Chapter 1266-1270

Chapter 1266

The Norman family's First Elder was in disbelief at what he saw. "That's impossible. The White family doesn't have any middle-grade spiritual tool as I recall, especially a flying sword at that. Such a spiritual tool is even rare! Our swords failed to fly faster than theirs. Could their sword be an upper-grade spiritual tool?"

He was not hallucinating or dreaming-everyone else saw the same thing, after all.

Darryl said with a cold expression on his face. "Never thought the White family would get lucky and score themselves a rare item from who knows where. If this is an upper-grade spiritual tool, it'll be able to increase quite an amount of combat power! If Nash uses this sword, I won't be able to take him down on my own!"

"By the way, who's that young man," a young man chimed in after he spotted them, "and why does it seem like Daniella is well -acquainted to him?"

"Daniella seems to call him Jack!" added another.

"Jack, that illegitimate child?" The Norman family's second prodigies like us are compatible with Daniellita!" scoffed Conley Norman, chin raised high haughtily.

In their opinion, the White' flying sword is only an uppergrade spiritual tool and not an ultimate-grade spiritual tool, even though it was much faster than their flying sword. After all, there were only a handful of ultimate-grade spiritual tools.

The competition's venue was at the bottom of Kobe Mountain. The top family among the Eight Reclusive Families would announce the rules and rewards of the competition once everyone had gathered.

There was a small town at the bottom of Kobe Mountain where, due to its generous Chi, many would train.

The Eight Reclusive Families and a few second or third-class reclusive families would arrive earlier before the competition started to have a good rest. They would then leave together and gather at the empty ground outside the forest located at the bottom of Kobe Mountain.

"Haha... We're so fast! I'd love to see the look on Master Norman's face!" chirped the gleeful Daniella, extremely happy with herself on the flying sword.

"You should try to have a low-profile. After all, our White family don't want to offend the Norman family!" quipped Jack as he wore an awkward smile. "We can't afford to be engaged in several huge fights. We need to try our best in increasing our overall strength so that the other families won't ever belittle us."

Lancelot and the others were embarrassed when they heard this. They never expected that Jack would make such a comment toward Daniella without fearing she would be upset.

Surprisingly, Daniella, instead of grumbling, blushed instead as she lowered her head. "Alright, I get it," she muttered.

"I'll listen to everything you say in the future, alright?"

Chapter 1267

Many were baffled by what Daniella had said? What did she mean, listen to everything he would say in the future? Why did that sound like a conversation between a couple?

Jack was just as startled. He could only smile sheepishly as he looked in front of him while urging the sword to fly forward.

With this flying sword, the group arrived at the outskirts of the town under Kobe Mountain that night.

Jack stopped the flying sword when they arrived at the main entrance. "Alright, let's get down and walk in. It's best to keep a low-profile, too, seeing as it's a hassle if someone set their eyes on such a precious item."

Nash nodded in satisfaction. "Alright, let's head in."

Jumping down from the flying sword, they walked toward the entrance after Jack made it much smaller and hid it into his martial ring.

"Seems like we're the early birds. It won't be easy to get accommodation had we come much later." The First Elder TER smiled bitterly. "Back then, we'd only be able to look for caves outside the city to stay in if we failed to find a place to stay."

"Haha...! We have to thank Young Master Jack for his flying sword; we wouldn't get here at such speed had it not been for his sword?" Mason chuckled heartily. Although the White family suffered a serious loss with what happened previously, they were still confident toward their development, especially since Jack's was immensely talented and had the fighting prowess of the real-god stage's intermediate level.

Together with this ultimate grade spiritual tool, his combat power was compatible with the masters of the real-god stage's peak. It would be even better should Jack break into the realgod level's final stage- the White family would be graced with another master of the real-god level's peak stage should Jack achieve such height.

Such an addition would increase the entire family's position to a whole new height.

After all, the seven other reclusive families basically had two of such masters while some had three or four.

The existence of a master in the peak stage real god level was an important measure of a family's overall strength.

In the past, there were only seven first-class reclusive families, but along the line, the White family grew stronger after constant development. Although they only had one master in the peak stage realgod level, their overall strength was not bad, which was why everyone was ready to add another reclusive family.

The White family emerged victorious after competing against several other powerful families, and that was how they obtained the acknowledgment of others and became the last in the Eight First-Class Reclusive Families.

As they got closer to the entrance, Jack and the others were suddenly stopped by guards at the entrance that they never saw before.

"What's the meaning of this?" Nash frowned, rather unhappy that he was blocked. Nothing like this had happened in the past.

One of the guards walked forward and gestured politely with his hands before he resounded, "Greetings, Master White! Kobe City had always been controlled by the small clan, Kobe Clan, and had never asked for entrance fees in the past. However, you might not know it, but the Kobe Clan had started depending on the firstclass reclusive family, the Hunt family. They're now considered a dependent clan of the Hunt family!"

Nash's face darkened. "So there' s an entrance fee for entering the city this year?"

The guard nodded. "That's right. This is the Hunt family's orders, and there's nothing we can do about it. We're only subordinates who obey orders. I m sure Master White can understand this, right?"

Chapter 1268

The news shocked Nash. The Hunt family obviously did this to rake in profit.

It was obvious that a small clan like the Kobe Clan would not simply depend on the Hunt family all of a sudden. The Hunt family must have searched for them, and the profit must be shared between both parties later on.

However, the Hunt family was a huge clan, and they had four masters in the real god level's peak stage. They also had several masters in the final stage of the real-god level.

What could the White family even argue about when faced with such a powerful family?

Nash could only smile at the guards. "Now how can we make it harder for you? This is something we should do! We'll do it! Tell me: how many spirited stones do we need to pay?"

The guard smiled. "Hmm... Two lower-grade spirited stones per person, and I see that there are fifty-two people here. That means that a thousand and forty lower-grade spirited stones would be enough?"

"Over a thousand?" The corners of the First Elder's mouth twitched as he heard the rather expensive fee. They needed to pay spirited stones to enter the city, and it was too expensive at two pieces per person.

After all, such items were needed for grandmasters and needed training.

"Yes. This is the order they've given, and there's nothing we can do about it," said the guard rather impatiently as he eyed the First Elder. "I don't believe the White family can't even come up with such a small amount of spirited stones. If that 's the case, you guys aren't living up to the reputation of being one of the Eight Reclusive Families!"

The First Elder was dumbfounded. It startled him how such a person of the Kobe Clan would address them disrespectfully.

Nonetheless, he knew he could not get agitated as the Kobe Clan was supported by the Hunt family in silence. Everybody wanted to please the Hunt family, so offending them clearly proved to be fruitless.

"About that... Can the price be reduced? How about a thousand pieces?" offered the smiling Nash.

"Master White, isn't your request making it difficult for us? This rule is set by the upper management, and as their subordinates, how can we simply reduce the number of spirited stones you need to pay? What if they find out and have us make up for the lost stones?" The man stretched his body and said extremely lazily. "Sigh! Never thought that the White family, one of the Eight Reclusive Families, isn't as candid as some second-class reclusive families."

Nash's facial expression continued to darken, though he flipped his hand and came up with 1,040 lower-grade spirited stones and passed it to them." By the way, how long can these stones last us?"

The man took the spirited stones and calculated them before smilingly saying, "This is the entrance fee, and we won't ask for any other payment if you don't leave the city after you enter. However, if you enter the city today and come out tomorrow, you'll need to pay again if you wish to re-enter. After all, too many people have visited recently, and we can't possibly remember if you guys have paid or not, right?"

"You're right." Giving a small smile, Nash waved his hand and led the group into the city.

Just as they walked past the guards, they heard them speaking, "Who knew that the White family would be so stingy ... They negotiated on a small amount of entrance fee. I can't believe it!"

Chapter 1269

Jack stopped walking and closed his hands into fists as he was extremely angry.

Such a fee should not have been taken from them in the first place and they had never asked for this fee in the past. It was unfair as it was something the Hunt family came up with to make money. Who knew that the other party would take the payment as if it was reasonable. They even dared look down at them because they had the support of powerful people behind their backs.

"Let it be!" Nash glanced at Jack and smiled helplessly. "This is how the world is. The right to speak goes to those who are more powerful. The Hunt family has four masters of the peak stage real god level. They also have a large number of masters who are in the final and intermediate stage of the real god level. We aren't compatible with them as they have high level martial skills. Not only the Hunt family, we also need to give way to the other families!"

Jack naturally understood that his actions also represent the White family. He loosened his fists after nodding in agreement and said, "Alright, I understand. Those families would not dare to bully us or look down at us if we strengthen the White family!"

"Yes, there's no other ways. Let's try our best to strengthen the White family!" Nash sighed. The 1000 over pieces of spirited stones were sufficient for the younger generations of the White family to use for one month.

However, they could not do anything when they were faced with such domineering charges. They were not the only one, even families like the Cabello family would have to pay the spirited stones when they arrived.

"We should not have entered the city if we knew that this was going to happen. We could have found a cave and stayed outside for several days!" the Second Elder said angrily as he walked. He had obviously never experienced such abbreviation.

"That would not work!" Nash shook his head. "That would be nothing if this was ten years ago. However, we're one of the Eight Reclusive Families not and a member of the first-class reclusive family. The others might look down on us or despise us if we stayed outside. Especially those families who lost to us, they're working hard to increase their strength with hopes to pull us down and make themselves one of the first-class reclusive families!"

The Second Elder nodded helplessly. "That's true. After all, it had been mentioned in the last meeting that the first-class reclusive families have to remain at eight families within the next twenty years while the other families are second or third -class reclusive families. There will be a discussion for the increase of the numbers after twenty years!"

As it had turned dark, the group soon found a small hotel.

"Oh my, isn't this Master White?" The owner immediately recognized Nash and welcomed them happily.

"Boss Lane, we need fifty-two rooms. How much spirited stones do you need?" Nash smiled at the other party. "We should follow the old rules and how about a 20% discount?"

Boss Lane smiled bitterly after he heard this. "The budget is too tight. Master White, the other hotels don't give discounts nowadays and after calculating everything, you would need one hundred pieces of spirited stones. What if I only take ninety pieces from you?"

"One hundred pieces?" Nash was slightly surprised when he heard this. "Isn't fifty enough based on the previous pricing? Why is it so expensive?"

"Brother, the price has increased. The price of everything has increased over the year. Everybody had increased their prices and if I don't, those in the same industry might cause me trouble. It's impossible for me to go against those big bosses, right? You need to put yourself in my shoe!" The boss smiled bitterly. He raised his hands and reassured Nash as he was afraid that Nash did not want the rooms.

"Brother, ninety bucks is already a discount for you. I can swear to you if you don't believe me. You can take a look at the other hotels out there. Those hotels are more expensive and they don't offer discounts!"

Chapter 1270

Boss Lane smiled when he saw that Nash was still hesitant. "Master White, my rooms here are only enough for you and five hundred other people. If you're set here, I'll put a sign out there to indicate that we are full. If you don't plan to check in here, you will need to go look at other hotels and let other people come in later!"

Nash smiled slightly. "There's still another five days and it's a total of four hundred and fifty spirited stones, right?"

The boss nodded. "That's right. This is already considered a very low price!"

Nash flipped his hand to come up with his spirited stones and was ready to pay.

"Hold on, we are staying here!" Unexpectedly, the sound of a man speaking could be heard at this moment.

The corners of Nash's mouth immediately twitched several times when he heard this voice.

The person speaking was none other than Master Trenton of the Lagorio family.

"Haha... Nash White, what a coincidence. Who knew that I would meet you when I've just arrived in Kobe City!" Diana also smiled coldly and stared at the White hatred. She wanted to kill the entire White family so badly.

"Master Lagorio, what a coincidence. Who knew that we would meet so soon!"

Although he knew clearly that he would definitely meet members of the Lagorio family and was prepared for it, he had no idea that it would happen so soon.

Trenton humphed coldly before his sight finally landed on Jack. "You're Jack? You really look like Nash!"

"Master Lagorio, I know you hate us but your daughter asked for what happened to her. Not only did she work together with the Third Elder to plan a rebel, she even poisoned my father. Haha... Let's not talk about my father. Would you put up with it if something like this happened to you?" Jack laughed and showed no signs of backing down. He wanted to wipe out the Lagorio family so badly. He would have done it if the White family was not strong enough while his father wanted to develop the White family.

The Lagorios carried themselves as if they did not think that Lily made a mistake, they even blamed his father. It was true that a father would raise a daughter of the same character.

Trenton felt ashamed when he heard what Jack said. After all, it!

was true that his daughter cheated on Nash and even did something despicable when she poisoned Nash.

"You guys must have vented yourself since you guys killed so many members of the Lagorio family? No matter what, my daughter and Master White were once married. Directly destroying her training is even more brutal than killing her!" Diana was extremely angry. She felt a wave of heartbreaking pain when she recalled how haggard her daughter looked previously.

After all, their daughter was treated previously before Lana was married to the White family!

"Haha... Are you blaming my father for not killing her?" Jack laughed coldly when she heard this. "If that's the case, you just need to tell me earlier. My father won't need to go through so much trouble and could have killed her if you told us earlier!"

"You..." Trenton could not hold it back anymore. He clenched his fists and appeared in front of Jack in a flash. His punch was flying directly at Jack.

Trenton travelled speedily and there was no sign that he was making moves. Everything caught people by surprise.

Nash also had no idea that this old man would be so shameless and make a move toward his son's younger generation. He quickly clenched his fists and was ready to rush over and stop them.

Unfortunately, the current Trenton was so much faster and Nash was obviously unable to make it in time.

"B*stard, how dare you?"

Chapter 1271-1275

Chapter 1271

Nash gritted his teeth in anger. He said as he rushed over. "I will wipe out your entire family if you dare kill my son!"

"Humph!" Trenton only had hatred in his heart at this moment. He planned to hurt Jack badly if he did not kill Jack.

After all, the younger geniuses from every family would enter this competition. Jack was the White family master inheritor and it was impossible for him to not join the competition.

Jack would become a huge joke if he did not join the competition.

Hence, he did not need to kill Jack. He only needed to hurt Jack badly and Nash would have nothing to say when Jack is killed by somebody else during the competition.

After all, this competition was a life and death competition. Deaths in the competition could not be looked into after they came down from the stage. This was what all the families agreed to all this time.

Many times, some geniuses of some families would kill their enemies in the competition without any restriction when they had contradictions in the outside world. This was because the firstclass aristocratic families could not say anything even if the young masters from second-class aristocratic families killed young masters from first-class aristocratic families.

Although there was a small possibility for this to happen, there were many of such things happening in the past.

He was afraid that Nash would get crazy over him accidentally killing Jack and both families would start a war. After all, the Lagorio family was not the White family's opponent right now.

Hence, Trenton, who knew that Jack was at the primary level of the real god level, controlled his power and combat power slightly at this moment.

Bomb!

Jack clenched his fists and met the other party's punch. He was sent several steps backward before he managed to stabilize himself with a step on the floor.

"What!" Trenton, who originally planned to hurt Jack, actually moved several backward too. The attacks of these two people were comparable and waves of emotions filled his heart. After all, his combat power was comparable to that of the intermediate stage real god level and Jack actually received the attack in such a relaxing way?

"B*stard!" Nash had already rushed over and punched towards Trenton at this moment.

Trenton was startled. He immediately curled his hands into fists and Chi moved around them. He dared not to respond with negligence and quickly met the attack with a punch.

Bomb!

Another huge bomb sound was heard. The next second, Trenton was sent backward several meters before he managed to stabilize himself. Nash on the other hand stood there stably and did not move one step backward.

"This power..." Nash was stunned and immediately understood what Trenton planned to do. This old man did not use his full power when he fought with Jack just now. He was surprised to discover that Trenton only displayed his full energy when they were fighting. Trenton's power was actually at the peak stage of the real god level.

"You've actually broken through into the peak stage of the real god stage?" Nash retracted his punch and had a serious look on his face.

Trenton only had the training level of the last stage real god level previously and there was a huge difference between their combat power. Who knew that this old man would break through? That was troublesome.

He could see that the other party's power was not very stable yet and he was not very handy with his control over power. It looked like she had just broken through recently.

If some more time passed, his combat power might increase more after he had adapted to the newly increased power.

"Haha... You never expected this? Nash White, I've broken through!" Trenton laughed loudly. "I only planned to test your son's level, why are you being so nervous? I did not expect your son to really be in the intermediate stage of the real god level. He is really talented!"

Chapter 1272

Jack was not dumb. He was also surprised when the other party rushed over.

However, he soon understood that this old man dared not kill him and was only planning to hurt him.

After all, if this old man killed him here at this moment, his father and the elders of the White family would go into a war with them. The Lagorios were obviously not the opponents of the White.

Hence, this old man wanted him to be hurt and let the other opponents kill him in the competition.

However, Trenton had really underestimated Jack's combat power. Jack thought that the other party had the fighting prowess at the final stage of the real god level so he did not use his entire strength too. In the end, he ended in the same situation as the other party. He believed that if he used his full strength, Trenton would be unable to kill him even if he used his full strength.

"Haha... This test of yours really caught me by surprise!" Jack laughed but he had already made up his mind. He would definitely kill this old man when there is a chance in the future.

He was lucky that his father and the elders were here today. If that was not the case, this old man would definitely kill him without holding back.

"This young man is really at the intermediate stage of the real god level?" Diana's facial expression was also darkened.

Jack's talents caused her to secretly feel unsettled. Such talents were hard to come by, especially when this young man came back from the outside world. If this guy had always been training in the White family and did not lack martial resources, his current fighting prowess...

Nash's facial expression also darkened. Trenton had broken through and achieved the peak stage of the real god level. This meant that their family also had a master in the peak stage of the real god level and the overall strength of their family was hugely raised.

The current Lagorio family had looked at the White family as their enemy and it was not a good thing for this to continue.

"Yes, if he isn't at the intermediate stage of the real god level, he would not have been able to block my attack so easily just now!"

Trenton glanced at Jack again before turning to speak to Boss Lane. "Boss Lane, why don't you give these rooms to us. We've always been helping you with your business in the past!"

An awkward expression immediately appeared in Boss Lane's face. He also heard about the change in the relationship between these two families. Such important news would definitely be spread around as long as a person was discussing it.

He smiled bitterly before speaking to Trenton. "Master Lagorio, I'm sorry but we've already decided on the price. Apart from that, I need to honor those who come first when I'm handling a business deal. I'm really sorry about this today. I think it's best if you check the hotels next door for rooms!"

"I can pay more money. How about six hundred pieces of spirited stones?" Trenton was obviously unconvinced and wanted to compete. That was why he proactively raised the price.

"This..." Boss Lane hesitated before finally smiling bitterly and said. "Master Lagorio, there's really not much that I can do about this. It's not only about money!"

"Haha.... I know. It's because they are a first-class aristocratic family, right? I think that you're bullying the weak and afraid of the strong. You're really stupid for not earning that money!"

Trenton laughed and soon he was stunned when he saw a beauty among the crowd. "Hey, isn't that the Third Young Mistress Cabello? Third young mistress, I am curious as to why you're with the White?"

"Haha... Master Lagorio, it's not up to you to decide people from which family I run with?" Daniella saw what happened just now. She was surprised and extremely worried when she saw how the other party attacked Jack.

However, she was embarrassed to say anything on behalf of the others because she was not a member of the White family so she only remained standing among the crowd.

Who knew that Trenton would discover her so quickly.

Chapter 1273

"Haha... That's right, that's right. Who am I to say anything about what the Cabellos want to do!" Trenton laughed embarrassingly before waving his hands and said to the other Lagorios. "Let's go, let's go!"

Trenton led them to the streets after he finished speaking

However, he had no idea that he would run into another crowd just as he walked out from the hotel.

He was instantaneously happy when he saw this crowd because this was none other than the Cabellos.

He immediately ran over and said to Master Cabello. "Master Cabello, we are really fated with one another. Who knew that I would bump into you guys just as I arrived in this city! Such fate!"

"Haha... Yes, it's been a long time since we last met, Master Lagorio!" Alejandro laughed with a slight despise in his eyes.

He had never liked the Lagorios because the Lagorios and the White had an exceptionally good relationship in the past when Lily was Nash's wife. Hence, the disciples in both families had always got into altercations when they were searching for valuable items.

"Master Cabello, by the way, I'm curious about something. I just saw Third Young Mistress Cabello and I'm wondering why is she with the White family members? Apart from that, she even spoke on behalf of them. After all, you also know that the relationship between your family and the White was not that good?" Trenton quickly said. He added another sentence after he finished. "Our Lagorio family is also the enemies of the White family right now!"

"What?! You're saying that Daniellita is with the White family right now?" Alejandro had been worried about Daniella's safety. His eyes lit up when he heard this and he immediately spoke in excitement.

"Where is she? Why is she with the White and is speaking on behalf of them?"

Trenton pointed at the hotel not far away. "They are in that hotel. I can see that the third young mistress is very innocent and I'm worried if she had been conned by the White family!"

"They are in the hotel?" Alejandro was slightly stunned before he led the Cabellos and walked into the hotel.

"Third sister, it really is third sister!" First Young Mistress Cabello was delighted when she immediately saw Daniella who was ready to go upstairs.

"This is great, it really is Daniellita!" Venus Cabello smiled as she was also extremely excited.

"Eldest sister, second sister!" Daniella immediately ran over when she saw them. "This is great! I really miss you guys as it's been a long time since I last saw you. Who knew that I would meet you once I entered this city!"

"Daniellita, why are you with this bunch of people? Did they make things difficult for you?" Alejandro relaxed when he saw that Daniella was safe but he still asked with a cold expression on his face.

"Father, it happened like this. I was caught by a bunch of mounted brigand when I was out looking for treasures. That mounted brigand is so disgusting that they even want to make me his wife!" Daniella immediately had a wronged expression on her face. She turned around to look at Jack before she continued to speak. "Luckily the young master of the White family, Jack, saved me. That's why I can stay alive and meet you guys today!"

Chapter 1274

"Really? A White family member rescued you?" Alejandro had a weird expression on his face when he heard this.

According to the situation between both families, it was good enough that the White family did not hit the Cabello who was in danger. Who knew that they would actually save his daughter.

He had to wonder what the White family wanted and if they had other thoughts in their heads.

"Yes, father. Jack is really talented and strong!" Daniella was slightly shy when she mentioned Jack. She proactively praised Jack.

"Who's Jack?!" Alejandro looked in front as he said loudly.

Jack smiled slightly as he walked forward. He gestured towards Alejandro and said, "Greetings to Master Cabello, I am Jack. I helped Third Young Mistress Cabello as I happened to see her in a difficult situation the other day.

After all, I cannot stand the people who bully and humiliate women all the time!"

Alejandro looked at Jack before nodding and gesturing at him." Thank you very much!"

"You're welcome, Master Cabello!" Jack returned the polite gesture.

Unexpectedly, Trenton, who was listening for some time after a short while, would push the crowds away and walk in at this moment. He said to Alejandro." Master Cabello, don't you fall for this guy's sweet words. This young man is Nash's illegitimate son and had returned from the outside world. He has many bad habits and is definitely not a good person. It's best if you don't believe in him!"

Daniella was extremely angry when she heard how this old man dared come in and said something bad about Jack.

She immediately walked forward and said to Trenton angrily. "Trenton Lagorio, what are you talking about? You must hate the White family because your daughter acted indecent all the time and was finally swept out of the house by the White family. Do you think that my father is stupid? Do you think that he doesn't know that your family hates the White family right now? Do you think that he will listen to what you said?"

"You..." Trenton's face turned crimson from anger. The Third Young Mistress Cabello was so daring. Not only did she talk back at him, she even dared to directly call him by his name.

However, he soon suppressed his anger. He knew clearly that Daniella dared act so arrogantly at this moment because the Cabellos were here, if not, she would never dare say something like this.

He chose to ignore the Third Young Mistress Cabello, instead said to Alejandro with a smile. "Master Cabello, take a look. You should take a look at this daughter of yours. She has been brainwashed by the White and is speaking on behalf of the White. Have you people forgotten how many of the Cabello family disciples fought with the White family disciples? Have you forgotten about the Cabellos who died?"

The corners of Alejandro's mouth slightly twitched before he smiled at Trenton. "Master Lagorio, don't you worry. I know clearly what kind of a person my daughter is. We do not need you to say anything regarding the affairs of the Cabello family. After all, I'm doubtful about the hidden intentions behind your words based on the situation between the Lagorios and the White."

"Haha!" Trenton laughed and gestured with his hands before walking towards the door. "Master Cabello, I'm just reminding you out of kindness, you can choose to believe it or not. After all, you know clearly about your previous grudges!"

Trenton soon left after he finished speaking.

"No matter what, I have to thank you for saving my daughter!"

Chapter 1275

Alejandro glanced at Jack after Trenton left. He then flipped his hand and came up with a first grade premium pill. He threw the pill to Jack. "This is a token of our gratitude. We, the Cabellos, do not like to owe others any favors.

Alejandro paused before continuing to speak. "However, just to set the record straight. The people from our family will not hold back if they meet anybody from the White family during this competition. Do you understand?"

"A first grade premium pill?" Jack looked at the pill in his hands.

Although this pill looked normal, it was a hard to come by precious item. After all, this had a great effect for someone in the final stage of the real god level.

It looked like Alejandro really loved her daughter, Daniella. Not only did he apologize to his opposing clan, he even gave them a pill to show his gratitude. No ordinary people could do something like this.

"Master, this..." The facial expression of a Cabello family's old man darkened. He was obviously unwilling to give such a precious item to a member of the White family.

"It's alright, it's just a pill. My daughter's life is much more valuable than this pill and I don't want to owe the White family anything! If not, I don't want them speaking things behind our backs if our people accidentally kill geniuses of the White family during the competition. I don't want them saying that we repaid their kindness with hatred and that we don't know how to be grateful!" Alejandro smiled coldly and said.

The elder nodded before walking back.

"Father, can't the relationship between both families ease up? Jack rescued me and he's a very nice person!" Daniella was extremely anxious that she stomped her leg as she spoke.

"I said that these two are different things. I do not want to owe the White family but the competition will be just like how it used to be. Do you understand? If there are any altercations during the competition, we can't allow our people to give in to them, right?" Alejandro looked at Daniella seriously. "Alright, I haven't given you a scolding for running away secretly and almost lost your life. How dare you talk on behalf of the White family? Do you know that you're making yourself a joke to the entire family if you act like this?!"

"I don't care. I only know that Jack and I are good friends and he 's the one who saved me so I'm remembering his good deeds in my heart!" Daniella pursed her lips and hugged her hands in front of her chest while saying angrily.

"You..." Alejandro gritted his teeth before turning around to look at Nash and the others. He gestured at them. "Nash White, your family has suffered a huge loss previously and if your younger geniuses suffer a huge loss in this competition... Haha... By then, it would be difficult to keep your position of number eight and nobody would admit that you're a first-class reclusive family!"

Nash smiled and gestured with his hands. "Thank you Master Cabello for your care. We are clear about this and I believe that my son and the others would be able to get great results!"

"Haha... It's great that you guys are so confident!" Alejandro laughed and walked towards the entrance. "Daniellita, let's go!"

"Father..." Daniella was feeling extremely bad. She originally thought that Jack rescued her and she hoped that the relationship between both families would ease up because of this. Who knew that her father was still so hard-headed and she was lucky to not have mentioned that Jack was her boyfriend or that she wanted to be with Jack. Who knew how angry Alejandro would get if she said that.

Chapter 1276-1280

Chapter 1276

"Let's go, Sister..."

Helena and Venus Cabello pulled the reluctant Daniella to leave with the Cabellos.

"Seems like the grudge between both families is deeply implanted, Father," said Jack with a bitter smile after the Cabellos left.

Nash smiled awkwardly as well. "This is a long-winded story, and the hatred wasn't only accumulated for one or two days, which is why Alejandro's attitude is normal. However, I didn't expect him to give you a pill."

Jack hesitated as he looked at the pill in his hands. He then walked toward the First Elder and said, "First Elder, I think it's best to give this pill to you."

"You're giving it to me?!" First Elder's eyes widened, thinking he heard wrongly. Such a precious item was enough to make many real god level masters crave it, but Jack wanted to give it to him just like that?

Jack nodded. "I heard that you've been in the final stage of the realgod level for several years. I hope that this pill can help you break through and reach the peak stage of the real-god level. After all, having a master in the real-god level's peak stage is extremely important to a family. Our family would be blessed with two masters in the peak stage of the real-god level if you really break through!"

Titus also nodded. "First Elder, Young Master has a point, and you should accept the pill. If our White family has another master in the peak stage of the real-god level, arrogant clans will look at us differently!"

Nash also nodded in extreme satisfaction. "First Elder, why are you still hesitating and not receiving the pill?"

First Elder was very touched as he took the pill. He nodded continuously as he gushed, "AAright. Thank you, Young Master Jack!"

Jack chuckled and responded, "Haha... We're all members of the White family, and I hope you can break through into the real-god level's peak stage as soon as possible!"

First Elder nodded after he thought about it. "Alright. I can try to break through my fighting prowess as there are still four to five days before the competition." It was no easy feat to break through after achieving the realgod level's fighting prowess, and because of that, he was not so confident and feared he would waste the pill Jack gave him.

"Alright, everybody should go get some rest. All of us can rest during these few days and go out for a walk whenever we have the time. Those with hopes of breaking through their fighting prowess can train well during this period-it'll be best if those who are joining the competition can break through before the competition!" Nash finally said to everybody

Jack slept after he returned to his room, training the following morning to continue stabilizing his fighting prowess. He was prepared to take a stroll in the afternoon.

Little did he expect he would stumble across three beauties, Daniella, Helena, and Venus of the Cabello family not long after he left the hotel.

"Jack!" Daniella immediately walked toward Jack with a delighted heart upon seeing him. She had purposely brought her sisters to stroll around the hotel with hopes of meeting Jack.

"By the way, don't care too much about what happened last night. My father has such a temperament. He's actually a nice person, but he tends to be too stubborn."

Chapter 1277

Daniella explained what happened yesterday with a smile as she walked toward him. Not only was she afraid Jack would be upset about what happened yesterday, but she also feared he would distance himself from her because of it.

"Third Sister, why are you explaining that to this guy? Sure, he saved you, but we've returned the favor and don't owe him anything!" fretted Helena as she grimaced.

"That's right, Third Sister. Don't forget that both families had our fair share of arguments during the competitions in the past!" Venus also reminded Daniella angrily. "Sister, Father had reminded you to not get too close with members of the White family. Do you get it? We're afraid that you're being used!"

Daniella stomped her leg anxiously and quickly explained, "Sister, Jack isn't that sort of person!"

"Ladies, both of you are overthinking things. With the White family's current position and situation, we can't compete with your Cabello family, and we don't want to cause any trouble either. Apart from that, I don't use such means when I do something, so you can all relax!" Jack smiled indifferently before speaking to the two of them again, "Think about it, you two: If the White family wants to do anything to Daniellita, will you still have the chance to see her?"

Helena crossed her arms at her chest as she refuted, "That's not definite. Who knows what you people are thinking about."

Venus, on the other hand, frowned as she noted something peculiar. "Young man, you addressed my sister as Daniellita? Who allowed you to address her in such an intimate way? You're really gutsy for addressing my sister that way. I think you have thoughts about my sister. It's true that men are perverts, and they're all bad!"

Venus looked at Daniella at this point and said, "Daniella, you need to be careful. I think he's being nice to you just for your beauty. There are no good men nowadays. I think he's just a toad craving for something that's out of his league!"

Surprisingly, Daniella blushed abashedly as she replied, "Sister, stop speaking nonsense! I... I was the one who asked him to address me as that. The two of us are really, really good friends right now, and him calling me Daniellita doesn't mean anything!"

Helena and Venus were embarrassed when they heard this. They could not imagine that Daniella was the one who asked Jack to address her as Daniellita.

They wondered if Daniella felt good toward Jack or had feelings for him because he rescued her.

At that moment, several people walked over and one of the men in white clothes said happily, "Oh, my! Aren't these the three beauties of the Cabello family? We're really lucky to bump into these Three Golden Flowers in our stroll!"

Jack also glanced at them, his expression darkened at that instant. He never expected to meet members of the Norman family again.

"Haha... Seems like we got a toad here, too!" spoke Keith disdainfully as he glanced at Jack. "Young man, Ms. Daniella traveled with you people before, but why are you still following them when she's already met up with the Cabello family? Are you thinking of ways to win the affections of these three Cabello beauties?"

"You should remember your identity," Joshua Norman chimed in. "Your family is far beneath the Norman family. Apart from that, you're just an illegitimate child who returned from the outside world. You aren't worthy to be with any of them based on these facts!"

"You are not the ones to decide if I'm worthy or not." Jack had a darkened expression on his face and grew irritated.

Chapter 1278

"Haha... This means you're really interested in getting the attention of our Third Young Mistress Cabello, no?" Joshua rubbed his fists when he heard what Jack said and eyed him playfully. "We, the onlookers, have great sight. Do you truly think the White family can be considered as a first-class aristocratic family? To us, you're no different from those second-class aristocratic families!"

"Second Brother, let's not waste time talking to this guy. Let me teach him a lesson so he'll learn the difference between him and the true first-class aristocratic family!" Conley walked two steps forward and balled his fists as Chi surged and covered his fists. It looked as if he had boxing gloves made of Chi.

"Don't be careless, Third Brother. This guy might have a high fighting prowess and is in the real-god level's initial stage. After all, he's the White family master inheritor," Joshua crossed his arms at his chest as he reminded his Third Brother when he noted how Conley was ready to fight.

However, Conley did not pay much attention to Jack. "Don't worry, this guy's just lucky. He had the chance because the talented Lance White of the White family had gone missing. He wouldn't be the family master inheritor otherwise."

In his opinion, it was definite that Jack did not have a high fighting prowess and luck played a huge part in his journey to becoming the family master inheritor. After all, how powerful would a guy who returned from the outside world be?

Nonetheless, Conley knew he could not kill Jack at that moment. After all, the competition had not started, and this guy was the White family master's son. Killing him and falling out with the White family was no good starter.

Still, that did not mean he could not beat some sense into Jack.

He came toward Jack in a flash and threw his fist at him.

Daniella knew how powerful Jack was and did not worry for him when hearing Conley's threat. After all, Conley's fighting prowess was only at the real-god level's initial stage. "Haha! You just signed up for a beatdown!"

Such fighting prowess was really powerful before the White family's prodigies, but they had no idea what extraordinary talents Jack had compared to them.

"Hmph!" Jack wore an ominous smile. Tightening his fist, he intercepted the incoming punch without even using Chi.

"What?!" Keith and Joshua gasped when they noted how Jack did not use his Chi. This guy was downright arrogant. How dare he look down at their third brother like that?

They believed Jack failed to react because he had an incredibly low fighting prowess and vigilance. It was obvious his reflexes were slow to even activate his Chi and had to hurriedly meet Conley's attack.

Well then, he might be badly hurt or suffer a fracture on his arm from Conley's punch based on his brother's combat powers.

However...

Thoom!

They did not expect that what happened next was a powerful explosion, and they saw Conley flying backward like a kite with broken strings at the next second. Vomiting blood, he staggered backward as he landed on the ground before he managed to stabilize himself.

"What is this?!" This time, even Helena and Venus were stunned. They stared with widened eyes and opened mouths, wondering if their eyes played tricks on them.

After all, Jack managed to send Conley flying away without even using his Chi. What did this mean? This meant that Jack's combat power was much stronger than his.

Jack, however, had an indifferent expression as he retracted his fists. He placed both hands behind his back and, eyeing Conley, smilingly spoke, "How does that feel? Do you think you can easily bully members of the White family? The competition hasn't even started, yet you dare attack someone on the streets?"

"Hmph! This isn't over, young man. Don't forget: a person's true combat power is assessed with that person's weapon and martial skills. And I haven't used my full power either! I admit that I've underestimated you." Conley was bitter as he had lost his dignity in front of three beautiful ladies.

Wiping the blood from the corners of his mouth, Conley flipped his hand and revealed a sword.

"A weapon?" Jack smiled and said, "Are you forgetting something?"

Jack also flipped his hand after he spoke and revealed the black sword.

"That... That flying sword is yours? You can use it to attack apart from flying?" Conley's facial expression darkened when he saw that the sword in Jack's hands was identical to the flying sword they saw previously, only smaller.

He thought that such a precious item would belong to Nash. Who would have thought that it was Jack's?

With that, they did not have any advantages in terms of weapons.

They knew that this sword was an upper-grade spiritual tool. Such a weapon was superior with his lower-grade spiritual tool at hand, and the sword in his hands was already a rare treasure.

Joshua and Keith, who were in the real-god level's intermediate stage, glowered just like Conley.

It felt impossible to fight against Jack individually, but they could surely win if they attacked together.

However, it was a petty move if they attacked Jack together with the three Cabello beauties present. Would they not leave a bad impression on Helena, Venus, and Daniella if they teamed against Jack?

"What? Are we continuing the fight?" Jack asked with a smile when he saw them stunned.

Conley put the sword in his hand away and growled, "I'll hold myself from hurting you now, young man, but you'd do well to remember this-I'll settle this with you in the competition. By then, I won't hold back."

"Really? I hope that we can meet by then!" Jack chuckled, knowing how the other party held fear against him. Why else would they let him go?

"We'll see then, young man!" ended Joshua and left with his two other brothers in a dejected manner.

Venus glanced at Helena and said softly, "Eldest sister, I think Conley underestimated Jack, so he didn't give it his all. Don't you think so?"

"That has to be it," Helena replied warily. "However, no matter how it is, this young man is at least in the real-god level's intermediate stage. This level of fighting prowess is incredible!"

Chapter 1280

"You've guessed correctly, Sister, he is in the real-god level s intermediate stage. Isn't he talented? Although he had just broken through, Second Sister can't beat him!" Daniella was filled with pride as she talked about Jack, admiring his brilliance and wisdom. She had lied to Jack that they had slept together the other night when they were drunk, not thinking he would genuinely believe it and take responsibility.

Jack dared not comment on the matter and approach his wife about it, everything happened so suddenly.

As for Daniella, she had already taken Jack as her boyfriend though she kept quiet about it, fearing her family would be outraged.

"What? I can't beat him? Haha! My combat power is one of the highest among those in this level of fighting prowess!" Venus refused to believe in Daniella's words, frowning when she noted Daniella's pride-filled, awe-struck expression. "Daniellita, have you fallen for him?"

Daniella reeled in shock at the sudden suggestion, and she quickly denied the idea with a wave of her hand.

"W-What? Don't make things up, Sister, I don't like him!"

Alas, her guilty conscience gave her away in her reaction, and the blush on her face added the evidence.

"Look at you, you're all shy and blushing! I think you really like him!" Venus was irritated as she warned, "Daniellita, I'm telling you this, our family has bad blood with theirs. Father will be extremely angry if he learns about this!"

"Nothing's going on between us, Sister. Why don't you believe me? Nothing's happening!" Daniella started explaining again. She knew she could not say anything about their relationship at this moment, no matter what it was. Her parents would only accept if others saw Jack's talents in the future and that everybody knew how strong he was, or when the relationship between both families was better.

"Alright, alright! I believe in you." Venus stopped insisting when she saw Daniella's eyes turn red from being anxious. Instead, she glanced at Jack before speaking to Daniella, "Daniellita, let me tell you something: Don't be fascinated because he looks handsome. Most of the time, such a handsome man is unreliable, especially a man with a wife is even more unreliable."

Daniella was ashamed, though she offered a sheepish smile. "I get it, Sister!"

"I best take my leave, girls. With you beautiful three ladies here, I'm afraid somebody will accuse me of having motives if I stay longer." Jack gave an awkward smile and gestured his hands at the three. He realized that the hatred between the White family and the Cabello family was unusually deep, and it would not be easy to resolve.

Helena glanced at Jack and said, "I acknowledged that you saved my sister before, young man, but don't expect us to let you win deliberately during the competition. Do you understand?"

"I know. I won't let you girls win just like that either!" Jack turned around and slowly walked forward.

At that moment, a portly man came toward them with his clique. "Oh my, Helena, what a coincidence! Never thought we'd meet here!"

This man's eyes lit up upon seeing the Cabello sisters. He strode toward them and held Helena's hand in excitement.

"Young Master Hunt, please have some respect for yourself!"

Chapter 1281-1285

Chapter 1281

Utterly displeased, Helena's expression darkened as she quickly withdrew her hand from Young Master Hunt's grip.

She would have gotten angry from the start had it been anyone else that held her hand so abruptly...but the fat man before her was the Second Young Master Hunt. Not only was he overweight, but he liked women too and had always involved himself with them.

Alas, this fatty had a high fighting prowess and was talented in cultivating pills. Together with the fact that she had materials to cultivate pills, his fighting prowess was naturally quite high.

Second Young Master Hunt laughed and said, "Helena, you've grown beautiful in my eyes. I told my father that I should find a fiancée, and I think you're the perfect fit!"

"Young Master Hunt, stop joking. I... I already have a boyfriend. Apart from that, I'm almost thirty and I'm several years older than you. We're not fit for each other!" Helena was livid at his suggestion, but she dared not ruin his image and could only smile embarrassingly.

Second Young Master Hunt replied with a smile when he heard this, "Haha! Don't lie to me, First Young Mistress. Firstly, I like women who are several years older than me. Such women are much more charming. My heart moved the moment you touched my hand, and I've never felt that before!"

Second Young Master Hunt paused here before he continued, "Secondly, you're obviously lying to me when you said you had a boyfriend. I had asked around recently, and I know you don't have a boyfriend yet. I plan to ask my father to ask your hand for marriage after this competition so I can make you my fiancée. We'll get married and have children once we get to know each other more!"

"Mmph!" Helena mentally vomited three liters of blood. Asking her to marry him and have his children was a much worse fate than killing her. His talent and his skills in cultivating pills were indisputable, but he was awfully ugly.

Helena turned down many of the handsome young masters who wanted to date her. She had a headache just thinking about this damned fatty asking her to marry him and have children with him.

"I swear I have a boyfriend!" Helena bit her red lips, and she instantly piped up when her line of sight happened to land on Jack's back, who was less than 100 meters away.

Their Cabello family and the White family did not have a good relationship. They hated each other, even, and this was a great chance to take. Not only could she make Second Young Master Hunt give up, but she could also make him hate Jack. This was what people would say, killing two birds with one stone.

"Jack, come here quickly!" She immediately waved her hand at Jack after she spoke.

Jack, who had not walked far away, turned his head back when he heard Helena called out to him from far away.

He frowned, though he still came toward them, not knowing why Helena called out to him.

"What is it? Why is the first young mistress looking for me?" Jack walked over and smiled at Helena.

Unexpectedly, Helena gave her a flirtatious gaze the next second and, walking toward him, held his arm and said shyly, "You're cruel! Just call me Helena. Don't you like calling Helena?"

"Helena?" Jack frowned and was stunned.

"Yes, Jacky!" Helena responded by calling out shyly. She even shook Jack's arm and looked so helpless as she relied on him.

Chapter 1282

"Jacky?" Daniella and Venus stared in disbelief, eyes wide open at the nickname Speechless, they wondered if they heard wrongly.

Daniella, all the more, was frozen on the spot. Did her sister not detest Jack? What was she doing all of a sudden?

Of course, she quickly caught on that Helena was using Jack to get rid of Second Young Master Hunt's badgering. She might be able to frame Jack with this.

Jack also understood what was going on and immediately shook Helena's hand away, taking two steps back. "First Young Mistress Cabello, please have some respect for yourself. I'm not interested in you, and I don't want to be your shield."

Second Young Master Hunt was initially enraged, but knowing what was happening, he grinned as he spoke, "You're a good actress, Helena Cabello. I almost believed you!"

Helena was naturally unwilling to admit defeat just like that. She immediately caught up with Jack and hugged his arm. "Jack White, how can you do this?"

"Didn't you say you're no coward? What's going on? How can you chicken out when a love rival suddenly pops up? You'll lose me if you're acting like this!"

Jack almost fainted; Helena truly was good at blaming others.

He got increasingly exasperated when Second Young Master Hunt did not seem to be any smarter. He was extremely angry when he saw Helena hugging Jack's arm and growled, "Young man, is what she's saying true? Are you truly her boyfriend? Are you that suicidal to take a woman from me?"

"Second Young Master Hunt?" Jack had never met anybody from the Hunt family. He was ashamed when he heard how Second Young Master Hunt was addressed and immediately fell into embarrassment. "Second Young Master, don't misunderstand this. Why would I take a woman from you? Look at her: She's the one who came to me, and there's nothing between the two of us!"

Unable to tolerate the nonsense, Daniella walked forward and explained, "That's right. Second Young Master Hunt, there's nothing between my eldest sister and Jack. If you think about it properly, everything becomes clearer. Arrogant women like my sister look down on so many young masters. How would she even set eyes on Jack, this young master from the White family?"

"That's right. Look, even the third young mistress had said it, so you shouldn't believe in what the first young mistress said." Jack relaxed. Luckily, Daniella shared a close bond with him or he would never clear his name no matter how hard he tried.

Helena was speechless. She never thought that her sister would speak for an outsider's behalf, moreover did it in front of her. Did she hold Jack's hand for nothing, then?

Helena always had a haughty streak in her. How could she admit defeat when she had finally come up with a way to get rid of Second Young Master Hunt?

She turned her gaze and mumbled, "Alright, Third Sister...You like Jack too, don't you? You want to push me to the Second Young Master Hunt to get him, don't you...? H-How could y-you do this to me?"

Helena even deliberately sobbed as she spoke, "Third Sister, I'm telling you that I've been together with Jack for so long now, so you can't think of breaking us up!"

Daniella was flabbergasted, not believing Helena would make things up like this just to harm Jack. However, her sister was right in one thing-she did like Jack.

She immediately responded, "Sister, what nonsense are you talking about? How can you harm Jack like this? He saved my life!

Helena finally realized that her sister was too kind. She must have stood forward to speak on his behalf because he saved her.

Chapter 1283

Nonetheless, Helena wanted to insist-she had gone too far to back down. Blushing, she speculated, "Unbelievable, Third Sister... You'd want me to marry somebody else so you can have Jack all to yourself? You... You're really too harsh!"

Second Young Master Hunt, standing by the side, completely flabbergasted. He had no idea who was telling the truth and who was lying at that moment.

In the end, he looked at Venus and questioned, "Second Young Mistress, what's the meaning of this? What's going on between this Jack and your sister? Are they a couple?"

Venus glanced at Daniella then Helena before finally speaking, "Second Young Master Hunt, my... my sister and Jack truly are in a relationship. I just didn't expect my third sister to have feelings for him too!"

"What? Who's this young man that two young mistresses from the Cabello family liked?"

"That's right. All three beauties are famous, yet they're both infatuated with him? It seems like they're love rivals!"

Several members of the Hunt family who stood behind Second Young Master Hunt started discussing among themselves softly. Everything felt so unbelievable!

"Nonsense!" Second Young Master Hunt's face darkened before he growled, "How can a member of the White family be worthy of the Cabello family's beauties? Isn't there a big difference between this young man's identity and yours?"

"Second Young Master Hunt, he's the family master inheritor of the White family, and he's likely to be their family master in the future. I don't think he's not good enough for us!"

Helena was slightly happy when her second sister spoke on behalf of her. This time, Jack was completely done.

"I never thought you'd lie through your teeth, Second Sister!"

Daniella looked at her second sister with a blushed face. Were they not driving Jack into hot soup? It would be troublesome if Second Young Master Hunt really hated Jack in the future.

Venus pulled Daniella to one side and said softly, "Daniellita, this is a good chance to get rid of this guy. If we get rid of Jack." She chuckled lightly before she continued, "The White family will have one less true prodigy, and Father will be very happy then! You should stop remembering him as your savior, do you understand? We don't owe him anything!"

"But... But..." Overridden with anxiety, Daniella glanced at Jack, who stood not too far, and spoke in a half-whisper, "I... I really like him, and I'm already in a relationship with him. I just dare not tell Father yet as the timing is not right!"

Venus was extremely surprised, red lips parted in her shock as she struggled to process the situation. "Preposterous! Stop scaring me, Daniella. The hatred between our families didn't just come up in these recent one or two years. Even if our relationship isn't as rigid as it used to be, I'm sure Father won't agree to the two of you being together. How can you fall for the enemies' son?"

"Second Sister, you can't tell anyone about this. You have to keep it a secret!" Daniella pulled her second sister's hand and pleaded, "Please don't push Jack into trouble. I'll kill myself if he dies!"

Chapter 1284

Stupefied at Daniella's revelation, the speechless Venus felt like she was in an awkward predicament.

She gazed at Daniella before saying, "Third sister, I... I've just said something about it. How can I take it back, and how would our eldest sister not hate me for it if I did? Mind you, she's in a sticky situation that's hard to get out of!"

"But... But..." Daniella was left in a disarray, not knowing what to do.

Running thin on his patience, Second Young Master Hunt yelled, "Hey, hey, hey! What are the two of you speaking about over there?"

"It's... It's nothing!" Venus smiled embarrassingly and rejoined them with Daniella. "Second Young Master Hunt, you're a handsome gentleman and are the Hunt family's second young master. Are you afraid that no beautiful woman would like you? I'm sure that there are many talented women out there who'll want to marry you!"

Daniella immediately agreed to it. "That's right, Second Young Master! You're also a genius in cultivating pills and have a high fighting prowess, and I'm sure many beautiful ladies adore you. Why have eyes for my eldest sister?"

Second Young Master Hunt was taken aback at their words and, glancing at both Daniella and Venus, he gulped as he breathlessly speculated, "Are you two saying that you like me?"

That shocked Daniella as she quickly explained, "No, what we meant to say is that how can somebody like you have so few admirers, am I right? So there's no need for you to think of us, right?"

"That's right, Second Young Master. Look... I already have a lover, so you should forget about me. I'm also old, right?" Helena smiled embarrassingly.

"But there aren't many beauties like you. I like beauties and they like me, but I still like the three of you as you're all true beauties with individual characteristics!"

Second Young Master Hunt had no plans to give up.

"About that... Second Young Master, I've been with Jack for so long now, and I... I'm not a virgin anymore, and I've already done the deed with him. So... a prodigy like you don't have to have a deflowered woman like, don't you think so?" lied Helena through gritted teeth after making sure no one else was in the vicinity.

"I..." Jack was speechless, never expecting that the First Young Mistress Cabello would say such a thing to get rid of this Second Young Master Hunt. Was she not ruining her reputation?

"What about you? You still plan to deny it?" Helena rolled her eyes at Jack flirtatiously as she was afraid Jack would continue to refute. Her eyes seemingly quavered helplessly as she gazed at him, however.

Jack glanced at Second Young Master Hunt, noting that he indeed seemed peculiar. Apart from that, it seemed like this guy had his fair share of women by the tone of how Helena and the others spoke, and it would be a tragedy to see a beauty like Helena marrying such a man.

Sure enough, Second Young Master Hunt's expression darkened when he heard what Helena said. He had heard all this time that the three young mistresses of the Cabello family were sophisticated and did not have boyfriends. He adored Helena, head over heels for her.

That was why the news of her giving herself to the White family's young master took him by surprise.

"I don't believe it." He was still furious after thinking it through." Hmph! The Cabellos have a bad relationship with the White family, and I don't believe that you're actually with this guy, unless... unless you prove it to me!"

Chapter 1285

Helena's expression seemed to sour as she hugged Jack's arm, saying, "Isn't this...enough to prove it? How else do you want me to prove it when the two of us are acting this way?"

The last thing she expected was for the Second Young Master Hunt to insist, "Haha! Didn't you already give yourself to him? Do you two dare to kiss on the streets? If you don't, this means that you're lying to me!"

Second Young Master Hunt grew increasingly angry as he disdainfully added, "Helena Cabello, I'm the Hunt family's young master. If you dare toy with me, I'll ask your father for your hand in marriage tomorrow; it'd be best if our powerful families can come together. Should you disagree to our union, I'll have my father wipe out the entire Cabello family. Hmph!"

"You..." Helena reddened in anger, not expecting the Second Young Master Hunt to go to such extremes with the lives of the Cabello family members.

Second Young Master Hunt had both his hands behind his back as he arrogantly declared, "Why? You don't dare to? Haha! If so, this means that you're toying with me. I'm not like the young masters from the other families: the women I have my eyes on can never escape. I don't care if you're not a virgin. I'll get a taste of the First Young Mistress Cabello, even if it means I have to interfere in a love affair!"

Helena was extremely angry yet helpless; things would be irreversible if such a man genuinely asked her father for her hand in marriage.

After all, everybody knew that the Hunt family had two sons, but the one the Hunt family master favored the most was his second son. His son was undeniably talented, but he, more importantly, knew how to cultivate pills. Had he been a more diligent person and trained more, his fighting prowess would have been higher than the eldest young master.

Although the eldest young master was not as talented as the second young master, he was not bad. As he did not like to speak much and loved training in silence, the eldest young master had an obviously higher fighting prowess compared to the second young master.

"Who says I don't dare to?" In her anger and bitterness, Helena turned and came toward Jack with gritted teeth.

Before Jack managed to react, she stood on her tiptoes and, winding her arms around his neck, kissed him on the lips.

"No way!" Venus was extremely surprised when she saw this scene as she then glanced at Daniella, who was beside her, in a peculiar way.

She had no idea what to say as their eldest sister had actually...for...

"What...?" Daniella was speechless and she had a weird expression on her face.

However, she eventually understood what her eldest sister was experiencing. She would not want to marry the Second Young Master Hunt, too.

"Oh my god..." Many of the passersby on the street were stunned when they saw this. Nobody could ever imagine that the Cabello family's first young mistress would kiss a man in the streets.

Helena shyly took two steps backward after several kisses and blushinglly stuttered, "Alright, do... do you believe it now?"

"Never thought my goddess would be preempted by this guy!" Second Young Master Hunt obviously believed Helena after that. Fists balled tightly, he then turned to Jack as he resentfully growled, "Next-in-line to be the White family's master, huh? Wait for it, young man. I won't kill you now, but you can't blame me during the competition!"

"Let's go!" Second Young Master Hunt waved his hand after he spoke and left with his people.

Ptooeey, ptooeey, ptooeey!

Helena spitted a few times right after the Second Young Master Hunt left the scene. She was so disgusted that she spitted and wiped her mouth several times.

"Haha! Missy, you're really something. You're willing to sacrifice your first kiss to frame me!"

Jack chuckled at the side. "This is the downfall of trying to harm people! Also, don't forget, it was me who helped you out this time. You owe me a favor!" Jack added.

Helena shot Jack a deadly glare upon hearing his words. "From what I see, you're taking advantage of me! And you actually dare to say that I owe you a favor?"

“Tsk, tsk, tsk. If it wasn’t for me, the Second Young Master Hunt would have brought his men and gone over to your Cabello family to ask for your hand in marriage. Shouldn’t you thank me for saving you from him?”

Jack sneered coldly. In Jack’s eyes, she brought the trouble upon herself.

Nonetheless, he quickly thought of something and wheeled his head, facing Daniella who stood not far away from them. The current Daniella was full of loath and hatred; her face sank into the deepest abyss and she could not be more unhappy. She pouted.

She saw with her own eyes this time, that Jack and Helena...

“Daniella, I did not expect that to happen. Your sister...”

Jack approached Daniella and explained to her in an embarrassed tone.

Daniella gave a bitter smile. She quickly calmed down and said, “Well, I know. It’s not like you initiate it, how can I blame you? Besides, my sister had no other options then. That Second Young Master hunt is too abominable!”

Speaking of which, Daniella’s face turned solemn. “The Second Young Master Hunt has now targeted you. I’m worried that he would play tricks against you during the tournament. We’re not clear with the rules of this tournament up until now. I’m afraid that he would talk to his father and plot against you! They might set unreasonable rules just to bring you down!”

Jack’s brow snapped together at Daniella’s concerns. “It shouldn’t be possible, right? After all, there are so many families participating in this competition. If the competition is bias against a certain family, it’d be unjust, and everyone would know! The Hunt family is the strongest among the eight reclusive families. If they really did that, their reputation and image would be ruined.

“Daniellita, why are you worried for this fella?”

Helena interjected when she saw her sister chatting happily with Jack. And when she thought of her kiss with Jack a moment ago, she was furious and disgusted. But, at the same time, she could not think of a better way to deal with the situation.

“Sis, it’s all your fault! If it weren’t for you, Jack wouldn’t have been targeted by the Second Young Master Hunt.”

Daniella looked at Helena in exasperation. Although Jack possessed excellent combat prowess and martial status, it would still be a headache if the Hunt family decided to target him. After all, the Second Young Master Hunt was much stronger than the Young Master of the Norman family

“I...I had no choice. Daniellita, do you truly want to see your big sister marry that fat *ss? Besides, didn’t you hear what he said? If I didn’t kiss Jack, he’d think that I was fooling him and he’ll make his father fight the Cabello family!”

Helena explained with an aggrieved expression on her face.” What else could I do? Although I’ve lost my first kiss and it was a big loss to me, I was out of wit at that moment. The Second Young Master Hunt is the apple of his father’s eyes! It’d be more difficult to deal with if they ordered an attack on the Cabello family!”

Chapter 1287

“Hmmm, but I don’t think that will happen. Although the Hunt family is strong, the Cabello family is not weak either. Thus, I believe that if the Hunt family were to attack the Cabello family, they’d experience a grave loss as well. And if the loss is too huge, it might jeopardize their number one position among the eight reclusive families!”

Jack chimed in after giving the matter some thoughts.

However, Helena rolled her eyes at Jack's analysis. "That's because you don't understand Master Hunt at all. The head of the Hunt family is a domineering and bossy person, it's just that he hasn't reached the ultimate god level. If there's someone on earth who can break through to the ultimate god realm, that someone would be Master Hunt. He has been at the peak of the true god realm for many years. His combat ability is no joke. His martial status is on par with two or even three martial practitioners whose combat prowess is at the peak of true god realm."

"Is he that strong?"

Jack was taken aback by Helene's words, and shock dawned upon his heart. No wonder the Second Young Master Hunt was so prideful and arrogant. Jack truly did not expect that the Hunt family would be this strong. They were stronger than he thought. It seemed that he had underestimated the Hunt family's combat ability.

"Jack, please be careful. The tournament has yet to start and your White family is a first class family, the Second Young Master hunt will still have some scruples. So I bet he won't make a move against you now. But, perhaps, during the tournament, he won't be so nice!"

Daniella bit her rosy pink and alluring lips and said, "The Second Young Master Hunt is at the middle stage of the true god realm, and he has been stuck there for some time. His combat prowess is more powerful and stronger than my sister's." She paused and then added, "If he manages to break through to the late stage of the true god realm, his combat ability would be more frightening! What's scarier is that the Hunt family has powerful martial arts and techniques for them to train, and these arts and techniques are not something we can Compete with!"

"Daniella, thanks for worrying about me. I need to leave now."

It was awkward to stay there any longer. Hence Jack showed a small smile and bid the sisters goodbye.

“Sigh!”

Daniella breathed out a huge sigh. Her mood was affected. She then walked toward the direction of the hotel where she was staying. She was not in the mood for shopping right now.

“Daniellita is out of her mind. She knew that our Cabello family is not on good terms with the White family. After I did that, not only it got me out of trouble, but it’ll also create trouble for the White family, isn’t this a good thing? Why is she in such a bad mood?”

Helena and Venus were mumbling and complaining behind.

“Big sister, didn’t you know that Daniellita is fond of Jack? And that the two of them are actually a couple? It’s just that she dared not tell Father. And now that you’ve caused her lovely boyfriend to be in such a dangerous situation, how can she be in a good mood? Didn’t you see how worried she was for Jack?” Venus whispered into Helena’s ear.

Helena was completely dumbfounded. She remained silent and uttered, “The two of them...are a couple? Jesus Christ, just now I...” Her face distorted.

“Ahem, don’t worry. Daniellita won’t blame you. She saw the situation just now, and you had no better idea at that time.”

Venus immediately comforted Helena

On the other side, the Second Young Master Hunt entered his residence huffily and slammed the door behind loudly. He flipped his palm and a second-grade elementary pill appeared on his palm. “That White b*stard. Humph! Initially, I didn’t plan to participate in the tournament, but since he treated me that way, I’ll start training now and breakthrough to the late stage of the true god realm then I’ll kill all the geniuses with the surname White. I’ll let him know what the consequences are if you’ve offended me!”

Chapter 1288

It was said that the Second Young Master Hunt's talent in martial art was extraordinary. He managed to fully absorb the essence of the second-grade elementary pill at one shot. He had successfully broken through to the late stage of the true god realm.

Such talent was rare. With his current martial status and combat prowess, many family elders were not his match not to mention the young generation of geniuses. Besides, the Hunt family possessed excellent martial techniques and high-grade weapons.

Days passed by quickly.

Jack, who had returned to the hotel, was worried that the Second Young Master Hunt would find trouble with him. However, this guy was somewhat trustworthy and stuck to his promise that he would not.

Nonetheless, at this time, the head of the Cabello family. Alejandro Cabello, heard some news from the street.

He angrily commanded Helena's presence in his room. "Helena, what's wrong with you? When I was striding on the street, I heard people talking about the First Young Mistress of the Cabello family kissing the Young Master of the White family! You must supply me with a really good explanation this time!"

Helena was rendered speechless. She would not want any news about that incident to reach any ears of the Cabello family. She thought she could escape by not going out that frequently as there were not many people that day and little to no people knew Jack. Since the tournament was in a few days, she thought that it would keep them busy and they standing feud with the White family! Our relationship is not grave to an extent that we want to wipe out each other, but all along I don't want you to interact with any of them! There are skirmishes between the Cabellos and the White! Now, look at you, you've disgraced me!"

“Dad!”

Helena was speechless. “I really had no other choice at that time! I was pestered by the Second Young Master Hunt that day. That fella said he wanted to come to the Cabello family to ask for my hand in marriage! He asked me to marry him, won’t you feel angry too? I don’t want to marry him! I’d rather find a random person to get married to!” Helena stomped her feet angrily.

“What!”

Alejandro gasped at the new information; shock gripped him.

He remained silent for a moment before he nodded, “You ‘re telling me that the Second Young Master Hunt planned to come to our house and propose to you? And that’s why you lied to him by saying that you have a boyfriend? And it just so happened that Jack was there, so you used him and kissed him to make the other party believe in your claims?”

Helena bobbed her head. “Yes. I feel that this is a little mean because the target is on Jack’s now, but I was out of my wits at that time, I really don’t want to marry him! Besides, I was afraid that because of me, the Hunt family would come looking for trouble with the Cabello family. Although the Cabello family is strong, compared to the Hunt family, we’re like an ant before an elephant!”

Alejandro nodded after knowing the truth. “Helena, don’t take it to heart. It will pass. Indeed, it was a little cruel to Jack. After all, he saved your sister’s life before. But you’ve no other choice then, so please don’t give yourself too much pressure on this matter!”

Helena pursed her red lips and nodded slightly. “The Second Young Master Hunt warned Jack fiercely. He said that he’ll participate in the tournament and if he meets Jack, he’ll kill him!”

Chapter 1289-1291

Chapter 1289

"I'm not sure about Jack's martial status. If it's high, it shouldn't be that easy to kill him." Alejandro responded after giving some thoughts on the matter.

"Daniellita said that Jack has reached the middle stage of the true god realm. Moreover, that fella's talent is extremely extraordinary!"

At this moment, Helena's thought ran back to the scene where she and Jack shared a kiss on the street. She could not help but blush at the thought. That was her first kiss; she never expected her first kiss would be taken away by Jack just like that.

The only thing that comforted Helena was that Jack was quite good-looking. If he were ugly and unsightly, Helena would have banged her head against the wall, feeling like she had lost something precious.

"Middle stage of the true god realm? His martial status is not bad at all. Hmmm. Why do I feel that his talent is much stronger than yours?"

Alejandro smiled bitterly. "The White family finally has an extraordinary martial genius. If they continue to grow like it, wouldn't it be bad for us?"

Alejandro paused before continuing, "If the Second Young Master Hunt could defeat and kill Jack in the tournament, it might not be a bad thing at all. After all, we're not on good terms with the White family, and we don't know what the future is like. That brat came back from the secular world, and he managed to reach this state, which is incredibly talented. If he were to continue to improve, breaking through to the peak of the true god realm is not an impossible task!"

"Sigh! Do you think the White family will blame me for his death when the time comes? After all, I'm the culprit for making Jack the target of the Hunt family!"

Helena sighed aloud; she was overwhelmed by her conscience.

“Silly girl!”

Alejandro hastened to comfort. “The world works in such a way that the weak are always the prey to the strong. You did nothing wrong. Besides, even if Jack was killed by the Hunt family, the murder is done during the tournament. Even if Nash White feels unhappy, he has to swallow his anger, because the tournament’s rules are set by many powerful families together. It doesn’t matter if Jack was the one who killed the other party or vice versa, both parties are not allowed to take revenge and pursue further!”

“But, the Second Young Master Hunt is not a kind man. I’m afraid that he will not only target Jack but also the rest of the men in the White family. If too many men from the White family die on that day, I don’t think Nash will sit aside and abide by the rules!”

Helena gave a dry smile. Although she knew that the Cabello family was not on good terms with the White family, she never wanted to stir up any trouble for the White family. It would be more troublesome in the future.

“All right, don’t overthink this matter anymore. You must not affect your heart and spirit. If it does, it will affect your future breakthrough to the next level, understand?”

Alejandro reminded Helena gently, then added, “Go back and rest early. Tomorrow we’ll depart in the morning for the tournament. Please prepare yourself and do your best in the tournament. After all, this is a matter of the Cabello family’s reputation!”

“Okay!”

Helena bobbed her head and left the room.

Time passed quickly. On the next morning, the major families among the hidden families, including the eight reclusive families, dozens of second-class families, and some third-class families had set off to the tournament. They headed straight to the Kobe Mountain outside the city.

Chapter 1290

“That’s so amazing! Young Master Jack, thank you so much! If it wasn’t for you, I wouldn’t have had the chance to break through to the peak of the true god realm!”

On the way to Kobe Mountain, the First Elder of the White family-Kenneth White-said with immense joy.

“Hehe, you’re welcome. It’s only a matter of time for you to break through to the peak of the true god realm. We’re all White, there’s nothing to thank me for!”

Jack chuckled and responded nonchalantly.

Nash-who was beside Fan was worried; his face sank.” Jack, I heard that you’ve offended the Second Young Master of the Hunt family, and the other party had even warned you about killing you in the tournament. So when the tournament starts, you have to be extremely careful and pay full attention to your opponent!” Nash said to Jack.

Jack nodded and smiled,” Father, don’t worry. My combat prowess and martial status are not low, it’s not easy for him to kill me. Besides, I have the ultimate-grade spiritual weapon, remember? If I can’t fight anymore, I’ll run. He can’t catch up with me.”

Nash felt relieved at Jack’s words and laughed, “Oh, you’re right! I almost forgot about the Weapon!”

“We don’t know how the tournament rules are going to be. But if that Second Young Master Hunt wants to fight against Young Master Jack in the tournament, it won’t be easy, right? After all, there are so many other contestants in the competition!”

Yolanda Lagorio-who had broken through from the early stage to the middle stage of the true god realm -gave her two cents after thinking about the whole situation.

“But, don’t forget this time the tournament’s rules are all set by the Hunt family. If they insist on fighting against Jack in the tournament, I don’t think we can avoid that!”

Nash let out a bitter smile and said, “In the past, we didn’t have to be careful with the Lagorio family; they even helped us in the tournament. But this year, everything is different. We not only need to guard against the Hunt family but also the Lagorio family. I’m afraid that we’ll experience a big loss if they target our men!”

Titus White-who was beside them-opined with a gloomy face. The young generation of the White family possessed good talent. Within these two months, several young geniuses gained breakthroughs in their martial arts and techniques; the overall combat prowess was one level above than before.

However, the White family still seemed feeble compared to the other seven families whose foundation and heritage were built decades ago.

In the past, the White family had help from the Lagorio family in these tournaments, plus the other seven families tried not to offend each other, hence the loss was not big in such tournaments.

But the situation was not quite the same this year. Not only the White family had to fight without the help of the Lagorio family, but they have also offended many people from first -class families. Even worse, some second-class families who were at a similar level with the White family, could not wait to pull them down from the first-class family status. This time, the crisis that the White family had to face was a hundred times worse than before.

“Everyone, please be careful and be fully focused during the tournament! Several young masters from the Norman family seem to dislike Young Master Jack as well. So, we have to put our guards up against the Norman family too!”

Titus reminded the group with a bitter smile after realizing something important.

Yule White, on the other hand, pouted and expressed in an exasperated tone, “It’s not easy for me to break through to the late stage of the semi-god realm. Hmph! I thought I would be able to achieve good results this time, but looking at this situation, this tournament is big trouble for us!”

Beth White laughed out loud at the side, “Yule, don’t think too much, okay? How much better results can you get? It’d be considered fortunate if we were able to defeat some of those second-class families. Our White family has always been at the bottom of the eight reclusive families’ list. We were at the bottom in the past, so I think it’ ll be the same this year too. As for the Lagorio family, nah, they won’t be able to defeat us!”

“Sister Beth, I’m truly envious of you! You’ve broken through to the early stage of the true god realm. It’d be great if I could break through to the true god realm as well!”

Yule stared at Beth with an envious expression on her face.

“There’s nothing to be envious of because I’m older than you! You, sooner or later, will break through to the true god realm!”

Chapter 1291

“Right, the best I could do is to break through to the peak of the true god realm. After that, I can’t go any further, so I’ll be waiting for you there. After all, the ultimate god realm is just a myth; it’s too unreliable; it’s completely legendary. If there’s really a way to reach the ultimate god level, I think we would have found it already!”

“Hmmm... about the ultimate god realm, since everyone is talking about it, I think maybe it’ s true!”

Jack, however, smiled and chimed in, “Only that the route to this ultimate god realm is extremely difficult. Perhaps, the link that connects to the ultimate god realm had broken during the passing down. But I do think the ultimate god realm did exist in the past.” He added.

Just when the group was happily exchanging opinions, they had arrived at the entrance to the forest under Kobe Mountain.

Outside the forest, there was a spacious meadow. Many families had arrived and gathered at the field in front of the forest.

“The White family is here!”

A man, who sat on the grass, saw that the White family had arrived, quickly announced their arrival to the others.

“Hehe! I heard that Lance of the White family is highly likely dead. And the head of the White family-Nash White-decided to make his illegitimate son the heir of the head of the White family. That illegitimate son has good talent; the White family is actually solely relying on their younger geniuses to get such a position!”

An old man chortled aloud and said to the people next to him.

“His talent is indeed excellent.

But that brat offended the Second Young Master of the Hunt family! So, I think they’re in big trouble this time!”

A young man responded with a cold laugh.

“What? No way! How could he offend the Second Young Master Hunt? They don’t even know each other, right?”

The young man’s speech had sparked interest in the surrounding people.

“It happened like this...”

The young man gathered the people, only then he started telling everyone what he had heard.

“Tsk, tsk, tsk. Really? I’m so jealous of that brat! He got a kiss from Helena Cabello, the First Young Mistress of the Cabello family? Jesus f*cking Christ! Any of the young mistresses of the Cabello family is my dream woman! Any of them can be called the queen of beauty! And that brat was...was actually kissed by one of them!”

Another young man expressed his jealousy upon listening to it.

“Hehe! What’s there to be envious of? Soon that brat will be sent to hell. If he is dead, it’d be useless even if he had a beauty by his side! Now, which one is more important? Life or beautiful woman?”

The old man from before said with a laugh.

“If I was kissed by such a beautiful woman, I’m willing to die a hundred times!”

The young man, on the other hand, said smilingly, “Moreover, didn’t this young man tell us about it? That Helena Cabello is no longer pure. Just thinking of the scene makes my every cell dance excitedly! Sigh! That brat is really lucky to have such a beautiful girl!” He drooled and further added, “Besides, that brat is the heir of the head of the White family, the Second Young Master Hunt wouldn’t dare to kill him without any reason, right? Also, they have to meet each other in the tournament for that to happen, right?”

After hearing that, the old man nodded in agreement. "This is true. Although he's being targeted by the Hunt family, his social status and position is still noble. As long as they don't meet each other in the tournament, there shouldn't be a problem!"

Chapter 1292-1294

Chapter 1292

"Look, over there, the Cabello family is here!"

Just as Jack and the others had found a place to sit down, the field once again became lively due to the arrival of the Cabello family.

Jack gazed in a specific direction, indeed, the Cabello family slowly appeared in his sight not far away.

"Heh, this is my first time seeing the three sisters of the Cabello family! I can't wait to see them!"

Some young men had long heard that the three sisters of the Cabello family were good-looking and alluring. Their eyes could hardly contain their excitement and delight.

"They're all beautiful, stunning! But it's a pity that the First Young Mistress is taken by a man called Jack. I'm so jealous!"

Some men, on the other hand, felt pity and lamented.

"Sigh! The First Young Mistress is not young anymore, she's almost in her thirties, and should actually get married by now. Such a woman, her beauty is already in full bloom. I'm truly jealous of that brat! It looks like what we have left is the Second Young Mistress or the Third Young Mistress, we've to find a way to please them!"

A fat guy drooled and swallowed hard just by looking at Daniella and the others across the field.

Several guys, who stood beside the fatty, stared at the pig-like fatty with a disgusted look on their faces. With a pig-like face, it was already considered as fortunate if he could find a wife, not to mention to have the Second or the Third Young Mistress Cabello as his wife. He was like an idiot talking about his fantasy.

The Cabello family chose a place not far away from the White family and sat down to take a break.

Complicated feelings and thoughts dawned upon Helena when she saw Jack from afar.

She did not think much about it when the incident happened that day. But within these two days, she replayed the scene again and again in her mind and pondered on it, realizing that Jack helped her with no other intention.

She falsely accused Jack and Jack tried to refute it at first. Jack could have continued to refute by saying that they were not in a relationship after she forcibly kissed him.

But Jack did not do so. He stood there and remained silent and let the show continue, which eventually made the Second Young Master Hunt believe that they were a real couple, and in the end, he left the scene huffily.

If on that day, Jack insisted that he had nothing to do with Helena, the Second Young Master Hong would have not believed what Helena had claimed that they were a couple.

If that truly happened, the Second Young Master Hunt would certainly be angry at Helena, blaming her for fooling him. Then he might stir up trouble with the Cabello family by proposing a marriage with Helena. And if the Cabello family were to disagree, a fight would be born.

“What the heck was he thinking that day? Why did he choose to help me at the very last Moment?”

Helena murmured to herself, her eyes fixated at Jack, full of dazzlement..

“First Young Mistress Cabello, what a surprise!”

Several men from the Norman family approached her out of the blue.

Keith Norman gazed at Helena and the corners of his mouth curled upward, forming a perfect arc.

“Strange. Before we came to Kobe City, we saw that the Third Young Mistress Cabello was close with the Young Master of the White family. Tsk, tsk. It’s really out of my imagination that the First Young Mistress is also Jack’s girlfriend?” He exclaimed loudly on purpose.

Daniella was still feeling salty in her heart, although she knew that her sister had no other choice under that circumstance. “Keith Norman, what does this have to do with you? Who is close with Jack is totally none of your business!” Daniella shot up from the ground and said in anger.

Keith did not expect Daniella to be so disrespectful to him, hence he decided not to give in. “I’m just curious. You see, you said before that you and Jack are good friends, extremely ‘good’ friends. And according to the timeline, your sister has not known Jack for that long, right? Should be later than you, right? Then how did their relationship develop so quickly?”

Chapter 1293

“How does this concern you? Can ‘t they fall in love at first sight? What’s wrong with that?”

Daniella huffed. She was so angry that she could feel anger thrummed through her veins. She was already upset with the incident, who knew Keith Norman would deepen the wound in her heart by trying to pick a fight.

Helena sensed the enraging anger from her sister and felt sorry for her. She only thought of getting rid of that damned Young Master Hunt that day and did not expect Jack to be Daniella's boyfriend. If she had known it earlier, she would not have done that.

Only two people knew about the relationship between Daniella and Jack, which were herself and Venus. They did not dare to tell Alejandro; they could only pretend as if they did not know anything

"Heh, I intend to clarify about that. Your sister is so beautiful. It 's such a pity for her to be with an illegitimate b*stard."

Keith sneered, smilingly. "To my surprise, it turns out that it's not so difficult to get the daughters of the Cabello family!"

"Haha! He's right! All along we thought that the Cabello ladies are hard to pursue. They seemed distant and full of pure and noble aura. We didn't think that they're actually sl*tty in their bones! And get laid by the young master of the White family!"

Several guys chimed in and mocked like sour grapes. Jealousy rushed through their mind, especially those men who fell head over heels for the First Young Mistress Cabello.

Many of them looked at Jack fiercely as if Jack had taken their wives away, wanting to tear him apart.

"What's wrong? The male lead of this drama, why don't you come out and give a speech? You can talk about your triumph feeling for winning the Cabello ladies."

Here, the Second Young Master of the Norman family-Joshua Norman-interrupted and looked down his nose at Jack." You're composed, aren't you? Do you know how many men here are envious of you?" He mocked.

“Jack, are you and Helena really in a relationship?”

Nash, who sat next to Fan had his brows snapped together and asked, “You didn’t meet her before, did you? I think if you’ve not met her before, you should stand out and explain yourself clearly. A lot of men are fond of Helena, and I’m afraid that it’ll become a disadvantage to you in the tournament, although some of them may not be your opponent!”

Nevertheless, Jack sneered nonchalantly, “Father, there’s nothing to explain. The mouth is on their faces, we can’t control their mouth, so they can say what they like. Helena had a hard time then, if I stand out at this time, the Cabello family...”

“You...”

Nash was tongue-tied at Jack’s answer. From what he heard, he realized that Helena and Jack were definitely not in a relationship, and to get rid of Young Master Hunt at that time, Helena had no other choice but to kiss Jack.

But if Jack did not stand out and explain, the White family would be in trouble!

“Sigh! Fine, you’re not young anymore. I’ll support you anyway!”

When Nash thought of what he owed Jack and Joan over the years, he smiled and gave his support.

He did not blame Jack; if his son chose to do it, he must have a reason. Besides, if it were not for Jack, he would probably be a cold body by now. Hence, his view toward life was simple, as long as he and his family could live peacefully and harmoniously every day, he was content.

“Don’t you blame me?”

Jack was stunned at his father's reaction. He was surprised that Nash did not reprimand him.

"Haha, you're my son, and as a Father, I believe in you and I support you. I don't blame you!"

Nash patted on Jack's shoulder, chortling.

Chapter 1294

Warmth spread across Jack's chest. He smiled. "Don't worry. The First Elder is already at the peak of the true god status. I'm not too shabby either. When I've broken through the advanced stage of the true god status, we won't have to be afraid of the Cabello family or the Hunt family anymore!"

Nash bobbed his head. Now that the First Elder had achieved the peak of the true god status, their fighting strength had been significantly increased.

More importantly, although Jack had just achieved the intermediate stage of the true god status, he had a keen fighting talent. Along with that ultimate-grade spiritual tool, the White family would grow even stronger if Jack continued to improve his martial level.

"Oh my. I never thought that he would be such a coward. Hah. I really don't understand why First Young Mistress Cabello would like a coward!"

When Keith saw that Jack did not supply an answer, he became even bolder in his taunting, not caring about the White family at all.

"Why doesn't he try to explain himself?"

Alejandro looked at Jack, frowning. His daughter was with Jack not because they were in a relationship, and the White family was on bad terms with his family. Logically, Jack should explain everything. If Jack refused to admit to anything, not only would the Cabello family suffer, Helena would lose face as well.

Yet although Jack was being wrongfully accused, he chose to keep silent. While Alejandro was plenty confused, he was actually delighted as well.

“Do you have a death wish,

Keith?”

Helena could not bear to watch on any longer. “Whatever relationship I have with him, and the type of men I like—none of it is your business!” she huffed. “Are you telling me that I can’t be in love?”

“Tsk tsk. You’re mad because we said that your man is a coward?”

Joshua stood up as well, grinning. “Young Miss Cabello, we did not mean to be rude. But you and your sisters are the captors of our hearts. And Jack is an illegitimate son from the mortal realm—a cat trying to be a lion is still a cat at heart. We don’t want a beautiful woman like you to marry a dog!”

“You...”

Helena was so furious that her face purpled. She clenched her teeth and strode over to sit together with Daniella and the others. “You’d better pray that you don’t run into me in the competition. I’ll make sure you see red otherwise!”

“A dog?”

Nobody expected Jack, who had been keeping quiet all this time, to slowly stand up with a cold smile on his face.

“What’s wrong? Hit a nerve there once it’s about you?”

Joshua gave a cold smile and clenched his fists. “If you’re that angry, why don’t we have a show of strength?”

“All right then. I have no right to deny the great Young Master Norman a duel!”

Jack also gave a cold smile. In a flash, he flew into the sky.

“So fast!”

Many of the youth exclaimed when they saw this.

“That speed is definitely one of the true god status. He definitely has talent. No wonder he’s the heir of the White family!”

Some of the young masters from second-class families stared at him with admiration.

“He may be strong, but the second young master of the Norman family has already broken into the intermediate stage of the true god status. Can this genius from the White family match up to him?”

Someone flashed a bitter smile. “That punk from the White family will only invite trouble now, since he was unable to rein his anger. Heh. He’s too reckless!”

“No way about it. You probably wouldn’t be able to hold your anger in either, if someone told you that you were a coward with a finger jabbing into your nose. What sane person would tolerate that?”

No. 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 1295-1297

Chapter 1295

Someone spoke in a helpless tone.

“All right. You’re less of a coward than I thought!”

Delight sparked in Joshua when he saw that Jack had boldly agreed to the duel. He flew into the sky as well.

However, he quickly thought of something: there was an ultimate-grade spiritual tool in the White family’s possession. It did not matter if it belonged to Jack or Nash, the latter would definitely pass it to the former in fear for his son’s safety. Just to give that extra boost of power during the competition.

Even if Jack were at the beginning stage of the true god status, he would be tricky to handle with that ultimate-grade tool.

“Heh. I think you like to look down on others!”

“Hey, why don’t we just use our fists for this? No spiritual tools.”

No one thought that Joshua would say that after thinking for a while.

Jack’s brows drew together. He did not know whether to laugh or cry. That fellow was actually afraid that he would bring out the ultimate-grade tool and beat him into a pulp.

“Sure!”

Jack nodded his head and clenched his fists, concentrating his chi.

“The competition hasn’t started yet, Joshua. Just spar for a little while and don’t beat him to death. Just give him a good enough beating to teach him a lesson!”

Master Norman said, chuckling.

His three sons were all very competitive, and they were about as strong as the three young daughters of the Cabello family.

He even had the thought of marrying his sons to the Cabello family’s daughters, then they would forge a powerful alliance. They would not even be afraid of the Hunt family then.

Furthermore, it would be of great benefit to him if his three sons married all three daughters of the Cabello family. After all, they were all talented fighters as well.

He never thought that Jack would become Helena’s boyfriend. That news displeased him greatly, and he had told his son yesterday to find an opportunity to kill Jack during the competition.

That was because killing was allowed in this competition. The elders and masters of the families were not to interfere.

“Don’t worry, Father. This punk doesn’t know his place. I’ll make sure to rearrange his teeth for him!”

Joshua spoke, grinning confidently.

After he said that, he tightened his fists and chi poured out of his body. In a blink of an eye, he appeared before Jack and attacked him.

“Hmph!”

Jack merely emitted a soft harrumph at his opponent’s attack. He met Joshua’s fist with his own, and the two fists, enhanced with chi, collided.

Bang!

A powerful burst of energy surged from the contact point of the fists.

Chapter 1296

The two fighters at the intermediate stage of the true god status were very powerful, and had thick auras of chi. The frightening explosion of energy resembled a thunderclap, releasing an ear-deafening noise. Many people jumped to their feet in shock, staring at the sky, stupefied.

“No way. That guy didn’t get blown away!”

Darryl had thought that Jack would be knocked out by his son with a single fist and sustain serious injuries. Yet after holding on for two seconds, his face began to pale. It seemed that Jack was about as strong as his son.

“That guy!”

Helena stared at Jack, lips parted in shock.

“I told you he was conserving his strength, Sis. After all, he wouldn’t want to show his true potential with so many people watching!”

Daniella watched her sister, then lifted her head, pleased with herself. Any man she had her eyes on would have some form of substance.

“No way. That guy is stronger than Joshua?”

Helena was even more taken aback. No wonder Daniella had taken a liking to him. It seemed that he was far more than what he showed on the surface.

At this moment, Jack’s lips curved sardonically. He attacked once more, and his fearsome strength completely suppressed Joshua’s. The other man spat out blood and flew backward, landing a good few hundred meters away.

“Pfft!

A spray of blood came out of Joshua’s mouth as soon as he landed on the ground. Color leached from his face.

“Are you still able to continue fighting, Second Young Master?”

Jack gave a wan smile. He peered down at this opponent from high above, radiating a superior aura.

Jack’s gaze was practically humiliating Joshua.

Joshua gritted his teeth and clenched his fists, but he was well aware that he was no match for Jack. It would be troublesome if he brought out that ultimate-grade tool.

“No wonder the First Young Mistress Cabello likes you. You are very capable and possess great ability after all!”

Joshua stood up and glared at Jack. “I won’t forget this, you punk. We’ll stop our little duel here. I need to conserve my energy for the actual competition, then we’ll see who ‘s stronger!”

“Fine by me!”

“Young Master Jack is amazing!”

The White family members were all delighted. Jack’s fight greatly boosted their reputation.

Before, the White family members did not dare to speak much at every competition and tried to keep a low profile. The more they did that though, the other seven reclusive families all thought of them as easy pickings, and paid no mind to them.

The White family was far stronger than the second-class families causing some of the second-class families to harbor resentment toward them. On the other hand, the other seven first -class families looked down on them. They were basically stuck in the middle, neither here nor there.

Today, Jack showed that they were strong

“Hah, your brother couldn’t beat me the other day and said that he ‘d wait till the competition. And now you’re saying the exact same thing.”

Jack laughed at Joshua. “You two truly are brothers, spewing the same vicious words.”

“Don’t you dare trash talk others! My son doesn’t want to fight you any longer, yet you’re still making fun of him. I should put you in your place!”

Chapter 1297

Darryl felt embarrassed. His sons were all geniuses, and more importantly, they were one of the stronger ones of the eight first-class families.

Yet his son had lost to an illegitimate son from the White family, who came from the mortal realm, no less. That fact alone had embarrassed him enough, but he never thought that Jack would dare to make fun of his son.

He was someone who have always protected his family. He quickly flew forward and clenched his fist, rushing toward Jack.

Whoosh!

On the White family's side, the First Elder also flew forward and stood before Jack, his fist blocking Darryl's.

"It's just a duel between youth. Don't tell me that the Norman family is a sore loser?"

The First Elder's eyes were ablaze with anger. The two backtracked a few meters after their fists collided.

"No way!"

Darryl was shocked, and his eyes nearly popped out of their sockets. If he recalled correctly, the First Elder of the White family was only at the advanced stage of the true god status. Sure, he was not using his full strength just now, but he was at the peak of the true god status. The White family's First Elder should not have been able to take even a simple swipe from him.

"He has attained the peak of the true god status?"

Darryl quickly thought of the possibility, and his face blanched.

He had always thought that the White family only had a single fighter who was at the peak of the true god status. That was why the other families looked down on them.

After all, even the sixth or seventh strongest first-class families had at least two fighters at the peak of the true god status.

If Kenneth had truly broken into the peak of the true god status, it would mean that the White family was comparable to some of the weaker first-class families.

“You do have a good eye, Master Norman. I was lucky enough to break into the peak of the true god status recently, and I have grown several times stronger. I wouldn’t have been able to take your punch otherwise.”

Kenneth burst into laughter. At this moment, everybody’s attention was on him, and he was basking in the glory.

“Kenneth White has achieved the peak of the true god status?”

At this moment, the Lowe family members had just arrived in time to witness all that was happening. Trenton’s face immediately soured.

After all, they have since viewed the White family as their mortal enemy. If Kenneth had broken into the peak of the true god status, the gap between them and the White family would further widen. Who knew when they would be able to avenge his daughter now.

He had thought that the Cabello family were also mortal enemies with the White family and had considered joining forces with the former to go against the latter. He never thought that just a few days ago, First Young Mistress Cabello would actually turn out to be a couple with Jack.

If this was the case, he did not know what to do anymore.

Fortunately, Jack had offended Second Young Master Norman. This sparked delight in his heart. Perhaps there was a way to plot revenge through this.

He had been happy. Then he arrived here and learned that the White family's First Elder had actually broken into the peak of the true god status. It felt as though his heart had been run over by a freight train.

"Heh, Master Lowe, if you can do it, why can't I?"

Kenneth could not help but smile when he noticed Trenton's darkening expression.

"Tsk tsk. Before, we would be hard-pressed to hear news of someone suddenly breaking into the peak of the true god status over a year and a half. Now, why do we have two such specimens today!"

At this moment, the Lancaster family also flew over on a carpet. A beautiful middle-aged woman spoke with a small smile.
