

Chapter 1371.

Trenton then continued, as if he saw the fight with his own eyes, “No doubt, Second Young Master Hunt hates your son for that. It’s highly likely that they had a fight to the death if they happened to meet during the competition. Your son is highly suspicious in this case!”

“Nonsense!” Nash was so angry that his face turned green as he resentfully snapped, “My son is quite strong, but he’s just broken through and achieved the true-god level intermediate stage recently, around one month ago. Even if Second Young Master Hunt hadn’t broken through, my son wouldn’t have bested him. Moreover, Second Young Master Hunt had already broken through and achieved the final stage of the true god level. How could my son stand up against him?”

Agitated to the extreme, Nash could not allow Trenton to blame Chet’s death on members of the White family.

The Hunt family’s old master was also infuriated and stood there in silence. He spoke up when he saw how agitated Nash was, “That’s enough. I don’t think your son is capable enough. I know my grandson’s combat power, and he had trained the second-grade premium martial skill to its best. Together with the fact that the middle-grade spiritual tool can also increase his combat power, it’s impossible for that illegitimate son of your family to kill him!”

Nash relaxed when he heard this. With a faint gesture of his hands, he commented, “Old Master Hunt is a wise man. It’s obvious that this old b*stard Trenton Lagorio is trying to sow discord and get rid of us with a borrowed knife!”

“Haha! Why are you so agitated, Nash White? I was just making assumptions since nobody knows about the situation in the forest at this moment. We can’t even hear the fighting noises there as everything has been isolated by this blue-colored cover. Who knows if your son truly did it? You’re so agitated because you’re afraid and guilty!” Although Trenton also felt that Jack did not do this, he did not want to miss out on this great opportunity to frame Jack.

After all, Jack would really be in trouble if he succeeded in persuading everyone. There was a possibility that the White family would be ripped apart without Trenton doing anything about it.

“I don’t want to waste my time talking to you—all you know is framing others!” Antagonized, Nash crossed his arms at his chest as he ignored Trenton.

Master Lucas, Master Canmore, and even Master Cabello had grim expressions as their families had prodigies at the final stage of the true-god level. Hence, all of them felt that there was a possibility that somebody from their families killed Second Young Master Hunt.

Alejandro Cabello was extremely worried as Second Young Master Hunt had pursued Helena before. What if Helena was the one who killed Second Young Master Hunt because he pestered her during the competition?

After all, he felt that Helena had a terrifying combat power, and it was very likely she was the one who killed him.

Trenton suddenly glanced at Alejandro at this moment. He thought about it before he patted his head and said, "I get it now. That guy Jack might not be able to defeat Second Young Master Hunt, but what if he worked with Eldest Young Mistress Cabello? That's likely, no? Jack has quite strong fighting prowess, and Eldest Young Mistress Cabello has the fighting prowess of the true-god level's final stage!"

Jared had a small frown on his face as he turned to Alejandro.

Alejandro was inwardly nervous, considering Jared had the highest combat power among all the family masters. Even the number one master, the first elder from the Cabello family, was not his opponent.

This was the first time he felt afraid as he met Jared's cold, hateful gaze.

Chapter 1372.

"What sort of nonsense is that?!" Alejandro aimed his glare at Trenton. "Master Lagorio, don't you think I'd kill you if you continue speaking such nonsense? On what grounds are you saying that my daughter is the killer when you don't have any evidence? Show us the evidence if you're so capable!"

"That's right. It's in your others without any evidence!" The White family and Cabello family had bad blood between them for a long while, and that placed them both at odds with each other.

However, this was the first time Nash sided with Alejandro

"That's right. Jack had just broken through and achieved the true-god level intermediate stage, so his combat power isn't strong. Also, while it's true that my daughter is powerful in her own rights, it wouldn't have been so easy if they wanted to kill the Second Young Master Hunt. I don't think they'd both be able to kill him, even when they worked together!" refuted Alejandro angrily.

"Haha... That's hard to say. What if your daughter pretended to seduce Second Young Master Hunt with her beauty? After all, it's difficult for Second Young Master Hunt to resist her seduction, since he likes her so much. What if she attacked the second young master sneakily when his guard was down? Wouldn't the second young master be in trouble then?" Trenton started laughing; it was obvious he would utilize the situation to the best he could for his gain.

The memory of Nash ripping his daughter's fighting prowess set him ablaze with hatred.

Unable to tolerate Trenton's nonsense, the Cabello family's first elder walked forward and snapped, "Trenton Lagorio, you're like a dog right now—a rabid dog, might I add. Do you plan to bite anybody you see?" He looked at the crowd and continued, "Among the geniuses from the Ximenes family, Zachary family, Lancaster family, and even the Church family, which family doesn't have geniuses that are in the final stage of the true-god level? Even if one can't manage it, what if several geniuses work together? Haha... You framing our eldest young mistress baselessly disgust us!"

Similarly, Master Lancaster stepped up to the plate and chimed in, all while he wore an indifferent smile, "That's right. I think that this might be the doing of the Lagorios. Don't the Lagorio family have beautiful ladies, too? Haha...! Since Master Lagorio was the first to speak of seducing one with beauty for a sneak-attack, I'm sure the members of your family are no strangers to such a tactic!"

Master Ximenes was also afraid that it was his son. He thought about it and asked Quentin tentatively, "By the way, Master Hunt, since you're the one who activated this formation, do you know who killed your son via this formation? Apart from that, can your secret technique only inform you that your son died and which of your sons died, but not the killer's identity?"

In fact, this was the first time anyone heard about such an undisclosed technique, and it piqued their curiosity greatly. They had no idea that Master Hunt could come up with something like this.

Quentin smiled bitterly. "I am the one who restored this formation, but this is how the formation is. How would I know what happened in the forest?"

Quentin paused here for a short moment before he continued, "I used this secret technique on my sons because I was worried about them, and also because I wanted to test this secret technique. Alas, this technique can't reveal his killer."

Master Ximenes, Master Zachary, and the other family masters inwardly relaxed when they heard this. All of them were afraid that it was a genius from their family who did this. After all, even though they were strong, they were still weaker when compared to the Hunt family. Apart from that, who would offend the Hunt family without any reason?

"By the way, Master Hunt, didn't you all agree that life and death are personal responsibilities when participating in this competition? In my opinion, Master Hunt should repress your grief and accord with this inescapable change. Is Master Hunt intending to investigate the matter? That doesn't sound fair... When I paid you a visit yesterday, you purposely told me that this competition aims to challenge our prodigies, and that there might be a lot of deaths..."

Master Lancaster, Shelby, smiled and continued, "Hence, the prodigies you spoke of must've included your son and other members of your Hunt family, am I right? It's unfair that our geniuses can die during the competition and yours can't, right?"

Chapter 1373.

The corners of Quentin's mouth slightly twitched when he heard this.

The Hunt family's first elder stepped forward and glared at Shelby angrily while he spoke, "Shelby, what's the meaning of this? How can this be the same? That is our Hunt family master's son, and the second young master is the proudest son of our family master. Second young master is not only talented, but he's also a second grade elementary alchemist. How can you compare such a genius with yours?"

"Haha...! It looks like you people never planned to treat all of them equally!" Shelby smiled coldly. "If that's the case, you guys should've never allowed your family master's son to join the battle!"

"That's right! Are you implying that our sons aren't human beings?"

"You've gone too far this time. How could our sons die but yours can't? Why did you people set such a rule for this competition then?" One by one, some of the elders and family masters from the third-class aristocratic families stood forward and started to show their infuriation.

After all, they had started to worry about their prodigies upon learning the competition's rules. They somehow felt that this competition was a way for Master Hunt to weaken the strength of other families, in fear that some of the families had too many geniuses and would surpass their family in the future.

They could do nothing about it when rules were set in stone.

Nonetheless, how could they not get angry when the other party expressed such a controversial thought?

"First Elder, what nonsense are you speaking about?" argued Old Master Hunt with a cold expression on his face when he saw that the first elder had caused a wave of outrage. "This is a competition, and everything should follow the rules since it's a competition!"

He paused and glanced at Shelby before he added, "Master Lancaster is right. Her children had joined the competition, and whose children aren't children No matter how talented they are, they need to experience adversity. It's fated for Tyrell to die in this competition, and there's nothing to grumble about. We're martial artists, and we should have looked past life and death!"

Quentin eventually nodded, anger suppressed before a smile slowly formed on his face. "Everyone has a point," he began, "I was just sad because the news of my son's sudden death shocked me, though I don't plan to look into it. Regardless of which young master or young mistress from which family killed my son, this only means that there's an extremely strong genius from your lineage. Congratulations."

"Master Hunt truly is a wise man," spoke Shelby with a gesture of her hands.

“Master Hunt is really understanding.”

“That’s right. We have to follow the rules that we set. Otherwise, how do we convince others?” spoke the other family masters, one by one.

Alejandro inwardly relaxed as he felt that Second Young Master Hunt’s killer was Helena -it was highly likely. Tyrell did like her, and being the stubborn person she was, she definitely would not agree to it. It was entirely normal for battles to the death to happen under those circumstances.

Chapter 1374.

“Haha... Don’t worry, the Hunt family can still afford to lose. Apart from that, how can we not follow the rules we set?” Old Master Hunt laughed and seemed to have forgotten that the person who died was his grandson

However, everybody knew the old man would never ignore his grandson’s death entirely. If he knew who did this, he would do his worst and wreak havoc to that person’s life. He would also kill that person if the opportunity surfaced.

“That’s right, let’s all wait and see. Have a look: Several dots of light disappeared from that area, and that meant several people died. I wonder which family they’re from!” spoke Quentin, chuckling as he purposely diverted the conversation while pointing at some area on the screen.

Many people from the families sighed when they heard this. They had made their assumptions when they saw the dots of light disappearing from the screen during this competition. As Quentin reminded them of it, they inwardly prayed and hoped that more geniuses from their families would come back alive.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

In the huge light-blue colored cover, Helena and the others finally flew back at this moment and arrived in front of Jack.

Jack looked at Venus and Daniella before he asked, “How did it go? Have you killed all of them? None of them escaped, right?”

Daniella smiled bitterly and said. “One of them escaped, and this guy took a flying sword out. Since everyone ran away in different directions, scattered, that guy managed to escape.”

Jack’s expression faltered upon hearing the report. “That’s gonna be troublesome. If we kill all of them, nobody would know who killed the Second Young Master Hunt. With that guy escaping and if he leaves this place alive, members of the Hunt family would know that I was the one who killed him.”

“What are you afraid of? The Hunt family are the ones who made the law. They said that life and death are personal responsibilities, and nobody is allowed to look into it after the competition,” spoke a woman from the Cabello family disinterestedly.

However, Venus shook her head. “True, he said that, but he naturally hoped that those who’d die are children from other families, not his own. Under normal circumstances, nobody would really kill his son even if they had the opportunity to do so. That’s their way of giving honor to the Hunt family!”

“That’s right,” Daniella chimed in. “How can he not care about what happened, now that his son is dead? He said that they won’t look into the matter, but only for a moment. Who knows if they’d find some other excuse after some time to cause conflict between both families and attack the other party?”

The woman from the Cabello family glowered at the thought. She turned to Jack and muttered, “That’ll be troublesome. Goodness gracious, we allowed somebody from their side to escape...!”

Jack smiled when he saw everyone around them had lowered their heads like children who had made mistakes. “It’s alright. No doubt, it’s difficult to kill all of them when there are so many of them, and they even escaped in different directions. Apart from that, that guy had a flying sword and was so fast. It’s understandable that none of you could catch up with him.”

“Jack, you were the one who killed Second Young Master Hunt, and we’re thankful that you appeared in time. We won’t divide the things in his martial ring with you. You can keep it!”

Chapter 1375.

Venus offered the ring to Jack after careful consideration.

Everybody knew that since members of the Hunt family roamed with Second Young Master Hunt, putting the other things apart, they must have handed all the tokens they got to him. That meant Second Young Master Hunt’s martial ring stashed various valuable items in it.

“Alright, I’ll thankfully accept it.” Jack did not act hypocritically. He flipped his hand and took out the first grade premium pill he cultivated previously before handing it to Venus. “I didn’t disappoint you, and I’ve succeeded in cultivating the pill this time. This is a gift to you, as promised.”

“Oh, my! What did you give her? Let me see it!” Jack and the others did not expect Helena to fly toward them with over 20 people at that moment.

“A first-grade premium pill!” Helena inhaled deeply when she saw the pill in her second sister’s hand and gushed, “Impressive, Jack, you have such a high-grade pill! But why did you give this to my second sister?”

Jack immediately felt a wave of embarrassment swept through him. He never thought this fake girlfriend of his would come at this moment when he gave the pill to Venus.

It looked like he would be tricked into giving out another pill.

Venus smilingly commented, “Eldest sister, this boyfriend of yours is a treasure. He knows how to cultivate pills, and this pill is the fruit of his labor. This means he’s a first-grade premium alchemist. Isn’t that astounding? No wonder my eldest sister would fall for him and even forcefully kiss him!”

Helena blushed a crimson color when Venus said that; she commented in such a way because she obviously knew Jack and her were only faking it. Their third sister was his girlfriend. Venus’s comment stunned her.

She could not help but roll her eyes at Venus. She soon thought about something and her eyes immediately lit up. She then pretended to walk forward and hold Jack’s shoulder as she said, “Look at you, Jack. You gave my sister a first-grade premium pill, and you haven’t given your girlfriend, me, anything! Shouldn’t you give me a pill too?”

Daniella’s sisters made her flustered. Who would have expected that her elder and second sisters would pretend to not know about her relationship with Jack just so they could blackmail pills from him?

Jack was embarrassed as he was being stared at by the members of the Cabello family who did not know the truth. He could only bite the bullet and continue the act. “Alright, alright, alright... How can I forget about you? Don’t worry. I’ll help cultivate one for you when I have time!”

“Eldest Young Mistress, isn’t... Isn’t this Second Young Master Hunt?” One of the young men who flew over with Helena only realized the body on the ground and inspected it, and the corpse grew more familiar to his memory the longer he looked at it. He inhaled in fright after he walked over to take a look.

“Second Young Master Hunt?” Helena immediately appeared beside the body in a flash, and a frown appeared on her face as she glanced at the body. She looked at Jack and the others before she asked, “Who killed him? Are you the ones who did this?”

“Elder sister, your boyfriend is really strong. He’s the one who killed him!” Venus purposely said with a smile. She even glanced at Daniella, who was beside them, to see if she would be jealous.

Chapter 1376.

“You killed him? Do... Do you have such strong combat power?” Helena, who Second Young Master Hunt nearly killed before, was shocked to the core when she learned that Jack was the one who killed him.

Jack smiled helplessly. “I can’t deny it when so many people saw it.”

“It’s really you!” Helena was in a daze, seemingly unable to comprehend the revelation within such a short moment. She had no idea that Jack was so strong.

She considered it and walked to glance at Jack before she spoke skeptically, “Could it be that you’ve broken through? Have you broken through into the final stage of the true-god level? It’d be difficult for you to kill him if you haven’t broken through, right? I remembered that you brought me to escape before.”

Jack smiled bitterly before he explained to Helena, “Didn’t I tell you previously that there were people eyeing us fighting from the dark? If I killed him back then, members of the Hunt family would easily know about it, and I was worried about the trouble that would cause. Also, I didn’t kill him back then because I didn’t want to offend the Hunt family.”

Jack paused here before he continued, “This time, however, he was the one who came searching for us. He even said that he’d do despicable things to Venus and Daniella after he killed the others. I killed him because there were no outsiders here!”

“Oh, I see!” Helena finally realized what had happened. Jack had indeed mentioned to her that he would have killed Second Young Master Hunt if nobody was secretly observing their fight. Helena thought that Jack was boasting back then and did not pay much attention to it.

Who would have imagined that this guy really had the strength to do it.

“Eldest Young Mistress, Young Master Jack truly overwhelmingly powerful and outstanding. The two of you are a match made in heaven! I really hope that I get to enjoy your wedding dinner sooner or later!” gushed a man from the Cabello family.

“That’s right, Eldest Young Mistress. You truly have good insight, and it’s no surprise now that you insisted on staying single all these years. Turns out, you’ve been waiting for the person fated to be with you. Not only you, but any other woman wouldn’t be able to control themselves around such an outstanding man!” A young woman glanced at Jack and said to Helena, “All of us envy you so much!”

“That’s right, Eldest Young Mistress. Not only is he extremely talented and is able to kill somebody from a higher level, but he’s also capable of cultivating pills. He’s a first-grade premium alchemist at such a young age-who knows how good he’ll grow to be?”

Another young woman was also extremely envious of Helena.

Helena felt abashed and sheepish. She found herself teetering on the thought, sometimes, that it would have been amazing if Jack truly was her boyfriend. This guy became increasingly outstanding the more she observed him, and it helped that he was also quite handsome.

It was also a boon that she could enjoy the envious looks people sent their way.

However, she shook her head and silently told herself to not overthink it as he was her sister's boyfriend.

She smiled and said to the crowd, "Alright, let's go. We need to quickly leave this place, as it'll be troublesome if others saw and knew that we're the ones that killed Second Young Master Hunt."

Chapter 1377.

"Yes, let's go. We need to leave here quickly, and we can't stay in this cave tonight!" Venus immediately spoke up. It was not good if the Hunt family was informed about what happened in this place.

The group of people immediately left the place.

"Oh, thank goodness. We've found you guys at last, Young Master Jack!" Jack and the others met a group of people in an open area after flying for half an hour. They were Beth, Yule, and the White family's other prodigies.

Jack was slightly relieved when he saw so many familiar faces. "How are you guys doing? Did you guys meet with any troubles?"

Yule smiled as she spoke, "Everything is fine. We've been on our best guard and hid far away when we meet people we can't afford to offend. We bumped into some from the Lagorio family, though, and they wanted to take our things despite their somewhat average fighting prowess. As a result, we killed them and took all their tokens!"

Beth immediately walked forward and took a martial ring out from her pocket before handing it to Jack. "We saved all the tokens into this martial ring and thought of handing it to you when we meet you. Haha ...! We've gained quite a lot of tokens. We found a handful of them and snatched some from prodigies of third-rated aristocratic families!"

"Tokens are a small issue being careful is your priority." Jack felt a slight warmth in his heart. After all, Yule, Dawson, Bikini, and the others were extremely talented, though they lacked time and resources to train. He believed that if they got out alive and trained well after they went home, their family would have many experts of the true-god level in the future.

Dawson smiled bitterly and said, "Young Master Jack, we discovered that members of the Hunt family who entered this competition enjoyed killing. They didn't let go of those with lower fighting prowess, even though they handed their tokens obediently. I saw a group of people from the Hunt family chasing after a few prodigies from the Ximenes family!”

“That’s right. I saw members from the Hunt family hunting people from the Ximenes family yesterday. The geniuses from the Ximenes family had already given up their tokens and all their spirited grass, but the other party still hunted them to kill them!”

At that moment, Yule also walked forward and piped in, “The people from the Hunt family have gone too overboard. How can they spare none, even though they have so many experts?”

Jack smiled bitterly after he heard this. “The members of the Hunt family and Lagorio family even cooperated to hunt people from the other families. I think they chose to hold this competition here and made it thirty days because the Hunt family noticed other families had grown well during recent years, so they want to kill our geniuses. They want the other families to have a temporary deficit in manpower so they can enjoy their position in the ranks!”

“They’re so hateful and shameless!” Daniella tightened her fists, enraged without relief. “Curse them! The next time I meet somebody from the Hunt family, I’ll kill them without being afraid of offending the Hunt family!”

“Alright.” Jack nodded. “The other families have no idea about the Hunt family’s intention. These competitors would let go of the Hunt family members with lower fighting prowess once they surrender so they won’t offend the Hunt family. The Hunt family, on the other hand, would kill them all without a chance of escaping, given the opportunity to do so. If that’s the case, many members from the other families might die.”

Helena was speechless. “This is really instigating. We met several members of the Hunt family yesterday. We let them go after they proactively handed their tokens to us and asked me to let them go. I’m afraid that they would not let the other members of the Cabello family go in the future.”

“The next time any of you meet people from the Hunt family, kill them even if they surrender! Our people will only be safe if more of their people die, especially those at the final stage of semi-god level, peak stage of semi-god level, and true -god level!” Jack balled his fists tightly and gritted his teeth, all while fury burned in his eyes.

Chapter 1378.

Everybody rested for the night. In order to be safe, Jack did not let Yule and the others travel by themselves. There were 70 to 80 of them when the members of the Cabello family were gathered together, and all of them continued to travel forward.

However, everybody kept some distance between them to search for the tokens. They then separated, though not too far from one another, and slowly traveled toward the bottom of Kobe Mountain.

It had to be mentioned that there were quite a lot of precious items in Second Young Master Hunt's martial ring. Apart from a large number of tokens, Jack had gotten quite a substantial amount of spirited grass. However, this was not the most exciting part for him. To him, the most exciting part was that there was a nice pill furnace and a couple of pill remedies in Tyrell's martial ring

Some of the pill remedies among the remedies were for second-grade pills. This excited Jack greatly as he did not have any remedies for second-grade pills, and he worried about what he could do in the future. He never thought he would get a myriad of valuable items after killing Tyrell.

Of course, Jack took all of these things out and placed them in his martial ring before throwing away Second Young Master Hunt's martial ring. It would be troublesome if the Hunts found out that Second Young Master Hunt's martial ring was with him after they left this area.

Jack and the others got several tokens within the next three days. They also met several members of the Lagorio family and Hunt family. True enough, Jack and the others took their items and killed them without hesitation.

Time flew by quickly, and the number of Cabellos and White they met gradually grew over time.

The relationship between the Cabello family and White family grew better after they spent their days together; constant fights to take items like what happened before did not happen. Instead, they helped one another when they met with danger and seemed to have become friendly allies.

Thoom! Thoom! Thoom!

As they were about to reach the bottom of Kobe Mountain, Jack and the others heard the sound of an intense battle in front of them.

"Let's go and take a look!" Jack waved his hand and flew over with the others.

It did not take long until they noticed a dozen of the Lagorio family, the Church family, and the Hunt family each surrounded about 20 Lancasters.

There were also many bodies lying on the ground.

“What’s the meaning of this? You people formed an alliance and are attacking us together?” A woman of the Lancaster family at the truegod level’s initial stage was infuriated as she glared heatedly at the people in front of her.

There were quite a large number of them and they would be safe and secure under normal circumstances, unless they met a huge group of people or some psychos who were in the intermediate stage or final stage of the true -god level.

Never did the Lancasters expect to meet 40 to 50 people from a group formed by three families that wanted to attack them.

“You people are despicable. We’re willing to give you our tokens yet you still refuse to agree!” Another man from the Lancaster family was so angry that his face turned green. “This is just a competition! Do you people need to be so ruthless?”

“Haha... What about the competition? This time, our master said that we can kill as we like. These are the rules; what can we do? You weaklings deserve to be killed!” sneered one of the men from the Hunt family as he cackled loudly.

“Really?” A voice, at that moment, chimed in out of the blue, coming from behind them. “This means that you’re weak and deserve to be killed?”

“It’s somebody from the White family!” The people from the Lancaster family were delighted as they had a good relationship with the White family and they would always help each other. Apart from that, Jack was a master in the true-god level’s intermediate stage. They were not sure if the members of the White family would help them after they arrived.

“Why are the White together with the Cabellos?” A member of the Lancaster family frowned before they spoke, smiling bitterly, “I almost forgot that Young Master Jack and the Eldest Young Mistress Cabello are a couple right now. It’s no wonder that their members would travel together.”

Chapter 1379.

“Young man, we’re members of the Hunt family. Does the White family want to go against our Hunt family?” The man from the Hunt family turned around to look at them before arrogantly speaking, “We’ve got our sights on these people from the Lancaster family. Are you people wanting to get involved in this trouble?”

“You mentioned just now that this is the rule, and we’re allowed to kill as we like! Are members of the Hunt family playing favorites and are on a higher pedestal?” With a flip of his hand, Jack took his sword out.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

Members of the White family and Cabello family immediately flew over and surrounded the opponents.

“Amazing! The White family is amazing!”

“That’s right. Never thought the Cabellos would help us, too!” The Lancasters were at the brink of despair before they came. After all, there were fewer of them compared to the opponents, and they were no match for the Hunts who had higher fighting prowess.

They never expected they would come to a turning point at this moment.

“You people need to consider this carefully. What you’re doing is crossing the Hunt family, and you’re standing against the Hunts!” The man from the Hunt family was so frightened that his voice trembled when he saw Jack and the others taking action. In the past, everybody they met had to honor them no matter where they were, so long as they mentioned they were from the Hunt family.

Alas, it backfired this time.

“Haha... You were the ones who mentioned that weaklings deserved to be killed!” Jack laughed and waved his hand. “Kill them!”

“Attack!” The Lancasters straightened themselves in an imposing manner. The fire in their heart was fueled as they could finally exact revenge.

Thoom! Thoom! Thoom!

The surrounded opposing party-about 50 of them – were no match for Jack and the others. Not only were they outnumbered, but their fighting prowess were not as high as Jack and the Cabello sisters. The battle at this area ended within one minute.

“Thank you, Young Master Jack!”

“Thank you to the three beauties of the Cabello family!”

Every member of the Lancaster family was extremely thankful as they stepped forward to thank Jack and the others.

“It looks like the people from the Church family have formed an alliance with them too. They must’ve agreed to this from earlier on.” Jack smiled bitterly as he glanced at the bodies on the ground. “It’s good that we noticed something was wrong about them and killed quite a lot of them.”

“What does that mean? Are these three families conspiring something?” A man from the Lancaster family frowned with a puzzled look on his face.

Jack nodded and surmised, "Yes. They must've agreed to kill members of the other families together and not let anybody go, even if they surrendered or hand over their tokens. They're doing this to solidify the Hunt family's position! Surely, I believe that the Hunts promised some benefits to the Lagorio family and Church family!"

Chapter 1380.

"The Hunts truly are despicable. I'll definitely inform the family master about this after we leave this place alive!" growled the man from the Lancaster family as hatred filled his eyes.

At that moment, the White and the Cabello families have collected all the martial rings from those lying on the ground.

"How should we allocate these?" Jack frowned as he looked at Helena.

Helena had a matching frown, clueless as to how to distribute the items they had.

The Lancasters immediately stepped forward and humbly spoke, "Thank you for rescuing us. We won't take any of these items, so you can just distribute them among yourselves!"

Helena thought about it for a moment before she said, "How about this, Jack: This time, you guys get sixty percent while us Cabellos take the remaining 40 percent. In the future, let's form an alliance with the Lancasters. My family and the Lancasters shall take thirty percent each in the future while your White family gets forty. How does that sound?"

Jack was taken aback to hear her suggestion. "Won't you guys suffer losses with this plan? If I get the most number of items every time, won't you guys be unable to surpass our White family in terms of collecting tokens?"

Helena smiled indifferently. "So what? You have the highest combat power, and even I am not your opponent. It'll be good enough if you don't take our tokens. Apart from that, you're the strongest, so you do the most work and you've even rescued our lives. It's no issue if you take more!"

The members of the Lancaster family chimed in as they smilingly approved, "That's right. What could be more important than our lives? If you guys didn't come on time, we would've been dead by now. It'll be in the best interest to form an alliance with both families!"

Daniella, on the other hand, rolled her eyes at Jack. "Why are you regarding yourself as an outsider? We'll agree to this, got it? Apart from that, your White family had never entered the top seven position, and your best results in the past had been the eighth place. There were even instances where you were positioned behind the tenth position. Don't you want to earn the championship for the White family?"

“Alright them. Since you guys proposed this and supported it, I’d like to thank everybody for this opportunity!” spoke Jack as he gestured to the crowd with his hands.

“Let’s quickly allocate the items and go to the mountaintop. We should immediately gather any members from our families when we meet them on the way,” suggested Helena smartly after giving it a thought. “We can’t allow others to fall alone at this moment. It’ll be troublesome if any of them bump into people from the Hunt family, Lagorio family, and Church family.”

“Alright!” agreed Jack after he assessed the situation.” The most troublesome part right now is still the First Young Master Hunt and the others. I’ve already killed the Church family’s prodigy, Nathan Church. The geniuses from the Lagorio family had been killed while Second Young Master Hunt had also died. Right now, our main threat is First Young Master Hunt!”

“Second Young Master Hunt is also dead?” The Lancasters inhaled sharply when they heard this, unable to believe it.

They could accept that Jack killed the geniuses from the Hunt family to rescue them back there, but Second Young Master Hunt was the son of the Hunt family’s master. Jack and the others were really gutsy to have killed him.

Chapter 1381.

Helena nodded before she glanced at the Lancasters and reminded them, “I hope that everybody can keep this a secret and not tell anybody who killed him, understand? Although the rules were set, it’ll still trouble us in the future once the Hunts’ family master knows who killed his son.”

“Don’t worry, we’ll definitely keep this a secret,” promised every member of the Lancaster family present as they patted their chest in their vow.

Helena thought about it and a frown graced her features once more as she turned to Jack.” Jack, what if we bump into the First Young Master Hunt?” she spoke. “It’ll be nothing if we don’t meet him; a fight would be inevitable if we bump into him! This guy has a much stronger combat power compared to the second young from that, we also need to kill the person from the Draco family that escaped back there!” Helena was evidently anxious. She feared that the Hunt family would learn about what had happened.

Jack sighed, feeling relatively low-spirited. “It’ll be for the best if we don’t bump into them. Nonetheless, I’ll do my best if we happen to run into them.” It had to be mentioned that both young masters of the Hunt family were incredibly talented. Second Young Master Hunt was already quite good, and the first young master was, in fact, better than him. This made Jack rather unsure as he had no idea if he could manage to kill him.

“Don’t worry. I believe in Jack, he can definitely do it!” attested Daniella faithfully as she was all too confident in Jack.

The group soon separated their trophies. Sure enough, Helena and the others knew that Jack knew how to cultivate pills, so they allowed him to get first pick on the ingredients suitable for cultivating pills in terms of spirited grass while they took what was left.

That evening, they could not find a cave large enough for all of them to rest in. Apart from that, Helena, Venus, and the others had quite a high fighting prowess, so there was no need for that. They found an empty plot of land and started a fire. They were prepared to spend the night surrounding the bonfire while arranging for several people to take turns in keeping watch.

Jack was free but he did not let time go to waste. He took the pill furnace out and started cultivating pills. After all, he had promised to give Helena a first-grade premium pill, and Jack did not want to owe her anything. He wanted to give her the pill as soon as possible so the burden would be lifted off of his mind.

However, the first batch of ingredients failed at the most crucial part this time around. The second time, Jack took another batch of ingredients out and successfully cultivated the pill.

“I did it!” Jack looked at the Pill in his hands and nodded in satisfaction. “The color of this pill is quite good!”

“Haha...! This is for me, right?” Helena looked at the pill with anticipation. The pill’s faint aroma made her swallow her saliva.

“Of course, it’s what I’ve promised you!” Jack smiled and was inwardly speechless. These three beauties had managed to get three pills from him, and the astounding part was that their excuses made him feel like he had to give it to them.

After giving the pill to Helena, Jack found a place before he started to look at the secondgrade elementary pill remedy he got from Second Young Master Hunt’s martial ring, considering the sun had not risen yet and it was still early. Images of how to cultivate this pill appeared in his head while he inspected the pill remedy.

Chapter 1382.

Another two days passed and Jack and the others had met members from the Lancaster family and Cabello family on their way, which increased the size of their group.

Jack and his group took no prisoners when members from the Hunt family, the Church family, and the Lagorio family came to attack them. Jack took 40 percent of the trophies they obtained while the Lancasters and the Cabellos took 30 percent each.

At that moment, everyone saw the changes on the huge blue light cover from outside the cover.

“Have you seen that? There must be about two hundred people from that group of people, no?”

They had gathered so many people so quickly! There’s another group of light spots with quite a huge number of people, but they’re staying at that place and aren’t moving. The people from this light group are slowly approaching the other group. I’m afraid the other light spots are going to go out soon!” Somebody once again analyzed the situation on the screen. There were only about ten days left for the competition, and about one third of the light spots on the screen had disappeared.

This meant that one-third of the prodigies overall had died in the forest.

Many members from various families started to experience a wave of heartache, especially members from the second-class and third-class aristocratic families. After all, the geniuses from these families did not have a high fighting prowess and were not comparable to the eight reclusive families. They wondered how many from their families had died.

The most crucial part was that since there were ten days left, most of the people had started to move toward Kobe Mountain, situated at the heart of the forest, to gather. People would surely drop like flies once they meet at the mountain, much faster than ever before. If that was the case, some of the families would suffer a huge loss.

“Master, do you think that the largest group of light spots are members of our family?” The Hunt family’s First Elder walked two steps forward and spoke to Quentin softly after he glanced at the screen. “The Second young master might be dead, but don’t worry about it — the first young master will surely find the killer and kill him to avenge the second young master!”

Quentin’s heart ached at the thought of his second son. He gritted his teeth and said with a low voice, “I wonder which genius is capable enough to kill Tyrell. Hopefully, the eldest is able to avenge his younger brother!”

“Don’t worry, Master. Cloud will surely avenge Young Master Tyrell,” comforted the Hunts’ First Elder.

He paused for a short while before he continued, “No matter how it is, our second young master won’t be lonely as prodigies from other families are accompanying him in the afterlife.”

Quentin, however, smiled bitterly. “Unfortunately, we’ve suffered too big of a loss this time. Tyrell isn’t only talented, but he’s also an alchemist. A second-grade alchemist! He may be able to cultivate second -grade premium pills after a couple of years. By then, our Hunt family will be...”

Quentin’s heart was filled with regret when he thought of this. He regretted his impatience. Truth be told, it was already very difficult to sway the Hunt family’s position. His son was capable of cultivating second-grade premium pills, and that was extremely helpful to people in the intermediate or final stages of the true-god level. What did their Hunt family have to be afraid of?

The group that showed up as over 200 light spots on the screen, and the light spots at the bottom of Kobe Mountain, finally converged into one group. Everybody started to pay attention to that area as they wanted to see if there would be a fight. After all, although they did not know the situation inside, they were able to determine the situation inside by observing the activity of the light spots and if the light spots would suddenly disappear.

They soon noted, however, that none of the light spots in that area disappeared. This meant that no fights happened there as those people had instead banded together.

“This is great. Look: I was right when I said that the young master asked us to wait here!”

Chapter 1383.

In the cover, hundreds of members from the White family were elated upon meeting Jack and the others. They hid on top of the trees and only jumped down when they spotted Jack and his company.

“This is great. At least there are still so many members of the White family waiting here!” Jack was slightly at ease when he noticed a sizable amount of the White family’s prodigies. He feared beforehand that many of his family were slain in battles.

There were at least 100 of them present. As for the other members of the White family, who knew how many of them were scattered in which areas?

Yule thought about it and asked Jack, “Brother Jack, what should we do now? Do we still need to continue waiting here?”

“Yes, let’s wait for another two days. After all, many members from the White family should be on their way here,” replied Jack as he came to a decision.

“Oh my god. Your people have been waiting here You guys have discussed this before? I envy you people. I wonder how the members of my family are right now. Who knows how many members from our Lancaster family are still alive right now!” A genius from the Lancaster family and was in the true-god level’s final stage was incredibly envious when he saw the large gathering of the White family in this spot.

“Luckily, we arrived quite early, and other families with a larger group size have yet encountered them. Otherwise, we’d be in trouble if they were destroyed by members of another family.” Jack could not help but smile bitterly. After all, he discovered that most of the White family’s geniuses in this spot were at the semi-god level, and only one or two of them were in the true-god level. There were, in total, about seven or eight ninth-grade grandmasters.

With such fighting prowess, these people would have found themselves in a tight situation if a much stronger family with several strong masters encountered them.

“This is true. It’s great if there are masters when everybody gathers together, or it would’ve been quite dangerous!” Helena nodded seriously after she thought about it

Thoom! Thoom! Thoom!

At this moment, a group of people were running toward them from not too far away as they were hounded by a group of people.

Jack, who was originally sitting in the tree, flew upward in a flash and looked over there from far away.

Chapter 1384.

“Guess the people from the Church family truly have become the Hunt family’s obedient followers!” Helena also flew upward, though she did not follow after Jack knowing he could easily settle everything alone.

In this competition, the only person who could fight him would be the first young master of the Hunt family, Cloud Hunt!

“Everybody, quickly. Move faster! Faster! There should be members of the White family in the front area, since Young Master Jack asked them to wait there. Let’s continue to fly; we’ll be saved if there are members of the White family up ahead!” The young woman flying in front had the fighting prowess of the semi-god level’s final stage. Such fighting prowess could be considered applaudable.

However, her arms were covered in blood as sweat covered her forehead. She was slightly pale, a telling sign she was badly wounded and worn out.

There were seven to eight people behind her. Some of them were Lancasters while the remaining others were from the White family.

Tailing them were over 20 members from the Hunt family that launched attacks after attacks maniacally.

“Get them! Don’t let them escape!” A man from the Church family had a spiteful expression on his face as he led his people forward, swinging his sword at the attempting-escape party.

Whoosh!

A wave of sword aura swung forward.

“Curses!” A man from the White family saw that the sword aura was aiming at him, and he was obviously within the range of attack. He gritted his teeth and stopped. “Go ahead, guys. I’ll stop them here as long as I can. You guys have to avenge me when you guys find backup later!”

“Brother Aiden!” A woman turned around to him as her eyes turned red. She grew up with him, and they were like genuine siblings. She knew that Aiden would die if he stayed back.

However, there was nothing they could do. If they did not leave one person back to stall the other party, everybody might die. There were already a few people who stayed back to buy time for everybody else.

“Look, somebody is coming over to help us!” A member of the Lancaster was filled with hope and joy when he spotted someone flying toward them.

“There’s only one person. What can he do? If he has low fighting prowess, he’s just going to die!” spoke another member of the Lancaster family with a bitter smile.

“No, he’s traveling toward us so quickly. It seems...to be the young master of the White family!” The first person from the Lancaster family then realized it was Jack, and he was delighted.

Thoom!

Behind them, Aiden forcefully withstood the sword aura from his opponent, but he was incredibly tired. He had been fighting continuously for a long period and had escaped for some time. There was not much Chi left in his body.

“Die!” Another member of the Church family standing opposite of him activated a martial skill. He balled his hands into fists and punched forward. A fist formed by coagulated Chi appeared and rushed toward Aiden who was in front of him.

“D*mn it... Am I going to die?” Aiden White did not have time to turn around and look. He believed that the delay he caused would help Chloe and the others to fly further away. In that case, the chances of them staying alive would increase hugely,

The chances of them being saved would be higher if other members of the White family discovered them shortly after this.

Whoosh!

However, as he was prepared to carry out another attack while he gritted his teeth, another figure appeared in front of him in a flash. He tightened his fists and swung one toward him without even using his Chi.

“I don’t even have time to use my Chi. Crap! Will I die?!”

Chapter 1385.

Aiden was slightly stunned and frightened at the same time. He thought that one of his teammates that ran away with the rest turned back to find him.

He was extremely moved but, at the same time, felt that this person was foolish. Would this not result in another death?

It was not longer until he noticed that the incoming figure was so familiar and stalwart.

“It’s Young Master Jack!” He soon recognized Jack and was filled with joy. Jack was a master in the intermediate stage of the true-god level. Although Jack did not use any martial skill, it was not difficult for a master in Jack’s level to receive the attack from a person in the final stage of the semi-god level.

Thoom!

Sure enough, Jack easily destroyed the Chi punch from the other party into ashes after a horrendous explosion was heard.

“Sh*t! Who’s that?” Frightened, members from the Church family immediately stopped chasing after their opponents when they saw what happened.

The members of the White family and Lancaster family who ran for their lives also stopped running as they struggled to catch their breath

“This guy seems to be the White family’s young master!” One of the geniuses from the Church family frowned, and his expression continued to darken after he thought about it. “Curses. This guy is actually here. He’s in the intermediate stage of the true-god level!”

“Run!” None of the prodigies-over 20 of them-that chased after Aiden and his friends were at the true-god level. Overridden with fear upon recognizing Jack, they turned around and started escaping. Their previously imposing manner to conquer everything was nowhere to be seen.

“Hmph!” Jack made an indignant sound before he swung his sword toward their direction several times, and the scary circle-shaped sword aura flew forward.

Shink! Shink! Shink!

With that, some of the opponents were cut into halves as they lifelessly dropped from the sky.

“Big Wave Hits!” Jack activated his martial skill and killed the remaining others.

“Young Master, you... You came just in time. I thought I was going to die just now!” Aiden gazed at Jack, grateful that he came.

Aiden was one of the geniuses Jack chose from the branch families, and he was just in the initial stage of the semi-god level when Jack chose him, not too far from entering the intermediate stage. At this moment, he had already achieved the final stage of the semi-god level. It could be said that he was already extremely talented.

“These people from the Church family are suicidal!” Jack glanced at the bodies on the ground and smiled at the crowd. “Don’t you guys worry. Those who are hurt should rest! And tend to your wounds. Rest for a couple of days before we discuss the next steps. The others are in the forest over there.”

“Young Master Jack, can you help us? There are a dozen Lancasters, including our young master, who is surrounded over there by others. We tried our best to escape from being surrounded and wanted to see if we could get some help!” A woman from the Lancaster family flew over and looked at Jack beggingly. “Please, Young Master Jack. Are there a lot of people from the White family over there? If there are a lot of them, please help us. We’ll remember your great kindness!”

“Are there a lot of people surrounding your young master and the others?” asked Jack immediately after hearing the woman’s plea. “How many people are there?”

“I think there are about fifty to sixty members from our Lancaster family, but I have no idea how many of them are left right now. There are about a hundred people surrounding us, and they’re mainly members of the Lagorio and Church family!” explained the woman thoughtfully. “Ah, yes, there are also a couple of members from the White family who didn’t manage to escape and are with our young master.”

“Alright, the others should take a rest over there. Bring me to them!” With the flip of his hand, Jack took the flying sword out and threw it into the sky. The flying sword enlarged and he jumped onto the sword with the woman. The two of them went flying toward the direction they originally came from in a flash.

Chapter 1386.

“Master White, there are a lot of people on the other side. Moreover, our young master is in the middle stage of the True God Realm. They can’t rush out of the encirclement, because there are three in the Lagorio family In the middle stage of the True God Realm. They also have several in the early stages of the True God Realm, plus there is a large number of them. I don’t know how long our Young Master can hold on!”

Flying through the sky, the Tudor girl was a little worried. Jack had rushed forward to save her people, and her heart was moved, but if Jack rushed over by himself, it seemed a little too reckless.

“Don’t worry, I’ll just go by myself. If I get others to follow, a lot of time will be wasted. I’m afraid I would be late, and then your young master will not be able to hold on!”

Jack smiled bitterly and flew for a while. Soon, the sound of fighting could be heard.

“That’s the direction, right?” Jack pointed to the direction from which the sound of fighting came.

“Yes, we’re almost there!” The woman nodded and looked at Jack. This guy is too confident. It seems that his combat effectiveness is really extraordinary.

“Master, it’s over, we’re dead!”

The people in the middle were still fighting desperately. There was a man standing next to the son of the Tudor family’s Master, feeling a little desperate in his heart.

The number of them is really too small, and as time goes by, the number will decrease.

They now have only more than 30 people left, and there are still more than 90 people on the other side. They’re far outnumbered.

“These guys are really tenacious!”

A man from the Trevino family temporarily stopped his attack. After a long battle, he was exhausted and used a lot of aura, and he was also very tired.

“Haha, don’t expect those people who just fled to be able to find anyone to rescue them. Our people will definitely catch them up and kill them!”

Another Lagorio family man also laughed loudly: “You are too stupid. Just listen to the White family’s people saying that they agreed that the White family should gather in the middle of the foot of the mountain. They really thought that the White family’s people would be able to save them? Even if they found people from the White family, they may not be able to save them!”

“Impossible!”

Rufus Tudor, the young master of the Tudor family, at this time there were a few sword-chi cuts on his body, and his sleeves were stained red with blood, looking very tragic.

However, he still clenched his teeth and fought because he knew that even if they surrendered, these people would not let them go! they could only fight desperately.

Yesterday, he saw several Tudor family members with his own eyes, who had already surrendered and handed over the token, but in the end they were killed by the other party.

“There are four or five White family members here. If the White family members find out, they will definitely come back to help. Humph, if they can bring one or two hundred White family members over, you will be dead!”

Rufus gritted his teeth, this was their only hope. although he didn't know whether he could hold on for that long.

The other people also temporarily stopped attacking. while the Lagorio family and Trevino family members stood aside one by one, looking at the people who were surrounded by them, like lambs to be slaughtered.

“I believe the people of the White family and the Tudor family are very loyal, and the relationship between our two families has always been very good!”

Said Rufus after gritting his teeth. He spoke firmly. He knew that It's their only hope, and he can only say that so everyone will not despair and will continue to kill the enemy, and wait for the arrival of reinforcements.

“Among the White family, I don't think there are many who can fight. The only one who is more powerful, called Jack. He is only in the middle stage of True God Realm, so even if he comes, it's useless, you know?”

The man in the middle of True God Realm opposite the Trevino Family laughed again.

Chapter 1387.

“Master, Master, look! Someone is coming over there!” At this moment, a man from the Tudor family suddenly saw a flying sword above him, quickly approaching.

Hearing that someone was coming, Rufus was happy at first. When he saw only two people, his smile instantly faded. What's the use of just two people coming?

“Perhaps they are passing by!” Rufus smiled bitterly at last, and said helplessly.

“Yes, it's the young master of the White family!”

Hearing that it was Jack, Rufus’s originally hopeless mood became a little excited.

“He has a flying sword, if we can rush in, maybe we can use the flying sword to escape, even if we escape halfway, that’s fine!”

Another woman, after thinking about it for a while, was also ignited in her heart with a glimmer of hope.

The man from the Trevino family twitched slightly at the corner of his mouth: “Do you really dare to come?”

He clenched his fist and blasted his fist directly at Jack: “You are alone, I think it’s time to kill you! This will be a great achievement!”

As he blasted out with a punch in front of him, an aura fist appeared, and went straight to Jack.

Jack stopped not far from there, and after a cold snort, he also clenched his fist and blasted his fist out.

In front of Jack, there was also a huge aura fist. but this aura fist was obviously much larger than the opponent’s aura fist, and it seemed to be a lot more solid.

A huge roar sounded, and the opponent’s fist soon cracked, and the cracks continued to spread. Finally, it exploded with a bang and turned into dust.

And the fist that Jack blasted out, with some remaining energy, continued to move forward and came in front of the Trevino man.

When the Trevino man saw the situation, his face was gloomy. He had no time to gather more aura, so he could only grit his teeth and blast out with his fist.

He believed that although he did not use aura and did not have time to use martial arts, he was a powerhouse in the mid-True God Realm. The opponent’s attack had already been decreased by 70% or 80% just now, so he should be able to easily accept take the attack.

There was another terrible roar. In the next second, Jack’s attack hit him. The Trevino man was shocked by this powerful force. After being thrown back several tens of meters, he barely was able to stabilize himself and catch his footing.

The Trevino man spit out a mouthful of blood, his face was shocked “How can this kid’s combat effectiveness be so strong?”

Chapter 1388.

Jack was clearly in the middle stage of the True God Realm. But at this moment, the man from the Trevino family felt like he was facing a strong person in the late stage of the True God Realm. That kind of pressure is really extraordinary.

Judging from the fight between the two just now, both of them had a very ordinary attack, but he was simply at a complete disadvantage.

“This guy is very strong. I will join forces with you to kill him. The rest of you kill the Tudor family and the White family members. Rufus and others are already seriously injured. They won’t be able to hold on for long!”

Another man in the middle of the Trevino Family’s True God Realm also felt the terribleness of Jack, and flew over and stood with the other man.

Jack looked at the Tudor family woman behind him, and said. “You take a rest!”

“Okay!”

The woman was a little bit astonished, but it was true that she was also seriously injured. In addition, she used too much aura. After thinking about it, she flew to the side, stood there, and took out a small spiritual stone and began to absorb spirit stones, intending to restore some aura.

After Jack shrank the flying sword, he took it in his hand and said “I think you won’t be able to hold on for long!”

“Hehe, boy, we are two people. As long as we hold on for a while, they will kill the rest, and when those guys are killed, we will besiege you together. We will see if you can face us by yourself!”

The man from the Trevino family chuckled, also flipped his palm and took out his sword.

Jack snorted coldly, too lazy to talk nonsense with the other party, and directly injected aura into the sword in his hand.

On his body, a terrible aura was slowly released, and the two people on the opposite side felt a very powerful aura in an instant.

“This kid is clearly in the middle stage of the True God Realm. This aura is too strong!” The Trevino family man who flew from behind couldn’t help swallowing his saliva. He took out his sword and injected aura into it.

“You guys have reached such a high cultivation level and you are still so young. To be honest, it’s a pity that you are going to die!” Jack sighed and slashed out.

In front of him, there was a terrible wave of sword aura suddenly. The wave was getting higher and higher, and it mixed with the aura with an extremely swift and violent rush.

“Kill!”

The other two also send out two terrifying sword auras.

Two terrible roars sounded almost at the same time, all of them were bombarded with Jack's attack.

However, their attack was like two big rocks smashing into the lake water. Although there were countless waves, it did not have a substantial effect at all, and it was destroyed after a while.

“No, run away!”

One of the men from the Trevino family saw Jack's attacks coming at them and his face turned pale in fright. At this time, he knew the guy in front of him was terrible. They even wondered whether they were facing a powerhouse at the peak of True God Realm.

“My God, how could it be possible!” The other guy swallowed his saliva and turned around to run away.

Jack's attack was too fast. They just turned around and before they flew a few meters away, they were hit in the back by the terrifying aura wave and beheaded.

“No way, the two strong men of our Trevino family were actually beheaded in less than a minute?”

The Trevino family and Lagorio family were full of confidence, but when they looked back, they were completely dumbfounded. The two True God Realm powerhouses died so quickly.

Chapter 1389.

Rufus looked at the situation and instantly aroused his fighting spirit. Jack suddenly killed two strong men. leaving only one in the middle of True God Realm, while his morale was definitely low, this turned it around. They finally turned defeat into victory!

“No way, our plans will be ruined!”

The Lagorio family's mid-True God Realm guy saw that two others were not Jack's opponents and they were both beheaded. Suddenly he was very scared. Looking at the other people here, there was no fighting spirit. After gritting his teeth, he turned around and prepared to escape.

However, what he didn't expect was that he had just turned around and found that Jack was already standing behind him, looking at him with a smile.

“Master Jack, our Lagorio family and your White family have had a very good relationship in the past. Although Miss Lily’s affairs caused some conflicts between the two families, we can’t ignore the past friendship, can we?”

The man’s eyes turned around, he looked at Jack white with a smile.

“The friendship from the past?”

Jack listened and felt funny in his heart. He pointed to the corpses of the several White family members on the ground and sneered: “Look, this is the friendship you were talking about, isn’t it? With the past friendship, will we hurt the masters of the White family and join hands with the Trevino family, huh? If I didn’t come today, I’m afraid the people here would all die here!”

Jack was taken aback, and immediately looked back.

From this look, Jack discovered that there was nobody was behind him, and when he turned around again, the Lagorio Family fellow had already turned and flew out two or three miles away.

“The speed is quite fast!”

Jack smiled coldly, and caught up with him in a flash.

The Lagorio family man used his speed to the extreme. He believed that as long as he flew farther and rushed into the forest over there, he would hope to escape.

However, Jack’s speed was too fast. When he looked back, he was speechless. Jack’s speed was at least twice his speed. After a few breaths, he had already come behind him.

“Go to hell!” Jack blasted out with a punch, and the thick aura on it wrapped his fist with strong fluctuations.

As soon as the man saw it, he had to stop immediately, and also punched out.

Jack’s power was too great. In the next second, he slammed into the ground like a cannonball. A small pit appeared on the ground, and the man also spurted out a mouthful of blood.

“Please, let me go, I know I was wrong...”

The man kept coughing up blood, looking at Jack pleadingly.

“Go and beg those who were killed by you before!”

Jack smiled coldly, and killed the opponent with a single blow.

After taking down the opponent's ring, Jack flashed and flew back again.

After seeing that Jack killed the three mid-True God Realm powerhouses so quickly, the other dozens of people, completely demoralized, and after several more people died, fled one by one.

However, under Jack's pursuit, in the end only a few people barely rushed into the forest and escaped a catastrophe. Everyone else was beheaded.

"There are too many people, all of you are seriously injured and can't catch up, otherwise, they have all died here!" Jack flew back again and said with a wry smile.

Chapter 1390.

"Haha, you, you are too greedy!" Rufus laughed loudly "Killing so many of them this time satisfied me. If you came later, I guess we would be dead!"

"Yeah, Master Jack, thanks to you, otherwise we would be dead. Those guys wouldn't give up!" A master from the White family said with emotion.

"Let's go, clean up the battlefield first, I will take you with my flying sword afterward, and go to meet the White Family, Cabello Family, and Tudor Family!"

Jack smiled and said to everyone.

"Tudor family? Is there anyone from the Tudor family over there?" After Rufus heard this, his eyes lit up and he was happy.

"Not a lot! They are all waiting for us in the woods under the mountain!" Jack nodded and said.

"Tudor family come here!" Rufus called the Tudor family over, then knelt down and bowed to Jack: "Thank you, Master Jack for saving us. Your great kindness, it will be remembered forever!"

"Thank you, Master Jack for your kindness, we will never forget!" The other masters, now kneeling on the ground, in front of Jack shouted.

"Get up all of you, this is too much, it's no big deal!" Jack was embarrassed and called everyone up in a hurry.

"Master Jack, I will give you all the spoils for a while!" Rufus said directly after thinking about it.

“No? You killed so many people from the Trevino family and Lagorio family and you want to give me all the spoils?”

After Jack listened, his face showed his shock, wondering if he had heard it wrong.

“Yeah, I’ll give it all to you. If it weren’t for you, I’m afraid I would not see the sun tomorrow in Rufus. You must keep it!” Rufus said while the other went to collect the loot.

“Well, I’ll hold it for now. When we are about to leave the arena, let’s see how many tokens there are. Then, let’s distribute it again. Otherwise, I will be far ahead of everyone. I’m afraid it’s not good, right?” Jack smiled, facing Rufus.

Jack knew very well in his heart that he would be happy if the spirit grass was given to him, but if all the tokens were given to him, at that time, his tokens alone would be several times that of other family master tokens. This is too difficult to explain.

When the time comes, even if the Hunt family has no evidence, they will doubt him.

“Haha, okay, anyway, you have to take the first place, it does not matter if we have tokens or not, this time, you must get the first place!”

Rufus paused, then said: “By the way, brother Jack, I have decided that you will be my eldest brother in the future. I really admire you. The fact that you can come back from the common world and cultivate to the point where you are today is definitely not easy. From now on, I will be your little brother, and you will be my elder brother!”

Jack’s expression was a little weird, and he was humbled: “That’s not good, but you are the son of the Tudor Family Master, how can you recognize me as the eldest brother? No? I know how many people look down on me because I came back from the common world. They look down on me as an illegitimate child. If you recognize me as a big brother, I am afraid that you will be laughed at!”

“Laughed at? Who dares laugh at me behind my back? I will kill them!”
