

Surviving in Woman's world as a novel villain.

Chapter 61 61. Belladonna Favorite Of Author

Alex was feeling very complicated right now, His fiancée Belladonna is the last person he wanted to meet at this early. He didn't know he should feel pity for her or be disgusted by her.

That's why even when he did have plans for her but he didn't want to encounter them right now. He doesn't even understand what triggered her to target him.

She is not the kind of person who will do something on will like Alia, Belladonna is a very thoughtful woman, She never plays a game which is unfavorable for her.

This is the reason why he was more surprised as something has to trigger her to target him, He just didn't know what it-

'Song, She should have heard my song.'

Finally, his brain gets something logical to think about as he starts to dissect the information he got right now.

It's highly possible that this woman should have seen or heard his song. After all, it was trending for quite a while now, Which is given because of his god-level singing.

He was ready for the trouble when he used this skill as the gains outweigh the risks at that time.

But this is not what he expected. If he is targeted by her now, There is nothing he can do about it. Belladonna is quite powerful.

Actually come to think about it, She also becomes part of both Nathen's and Jake's novels with two different roles like Alia. In Nathen's one, she is the villainess of the mid-late part as she will lose her virginity to him or at least Nathen thought so making her incapable of being heroine.

Nathan only adds virgins to his harem, So he didn't too much effort on her as he did for other heroines of her caliber, Although he was hungry for her body she one minded for Alex, So in the end, she gets sad ending of dying alone, Pulling hatred towards Alex as he was the one who betrayed her in plot.

Yes, The plot of his also changed as he got his background. He who was supposed to only have a few face-slapping scenes now became the supporting villain for the villainess, Only problem is that it only changed once. Later no matter what he did it did not have any effect for some reason.

She is also in Jake's plot as his female partner, Which she became when he threatened her with Alex's life, and by the logic of the novel world, she gives in without fighting back, But that was only temporarily, She was always planning for revenge and was very close killing Jake but then protagonist halo kick in making her lose her life.

But Alex noticed one thing, That is the authors of both novels might really like this Belladonna character.

Because she was even being in the wishfuliment novel stay a virgin until the very end. Which is an anomaly, She is the only few characters that the author paid attention to.

Like her name, Belladonna's name is perfect for her, because it describes her fully. You will get her personality and traits just from her name.

As Belladonna means a beautiful lady, Which she is, She might be considered the top 5 women in both novels, proof of her beauty is that even knowing she is not a virgin protagonist wanted to add her to his harem, and Jake even blackmailed her.

But her name also has another meaning, That is Belladonna also means nightshade, A very poisonous plant, Who is known to be a killer of queens, empress, and warriors throughout history, A tiny amount of it was enough to put a whole grown woman into eternal sleep.

This is reason should be enough to consider as author paying close attention to her but for Alex this is not the only reason why he thinks Belladonna is the favorite of those authors as there are a few other uses for that plant.

Like Atropa Belladonna is said to have been an ingredient in love potions and was used as an eye drop to make women's eyes more seductive.

Because of that Belladonna's name also represented, enchanting, poisonous, deadly, and seductive. The all keywords that describe this woman.

This shows that the author should have done his research to give this name to her, making her one of the few women in the novels, Which have special names. This is the reason enough to say that she is a favorite character of the author, At least she is on the list of them.

But this is a problem for Alex giving him a headache that because Belladonna being favorite of the author has quite an of power boost from get go, He is nowhere near an opponent of her now but he was not afraid of it.

That's because she is actually quite easy to deal with. It's just her volatile nature and her messed up thinking process is the main problem for him. If he can somehow avoid triggering those, He should easily be able to tame her. She might be even easier to raid than Grace.

"Alia, Will you stop messing with her? Dress her quickly, I have to take her home."

Alex for a moment broke his thought chain and looked up at Alia, Who was poking her long fingers on Rita's skin, While muttering something in annoyance and envy.

It looks quite comical seeing her doing this childish thing, But he knows this woman can take a 180° turn any moment, So it's better to take Rita away from here.

This way he can not only be sure that he will prevent two heroin from clashing but also be prepared for the unexpected thing heroine halo might try to pull to save her.

"I am not convinced Alex, Why is her skin so soft? I also want it."

Alia came running towards him and hugged his waist then she hung on his body like a koala. After that she started complaining to him like a spoiled child, pouting and rambling to him.

"????"

There were only lots of question marks in his mind, As he confusedly looked at Alia's strange behavior.

He just started to feel his old feeling back after thinking about Belladonna, But Alia broke that feeling of comfort, He does not understand what he did now to make her act like this. She was acting normal...Well, she was acting normal for her just a while ago.

Sniff

When he was helpless, He smelled a very strong smell. He checked around and found out that it was coming from Alia. There was a heavy smell of alcohol lingering on her body.

Then he realized that he given her a wine bottle before anything they had done in the ward, As Awakened her, tolerance for alcohol is quite high but maybe that's why she drank too much of it, He buy that bottle, especially for her from the system keeping in mind about her tolerance, So her body merely holding back alcohol all this time.

And now all that alcohol kicked in making her super drunk in the instant as her body was no longer able to hold it back.

"Why? Hic I also want it. Can I take it? I will be more beautiful for you then."

Alia was fully drunk, She put all her weight on Alex's body as she couldn't stand on her own, The words were hardly coming out of her mouth as she looked resentfully at Rita.

She was jealous of her for having that elastic skin. When she touched it just gave her a very unrealistic feeling. Her skin was like rubber, and No matter how she tried it went back to its original place, It even healed her skin wounds completely.

She wants this skin of hers, This way she will not have wrinkles as she gets old and keeps her young appearance, So Alex still will be attracted to her, She didn't want to get old and lose him because of her ugly appearance because of the effect of time.

"You can't take it, Don't be stupid, You are very attractive and beautiful as you are."

Alex was startled hearing her words, He can't risk leaving her alone with Rita anymore, This drunk Alia might have no qualms about anything.

She might really do something that he will have a headache fixing, So he wrapped his hands around her slender waist to keep her close to him.

"Hehe~ I am Hic beautiful? Then tell me who is more beautiful? Me or my mother?"

When Alex says she is beautiful, Alia forgets about her last question about Rita's skin as she jumps in his arms and asked the new one.

But this question broke Alex into a cold sweat. He was not supposed to know about Helen being her mother yet. He had all the planning he had to do, All his plans would fail if she spills the beans now.

"I never seen your mother, remember? But I think you have a very attractive body, But it's another story when we compare you with Rose"

Alex's brain ran fast as he quickly came up with the solution. He was not sure if he reminded her that he didn't see her mother. She was capable of understanding what to do, So he quickly sacrificed Rose as a tool to distract Alia.

Anyway, It will be like revenge of him for getting targeted without reason. No matter what or who Violet is, She should be afraid of Alia. If that's the case then It would be easy to control her through Alia.

That's why he chose Rose, This way he can hit two birds at once, The trouble of Violet can be controlled and He can also distract this drunk Alia from destroying his plans.

"Huh!? I-I Hic not as beautiful?"

Alia looked up at him from his arms, Her eyes filled with tears as she asked him in an unbelievable and hurt tone, She completely ignored the comparing with Rose part.

Thump

Seeing her like this, Alex's heart misses a beat. She really is a heroine. In the real world you can't have this beautiful woman. Just simple action of hers instigated his inner protective instincts. He just wanted to just hug and comfort her in his arms.

"There there, You are more beautiful than her, I was wrong."

Who can be able to do anything to her when she is acting this cute? His heart couldn't bear it. That's the only reason he was nice to her now and stopped his plan to lay trap for Violet. This is the only reason, It's not because it would be useless for his efforts as she might not be able to understand him in her drunkenness.

He is a very softhearted man after all, He is a proper gentleman.

"Really? You are not lying to me right?"

Alia stopped crying hearing his answer, She lifted her face from his arms, Then she looked at him with hope and expectation in her eyes. There was no shadow of her genius high cold domineering CEO right now but she looked like an innocent child, Who can be tricked by using candy.

She clenched his shirt as she was waiting for his answer, Alex now was feeling really bad for using this trick to distract her, As she genuinely looked like got hurt by his words.

"Yes, You are more beautiful than her, You are the most beautiful woman I have know in this Berlin city."

Alex patted on her head with his big soft hand, As he spoke with his soothing gentle voice before completely taking her in his arms tenderly hugging her soft body.

"Hehe~ You say I am beautiful, You can't take that back."

Alia didn't resist any of his actions, She enjoyed the warm hand on her head, She rubbed her cheek on his wrist like a cat, And when he hugged her, She giggled stupidly as she enjoyed the warmth in his arms.

No one said anything, Both were enjoying the warmth of each other in this rare peaceful silence.

Ding

The tranquility of the room got broken as a phone in Alex's pocket had a notification.

This made him frown and annoyed but he still with his free hand grabbed the phone and checked his notification.

Unknown : !!!!!

Alex checked it and saw the sender. Seeing the name subconsciously a smile appeared on his lips but when he saw the context of the message, He had a very bad feeling in his heart.

(A/N : Who is this Unknown person? By the way, this is 2nd appearance of this character.

Chapter 62 62. Drunk Alia Is Cute

Alex just looked at the messages and lots of conclusions appeared in his mind. The hamster in his mind started to running as he quickly began to eliminate the unfeasible conclusions.

Still, there are many remains that he didn't know about, The prominent being that these message is supposed to warn him about the incoming threat of Belladonna, This is the most logical one, If this is the case then he didn't have any worries as he knows the way to handle her, But he knows he was not that lucky.

There is definitely a new trouble that is going to arise soon, The trouble that even alerted this person to give him heads-up of upcoming danger.

'Can't I enjoy peace for a while? The things happening are way too fast, I have yet to deal with Nathan.'

Alex said in his mind helpless in front of fate, throwing one trouble and another at him. Maybe this heavenly will is doing this to protect the protagonist, or he might have used all his luck for getting transmigrated and to receive the system.

In either case, He needs a little break from all of this. The only good thing that happened to him was that lost his V-card. Although it kinda happened against his will but he still got the first time as the main heroine, That is still a plus point for him.

Talking about Alia, He looked at her in his arms, Who had no intention of breaking away from the hug.

Alex put the phone back into his pocket, He now has to find his unicorn loli to be prepared for the arrival of Belladonna, This way this woman will not do anything crazy, After all, no matter how powerful she is, She will never want to make an enemy of two families equal or even stronger than hers.

But he can't go to meet Liza, When this koala is hanging on his body, He still also has to go to Grace as he promised her before. There he has to talk about opening a business.

He has a god-level business which he got when he first encountered her. If he wants he can create a whole business empire in a mere month, But the problem is that he has to put all his attention on it, Which he can't do at all.

So he needs Grace for the job. She is also a businesswoman capable of standing on equal terms with Alia, The main heroine in the business, And now that he put a secretary halo on her. Her ability also increased a lot.

He wants to have his own business as it is very useful for him to attack other heroines that will inevitably come, And given the plot is all over the place, They might come any time now, So he needs to be prepared in advance for it.

That way at least he is going to have one less thing to worry about, Grace will handle those girls, He just has to steer them toward her.

"Hey, Alia, how long are you planning on hugging me?"

Alex looked down and spoke to her, Her small white face was pressed on his broad muscular chest, On her exceptionally beautiful face, adoring a very enchanting smile.

She right now looks like a goddess in Violet's mouth, with a perfect face, and a perfect body. Her long buttock-length hair was loose, falling down in a beautiful wave.

Looking at her like this, No wonder the protagonists were crazy for her. She is a creation that even puts fairies to shame. It's just her personality that causes trouble. If somehow her volatility decreased, She should be a perfect heroine.

"No!!"

Alia hearing his question outright denied him. Which stunned Alex, Who looked at her with astonished eyes.

He noticed before that she was doing anything he wanted. She even went as far as licking his love liquid from her mother's pleasure cave, So he was pretty sure she would agree to his simple request.

But to his surprise, she denied it in an instant. Is this a bigger deal than what she did in that wardroom? Or the alcohol affects them to this degree. If it's the latter, He needs to get her checked up for alcohol poisoning but it's not seem that is the case.

"Why not? I need to do other things, Alia. I don't have time to mess around, We will have time for that in the night."

Alex tried to break the hug but he was no opponent to her in strength, So he had to convince her to let him go.

He really can't waste any more time, He had to go bottom of what that message warning him about, Also so he had to give heads up to Liza to be prepared, And then he had to take Grace out on a date and later talk about business, He had too much thing pending to do it before end of the day.

So even if he wanted to enjoy the beauty in his arms, He had to go and try to fix the mess that comes after him.

"Then take me where you are Hic going, I will behave, I promise."

Alia lifted her face and looked straight at him with her watery eyes. She looked like a lost puppy, Asking him to take her home.

"Tha- "

Alex was tongue-tied as he was overloaded with cuteness of hers, She looked super cute at this time. If she always acted like this one, She might outrank most if not all the heroines. He even had the urge to give in to her request.

'Should I take her with me?'

Alex falls into thinking, It's not a bad idea to take her with him for those things other than Grace, This way he can even immunize her to see him with another woman, And not just go berserk later on.

He can't count on the mother-daughter thing they did in the ward as it is not guaranteed that she will react the same way to another woman, It's better to train her slowly first.

"No, I am going to meet someone important, You can't come"

Alex looked into her eager eyes and refused sternly, seeing the light in her eyes die down as she was on the verge of crying out.

"Sniff Why?"

She somehow held her tears back and asked him trembling words, controlling her sobbing so as not to show weakness in front of him.

To be honest, Seeing her like this would be break the hearts of most of people, Alex too feels bad but he was not the one who let his emotions control him, If he wants to take her with him, He first had to let her fully give in to him, If not it will be hard to control her in front of others.

So he can't easily agree with her, Because we as humans do not care about the thing we get easily but if we had to struggle for it, Then he would do anything to keep that thing with us.

Using this thing, He was planning on controlling her. Even if she is drunk, She is not drunk enough to ignore his point, and her struggle, Which is the key point to start taming her.

"Are you going to meet another woman?"

Suddenly she stopped crying and asked him to look straight at him. Her sobbing voice, tearing pain in her tone was the thing that forced him to think for a moment.

What was he doing right? These women are also alive, Have their free will and their whole life. They are not some novel soulless characters.

They are alive and have the freedom to think for themselves. He is doing this to them, catching them like exotic animals, isn't this wrong? didn't he just play with their feelings and emotions? He is doing the exact thing the protagonist does, So what right did he have to hate them for it? He was doing the same thing.

'Because I am a hypocrite, I think I am saving them from the protagonist, Which is what I am kinda doing but I am more greedy for their body, The Raider Points, I like beautiful women, I made that clear in the very beginning.'

Alex wasn't affected by this new realization at all, He always knew he was the trash of human beings, and He didn't have any complaints about that at all.

He calls the protagonist a hypocrite because he himself is a hypocrite, So he knows a hypocrite when he sees one. The difference between them is that he knows he is a hypocrite. He didn't lie to himself, create delusions of being self-righteous and all that shit that the protagonist makes.

He never lies to himself. If he wants it he will do anything to take it. Right now he wants to survive in this novel world, So he was doing what he has to do for survival, He did not need any more reason than this one.

He does care about heroines. He cares about a lot but he also makes sure his feelings will not interfere with his decision making. He will take tough decisions like hurting their feelings to some extent to achieve his goals.

"Yes, I am going to meet a woman, They hav- "

"Are they virgins?"

So Alex decided to go up the front, Say that he is going to meet another woman, But then say the reasonable reason, Making her question her own judgment and feel guilty about doubting him but he didn't get a chance to say those things at all.

Alia cut him in the middle of sentences and asked something he never thought of her asking him.

"Pardon me, But can you say that again, I might have misheard you."

He wasn't able to process what she asked him. He wanted to make her doubt herself but he was now starting to doubt his own hearing, So he asked her once again to say it and confirm what he heard.

"I am asking, The woman you are Hic going to meet, Are they virgins? Vir- Hic Virgin means never be in Se-Sexuale Ahem Sexluse...Sexyele, Ahhh!! They never share bed with a man."

Alia didn't miss a beat and quickly answered what she wanted to ask him. Alcohol might not be working properly on her awakened physique as her thinking still remains functional as she thought about that Alex might know about what Virgin means, But her memory and vocabulary seems to be affected as she isn't able to say sexual relationships even after trying several times, After a few attempts, She gave up and said something else related to it.

But Alex was not so concerned about that, He was more worried about what she was saying, Like what kinda question is this? Who asks something like this when your boyfriend says he is going to meet another woman?

'Is she doing some dark rituals or something? She needs virgins to perform ritual?'

Alex can only think of this thing, Only ritual for those forbidden rituals you need virgins sacrifice, So it's the first thing that comes into his mind when she said about virgins, If not why she was asking about something like this right?

"They might be, But why do you need them?"

He did not know what she was planning, So he didn't give her a straight answer, Planning to fish out more information out of her.

"Huh!? Why do I need virgins? Mhmm...Yeah well I don't remember but it should be about punishment or something "

Alia tilted her head like a dog hearing his question, Thought hard about it but she was not able to remember why she was asking for virgins, She only remembers it was punishment related, But for who? She has no idea.

'Definitely for a ritual, Since when did she do something like this? There is nothing sorta like this in the plot.'

Alex solidifies his conclusion that she needs virgins for the ritual, He sneakily looked at Rita and then at Alia, Now he thinks he understands why she kidnapped Rita and wanted to see if she was a virgin.

It's all for the ritual she was planning on doing. Now it makes sense that the system says that Alia kidnapped Rita for him. This makes sense. If he thinks about the ritual as for himself, It should be about creating punishment for him, Then it's really for him that she kidnapped Rita.

Now everything became clear to him, He broke Alia and pushed towards the darkside for her to do something like this to get him.

"What punishment? Alia, Hey Alia don't sleep, Answer me."

He wanted to know more about this ritual, He didn't want to be in dark and become targeted by the punishment, Hearing about it seems scary thing, He wanted to ask more about it from drunk Alia but find out that she right now passed out in his arms, Splashing cold water all over his plans of taking her out and make her resistant to seeing him with other womans.

"Humm Alex...Virgins...Punishment hehe"

He now can't even know about the ritual she was planning as no matter how she tries to wake her up, She didn't wake at all, She just mumbled a few words and laughed in her sleep.

This kinda creeped him out making her very uneasy as the only thing he was afraid of in this world is unknown, And now he didn't know what plans she had for him.

"She can't stay here, This place is not safe at all."

Alex put passed out Alia on the seemingly normal-looking bed in this place, Then he looked at naked still unconscious Rita laying on the other bed worriedly.

If Alia started targeting virgins then Rita was not safe here, So without thinking much he warped her in the black robe of hers before he carried her out of this underground.

'Did I break her?'

As the elevator door closed, Alex thought to himself looking at sleeping Alia until its doors were fully closed.

(A/N : Do you think he will like it when he finds out about the actual "ritual"?)

Like always thank you for reading and have a good day ǎŸ~.)

Chapter 63 63. Supernatural

"How long are you going to keep pretending Rita?"

As they were alone in the elevator, Alex just put Rita down on the elevator floor and looked at her with amusement.

It's not even that hard to guess that she was pretending, This woman is a killer, Who is trained to handle extreme torture, Compared to that Alia just pinched her, This woman was conscious all the time, She was just acting like this to avoid escalating things.

Rita did not react at all, She was laying on the cold elevator floor the way he put her without any moment to move to a comfortable position.

"Your full name is Rita as you don't know your surname, You are an orphan who was later adopted by the dragon gate organization and turned into a cold-hearted killer for them but you actually just wanted a place to call home, You did dirty deeds for them fearing to lose this home, You wanted them to accept you as a family, But they never did, And you know it. You are just pawns they can use and sacrifice anytime they want, Don't you Rita?"

Alex saw that she didn't listen in a normal way, So he decided to hit where it hurt the most.

Rita doesn't have any family or someone to care for her anymore, Since she remembered she was living in a broken orphanage of some 3rd world war ridden country, Which explains what happened to her parents.

Later when she turned the age of 5, She was adopted by that time's dragon king, The master of protagonist Jake. The Dragon gate organization thinks of itself as some higher-up force, above everyone, they think they are doing something special, They convince themselves as the chosen ones.

But in reality, they are nothing but some psychopaths playing pretending to be with a dash of a god complex.

Even Alex said this sensitive information only very few higher-ups in the organization knew about Rita still didn't move at all. It shows that the training she received was not ordinary. No normal person was able to stay calm when the information they thought was secret was spoken by a stranger to them.

Alex actually was quite impressed. She as a killer should find out all the information she can about a target before she makes a move. Like now, She seems to be just acting to avoid talking but in fact, she is gathering information.

Her eyes might close but her other senses are working on the extreme level to give her all the information that she needs. She uses touch to feel where she is, She uses smell to determine the conditions surrounding her, and Her ears listen to figure out how many people are present.

Just by doing this, She throws off lots of killers as unlike most of them, She is still calm and follows protocol even in a situation like this one.

"Ohh, You are indeed trained well by them, Well that given after all on their order you even killed the one you loved, What her name was? Jenny or some- ."

"Keep her name out of your damn mouth- Acghk"

Alex decided to go even more forward and use the thing that he knows will actually work. This is her sensitive point, and the regret of her life.

So as he spoke about this thing, Rita wasn't able to stay calm. She was wondering about how Alex knew so much about her before but the moment he said this, All that worry was thrown out of the window.

She moved at superspeed to stand up, Then she Stretched out her hand like a claw, and aimed at his throat. Her action was so quick that he wasn't even able to react but that didn't stop his body from reacting on instinct.

He ducked quickly avoiding the claw headed for his neck then he turned his foot on ground with force carrying momentum of it in his hips then he shifted that momentum into his fist hitting in her abdomen with force.

Rita didn't know what even happened, She only found herself laying on the same cold floor she was laying on second before. It's the third time this has happened today. She does not understand what is happening to her, Why she suddenly became so unlucky to encounter strong people like this one.

"What do you wan-!!!"

Realizing she was not an opponent of his, She decided to compromise first to stall for some time, Elevator will reach the upper floor any moment now. She just has to find an opportunity to escape.

But the words she was supposed to say didn't come out of her mouth. Her brain blanked out as she looked at the figure standing in front of her stupidly.

'How could he have fallen?'

That was the only thing in her mind now, She was stunned looking at his beauty. There are no words in her vocabulary. No matter how many or whichever words she used to describe his beauty, It would still be nothing but an insult to him.

A blasphemy, As the words of mortals, can't describe the beauty of the divine, All of her other emotions vanished as she only felt pity for him, Pity that he fell into this dirty world, Tainting him in the filth of this world.

"Are you an angel or death?"

Rita couldn't help but ask, She can only think of those two when she looked at the man standing in front of her. He knew things about her that not even the organization knew about, So he should be higher being come for her.

He came to her to give her salvation. Finally the pain of her, the constant struggle in her mind would stop now, She can be free, She was ready to end this cursed life of hers, All she wants now is peace which she yearned for her whole life.

"I can understand why you call me an angel but why death?"

Alex finally gets an appropriate reaction from someone on his looks. The people are used to seeing him as he was already handsome before the increase in charm, And on top of that those heroines have protection from the world, So they are not that much bothered by his charm.

But it is the first time he received the reaction one should have after seeing his charms, Rita is the first heroine to actually feel the full effect of his charm.

"Wasn't Death supposed to be a handsome man named Mister Death? I heard that he is a very good-looking man, Who comes to people at the end of their life and takes them to the afterlife. Our caretaker used to tell this story to us."

Rita, who is supposed to be tight-lipped, spoke like a parrot and said things without thinking, Her eyes glued on his face. She tried several times to look away from him but she just wasn't able to do it. Her heart started racing as her face was burning hot because of shame and embarrassment.

[Ding! +50 Favorability of Rita increased for the host (Current : 80 Only One)]

System notification came as expected, once again showing his charm's power. It's only first meeting there was +50 increase in favorability, Alex was quite satisfied with this effect.

"Mister Death huh? Well, it's quite a good villain name for me, Dangerous and elegant, I love it."

Hearing the reason why Rita called him death, Alex was quite intrigued by it. Why do only protagonists and Heroines get cool code names? Like Alia has a black rose, and Jake has a dragon lord. He also needs one, And this one is perfect for him.

"So you are death?"

Rita still couldn't figure out what Alex was talking about. She really thought that Alex was some divine being who came to bring her salvation from her miserable life.

She is fed up with this life of dancing on the edge of a knife. It's even hard to remember the real reason she was doing all these things. She doesn't even know when or how she will die. Does anyone even care if she died?

The only person who used to care about her Jenny was dead. Her friend from the orphanage. They were two for each other. She was her one and only family. She was like a sister to her. They always used to stick together even on missions they used to go together, But one day the organization sent them on a mission like always.

They were supposed to kill the leader of some small terrorist group in their hiding place. It's their everyday job, and They both were proud of it. They were doing some good things for the world by eliminating these tumors for humanity. So they easily sneaked in the camp.

But as it turns out, They were dead wrong. It was no small group of terrorists but the main headquarters of some hidden organization. They realized that the information they received was wrong, So both of them decided to sneak out and inform the organization about it, As two of them were not enough to take care of this group.

Both were very careful and they pretty much escaped from the jaws of death as they successfully exited from the camp. Both of them were very happy that they wanted to celebrate.

Bang

Rita wanted to hug Jenny in happiness but as she was about to do it, One bullet ripped through Jenny's chest and headed towards her.

Everything in Rita's vision became slow motion, All other sounds of surrounding became inaudible, She wanted to move her body and catch the falling body of Jenny, She wanted to ask if she was okay but no words came out of her mouth.

She didn't come back to her senses until the bullet hit her body, Stretching her skin back to prevent the bullet from piercing into her body thanks to her superpower. As she came back to her senses, She moved fast and hugged falling Jenny in her arms, Then started running as fast as she could.

She didn't even take a look back to see if he was being followed. She ran until she didn't have any strength to run anymore.

Rita collapse with Jenny in her arms protecting her even when she was falling, With the last bit of remaining strength, Rita checked on Jenny but it was too late, She bleed too much, She was not breathing, Rita wanted to cry and try to save her but she didn't have any strength left, She just collapses and fall unconscious with the Jenny in her arms.

Later organizations came and saved her, When she opened her eyes, She was laying in the medical facility of their dragon gate's base, That was a moment she had time to cry but she couldn't, Crying is a sign of weakness in the organization, If she did that she will lose her job, She not able to bring the change in this world that she always wanted, The change that there will be no children have to live in orphanage became of this stupid wars.

She wanted a world where each and everyone got a place to call home, Although it's too big of a vision for someone like her but she was doing what she can for the greater good. She was doing a good thing, She knows it, Jenny did not die for some dumb reason, Her death was for a noble cause. So there is no need to cry, Only smile to show those fallen that their sacrifice was not in vain.

Now it's her time to rest in peace, Someone will take her place and carry forward her fantasy of the world.

"Hello!? Are you done with your back story? Hehe, I always wanted to say that."

Alex looked at her staring at him with lots of emotions passing by in her eyes, He couldn't help but say these words. As he understands as in the novel logic this moment should be the one, Where she will be thinking about her backstory.

Well, it's the real world. It does not make much sense to say it but it's still quite fun though to do it, At least he gets the joke of it.

"Phew I am ready."

Rita came back to her senses. She looked at him with lots of complicated emotions and then closed her eyes to be put out of misery. She did all she could do, Now she just hoped it would be enough.

"Huh ready for what?"

Alex just looked at her stupidly as he didn't understand what she was talking about for a second as she was acting weird all of a sudden, Which now Alex decided to ignore.

He now puts all heroines on the variable list of his, He will never use the same logic he uses on others to calculate the heroines.

"Aren't you here to reape my soul? Or I am already dead?"

Rita confusedly opened her eyes and stared at him with a doubtful gaze. She didn't understand why she was still alive as she still thinks of Alex being the Death.

It was not her fault though as it's rather easy to think of Alex as some supernatural being than to think he is just a very handsome man, His 190 charm is not for show.

"No, I just need to know about Jak- "

[Ding!....]

Alex wanted to say something but like always, System cut him off with system notification.

(A/N : Feel bad for Rita? Also, there will be a bonus chapter later today or tomorrow morning

Chapter 64 64. Collapse Of World View

[Ding! World choice is detected...

The selection function is triggered...

Please choose the following options...

â€¢ [1] You as a villain will miss this opportunity to gather information about the Heroine. Of course not!

Task : Make her talk about her past in 24 hours.

Reward : Heart Of Compassion, Killer instincts

â€¢ [2] Why not gather all the information you can about Jake using this opportunity?

Reward : Eye Of Raven

â€¢ [3] She clearly looks hurt, So have some compassion for her, Have a heart, You were human before you became the villain.

Task : Give her your shoulder to cry on, Let her express her sorrows, Now.

Reward : Feel extreme bone crushing pain]

'@#%$&!!!'

Alex couldn't help it. What is the meaning of the system? It's reasonable at other times to make the 3rd option worse as according to situations it's reasonable.

But what about now? Will he feel extreme bone crushing pain just because he gave his shoulder to Rita for crying? Did this make sense?

He was sure that Rita would not do anything to him as her favorability was very high for that to happen, And there was no 3rd person present there to hurt him, So where is the system coming from? He didn't understand at all.

For the first time, he wanted to do some good as change and yet he not only was not going to get rewarded for it he on the contrary was going to get punished. Wasn't there something wrong with this?

He also observe the thing that, It was always the of being a good person has the worst reward and the best one always is the one being the worst person, A villain, Usually, Situations ask for it, So he didn't have any problem but now its different story, He couldn't see any reasonable reason for 3rd choice having the worst option.

'Is the system planning something behind my back?'

Alex couldn't help but doubt the system right now, Although the system is very helpful and friendly to him but he never stopped doubting the system, He is always skeptical about its intention.

After all, there is always the question of Why, What, and How? Why him? What is the real purpose of the system? How does it even work? There are many unanswered questions.

'System, Tell me the reason, Why is the 3rd option still the worst one?'

But Alex didn't go against the system right away, He still gives it the benefit of doubt, To hear its side of the story, If he is not convinced by the answer...Well right now he can't do anything about it but he should be able to figure out something later on.

[Ding! The host options rewards are determined by the risk and the effect it has on the world, Which takes into consideration everything including the templates given by the world.

You are a villain determined by the world. If you try to change that template, The heavenly will not going to like it as it will create chaos in the world. That's why the good choice for others is the worst for you as you will be punished by the world for doing good things.]

The system didn't know the effect he had on Alex, It answered him as he always did.

'...I get it, But how am I going to feel the pain here?'

Alex thought about it and figured out it is a reasonable reason. He is a villain and doing good things will definitely touch the bottom line of the world order, So he should be punished for it.

After all, How often do you see the villain doing a good thing and getting a good ending for it? never! They either sacrifice themselves or even if they did survive they still have to pay a heavy price for it.

So it makes total sense that Alex doing good things, especially for the heroines will cause the backlash from the heavenly will, His actions going to have consequences, System just showing him what they will be.

But then another question arises, The consequence of leading Rita to his shoulder is feeling extreme pain but how can that even happen? They both were alone in the metal box, As said before Rita will not harm him, So it's not possible to feel extreme pain as the system suggested.

[Ding! That because you are not alone.]

The cold mechanical voice of the system rang in his mind making him shiver in fear.

Alex was standing in the elevator with Rita, feeling an impending sense of dread as they traveled between floors. His heart raced as he suddenly became aware of a cold chill that seemed to be spreading around him. He felt very uneasy as system words kept repeating in his mind.

'You are not alone.'

The system didn't even have any emotion in its voice but he felt that its voice was gloomy warning him about something that he didn't want to believe it, So he started looking around the elevator hoping that he sees someone hiding around in the corner but every time he glanced around nothing seemed out of the ordinary.

"Are you okay Mister Death?"

Rita sensed his unease, She came to him and squeezed his arm trying to break him out of his thoughts.

But Alex was not in the condition to take care of her, His body tensed involuntarily as a thin layer of goosebumps appeared on his skin. An ominous silence filled the air as seconds seemed like hours; each tick of the clock further intensifying the fear coursing through Alex's veins. Even Rita, seeing him, became silent as she looked at him worriedly.

Screech

Just then, the most spine-tingling sound emitted from the far corner of the elevator, a shrill laugh that sent shivers down their spines.

"Who?"

Alex yelled looking around the Elevator but then In slow motion, Alex shifted his gaze to the corner of the elevator to find himself staring at the figure of a ghostlike entity.

Its eyes were empty but menacing, its form shrouded in shadows, its arms dangling by its side. Its mouth slowly twisted into a wide sinister smile that seemed to mimic those of horror movie villains.

"Ahhh!!!"

Rita shrieked in terror, She clutched onto Alex even tighter, too scared to move. Her breaths were shallow and labored as she attempted to stay calm, unable to take her eyes off the phantom before them. She experienced pretty much everything in her life.

There was no fear of death in her heart as her life was nothing but a dance on the edge of the blade.

Still, she couldn't help but feel fear creep into her heart as the thing she never thought about happening right in front of her, The world view of hers is about to collapse.

As if sensing this, That thing began to inch ever closer until it was only mere inches away from their face.

Both Alex and Rita could now feel its icy breath on their faces, causing their stomachs to turn with nausea.

'System!!! What is this thing?'

Alex was scared too much. His body was shaking as he looked at that disgusting face a few inches away from his face. He yelled to system his mind, He was sure the system would provide the solution for the situation, So he was ready to buy anything it was about to suggest.

[Ding! It is a ghost, Host.]

The system does not understand the severity of the situation and legit thought that Alex really wanted to ask what thing in front of them was, So as the friendly system it kindly tells what they seeing is a ghost.

"....."

Alex wanted to beat this system now, Even though it was as evil as it's thought it was clearly not able to read the room, He right now wishes that it was a system that is able to read the minds of their host, At least they are able to react quickly to help.

Ding

Alex was stupefied by the system. He wanted to say something but he wouldn't be able to say something at all as fear and frustration took over him.

But Rita as a full-fledged killer still had a clear mind. So she reacted quickly as the second elevator door opened. This time was enough for Rita. She quickly snapped out of her trance and yanked Alex out of the elevator and back into reality.

Ding

Bang

When both of them exited the elevator, Its door quickly closed without a second then there was a loud bang on the closed door from inside the elevator.

"Wait!? I needed to know more about it."

When Alex saw what happened he felt quite complicated. Though terrified, He found himself strangely captivated by the sight of that ghostly creature " so much so that he almost wanted to stay behind and see what would have happened had they stayed any longer.

"Why do you do tha-?"

Alex snapped out of it and yelled at Rita for pulling him out of the elevator, He wanted to see what it was, He had a system so he was not that scared, He was only stunned and afraid because of his initial fear of humans to unknown but Rita didn't give him time to study this new discovery, He still wanted to find out more about that thing.

But he suddenly stopped himself after catching his reflection on the closed aluminum door, he saw that his face was completely drained of color, and instantly knew that retreat was necessary for both their sakes.

He might get another opportunity to find out what that thing was but for now, it's best to get home and get his beauty sleep. He was not worried about Alia as she was protected by heroine halo and he also had a feeling that he was the target of whatever thing it was.

[Ding! It was a ghost, Host.]

The system came out and once again confirmed what they saw was a ghost, Which Alex obviously chose to ignore. He was not ready to accept it. He will think about it after getting a peaceful sleep.

It was more than enough for the day for these things, let's worry about it tomorrow.

"Rita, let's go home."

Alex was tired, So he didn't think about what just happened and just started walking but this time he chose the stairs to go downstairs towards the exit not the elevator.

"Hey, Wait for me."

Rita now feels terrified of being alone, So she also ran after him quickly and started following him to his home. The reason she even didn't know, but she knew that she didn't want to be left alone there.

....

"Why is it always me? Ahaha!!"

Rose helplessly said as she sat on the office chair, In front of her was big stacks of papers that she had to do in a day. It was an inhumane punishment. She felt like no matter how she tried, She would not be able to complete it.

"Does no one do their job right? Why are there so many mistakes in this work? Are they purposefully doing this to bully me?"

Rose picked up the random paper from the stack, She checked it but found out there are too many mistakes in the paper work, There are too many wrong things in it.

It had so many mistakes that it was easy to do fresh work then to solve the problems from it, So that's what she did. She took out a new blank paper and started writing new things with astonishing speed and in a matter of few seconds she was able to complete the job.

"This one too? Sister filled the whole office with incompetent workers!!"

After completing the paperwork, Rose once again picked a random paper, Which was even worse than the previous one, So she helplessly started to do it from a fresh start, Hoping not everyone of them like these ones.

Unfortunately, It will be a very long and tiring night for her.

(A/N: Too much happens in one day right? So let's take it slowly from now on.

Like always thank you for reading and have a good day ǎŸ~".)

- Chapter 65 65. Amara

Chapter 65 65. Amara

[Ding! Host, you still haven't chosen any option yet, Please choose any one of them quickly, or please reject choosing the options or Ignore these notification.]

Alex was just walking mechanically toward the parking lot. His car has been parked there since yesterday. He just hopes now that it has enough juice remaining that he is able to reach home.

While he was walking, The system voice rang in his mind urging him to choose any one of the options or reject it, Alex didn't want to deal with anything now, He just wanted to go and sleep on his not-so-rigid bed.

Too much shit happened in just two days. He was okay with it as long as he was against the protagonist. He was fine with that but what he saw now in the elevator left a deep impression on his heart. He wanted an answers but he wanted peace more than that.

'Choose 1st and 2nd option.'

But he can't let go of the free benefits in front of him, So he decided to choose the 1st and 2nd option. Anyway, he has a 24 hour time frame to complete the task and even if he fails, He just not going to receive the rewards. He can handle it.

Soon after that he reached the parking lot of the hospital and was found in his car before he got into it. Rita too hopped in the passenger seat without saying much, Both came to an unspoken agreement of not to break the silence.

After that he started the car, Which fortunately had enough battery remaining to take them to his dormitory. He didn't plan on going to Rose's Apartment.

He wanted to just sleep in his own bed for now. That's all he wanted to do. He didn't even have any plans to do anything to Rita tonight. He was very mentally exhausted for to do that.

After some time, They finally reached his dormitory, Then he sneaked into his room taking Rita with him. After all, a woman is not allowed in the boys' dormitory. But he doesn't care about it. Both of them are skilled enough to not get detected by others.

Click

"Sleep anywhere you want, Just don't bother me."

Alex opened the door of his room and then just threw the keys somewhere in the corner of the room. After that, he walked straight towards his bedroom.

Being the boyfriend of a woman who is the number one donor of your college gives you a few privileges. Just like this one, Normally you have to share a room with others, But he not only gets a separate room but he has his bedroom in it.

"Huh!?"

Rita looked confusedly at him. She was still not completely thrown out the idea of him being Death, So she was quite surprised when she found out that he was living in the college dormitory.

But then she realized she was left behind by him. She quickly turned her head left and right in fear before storming towards Alex's bedroom. Anyway, he said to sleep anywhere she wants, which means she can sleep with him as long as she doesn't bother him. It makes perfect sense to her.

"Hey, why are you standing in the middle of the room? Didn't you want to sleep? Well...I came here worrying you won't be able to sleep alone, So you don't have to worry, there is me here now."

As Rita ran into the room, She found that Alex was just standing in the middle of the room. This threw her off guard. She thought Alex was tired, So he should be quick to sleep. This way he would not care about her sleeping in his bed but now that he was not in bed means she can't just sneak into it.

She didn't know how to ask him to let her sleep with him in bed. She can't just say she was afraid of sleeping alone, right? How can a woman say something like that? She will definitely lose respect in his eyes.

So she quickly comes up with an excuse and figures out that Alex is a man, So he should be afraid right now, if she offers companionship, He will definitely agree, That would be a win-win condition for both of them.

"Why are you here? Wait, don't answer that, I don't care. Right now I just want to sleep. Whatever you have to tell me, Just say it after I wake up."

Alex didn't respond to Rita but looked at the figure of a woman sitting in his bed.

The woman was seated on his bed. Right now her posture was rigid and her expression was stunned. She was dressed in a flowing gown of royal purple, a shade fit for a queen.

The dress was embroidered with gold threads that glimmered in the dark bedroom in starlight that slipped through the glass window. Its soft fabric hugged her curves perfectly, accentuating the beauty of her figure. A delicate choker of gold encircled her neck, and a pair of dainty earrings sparkled in her sakura-pink hair.

Her arms were adorned with long gloves of the softest white silk, a contrast to the richness of her dress. The gloves covered her arms to her elbows, accentuating the slenderness of her arms and the gracefulness of her hands.

Her hair, a cascade of sakura petals, flowed down her back like a river of pink, but its beauty was eclipsed by the surprise on her face looking at the man standing in front of her.

Her eyes, like pools of pink rose petals, were wide with amazement, and her lush lashes fanned out as she took in the sight before her.

Her nose, a delicate curve, was slightly flared as she drew in a sharp breath, while her lips, plump and rosy, were parted in awe. Her neck, slender and graceful, rose from her shoulders like a swan's, but it was tense as if she couldn't believe what she was seeing.

Her bust, a symphony of sensuality, was like two ripe peaches, their skin smooth and yielding. Her round and full hips, a symbol of strength and sensuality, were still, not swaying with each step she took, but they spoke of the rooted shock she was feeling. Her waist, narrow and defined, still contrasted with her full hips, creating a silhouette that was both feminine and strong, but at the same time, regal and poised.

"Excuse me, Who are you?"

This woman looked at Alex with full of astonishment and surprise, She used to think that only her brother can be the most beautiful man in the world, At least in her eyes that was the case but seeing the man who even put the greek gods to shame, She had doubted herself, There was huge guilt in her heart for thinking someone other than her brother beautiful but she can't deny the fact front of her.

"You broke into my place big sis Amara and you asked me who am I? It's been just 4 years, have you forgotten how I look? Anyway, I am not in the mood to do anything, You have to wait until I wake up."

Normally Alex takes this opportunity and uses it against his sister, Who just shows up out of nowhere to bully and tease her but he does not have anything like that in his mind, The shock he got in the elevator was too much for him.

He needs time to process everything, Although being transmigrated is a way more supernatural thing than a mere ghost by logic but the human brain does not consider logic when it's come to fear, It just does it.

So even if Alex knew that ghosts are nothing to him now who has a system, He was still afraid of it. Let me be clear, He was not afraid of the ghost but the lots of unknowns it brings him.

He didn't know how that ghost got there. How to counter it? Was it bound to that elevator, or could it roam freely? If it roams freely then when will it appear again? There are too many questions. The question that he once started thinking about it, Those will not let him rest all night.

So decided to ignore everything, He going to get his 8 hours of sleep no matter what, No buddy can stop him.

"YOU ARE REALLY ALEX!!!"

Amara jumped from the bed and dashed towards him, She only stopped when her face was just inches away from his.

Then she with her pink pupils started to scan his face, searching for any familiar features of her younger brother.

As time went by the confusion in her eyes was replaced by a warm feeling of joy. Then she was a grown woman who burst out crying, Warm tears streaming down from her eyes, Staining her rosy cheeks.

Amara overcame by immense joy as she stretched her arms and jumped herself toward Alex. She was so happy that she finally got to meet her brother after 4 years.

Only she knew how she spent these 4 years without him by her side, It was a living hell for her, A torture. Every day she hoped to see him again. Lots of times she even hallucinated that he came back and called her sister Amara as he usually does.

But each time she just woke up in bed with a wet face stained by her years, It was her usual routine for the past 4 years. She didn't want to do anything, She wasn't even able to sleep. The only reason she was forcing herself to sleep was because she knew she would get to see him, Even if it was in a dream.

If not for her mother sternly warning her not to go and meet him, She came to him long before but it doesn't matter now, He was here. Her little brother was in front of her.

Look how much he has grown, How beautiful he became, He really is her brother. He was perfect in everything, Even his looks are no exception. She didn't deserve this mighty brother of hers. Compared to him, She as an elder sister is worthless. Still, she had the fortune to be his sister, And right now she can hug her brother in her arms.

"Fuck off, Stay away from me."

As she lunged at him, Alex just swiftly moved aside dodging her skillfully making her hug the empty air, He then without giving any heed about her feelings, He coldly spoke these words before walking towards his bed.

"I really missed you, buddy."

Alex plopped on his bed and groaned comfortably. This bed was not as soft as the one in Rose's apartment neither is it as large as Helen's but this one right now this one is the most comfortable one.

As his body lay on the bed, He closed his eyes, Totally ignoring the new character that just popped up in the story.

"He missed his bed more than he missed me?"

Amara here standing stunned in her place looking behind her, She saw and heard everything. She softly murmured to herself as she looked at him with her tearful eyes.

"That's tough, but don't feel bad he actually was trie- "

"It's really my brother, As cute and loving as always, Of course, he didn't miss. You can only miss people that are not with you, I was always with him in his heart. I am still way behind him as an older sister."

Rita hear and saw everything, She feel pity and bad for Amara, As she can feel the her strong emotions, She wanted comfort her a little, Tell her what happen with them so she will not go to feel that bad because of Alex's attitude but before she complete her sentence, Amara suddenly jumped in surprise and joy then she spoke these unbelievable words with a straight face with a glimmer in her eyes, Making Rita looked at her speechlessly.

"You guys either come and sleep here or get out, Just don't disturb me, Keep your mouth shut."

Alex frowned at hearing the talking of these womens, So he directly gives them the offer they can't refuse. No matter what they choose, he will get what he wants.

If they decide to stay, He will be sharing a bed with two hot chicks, One being a killer and while other being his sister in peace, and If they decided to leave he still going to get peaceful sleep, either way, he gets to sleep.

"...."

Hearing his words, Both women were startled like a deer in the middle of night in front of the car, Two quickly shared a look with each other, The look only a woman can understand before they quickly sneaked onto the bed laying on each side of him.

After that the whole room was submerged into silence but tonight only one person was able to sleep peacefully out of these three, Two were controlling the ragging storm in their heart and mind.

"Mother!!! See what that man did to me *Sob"."

Nathan who was still looking like a mummy burst off crying when he saw the mature woman coming hurriedly towards him. The shoe was taken out of his mouth and his jaw was also fixed by their family's main doctor. So now he is able to speak properly.

When he saw his mother finally come to meet him, His eyes turned red, and trails of tears started to run down from his eyes wetting the bandage below his eyes.

He was crying but under the bandages, he had an evil smirk. The fire in his eyes started to burn in his heart as he saw the person who will help him to get him justice coming towards him.

'You wait Alex I will make sure to take everything from you, Before I will end your pathetic life.'

Nathan gritted his teeth in anger as he thought about that man. He was sure it was him who arranged for someone to beat him like this, Even if it was not him. He still blames him for it.

He will make sure to make Alex's life worse than hell, He will take everything from him that he cares for specially those women named Alia and Grace.

But for him to do that, He needs the help of a woman coming toward him, So he prepared himself to give the performance of his life.

(A/N : Forget about other things, Now target the protagonist's mother first. What do you guys think of this noble cause?)

Like always thank you for reading and have a good day ૨૨~)

Chapter 66 66. Mother Of Protagonist

"What happened to you, son? Who did this to you?"

A mature woman in her 40s came running towards Nathan, who was wrapped in bandages with only his eyes and mouth exposed.

Her hair was like a midnight wave, flowing and cascading, a sight to behold. She was dressed in a black office suit, made of the finest fabric, a stunning vision of beauty.

The fabric hugged her curves, showcasing her elegance and form, a true display of nerve. Her face was a work of art, with features that imparted a timeless grace and beauty that was smart.

Her neck was a slender line, porcelain-like and shining. She wore a black bracelet on her wrist, adding a touch of sophistication and a true twist to her appearance. Her bust was a gentle rise, with curves that were both gentle and wise.

She was a natural beauty with a subtle allure, a gift meant to be pure. Her waist was nimble and bendable, a grace that spoke to the art of life's blend.

Her hips swayed with a sensual flair, a rhythm that followed her everywhere. Her thighs were a luscious treat, with curves that invited and made one's heart beat. She possessed strength and grace, a dance in space, a symphony of life's embrace. Her legs were a work of art, a sculptural form that set her apart from the rest, with the best poise and a truly blessed beauty.

Her aura was a warm embrace, with a motherly glow and a gentle face. Her demeanor was a guiding light, a nurturing soul with a love that was bright.

She brought comfort and a sense of care, with a presence that was always there. Her beauty was both motherly and sincere.

She is Isabella Gayler, The mother of Nathan, Protagonist of the novel, And as the law of the novel dictates, She is also a heroine in this novel, and will become part of Nathans's harem if the plot follows the route without any outer interface.

But that's not going to happen as Nathan is going to make the mistake of his life, Pitting his mother against Alex.

"Mom!!"

Nathan was stunned to see his own mothers beauty. He was quite young when he was sent to the mountain for his training with his master, So he wasn't able to appreciate it before because of his young age.

But now he was stunned, might even say lost in her beauty, Although she is old her age not only decreased her beauty but added extra charm to it.

'My mother is so beautiful. How can she live alone all this time? I need to help her to solve her problem.'

Suddenly a taboo thought appeared in his mind. His father died when he was born, Which is given as he is the protagonist and he needs to add his mother to his harem.

And what he heard she never even dated anyone after that, Which is once again come as a surprise to anyone. After all, how can the protagonist add his mother to the harem righteously if she is with another man?

Protagonists are even hypocrites to themselves, Which is the main reason why they act like self-righteous without any guilt.

Right now he was thinking about finding a man for his mother but in actuality, All he wanted to was to show his mother he is also a man, Who she can have, No he is the only man she can have.

Reverse world or not, the nature of the protagonist remains the same. In fact, it has become easier for them to act this way and escape consequences.

"Oh, my sweet child! What happened? You! Weren't you supposed to protect him? So, how did he get injured?" Isabella's eyes filled with pain as she saw her only son in that state, seated in a wheelchair.

She quickly asked him what had happened, but before Nathan could answer, she stood up, pointed a finger at the man in black, and blamed him for her son's condition.

She was partly correct. They were supposed to protect Nathan, but it was Nathan's own foolishness that caused him harm.

He saw a beautiful woman in a black cloak at the hospital and was warned that she was dangerous. However, he didn't listen and instead called them names. He still talked to her arrogantly despite their repeated warnings, but he refused to listen to them.

All he said was to wait and watch. He said it was not his first time and that he was a pro at it. He warned them to trust the process, as they were not allowed to interfere.

So, when that woman got offended and started beating him, they didn't move an inch. They knew he had messed up, but they now had plausible deniability, so they enjoyed every second of it.

Only when they thought he would die if they didn't interfere did they go to his rescue. They only scared the woman off and didn't even try to catch her. They owed her a good show for the entertainment she had given them, and the bad breath against Nathan decreased a lot.

After that, they performed some first aid at the hospital and brought him to be treated by their household's main doctor, who was much better than the hospital doctors. However, even he needed four days to get him back to a functioning condition, as most of his bones were broken.

No matter how good he was, he was still low-level awakened. He couldn't fix broken bones instantly like other high-level awakened doctors.

"Miss, the Young Master gave us orders not to move from our position. He said, and I quote, 'Trust the process.'"

The man in black was a well-trained man. Despite wanting to burst out laughing, he was able to hold himself back and say this with a straight face without giving away his intention. However, his mockery betrayed him.

It was quite clear that he was enjoying every second of it. Even Isabella knew that this bodyguard was lying, but she couldn't help it. These bodyguards were her daughter's, and she couldn't do anything to them as long as they weren't committing treason.

"Get out. I want to talk to the man's son alone. It's been years since I've seen him."

Isabella wanted to talk alone with her son without giving her daughter a direct line to their conversation. So, she wanted this man out of the room, only then could she talk with her son about being the heir of the family.

Right now, this was more important than finding the culprit behind her son's condition. Her daughter's recent moves had made her very worried about her son's position.

"Sorry, madam. Miss ordered me to never leave the young master's side. She didn't want her younger brother to get hurt again. You know the elder miss is very heartbroken seeing the young master in this condition. She hasn't even eaten anything other than dinner a few moments ago, and she hasn't even drunk water because it's hard to swallow because of her worry. So she is only drinking orange juice for now, And Sh-."

"Stop talking and get out. This is my order as the head of the Gayler family to you. Not following will be considered treason."

Isabella was well aware of the nature of these bodyguards. It was as if her daughter had specially trained them to irritate her.

She didn't know why her daughter hated her so much that she went out of her way to train her bodyguards, especially just for her. She just wanted her to let go of her position as the heir and give it to her younger brother,

What's wrong with that? She is capable of creating her own big businesses. She doesn't need this family for support, so why not give it to her brother? Her brother is not as good as her, so shouldn't she help him? That's what a big sister does, but this daughter of hers doesn't understand.

She has tried to convince her daughter too many times, but her daughter is stubborn and doesn't budge at all. Then she started doing things like this. She doesn't understand how hard it is to get her point across. She just wants her daughter to give up her position as the heir and pass it on to her younger brother.

Yes, as you guessed, she is that kind of mother-- who is completely oblivious about her flawed parenting, thinking that others are wrong and she is being reasonable. In reality, it's the exact opposite.

"Okay, Madam Gayler," the bodyguard didn't say much and just walked out of the room. Anyway, he had completed his quota of irritating Madam Gayler for the day.

"Now he is gone, son, we need to talk about the-"

"No mom, not right now. Can't you see how badly I was beaten? I need justice. I want that man to pay for what he did to me."

Isabella wanted to discuss a family issue that would determine their future, but Nathan was too focused on his desire for revenge against a man named Alex. Despite the fact that Alex was not present when Nathan was beaten, Nathan believed that he was responsible for his condition.

"But son-"

"No mother, this is more important. I want to make Alex's life a living hell. Please, just look at what he did to me."

Nathan once again interrupted his mother and urged her to focus on revenge first. He was consumed by his anger towards Alex and could not think of anything else.

"Okay, let me see what I can do."

Isabella was a peaceful person who didn't like causing trouble. Despite this, she was still a mother, and her heart ached to see her son in such a condition. So, she agreed to try to speak to Alex and see if he would apologize to her son.

...

"Alex Winchester, are you a friend or a foe?"

Unbeknownst to both Isabella and Nathan, their conversation was being listened to by the eldest daughter of the Gayler family, who had wired Nathan's wheelchair long ago. She was originally trying to listen in on her mother's plans, but she was now more interested in this man named Alex.

Chapter 67 67. On Bed With Sister And Killer

"Why are you naked?"

Amara's pink hair was disheveled as she woke up and shouted in the surprise that shattered the morning calm in the room. She was pointing at Rita, who was in Alex's arms, and was totally naked.

"Sheesh!~ You'll wake him up. I wasn't wearing anything last night, Didn't you see that?"

Rita quickly pointed at Amara then put her index finger at her plump lips motioning her to be quiet. She then gazed lovingly at Alex, who was still sleeping and hugged her tightly.

Rita was feeling emotions she had never experienced before. Her heart was racing and she felt nervous, even more so than she did during life and death battles. Her stomach was doing flips, and her entire body was tingling with strange sensations she wasn't aware of.

Despite all of this, she didn't dislike the feeling. In fact, it made her feel special and wanted. She had always hoped to feel this way in her life, even though she would find it within the organization. But fate had taken a different turn, and she had found it here, from a stranger whose name she didn't even know.

"You let him go, It's wrong."

Amara just realised this woman was not wearing clothes when she met her last night, But in her defence, she was captivated by her brother's charm, So she wasn't able to see or think about anyone else.

She looked to Rita's side of the bed and found the black cloak on the ground. The only piece of clothing she had on her, Which was failed to do its job miserably.

But right now it's not that matter. All she wanted to do was to separate this woman from her brother. If her brother wants someone to hug someone in his sleep, Then she is willing to do it. Anyway, her body will feel way better than this woman's.

Just look at that muscular figure of hers, She was looking muscular like a man, Which man will go to like her? Where is the feminine of a woman in her? She looks like a beta woman.

Yeah, a quick note. Because this world has superpowers and energy, You don't have to be muscular to be strong, Women are inherently stronger than men while still keeping their slender feminine figures.

So the physical aspects stayed the same, Just values of it swapped, So now feminine became dominant over masculinity. Did this make sense?

Of course not but that's the way this world works. As long as it gives a reason all other things that were contradicting this statement not taken into consideration, So now a woman with little more muscles is equivalent to a dainty man in the other world.

Although Rita was not that muscular, Only her abdomen had an outline of muscles, And her leg also had a fine line of muscle carving that's all, This too because of her job as these two parts are most needed for her but this was enough to be considered as less of a woman.

"Hey, I am not the one who hugged him, Look closely he was the one who did it."

Rita didn't want to give up this comfortable feeling, It was the first time she wanted something so desperately other than a place to call home.

So even when she could easily break free from his warm clutches, She didn't. She wanted to enjoy it as much as she could. She didn't know if she would get another opportunity to feel this way again.

"....What's your relationship with my brother?"

Amara was stunned by Rita's words. Her eyes unconsciously shifted to Alex, who was sleeping, and as Rita said, Amara saw that it was in fact Alex who was hugging her.

She suddenly had a very bad feeling in her heart, like someone was taking something precious from her, something important, something irreplaceable.

Worry filled her heart, and she asked the question that was weighing on her mind. There was a tremble in her voice, revealing her current state. She didn't know what she wanted to hear, but she was sure that she didn't want to hear that her brother and this woman had any kind of relationship beyond friendship.

"He and I? Well, He knows things about me that even those close to me don't know about me. You could even say that he's the only one in this world who knows everything about me."

Rita easily saw through Amara's intention in asking the question. She didn't know why she had a sudden urge to show her importance in Alex's eyes to Amara.

This might be because Amara's beauty was beyond description that words can describe. Although she was nothing compared to her younger brother, she was still the most beautiful woman Rita had ever seen. Even Miss Alia from the Miller family appeared a little worse in comparison.

She even as a woman was attracted to her. That's showing her charm surpassed the boundary between genders. Because of this she wanted to show Amara that she is also important to Alex.

After all, if she does not, Alex will not be able to investigate her whole life. He should have spent quite a lot of resources and manpower to get this information seeing that even the organisation does not know a few things he said about her.

She didn't know why she wanted to do this childish thing but she just does. A fear increased in her heart seeing Amara and her exceptional charm for an unknown reason. She felt that Amara was here to take something important from her.

"That- That...."

Amara was stunned by Rita's words. Her heart felt like it was being crushed. She was filled with anxiety and fear about what exactly their relationship was. Was her brother, someone she cherished so much, involved with this woman in a romantic way?

As she looked at Rita, she couldn't help but feel a twinge of jealousy. She didn't understand why she was feeling this way, but she just couldn't shake off the feeling that this woman was trying to steal something precious from her.

Her brother was not like this when he was little. He always used to think she was the most beautiful woman but now he was into this woman? This city corrupted her brother, She shouldn't have let him leave home, Now what is she going to do?

"Will you two keep quiet?"

Suddenly the annoyed voice of Alex rang in the room, Both Rita and Amara quickly looked at him with deer eyes as fear filled their hearts. They didn't want to make him angry.

To their relief, He didn't open his eyes but just spoke to them with closed eyes, He was still half-asleep.

"You let him go."

Amara carefully whispered to Rita as she slowly lay back on the bed. She didn't care what this woman and her brother's relationships had, All she knew was that she hated seeing him hugging another woman.

"As I said, I am not the one in control here."

Rita too didn't want to back down and let go of this warm embrace of his, So she stood her ground and refused to let go of Alex.

"!!!, Happy Now? So just shut up and let me sleep."

Alex was still annoyed by the talking of these two women, So he opened one of his hands and took Amara too in his arms.

Now he was lying on his back, With two very beautiful women sticking close to his body as the bed was just enough for two people, But no one was complaining about it or they were even glad it was not that big of a bed.

"....."

Both women suddenly shut their mouths as Alex's hands warped around their slender waists, The warmth of his hand on their soft skin making them feverish.

So both women quickly shut their mouth as they quietly enjoyed the joy other women can just imagine about it.

"Okay son, I'll go teach this Alex guy a lesson for you. Don't worry, it'll be taken care of."

Isabelle was dressed in her usual business attire, ready for a day at the office. As the head of the family, she always took the initiative to lead by example and was always the first to arrive and last to leave.

But today, she broke her routine. She had promised her son to seek revenge against Alex and planned to use her influence and power to make him apologize to her son.

She wanted to avoid any potential conflicts with the Miller family during this sensitive period and had learned through her research that Alex was Alia's boyfriend.

Alia, also infamously known as the Black Rose, was a formidable opponent and Isabelle was wary of the potential consequences of taking any wrong steps. She didn't want to give her daughter any more reason or allies to use against them.

"Yeah, Mom, make sure you show that green tea man his place," said Nathan from his wheelchair, wrapped in bandages. Although he was unable to physically take revenge, he wanted to see Alex suffer, Rage burning in his heart like an eternal flame.

So he sent his mother to handle the situation, knowing that she was more than capable of going against Alia, the heir of the Miller family. He filled with a sadistic joy at the thought, but little did he know the grave mistake he was making.

This is a day and mistake he will regret and curse about for the rest of his short life.

Chapter 68 68. Mary Sue

"Aha, Good morning to myself."

Alex woke up from his sleep, lazily stretching his body as he carefully made his way down from the bed, making sure his movements wouldn't wake the two sleeping women.

"These two look good, but they don't know when to be quiet," he muttered to himself as he looked at the women on his bed.

There was no need to doubt the charm of Rita and Amara, one being the heroine and the other a respected villainess in their respective plots. However, their constant talking was a problem, making it difficult for Alex to sleep last night. Despite this, he would still grant them a privilege and forgive their first transgression against morality.

He walked to the kitchen and started making coffee. Although he preferred tea, he needed more caffeine to deal with the day's challenges.

"What should I make for breakfast? Spicy omelet, scrambled eggs, avocado toast, or breakfast sandwich?" Alex thought to himself, taking advantage of his god-level cooking skills. He realized it would be a crime against humanity if he didn't use them to increase his favorability with the two women.

Alex remembered that he had to raid them to get rewards, which would help him survive in this crazy world. So, he opened the fridge and started checking the ingredients he had. Countless dishes and recipes came to mind, but he quickly eliminated those that required too much work, leaving only a few options.

Eventually, he decided to make a spicy breakfast sandwich and took out eggs and chilli flakes from the fridge. He then left the kitchen and opened the front door, where he found a pack of fresh bread and a carton of milk on his doorstep.

This is also one of the privileges of being the boyfriend of a wealthy woman. You don't have to work, as people will do things for you to make your life easier without asking for anything in return. They don't want to provoke you, as this would stop the huge donations from Alia's exotic group.

"My sister doesn't like spicy food, but Rita does, so I had to make my sister a sandwich first,"

Alex said to himself as he prepared all the necessary ingredients to make a spicy breakfast sandwich: bread, egg, spicy mayonnaise, and chilli flakes.

He wanted to make a well-balanced meal to start the day, but he didn't have all the ingredients and didn't want to waste his points on buying from the system, which was also risky because the system provides only the best quality products. With his god-level cooking skills, Alex was afraid that they would never be able to eat anything else but his cooking.

After preparing everything, Alex started cooking. He put the bread slices in the toaster and heated up oil in a pan. Once the oil started sizzling, he put in the egg and thoroughly fried it. As Amara didn't like half-cooked eggs, he just seasoned it with salt and little black pepper. By the time he was done, his toast was also ready.

Alex spread a mixture of normal mayonnaise and ketchup, which was Amara's favourite sandwich spread, put the fried egg on top, and added another slice of toast. He did the same for another sandwich, but used spicy mayonnaise instead. He then made the same for himself.

"This won't be enough, right?"

Alex thought to himself. Normally, it would be enough as his sister focuses on maintaining her figure and Rita, as a killer, never ate a full meal as it would interfere with her fighting abilities. But from his experiences with Rose and Grace, Alex knew that this would not be enough and there would be a threat of starting a food war, not the fun kind.

So, he started making more sandwiches. He wasn't worried about the food getting cold, as he had discovered that food made with god-level skills stays warm for a long time.

"Grrroooooaaarrrrr!!!"

Just as Alex was about to go to the bedroom to wake up Amara and Rita, he heard a low growl from a wild beast. It rooted him to the spot, and as he turned his neck mechanically toward the sound, he saw the beast that was worthy of such a soul-trembling growl.

....

"He really lives here? Wasn't he the boyfriend of Alia?"

Isabelle exited her luxury car and came downstairs to Alex's dormitory. She became confused as she rechecked the address received from her subordinate thinking that she made a mistake reading the address.

She thought that Alex being the boyfriend of Alia should be living in the apartment near his college, not in this dirty small dormitory room.

Suddenly she had quite a good impression of Alex, As she thought that Alex was not money hungry as the report suggested. After all, if he was money hungry he would never live here.

Well... Alex is offered by Alia and was able to live in the apartments near his college rather than his dormitory room but that means he had to give up on the privilege treatment he gets here being Alia's boyfriend. So he outright refused to change the place. This is the reason why he didn't change places to stay, not as said by Isabelle.

"Madam, let me handle him. Few punches and kicks will be enough to show that man his place."

As Isabelle wanted to enter the dormitory building, A black-masked figure of a woman appeared out of thin air in front of her, offering to do dirty work for Isabelle.

"No, He is still a child, White. Children make mistakes. I don't think he was the one who beat Nathan but it has to be the people of Alia protecting him. It's all a big misunderstanding. It will be fine if two parties apologise to each other."

Isabelle stopped the figure, Who was just about to run into the building.

As you can guess she is the mary sue type of woman, She believed in forgiveness then revenge, and whatnot, In her eyes everything is pure and all of people deserve a second chance

Normally this Mary Sue trope is one of the most hated tropes in any novel but here, She is the golden ticket for Alex to cut the wings off the protagonist, So there is a feeling that she will not receive as much hate as others, Given that Alex trains her well.

"But Madam, Did you not see the condition of the young master? Even if this is a misunderstanding, We have to make ourselves clear, Show our authority."

The masked figure didn't like the way Isabelle planned to handle the situation one bit. In her eyes, the young master of their family was brutally beaten to such an extent that he had to sit in a wheelchair.

If right now they don't show their fangs and authority to the people, Soon others will start to try to see their bottom line, Slowly destroying their families and overbearing nature and prestige in the upper-class society.

It would be a shame to let something like that happen to a century-old family. This family can't be destroyed by some ants ganging up on it but why give ants a chance to even think about attacking you in the first place? Just crush them at the first sign they show a sign of rebellion.

"Show authority? How? By beating a child? Alex is the same age as my son. Children make mistakes. Let me handle it, You can leave now."

Isabelle was adamant about not using force against Alex Although she had given a proper reason but the actual reason is that she didn't want to have a conflict with Alia.

Even if she is Mary Sue, She is still head of the big family like Gayler, Well proficient in the technique of holding the knife in a one's smile, If she wanted she can indeed stab you in the back figuratively and literally.

She wanted this opportunity to gain trust of Alia and might even pull her in their camp, If that plan failed, At least her doing this make sure that Alia will not stand opposite said of them.

But her well thought planning was not noticed by the hot-headed masked woman. In her eyes, this action of Isabella is an act of cowardliness, A shame to the family.

So she didn't say anything, She vanished out of thin air as she appeared in an instant.

"These stupid people never understand the power of politics."

Isabella muttered under her breath as she made her way toward the direction of Alex's room.

She was not that hopeless mary sue as there is uncharted evilness inside of her, It's not that she was not capable of evil but she chose not to be one if not needed, A true sign of power.

But unbeknownst to her, The person she was going to encounter someone who didn't care about anything like she does. Morals, logic, and humanity are just a tool in his eyes to get what he wants. A true villain. Who disguises himself as prey to hunt a predator.

(A/N : As said before, all focus on the protagonist and his mother.

Chapter 69 69. Isabella's Heartbeat

Knock Knock

Isabella, standing in front of Alex's room, knocked on the door, but even after some time, no one opened it.

It was still early morning, so there was no way that someone was not in the house right now. So she tried knocking a few more times to wait and see if someone opened the door, but no one did.

"Wait? The door is open, Hello? Is someone home? Sorry for barging in like this, but I have an important thing to talk about."

Isabella became impatient and decided to open the door forcefully. But when she tried, she found out that the door was already open. So after a little hesitation, she walked straight into the room, closing the door behind her.

She needed to nip this problem in the bud, or it would turn into a wildfire under the fuel fanning of her daughter. She knew her daughter too well.

"Is no one home?"

But she found out that it seemed like no one was home right now. Maybe Alex didn't come back home last night. She became disappointed thinking of that.

She really wanted to end the conflict between Nathan and Alex today, but it seemed she couldn't do that now. She had to find a way to deal with the mess that was going to come later on.

Thud*

"Is someone in there?"

As she was about to leave, she heard the voice of something or someone falling on the ground. She thought that Alex might be in the kitchen. That's why he wasn't able to hear her knocking before.

"It's really not safe to be like this. He was a young man living alone, He should know how to protect himself. What if someone with ill intent came in?... I don't have ill intentions for him, I just want to talk to him."

Isabella thought to herself as she made her way toward the kitchen. She was worried about Alex. A single man living alone should always be always on his guard, not be careless and leave the door open.

It's really dangerous to do that, as even if this is a male dormitory, it seems the rules are not strict here. She was a prime example of it. She just walked in, and no one stopped her or even asked her about her motive. This shows how little security this place has.

But that was not a matter of concern. Right now, she wanted to resolve the issue between the two families. She thought she could solve it as it was a petty fight between kids.

"You are Alex, right- !?"

Isabella entered the kitchen and saw the man's back, who was sitting on the ground doing something. She wanted to ask if he was Alex, but as she was about to speak, her eyes fell on the white thing that the teenager was playing with.

Her heart stopped beating for a second, and her pupils dilated as all primal instincts of fear rose in her heart.

"Who is a good girl? You are! Yes, you are!"

She saw who she thought was Alex playing with a huge white beast like it was a house cat. Her eyes were fixed on the beast.

It had shimmering white fur that seemed to glow in the light, giving it an otherworldly appearance. Its piercing blue eyes were intense and mysterious, hinting at the fierce hunting skills it is known for.

Its muscular build and powerful limbs were a testament to its strength and agility, making this beast a fearsome predator in the eyes of many. But despite its appearance, it was now lying on its back and exposing its belly, inviting the teenager to rub its fur.

Alex was currently rubbing the belly of a white tigress with a joyful smile on his face, as Saphira enjoyed his massage and waved her long soft tail. Her fur was incredibly soft and silky, almost like the finest silk. Alex was able to run his fingers through it with ease, eliciting contented purrs from the tigress.

Her movements were graceful and fluid, almost as if she was dancing, yet also powerful and confident. As Alex played with her, the tigress' playful and affectionate side was on full display. She playfully pounced on Alex, her powerful paws landing softly on his chest, and he then pushed back with a playful grin.

The tigress' blue eyes were full of life and amusement, sparkling with joy as she played with Alex.

This is a white tigress named Saphira. She is a familiar beast of Amara, as she was with them from childhood and can be considered a family pet. When Amara comes, she also brings Saphira with her. Without considering, just by seeing this huge beast, someone might die from a heart attack. He also wonders how Amara was even able to sneak her inside his dormitory considering there are 24/7 security surveillance here.

"Am I high? Is someone drugged me?"

Isabella couldn't help but feel a sense of wonder at the sight of such a magnificent and fantastical creature acting so lovingly and affectionately towards a human. She couldn't help but doubt the sight in front of her. It was unreal. The beast in front of her is an apex predator, capable of ending someone's life in an instant, but now it was being this docile. How is that possible?

No matter how you tame it, it is still a wild animal with its wild instincts. A perfect killing machine created by the miracle of nature, but what is happening in front of her is also true. At least she thinks it's true.

"Ex-excuse me."

Roar*

Isabella decided to ask the person included with him, so she called out to Alex, but her sudden appearance might have startled the tigress. As when the beast saw her, it roared at her, and its icy eyes locked on her body.

Being targeted by this beast, Isabella confirmed that it was a real wild beast. The tremor from her soul was proof of that. A deeply buried fear inside her passed down from generation to generation, warning her about the threat in front of her.

"Easy girl, easy, Sit."

Alex stopped playing with the tigress and turned around to see the speaker, Who turned out to be a beautiful, mature woman standing in front of him.

As he saw the woman, a warning bell rang in his mind. He felt threatened by this woman, which was way more dangerous than Rose before.

But when he saw her face up close, the fear in his heart dissipated a lot, as he realized who was standing in front of him. An evil smirk raised on his lips, but with his charm, he looked no less than an unprecedentedly handsome devil.

"This Nathan is really a real bro. I'm here wondering how I can approach his mother, but look at him, he sends her right to my door."

Alex wanted to laugh crazily like a third-grade villain at this moment. He couldn't even fathom the logic of the protagonist. Nathan knows he has looks that even put Greek gods to shame, and yet he sends his single, widowed mother to him. Is he crazy?

No, he was not, He is a true bro. Alex needed to seduce Nathan's mother, so he delivered his mother to his doorstep. Only a true bro can do that. He really didn't forget Alex's favor of fulfilling his fetish. Now he was paying Alex off.

As to why Alex was so sure that Nathan was the one who sent her here? Easy. Isabella is not some random person. Every minute of her life is important, so a person like her coming here to him means someone has sent her. And who can be so big-hearted as his dear friend Nathan? So he was sure that it was Nathan who did him this favor, escorting a sheep directly into the wolf's den.

"...Are you not going to introduce yourself?"

Alex was waiting for Isabella to say something so he could find an opportunity to decrease the distance between them and make her fall into the "trap" he will lay for her.

It will be a little hard to make her yield to him as she is the mother of the protagonist, but the after-gain of doing it is also worth the effort.

[Ding! +50 Favorability of Isabella increased for the host (Current: 70 Crush)]

"....."

Alex had no words. He just looked at Isabella, whose eyes were glued on him. He knew those eyes; it was the same thing that happened to Rita before.

This woman had fallen head over heels for him. He thought he understood the power of his charm but it turns out, He still underestimated the power of his charm surpassing the mortal realm. Even heroines who had the extra protection of heavenly will were not able to resist it.

"How could he have fallen?"

The same words Rita spoke were now spoken by Isabella. She was petrified in amazement at the sight before her. Her heart, which had not thumped for any man, had skipped a beat. She even forgot to breathe as the man in front of her took her breath away.

A teenager looks like a fallen fairy standing in this god-forsaken world, soiling his purity, and yet he still looks mystical. With the white majestic tiger beside him, he looks like an ancient high noble.

"That- Sorry, you look very breathtaking. No, I don't mean...I am Isabella, Ahead of the Gayler family, Which is worth around 100 billion UC or more."

Isabella didn't know what to say or why she said it, But she very badly wanted to show her wealth to him. She didn't have any idea why but it was a strong urge to just do it.

She felt like saying her worth will get some reaction from the teenager but he was looking at her in the same way as he was before, He didn't even show the even slight reaction to a huge amount of 100 billion UC, Which surprised her the most, But the respect in her heart for him also unknowingly increased.

'She already fallen, It was too easy though. If I want I can put her in bed at the end of the day.'

Alex didn't care about what Isabella was talking about, All he was thinking about was how to bang the mother of the protagonist.

Alex didn't complain as before knowing the reason behind the task rewards, But 1st and 2nd tasks now seemed quite tempting and exciting as he was quite willing to do it.

"What is that smell? And why is it so good?"

Amara came out of the bedroom with curiosity and hunger in her eyes. Her eyes first fell on Alex. As she saw his figure, a very wide smile appeared on her lips as joy overflowed her eyes.

Then her eyes fell on Saphira, who might be having an identity crisis as she was sitting by Alex's side like a dog. And finally, her eyes landed on Isabella with questions and warning in her eyes.

(A/N : You all know what is going to happen next, Right?)

Also like always thank you for reading and have a good day ǒŸ~.)

Chapter 70 70. Bro-Con

"Who are you and what is your relationship with my brother?"

Amara moved at lightning speed and directly stood in front of Alex as if she was protecting her calf. She didn't know what the relationship was between this woman and her brother but her woman's instincts were ringing. This woman had ulterior motives.

A woman has this kinda power. They can sense when another woman's motive behind approaching their man, Unlike a man who thinks these womens only come close to them because they are friendly and whatnot.

She knows they don't, Most if not every woman's motive behind approaching a man is always to get into his pants, They are not just friends as they let man believe.

Roar

Saphira roared at Amara to get her attention but surprisingly she didn't leave from Alex's side at all even seeing her master is there, Which was an outright rebellion in the term of beastmasters code.

'Good girl.'

But Amara, other than getting angry, became delighted. She acutely was impressed by it, As it was harder for the beast to not come to their master than to resist an order of it. So Amara was happy that Saphira was seated with Alex as she trained her to do that.

Well, there is another reason other than the training of Amara is that, Alex's charm. His charm is not only work on humans but it also works on every being, especially the less intelligent ones, As they prefer to go by their instincts and feelings over intelligent ones who most of the time are bound by logic and morals.

"I am Isabella, head of the Gayler family."

Isabella also became uneasy seeing the beautiful woman come out of Alex's bedroom. A rare flame of jealousy ignited in her heart as hatred quickly raised in her heart.

But when she finds out this woman is the sister of Alex, The hatred is quickly replaced by the eagerness to get appreciation from this woman. She didn't know what was happening but one thing she was sure of was to make herself appear visible in this woman's eyes.

"Aren't you ashamed of even mentioning low-grade families like Gayler's in front of me? You should have a thick face, don't you?"

How can Amara, Who was on alert not able to understand the intention behind Isabella's statement? She already guessed the reason this woman is coming here is because of her brother, So she didn't hesitate and decided to show Isabella her place.

In her eyes little family like Gayler is not worth mentioning at all, It was even considered a great insult of hers as the eldest miss of the Winchester family, Amara. Not to mention Alex who is the heir to the said family.

She wanted to show Isabella her place, A stupid dream of toad eating swans meat, So at least one threat to her position in her brother's heart will be eliminated.

"...Excuse me? I think you mistook me for someone else, sister."

Isabella was stunned by the reply she received. If it were a normal time, she would have given a sharp retort and shown Amara why it's considered taboo to provoke politicians and businesswomens. As with connections and money, they can pretty much ignore all the rules imposed on others by law.

But she didn't. Amara is Alex's sister, and for reasons only logical to her, she also considers Alex's sister as her sister. Totally ignoring the age, As Amara at best considers her daughter, not sister.

"Who the fuck are you calling sister, you old hag? Saphira, show our guest the way to the door."

Amara shivered as she heard Isabella calling her sister. She got repelled and disgusted by someone else other than Alex calling her sister. The sister title is only exclusive to her brother. No one else can call her that.

So she decided to use force to threaten Isabella. After all, seeing a 6 ft long tiger, anyone would think twice before messing with you.

Purr

Saphira ignored her command as she was currently enjoying the warm palm of Alex rubbing her white, silky fur on her head. Her eyes were clenched, and she was purring in joy. Normally, tigers aren't capable of purring, but here they somehow can.

'Good, good girl, I trained her right. I too will not give up the warmth of my lovely brother's hand.'

Amara, unlike normal beastmasters getting frustrated, was proud of her beast for not following her order.

The only reason she even chose a white tigress is that Alex once said he liked white tigers. The motive behind Saphira is not the increase in combat effectiveness of Saphira's agile and fierce nature, but it's all because Alex liked it.

So now seeing Saphira playing with Alex, Amara was happy. Now her brother has two reasons to remember her, to think of her.

As you still do not get it, she is a proper bro-con, thankfully not the extremely crazy Yandere type like Alia.

So seeing that even a woman as old as Isabella wanted to be with Alex, Amara who didn't even have time to properly accept Rita yet can't take another one.

Plus there is a slight fear as Alex is corrupted by the city. He might really be wooed away by this old cow wanting to eat young grass.

"Old-Old hag?! Did you even know who I am-"

"Madam Gayler, age 42 years old, mother of two children, a daughter and a son. You are also the head of the Gayler family, which on paper is worth approximately 100 billion, but its actual worth is around 269 billion UC right now."

Isabella suddenly became aggravated as Amara mentioned her age. Normally, she didn't care, but today she was not in her usual self.

When Amara mentioned her age, she felt like someone sprinkled salt on her open wound. She wanted to retaliate, but seeing Alex standing by side, she controlled herself and once again wanted to tell her about her family values, as she still thinks Amara misunderstood her.

But Amara didn't let her finish and started talking about the things that only a few core members of her family should know, especially the actual value of their family. If it became public, there would be sanctions imposed on them by the government. That has a risk of her family falling from the top three families in this Berlin city.

"But that's not all. You are also members of a hidden society, a proper A-rank awakened with an exceptional elemental superpower."

Amara continued to speak the secrets that now only Isabella should know. No one knows that Isabella is awakened, not even Nathan, the protagonist of the novel. However, Amara knows it all.

She had protectors around Alex, so when Alex had trouble with Nathan yesterday, they reported it to her. So to be on the safe side, Amara dug out every single detail of Nathan's family, which includes Isabella's information.

Amara was surprised to find that in a small city like Berlin, Isabella is a respected person like a A-rank awakened. Then there was an issue with Belladonna, so she directly came here, fearing for the safety of Alex.

'Bingo!'

When Alex heard Amara's words, his heart became happy as he just won the jackpot. This is the reason why he let her keep talking. Now Isabella should know his family's power.

This way, she will not see him as lower or even equal to her, but she can only see him as superior to her subconsciously. This didn't look like much, but only Alex knew that this simple thing could change the whole foundation of their relationship.

If Isabella still sees him as lower or even, in the best-case scenario, equal, he wouldn't be able to pull out task requirements for the second option completion as the initiative would be in her hands, And she will not do anything that would hurt her loved son.

But now, all control will be in his hands. He just now has to give a little push, and she will happily cooperate with him to make Nathan doubt his life.

'How Nathan would react seeing his beloved mother in my arms? Will he be sad or like a pathetic protagonist from NTR get boner from it? It will be exciting to find that out.'

Alex couldn't help but to imagine how Nathan will react, When he gives him a taste of his own medicine.

Before he wanted to go easy on Nathan but after hearing his thoughts he changed his mind, He will make Nathan suffer, Give him hellish torture for each second of his life.

"Now, the question is why are you here? Is it because you want revenge for your son? If that's the case, I warn you. With one phone call, I can change your family status from 'is' to 'was', and - Orchha Ouhha!!"

Amara is not dumb like a certain someone whose brain only works when she needs defense against her sister, so she quickly figures out the cause and effect of Isabella's visit. She wanted to threaten Isabella and show her family's might, but while she was talking, a soft fingers pinched and twisted her ear rudely, making her unable to continue.

"Sorry for that, Sister Isabella. My sister has some serious problems with her brain. We tried multiple treatments, but sadly, there is no cure for stupidity."

Alex speed blitzed to Amara and twisted her soft pinkish ears as he quickly took a verbal shot at her as he apologised to Isabella. This way, he will come out as a reasonable person.

In simple words, this is a bad cop good cop strategy. Although this is an old thing, it works, especially when you have a world-defying charm.

He also makes sure to call her sister and then miss. This way, the distance between them will decrease a lot in an instant, and he doesn't have to do extra work.

Shatter

Someone once said, "When the glass breaks, everyone will hear it, but when the heart breaks, no one notices."

This is the case with Amara. Her heart is shattered right now, broken into pieces. Not because Alex called her stupid, but because he called Isabella sister.

She is Alex's one and only sister, and that's the thing she is most proud of. But now, he's calling another woman's sister. Doesn't that mean there is a new competitor for her brother's love?

Yes, even she ignored Isabella's age. This setting of the world. Sometimes, it makes Alex feel weird. Although it makes it easy for him to target heroines.

"N-No problem. I should make myself clear. I am here to apologise for my son's mistake of yesterday. Please find a place in your heart and forgive him."

Isabella was horrified as all the things that she thought were well-protected secrets were exposed by the stranger. Anyone would become scared, but she was glad that she didn't go directly to the main point and also stopped White from acting rashly.

The estimated threat of Alex trouble with Nathan is an underestimation compared to the current one. Even the Miller family isn't able to get the information about her family and her in these details, which shows that the background of Alex's sister is way scarier and a much bigger threat than Miller's.

"I am so hungry."

When the atmosphere was tense, a lazy voice came out of the bedroom as another woman walked out of the room.

"....."

".....Fuck you, Rita!!"

Isabella was confused as she looked stupidly at Rita exiting the bedroom, Amara on other hand was angry and rushed towards Rita, who just wanted to eat something.

"What did I do?"

That was the only question she could utter before Amara jumped on her, blocking her field of view completely.

(A/N: Why do you think they reacted like that? What do you think Rita did?)

As always, thank you for reading, and have a good day! ğŸ™)p

Chapter 71 71. Horney Isabella

Amara's body slammed into Rita's body. As she was not prepared, both of them fell to the ground with full force. Then, without further ado, she stood up, grabbed Rita's wrist and dragged her into the bedroom before slamming door shut.

"What is happening?"

Isabella couldn't understand what just happened as it happened too fast. Amara just lunged towards the new girl. But that's not important. What she was more concerned about was the fact that the new woman didn't have any clothes on her body.

She was butt-naked and she walked out of the room in that condition. Seeing her casual action, she should be very familiar with the house and people here, as no sane woman would appear naked in front of a man as handsome as Alex unless she was in a physical relationship with him or not interested in a man.

"So Amara is Lala?"

Well, Isabella threw the option of Rita being in a physical relationship with Alex out of the window as it is not good for her mental health. So she directly confirmed the second part being the truth. Even the reaction of Amara was seen as proof in her eyes.

"Sorry, she has a serious case of 3-stage stupidity. Unfortunately, that can't be cured. Poor her."

Alex answered her as he, at some point, was standing by her side only a few metres away. As he spoke in pity, he ran his hand through his thick, luscious, dark hair to fix his bed hair.

"Pfft - Hahaha!"

Isabella couldn't help but laugh. She held her flat stomach as she chuckled and her body shook as she tried to hold back her amusement. Her big, soft bosom also jiggled, as if it might defy gravity.

"Is this a laughing matter? My sister has a serious health condition. You do know that stupidity is deadly."

Alex said with a stern face and a hardened tone. He looked like he was really angry seeing her reaction to his news.

"I... I'm sorry. I didn't know it was this serious."

Isabella quickly said, realizing that her tone with Alex was inappropriate.

An unreasonable fear rose in her heart as she turned around and apologized to him for her mistake. She didn't know why she reacted like that. Maybe it was the unknown family background Amara had mentioned, or the fear of being disliked by Alex.

For the first time as the head of the family, Isabella felt raw fear and uneasiness as Alex didn't reply to her yet.

"Hahaha, got you! I'm just kidding. Don't be that scared, Isabella."

Alex said, taking a 180° turn and bursting out laughing. He tapped her on the shoulder and then lightly squeezed it, making it seem natural, and Isabella thought that Alex was just being friendly.

But Alex had a deeper meaning behind this simple act. He was programming her subconscious to not be too alert to his touch so that he could push forward slowly. He still had to maintain his persona of a pure good boy, at least in the initial period of the raid.

As the head of the family, Isabella felt raw fear and uneasiness for the first time, as Alex didn't reply to her yet.

<Mistake please ignore : But Alex had a deeper meaning behind this simple act. He was programming her subconscious to not be too alert to his touch, so that he could push forward slowly. He still had to maintain his persona of a pure good boy, at least in the initial period of the raid.>

"I-I wasn't scared at all. It just startled me."

Isabella quickly lied, not wanting to admit that she was scared. She was shocked to hear Alex and cursed herself for not understanding the simple thing that a man's heart is like a sea of needles.

But she was also a little excited. Alex's hand on her shoulder sent a current of pleasure through her body, making her shiver a little. Her body also heated up as her face flushed with the blood rush. Her heart thumped fast, and her breathing increased. Her nether region also became moist, and it started to tingle. She held back her urge to rub herself right here and now to extinguish the fire of desire in her heart.

Seeing her condition, Alex was satisfied. After all, he had not just simply touched her, but used his ecstasy hands on a low level. This not only slowed down her thinking process but also became a source of suppressed lust, making it easier for him to touch her as she would ignore it at another moment.

"What's happening to me? Is this my second youth kicking in? I've never felt this hot and thirsty before. Why is my body burning?" Isabella couldn't understand this sudden change in her body. She had never felt this way before.

Even though she was the mother of two, she had never felt this way. She had to deal with it since that was the logic that worked in this world.

"Really? And here I thought I could hug you as an apology, but now it looks like that's not needed."

Alex said, laughing in his mind. It was too easy to tease someone like Isabella, just look at her face, the complicated emotions, those struggling and painful eyes as she regretted talking too much.

"Well...I do got scared a little, just a tiny bit," Isabella corrected herself.

Isabella wanted to slap herself for her large mouth. If she had just shut up and agreed, she should have been able to hug him. But she had to ruin it. Still, she didn't want to give up. She quickly changed her statement, ignoring the aftermath of it.

Right now, as Alex wanted, her thinking was controlled by lust. So it would be much easier for Alex to make her do something that she would not do in a sane mind.

"You just want a hug, don't you? You just had to ask. Here," Isabella said.

Alex had a wide, friendly smile on his face as he opened his arms and hugged her, taking in her plump, sensual figure.

As he tightened his hold on the hug, he realized he had underestimated the size of her softness. Two big, warm, elastic mounds of hers were pressing against his muscular chest. He naturally wrapped his hands around her slim waist, which somehow didn't have an ounce of fat even when she had this plump figure. He put them just above her tight ass as if he were teasing her.

Isabella put her chin on his shoulder. Her already fast breathing increased once again. Her hot breath hit Alex's neck, making him also excited. Alex knew he could complete the first option right here and now if he wanted to. He just had to budge her a little, but he didn't.

He would not lose a war over some petty victory in a small battle. He had a huge vision in his mind, so he just had to keep reaching her until she couldn't take it anymore. That time, he would be able to do whatever he wanted. He just had to wait for a little bit.

"Here, are you happy?"

Alex let go of her body as he broke their hug. He spoke with a friendly tone as he looked at the reluctant eyes of Isabella. She should have been really annoyed and teased by his hand being near her ass. After all, she was already horny, and his actions were like a teasing foreplay.

"He seems friendly. Is Nathan lying to me? Is he jealous of Alex's looks, that's why he had trouble with him? After all, Alex does not look like a person to hurt someone unprovoked,"

Isabella couldn't help but wonder about the truth and reality of the situation. She got a firsthand glimpse of their background of Alex, and yet he was so friendly. He even hugged her. So the seed of doubt took root in her heart.

Of course, this revelation had nothing to do with Alex's looks and the strong feeling in her heart. She was 90...80...70% sure of it. It was all logical reasoning.

When Alex saw those thoughtful eyes of hers, he smirked. Who said that one action can be only for achieving one thing? He planned so that he could have his cake and eat it too.

Like right now, he just sowed the seed in her heart. Not long after, he would pit this mother against her own son. Even behind this, Alex had a reason. If he now cut off one early win of the protagonist by separating one of the biggest help in the early stage, his mother, then didn't that force the world to give him another one?

And who do you think that help will be? He was eyeing that help. He was setting the web to catch the character that had not appeared yet in the plot.

"By the way, I am sorry that your son got hurt. Do you know who beat him?"

Then he, of course, gave another reason to doubt her son because technically he had nothing to do with converting Nathan into a mummy. It was all done by Rita. If he pulled some strings, he could even twist and turn to create a story that made it look like it was all Nathan's fault.

Or he didn't even have to do much as most of it was Nathan's fault for his condition. He just had to make those things more visible and exacerbate them.

"Huh!? Sorry, but I was told you are the one who hurt him. Can you tell me your side of the story?"

Isabella was surprised to hear Alex's words. The doubt in her heart increased even more. Now she wanted to hear Alex's side of the story. Unlike before when she was just doing this to not create trouble for her family, now it was personal. She hated liars the most.

So even if her son was the one who lied, she would severely punish him. She had a rule not to lie because she, as a businesswoman, saw cons in them. As it would create too much trouble for her. Of course, the rule is not to lie. You are free to not tell the truth. Be clever, just don't give others something they can use against you.

"Well, when my girlfriend and I exited out of the elevator, I saw him covered in bandages, carried in a wheelchair and-"

Roar

Alex wanted to talk vaguely about the situation and let her figure it out, but Shapira might have felt neglected. She roared at Alex to get his attention, which she got successfully. This was also a good thing. Let Isabella wonder. His Peach Blossom eyes should be working on her.

He planned to ferment the effect of it before he tapped into it.

"Ohh, you felt left out girl? Or are you hungry?"

Alex walked back to Shapira. She was seated in the same position as she was before, looking at him with puppy eyes. Well, give her a break, she was going through an identity crisis.

He couldn't resist. He stretched his hand and rubbed her head, which she enjoyed thoroughly.

"He already has a girlfriend. Why?"

Isabella, other than getting frustrated by Alex leaving mid-conversation, was glad he stopped talking. Because the moment he mentioned his girlfriend, she felt pain in her heart as if someone had plunged a blunt knife into it.

She remembered the thing she was trying to ignore. Alex is the boyfriend of Alia. The same Alia who is known not just for her business talent but also for her beauty. She suddenly became self-conscious as she felt low about herself.

"No, I, too, am beautiful. In my youth, I was known as a white lotus because of my beauty. I should steal Alex from Alia, not for me but to keep my family safe... Yes, Alex should have a terrifying background. If Alia teamed up with him, no top family in Berlin city could defend against them. I am just trying to protect my family; others will understand it."

Isabella jumped headfirst into the pit Alex just laid for her. As it was said before, Alex would not make any meaningless decisions. Each plan of his was well thought out, and as he got used to this world, his rules became sharper and sharper.

Let's just ignore the fact Isabella doesn't know what white lotus means but focus on what she wanted to do.

Her hands clenched as she made a decision. She looked at Alex's back with her eyes full of desire and love for him. She now wanted him. She wanted something this badly for the first time in her life, and she would go to get it.

"Mom should be making Alex regret why he even means something to me right now. I wish I were there to see his face, but that doesn't matter. I will get lots of opportunities to see him suffer. Hahaha, Arrack."

In the manner of the Gayler family, the protagonist who is ignorant of how he shot himself in the foot by sending his mother to Alex and was lost in a fantasy about how he was going to torture Alex later.

"I don't know what mom likes. I should take her on a date to ease her mind and thank her for her help."

Nathan here is making plans about taking his mother on a date while Alex plans on taking her to bed. That's the difference between the protagonist and the villain.

(A/N: It will happen soon. You all know what I am talking about, right? ૃ~%oo

As always, thank you for reading, and have a good day ૃ~.)

Chapter 72 72. Power Of Peach Blossom Eyes

"Ouch! Stop hitting me. I said I didn't realize it, okay!?"

This time, Rita came out of Alex's bedroom fully dressed, rubbing her head. Angrily, she spoke to Amara, who followed behind her with an angry expression.

"How did you not notice you were naked? Are you that dumb?"

Amara wanted to smack her again, but Rita quickly dodged and ran towards Alex in a hurry.

"Save me from her, Mister Death!"

Rita made her way towards Alex and hid behind him, only sticking her head out and looking at Amara with fearful eyes. She knew she couldn't resist this woman at all.

There was no chance of fighting back. She tried, but Amara played with her like a cat playing with a mouse. The mouse might have had a chance to escape its fate, but Rita didn't.

Her killer instinct warned her not to act foolishly. That's why, other than running away, she hid behind Alex, knowing that Amara wouldn't do anything to her as long as Alex protected her.

Growl

Amara stopped in her tracks as she saw Rita hiding behind Alex. She was reluctant, but in her eyes, Alex and Rita were already a couple, so she couldn't do too much or Alex might get angry.

But just because Amara couldn't do anything, that didn't mean Shapira too couldn't. When she saw another woman getting close to Alex, she became dissatisfied.

She growled and hissed at Rita in anger, showing her deadly fangs and sharp nails. Shapira was showing her ferocious look, but she didn't move an inch from her place; it was all just a warning.

"Fuck!! Mystical beast."

Rita was sweating buckets now. The tiger showed a sign of intelligence that only a mystical beast can exhibit, which means...Rita slowly turned her head back to Alex, who was using his body to hide her.

"No wonder he looks so divine. He is the Mystical beastmaster."

Rita misunderstood Shapira as being a familiar of Alex. As Shapira was standing close to him and protecting him, Rita thought that's what beasts do with their masters. If anyone else approached them, they showed that person why they were still called beasts.

Normally a beastmaster itself is a proud thing but when you add mystical beastmaster with the mystical beast, That person is in a totally different league. Those people has one of the highest potential to step into S-Rank and according to legends break free bounds of S-Rank to step into SS-Rank.

"Both of you, stop fighting. Go wash your hands and sit at the dining table."

Alex did what he wanted to do. Now, he had to first solidify before speeding up because this was still fresh. He wanted to give Isabella a few hours before making a move on her, so he decided to start with others. After all, Amara and Rita were also like a walking gold bank for him. He just had to create a situation that could trigger the selection option and see if he could artificially trigger it or not.

"Okay, Brother~"

"Yes, Death~"

"I should get going."

Amara and Rita hurriedly agreed as they were both very hungry. But Isabella thought this was her cue to leave, so she didn't want to bother and decided to leave before someone else told her to. She still wanted answers about the events of yesterday.

"Where are you going, Isabella? Sorry, you can't leave without having breakfast. Before you say anything, I don't care if you ate before coming here. You still have to eat here."

How could Alex let go of the tender sheep who walked into his den? He still wanted to complete the task as it not only rewarded him but was also quite tempting.

So he quickly stopped Isabella who was about to leave. He looked directly into her eyes with overflowing gentleness in them.

Thump

Isabella felt her heart skip a beat as she looked into his void-like, enchanting eyes. She even wished that the gentleness in them was just for her. She wanted him to look at her like that for the rest of her life. She would die without any regret if that happened.

'Maybe Nathan is really lying. Look at Alex, how good he is. He will never do something that brutal to anyone. I have to punish Nathan for lying now. He might have forgotten about my rules. Let me help him remember them. Also, punish him for trying to harm a pure soul like Alex.'

Isabella started brain-feeding as the effect of the peach blossom started to show. It was a really powerful thing Alex had received, even considering the broken powers of his other skills.

After all, these eyes were killer moves for any woman, and Alex didn't have to spend extra time thinking about the solution to the aftermath of his trick. These women did that for him, thanks to this skill.

Like right now thanks to this skill, Alex without doing much created a discord between this mother and son, He should thank Rose for this "Gift" of hers soon.

[Ding! +5 Favorability of Isabella increased for the host (Current: 75 Love)]

The system's voice rang in Alex's mind, indicating that he was on the right track. Alex looked up at Isabella, hearing the system's voice. Her face was flushed, and there were complicated emotions in her eyes.

He figured that she was thinking deeply, especially about Nathan and him, as those complicated looks in her eyes indicated. So he didn't say much, just led her to the dining table and took his seat.

Amara was dissatisfied with Isabella being there. Well, she also hated Rita intruding on her brother-sister time with Alex, but she couldn't do anything as this was Alex's decision. So she just went with the flow. At least her brother was here. She was happy with this much.

She quickly took an empty seat on the right side of him because there wasn't enough space. She had little moments of touching and rubbing Alex's body. When she felt his warmth, she forgot all about it as only her brother mattered to her.

Rita took a seat on the left side of Alex. But unlike Amara, she didn't hesitate and stuck her body to his arm. She did this not just because of Alex's tempting body fragrance but also because she felt safe near him.

Right now, there were two beings in this room that she knew of that could make her feel helpless. But by Alex's side, she was confident that this woman would not do anything to her. She didn't know how there were so many strong people in a small city like Berlin.

Thankfully, she didn't know that Isabella was also an A-Rank awakened, or there was a chance that she would lose her mind. After all, being an A-Rank awakened means they get special treatment, if you ignore the few legendary S-Rank. A-Rank is like a god. They can be directly appointed to a higher level in the government if they wanted to.

As for Isabella, she just found a table in front of Alex to sit at. The actions of both women contradicting her conclusion of them being lesbians were ignored by her as if she didn't see anything.

"Hey, what will Shapira eat?"

After everyone had taken their seats, Alex looked at Shapira, who was sitting on the edge of her seat and looking at them with pitiful eyes. She must have been hungry, so Alex asked Amara if he should give her a sandwich.

"Oh, her? She's vegan, so she only eats...hey hey, I'm just kidding, brother. Please put that knife down."

Amara responded to Alex's question, trying to make a joke but when she saw that Alex had picked up the knife from the table and was looking at her intently, she quickly clarified that she was joking and backed away slightly. She was really afraid of making her brother angry.

"Brother she only eats imported roasted meat from the Island country or the things she hunts."

Amara quickly added to prevent any misunderstandings. Normally, mystical beasts should eat what humans eat, but as Shapira is still a cub, she only eats what the beast eats.

"Don't worry, Mystique, her personal chef, will come here in the afternoon, it's just she has to miss breakfast for today."

Amara explained to Alex why Shapira hadn't eaten anything, looking apologetic.

If it were just a matter of imported meat, she should be able to arrange it, as every seven-star restaurant should have it. However, Shapira didn't eat raw meat but preferred professionally cooked one,

So Amara always had a chef appointed for her. However, she had come here in a hurry yesterday, so the chef didn't get time to come with them.

She would arrive in the afternoon, so Shapira would have to wait. Perhaps she was hungry, and that might be also one of the reasons why she approached Alex earlier. She might have been asking him for food.

"I can cook. Just order it, and I'll make it for her."

How can Alex let someone cute as her be hungry for the whole morning? So he offered to cook for Shapira. One phone call was enough to have meat delivered in 10 to 15 minutes.

"My family owns four seven-star hotels. I can arrange it now, and it will arrive in 5 minutes max."

Isabella said, taking out her phone before anyone had asked her to do so. She also mentioned her wealth to Alex, not to flex but because she didn't want to be ignored.

"No need, I have my connections and-"

"Thank you for your help, Isabella. Please see if they can deliver it as soon as possible."

Amara now sees Isabella as a competitor for her brother's love, so she will oppose anything and anytime she gets a chance as that's how women work here.

But Alex had other plans, so he cut Amara's sentence midway and asked and thanked Isabella for her trouble. He needed time to arrange things to put all the blame on Nathan, so it was best if Isabella was busy with something.

Snap

Woof-Flash

After he was done, he snapped his fingers, and a mighty red flame appeared out of thin air. A strand of that flame was dancing between his fingers like a butterfly on the flowers.

"Let me warm this thing for you."

Alex said and threw the flame in his hand on the sandwiches on the table. Even though they were under the food container, it was still able to sweep through the gaps and started warming only sandwiches.

The trio of women were stunned, looking at Alex with horror in their eyes.

Chapter 73 73. Perk Of Mother Heronie

[Ding! Congratulations host for successfully raiding Amara (Current: 355 Unhealthy Obsession)...

The rewards were being distributed...

Congratulations to the host for getting "Beast Charm"...

It has been detected that the host already has a high charm upgrading reward...

Congratulations to the host for getting "Mystical Beast Charm"...

Mystical Beast Charm: As its name suggests, this is used to charm mystical beasts. The possessor has an aura that will attract and make it easy to gain affection from mystical beasts. This is a passive skill that works 24x7. It is recommended not to target multiple beasts at once, or a fight may break out between them for your attention.

Additionally, this skill makes the possessor a mystical beast master, but unlike normal ones, the possessor of this charm can tame as many beasts as they want. They can even upgrade this skill to tame higher-tier beasts.

Effects:

â€¢ Your charm will be doubled for any beast-related being.

â€¢ No beast will harm you.

â€¢ You can break other beasts' connections with their masters and make them yours without much trouble as long as the beast agrees.

Sub-Skill: Charmer

Charmer: Can charm any beast for only a limited period. In that period, the charmed beast will do anything the host commands it to do. (Note: Can be used on multiple targets.)

'Fuck this, first tell me why Amara's favorability for me is that high?'

Normally, Alex should be checking his rewards and planning on how to effectively use them, but not right now. He saw something earth-shaking. Amara, his sister's favorability for him, exceeded the 300-point mark. How is that even possible? Isn't a normal couple only able to reach 70 points in their lifetime?

He, who has a system, can surpass that, but her favorability for him is that much even before he got a system. 350 points was her initial value of favorability towards him, which raises too many questions.

Also, another thing, Amara is not the only strange thing here. Although she gives him most of the shock, the other two women do not fall too far behind. This trio of women suddenly increased their favorability towards him.

Usually, it's a good thing, but now he doesn't know the reason for it. He is afraid that if he makes a mistake and ignores this strange phenomenon with women, he might be locked in the basement somewhere. Well, at least he will not be alone.

[Ding! Host, the reason why Amara's favorability is high is all because of her setting. In the novel, she is a late-stage villainess. Her plot was that after you got killed by Nathan, she would go on a crazy rampage for revenge. That's because, according to the plot, she was in mad love with you, which was insulted and disgusted by the protagonist many times.]

The system, as user-friendly as it is, quickly answered the trouble Alex was having about the current situation.

Normally, a woman with Amara's charm and beauty should be the type of enemy who turns into a lover trope, but here she had a twist in the plot. Maybe the author didn't want to follow the old routine, so Amara's setting was that she was a serious bro-con.

Nathan, as the protagonist, was greedy for her body and tried multiple methods such as threats, temptations, bribes, etc., but Amara never yielded to him. At the last moment, she self-sacrificed, trying to kill Nathan with her, but sadly, protagonist's luck, she failed.

But she was not sad. With a very charming smile adorning her lips, even to her last breath, she had her brother's name in her mouth. She was happy that now she got to meet him. There they can have their little place.

That is Amara's story and the reason why there is this much initial favorability for him, as she was in love with Alex from childhood. Calling that love will be an understatement, but that is the reason.

'Okay, that explains Amara. What about these tw-'

"Alex!! What are you doing?"

Alex wanted to ask the system about why the other two women behaved strangely too, but before he could ask, Amara yanked him towards her, hiding him behind her. Then she looked at the two women with a deadly glare.

"Alex, are these women important? It's better to silence them here."

Amara was fully alert, her two sharp eyes monitoring the other two closely. There was panic and hostility in her tone as she spoke. She wanted to silence these two women here to keep this secret only between the proximity of this wall.

"No, no. You misunderstood, I don't have any ill intentions."

"Same here, I will never do something that hurts Mister Death."

Isabella and Rita raised their hands to show Amara they were not a threat. Both women had a look of shock and horror written all over their faces. They never expected to see someone like Alex here in the college dormitory.

"Wait a minute, first of all, before you guys start, I have dibs on first blood. And second, can someone tell me what is happening?"

Alex didn't know what this woman was doing and what had suddenly happened to them that they were reacting like this. But he was confident that he was the cause of the trouble. He just didn't know what he did to trigger them. He couldn't think of anything he did that could be seen as abnormal.

"The fire you used, what rank is that superpower?"

It was Amara who answered his query quickly, seeing that her brother needed help. But her eyes never left the two women. Not that she was afraid of them attacking her, but she was more worried about them escaping and revealing this forbidden knowledge to the world.

"What rank? It's SS-Rank... Ohhh, now I get it."

Alex realized that his superpower rank was SS-Rank. For him, it was not a big deal as he already knew about the plot and that there were way bigger ranks than the SS one. But for early plot people, an SS-Rank awakening was nothing but an urban legend. Not to mention an SS-Rank warrior, but even the -Rank superpower did not appear in this world for millennia.

So it was logical that when these women saw Alex casually using an SS-Rank skill as not a big deal, they were shocked to the core, which was also the reason for their increased favorability towards him.

Also, the reason why Amara reacted this way was that if the news about him being the possessor of an SS-Rank power got out, Alex would be targeted by everyone in the world. Some would want to see his powers, some would want to woo him, some would see him as a threat, and even some would try to steal his superpower from him.

There might be another family that would target the Winchester family as they would see Alex as a rising member of the Winchester family. Currently, those families only had peace because they maintained an equilibrium of power. So although the Winchester family was slightly stronger than them, those families didn't care.

But if someone with potential like Alex came from that family, then that equilibrium would break, making those powerful families go to war with each other and causing massive bloodshed.

So even if the Winchester family was more than capable of defending themselves, if those other families combined and targeted Alex, it would be hard to say if they were able to protect him.

"So it's really an SS-Rank superpower? I never thought those existed. I also used to think it was an urban legend, a made-up story to glorify mythical beastmasters."

Rita first snapped out of her shock and she spoke in shock.

As said before, the reason why mystical beastmasters are so respected and considered a noble field is that it's one of the few fields with the potential to reach SS-Rank awakened.

Rita was now numb to the shock as she got surprised many times in these 24 hours. Yesterday, she saw that a human could also be handsome to this extent. She still couldn't see Alex as just a normal human. Then there was a supernatural thing like encountering a ghost. She used to think ghosts didn't exist, yet she saw one.

And now, she, who used to think that SS-Rank didn't exist, now saw that they pretty much do. If Alex doesn't fall midway, he will be an SS-Rank awakened.

"You are not the only one. I also used to think it was a prank of those people in the hidden society, thinking I am a newbie in their group."

Isabella also looked at Alex with shock in her eyes. This man gave her too many surprises in so little time. First, his looks, then his background. After that, his hospitality, and now this? How many mysteries did this man have?

'No, I can't let Alia hoard all of Alex for herself. Now there is one more reason for me to get him,' Isabella thought.

Before, she was still a little hesitant about what others thought of her for wanting to get a boy of her son's age, but now she doesn't care. She now not only has a proper reason but also a way she can go all out, and those elders in the family will do nothing but praise her contribution to the family.

'But will I be enough to make him give up on Alia? I don't like it, but that girl is also blessed by the goddess of beauty. Maybe if my ungrateful daughter joined, then didn't my chances would increase more? She too is equal to Alia in beauty. This way, she might hate me a little less.'

Here the thinking of a heroine in a harem novel kicks in for Isabella. And she is not only a heroine but also the mother of the protagonist. So this type of heroine has the least amount of possessiveness for their man, as it will make it easier for protagonists to open a harem.

And every good mother in this type of novel should be the best wingman for her man. So it's logical to think that she will push her daughter too. Not only that, if the situation arises, she will also go out of her way to arrange a woman for her man. Because of this perk of the mother heroine why this trope is the most loved one.

It's just that she was supposed to do all this for the protagonist, but here tables are turned. The protagonist himself sends her, his mother, into the arms of Alex, a villain of the novel.

"I don't understand how you know I have an SS-Rank superpower?" Amara was still protecting Alex behind her back as her eyes intently looked at both Isabella and Rita.

"That's because..."

Growl

Rita wanted to say the reason, but the loud growl of Shapira startled her. Before anyone could react, Shapira moved at super speed and hopped on Alex's body before getting close to his face, opening her jaws and showing her sharp deadly fangs.

(A/N: Quick question, do you want the R-18 scene now here or wait till Isabella's daughter also joins?

Like always, thank you for reading, and have a good day ٩ٲٲ.)

Chapter 74 74. Bestiality???

Shapira was standing above the fallen body of Alex as her two icy blue eyes glared at him with strange looks in her eyes.

"Shapira girl cool down, I am Ale-"

'Just give me a stupid reason as an explanation.'

Alex looked stupidly at the system notification, Didn't it too much? First banging your daughter and granddaughter was suggested to him and with "hard" hearted agreement, As at least they are human and importantly women but Shapira in front of him is an all in all a wild animal.

He was not into bestiality at all, It's not morals but simple common sense stopping him, Didn't HIV is proof enough to not stick your dick into animals? Although it might be an urban tale, still don't stick your dick in animals.

[Ding! Host Shapira is not an animal but a mystical beast. They can change their body from beast to human and vice versa at will. The only reason she was appearing in beast form is that she is still in a cub. When she reaches 23 years old, She will change.]

The system might have learned to detect sarcasm or it really did provide the stupid reason as an explanation but either way it did not make it any less easy for Alex.

After all, right now a 200-pound beast is on top of him, His purity is in danger. He even thought that heart shapes in Shapira's eyes. If he doesn't do anything now then he is not sure what will happen next.

'System hurry to lower the effectiveness of Mystical beast charm.'

Alex quickly asked the system to lower the effectiveness of his newly gotten skill, This skill was way too effective, Well that given as his already super high charm will be doubled for the wild beast.

So it's very reasonable for her to act like this. She was holding back a lot, which shows the training she received was not ordinary.

"Bad girl, get off from my brother."

Amara saw Shapira hopping on Alex's body, making him fall to the ground. Her anger reached its extreme. She before put all her attention on Rita and Isabella and ignored her as she never thought Shapira could even attack Alex like this. Although she might be playing around, Alex might still get seriously hurt because of her, Which is the worst ceim one can commit in her mind.

She trained her especially to be careful around him, yet on the first meeting after a long time, she did this. She was disappointed in Shapira. Amara even thought of replacing her, but seeing that it was her first mistake, she cut her some slack.

Growl

Shapira now got back to her senses as the system lowered the Beast Charm skill of Alex. So she was very fearful to realize what she just did. As a mystical beast, she has the thinking process of a human adult. It just her brain only thinks like a toddler, because she is just a cub, a 22-year-old cub. So Shapira quickly gets off Alex's body and fearfully stands in her place, waiting for the punishment for her crime.

Although Amara spoils her for doing other things and ignores her normal behavior, when it comes to her brother, she doesn't care about anything else, even though she is a beast and knows that.

"No, it was my fault, I am sorry, Shapira."

When Alex saw the reaction to Shapira, he felt bad. He has known her since childhood, so he knows that she should have felt very bad for making him fall to the ground. Looking at Amara's favorability for him, it's quite clear that she should have trained her to be as Alex-friendly as possible.

And by her reaction, the punishment for going against those protocols has serious consequences, as he never thinks that a mystical beast will act fearfully without any reason.

So he stretched his hand and patted her on her head to make her relax a little and decrease her guilt.

"How is this your fault, brother?"

Amara, though ignored their first offence of Shapira, but her anger was still there. She still wanted to make her practice even more strict. But now Alex took all the blame on him for no reason. She can't let that happen. Her brother can never be wrong. If someone is wrong, then this world should be the wrong one, not her lovely brother.

"Alex, don't try to take her blame on you. It's not good for the training of the beasts."

Rita, as a member of the Dragon Gate organization, knows a lot about beasts. Although Shapira is a mystical beast, a lot different from the normal beast, their training when they are cubs is quite similar.

So Alex ignoring her mistakes will do no good in the long run. The beast might even turn against their master. This should be quite rare to happen, but if not trained accurately, it has a very high chance of happening.

"....She should just be playful. She seems quite friendly to me."

Isabella is not involved in the awakened world as she was very busy handling her family and controlling her daughter's move against her brother. So she didn't know much about the knowledge of the Awakened society. She only knows some basics.

That's why, in her eyes, Shapira's actions seem like not a big deal. But she didn't realize that this is an all-powerful wild beast with superpowers and super strength, not a house cat whose scratches can be ignored.

"No, I am the reason why she reacted like this. After all, who told me to be this handsome? Even beasts were not immune to it. It's really a burden."

Alex once again embraces his narcissistic personality and shamelessly boosts his own beauty. But others can't do anything as he doesn't lie. What he said is a hundred percent true. His charm is the culprit behind Shapira's actions.

"..."

".....Well, Mister Death is really handsome."

"No, using a word like handsome is an insult to my brother. No word can define his beauty and charm. That's my brother."

These three women had different reactions to Alex's statement, and Isabella was speechless. She didn't know if Alex was joking or he was serious, as both possibilities are highly possible, as Alex has a charm that can't be defined in normal words.

Rita, on the other hand, was not sure what to say but she agreed to Alex. In her eyes, he is the most handsome being she had ever seen. No one comes close to his charm and beauty, so she doesn't get confused and readily agrees as what Alex said is a fact.

And Amara, as a Bro-con, will always be on Alex's side. So if Alex said his charm was the reason, then she, without questioning, agreed and made it a fact.

"Okay, let's eat first. After that, you will explain to me in detail how you guys found out about my SS-Rank skill."

Alex suggested eating first as though he wanted the answer to his question. He wanted much more right now, so it was best to have this woman at least on the obsession level of favorability for him. This way, he will achieve and unlock the legendary position of sleeping with a protagonist mother. Maybe he will add others too.

"Yeah, I am super hungry. I haven't eaten since morning."

Rita said as she rubbed her tummy with a wronged tone. At this moment, there is no resemblance of a cold killer but a sister next door aura. This might be the real personality that she unconsciously let out as she felt comfortable here.

"Right now, it's still morning, you fat ass."

Amara, of course, will not miss the opportunity to take a shot at Rita. Right now, it's 7 AM, so yeah, this is morning. It's reasonable for Amara to act out towards Rita.

"So? I didn't lie, did I? I haven't eaten anything since morning, which is, in fact, a true statement. As a businesswoman, you should know that, 'Sister' Amara."

Rita is also not a normal woman. She dances on the knife edge for a living. So Amara's little rude words will not harm her at all. But, on the contrary, she hits Amara where it's hurting the most.

What is Amara most proud of? Her brother. Well... What Amara is second most proud of is her business talent. She is also known as a business witch in her field of work, a thing that gives her the confidence to stand close to her brother.

And now, Rita exploiting her mistake in reasoning is going to have a way bigger impact on her than it seems.

"Well, technically Rita didn't lie. Also, she is nowhere near to be compared to the word 'fat'. Your statement of her calling her 'fat' is unbiased and a total lie."

Isabella also joined to attack Amara. After all, Amara does put too much pressure on her before. So, how could she miss this golden opportunity for revenge? So, she too joined in bullying Amara.

"You-You... Brother, look, they are bullying me."

Amara pointed her slender index finger at them, trying to counter their argument, but she really didn't see any flaws in their argument at all. Their reasoning is flawless.

This is really morning, and Rita also didn't eat anything yet. So, according to this, Rita's statement is true, and calling her 'fat ass', Amara did this just to anger her, but it backfired.

Rita might be a beta woman, but she is not a fat ass, as a set of well-proportioned muscles on her legs and abdomen are proof of it.

So, seeing no option, a grown 26-year-old woman jumped into Alex's arms and complained to him like a child.

"Hey, you two, stop bullying her."

Alex, seeing her act like this, wanted to laugh. He knows how powerful and scary this woman is for others. There is a reason why she is the villainess of the late plot, but in front of him, she is as harmless as a white rabbit.

She even didn't care about the fact that she is their elder sister, and her doing this will seem like a low-grade move, but she is always like that. Since childhood, whenever she encounters something she can't handle, she turns up to Alex crying.

This might be the base reason why her favorability for him is so high and why she thinks her brother can do anything. Her trust in Alex increased and solidified to this extent, becoming a routine daily in their childhood.

So he hugged her surprisingly soft body in his arms and acted as if he sternly warned others to stop bullying her.

When Alex said it, both Rita and Isabella shared a look and tried their hardest not to burst out laughing, seeing Amara's action. They never thought that someone like Amara also has a side like this one, but Alex said to not bully her, so they stopped, at least in front of Alex, because they were not going to do it.

"Okay, sister, stop crying. Let's go and eat something."

Alex patted Amara on her back as she was sobbing in his arms. There might be a slight chance that she was acting to hug him, but whatever the case, she still looked cute. Anyway, he was also not losing anything. He was still hugging a beauty.

"Okay~"

"O-Okay"

"Hmmm."

A trio of women replayed differently. Rita was excited, Isabella was a little hesitant, and Amara just hummed in satisfaction. Soon, all of them once again sat in their original seating position.

After Alex uncovered the sandwiches and served them to them, that woman looked surprised at how good they were looking as they even have a glittering effect in the anime. They couldn't wait to take a bite.

"Aah-hum~"

Boom

All three of them quickly lifted the sandwich in their hand before taking a bite. As they took a bite, They were shocked to their core.

(A/N : You know what will be best with their sandwich? A lemon.

Like always thanks for reading and have a good day ٩ٲٲ.)

Chapter 75 75. Foodgasm (Medium R-18)

Boom

As they took a bite, All three women felt that their souls just escaped their bodies as the wave of pleasure hit their minds. They had never tasted anything like this one, Although this is just a sandwich it was so much better than the food in their 7-star restaurant that comparing this to those trash dishes is an insult to this sandwich.

"Mummm~"

All three of them could not help but to stare at the sandwich in shock and astonishment as they smelled the delicious aroma. They once again took a bite and moaned in pleasure. The flavors were exquisite, and the textures were divine. The women's tongues explored every inch of their mouths, savoring the taste of the sandwich.

The flavor of it was violating their taste buds, and yet they couldn't get enough. Their eyes rolled back into their heads, and all three of them lost control. Their bodies began to quiver uncontrollably from the orgasmic joy.

They tried hiding it, resisting it but it was all futile. The pleasure like water in a broken dam flowed in their bodies, Giving them a paramount of ecstasy and pleasure.

"Hmmm~ Ahhh."

They clenched their nether region, Their suppressed moans rang in the same room but they do not care about it as they were lost in this indescribable feeling of joy and ecstasy.

"Ugh... I can not believe it.."

Amara is is the one who tries the hardest to resist, She can't let a shameful thing like this happen in front of her brother, But right now, her whole body was on fire, As if there was some kind of heat inside their stomachs and the only way to relieve that feeling of tingling in her nether region, She wanted to rub it too badly.

To let this heat out, Alex seating next to her looked more and more tempting, If she was not well trained. she should have hopped on his body and extinguished the fire of burning passion in her.

[Ding! +20 Favorability of Amaea increased for the host (Current: 375 Only One)]

Amra finally could not stop what was impending as she stuck her legs together and clenched her thighs as her love nectar released from her delicate folds, Wetting her royal purple dress but she did not care about it as she was more worried about the wet stain on the chair, The sign of her shameful and embarrassing act.

"Hummm, Not here please Ahh!~"

Rita too here is having a hard time. Even as a professional killer, Who trained her mind to extremes, can not control her body's reaction to this stimulation. If she does not have trust in Alex that he will not drug her, She will try to escape.

But even though it was this hard for her, She couldn't resist taking a second bite of the sandwich, Her Body

"Ahhhh~!~"

As soon as this bite entered her mouth, the flames of lust spread throughout her body. A wave of pleasure rushed through her veins, making her feel dizzy. Finally, she could not control her urges. She wanted to be released very badly.

What made her more helpless was that, She didn't have anything else to wear, so she put on Alex's shirt and pants. On this cloth, his remainte scent was still lingering, As his smell entered her nostril, it fueled the fire in her even more.

Her hand unconsciously went between her legs and she rubbed her clit furiously, She moaned still trying her futile attempt to hide her moans, But because of her condition, She did not pay attention to her surroundings, If she did she should have found that she does not need to hide at all, As she was not tje only only one.

"Uuuh...~"

Her suppressed moan escaped her mouth, While she was touching herself, rubbing her bare pussy from the gap in the zipper, She sneakily stared at Alex, Wanting him, Needing him. The urge that increases with each passing second, She doesn't know what she wants, but all she knows is that Alex should be able to help her.

"Ummm...Ahhh!~"

Rita's body reacted to the critical limit, As her bodies arched on the seat as her legs crossed each other, She was clenching her pelvis and yet she could not resist anymore as she gave in to the blissful release.

She moaned loudly as she released herself. Her love juice was spared out of the open zipper, soiling her hand and the floor below the dining table.

Huffing

She just lay on the table to breathe a little or she was afraid she would pass out.

"Huff. Ummm. UMMM!!!"

Isabella was no different from Rita and Amara. She also tries resisting it and Stop shameful things as a pre-ejaculation, but can she resist the power of god-level skill? Of course not. So she also soon gave in, enjoying the pleasure and ecstasy rampaging throughout her body.

She should be experiencing the same thing as Rita and Amara, And she was. If everything goes by plan, She should also lie down on the table before taking another bite and do this all over until there is no sandwich left.

But an anomaly happened to her. When she had the urge to rub herself, She felt something between her legs, a warm, soft but slightly rigid sensation.

'It's a joy being villain hehe~'

Alex smiled in his mind as she looked at the shocked, surprised, and happy expression of Isabella in front of him. Her eyes looked at him with shame and wanting, disbelief in them soon changed to pure desire.

Alex could see her from the table as the table was not that big, her legs slightly parted and her dress hiking up as she shifted in her seat to rub herself, He already put his large soft foot between her legs, Just a little distance from her bare hairless pussy.

He grinned to himself looking at her seductive figure, She being the mother of the protagonist also making him more and more excited.

"Ahmm~ Ahhh!~"

He looked in her eyes as he slowly ran his toes up and down on her delicate slit, feeling her heat against his skin.

Isabella was moaning softly now, her hips shifting on the chair as she tried getting more and more contact with him. She was thinking this was a vivid hallucination, So without any worry and questions, she was just enjoying it.

'Hum, It's really the power of Incubus' body, She was getting wetter and wetter, Each part of me made to give pleasure.'

He chuckled softly seeing her reaction, There are only a few things he can do forever, Making the protagonist's mother wet is one of them.

"Ahh~ Please sto...They- Mumm~"

She moaned, She thinks this is just a vivid hallucination, So she was trying to remind herself to stop making loud noise so as not to let the other two women see her embarrassment but she wasn't able to speak properly as lust overtook her actions.

"Shh~ Keep quiet no one can know this."

Alex put an index finger on his lips as he spelled out words with his lips to remind her to stay quiet. It would be troublesome if the other two caught them.

Isabella slowly widened as the realization dawned on her, but the pleasure in her mind did not allow her to think of anything else, So she kept enjoying the Alex treatment.

"Mumm~ Ahha Huff"

As Alex teases Isabella with his toes, she can not help letting out soft moans of pleasure. She is getting wetter and wetter with each stroke of his toes, and she can barely keep herself from moaning aloud. She knows that if she does, Amara and Rita will surely notice, but she can not help giving in to the pleasure that Alex is providing.

Her pussy looks absolutely beautiful as it glistens with her juices, and Alex can not help but tease her even more. He wiggles his toes inside her, causing her to moan louder than before. She tries to keep quiet, but it's becoming increasingly difficult as the pleasure builds up inside her.

"Here you go, Take your bliss."

Alex whispers as he can see how close she is to orgasm, So he decides to give her one final push over the edge. He starts stroking her with his toes while simultaneously thrusting his toes inside her.

"Ahh. . .ahh. . .ahhh....Ahh. . .AHHH!!~ MUMMMM"

The combination of sensations is too much for Isabella to handle, and she screams out in pleasure as she cums all over Alex's feet, Then the release she herself lay on the dining table like the other two.

[Ding! +20 Favorability of Isabella increased for the host (Current: 100 Unhealthy Obsession)]

System notification appeared in the inbox, but it didn't appear in front of Alex. It detected that Alex was done yet, So as its policy, it will not distribute good deeds of Alex.

"Huh!? Alex!! You-"

"Shhh! Keep your voice down sister, I didn't get to say last night but I missed you a lot sis, So now let me feel you more "deeply", Okay?"

Amara was startled by this sudden unknown moment. She wanted to react drastically, but seeing it was Alex, she stopped And looked at him with confusion and expectation in her pink eyes.

How could Alex not take advantage of this moment? So he hammered when iron was hot, His tone became gentle and seductive, He whispered in her ear as his index finger touched her slit.

"Humm...I too miss you brother a lot, You can do it but be careful."

Amara didn't stand a chance against her brother's sweet words, She quickly fell to his trick as immeasurable joy filled her heart, And that touch of him nearly made her cum, But this time she used all her willpower not to embarrass herself in front of him.

"Okay, I will, I love you sister a lot."

Alex was smirking as he saw his sister acting cute, So couldn't help wanting to tease her more, So before he started, He said these words to her as he slowly put an inch of his index finger in her uncharted cave.

(A/N : Do you guys like it this way? I had to read lots of erotic stuff for it, Though I am not complaining ̄̄̄,)

By the way chose :-

* Two some (Alex ̄̄— A,R, I)

*Threesome (Alex ̄̄— Any two)

*Foursome (Alex ̄̄— All four)

Also, like always thank you for reading and have a good day ̄̄̄.)

Chapter 76 76. Elder Sister (R-18)

*Umm...Ye..s~"

Amara gasped and moaned softly as Alex began stroking and circling her clit with his thumb, While his finger was sticking in and out of her pitifully small hole. She leaned back against the chair and on instincts arched her hips towards his hand wanting him deeper in herm

He too eagerly obliged, slipping more half of an inch finger inside her wet pussy and stroking her until she was moaning and panting with desire. He wanted to go a little more in but his finger felt little resistance, So he stopped going more in as focused on giving her pleasure.

"Humm...Bro...ther~"

Amara's eyes were misty as she looked at him with eyes filled with lust and love, Her crispy uttered a word brother sent shivers down Alex's body, He looked at her with a side glance. Her pink eye was focused on him, As if recording each second of this to remember the rest of her life.

His eyes fell on her red face, Her rosy lips were parted for gasping a breath, As her C-ups went up and down, Then his eyes landed on where his hand was connected to her.

Glup

Alex helped as he felt his hot rod pushing against him with full strength trying to break free from the evil bounds of his pants, His underwear was already wet because of his precum as the aftermath of Isabella and now this one, He too was reaching, He too needs a release but he has a big picture in his mind, So he controlled him taking down his sister right here and now.

"Huh!?...Why-Mummmm!!~"

He pulls out his right hand out of her and turns his body in her direction, Amara opens her eyes in surprise and annoyance as she misses the blissful sensation of her brother's fingers but her dissatisfaction didn't last long.

When she opened her mouth, Alex sealed her pink plump lips with his soft slender one, His agile young roamed in her moist warm mouth, As he soon found her little tongue hiding in the corner, So he bullied her, lashed her, coiled his tongue with hers.

"Urr..mumm~"

Her moans turned into a loud 'Urr' as she felt a familiar finger going inside her, She was in heaven, A heaven filled with the fantasy of her brother, And she was loving every moment of it. She doesn't know if what is happening right now is a dream or reality but she doesn't care as long as her brother is the one doing this to her.

His wet warm tongue coiled with hers giving her a weird feeling, She felt like she would melt by this mere sensation and yet she wanted more, She was greedy for a taste of her brother, She didn't even care that they have company around them at all, Her mind was fixed on her brother.

Alex also didn't let his right hand be ideal. He moved his hand around her body down and cupped her breast, Feeling how heavy and soft they are. Even if he was touching them over her dress, He still felt their softness and how perky they were.

His left hand was still working magic on her clit, He searched her softness and quickly found her nipple, After finding it he lightly pinched it, Making Amara moan sensually as her nipple erected and became so hard that it can even cut a diamond.

"Ooohh~! Oooohh~!"

She couldn't help herself anymore as her hands went on the table and held on to it for support. She was still a bit nervous about being exposed, Her shame to other womens on the table but she didn't care as long as she could feel her brother's touch.

"Taste yourself "Sister"?"

Alex broke their kiss and looked deeply in her eyes, His lips gazed hers as he loomed deeply in her pink eyes, Which was filled with lust, A strand of their saliva streaming down from corner of lips, As she with lustful face looked at him.

Alex felt his cock almost bursting to see her like this, Even if she was not a heroine, She put other normal heroines way behind her, No wonder Nathan even as self-proclaimed light of righteousness tried everything to get her.

Alex pulled out his fingers out of her unwilling slit, Which was trying hard to keep him in, Then he struck that finger in her mouth, Giving her the taste of her own juices. Amara too didn't get disgusted by it, And excitedly wrapped her lips around his finger as her little pink tongue rolled and licked every inch of it giving him a tickling.

"Hum~ hateful...Umm."

After she was done cleaning Alex pulled out his fingers from her warm mouth, Amara moaned in frustration and sadness, But then Alex lifted her hand and put on something hard and hot, She subconsciously squeezed lightly, Which made Laex groan in pleasure. When she realises what was in her hand her happiness knows no bounds.

Feeling how hard her brother got because of her, She especially felt proud. She was happy that her brother really thinks of her like a woman and not just a sister. Her worst nightmare, A thing she was most afraid of.

'Brother grew quite a lot didn't he?"

Amara felt the length of the thing in her hand was very surprising. She never thought her cute delicate brother was packing this beast, A monster in his pants. Thankfully for her, she is a beastmaster.

She got a rush of heat in her stomach as she with her trembling hand rubbed it over his pants, She remembered when she was younger, she always wanted to make her brother happy, Do things just to put a smile on his face, But she never thought he will return the favour and to this extent.

"Do you like what you are feeling "sister"?"

Alex was enjoying her clumsy and fearful action of stroking his rod over his pants, He got near her ear and spoke lightly in it, A whisper like a devil-tempting innocent maiden to take a bite at forbidden fruit, But here Amara is no innocent maiden that needs to be tempted to eat the forbidden fruit, She long since in her childhood eaten the whole fucking tree of it.

"Aaagh...Mummmmm~!"

She moaned. Her legs were shaking and her body was on fire. She was so close to cumming already but she held back. Alex's simple words were enough to make her reach critical, especially when he called her sister. He called her sister while his right hand was fondling her softness.

His left hand was also going back to do his job, She once again felt that touch, Her brother was inside her, Right now quite literally. Both of them went all out at each other as if they had forgotten the existence of the other two women at the table seating with them.

"Sister, Please use your sweet mouth."

Alex couldn't stand this teasing, So without further ado, He pulled out his eggar cock out of it's bounds of pants, Which coming out twitched and stretched show of its might, Ready for the action.

Gasp

Amara gasped at the share size of his throbbing cock. She looked unbelievably as she saw the beast in front of it. Even in this field her brother is as mighty as always, Better than everyone else, Now she was not that sure how to handle it.

But her brother asked her to do it then even if she wasn't able to do it, She would give her all to please her brother. He called her sister and asked her to do the thing that already broke all the limits and reservations she had in her mind. So she bends forward towards her lovely brother putting her face in between his crotch.

"Ohhh~"

Alex took a step closer to her, As his large cock was just inches away from her face, She was looking down at it with a mixture of awe and fear, Not sure how to proceed forward.

"Bro-Brother, Are you sure it's okay to use your mouth? What if my teeth hurt you?"

Amara hesitated, She thought has all knowledge of how this worked as she practised herself early in her teenage period just for this day but she didn't want to take any chances when it came to her brother's safety. She will never forgive herself if she hurt him.

"Don't worry Sister, I'm used to it. It won't be a problem, My girlfriend always gives me blowjob."

Alex said these words as this will not only ignite her competitive spirit in her heart but also calm her down before she goes down on him. After saying these words he held his cock and moved closer to her red, shy face, His cock was now in front of her nose almost touching the tip of it.

She took a deep breath and smelled the musk coming off it, making her body hotter. She took a second to prepare herself before she landed a kiss on his red glans, She will not going to lose her brother to some beta woman like Rita, So he decided to go all out.

Amara closed her eyes savouring every moment of it. She slowly stretched her pink tongue and licked it. The salty taste of his precum gave her a sweet feeling. She still couldn't imagine her fantasy. Her dream was finally unfolding in front of her. She was really doing this with her brother.

"Mumm~ you taste too good brother."

Amara said as she blew gently on the head of his cock, Sending waves of pleasure through his body, She then inhaled the glans in her mouth and kissed it lightly with her pink soft lips.

"Mumm~"

She moaned as she started sucking the head of his cock, Swirling her tongue around it as she sucked, and she with her hands started fondling his balls, giving Alex dual stimulation.

"You're amazing sister~"

Alex said as he enjoyed the sensation of having his sister's mouth down there. The new thing she tried also worked wonders.

"Mumm heh~"

Amara looked up at her brother with those wide and sexy pink eyes, And with a seductive look she smiled at him as his glans was on her lips, Then without holding back she went down to blow him some more, Inch by inch she putting bis length in her mouth until his cock reached back of her throat.

But that didn't stop her, Hse wanted to fill all her brothers inside her, So she pushed him even further directly in her throat. She now depthroats him, As much as she can, until her nose is stuffed with his meaty cock and her lips touch his base.

"Mmmmmm~"

Amara moaned loudly as she felt how Alex's huge cock invade her throat, Her eyes went wide with surprise as she felt her brother's thickness stretching her throat, Her gag reflex kicked in and she struggled to hold back, But she was determined not to let her brother down, So she pushed herself to continue until she felt his thick cock slide down her throat.

Then she stopped and pulled back, Leaving a trail of saliva and spit on her brother's cock.

"Sister~ You are doing so good~"

Alex said as he looked down at her, Seeing his sister's sexy expression as she swallowed his dick was indescribable, Her sexy looks as the obsession in her eyes for him hitting his heart flaming the fire in him.

So he grabbed her head and pushed down on his cock, making her take him down her throat again, And Amara obliged his request happily, Taking him deeper into her throat. She was struggling to breathe but she didn't care. All that mattered was pleasing her brother.

"Mumm~ Mumm~"

Amara moaned loudly as she depthroated her brother again, She can feel his girth and length expanding her insides even more, Making her feel bloated and full with every thrust, And she loves every bit of it.

"Uhhh Gag Huff Gobble Mmmmm~"

Amara was panting heavily now as she was depthroating him, Her tongue was licking his cock head as it bobbed up and down in her throat, And she was sucking hard on it, Trying to milk her brother dry.

"Arghh- Sister take it all, Ahhh!!~"

Alex reached his limit as she was very good at it and he also didn't try to hold back more, So he held her head down and pushed his rod as deep into her throat as he could, making her gag badly as his cock hit the back of her throat.

"Mummm~!"

Amara became happy seeing her brothers action, As she knew what is about to happen next, She couldn't wait taste her brother anymore, She feel her brother's cock swell in her throat and was about to burst, So she did everything she can to make her brother cum, She started sucking as hard as she can on his cock which was now throbbing in her throat, She knew he was close, So she took him out of her mouth and let her tongue ride his cock while her hands rubbed his balls.

"Ah~!~"

The cockhead flared up in her mouth, And Alex pushed his cock down her throat one last time, Making her choke on his girth, And soon he let out a loud moan as he shot rope after rope of hot spunk into her throat.

It tasted salty and sour in her mouth, But she didn't mind. She enjoyed drinking her brother's nectar, And even though she couldn't say anything, She felt her throat swell with hot cum, Which was making her body tingle all over.

"Uuah~!"

Amara moaned as she felt her body was on fire, As her body started to shake in orgasm.

"Arghh~"

Alex groaned as he felt the first shot of cum hit the back of his sister's throat. The second, third, fourth, and fifth shots were all going straight down her gullet, She was swallowing them all like a pro, As she kept milking her brother for all he had.

"Muuuumm~"

Amara moaned loudly as she felt her brother's seed shoot down her throat. It felt warm and slippery going down her throat, And she loved it.

She was drunk with lust as she heard her brother moaning, And she loved the sound of it. She felt her pussy becoming wetter and wetter with every passing second.

She felt like she is losing control, But she didn't care, She just love to feel him inside her, After she makes sure it was done shooting its love, she pushed his cock out of her mouth and moved her head down, Her tongue licking the shaft of it for to get even the last drop of it, Connor of her lips was upturned showing her happiness and joy.

"What are you two doing?"

Suddenly a third voice broke into the world of these two brothers and sisters.

(A/N : Who is she? Isabella or Rita?

Like Always thank you for reading and have a good day ٩ٲٴ)

Chapter 77 77. Fucking Nathan's Mother I (R-18)

"Yo-You!! How could you!!? He is your brother!!!"

Isabella looks and points her trembling index finger at two brothers and sisters with shock in her eyes as they just do a taboo. She never thought that Amara would force herself on Alex.

Oh yes, In her eyes Amara is the one who is forcing Alex to do this "dirty" thing. If not, A pure boy like him will never do anything like that, he can't do that with his sister and most importantly here.

"You saw nothing, Right?"

Amara didn't even sweat about getting caught red-handed sucking his own brother. In her eyes only Alex's opinion matters, Others are just extras that share the same airspace with her, That's all.

"You think I am blind or afraid of you that I will let you do as overbearing things as you want? What you did was straight up the crime, Amara!!"

Isabella felt hurt. Her heart was aching for Alex. She thought that this beast in human skin was abusing him. This might be the reason why he ran off from his luxurious house and lived here. There was sharp pain of loss and pity as she looked at his divine looks.

She can see why Amara did what she did but still no matter what, He is still her brother, She should have never laid her hand on her brother, She should be one to protect him and yet she was the one taking advantage of him, Do Alex really enjoyed her him off or he just plays along with her as not to provoke her.

'Second option seems feasible, Amara does look scary and the words she says confirm that she is a total ruffian. I have to save Alex from the clutches of this beast.'

Isabella thought of it as she quickly tried to come up with a plan to save Alex from Amara, She was so lost in her thought that she didn't even notice the figure walking close to her.

"Will you relax and enjoy a little, Isabella? Here it will cool you off."

She didn't know when Alex was standing behind her, As he spoke he put his hand on her shoulders and started massaging her, Amara too looked curiously at her brother as she doesn't know what he was up to but she didn't want to upset him not when they became this close, So just keep silent and watched her brothers actions.

"Ahhhh...MUHMMMM~!!!"

Here as he touched her, A wave of pure feeling of bliss ran through her body rampaging in her, It was so sudden that she didn't even have time to understand what just happened, Her body reacted like a shaken carbonated can of drink that got suddenly opened, Large quantity of her love juice squirted out of her tiny slit as she too soiled the dining chair leaving a deep mark of her shame.

"Huff...wha... happe..."

In a flash of light, She fell back onto Alex's body with her skirt flipped up giving a holy view of her sacred cave, Her two folds were carefully sealed, hiding the entrance of the origin of sin and pleasure, She had no sign of hair, Which might be a genetic boon for her, As it helped to show off her beauty even more.

Her nubile body glistened with sweat and her breathing was heavy as she tried to regain her composure, Her D-cups breast heaving up and down with her breathing making her look even sexier as the lust in her eyes enough to ignite the primal instincts in any man.

"AHH.AHhhhhh...AHHHh...that was...so good..."

Isabella uttered these words without thinking as her mind was filled with lust and desire right now, She had never cummed this strong before, She didn't even know that she is capable of squirting, But she was not in the condition to worry about it, As lust took over her thinking ability as all control of action now purely done by the hormones and her desire.

"Did you just cum Isabella? Am I that good or are you just that weak?"

Alex slid his palm along with her hand as he lean close to her ear whispering to her, He was not surprised by her reaction though as he used ecstasy hands, Which was already a killer thing against a woman but on top of that he also has a blessing of double pleasure thanks to his incubus physique, So there is no way she can stand a chance but that didn't mean Alex will let her slide.

It's just his sadistic side kicked in now. As he said these words fully knowing they will disrupt her make her ashamed and confused but that's the beauty of teasing someone like her. It always gives a new taste, A unique flavour that normal things can't achieve.

"No...No, I...Tha- Ale-Mmmhhh"

Isabeall is startled to hearing words from Alex, She quickly turns around wanting to defend herself but couldn't find anything in her deference.

After all, Alex just touched her and she had this extreme reaction. She is the mother of two for god's sake. She was on the verge of crying thinking he would hate her for being a woman like this but before she could cry out, Her lips were locked by his.

Her eyes opened wide as that soft warm sensation spread on her sakura lips but knowing what was happening, She closed her eyes with a smile on her eyes as she was lost in the sweet taste of their kiss.

"Ummm.Ahh~!...Mummm!!~"

Very quickly Alex preyed on her mouth and slid across the barricade of her teeth. As his tongue entered her mouth, He started exploring it thoroughly. Soon his wandering tongue caught her soft one, and Then he coiled and swirled with hers as they quickly shared their saliva.

Isabella started moaning as even his kiss made her reach to the extreme. She was using every ounce of her willpower to not come as it would be really shameful to do two pre-ejaculation in a row but she was not sure she could hold back any longer.

Alex's hands also didn't waste time, They started to rome around her body, He felt everything, The softness of her breast to the firmness of her waist, The perky and bubbly ass to her silky thighs, He didn't leave an inch as his thoroughly felt everything of that should and should not be felt.

"Mm...Ahh...AHHh~!!"

Isabella was getting lost in the moment and the kiss. This is really happening, She is kissing Alex, She is kissing him while he is groping her entire body, She felt all kinds of emotions from this, There was a shame as knowing Alex is the same age as her son, There was desire was his slightly cold touch of hands burning fire in her, There was excitement as she knows that two pair of eyes looking enviably and jealousy at them.

All kinds of emotions were wreaking havoc in her mind and yet the most prominent being lust, A desire to devour the delicate man in front of her, The cold heart of her rejuvenated as once again a pure desire for raw lust took over her.

So her hands also do not stay ideal. She too started wondering about her hands on his chest and abdomen until she hesitantly goes a little down and holds his raging beast in her hands.

It was sticky as there was a mixture of Amara's saliva and his own cum but for Isabella what was not important, What mattered to her was that It throbbed when she touched him and there is no resistance from Alex to her this action.

This boosted her confidence and so she became even more daring. She slowly started stroking it, and Alex moaned in her mouth as his hands also reached down to her slit, Which right now was glistening with her love juices.

As his finger touched her folds, It sent a shiver down in her body. She was sensitive because of the recent orgasm and this touch was like water sprinkled on the hot pan. Her emotion spiked as she also started kissing Alex back, Her hand stroking also increased.

She was rubbing his cock with her slick fingers. With each stroke, it grew bigger and harder as it expanded to its limit. His thick hard shaft was pushing against her hand and with each motion, it slipped in between her two fingers.

"Mmph~!!"

Alex moaned into her mouth as Isabella's hand started to move faster and stronger. She was now starting to use both her hand and her other hand as well to give better stimulation to his cock.

"Fuck it!! Get here."

Alex can't stand this teasing anymore, He breaks their kiss and lifts Isabella up from her seat, Then puts her on the dining table.

(A/N : It became too big, I divided it into two parts, Next part will come in a few hours.

Chapter 78 78. Fucking Nathan's Mother II (R-18)

"OOOH~!"

Isabella wasn't expecting this, But she didn't resist. Instead, she stretched her white neck towards Alex pouting her sakura lips. Alex didn't waste a second and kissed her back passionately as she wrapped her legs around his waist.

He then adjusted his cock at the angle as he started rubbing his hand at her entrance to coat it with her juices , Isabella could feel his rock-hard cock pressing against her pussy,

She was still wet from before, And this gave Alex easy access to her hidden treasure hole.

"Ahhh~! AAAHH!!"

She bit her lip as she was suddenly taken aback by the hardness of his cock. Even as a mother of two it was the first time that she felt such a thing. She was expecting something softer, Something less intense, But she was wrong. This is the opposite of what she thought.

She gasped as she felt Alex's cock head sink into her.

"Mmm~!!~"

Alex started to push with slow movements. At first, Isabella was resisting out of instinct, But soon the thickness of his cock started to invade her pussy. Her inner walls were stretching to accommodate the intruder. The long-lost feeling came back to her.

"Mmph~!"

Isabella grunted in pain and pleasure, As her pussy stretched to accept the intruding member, He could feel her tightness and her warmth as well, He knew he is going deeper, He wants to enter her completely but he doesn't want to hurt her, So he has to be patient, Until he feels her inner wall start to open up for him.

"Mmph~!!"

Isabella could feel the pressure inside her, It was not too painful but it was certainly uncomfortable and weird, She didn't expect this much looseness, After all, she is a mother of two, And yet she felt as if her insides were parting to allow him entry, Her clit was also twitching, It was sensitive due to her arousal.

"Mmph... Mmph... Ahhh...hahh~"

Isabella was trying to adjust herself to his size, But it was a difficult task, She was being stretched beyond her limits and yet there was no pain, Only discomfort.

But Alex didn't give up. He continued to push with more force as he too enjoyed the feeling of her tight pussy. He was also enjoying the sight of her stretched pussy and how she is struggling to accommodate his girth.

"Mmph~!"

Isabella gasped as another inch slipped in. She is not sure how big he is but she knows he is so much bigger compared to her husband, the only man she ever had sex with.

She was also surprised that she could take it so easily. She was amazed by her body's abilities.

And so he continued to push himself in, Using all his strength on his waist to breach the distance between them, He pushed and thrust his hips forward until her ass cheeks hit his , Then without further ado started moving and forth as he started to fuck her.

"MMM~!"

Isabella screamed out loud, She was in pain but she loved it at the same time.

"Ahh~! AH~!"

She tried to resist at the beginning as her first reaction to his sudden moments, She tried to pull away from him, But she couldn't, The pleasure got to her head and she succumbed to his rhythm, She was in heaven, She was being fucked by the man others can only think of.

"Mmmmm~!"

Alex groaned as he felt her tight pussy squeeze him, It was so tight that he could feel her muscles contracting when he pulls back, Her inner walls were clinging to him and squeezing his cock, He was in amazement as he never thought that mother of two could can be this tight but that's the trait of heroin they always be perfect in this field.

"Mmm~!~"

Alex moaned deeply, He knew he will cum very soon as the both physical and mental plesure of fucking protagnist mother was too much, He started moving faster as he was getting closer to his peak.

"Ah~!~"

Isabella was also moaning, As she felt his cock pounding in her, She was loving this sensation, She was loving the feeling of having a Alex, A man inside her, In fact, She never expected she would want this, But she liked it, She likes this, So much. She never knew how much she missed this feeling all these years.

"Mmph, Mmph~!"

Isabella was breathing heavily, She tried to breathe through her nose but she couldn't, She was panting and moaning, She was getting close, Very close.

"Mmph~!"

Alex was breathing like a freight train, He was so close, He could feel the heat of his seed rising from his balls as head began to swell inside her.

"Ah~!"

He held her back head tight and deepen their kiss as he began to cum, He released load after load inside her, His cum was pulsating inside her womb, And feeling his hot seeds inside her sent Isabella into frenzy, She too was releasing her fluids as she also started orgasming from his cock.

"MmHnnn~!~"

She was screaming out loud as her own orgasm hit her, Her muscles were quivering as her body spasms uncontrollably, Her head was spinning as she was lost in the pleasure.

Alex too was cumming, He started spewing load after load inside Isabella, His cock was throbbing and leaking out his seed.

"Ahh~!"

She was gasping in Alex mouth as he kept pumping his seed deep inside her, He could feel his cum getting thicker and hotter, It was thickening and expanding within Isabella's tight pussy, And he was quite surprised by how big his cock got, There is no way it can fit inside her without tearing her apart. The blessing of Perfect D and Incubus physiques kicked in at this moment.

But he found out otherwise. He is still growing inside her and yet someone manages to expand more to accommodate him. As he continues to release his cum, He can feel his cock getting longer and wider, And he is still cumming.

"Ahhhhh...AHHHH~!"

Alex groaned as he continued to pump her full, He feels like his cock is going to explode any minute now, He feels like he is cumming forever.

"AHH... AHH...AHH~!"

Isabella is already lost in the pleasure, Her body is on fire, Her body is burning from the inside, She is feeling nirvana.

"AHHHH~!"

Her eyes rolled back, Her body was shaking violently, Her orgasm lasted for what seemed like an eternity.

"AHH~!"

She finally collapsed onto the table. Her body was spent. She couldn't move, Even just breathing was tiring for her.

Alex was still spurting his seed inside her, It was now leaking out of her pussy and running down her silky thighs, His cock was still throbbing like crazy and he could still feel it swelling even larger than before.

"Ahhhhhh~!~!"

He groaned as he kept cumming, His cock was throbbing inside her as his cum kept pouring in her tight pussy.

Isabella was in paradise, A warm place where nothing matters but to enjoy the moment and let her body do the rest. She was floating in the clouds.

She was feeling so light and happy, She was feeling so beautiful and sexy, All these feelings made her forget about her life, Her old self was gone and she is not aware whether she was dead or alive, She not even a head of family or a mother, Right now she was just a woman getting what she needs.

"Mmph~!"

Her body is trembling, Her arms are weak as she is holding herself up, Her legs are twitching and moving like jellyfish, Her mind is blank, and Everything around her is hazy.

Alex was also drained as he kept cumming inside her, He was still shooting his seed inside her while his cock stayed hard, He shot his last load and soon his cock softened, Then he pulled out as he did his cum dribbled out of her pussy.

Then he looked at her. She had just passed out, Which was given after this extreme sex and that too after such a long time, So he just corrected her clothes before going back to his seat where Amara looked at him with jealousy in her pink eyes.

"Are you jealous sister?"

Alex sat beside her and grazed her well-carved face, She looked at him with complicated emotions before her eyes became firm.

"Sister what I did wa-"

"Don't worry brother, I will find as many as a woman for you, So you don't have to suffer the pain."

Alex wanted to make some excuse but before he completed his sentence Amara said something that made him doubt his hearing.

"What do you mean-"

"I want pancakes mumm~"

Alex wanted answers but a third voice broke in between their brother and sisters again, Alex's head slowly turned to Rita with a lot of questions in his mind.

(A/N : Did you like it?

â€¢Yes

â€¢No

I decided each woman do deserve her own solo adventure with Alex before they make the squad, So have to wait for a foursome, Which will come soonĴ~%o

Like always thank you for reading and have a good day ģŸ~'.)

Chapter 79 79. NTRing Nathan I (R-18)

Alex turned around towards Rita, Thinking that he now had to also satisfy her but when he saw her, She was lying at the dining table fully passed out in her sleep, What she was mumbling in her sleep.

"This fatass even in sleep thinking about eating, I don't understand what you see in her brother?"

Amara, like always, was annoyed by Rita for disturbing her alone time with Alex, She didn't understand what her brother saw in Rita, She was not even feminine as a woman should be, Her aura rick a hint of masculinity. She was sure that her brother will not be in this beta woman and yet she also knows or at least thinks that Rita is Alex's girlfriend.

'Why her? Didn't he have Alia? Is that woman hurt my brother so much that he is now going after a safety net woman?'

Amara couldn't help but think about it. She heard the song he sang for Alia, After all that was trending everywhere, It's hard not to hear it. She couldn't describe how jealous and sad she felt. She even wanted to drag that woman in the feet of her brother but she stopped herself from doing extreme things as through song she felt how much he cares about that woman.

If she did anything like that to her, Alex would surely get angry at her, Which was the last thing she ever wanted to do, So she kept her mum.

"Cut her some slack sister, It's been a long time since she get a proper sleep."

Alex rubs his plan on sleeping Rita's head as he utters these words.

Knowing her plot, He also knows her struggle and pain. As a killer she was always on her guard to be ready for unseen conditions, So there is no way to get sleep at all. All she ever wanted was a place to call home, That is the only reason for her struggle all this time.

Now here she felt safe and because of her orgasm, Her mind also relaxed which gave her fatigue a chance to appear and made her pass out in deep sleep.

"Brother...I understand now, Sorry for your pain brother."

Amara obviously misunderstood Alex's words as she used her pretty wild imagination to create vivid and sensual images in her mind, Hurting and making herself jealous from it. When she spoke there was also little apology and pain in her tone.

"?????"

Alex now doesn't know what to say. This woman in this world has quite a scary imagination. He can let Rose slide as she is a dumbass but Amara too acting like this? He didn't know what shit she cooked in her mind.

"Can you explain, sister?"

So Alex asked, He needs to know the thinking pattern of women in this world to make his plans flawless. He was not blessed by the super luck of a protagonist that saves his ass when things go south.

"What do I explain?"

Amara didn't understand what Alex was talking about, As she put her finger on her lips and asked in confusion, If Alex did not want answers right now, He should have gone for a second round with her mouth service as she looked so cute.

"Explain what you mean by pain?"

Alex holds back his urges, This is a drawback of having infinite stamina for sex, He can't get satisfied for a long time, After the sage period he will be as horny as a 20-year virgin, It's good that there is now the blessing of Incubus physique and a lot of women around or his urges should be unbearable.

"Did you not feel pain? I understand that a brother with great power comes with a lot of problems and has a big prize to pay, So you don't have to explain, I understand.*

After hearing Alex, Amara understood what he was talking about, So she gave confident and understanding expressions to Alex as she said these words to him, Encouraging and supporting him in the pain he is in, Which Alex himself was unaware of.

'What the fuck did you understand?'

Alex doesn't understand if it is the power of his Peach Blossom Eyes or the way women think in this world but either way, It was Amara who was doing this to herself, The only thing he was confused about is, Why? Why do they think like this here?

"No Amara, With great power comes great booty."

Well, Alex can't help it, He is a man after all. Although Amara ruined the legendary quote he still did not let go of the opportunity, Even when he was confused as fuck he will not break the code of conduct of man of his world.

"Yes, Yes brother you are right, Say do you want me to call a few more women for you? Don't worry they all are virgins. You don't have to use an old hag like her."

Amara, other than getting offended or even laughing at his joke, Took his joke seriously as she once again offered to arrange a woman for him. Alex was so confused that even the hamster in his head got exhausted trying to figure out why she is the way she is.

"Ahhh~!!! Alex mumm-!!!! What!? I am so sorry Alex!?"

Alex didn't want to talk with Amara anymore, He was more interested in the woman she was talking about, Ahem It's not that he was that lustful, He is just horny.

But the shocked voice of Isabella put a hold on that plan, Right now Isabella was touching her body and her slit as it was still leaking sticky white liquid of Alex as he overfilled her before, It's just that now she come back to her senses, She understands what big of a crime she committed.

In her eyes, Amara was abusing Alex and now she too became accomplice of it. She hated herself for that and still, she wanted more. It's like a forest fire in her body, It can't be controlled, Only another fire of passion can extinguish it.

"Sorry for what love?"

Alex spoke to her gently as he walked towards her, His sweet close intimate words of love stunned her in place, She just stared at his heavenly face without putting any resistance when he arched his hands between her legs and lifted her in a princess hug, After that he carried her like that in his bedroom.

After all, he didn't forget he had to fuck her in his bed to complete the mission, He was eager to complete this mission as not only the rewards are quite looking but he will also go to give Nathan a first dose of NTR.

Just imagine a villain fucking the protagonist's mother as he was hearing or seeing everything? Will that break him apart or awaken some weird fetish in him? As it's given that this protagonist has some weird fetishes but no judgement from Alex's side though, As he was more into Nathan's mother, Quite literally.

"Huh!? Alex no you don't have to do this, I can he-Mummmm!!~"

Isabella only came back to her senses when Alex lay her on the rigid softness of his bed. He knows what will happen next. Even if they just did it a few moments before she still wanted more, She wants to feel him inside her again.

The way he stretches her inside, The sense of euphoria it gives her. She wanted to experience that once again. She can't wait any longer but unlike before she does have some sense remaining right now after all her lust was not as heavy as before.

She thought Amara is the one making Alex do this thing, He was just a victim and her doing this will be also digging that wound deep, So she wanted to help him, Say that it he doesn't have to do anything that he didn't want but before her words fully uttered, Her soft lips were sealed by his warm ones.

She blanked out as his tongue broke into her mouth, That wet slippery tongue of his quickly started exploring her mouth, It was very strong and yet hot. She felt like she would melt away.

"Uhhhhh...Aaaahh..."

The sensation of his tongue made her lose control. She didn't know when she too started to respond to him. They were sharing each other's saliva, And still, this felt nothing but hot and sexy to her.

"Huh..mmm!~"

She once again gave in to her lust, A sexy sensual moan of her rang in that small bedroom, Alex with his nimble fingers unbuckled her shirt buttons before removing it completely, Then he moved it downside And started to pull down her surprisingly bold black laced panties with ease, No wonder he able to easily do everything before and this panties come in between as it was barely even covering the entrance of her slit.

But Alex didn't think much and in n immediately went to her erect clit. He is so strong and fast, and He made her body tense up as her legs were already spread open for him.

"Huff...Alex...Uhhmm~!"

Her breathing became heavier as his fingers rubbed her clit, He is so experienced as his fingers slowly slide inside her wet pussy, His touch makes her hips move from the pleasure he is giving her.

"Don't stop~!~"

She begged him in his mouth, As She couldn't help herself from moaning loudly, Her hands started wandering on his head and strong back in a quick circular motion.

Alex knew that she is not holding anything back at this point, His one hand moved upwards and break the black bra that was holding her twins, As her bra got removed, They show the might of their D-cup and jiggled to celebrate their freedom but that didn't last long as evil hand of Alex once again rudely grabbed on of them and pinched and fondled.

"Ahhhh~!!"

She came hard, Her body spasmed and twitched as she felt his fingers dig deep into her inner walls, It was like all the pleasure points in her pussy were concentrated on his fingers alone.

It's like he is hitting every single spot inside her and the pleasure was so intense that she felt that she might die from it.

"Ohhh~!~"

She came again and again, She couldn't even see clearly in front of her, She could only hear his moaning, His big hand that was fondling her hands also giving another sensation that his gentle one didn't.

She was afraid she was addicted to this feeling- No it was Alex, She was addicted to getting this feeling from him, His hands were like magic in them, Finding her pleasure points that even she didn't know about.

She never knew how good it feels to be touched by Alex, His fingers, His mouth, His cock, Everything about him, He was so good at it.

"Nnnn, Ahhhhh~!~"

She moaned loudly, Her body was full of goosebumps, and Her muscles were trembling and shaking. She felt like she was melting away, All her thoughts were consumed by the pleasure he was giving her.

"Yesssss~!"

She screamed as an explosion of orgasm hit her, Her body tensed up and shook violently with the force of her powerful climax, It was like a bomb exploding inside her, Her mind was gone, She just lost herself completely for a moment in pure ecstasy, She couldn't remember anything anymore but the pleasure, It was beyond imagination.

Chapter 80 80. NTRing Nathan II (R-18)

Isabella regained her little senses after her explosive orgasm, Just to see Alex on top of her. He had a wide grin on his face. Seeing him like that she once again felt ashamed but that emotion quickly replaced the excitement as she felt his hot cock head in her front of wet pussy.

He was rubbing its glans at her labia giving her an indescribable feeling, She just cummed now, Her body was very sensitive and with his stimulation, She felt like reaching once again.

"Isabella, Do you want this?"

Alex asked her while his cock head teasing her pussy lips, She nodded immediately, Her pussy wanted to be fucked by him and it was demanding for attention as he could feel it twitch every time he touches it.

"Then beg me for it."

Alex at some point took out his phone and started recording her, He not planning on sending this recording to Nathan, though it will be fun to see how he will react seeing his mother begging for him, His sworn enemy for dick under him but he still not felt right doing that, As he will giving Nathan a proof that he can use against him.

So he can't do that. The only reason he is doing this is to make Isabella more accepting of the thing he was about to do next as it will not be this extreme, So she will agree to it.

"Please fuck me, Please make me yours! Please cum inside me, I want to feel your seed fill my womb, I want to bear your children!"

She screamed loudly. It was very unexpected even for Alex. He felt embarrassed for hearing her wanting his children but he didn't care. She was already in no condition of thinking anything right now. Which is way better for him than he planned about, He also finds out that it's quite easy to make a sexually frustrated woman give in to lust.

"You're so dirty and desperate Isabella, But I like it, I'll let you have it as you wish."

Alex spoke as he got what he wanted, So with sudden action he pushed half of his cock deep into her pussy.

"Oooh~!"

She moaned loudly at the penetration. Her pussy was too tight for his cock even though they just did it just a moment before, Which is all thanks to his Perfect D. It changed its size again to adjust to her demands.

"Ahhh~!Ummmmm~"

Isabella felt like she was being ripped apart by his rod but she didn't really mind. She felt as if she was finally complete again, That fulfilling sensation of getting filled was finally back.

"Ahhhh~!~"

So he pushed even harder until he was all the way inside her. His crotch hit her bare ass as a clap sound rang in the room. His thick meat was stretching her vaginal walls. It was amazing how such a big cock fit so well in her tiny pussy.

"Ummhmm...Ahh~!!"

Isabella moaned deeply as he touched the deepest parts of her body, She never felt sexier than this, Wanted for once in her life, His cock was entering her at the perfect angle and depth and she can feel him moving deeper inside her, His shaft moving in and out of her with ease, Making her feel as if there was nothing between them.

"Alex, I'm going to cum!"

She exclaimed in pleasure as her orgasm hit her hard, Her pussy convulsed around his cock as she cried out in ecstasy, Her pussy squeezing him tighter than ever before, An orgasm that came from deep down within her.

"Cum for me, Cum for me Isabella, Cum all over my cock!"

Alex gave her what she wanted, And he also made sure to record this moment, But he wasn't going to send the video to Nathan or anyone else for that matter, It will be just for train her.

"Aaaahhhhhh~!~!"

She spasmed in pleasure, Her body shook as she felt her climax, Every time his thick cock touched her G-spots she shuddered violently, Her pussy clenching tightly around his shaft as if trying to milk his cock dry.

"Wow, Your pussy is so hot, So tight and wet. You're such a good gir-mother.""

Alex said to her as he saw her orgasm, His cock still buried deep inside her, He could feel her juices flowing out of her pussy as it dripped on his balls, All because of his Perfect D.

"Mm~"

The pleasure was overwhelming as she felt the orgasm rippling through her body, She felt like she was going to pass out, She couldn't take anymore, Her mind was blank, Nothing mattered right now except for that overwhelming pleasure coursing through her body, She felt like she was melting into a puddle of goo.

Ring Ring

Suddenly Isabella's phone rang in her jacket, Which he threw on the ground way before. When Alex heard the ringing corner of his lips upturned as he knew who the call was from.

"Hey, Are you not going to see who is calling?"

Alex stopped his hip moments and looked deeply into her eyes with evil intention. After all, he asked her if she wanted to leave but didn't take his cock out of her pussy, enjoying the massage her wall giving him.

"Fo-Foget about it, Now please Fuck ME!!~"

Isabella was not in her clear mind, Only lust and passion running through her brain. She didn't even think who might be calling before she refused to pick up the phone, As she doesn't care who is on the other side of the line, Right now she just wanted to be filled up by Alex.

"Hey it might be important, Wait a minute, Let me pick it for you Plop"

"No...Wai....Arggg!!~"

She didn't want it but that didn't mean Alex didn't want it. It was a bonus he was waiting for a while. So he took out his dick from her pussy, Which made a plop sound. Then at lightning speed, he went to the place where he threw her jacket and pulled out her phone.

Isabella of course was annoyed by that but she didn't say anything, She just wished he would come back quickly.

'Hehe~ As I thought, He was the one calling it.'

Alex took a look at the caller Id and laughed a little as his sadistic side came out in full force. He didn't waste any time as he once again went back to the bed on top of Isabella as he inserted his cock inside her before answering the call.

"Hello, mom? Hello? I am not hearing anything! Hello!? Are you having a network problem? Anyway, did you deal with that bastard Alex? Did he cry or beg for you to let him go? Mom? Since when was there a problem with the network in this city?"

It's no surprise the caller was Nathan, The protagonist of this novel and the son of a woman who Alex right now was balls deep inside.

"Mm... Mmnnnn..."

Isabella felt that Alex's cock once again stretching her insides, It was starting to throb inside her. She didn't even keep her voice down as she moaned loudly without caring about the person Alex was in line with her beloved son, Her mind only had sex right now.

Thankfully, when Alex picked up the call, He put it on mute. As he knows the protagonist's Nathan's habit, He will talk a little nonsense in the beginning even when he doesn't get any reply from the person he was speaking with. All he cares about is telling others what he wants. This only makes it easier for him.

'Do I turn off the mute? Let him hear how loudly his single widowed mother moans below me, This is what he should want right? A happy home for his mother?

Yeah, Alex read the plot of the novel so he knew what intention this son had for his mother, But as always the hypocritical personality of the protagonist came out. Even though he wanted to bang his mother, He never said it but gave some high-sounding reason and whatnot until he put her to sleep in the plot.

But this hypocrisy backfired on him, Now he lost one of the key member of his harem, And most importantly the worst thing that can happen to a man is that his enemy was banging his mother now, If he knew about it he might cry tears of blood.

"Sorry mister she is busy right now, Please call later."

Beep Beep

But Alex thought differently, He changed his voice thanks to his god-level singing and said this before cutting off the call a second before, Enough time for him to hear the loud breathing and moaning of Isabella, His mother but not enough to figure it out what is happening here.

This will make Nathan's life living hell as the two contradicting thoughts were enough to make him go crazy, He will do the job of Alex for him. Also, the main reason he did this is that he wants to see the face of Nathan when he says it to him that he is his new dad. Ask him to call him dad too.

"Wh-Why did you stop!?"

Isabella didn't know how much deep shock this one phone call did to Nathan but even if she did, Right now she will not care. All she wanted was to feel that tearing pleasure of pain, Which only Alex can give her.

"Sorry for that, Some insignificant person call it, Here I will start now *Bang"

He started pounding her like he had a vengeance and she enjoyed each thrust of his cock. It was so good to feel something awaking inside her, As if the void between her legs was finally being filled. She felt her pussy contracting and relaxing every time he penetrated her, Like her pussy was a natural hole designed just for this man, As it fit him perfectly.

"Mmm..Nn~!~"

Isabella's moans were getting louder as she felt her orgasm approaching, She was so close to cumming again, Alex too reached his limit as the mental and physical satisfaction were overwhelming, So he sped up his thrusts.

"Ahhh~!"

She moaned loudly as she felt her climax hit her hard, Her pussy spasmed around his cock as she cried out in pleasure, Her pussy tightening around his shaft as if milking it dry.

"AHHH~!~"

His cock stretched her pussy as he plunged deeply inside her, Her orgasm was so strong that her whole body shook, Her pussy clamping onto his shaft as her inner walls squeezed his cock, Her pussy squeezing him like a lemon.

"Oh god!~"

Alex could feel his cock twitching and jerking inside her, As her orgasm rippled through her body. He held her hips and pounded her faster, Filling her pussy with his thick cock, As he felt his orgasm was about to burst.

"I'm...going to CUM!~"

He shouted as he pushed his cock deep in her, His cock throbbing inside her pussy, He could feel his seeds gushing inside her pussy, She was ready to accept his seeds.

"AHHHHHHHH!!!!!"

Isabella screamed loudly as she felt the powerful orgasm was approaching close to her.

"AAAHHH~!~"

Her pussy contracted even tighter around his cock as her orgasm reached its peak, Her pussy squeezing him tightly as she felt his cock twitching inside her, Her pussy squeezing his cock as if trying to milk the last drop of his cum.

"Ahhh~!~"

He groaned in pleasure as he felt his cock pulsating inside her pussy, He could feel his hot lava-like cum filling her up, He could feel every inch of his dick shudder as he shot his load inside her,

"AHHH~!~"

He groaned in pleasure, The warm liquid filling her womb, It was so thick and creamy that she filled up to the brim.

"Mm.YESS!!~"

Isabella moaned loudly in satisfaction as she felt her pussy being filled up by his hot semen. She could feel Alex's cum dripping out of her pussy, The warmth of his seed mixing with the heat of her pussy.

Alex came a lot more than he expected, As he had already cummed a lot before, But it wasn't his first time, And he already experienced this kind of feeling before. Finally, he took his half-softened dick out of her, He looked at her pussy he just ravaged in appreciation, His cum was so thick and creamy, It felt like velvet against her tender walls.

"Mmmm~"

Isabella moaned softly as she felt Alex's cum oozing out of her pussy, She could feel his warm seed coating her insides. She looked at Alex with her misty eyes before she closed them and fell asleep in exhaustion.

"Now, I should check notifications."

Alex just covered her in a blanket before getting down from the bed, Now he wanted to see his gain.

Bang Shatter

"WHO WAS THAT MAN, AHFFF!!!"

Nathan threw his phone on the ground in a rage, His mind was now in chaos as a lot of thoughts appeared in his mind, He was sure he heard the heavy breathing of some woman and he had a bad feeling that, He felt it was the voice of his mother.

"Black come out."

Nathan yelled top of his lungs in rage, As his voice fall a figure of a woman in a black mask appeared behind him.

"Contact white and ask her where my mother is right now."

He didn't even wait for her to speak as he commanded her, He wanted an answer as soon as possible.

"Tha- Okay master."

Black wanted to say something but she hesitated before deciding not to say anything and vanished out of thin air as she came here.

"It was not my mother, It can't be, Ahfff!!!"

When he was alone, He tried hard to calm his heart. He wanted a pat on his chest but the bandages on him would not allow it. When he tried to do it forcefully he shifted the bone as a sharp pain hit him, He was yelling and shouting but the one person who was supposed to take care of, Was not there as he himself sent her away.

So he had to suffer the pain for a while, But this would be just the beginning of the series of pain he was going to face soon.
