huff Huff

Only panting and heavy breathing sound reverberated in the room as Alex was laying in the bed with the mother of Alia and Rose in her arms.

He is right now taking a slight break to let Helen recover first as when Alia was gone, He did it one more time with Helen, So right now he gives her some water, waiting for her to be ready to go once again.

Chapter 55 55. Is Rose's Dumbness Contagious?

Alex just stared at his system menu. How many time has it been since he came to this world? It was just over 24 hours since he came to this world and the plot changed this drastically.

It's okay if there are changes, He understands the flutter of a butterfly's wing can create a hurricane somewhere but that needs time to ferment the process. What is happening here was nowhere near the plot he had in his mind. It was happening too fast.

First of all why the fuck Alia kidnap Rita? Not only kidnapped but she did it for him to fuck her? Where is that cold possessive Alia gone? Alia in his mind will never do something like this.

Heck Aila he knew can not even let him have any close contact with other men not to mention a woman. She changed too quickly, He didn't even do anything to her yet.

Also this Rita, She was supposed to come after Jake, a protagonist of the novel, made an entry, But here she is before the plot started.

Even if he broke his brain open he didn't understand how this could happen. Only one day passed since he came to this world and there was this drastic change damn it.

'First show me what this golden gun is about.'

Alex wanted to just stay away from the trouble Alia caused him, Rita did not seem a good or important person at first glance but she is also a heroine with her own luck.

So it's a very stupid mistake to think of her as some ordinary assassin, She has her own background to make him worry about.

That's why he just wanted a moment away from all the things. He needs to occupy his mind somewhere first to stop himself from overthinking about his overthinking.

[Ding! The 2nd selection option is complete...

Rewards are being distributed...

Congratulations to the host for getting the Golden gun...

Golden Gun : As the name suggested this is the physique of the golden gun. Possessor of this physique has control over their male chicken.

Skills:

â€¢ Your Golden Gun will never fall down after shooting a shot without your permission.

â€¢ Child-lock : This skill makes your swimmers blank shots, So you have to do as much creampiees you want.

(Note : If the host wants he can turn this skill off.)

â€¢ Daughter lover : This skill passive gives you only daughters as kids, not sons.

â€¢ Incest protection: The reasons why Incest is not widely accepted is first those morals and 2nd is genetic defects in the child born of Incest.

This skill can't do anything about those morals but it will protect you against genetic defects and even enhance the genes. The more generation to generation this skill is used, The stronger and stronger and powerful a child will be born from will be.]

The system did as Alex wanted but Alex wasn't able to say anything right now as he was stunningly looking at the reward menu.

'System Are you saying that I should fuck my daughters and granddaughters? Even for me, that's too much. Come on, what's wrong with you?'

Alex finally spoke to the system. It's really too much. How can I be able to do that? Those were going to be his daughters and what the system said they should do from generation to generation. Didn't that mean his granddaughters also will be his daughters?

Just imagine that thing felt too weird not to mention the system was forcing him to do that, System crossed all the lines with these things.

[.....]

The system was speechless. It didn't say anything like that at all. It was just a package deal that comes with the Golden Gun. If this skill wants to use it or not it is totally up to the possessor to decide, What does it have to do with the system?

[Ding! The host you misunderstood, This skill comes with the golden gun, If you are that disgusted by it, Let me remove it-]

'NO NEED! Ahem I mean it's okay, I can forgive you for your small mistakes, It's just a skill, I can handle it, You select 1st and 2nd option for me.'

The system genuinely felt bad thinking Alex was disgusted by this skill, So it wanted to remove it but before it could do that, Alex jumped up and stopped that from happening, He then hurriedly chose the 2nd option.

[But host-]

The system was too innocent to understand the duality of womankind. They say one thing but want to do another. It's all about making and keeping a persona of a decent huwomankind being but the moment they see the thing they wants, All the rules and morals are thrown out of the window.

'System remembers one thing, There is nothing more immoral in this world than having morals. You don't think much about it, Just do as you are told.'

Alex stopped playing with the system and gave him the truth of life.

It is true, morals are the most immoral thing, Which is Ironic, didn't it?

The moment someone decides what others do is good or bad, You take away their free will to think, Morals are nothing but a leash that is put on peoples to make them docile.

It gives a person a fake superior feeling. Think about it. You judged people and pointed fingers at them just because they were not following the rules you make, Were they wrong or they just not fit in your definition of right?

As people frown and get disgusted by what tribal people do, Thinking they are above them, They are advanced, They see themselves on a higher scale than them, A moral compass became their weapon to use against others.

While completely forgetting that what tribal people were doing was is their free will, They were following their culture. You as an outsider have no right to point fingers at them and hold them at a knife point of morals, The same morals that you created.

Isn't that what morals are against? The fact is that, We just created an illusion, A bubble around us and this moral is just part of that illusion, We huwomankind by default are hypocrites.

'Fuck I once again going off-topic, I should stop wasting time on these useless things, First what I should do now?'

Alex quickly stopped his thought that was about to go deeper into his philosophy. This is the reason why he did not like being alone with his thoughts. The voice in his head never stopped as it was always saying or thinking of something.

This may be smart people's curse. We think too deeply about things that were not that deep to begin with.

So Alex put all his attention on the thing that he needs to know. He currently has two options, One to go and see the trouble Alia is causing, or 2nd stay here and handle Helen after she comes back to her senses.

Both are important things, Which confused Alex about what to do next.

'Did I get infected by Rose's dumbness? Is her stupidly contagious?'

Alex had never felt this in his whole life, He always knows what to do every time but now he was confused, He fears that he might be infected by Rose

He was just joking when he said that Rose's dumbness might be contagious, But now he was not sure. It might really be affecting him. That's the only reason he can come up with to justify why he couldn't decide right now.

'Fuck it, First check on Rita, Before crazy Alia let things to go out of hand.'

Alex decided to go to Rita, He can't let anything happen to Rita or those hidden forces behind Rita will be alerted.

If that happens he can't do anything about it. He had to call family and handle the mess for him. Although he didn't have a problem with that, if he did that he had to go back and marry his so-called fiance to fulfill his marriage contract.

He can't marry or at least not yet. He had to be single to target and raid heroines, Not all heroes are crazy, Some have little hypocritical morals. That's why he chose to go to Rita.

Helen can wait, He should give her time to understand the situation first.

So now that Alex decided, He get out of bed and searched for his pants. When Helen dragged him onto the bed, She threw it somewhere.

After searching for it while he finds it behind the bed, It somehow get there, Alex doesn't bother with it and quickly wears it before he is ready to exit this VIP wardroom, But he stops midway, He turns around and covers Helen's naked body with a blanket then he finally exits the room.

At the door, he picks some fluffy sandals to wear as he gives his shoes to his dear friend Nathen to fulfill his fetish.

"Ahh Choo Sniff"

In the underground place, Rose sneezed as she looked around with confusion on her face. She was sure that she hear someone cursing her. It's just that she didn't see anyone.

'Am I hallucinating?'

She thought about it. She didn't get any sleep last night, and maybe that's why she was hearing things. She needs to sleep.

"Are you sick?"

Alia spoke, sending shivers through Rose's body. She quickly strengthened her back and held her head straight.

"N-No, I-I do-don't think so."

Rose answered her quickly, Her voice was shaky as she answered Alia. She can't keep calm in front of her sister at all. Even a normal question becomes hard to answer as soon as she hears her sister's cold tone.

"If sick, Stay away."

Alia was back to her old self in front of others, Her short words replay not changed at all.

"O-Okay"

Rose felt sad, Here she thought that Alia was asking about her health because of worry but it turns out it was for so she will get infected by her.

She was not even sure if her sister could get sick. She had never seen her sister getting sick but she was still ready to go out.

On her way back, She looked at Rita tied on the chair with a strange green-colored rope. She was curious but she didn't want to stay here and hear something that she was not supposed to hear. It's better to be safe than sorry. After all, curiosity kills the cat.

"Bring Alex."

But as Rose was about to press the button for upper floor, Alia threw a black card at her. Rose out of instinct caught it and saw that this thing is the key card of the elevator.

Rose looked up at Alia but at this time she was busy at looking her phone, So she didn't bother her and put the key card in her pocket, Ready to search for Alex and drag him here.

"Dragonlord, We lost connection with Rita. What do we do next? Send those guys to rescue her?"

A man in a black robe standing below the golden throne, Which was carved with lots of golden chinese dragons image on it.

At this moment a young handsome man sitting on the throne hears the information given by his subordinate in a carefree manner.

"No need, I will go."

The man suddenly stood up from the throne and loudly said to the man in the black robe, It seems that the robbed man wanted to say something but he stopped himself.

"One more thing, Get me all the information about a man named Alex."

The young man stopped and said it to a man in a black suit with killing intent in his eyes.

(A/N : We all know who this man is, don't we?)

Like always, Thank you for reading, and have a good day ๑~")

Chapter 56 56. Rose Or "Rose"?

[Ding! Host selected 1st and 2nd option...

Reward of the 2nd option is being distributed...

Congratulations for getting an Immortal-level Combat skill...

Immortal-level combat: This skill has everything you need to know about combat, From hand-to-hand combat to armed one.

You will also have a very sharp intuition of opponents to be prepared in advance.

Special skill : Invincible Immortal Intent.

â€¢ Invincible Immortal Intent : This releases an unfathomable pressure from the body making the targeted parties unable to give an idea of resistance, Fear will occupy their whole being let it be heart, brain, or soul.

Can only be used a few times a day as this skill will put too much toll on the body.]

'Show me Netori system rewards.'

Alex came out of the ward and messaged Alia that he wanted to meet her. She texted him to stay in front of the elevator and wait for someone to take him to her.

So seeing that he has time, He decided to check the rewards of the Netroi system. After all, doing this with his mother and daughter will give him a lot more points, won't it?

[Ding! Netori rewards are like the following...

The host gets Alia's Anal virginity and gets 1500 RP...

The host gets Helen's Vaginal virginity and gets 1000 RP

The host has Vaginal and Anal sex with Helen and Alia NP(200Ã—4 = 800 RP)...

Made Alia cum 10 times 30 NP (30 Ã—10= 300 RP)...

Made Helen cum 25 times 30 NP (25Ã—30= 750 RP)...

You get a blowjob 100 NP (100Ã—2 =200 RP)...

You cum 1 time inside Aliya 50 (50Ã—1= 50 RP)...

Total : (5600Ã— 110 (Heroine+Heroine 10) + (Mother and daughter 100) Ã— 2(NTR)= 1,232,000]

'...That's a lot of points and- wait!? How do I take away Helen's virginity?'

Alex was happily looking at the points he got from doing with Miller mother and daughter. After all, there are 100 times multiplier for the mother-daughter duo but then his attention was grabbed by one of the awards he received.

He thought the system made a mistake. After all, how can Helen be a virgin? She actually gave birth to 2 daughters. Unlike other stories, She is their biological mother.

[Ding! Host if Lust Body is not conquered by another party during sex, It will go back to being a virgin again.]

The system as always came to his rescue and answered the question Alex was confused about.

'...Fucking crazy protagonist!!!'

Alex was stunned hearing the reason for Helean being a virgin. It didn't make sense at all. The reason was also tok dumb as it was there just to justify making Helen a virgin. It was ignoring all the other things.

No wonder Nathan put Helen as number one on his female partner list, That sick fucker id obsessed with virgin womens like he some kinda dark lord, So of course, The mother of 2 daughters, Which Helen herself gave birth to is a virgin.

This is the reason why Natahen added her to the top of his female partner list. It's all because Helen was a virgin. No wonder personnel like Nathen was crazy for her.

'Why not make it as Helen gave birth to daughters by surrogate mothers, If the author wanted to keep Helen a virgin for his dear protagonist, Why did he write that Helen is the biological mother, The one who delivered two of her daughters?'

Alex didn't understand the logic behind this at all. It was nonsensical reasoning and made the plot more complicated. It was all avoided if the author of this Nathans's novel wrote that those daughters are born from surrogacy.

I mean that is still a stretch but at least it was logical. Just experiencing this dumb thing now gives him a headache because of the super lack of logic.

He once again confirmed that the author who wrote this novel doesn't respect the IQ of his readers at all.

No wonder later on this book started to lose its readers and people stopped reading it, If only author just improved his terrible engli- Ahem What I mean is that If he improved his logical reasoning, It would be a different story.

'...This is the new normal for me now, I should get used to it. Sigh I miss the time that when actually needed to use my brain to think.'

Alex gave up on this author, That author was hopeless, At least Jake's novel author didn't pull this shit.

At least he did not let the mother of fucking two daughters be a virgin, Which is one plus for that novel, Alex right now just hopes that Jake's story does not have broken logic like this one.

He just hopes that Jake follows at least a little logic. It's not too much to ask, right?

Ding

Alex was lost in his thoughts, So he was not able to pay attention, When the Elevator door opened.

....

"Wait? Alex?? Will my sister and Alex get back together? Why? How?"

When the elevator door closed, Rose now understood the meaning of her sister's words. She asked to bring Alex here in this underground place.

"Didn't that mean Alex is in the hospital? Why should he be here? Is he here because of Grace's mother?"

Rose couldn't understand how Alex will be here, Alia and he broke up just yesterday. Will they just make it in one day? How is that even possible? She pays him, He can't go back from the deal, If he wants...She can be a replacement for her sister.

'Didn't that mean sister was absent today not because something important came up but because of Alex? Since when did my sister start giving Alex this much importance?'

Rose, overwhelmed by the news, thinks about her strict, workaholic sister who missed her today's work because of a man. If someone tells her this before she will only think that it is a terrible joke. This thing is impossible to happen.

Nothing is more important in her sister's eyes than work, If there is then that would be more work.

"Glup Do sisters still remember last night's event? What would I do if she decided to take revenge on me for kissing him?"

Rose now finally understands the seriousness of the situation, Alia hates when someone even touches her thing, and she here kissed it. If she didn't get killed then that means her sister has more terrible things waiting for her.

[What else do you do? It will be an honor to get punished by my goddess Alia, It would be best if she used her soft hands to punish us, Just imagine that those her soft white hand grasping my neck as her slender fingers clenching on me trying to block my airflow,

Woah, The imagination is overwhelming me, I can't wait to experience it as soon as possible.]

"What!? Who-Who are you? I-I warn you, I am the 2nd miss of the Miller family. My sister, and mother will not let you go if you do something to me."

Rose was suddenly startled as an unknown voice rang in the elevator. She was terrified as this is a first-time she encountered something like this. She thought some assassin was making fun of her before killing her.

[Relax, I can't hurt you even if I wanted to. Which is a pity. Just think about the red marks of wounds on this white skin. Will they make this seductive body look ugly? No it will look very beautiful and If Alia is the one who inflicts them, I will never let them heal, I will wear them as a badges.]

That voice once again rang, It was speaking in a playful tone as it didn't take Rose seriously at all, or rather it didn't think of her as a threat.

"GHOST!!!! THERE IS A GHOST!! SISTER SISTER SAVE ME!!!"

Rose's panicked to a limit, When she thought about the possibility of this being a ghost, She hurriedly ran towards the intercom and asked for help on it in a panicked anxious voice, Pressing all the buttons hoping there is any that will stop the elevator and open door for her to run away from here.

[What a nuisance, Sigh You are acting like a dick, I tell you if not for you have a very high chance of getting punished for your stupidity by my goddess, I strangled you to death.]

Voice became annoyed by the cowardliness of Rose. It spoke in a very hateful tone, full of resentment towards Rose As if the voice really wanted to kill her.

"AHHHH!!! HELP!!! IT WANTED TO KILL! Mr.....Sorry Ms. G-Ghost tr-trust me, I-I don't taste good, So don't eat me please."

Seeing that lift was not stopping, Rose decided to beg for her life. What she feared most was supernatural things, And this is clearly a supernatural event. She was so scared that she might wet her skirt but somehow she refrained from doing something shameful like that.

[Why me? Can't this little shit grow some ovaries and fight back? Forget it, let me handle that Alex.]

"Inheale Finally Exhale A Peace."

Well...panicked Rose all of sudden calmed down, She stood up and dust off her clothes. Then she stretched her hands and took a deep breath in comfort, Thinking that the annoyance was finally gone.

"Is everything all right in there?"

The Intercom rang as the voice of a security guard came from it.

"Everything is alright here, I am just playing a prank on my sister."

"Rose" spoke on the intercom and make a reasonable excuse to erase any suspicion.

"Ohh okay, But please don't do that again, miss."

Security might have guessed it was their 2nd miss voice and respectfully reminded them before cutting off the call.

"Let's meet this Alex guy, I don't get it. Why did my goddess become his girlfriend? I mean I was right there. What makes him that special? If I am her girlfriend, She should have been punishing me every day, Ohh, The paradise but this bastard ruins it."

"Rose" was very angry when she mentioned Alex's name. She was gritting her teeth as she spoke his name, As if Alex stole something precious of hers.

"Well, it didn't matter, It was not the first time I dealt with people trying to get close to or hurt my goddess."

"Rose" spoke as she fell into thinking.

There was a boy in high school who had the guts to confess my goddess, MY GODDESS!! He even tries to make her jealous by bringing another girl in front of her goddess. He disrespected my goddess, So I gave those two what they deserve, A sweet death.

I covered both of them in sweet honey and then threw them into the bear cage. It felt very good. Especially When I heard two of their loud screams as that bear started munching on them while they were still alive. That felt like music to my ears.

And that college teacher, He made the worst mistake, her goddess worked all night to complete that assignment because he didn't extend the deadline but after Alia did it, He lost the notebook that her goddess worked so hard for.

So I also gave him a deadline. He either writes his whole subject book in one night or he will be crushed in between hydraulic presses. It was satisfactory to see him struggle and beg for more time while writing. Huhh, How good that felt.

My goddess asked him to the extent of the due date for her as she didn't know about the assignment, Because she was busy with office work, But did he extend it? No!! He tells Alia that she will either submit on time or he will fail her.

That's why even after working all day at the office, Alia completed the month worth of assignments in one night, But after all that he lost the book and top of that other then admitting his mistake gave Alia a B grade, B Grade.

For the first time, I saw my goddess get disappointed, So I made that man feel how it felt to be on deadline. Poor thing was so close. He wrote pretty much the whole book with his bleeding fingers with only a few pages remaining.

But alas rules were rules. I pressed the button, turning him into minced meat paste. Have to say, It was the best way to clean it, So he might take revenge in that way.

If I can do all of this to those people with background, Then a mere Alex without any background or support is nothing. It will be fun to play with him, I will make sure not to break him too early, Let's have some fun after a long time.

Ding

The elevator reached the 3rd floor as its door opened.

'Huh? What a surprise, I didn't even have to search for him.'

As "Rose" exited the elevator, She saw Alex standing in front of her, A spirit in her eyes rose up as he was ready to attack him and knocked unconscious to play with him.

She licked her red lips as she took her pose to get a jump on him.

(A/N : You guys didn't expect this, did you?)

Like always thank you for reading and have a good day ٩٠٠٠.)

Chapter 57 57. Alway Had Protection

[Ding! [Sex-Copy] skill was triggered...

Please choose one thing to copy...

⌘ Skill

⌘ Talent

â€¢ Superpower]

'Choose talent, Copy her physique.'

When Alex was frustrated with the lack of novel logic, System came out and gave him the option of choosing what to copy.

It is a good thing that the system does this. This way, This notification does not bother him, and he can put all his attention on the important things.

[Ding! The host chooses the Lust Fairy Physiques...

Detected that the Lust Fairy physique is not suitable for the host...

Replacing it with the same grade physiques...

New physique "Legendary Incubus Physique"...

Legendary Incubus Physique : These physiques have all the specialty and powers of an incubus but they are more enhanced version of it.

Skill :

â€¢ Your semen will become mildly to highly addictive to the receivers.

(Note : You can control the degree of addictiveness).

â€¢ Body will constantly release pheromones to attract the opposite sex.

(Note : Compatible with Lust Aura.)

â€¢ All pleasure given or received will be multiplied by two.

Special Skill :

â€¢ Mind control/ Mind Break : The host can control or break the mind of your sex partner to a certain extent.

(Note : It's recommended to use it on equally or less powerful persons than yourself, As it does not work properly on stronger opponents.)]

'I earn blood today an- Pang.'

Alex was excited seeing that he got quite a profit, He already received lots of Raider Points from the sex and then now this one, He was happy these women in Miller were just giving him a lot of good things.

The most rewards he got up to now is from them, Even including his background, So he was kinda happy, and the frustration of Helen's virginity logic was pretty much gone.

But suddenly his heart thumped, As his blood started to run widely in his veins, His dark pupils dilated as every hair on his skin stood up making him shiver in cold. Everything became slow as his senses started bombarding information in his brain.

All the alarms in his body had gone off, As a strange feeling rose in his heart.

Swift

Alex's body quickly moved sideways on its own, barely missing the white palm headed for his head.

"Wh- Rose!! Why are yo- Wait!? Why are you attacking? Are you mad because of last night? Stop trying to hit me!!!"

He quickly turns around as a hot red barrier of flame comes out of his body and creates a shield around him to protect him, He quickly starts dodging the punches and kicks of the attacker.

In doing that he saw that the attacker was none other than Rose, The same dumbass he was afraid to meet fearing getting infected by her stupidity. If it was before he should have made a little joke or tried to tease her.

But right now he doesn't have anything like that in his mind. His mind was blank as all his attention was on to dodge the attack of Rose as he found that he couldn't win if he goes offensive against a person in front of him.

The only reason he was even able to last this long was because of his SS-Rank superpower & Immortal-level combat kicking in for his rescues, giving him head start with predicting opponents moves, Plus he used the passive of his god-level acting to avoid any fatal damage.

Still, even with all this, it was getting harder and harder to defend against her right now. Ever so slightly she was able to break his defense. It was not because of her skill but her overwhelming power compared to him.

'Is she not Rose but someone disguised as one?'

Alex was dodging all the attacks "Rose" was throwing at him with minimal moments, He looked at her face and find that there was not an ounce of emotion on that face, It was all blank but what make her even scary was that her eyes had a very crazed look, He couldn't put a finger at it but that look making his soul tremble.

His first thought was an assassin sent by Nathan, It was not unlikely this to happen, as using backhand is the protagonist's go-to list, So maybe someone disguised as Rose to make him decrease vigilant against the person to make him an easy target.

But he dropped the idea, Not to mention that this person directly attacked him making an effort of disguising useless but this person was way too stronger than him, At least this person should be peak B-Rank at a minimum.

'She is still Rose, But what happened to her? Why is she this strong? Wasn't she supposed to be a normal person? This heroine was just there for a gag, A jokez She didn't supposed to have any important plot, Also how the fuck did she gets this strong? And why is she attacking me?'

Alex had too many questions, But all his attention was on Rose, So there was no time to think at all.

Thankfully it was evening and there were not many people in the hospital, So the elevator that goes to the underground was very secluded. If not there will be too many casualties.

After all this woman was not playing around now, Her moves changed and she started to become more aggressive. She started using more and more deadly moves and attacks.

Each of her moves now targets his vital parts. If he even misses a single move to dodge, He will become incapable of fighting.

"Stop resisting you little rat, If you give up, I will go easy on you, I promise not to break you too much and let you go, hehe~ or if you want I can even use this body to suck you dry? What do you think? Aren't you attracted to this worthless woman's body?"

"Rose " stopped attacking, Not because she wasn't able to catch Alex but because she was afraid that this much trouble would alert Alia. She liked to get punished by Alia but she didn't want Alia to hate her.

So she gave him an ultimatum, She was actually ready to use this body of hers as bait, After all she didn't care about this body, The more wounds and scars there on it, The happier she would be.

It's just worry of that others will become suspicious of her if there were lots of injured on this body, That's why she didn't do anything about it, But if say Alex hurt her, Then she didn't have to worry, All the blame will be on him and she gets to enjoy both playing with him and the scars as rewards.

It's a win-win situation for her. Plus right now she dropped the Idea of killing him this easily seeing his skills and superpower. She now knows Alex is not an easy person.

Because right now she felt a sense of danger. There are at least 10 powerful people's auras locked on her. This is an open threat and a warning. If she really goes for the kill, Then she is the one who will die. After all, each of them is at least a B-Rank warrior just like her and there is also an A-ranks mixed in them.

But if Alex comes with her willingly then those people are not going to have a problem, right? She also needs to know the reason why this man was with her goddess. If he is a threat then she had to eliminate him quietly.

'System what is happening? Who is it or what is she?'

Alex didn't answer her. His body was on full alert, He was panting, His white T-shirt was already drenched in sweat but he was not afraid at all.

After all, he is an heir to a very strong family, So how do they let him walk in the world without any protection? Even if he didn't know them or have seen them, He was confident there were people in the dark protecting him.

Now the action of Rose proves that there are people protecting him. If not, Rose will not give him an ultimatum, When she has all the winning cards in her hands.

[Ding! Sorry host, Your level is low too low to know this information, Please work hard and increase your level

-- Yours truly the system]

"...."

Alex wanted to beat someone. It may be the system trying to learn new ways to learn to talk but this is not the time for that. What does it mean if he had a low level?

He upgraded to level 2 in just one day, wasn't that enough?

"Who are you?"

Alex didn't have time to argue with the system now. He gathered enough confidence and asked her in a calm voice, He had to be calm, he can't show weakness, or he will lose the battle before he even starts fighting.

"Who am I? Well...To be honest, I didn't give much thought about it before, But you can call me...Violet."

"Ro- Violet started thinking about it for a while then she quickly in excitement answered Alex with a very creepy smile on her face.

Well, although a creepy smile, she still has the face of Rose, A proper heroine, So even a creepy smile turns into a charming one as there are no creepy or charming things, But ugly and beautiful, This is the difference between those two.

"Hey~ You didn't answer me, Don't you want to be sucked dry by my body? Tell you what? This is still a virgin body, You should feel lucky, right? I as a young miss, Who is still a virgin, Bre honored that I am offered to give you filthy insects."

Violet asked again but her voice changed as her tone became impatient, She didn't have much time as she felt her consciousness fading away. She needs to make him agree to her quickly or she has to start this all over again later.

"I don't care about your virginity, There are plenty of virgin women, You will be surprised, Who can be still a virgin."

Alex spoke with full of her shit tone. He didn't have a crazy thing for virgins like Nathan, Although he prefers virgins but he was not obsessed with them. He is more into milf but it turns out that the mother of two, Proper milf can still be a virgin.

The frustration came back once again making him feel annoyed, Too many shit happened today that he didn't know the answer to.

First, why is Alia reacting like this, Then it turns out Helen is a virgin and there is this creature. He didn't like this feeling at all, He always used to know things before but now he felt like a stupid person.

"Huh!? I thought men like their women being virgins. Well anyway, Tell me to do you still-Arggghh Fuck! We can't talk right now, We continue our conversation later Snap."

Violet was speaking but suddenly held her head with both of her hands and groaned in pain. It was becoming hard for her to speak, So she just looked at Alex and was barely able to speak to him before she snapped her fingers.

Zoom

The same golden light covered everything, making it impossible to see anything.

"...Huh!? Alex!! It's good that I found you here. Come on, Sister asked me to bring you underground, She is waiting for us there."

Rose didn't come back to her senses while standing in the place in confusion on her face but when she did, She quickly looked around and found that Alex, she was going to search for, was standing in front of her.

So she quickly grabbed his wrist and dragged him into the elevator, While Alex was just looking at her with confusion written all over his face.

Ding

Rose didn't see that and did the things Alia did before, just like that elevator door closed with Rose who was afraid of her sister, And Alex who was very confused about everything inside of it.

(A/N : Who do you think Violet is?

Like always thank you for reading and have a good day ٩٠٠٠.)

Chapter 58 58. Alex's Frustration

Protective measures are being taken...

10,000 Raider Points are deducted...

System protection shield is activated...

Please wait until protection is not necessary...]

When the golden light flashed, the system's voice suddenly rang in Alex's mind, making his consciousness go dark for a while.

In this period, he wasn't able to move or react as a by-product of being protected by the system.

So he wasn't able to do anything about Rose dragging him into the elevator. When he came back to his senses, the elevator door was already closed, So he could only stare at Rose with a confused look. All he was thinking at this time was, How?

How can Rose be that strong and from where she gets her superpower, She was just supposed to troll, A gag the character, The one who was just there for a laugh, Since when did she get her own plot? There is nothing related to this in both of the novels she is part of.

In those two novels there is nothing that even hints about her current situation. She in both of the novels, comes into the scene, says something dumb, and goes away. That's her whole thing, But now it's kinda different.

That's because she is and not part of both novels, She can be said to be a rough heroine.

Yeah, that's right, Because he hasn't done anything to her yet and she is still a virgin. So she is still a heroine in Nathan's novel and Jake's plot.

Right now she is first come first serve basis, Any protagonist who gets her first can add her to their harem but the catch is that her affection for him has crossed the obsession level, So she can't be conquered by any protagonist, No matter how they try.

Maybe that's the reason why she is acting like this. The world might be trying to "fix" her.

'No! I mean it does not look like a fresh thing, Possibility of this Violet being a double personality is very high but again her words were strange.'

Alex started to run his brain at full power, The gears in his mind started to turn as he tried to figure out the cause of how and from where Violet comes from.

The first and obvious choice can be double personality, Which is highly likely as mental problems run in their family, Both Miller women have some mental problems.

Like Helen is a masochist who likes to get hurt and become excited by it, Alia has an extreme obsession. Well maybe had an obsession, He didn't know if she have it now as apparently she kidnapped Rita for him.

But anyway either will be the case, Both of the ladies had problems with their brains, So it's not strange if Rose also had mental issues.

As those problems can be passed down, Plus looking at Alia's nature, He was sure that Rose does not have a normal childhood, Maybe that's why she got broken and created another personality for her protection.

This is logical, Our brain is a very complex jello soaked in salty water, Which somehow thinks and drives a machine made of bones and flesh, It has one job to keep us safe, which is also beneficial for it's own survival, So it's possible to let something like this fuck up happen.

So Rose might have create another personality to be safe from Alia's torture, Either to run away from it or enjoy it, The way Violet talks about Alia makes him think it's of course latter reason.

But how much she should have suffered that she had to break herself into parts to protect herself from the shock? Also, her having a double personality only answers why she acted differently, It has no answer to how she got her superpowers.

Superpowers are not chinese cabbage that anyone can get them, There is a reason why Awakens are successfully able to hide from the world, And that's is their low numbers, If every second person has superpower, Then there is no need to hide as it will become the new norm.

'Why!!! Why is there so much trouble and mystery? Wasn't this novel world supposed to be a wish-fulfillment one?'

Alex couldn't help but yell in his mind, According to the plot of the novel, it was supposed to go like action- Woman Impress-Sex-More sex-Even more sex- Break-Some talk-New woman entry-action, Then the cycle repeats.

This is how this story is supposed to go but what is happening now? Although he had his fun and all but that was the whole point, Nathan also followed the same plot. There was no deep plot or there was no need for a deep plot but why is it that when it is his turn suddenly a new mysterious plot pop-up?

Why can't he just lay back and enjoy life using the knowledge of a novel plot? He should be able to solve all the problems but look at him now. He didn't even know this simplest thing of Rose got her superpower.

Also, the one thing Violet said bothered him. She said that men like virgins. Which is not strange to hear but that only in his past world. In this world virginity is not that important or taken seriously, especially men who don't care about women being virgins but it was very popular in his last world.

This makes him a little uneasy, Although he was quite sure Violet is only a personality created by Rose's subconscious but there are too many unanswered questions.

'What if she is some powerhouse who failed to seize the house and is now trapped in Rose's body?'

Alex suddenly had a very terrible thought. This explains everything, If Violet was not a dual personality but some powerhouse of another world.

This explains the origin of her superpower, Her change of behavior, How she talks about men liking virgin women, and especially how she didn't care about Rose's body.

She is doing that because she doesn't care about Rose at all, Rose should be an ant in her eyes, and can be crushed at will.

'But she does like to see her or Rose's body getting wounded and scarred, So what is it? Ahhh!!!'

Alex was screaming in his mind. He hates this feeling of being uncertain, not being able to predict others is frustrating, He right now feels like a dog whose owner is a crazy vegan.

He was not getting what he needed to survive. He might go crazy if this goes on. What people like him hated the most is losing control. Right now he feels his control of the situation is getting out of his hands, making him very anxious.

Ding

Alex felt like he was thinking for hours but in actuality, only a minute or two passed. As the elevator reached the underground, its door opened.

Rose keeps her distance from him the whole time, acting like she didn't care about him but her not-so-sneaky glances at him give away her badly disguised desire.

She didn't want to close to Alex, As not to provoke her sister's anger, Last night Alex was single, and even if at that time she slept with him, Alia should have had any problem, At least she think so, But now he is her sisters boyfriend, If she did anything with him, That would be equivalent of putting a green hat on Alia.

Although the idea is exciting, it has terrible consequences. She still didn't forget those unfortunate people in high school and college. She didn't want to add her name to that list.

'FUCK!!!!'

Alex also didn't pay much attention to Rose as he was busy with his thoughts. He got off the elevator and the scene in front of him rooted him to the ground. He couldn't believe what he was looking at. The scene in front of him sends shivers through his body.

"Ohhh you are here, Give me a minute to handle this mess first."

Hearing the sound of the door opening, Alia turned to the duo that exited the elevator and gave them a very heartfelt smile, While holding some strange metal tool in her hand, Wearing a white apron and gloves, Which now tainted with some red fluid.

...

"Here is all the information about Alex, My lord."

A man in a black robe handed a very thick pile of documents to the handsome man on the dragon-carved throne in a respectful manner but his eyes were full of mockery and disgust as the robbed man's loyalty is with the throne not with the man on it.

"I don't want to waste time reading this useless man's report, Just say the key details about him."

The man on the throne didn't even spare a single glance at the documents handed to him by others, He just cleaned his ear with his pinky finger and said arrogantly to the robbed man.

"...Alex Winchester is 20 years old on records but according to our news he should be around 23 years old, Currently studying in city-b collage in 3rd year of the music major. Last night whole internet blow up because of his song- In my opinion he really love miss Alia, and miss Alia should als-"

"SHUT THE FUCK UP!!! Only do what I tell you to do, I don't need to know your opinion."

The black robed man was saying all the details they gathered of Alex. They found out about his real age. It is not that uncommon for a man to give their fake birthdate, So it didn't set off any alarm for them, But what bothered him was that Alex was normal, He was too normal.

Robbed man felt strange. He had a gut feeling that he should not provoke this man, So he wanted to stop his lord from going against Alex. That's why he decided to speak for Alia and Alex's love.

He heard that song. That song was so good and powerful that it touched the heart of someone cruel like him. It made him cry for hours last night. He literally cried himself to sleep.

So there is no need to doubt Alex's love for Alia. That's why he decided to speak for Alex. After all, He thinks that his lord is worried about Alia being cheated on using love by Alex. If he disprove that claim, Eveything will be fine.

Poor thing doesn't know the hypocrisy of the protagonist. Yeah if you don't get it, The lord in robbed man's mouth is the new protagonist named Jake, Brother of the Miller sisters.

Jake is only using Alex's past nature of being a green tea to exploit and destroy all men around Alia. He didn't give a shit if they two love each other or not, He was confident that no matter who it is, He will give more than the other party can give it to Alia.

His sister can be only his, No one can have it, If others even think of having her idea, He will destroy them.

Well, he is the brother of Alia alright. Both are quite similar, maybe they are too similar? It's funny to see how similar they are.

"Fuck it, I didn't care about the trash of man, Just squash him like a insect he is, Just prepared my ride."

Jake had it enough, Anyway, he is a dragon lord, The dragon gate of his worldwide famous organization, Those small countries remember hearing the name of his organization, Even murica had to sell him a some face, So he is not afraid of anything.

Right now he wants to go and meet his sister. He can't waste any time now. He has to make his sister his own. If he wants her virginity to improve his cultivation technique.

As he needs a power boost quickly, He knows that people did not agree with him being the new dragon lord. If he does not show his worth, He will soon be overthrown by the opposing party.

He too heard the song of Alex last night as it pretty much broke the internet, That's why he decided to make a move, He sent Rita there to search around but she failed miserably, That's why he himself is going right now. He can't trust these people.

"...A helicopter is on the helipad waiting for you dragon lord."

The robbed man was angry and frustrated at being humiliated by Jake but he didn't not oppose him. The iron loyalty to the dragon throne will not destroy this easily but it really shakes his trust and belief of his.

If this goes on, It will not be long before loyalty also gets destroyed.

"Okay, Also go get your punishment."

Jake didn't care about this robbed man, He just stood up and walked out of the throne room, Ordering the man to go get punishment for his crime, Which is 10 lashes of the hunter on the bare back, Even if he will not die, He will be staying in the bed for months.

So obviously when the robbed man heard it, He was shocked but then gritted his teeth and walked towards the other room to get his punishment.

"What are you doing Alia?"

Alex quickly came to Alia and asked in a very surprised and unbelievable tone, The shock was written all over his face, As his forehead was covered in fine beads of sweats.

(A/N : What do you think Alia is doing?)

Chapter 59 59. Alia Will Do Super Crazy Shit

"What am I doing? Nice question, But I don't know."

Alia waved the metal tool in her hand in helplessness, Saying in a defeated tone. There was a cute pout on her lips as she said to Alex like a child.

She should have looked very cute, I mean she does look cute when she acts like this. After all, she is the main heroine, But the thing that Alex was focusing on was not on her face but on Alia's dress.

It was covered in red fluid. He had a pretty good guess of what that red liquid was. Then he looked at Rita, who was in a strange position in the custom-made bed unconscious.

He then wandered his eyes around. There were lots of things in this room, like a chair, bed, and some weirdly shaped furniture. On the walls were hanging power tools and such.

Alex was sure of seeing all these things, This is no normal room but a torture chamber, Look the walls even had the same fluid as on Alia's dress, Although dried but it was still too obvious.

"What do you mean you don't know?"

Alex raised his eyebrow upon hearing Alia's answer, She was the one doing whatever she was doing, So how could she not know?

"I mean I didn't know what to look, I am only good at tortu- Cough I mean convincing others."

Alia spoke to him as she looked at Rita in a strange position on the bed with a hateful look on her face. She was quite good at interrogating people but right now she doesn't know what to do.

This woman in front of her did not say a word, Alia just wanted to know her name and to see if this woman is a virgin or not but no matter how much she tried, At the end this woman became unconscious, She still wasn't able to make this woman talk. This is so frustrating for her.

Alia has other ways to "convince" her but that would break this woman's body, Which makes her useless. What is she going to do with a woman with a broken body? She can't let something like that abomination near Alex.

But Alia also didn't want to go and start finding another woman, At least not when he had this ideal candidate.

She checked it, Her face was okay, and her body was also not that bad. It's just she didn't check yet if she was a virgin or not. This is where Alia failed.

She didn't know how to check that without making her bleed, She only knows that one way to check but doing that will break her virginity, Didn't that mean she did all this work for nothing?

"Sigh What are you looking for anyway? I might be able to help."

Alex sighed as he looked at Alia. He also wanted to know the reason why she kidnapped Rita. This question is bugging him a lot. He didn't understand what he had to do with anything with the abducting Rita.

So he didn't keep pretending to be the white lotus guy, Alia already has an idea about his big background, So it's reasonable that he should have seen things like this countless times or at least knows of it.

If he acted high above talking about laws or what not would only look like hypocritical behavior in the eyes of others, not righteous one.

"I-I was just giving her a medical check, For example, to see if she had any hidden disease or how good her body is, Also to check her purity, Just to make sure I have all the data, It's just that I didn't know how to do it"

Alia is at first afraid of Alex seeing all the things in this room. She regretted the moment she asked Rose to bring him here. She should have gone to meet him, But she asked without thinking. When he asked her to meet, When he reacted too late, Elevator door closed before she could stop Rose.

She then wanted to clear the scene for Alex, So he would not see her bad side but found out that it was impossible to do it in a short time. That's why she let it be.

Alia gambled thinking that Alex should have seen the big world. She put all her mind on the fact that he should not have any problem, Now she found that she was right, So the weight on her heart was lessened a lot.

That's why she got enough confidence to tell what she was doing but still, she didn't dare to say the exact reason for her doing this. She knew Alex still did not officially declare them as boyfriend and girlfriend, She was still in the red zone.

"She is healthy, actually more healthy than the average woman, So you don't have to worry, But ai warn you, She is not someone you should provoke at will."

Alex got LV 10 medical skills from Xin Yan, So he can see Rita's condition at first glance.

Although her heartbeats are in a mess as there were bleeding wounds on her body, But they all are just flesh wounds, For awakened like her, they were nothing at all. They will heal in a day or two.

He was lucky that Alia didn't do much. He was worried she would pull some super crazy shit. After all, we are talking about the main heroine, Who didn't care about anyone else other than people related to her.

So he would have not been too surprised if Alia separated her parts like a barbie. He was ready to use holy blessing to deal with the mess but it turns out he didn't have to, Alia might not be that crazy.

Unknown to Alex, Alia would have definitely done that when she didn't get her answers. The only reason Rita was in one piece that she didn't want to break her body too much.

After all, it's really hard to find virgins nowadays. Alia was lucky that she caught one in the wild or she was planning on farming them.

Yeah, she's still as crazy as she always has been, Or maybe she got even crazier now. Pretty sure she gaslighted herself to the extent that she broke her mind and common sense.

"Is she "pure"?"

Alia outright ignored Alex's warning, She was not afraid of anyone, Or say she was not afraid of anyone other than her mother, and now Alex.

Right now she just wanted to know if Rita is a virgin or not, So she can decide what to do with her later.

"Well...She is "Pure", Her body is still whole, But again, Do not do anything to her."

Alex was not surprised by Alia ignoring his warning. If she took the warning seriously, He would have doubted that he got the wrong heroine, taking the warning seriously is not the thing heroines do.

They like to go head-first into the obvious trouble that can be avoided. After all, if they didn't do that, How can the protagonist get a chance to shine and show his might to other heroines?

That's the dumb setting of heroines, Alia is also not an expectation to it. Her thinking stopped in these things. If she uses her brain she can find out that Alex, who has a bigger background, was warning her, There has to be something amiss in the situation.

But Alex still tries to make her see the reason. He is not afraid of the people behind Rita but he doesn't want to create unnecessary enemies. That is the protagonist's job not his.

"That's great!!- What I am trying to say is that- the...Rose, You leave office without my permission, How do you want to be punished now?"

Alia was happy knowing that this woman in front of her, Who she kidnapped out of nowhere, The one who she does not even know the name of was a virgin.

She can now use this woman to punish herself, Just thinking about Alex playing with this woman's body, While woman enjoying it in front of her eyes, She became wet-

Sorry that came out wrong, Her eyes became wet as the excitement- the pain of it hit her mind, and her heart filled with joy- Ahem agony.

But in excitement she outspoke words from her heart. She became scared and anxious. She couldn't let Alex know her plan yet. He still had not accepted her.

What will she do if he gets disgusted by the idea? She can't risk it, So it's better to keep this as a secret for now. So she avoided the topic and looked around anxiously. Then her eyes fell on Rose standing in the corner of the room, Pretending to be dead, Just wanting to avoid attracting Alia's attention.

Unfortunately, Her stars were not with her, Alia quickly spotted her and pushed her out to avoid talking about a woman on the bed. Anyway, She was going to punish Rose later. she will do it now that didn't make any difference.

"What!?! I didn't do anything, I called but you didn't pick up your phone, I thought you died, So I can- No I mean I thought you were busy with important things, So I came here...I never thought you died, I swear."

Rose jumped as if someone stepped on her tail. She quickly babbled things she prepared to ask forgiveness from her sister but she ruined it because of fear and anxiousness.

This is the reason she didn't want to stay here, But Alia didn't ask her to leave, So she had to stay here, She tried to be as low-key as possible but in the end, She still targeted by Alia,

The punishment in Alia's mouth is well known to her, This is the worst punishment her sister created especially for her, She is terrified of it, She didn't wanted to experience that horror.

"So you thought I was dead? Well, I don't blame you for it."

Alia didn't react much listening to Rose's words, But actually agreed with her and acted as if she sympathized with Rose.

"You do?"

Rose asked in a dumbfounded tone, She was ready to face Alia's wrath but she didn't expect this chill treatment from Alia.

"Yeah, I don't blame you, But that doesn't mean I will not punish you. Go and don't come back until you complete 3 month's worth of work. You have to do all that in 24 hours, So go get busy."

Alia suddenly turned her tone ice cold and released a terrifying pressure from her body targeting Rose.

"I will do it, sister, I will go right away."

As that wave of power hit her, Rose broke out in cold sweat. Her body was shaking as if she was confronted by her natural enemy. She should have known that this was an obvious trap, But she didn't waste much time, She just spoke a few words and quickly ran off into the elevator without saying much.

Alex looked at her in surprise, He just noticed one thing, Rose purposely avoided talking to him in front of Alia, so as not to provoke her sister any further.

This sign of intelligence was not expected from someone like Rose, This really groundbreaking discovery for him, He should have to look into it later.

"What are you going to do with her?"

Alex didn't want to interfere in an argument between sisters, He is not stupid to do that, So he just avoided that topic and pointed to Rita and asked his main question.

Rita is heroin. The longer she stays here the more chances are then for something unexpected to happen. He wanted to throw this woman out before trouble came knocking on their door.

"I don't know, How about this chainsaw?"

Alia looked confusedly at Alex then at Rita, After some thinking, She pulled out the long chainsaw from under the bed and was ready to start it.

"Wait? What the fuck are you planning to do?"

Alex was startled seeing what Alia was doing, He quickly moved and grabbed the chainsaw from her. He did not expect her to answer this way to his simple question.

"Sorry, It's an old habit, It's easier to handle if they are in pieces- Ahem...."

Alia realized what she did. She looked at Alex and spoke in embarrassment. This is an old routine of hers, The chainsaw helps a lot to cut into little pieces, Which are way easier to take care of than the whole structure.

But while speaking she realized, She once again missed speaking. It was as if her IQ would go negative wherever she was with Alex, But she liked his feeling a lot. It's just that now she doesn't know how to recover from this one.

"Not going to make other excuses? Good, Help me take her down, Not that one, Just from the bed."

Alex didn't know how he was feeling, Alia's IQ is the thing that he was most afraid of in the beginning but now looking at her like this, It just felt strange.

Like right now, When he said to take down Rita, Alia raised her hand ready to shoot her to dead, This kinda thing is not expected from Alia.

He once again reminded him that he lives in the novel world now. People change too quickly, unlike in the real world where things have to be stacked first to create change like this one.

"Okay."

Alia once again became embarrassed but she still helped Alex to quickly pull unconscious Rita from a strange position in a custom-made bed, And lay her on the normal bed.

....

"I don't know what my lovely Alex is doing, I might give him a visit. See if he had enough fun outside and is ready to come back to me."

An exceptionally beautiful woman, Like a fairy fallen from high heaven looking outside from the big glass window, Holding a goblet of red wine in her hand.

On her otherworldly attractive flawless face was a gentle smile adoring her beauty but in her cold enchanting eyes were filled with immense hatred, especially when she spoke Alex's name.

Chapter 60 60. Crazy Bitch (Don't Be Worried Read Till End)

"Hey Robin, Can you tell me what size Alex might be?"

The fairy-like woman turned toward the butler standing by her side and asked in a very meaningful way.

"Young Master Alex should be around 5.10 or 6, Miss."

Butler didn't hesitate, Thought about it for a second before answering in a confident tone, He was quite sure about the size he estimated.

"Are you sure? He didn't seem to be that big, Right?"

The woman was surprised to hear the answer from a butler named Robin, She didn't expect Alex to be that size.

This makes her a little anxious, fearing if he is that big, Then will he even fit in it or not. She was not prepared for that big size at all, She thought he should be around 4.5 to 5 like all normal men of a rich family like them.

"Positive miss, My eyes never deceive me. Young master Alex should be around 5.10 or 6. So you should be prepared as it was bigger than what we expected."

Robin spoke with a straight face, There was not an ounce of emotion contained in his voice. It felt very creepy to hear it as you know something is wrong but can't put your finger on it.

"Oh, I did not expect my lovely little Alex to grow into a big boy, Such a pity, I couldn't able to see it."

The woman's face saddened as she recalled the precious moments she missed in Alex's life, She wanted to be there for him but her job not allow her to do it.

But she still keeps tabs on him though, His every action was recorded by her people, She keeps all those files close to herself, Whenever she has time, She takes out those files and sees them, This is one of the rare joys in her life.

She recalls the day, How thrilled she was when the Winchester family agreed to their engagement, Even their wedding date is fixed, Just after Alex turned 18, She was supposed to marry him next week after his birthday.

There were still a few months of waiting, Which for her felt like a year, But she somehow bore it, Because she wanted to be his wife the moment she saw him at that seemingly ordinary banquet. She did everything to convince his family, And finally, they agreed.

It's just that on his 18th birthday, Alex ran away from home. She was heartbroken. She didn't understand why he didn't want to marry her.

Is she not beautiful enough? She knows that's not true, She is very confident about her looks, But then what will be the reason he ran away? Is she not rich enough? No that's also wrong, Her family is standing with the Winchester family, So she as the heir of this family is also quite rich.

So she is still confused about why he left her? She really loves him dearly. How can he do that to her?

She wanted to go and ask him personally but the Winchester family forbids anyone from meeting him. They say to give him his time, But now 4 years have passed. He still has not come back to her. She was yearning for a hug from him, She was lovesick.

"Why not test if that big even fits, Robin you help me with it, You also are around size 6 right?"

The woman didn't want to think about the past and get sad, So she changed the topic and decided to test it out to see if that big even fit in that tiny place.

She had to be prepared ahead of time or what she would do if she messed up in front of Alex? Wouldn't that be too embarrassing?

So she asked for help from her die heart loyal subordinate Robin who is as big as Alex, Which is the best candidate to use for the test if he fits or not.

"Okay miss, This will be my honor, Will you need my help to remove clothes?"

Robin had the as neutral voice he has in the beginning void of any emotions, He just heard that there is a task his miss wanted to do, Then he will do it, He didn't care about other factors.

Anyway, His miss is right, He is as big as Alex, Which is a thing one should be proud of. This way he can be of little use to his miss, His body was not as worthless as he thought.

"Don't worry about it, I know how to do it, You just remove yours."

Woman polity refused, It is Robin's job to do things like this, But today she didn't want to waste time, So she will do the job of removing clothes on her own. She just wanted to check if Robin would fit inside, If he did then she didn't have to worry about Alex.

"Miss but are you sure? I mean didn't young master Alex supposed to be first? It would be like taking away his honor, wouldn't it?"

Robin removed his clothes and stood naked in front of the woman. He did what he was told to do but hesitated for a moment before he said to the woman.

He knows that Alex might not care about this but the first time is always important, So he should not ruin it for him.

"Don't worry about that Robin, He will not complain about it, I know him too well, You just lay down there and let me do the next things."

The woman stopped for a second after hearing Robins's words, Thought about it for a while but then she didn't bother with it. She had known Alex for pretty much his whole life, He was not the one of the guys to complain about things like this one.

She was 110% sure that Alex would not complain at all, Her trust in her love was too much.

"Okay miss, But be gentle, It's my first time."

Robin lay down on the wooden furniture and said shyly to the woman, He never did something like this before, So he was a little fearful.

"Don't worry, It might hurt at first but then you will be in pure bliss."

The woman also removed the cloth and stared at Robin with a crazed look. She imagined him as Alex. His looks were also quite similar to Alex, Which might be the reason, Why he was even hired by her in the first place.

Then she looked at Robin and held him. After preparing for a while, she slowly put him inside.

"Arghhhh tight, Too tight!!"

Robin grunted as she pushed him in, It was too tight, As he predicted, Alex will not be able to fit in this at all.

"Is it too tight? That's not good at all, Alex is not going to like it. Do you have any idea how to loosen it?"

The woman quickly stopped and asked Robin for an answer. If it was too tight then that was not good. She wanted Alex to feel comfortable, So he can be there as long as he can but with this he struggle to even move a little bit. It was a big no-no for her.

Her eyes fell on the blood stained on the furniture. It happened because she was forcing Robin inside. It might be because she has broken or torn something. She had no idea what it would break or torn but she didn't care about that right now.

She was more worried about Alex. She was doing this to make him comfortable. Now it turns out he will not be comfortable in this small space at all. It's too tight.

That's why she asked Robin about the ways to loosen it. As her personal butler he knows about lots of things, She has confidence that he should also know about these things too.

"Miss, I think it's not tight but we are doing it wrong. If we put it little by little, Then I should be able to fit comfortably inside."

Robin looked at the woman in front of him, Thought for a while about her question, and then answered.

It's actually a simple thing. If they put him little by little inside of it, She can fit him completely inside without much worry. If that works then Alex should also be able to fit here.

"That's a fantastic idea, I knew it, You are the best Robin."

The woman was ecstatic hearing the solution. She didn't want Alex to have any uncomfortable experience, And now with this, She was sure he would not have to worry about tightness at all.

So the woman got close to Robin, Put her extremely delicate hands like the wings of a butterfly on his shoulder, Then her captivating eyes stared at his blank one with excitement.

She moved her hands gently in the black hair on his head then.... she grabbed them tightly and ripped his head off from his body, Holding the decapitated head of Robin in her hands, She had a very happy smile on her face.

Then she started to separate him from limb to limb, Until she divided him into multiple separate parts. After that she carefully started putting them inside of the furniture Robine was laying on, Which turned out to be the coffin this woman uncovered cloth off.

"Yeah~ You were right Robin, We are indeed able to put a person comfortably inside if we put them little by little."

The woman held Robin's head in front of her face and spoke to him in an excited tone. She was happy, So happy. Now Alex should be able to live comfortably here, He will not complain about the comfort of his new bed.

"Thank you for your praise, Miss."

Then a horrifying thing happened: The decapitated head in the woman's hand opened its eyes and spoke to her.

Right now the anomaly can be seen in the room, Because even if she ripped him in the pieces, There was only slight blood tainting the floor, All other things were dried like a tree branch, Even skin of his was flaky as it had no moisture at all.

This indicates that Robin is or to say was long since dead, This woman definitely did something to reanimate the corpse of Robin to do things for her.

"Don't you think Alex will look very good in here? This way he will never leave me ever again, He will always be close to me, Just like mother and sister."

The woman, Who is supposed to be Alex's fiance, has been fantasizing about putting Alex separate parts in this coffin, Which he specially made for him, So he can be with her forever.

This my friend is a certified crazy chick, Also known as Yandere, The one who will do anything to keep their lover with them at any cost, Even if she had to turn her lover into a walking corpse, she will going to do it.

"Should I go now and bring my lovely Alex home? I should clean his bed first, He will definitely going to like it."

The woman now couldn't wait any longer, She listened to the song Alex sang last night. How can her man sing that legendary song for another woman? That woman has to die.

So she planned to go and kill that woman first then bring Alex back home. If he refuses then she just has to convince him sternly, That's all, Killing all his loved ones around him might do the trick.

"Hehe~ hehe Haha HAHAHA HAHAHA!!!"
