Chapter 1395-1397

Chapter 1395

“Young Master Jack, you’re so, so, so strong!”

Liah also flew toward the group and looked at Jack with an envious face. “Why do I feel that you’re not at the intermediate stage of the true god realm at all? With your combat strength, you’re at least at the late stage of the true god realm or perhaps even at the peak stage!”

“She’s right! You this brat, if you break through to the late stage of the true god realm, I think that even some strong fighters at the peak stage of the true god realm would be afraid of you!”

Martin was envious of Jack.” Now I think about the past when I was looking down on you. Ugh. I’m so ashamed of myself. I’m definitely not a match for you! Sigh! I must admit that, right?” He was reminded of the past and could not help but self-deprecated.

“Haha, you two. Stop praising me!”

Jack smiled gently, then he waved his hand and two healing pills appeared in front of them. “Take it. You look heavily wounded!”

“Hehe, thank you very much, our dear Young Master Jack!”

The two chortled sheepishly and took the pills that Jack had offered. They then swallowed the pills.

After only a few minutes, Martin could sense the effectiveness of the healing pill, and felt that the injuries on his body were recovering slowly. Even more unbelievable, several injuries on his skin were healing at a speed visible to the naked eye.

“Holly-molly! Young Master Jack, how is this healing pill of yours is so effective? Okay. I need to learn from you. When you have time, you have to teach me how to create such a pill. I have no idea how to refine such a healing pill, with my current knowledge and ability, I should still be able to learn it, right?”

Martin looked at Jack with shining eyes, as though he was a puppy begging for food from his Master.

“Alright, I’ll teach everyone how to create and refine it once we return to the White family residence after the tournament ends. The creation process of this healing pill is not hard to learn. The only thing you will find troubling learning is matching the ingredients of some drugs. As long as you master it, you’re good to go!”

Jack beamed warmly. He then led the crowd and soon arrived at the place where everyone gathered.

“My goodness, there are so many people here! The Three Golden Flowers of the Cabello family, as well as Randall of the Lancaster family, are all here!”

When they arrived in the White, Martin, Liah, and the others were stunned at the scene before them. Many people were gathered there.

“Let’s wait out for the next two days, and after tomorrow, we’ll all set out for the mountains together to find more tokens!”

In the afternoon, more of the White family and Lancaster family came. When they noticed Jack and the others were there too, they were all overjoyed.

All of them breathed a huge sigh of relief, especially those who had been chased by the Lagorio family and the Church family before and had escaped from death. As long as they survive the next few days, they could leave safely, and it marked the end of the tournament.

Of course, the number of participants in the tournament was decreasing.

Two days passed by quickly, and on the third day, the crowd set off, heading toward the mountain.

As for the distribution of the tokens and spoils of war, everyone decided to go according to the previous agreement. The White family would take 40 percent, and the other two would take 30 percent respectively.

In the opposite direction of the Kobe Mountain, several geniuses from the Hunt family had finally met up with Cloud Hunt.

“First Young Master Hunt, we ‘ve finally found you!”

One of the men was thrilled that he almost jumped for joy.

Cloud bobbed his head, but his expression was somewhat solemn. “Strange, why didn’t I meet people from the Hunt family along the way? Moreover, even strong fighters of the Church and the Lagorio family are nowhere to be found. Instead, I only met a few weaklings.”

The man’s face sunk to the deepest, and with a gloomy tone, he said, “Young Master Cloud, Young Master Tyrell and the others including people of the Hunt family, elite fighters from the Church and the Lagorio family, they...they’re all dead! We saw their bodies on the way!”

Chapter 1396

The corners of Cloud’s mouth twitched a few times, and his body froze, unable to believe the new fact.

After countless seconds, only then he grabbed the man’s collar and lifted him up. “Say it again! If you dare to lie to me, I’ll tear you apart!” He stared at the man with hatred.

“Young Master Cloud, it’s true! You can ask the rest of them; they saw the body too.

And we found Young Master Tyrell’s ring in the bushes! The killer must have taken the things inside the ring and thrown it aside!”

The man scrunched his face and his voice trembled with fear. He then took out the ring shakingly and handed it to Cloud.

Only then did Cloud let go of him and took the ring from the man. His eyes were flushed red and his teeth gritted tightly. “Who the hell did this? Who on earth could actually kill my brother? That person must have broken through to the late stage of the true god realm in order to do that, and possess terrifying combat prowess. My brother is actually dead...”

“Young Master Cloud, we do not know who did it. By the time we got there, a pack of wild wolves was already there, gnawing on Young Master Tyrell’s body. If we went there a little later, I’m afraid that we would not even recognize Young Master Tyrell’s body!”

Another man from the Hunt family spoke up with a gloomy face. “Young Master Cloud, although Young Master Tyrell was a little bit mischievous, he was indeed a rare genius. He sometimes even gave the pills he made to us! You must avenge him!”

“Of course!”

Cloud was so angry that he gritted his teeth and clenched his fist. “No matter who did it, I must avenge my little brother!”

“But, but, we don’t even know who did this, how can we possibly avenge Young Master Tyrell?”

The man before furrowed and asked after giving the matter some thoughts.

Cloud sneered coldly and viciousness took over his eyes. "Isn't it obvious? There are only a few who have the strength and power to kill my brother. I just need to find all of them and kill them one by one. Then it'd be considered as revenge for my brother!"

A young girl from the Hunt family stood up and gave her two cents, "Young Master Cloud, I think the First Young Mistress Cabello is most likely the killer!"

"Why so?"

Cloud frowned and asked.

"Young Master Tyrell confessed his love to her the last time, and this woman rejected him. Even worse, she kissed the young master of the White family in front of Young Master Tyrell! Perhaps you were not updated on this matter as you were training in isolation at that time. Anyway, I feel that the kissing part was a huge blow to Young Master Tyrell. The woman shamed him in public!"

"Besides, you also know that Young Master Tyrell cared about his image and reputation dearly. He didn't show it on the surface, but why did he suddenly want to participate in the tournament when he refused a few times before? Why did he do that? Was it not for that woman? He must have met that woman and wanted to make a move on her, only, he didn't expect to be killed by her instead!"

The man chimed in and presented his analysis to Cloud.

After listening to them, Cloud bobbed his head slowly in agreement. "Sounds reasonable and logical! The possibility of Helena killing Tyrell is very high. And my brother trusts women too easily. Perhaps that woman used her beauty to seduce and confuse my brother, then gave my brother a fatal blow when he was defenseless! She knew my brother's weakness toward beautiful women, seized the opportunity, and killed him!"

"You're right! If the Second Young Master was aware and defensive, basically nothing and no one could possibly kill him! But if he was distracted and defenseless, the tables are turned! So I feel that it was definitely that b*tch Helena Cabello who did it!”

The man from before, once again expressed his thoughts with confidence, as if he had witnessed the whole incident.

“Helena Cabello, I think she is the one. It’s impossible that the killer is from the Church family, not to mention the Lagorio family. And the Norman family has a close relationship with our family, so the possibility has decreased by now. There are not many families remaining!”

Chapter 1397

Cloud clenched his fist tightly. “The brat from the White family has weaker martial status and combat prowess, so he can’t be my brother’s killer. As for the Lancaster family and the other families, although we’re not close with them, we’re not enemies, and they have no issue with my little brother. I think our main goal now is to find Helena Cabello and kill her to avenge my brother!”

“Now there are only a few days left till the end of the tournament, and I guess the other party has already arrived at Kobe Mountain. So the possibility of running into each other is also high

Now!”

Someone shouted from the crowd.

“Let’s go!”

Cloud waved his hand, gesturing to his men to leave.

“Young Master Cloud, look! There’s a group of people coming over. It seems to be the Church family! Fantastic! Our team is getting stronger now! Haha!”

A man burst out in laughter when he found something.

They had more than two hundred people of the Hunt family gathering here, and over there, more than a hundred people of the Church family were arriving. They had a total of four hundred men or so right now!

“Haha, look over there, the Lagorio family is here too! Quite many of them are here!”

Cloud laughed wholeheartedly, pointed to the other side, and then said, “Hehe, they arrived just in time! But why are there only ninety people from the Lagorio family? That’s not even a hundred!”

When the Lagorio family came before Cloud, he said straightforwardly, “What happened to your people? Are there no longer any elite fighters in your group? Ok, forget about the elite fighters, there are so few of you, why is that? Didn’t we agree to gather here and ambush other families?”

A man from the Lagorio family stood up and responded with a dull face, “First Young Master Hunt, a lot of our people have died, and we don’t know how many of our men are still alive out there. The Lagorio family has brought many geniuses and elite fighters to this tournament this time, but on the way here, we found a lot of dead bodies of the geniuses from our Lagorio family! And we only manage to gather these people right now.”

Cloud was rendered speechless. Initially, he thought that he could gather a thousand people to do the ambush, nevertheless, there were only five hundred gathered here right now. He was utterly disappointed.

“Forget it. Let’s separate our formation and move. Everyone, remember, once you run into Helena Cabello and her people, notify me immediately! I want to end her life with my own hands!”

Cloud gave a last wave and led his men to set off.

At this time, Daniella had found another white token and she almost jumped for joy. She then handed the token to Jack.

Helena, who was beside Daniella, expressed her discontentment. "Hey, Daniellita! Why are you giving everything to Jack?"

Daniella pressed her lips together and gave a warm smile. "Hehe, what? Isn't it the same? Didn't we agree to let Jack keep all the tokens in his martial ring, and then we' ll distribute them according to the ratio at the end?"

"Hahaha! Miss Daniella, the problem is you're too enthusiastic toward Jack! He' s your brother-in-law, of course, your sister will be jealous of you when she sees it!"

Randall laughed cheerfully yet nonchalantly. "Hahaha! But this can't be helped, my Big Brother Jack is too charismatic. If I were a woman, I'd definitely fall head over heels for him too, not to mention Miss Daniella!"No. 1 Supreme Warrior

"Stop it!"

Daniella rolled her eyes at Randall, but in her stomach, butterflies were flying everywhere. Randall's words spoke to her heart. If it was not for the sake of not letting the Hunt family finding out, she would have let the whole world know that Jack was her boyfriend!

"Young Master Jack, some Zieglers are there!"

After flying for a while, Jack and the others stop the group of people from the Ziegler family, a second-class family.

They had more than twenty people.

When they finally noticed Jack and the others in front of them, they were frightened down to the soles of their shoes.

“My God, did I see it right? Three families are actually all gathered together!”

A man from the Ziegler family shouted with a gloomy face, and his face became more and more unsightly as the time passed. It looked like the token that they had worked hard to obtain in the past few days would have to leave their pockets. Their efforts were in vain.

“Three families gathered together, and they have almost seven hundred men! How did they even manage to gather so many people? Especially the White family, they have the most people!”

Another woman expressed her helplessness with a bitter face.

Standing in front of the Ziegler family, Jack could not help but smile in his heart. The overall strength and power of the Ziegler family were actually excellent; they managed to compete with the White family last time for the position of the eight reclusive families. They could be considered as one of several strong families.

However, in the later stage, the White family extended and developed faster than the Ziegler, and in the end, obtained the valuable position of the eight reclusive families.

“Hand over the tokens. As for the spirited grasses, keep them.”

Jack smiled gently and commanded the other party.

“Huh? Just the tokens?”

As soon as a guy from the Ziegler family heard that, his face beamed and could hardly conceal his happiness. “Thank you, Young Master Jack, thank you so much!”

“Quick! Everyone, take out the tokens you have on you!”

Another genius from the Ziegler family started to help collect the tokens, and after collecting all the tokens from more than twenty of them, he then respectfully handed them to Jack.

“Let me give you guys some advice. It’s better for you to descend the mountain, after all, the higher you climb the mountain, the more elite fighters and geniuses with the high martial status you’d run into. There are not many geniuses with the strength of true god-level among you guys, so if you unlucky and happen to run into the Hunt family, I’m afraid that day would be your last day!”

Jack looked at these people in front of him and started to advise them. “If you go down the mountain and find a place to rest for a few days, the tournament will be over by that time. At least you won’t get yourself killed and cause damage to the Ziegler family. Besides, judging from your family’s current situation, you won’t actually get a much better ranking in this tournament, right?”

“Young Master Jack is right. I concurred that. Our Ziegler family actually had a few geniuses of the true god realm, but some were killed by the Hunt family and the Church family. The people left here, it hasn’t been easy for us to survive till today!”

A man from the Ziegler family breathed out a huge sigh, lamenting the difficulty. “I think we should take Young Master Jack’s advice and descend the mountain. We’ll find a cave and hide until the end of the competition.” He said to the other Zieglers. “We’ve tried our best this time and collected some spirited grasses along the way too. These are the best rewards we could get from this tournament. I think except for the top three in the tournament, the consolation prizes are not that great after all. It’s more worth it for us to find spirited grasses in the White!”

Chapter 1399

After the Ziegler family discussed for a while, they took Jack’s advice and went down the mountain.

“You’re too considerate. Never mind that you didn’t take their spirited grass, you even let them go!”

After they left, Helena looked at Jack and could not help but give a wan smile.

“It wasn’t easy for them to survive this far. Besides, they ran into us this time, but if they ran into the Hunt family, they wouldn’t be spared even if their martial levels are low.”

Jack’s attention wandered toward the peak, his eyes oddly grave. The closer they were to the peak, the higher the chances of running into the Hunt family. It was likely that he would be fighting them eventually.

Everyone continued to march forward, and another two days passed by. There were only five days left until the competition ends, and Jack and the others finally spotted a huge group of people in the distance.

At that moment, Jack and the others had managed to gather many people from the White, Cabello, and Lancaster families, and their numbers totaled to about eight hundred people. The other group however had about six hundred “Young Master Jack, it’s the people from the Hunt, Church, and Lagorio families. There are many of them, but we outnumber them by quite a bit!”

Daniella told Jack after scanning the distance.

“Sh*t. Their three families truly made an alliance. They killed so many members of my family. Today is the day of our revenge!”

Randall clenched his fist when he saw them, huffing

Helena thought for a while before speaking to Jack, “This is what I’m thinking. You and I will attack Cloud. They shouldn’t have that many powerful fighters left by now, and we probably have more fighters in the true god realm on our side! With our strength combined, we’ll be able to kill Cloud!”

Jack’s brows furrowed, then he addressed everyone in a solemn tone, “All of you must pay attention. Do not let a single person escape. This is likely to be our last battle with them. It’ll be bad for us if they escape!”

“Everyone heard that? We must wipe all of them out. Otherwise, the Hunt family will come after our throats once they get out and tell everyone who killed their family members. But they forced this from us as well. It’s time we avenge our fallen brothers and sisters!”

Randall hollered.

“Oh, thank goodness, First Young Master. I finally found you!”

On the other side, a man from the Hunt family quickly flew toward the group, looking at Cloud, agitated.

Cloud looked at him and nodded his head. Then he cast his attention toward the front, gaze serious. “I had thought that our numbers were enough to overwhelm these families. But I never thought that those three families would have allied with each other as well!”

The man who had just flown overlooked to the front, then spat angrily, “Jack is there too! First Young Master, you must avenge Second Young Master!”

Cloud’s expression darkened when he heard that. “What are you talking about? Do you know who killed my brother? Don’t tell me it’s Jack White.”

The man bobbed his head. “That’s right. I was with the Second Young Master then, where I escaped once I saw that the situation was dire. Fortunately, I had a flying sword with me, and everyone had scattered everywhere, so I managed to escape. But Second Young Master and the other Hunt family members were all killed by him!”

“Jack is that strong?”

Shock jolted in Cloud. He had assumed that Helena was the one who killed his brother. He did not think that it was Jack.

Chapter 1400

“That’s right, Young Master Cloud. I saw it with my own eyes! He killed the Second Young Master!”

The man was furious. “But I believe that he’s no match for you. He’s a goner this time!”

“Of course I can take revenge!”

Cloud’s expression was as stony as ever. “But if he’s truly that strong, I’ll probably be fighting him for a long time. We’re outnumbered. By the time I finish him off, we might lose many of our people!”

The Church family and the Lagorio family members all went green around the gills.

They had thought that they could easily kill their enemies’ geniuses by allying with the Hunt family, and the Hunt family had even promised them plenty of benefits once they fulfilled their end of the bargain. Then, they would be able to surge together and eliminate the White and the Lancaster family.

After that, they would be able to become one of the strongest families around in two or three years, barring the Hunt family, of course.

They did not think that the White, Lancaster, and Cabello families would form an alliance. They even had a premonition that the other alliance would be picking them off first. If this was the case, their two families would suffer heavy losses.

“What’s wrong? We’re already here. Don’t tell me that you have cold feet now?”

Cloud seemed to not care about the Church family and the Lagorio family members’ worries. His expression darkened as he shot a vicious glare into the distance

“No-no! Of course not!”

The two families’ members hastily waved their hands. They did not dare to offend Cloud Hunt.

“Then come with me!”

Cloud waved his head and said.

“Young Master. Look. They’re flying toward us now. It seems like they’ve spotted us!”

A girl from the Hunt family spoke with a startled expression when she saw this.

Cloud emitted a frosty harrumph. "Hmph. They think that they can swallow us up just because we have fewer people. But they didn't notice that I'm here!"

After he said that, he rushed forward with his people at a blinding speed

Soon, the two armies stopped and faced each other.

"I heard that you killed my brother, Jack. You'll be dying today!"

Cloud glare at Jack. He was close with his brother. Tyrell did not like to train, but every time he made a pill, especially a new one, he would always give the first pill to his big brother. This truly touched Cloud's heart.

"I'll be dying today? You sure?"

Jack flashed a frosty smile. "Since you already know that I killed your brother, then don't think we'll let a single person escape today!"

After he said that, he waved his hand. "Listen to me," he said. "Surround them!"

Whoosh Whoosh Whoosh!

Suddenly, the people behind him flew forward in formation, surrounding their opponents.

"Not a single person will escape? All right then. Let's see if you have the bite to match your bark!"

Cloud flew a little higher and flipped his palm, a sword appearing in his hand. He poured his Chi into it.

“A middle-grade spiritual tool?”

After Jack sensed the resonance from the sword, a smile curved his lips. He also flew upward and took out his own sword.

Whoosh!

Helena also followed suit. Then she smiled at her opponent. “My apologies, First Young Master Hunt, but we’re using our numbers to our advantage today!” No. 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 1401-1405

Chapter 1401

“Hmph. You think you can overpower us with just numbers? Let’s see if you have the ability!”

Cloud gave a cold harrumph, disdain filling his gaze.

“Charge!”

Under the orders of the three, the two sides began to clash. In a few moments, a few people started to drop, lying dead on the ground

“Fight, Young Master Hunt! We might not last any longer!”

At the beginning stage of the true god status, a man from the Church family looked at his opponents, his expression weighed with worry. After all, not only were they outnumbered by Jack’s army, but they also had fewer fighters in the true god realm compared to them. Furthermore, Venus and Randall were fearsome fighters, far above the likes of people of a similar cultivation level

That was why he was worried.

“Don’t worry. I’ll come over to help in a moment. I just need to kill that sl*tty couple. The rest won’t be a problem!”

Cloud’s lips curved into a mirthless grin. In his eyes, the only people who could give him a run for his money were Jack and Helena. The rest were like annoying gnats he could wipe out without a problem.

Besides, he did not care if they died. Other than the Hunt family members, for whom he would mourn if they died, he did not care if the Church family or the Lagorio family members were dead or alive by the end of the battle.

The only thought treading in his mind was to kill Jack and Helena. After all, his brother would not have died if not for them.

“Sl*tty couple? You’re the real b* stard around here!”

Helena’s temper flared when she heard him insulting her in that manner. As the First Young Mistress of the Cabello family, she had never been humiliated like that before. She nearly exploded in anger, and she immediately poured Chi into her sword, glaring at Cloud.

“Heh. You still won’t admit it? You two tumbled together even though you haven’t known each other for long. Of course, you’re a sl*t.”

Cloud chuckled, his expression as contemptuous as ever.

Whoosh!

Suddenly, a frightening sword aura flew out, the Chi coalescing into a long lash.

“There now. Why so agitated?”

Cloud maintained his frosty smile as he returned the attack with a swipe of his own sword.

Whoosh!

Another sword aura flew out, and the two attacks collided against each other.

Bang!

An explosion rang out, and Helena’s attack was quickly destroyed. Meanwhile, Cloud’s attack still had some leftover Chi surging toward her.

She quickly swerved a few meters upward, barely dodging the attack. Her expression darkened ever so slightly. He was at the same cultivation level as her, but it was evident that his fighting prowess was far stronger than hers.

“Burning Chop!”

Jack’s eyes hardened as he poured Chi into his sword and leaped upward, swinging his sword in a wide arc motion.

Whoosh!

An attack that had the intensity of burning flames streaked toward Cloud, its tail leaving a trail of white light like a comet.

“This guy’s attacks are strong!”

Cloud’s expression darkened when he saw the attack.

Chapter 1402

“I never thought that an illegitimate child from the mortal realm like you would be able to kill my brother. But I will avenge him today!”

Cloud’s gaze hardened. A fearsome aura emanated from his body. In a split second, he countered with an attack of his own.

At that moment, outside the giant blue bubble, everyone’s attention was fixed at one spot.

Especially the Hunt family, Quentin, and the others. He had thought that the larger group of lights among the two was his people. After all, there had been a secret agreement between the Hunt, Lagorio, and Church families. He had promised to give the two other families plenty of spirited grass and pills if they upheld their end of the agreement, to wipe out the geniuses from other families.

That was why the three families gradually banded together while the other families were scrambling to assemble themselves. They cooperated to target the lone geniuses from other families and were met with great results.

However, he never imagined that after the two giant spots collided with each other, the fighting began.

“They’re in battle. Many are involved. Seems like neither side is comprised of one family. Otherwise, there wouldn’t be so many people.”

The Second Elder of the Hunt family thought for a while before taking a step forward, whispering toward Quentin, Master, if this is the case, it seems that the other families have allied with each other to fight our people. If I'm not wrong, this is the final battle. After all, there's not much time left until the end of the competition. The others are probably scattered elsewhere!"

Quentin nodded his head and gave a cold smile. "If the person who killed my son is there, I pray that Cloud will be able to avenge his brother!"

On the other side, the other families were also staring at that one spot on the screen, speculating what was happening inside.

"Master, who knows how Young Master Jack is doing?"

Titus, who was standing beside Nash, was growing slightly anxious. "After all, he offended the Second Young Master of the Hunt family, and he even offended the Norman family. Now the Lagorio family hates us too. The Young Master isn't afraid of the Lagorio family, but the Hunt family and the Norman family will be trouble!"

Nash remained silent for a few seconds before answering, "It shouldn't be a problem. After all, Jack has an ultimate-grade spiritual tool in his hands. His cultivation level is slightly lower than those geniuses at the peak of their game, but it shouldn't be a problem with that spiritual tool helping to boost his fighting power!"

Titus flashed a bitter smile. "It's true that Young Master Jack has an ultimate-grade spiritual tool, but it's precisely because he has a treasure like that that he might attract unwanted attention," he added. "That's why I'm worried that people will go after him!"

Worry began to stir in Nash after Titus said that.

Still, he thought about it and said, "I believe in my son. Besides, it's no use worrying now. We can only wait. There are only a few days left. We'll know the results once everyone comes out!"

Bang!

At that moment, at the waist of the Kobe Mountain enveloped in the bubble, Jack and Cloud's attack collided.

Light pierced through the atmosphere, and Jack squeezed his eyes shut. A terrible wave of energy rippled from the impact point, and everybody felt as though the air itself was trembling

However, Jack quickly realized that his attack was as strong as his opponent's. After a while, the two attacks crumbled against each other, signifying of nearly the same strength.

"You are good, punk! Now I believe that you killed my brother! You have the strength to do so!"

After the light faded, Cloud glared at Jack. He was well aware that his attack would be difficult to block even for a genius like Helena. Yet Jack's attack was able to withstand the impact.

Chapter 1403

"Let's attack him together, Jack!"

Helena looked at Jack and said to him

"All right!"

Jack bobbed his head. With their sword in hand, they rushed toward their opponent again

This time, Helena used a powerful technique instead, her sword aura slashing outward like a comet streaking through the sky. Meanwhile, Jack used the second-grade elementary martial skill from earlier, Burning Chop

He believed that Cloud would not be able to defend against two simultaneous attacks if he were to use the technique from before.

“Twin Dragons Fist!”

They did not expect Cloud to sheathe his sword and clench his fists, slamming them against each other.

Roar!

Suddenly, two giant dragons formed out of Chi rose into the air. They almost looked as though they were alive, and their scales glimmered dangerously. After they roared, they rushed toward Jack and Helena.

Bang!

Jack’s attack quickly landed on it, coming to a standstill against the dragon for a moment.

Yet on the other side, Helena’s attack could only hold out for a while before it shattered, unable to hold out anymore. The dragon coming for her was reduced to half, yet the remaining momentum landed on her, sending her flying a few dozen meters backward before she managed to right herself.

“Pfft!”

Helena spat a mouthful of blood, and her face turned white.

“He’s really strong. I’ve only heard about his prowess before, but I’ve never actually fought against him. Now I finally know how monstrous he is!”

Helena wiped at the blood at the corner of her mouth, rattled.

His martial skill was very strong too, to be able to defend against two attacks at the same time. It also had good attacking power. It was probably a secondgrade intermediate martial skill, at the very least.

Bang!

On Jack’s side, after the noise subsided, he realized that their attacks had all vanished. It was evident that their strength was almost on equal footing.

“Not bad!”

Cloud looked at Jack and gave a cold smile. “But I wasn’t using my full strength earlier. That martial skill only used about seventy percent of my fighting power. Let’s see how you take me on at full power!”

Chapter 1404

“Seventy percent!”

Jack and Helena exchanged glances, their gaze suddenly turned grave.

“What’s wrong? Scared?”

Cloud laughed, expression pleased. “It’s no use being scared now. I won’t let you go even if you beg me on your knees. I will avenge my brother today!”

After he said that, he clenched his fists and gathered his Chi again. The resonance of the Chi was stronger than before.

“Blade Wave!”

Jack did not dare to let his guard down, so he used his second-grade premium martial skill.

Suddenly, Chi and sword auras mingled and merged, forming wickedly sharp blades of flying swords, flying outward with a fearsome aura.

“Falcon Strike!”

Helena also used her strongest attack. As she slashed her sword, her Chi pooled into the form of an eagle, spreading its wings, which were about twenty feet in length. It emitted a terrible screech as it dove forward.

Bang!

Cloud used the two giant dragons again, the dragons looking bigger than the ones from before. They almost appeared far more solid.

One of the dragons collided straight into Helena’s attack. Her frightening falcon was easily destroyed, and the remaining energy from the dragon rushed toward her again.

“Sh*t!”

Helena was so frightened that all color leached from her face when she saw the remaining Chi headed for her. She could clearly feel that the remaining energy from the attack this time was two to three times stronger than before. Even generating a Chi shield right now would be of no use. She would die if the attack landed on her.

Meanwhile, Jack's flying swords continued to rain on the other dragon. When one of the swords was shattered, another came to take its place. There were at least a few hundred swords slowly chipping away at the Chi dragon's energy.

Whoosh!

Just as Helena felt that she was about to die, Jack rushed before her, flipping his palm and taking out the tortoiseshell shield.

The shield grew bigger, large enough to cover the two of them behind.

The remaining energy from the Chi dragon landed smack onto the shield.

Bang!

As the explosion rang out, Jack and Helena were thrown backward, flying a few dozen feet before they managed to right themselves.

"Are you all right?"

Helena immediately looked at Jack, grateful that Jack was there. Otherwise, even if she did not immediately die, she would succumb to her injuries.

"I'm fine!"

Jack managed a smile at her. He looked at Cloud, delight on his face. "His attack won't hold out for long!"

Helena looked at Jack and then scanned through his arm that held onto the shield. Besides from the area between the base of his thumb and index finger, a large portion of his skin had been shredded. Blood welled at the wounds and dripped onto the ground, yet Jack said that he was fine.

At that moment, gratitude filled Helena's heart. A strange thought also sparked in her mind, if only he was her boyfriend!

Unfortunately, he was not her boyfriend, but her sister's.

She heaved an internal sigh then cast her attention into the distance.

Chapter 1405

The dragon that was colliding with Jack's Blade Wave was not going to hold out for long. Lashes appeared wherever the swords connected, then a loud crack tore through the air, and it shattered into pieces.

Meanwhile, there were still a few dozen swords left behind from Jack's attack. They speared forward relentlessly.

"No-no way!"

Cloud shook his head, unable to believe the sight before him. His expression darkened, as though a cloud veiled his feature.

As the flying swords drew closer, Cloud threw up a Chi shield enclosing him before turning around and flying off.

Whoosh Whoosh Whoosh!

The flying swords were fast. Two of them quickly shot toward him, but they were blocked by his shield. Another two surged forth, finally cracking the shield open.

Bang!

One of the swords landed on his thigh. Blood gushed out of the puncture wound.

Bang!

Cloud managed to dodge another sword, but it grazed his arm, ripping through his shirt and gave him another wound.

“Ah!”

Cloud cried out, flying extremely fast.

“Still thinking of escaping?”

Jack kept the shield when he saw that his opponent was trying to escape. He took his sword and gave chase.

Whoosh Whoosh Whoosh!

Cloud was extremely fast. In a blink of an eye, he was down the mountain and zipped into the forest.

Jack was not slow either, managing to keep pace. He refused to allow the other man to escape. If he did, the consequences would be fire.

“Don’t push it, you punk...”

Cloud noticed that Jack was drawing closer, as he was going at a slower pace. He clenched his teeth and flipped his palm, taking out a pill and popping it into his mouth.

“Ah!”

After he swallowed the pill, a ferocious expression came across his features, and his eyes were bloodshot. His entire countenance had turned feral, violent.

He stopped, yet the resonance coming from his body gradually rippled outward.

“You pushed me to this, you punk. My cultivation level will drop a bit if I use this pill, but it’s fine so long as I can kill you two. Hah!”

Cloud laughed, a feral grin lighting up his face.

“What pill did he just take? His aura is a lot stronger, and the pressure he emanates makes me feel as though he’s at the peak of the true god status!”

Helena stared at him in shock.

“He must have used some sort of forbidden pill to increase his cultivation level for a short period of time. But judging from his tone, it seems that he won’t be able to maintain it for long. There might be a backlash later as well that will make him unable to maintain his current cultivation level.”

Jack looked at him, expression solemn. “But we don’t know how long the pill lasts for,” he said. “It’ll be troublesome!”

Chapter 1406-1410

Chapter 1406

“What should we do? We’ll be in trouble if he has truly broken into another cultivation level, and it seems like he has already done so. His aura now feels different than before!”

Helena looked at Jack, worry etched onto her brows.

Jack glanced behind him. “If the two of us can’t beat him, the others will be in trouble. We’re at an advantage over there, but we can’t go on like this. You go there and kill everyone in the other battle. I’ll think of a way to distract him!”

“What!”

Helena took a sharp intake of breath after she heard that. “Are you nuts? We barely managed to deal a good blow to him just now. We wouldn’t be able to do that if not for the two of us working together. You’ll die if you try to take on him alone!”

She did not expect Jack to remain so persistent. “We have no other choice. We have to kill the Hunt family, the Church family, and the Lagorio family,” he said, flashing a bitter smile. “This is a rare opportunity. We can’t let them go after they’ve killed so many of our people. Besides, we can’t let Cloud walk out alive!”

“I know that we can’t let him go, but the two of us together won’t be a match for him at his current cultivation level. You’ll be walking to your grave by going alone!”

Jack thought about it and added, “I will look for you if I’m alive. Don’t worry. With my fighting strength and this flying sword, it’ll be difficult for him to kill me!”

“All right. You’d better be careful!”

Helena chewed her bottom lip and flew forward for a distance. Then she threw over her shoulder, “Don’t die. Daniella will be sad, and so will your wife, daughter, and your parents. All of them are waiting for you to go back home!”

“Don’t worry. I won’t die!”

After Jack heard that, warmth filled his heart. Helena took off toward the larger battle without a second glance backward.

Daniella’s heart leaped in delight when she saw that Helena was flying over to help. “Oh, have you killed him already? We’ve also killed plenty of people here. Hah. Not a single one of them will escape if you and Jack coming over to help!”

It was true that they had complete control over the situation. They have only lost a few dozen people, whereas over two hundred people from the opponent’s side had died. Now there’s a stark difference in the number of fighters from each side, and their opponents had no way of bouncing back with their lack of strong fighters.

That was why they would be killed off even faster if Jack and Helena had won.

“No way. Why’s Helena here?”

The people from the Lagorio, Church, and Hunt families were all frightened when they saw her. Their fighting spirits were already low, and they had been clinging onto the hope that the First Young Master would arrive to save them all. Now all their hopes were crushed.

“F*ck. We shouldn’t have trusted Cloud. Didn’t he say that he would kill them off easily?”

A man from the Church family grew furious. They were in big trouble now.

Chapter 1407

Helena looked at Daniella and swung her sword toward the opponents. She flashed a smile to not worry her younger sister. “Don’t worry. First Young Master Hunt has been seriously injured, and now Jack can handle him alone. He asked me to come over and help. He’ll come over once he kills Cloud!”

“Really? I knew that he could do it. That’s great. Everyone, charge!”

Daniella was ecstatic when she heard this. Their people’s fighting spirit grew exponentially, rushing toward their opponents with full strength.

Helena’s white lie was truly useful. Randall and the others were so fired up by it like a sudden surge of adrenaline rushing through their veins. On the other hand, their downtrodden opponents descended into chaos once they heard this. Fighting back was no longer a priority, only thoughts of ways to escape clouded their minds.

In the chaos, it was even easier to kill them. Meanwhile, the White family and their allies did not lose many people.

“You actually dared to face me alone, punk. Then I’ll finish you off first!”

Not far away, Cloud was glaring at Jack, an aura of aggressiveness cloaking him. His muscles seemed to have bulked, and his body brimmed with pure energy.

“Hah. Come at me. Your brother was just asking for it, trying to take my woman. I’ m glad he died!”

Afraid that the other man would not give chase, Jack leaped onto his flying sword and taunted Cloud, “Heh. Let’ s see if you have the stamina to keep up with me if you want to kill me!”

After he said that, he directed his sword and shot off into the distance.

“You’re glad that he died? I’ll be glad when you die!”

The use of the pill made Cloud’s logic slip, so when he heard this, anger sparked in his heart and consumed him. He had no room to spare for a thought of the other geniuses of the Hunt family. He roared and turned into a shadow, chasing after Jack.

Once Jack noticed that Cloud was almost on his tail, he increased his speed.

“Come at me. Hah. You can’t even catch me, and you want to kill me!”

Jack laughed. He felt fortunate that he had this ultimate-grade spiritual tool, able to fly at breakneck speeds. His opponent’s fighting power was high, but it would not be easy to catch him.

“Stay still, you little sh*t!”

Cloud snarled. In a moment, the two disappeared from everyone's line of sight.

After a while, Daniella noticed that Jack was not coming and looked behind. Her expression darkened." Big Sis, where's Jack? Why is Cloud and him nowhere to be seen?"

Helena did not know how to answer that, but she thought for a while before replying," Maybe Cloud wanted to escape, so Jack gave chase."

Chapter 1408

"So that's what's going on. That's Great!"

Daniella had no idea that Helena was lying to her. She was delighted when she heard that.

Everybody continued to kill their opponents. They truly did not leave a single person alive, wiping the enemy army out.

"This is great. We have lost less than a hundred people in total. This is a total victory for us. Hah!"

Randall laughed, extremely happy.

"That's right. This is great. We've avenged all those who died!"

Venus also smiled excitedly, feeling as though her heart were about to burst from joy.

“This time, the Hunt, Church, and Lagorio families will suffer great losses. I’m sure that they’ll still have plenty of geniuses left in their families, but those who joined the competition must have been the stronger ones. With so many people dead, they’ll definitely faint from shock or wail to the gods!”

Yule was also delighted. Meanwhile, everyone started to gather their spoils of war.

Daniella furrowed her brows because she realized that Helena did not seem too happy. Instead, she was frowning, staring in a certain direction.

“Sis, why isn’t Jack back yet? If Cloud was injured, he should have finished him off a long time ago!”

Daniella flew over to Helena’s side. “He’s your boyfriend,” she said. “Aren’t you worried about him?”

Helena’s gaze sidled toward Daniella, red tingeing her eyes. She did not know what to say to her younger sister, who was so innocent and believed in everything she said. Daniella even had the heart to joke with her at this moment.

“What’s wrong, Sis?”

Daniella knew that something was off when she saw her sister acting like this. “Big Sis, where’s Jack?” she asked, panic seeping into her tone. “Why isn’t he back yet? Let’s go find him and see if he’s won, okay?”

“That’s right. Miss Helena, where’s my Big Bro? Why isn’t he back?”

Randall flew over and looked at Helena in anticipation.

She opened her mouth, then Helena finally managed to speak, apologetic “Jack...Jack ran off!”

“Ran off?”

Everybody’s eyes widened, unable to comprehend what she had just said.

“Basically, Cloud ate a powerful pill that enabled him to break into the peak of the true god realm. To ensure everyone’s safety, Jack led-led him away and told me to come here and help to kill the other Hunt family members!”

Helena bit her lower lip. Then she narrated everything in one go, “He should have successfully led Cloud away by now. But I don’t know how he’s doing!”

“The peak of the true god realm?”

Chapter 1409

Daniella was stupefied. Cloud was already powerful enough at the advanced stage of the true god realm. If he was truly at the peak of the true god status now, Jack was absolutely no match for him.

“What? Jack’s in danger then. What if he was caught and killed? How could he do that? I’m telling Father about this once we go back!”

Yule began to panic, blinking her tears away. She was at a loss.

Although she and Jack were stepsiblings, he was kind to everyone, and he was nice to her. At least, he was much nicer than Lance. That was why when she heard that Jack drew Cloud away to save everyone, worry sprouted in her heart.

“Ah. If he did not draw Cloud away, the latter would have killed both me and him, and he would have come over to help his people. All of you would be dead then!”

Helena heaved a sigh. "Jack chose to sacrifice himself to save us all," she said. "But he said that his flying sword is extremely fast and that escaping shouldn't be a problem!"

"What are you saying? It shouldn't be a problem? Sure, that sword is fast, but the Hunt family is the strongest family among the firstclass families, and they have the longest history. Have you forgotten that they have a rune paper which they retrieved from some mysterious place? It enables them to increase their speed!"

Worry added to Daniella's brain. After she said that, she flew forward. "This won't do. I have to help him. What will we do if he dies!"

Everybody was dumbfounded when they saw this. Why was Daniella more worried than Helena about Jack? It was as though Daniella was his girlfriend instead.

"Don't go!"

Helena immediately flew over and took Daniella's arm. "Don't rush in, Daniella. You won't be able to catch up. And you won't be of any help even if you do. You can't go in with your cultivation level. I won't be able to help him either!"

Here, Helena spoke with a solemn expression, "When Jack and I were fighting Cloud, I would have died if Jack wasn't so strong and helped me. Now that Cloud has broken into another level, we'll be heading straight for our deaths if we go!"

"But-but..."

Daniella was in such a panic state that she did not know what to do. She suddenly felt that she should not have slacked off when she had good talent. Excellent talent, even. Perhaps even better than Helena's.

However, she slacked off too much, until she was only at the beginning stage of the true god realm. At this moment, when Jack was in danger, she realized that her cultivation level was true of no use. She realized that she was not strong enough, that she was too weak.

“Big Sis is right. Never mind that you can’t catch up to them, you won’t be able to help even if you do. You’ll drag him down instead!”

Venus also took two steps forward and spoke earnestly, “Let’s divide the spoils of war first. According to our agreement, the White family will get forty percent. Jack helped us win this victory and all our future victories!”

Here, Venus paused before continuing, “The only thing we can do now is to not cause trouble to Jack, and pray that he’ll survive!”

“Cloud’s cultivation level is so high now, and he has that rune paper. He’ll definitely catch up to Jack and kill him. Jack doesn’t stand a chance of surviving!”

Daniella’s expression was still knotted in bitterness. The more she thought about it, the more frightened she was. Yet she knew that Jack made the right choice.

“Oh right, Jack said that the pill should only work for a limited time. It’ll be fine so long as he can hold out until then. Besides, the pill will give backlash. Once its effect wears off, the user’s cultivation level will decrease, and he’ll be seriously injured. Cloud will definitely die then!”

Helena quickly thought of something and tried to cajole Daniella, “Jack has that flying sword. He’ll definitely survive if he can hold out for a while longer!”

Chapter 1410

Although Helena Said all that, Daniella was still worried. She also heaved a small, internal sigh of relief.

At least Jack had that sliver of hope. There was a chance of winning if he held out.

Even if that chance was slim.

“Ah, what should we do now? Wait for him here?”

At last, Daniella sighed and asked Helena.

Everyone else looked at Helena. After all, she had the highest cultivation level and fighting power without Jack around. Furthermore, everyone thought that they should listen to her since she was Jack’s girlfriend.

Helena took in everyone’s gazes, then spoke slowly, “Jack told us to leave Kobe Mountain. The competition is ending soon, so we should head to the outskirts of the forest. If he survives, he’ll come to find us. We’ll just need to wait for him somewhere!”

“All right. Then let’s head down first. We’ll fly for a few hours before resting for the night to treat everyone’s injuries and allow everyone to replenish their Chi. We’ll head out again tomorrow morning for the forest outskirts!

Daniella nodded her head. She knew that she could only pray for Jack now.

“The battle has ended. So many people died!”

At that moment, the audience who were watching the light spots from the outside were both hopeful and terrified.

Nearly half of the people had died. Many people's hearts felt heavy.

"Master, the remaining group is the one with more people. Heh. It's definitely the First Young Master. He avenged the Second Young Master!"

The First Elder of the Hunt family chuckled, delight painted over his features. "Seems like the smaller group must have been the leftover troops from the other families. Hah. They must have realized that something was amiss and banded together in an attempt to fight back. It's a pity that they lack the fighters. Hah. They were killed so easily by the First Young Master!"

"That's right. This is great. He took revenge!"

Quentin also nodded his head, delight sparking in his heart. Although they had paid a huge price for the competition, he believed that more geniuses from the other families were lost compared to the Hunt, Church and Lagorio families.

That way, the Hunt family's position was secure.

Master Church and Trenton exchanged a glance, nodding their heads ever so slightly. It was evident that they knew that they were the true victors in this competition.

Especially Trenton, who had dreamed of Jack dying before his eyes. Relief flooded his veins, and he managed to avenge his daughter.

However, this was not enough. There was still Nash White. He believed that in another two years, they would become even stronger. He would wait for the opportunity to strengthen their relationship with the Hunt and Church families, then find an excuse to wipe out the White family. Only then he would be satisfied.

The White family and the Cabello family were extremely worried. They also saw everything happening on the screen. The huge group of light had swarmed and engulfed the smaller group, and they thought that the former must have been the Hunt family's army. Only they would be able to amass so many people. Strong people, at that. Only First Young Master Hunt would be able to pull that off.

"Ah, I wonder how Young Master Jack is doing. Seems like everything went by terribly, judging from the screen. I hope that he's not among the few hundred casualties!"

Titus heaved a long sigh, worried about Jack. "If something does happen to him, we would suffer great losses. Never mind Young Master Jack, the flying sword he has will be a great loss!"

"Ah, let's just wait!"

Nash sighed and closed his eyes. He was worried as well, but worrying was no use. He could only wait outside.No. 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 1411-1413

Chapter 1411

"Haha! Come on, little Cloud! Don't you want to avenge your little brother? Let's see if you can catch me first, you bird brain! Do you still want revenge? Dream on!"

Inside the light shield, over the forest, Jack controlled his flying sword and glided through the air at lightning speed, maintaining a distance where the other party could not reach him at all. He turned back and mocked the other party.

"You bastard! Do you think I can't catch up with you? Don't be too cocky just because you have an ultimate-grade spiritual tool"

Cloud was so angry that he gritted his teeth. Then he flipped his palm, took out a talisman paper, and injected some Chi energy into it. The talisman paper immediately emitted some light. Cloud then pasted it on his body, and out of a sudden, his speed dramatically increased by double.

“What the heck?”

Jack gasped aloud. He had never seen such a treasure before. Seeing the distance between them becoming closer and closer, Jack’s face blanched and turned unsightly.

He could not utter a word to tease the other party right now. He had already flown out so far, Daniella and the others should be safe by now.

However, he found that even if he increased his speed to the extreme, he could not outrun the other party. Cloud was extremely fast and he would catch up with Jack soon!

“Damn! What kind of paper is that? How could it....”

Rage quickened Jack’s blood. At this time, Cloud clenched both his fists and blasted toward Jack.

Roar!

Two terrifying dragons once again appeared in the sky. The mighty dragons were heading straight toward Jack, releasing a powerful sense of oppression

Jack wheeled his head back, the huge Chi dragons came straight at him, and they were fast. One of them attacking from the right, and another from the left; it was impossible for Jack to dodge them. If these attacks hit on him, he would surely die this time.

“Grr! I have no choice but to fight!”

Jack clenched his jaw and ceased flying. The flying sword stopped midair then Jack held it in his grip and swung his arm toward his front side.

“Blade Wave!”

Jack once again used his highest-ranked martial technique-Blade Wave. A stalk of Chi flying swords appeared before him within a second, looking fierce and sharp. The Blade Wave shot out, swooshing and flying ahead, heading straight for the two Chi dragons Boom! Bang! Boom!

Terrifying booming sounds pierce through the air as though God was angry at mankind.

Jack stood frozen. He snapped out of his thoughts and immediately flew away again. After all, he should be able to resist and delay the dragons’ attack for a few seconds. As long as he could buy himself a few more seconds, then he might have increased his Chance of living.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

A loud sound rang out behind him, and those blade waves of Jack were only able to hold out the dragons for two seconds and were then destroyed one by one. The Chi dragons, with their remaining mighty Chi energy, headed straight for Jack.

However, this time, Jack’s flying speed outran the dragons; his flying sword was fast. He then commanded and controlled the flying sword to fly forward with a faster speed. Just a few moments later, the distance between him and the dragons has pulled away. He finally flew out of the attack range of the remaining Chi dragons

In the end, the dragons landed in the White and hit a few trees like a bomb. The explosion was appalling!

Chapter 1412

“Piece of sh*t! This brat is too

Resourceful!”

Cloud looked to the front, and he was so angry that he once

Again chased after him.

His heart knew very well that he had to kill Jack as soon as possible, otherwise, the effect of the pill would soon be obsolete. Once the pill was no longer effective, then he was bound to be killed.

Swoosh!

Both of them were fast, cutting a streak in the air, playing a chasing game

“I wonder how long will the pill last in his body. That magical paper of that brat, it should have a time limit too, right?”

Jack mumbled to himself while flying forward at lightning speed

“Go to hell!”

However, soon Cloud caught up with him again. Jack once again appeared within his attack range, thus, he clenched his fists and blasted out toward Jack again.

Roar!

Two huge dragons appeared within a second. They came straight for Jack as they roared angrily

“What the f*ck! He’s catching u p again!”

Beads of sweat dripped down on Jack’s forehead. He had to stop and fight the battle again.

Of course, he utilized the same technique as last time; he cast his Blade Wave immediately, the blades flew out again while he continued his fleeing journey

“Stop right there, you wimp!”

Cloud panicked. If this went on, once the effect of the pill in his body wore off, he would be in real trouble. The time he had left was getting lesser and lesser by now.

Jack dodged and hid. Now and then, after being caught up, he would use the same methodcast Blade Wave to wear off the two dragons, to buy himself a few seconds to flee.

When Cloud’s attack destroyed

His attack, the remaining attack would continue flying toward Jack, but Jack would have already escaped from the attack range by that time.

Boom Boom Boom!

The two people were as though playing the tag game, while the explosive and terrifying sounds of fighting kept sounding in the forest. The situation was intense.

Another ten minutes had passed, and Jack's forehead was covered with fine beads of sweat.

"Damn it! How long will the effect of the pill last? I can't continue like that, and that brat has used another talisman paper! He brought a lot of this talisman paper with him, huh?"

Jack's face grew more and more unsightly. To make Jack stop and fight with him, Cloud continued insulting Jack, calling him a goon and coward from behind.

However, Jack knew very well that the other party merely wanted to provoke him to make him stop fleeing. So, instead, he just turned a deaf ear and kept on running away.

But, if the situation persists, it would be bad for Jack. The other party had a higher martial level than he does. If this went on, his Chi energy would definitely be used up faster than the other party!

"Ah!"

Nonetheless, after flying for a while, Jack heard a miserable scream from behind.

He immediately stopped and turned around to see that Cloud gave out a painful expression and the Chi energy in his body was actually receding little by little.

"Haha! Awesome! That's great!"

Jack's spirit lifted. The effect of the pill seemed to have diminished, and the other party would be suffering the backlash of the pill.

Chapter 1413

Cloud was in agony; he looked like he was in extreme pain. The kind of aggressive twitching he had, showed that his martial level was dropping quickly from the peak stage to the late stage of the true god realm, and then to the middle stage of the true god realm...

“My goodness, his power has already dropped to the middle stage of the true god realm, yet it’s still dropping?”

Jack saw that the other party’s martial level was still falling after a while, he became more and more excited. That way, it would be a lot easier for Jack to kill the other party. Just patiently waiting until the effect of the pill wore off, that brat would just be a sickly cat.

Finally, the drop stopped. Cloud’s martial level dropped to the early stage of the semi-god realm, and nearly decreased to the grandmaster level.

“Heh, early stage of the semi-god level?”

Jack smiled happily and his heart was relieved. Before this, he was chased by the other party so badly and almost died. Now that the effect of the pill had diminished, Jack was Now safe.

Swoosh!

Cloud looked at Jack for a second and turned around to flee.

However, Jack blocked his escape route and appeared in front of him in a flash. “Heh, do you think with your current speed and martial level, you will be able to get away from me? Your talisman paper is amazing, I’d give you the credit. But after your martial level dropped, even with the talisman paper, your speed won't be fast!" Jack looked at Cloud with a cold smile.

"Brat, I'm the Young Master of the Hunt family. If you dare to kill me, you're so done for!"

Cloud gritted his teeth and threatened Jack with a vicious hatred.

"Young Master Cloud, you're quite something, aren't you? I killed your little brother; do you think I'm afraid of killing another Young Master Hunt?"

Jack sneered icily, "What's more, there's no one else here, and you were chasing after me just now with an intention to end my life! And now I have to let you go? What a joke! I think you're so used to being a young master of a great family and thinking that 'Hunt family' is very useful for you to get away with any situation, right?"

"Go to hell!"

Cloud clenched his teeth and blasted out attacks again.

Unfortunately, this time the two huge dragons did not look mighty at all; dragons were too weak compared to the previous one, and they were only a third in size of the previous ones. They looked like two little green snakes.

Jack blasted out two consecutive blade waves and the attacks destroyed the two tiny dragons within a second. He then threw another attack toward Cloud.

Bang!

Cloud received the attack head-on, and his body was halved, falling to the ground from high up in the air. He was dead.

After killing the other party, Jack immediately got off the flying sword and landed on the ground. He took the sword that was in the other party's grip, as well as the martial ring. Fearing of being discovered, he then flew away in a flash, disappearing between the tree.

After flying for a while, Jack arrived at a cave. He then sat down and recovered his Chi energy.

After recovering all the Chi energy in his body, the sky outside was turning darker. It seemed like the night was about to arrive.

He kept Cloud's sword into his martial ring, took out all the things from Cloud's martial ring, and laid everything nicely in front of him.

He was amazed by how many tokens were kept inside Cloud's martial rings. He then proceeded to keep them in his own ring. Not only the tokens but there were also several pills and a small bottle. Inside the small bottle, there were five pills; these pills were light red in color. Jack remembered clearly that the other party consumed the same light red pill to increase his strength and martial status!

There was also plenty of spirited grass-second-grade and first-grade spirited grasses. Besides, the mystical talisman papers were in there too; the paper that accelerated the speed of flying

"Heh, a lot of treasure in here!"

Jack smiled and put everything away in his martial ring, then threw Cloud's ring to the side. There were only a few days left, hence he took out several materials and started alchemy.

He took out the second-grade elementary pill prescription that he got from the Second Young Master Hunt, studied it carefully, and compared the materials in front of him." Let's try it, a second-grade elementary pill! If I can create it successfully, I'll become a second-grade alchemist!"No. 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 1414-1416

Chapter 1414

Jack was excited when he thought about the opportunity to finally create a second-grade pill.

He never had a formula for a second-grade pill before, so this was extremely precious to him. Even if someone else had the formula, they would never share it with him so easily.

He did not think that after killing the alchemical genius, Second Young Master Hunt during the competition, he would reap such excellent benefits and obtain many formulae to create second-grade pills.

Now, he could try to create second-grade elementary pills. If he succeeded, he was truly a second-grade elementary alchemist. Only Second Young Master Hunt and the First Elder from the Cabello family were at such a level.

Jack took a while before he suppressed his excitement, slowly heating up the stove before him and throwing the stalks of spirited grass in according to a certain sequence. He then extracted the juice from the grass.

Time trickled past slowly. It was difficult to create a second-grade pill, much more so than a first-grade pill. Just as Jack was about to solidify the pill, he failed. The flame was just a little bigger than what was prescribed, yet it nearly caused the stove to explode and made the juices disappear into fumes. This batch of precious ingredients was wasted just like that

“Ah. It’s so much harder than first-grade alchemy!”

Jack wiped the sweat beads on his forehead, heaving a sigh. However, it was a second-grade pill he was trying to create after all when he thought about it, and he had no master to guide him. He could only follow the instructions on the alchemy manual. It was already an accomplishment that he managed to get to the very last step.

He rested for over ten minutes. Then he started to create a new batch.

This time, it was evident that Jack was slightly faster, and his movements were more practiced. Coupled with the experience he had from the previous attempt, Jack's focus did not waver, and the attempt went by smoothly.

"Rise!"

At last, Jack gave a wan smile and lifted his hand. A small pill flew out from the pot and floated before his eyes, "Hah. Not bad!"

Jack laughed, ecstatic. He did not think that he could successfully create a secondgrade elementary pill on his second attempt.

By the time he looked outside the cave, he realized that the sky was brightening.

"There's another four days left. We're definitely at the top of this competition. Besides, we've gotten so much spirited grass by killing people. Yule and the others must be searching for spirited grass. I'll just stay here to try and break into the advanced stage of the true god realm! After all, I don't know what will happen out there!

Jack looked at the pill in his palm, confidence brimming in him.

He had already broken into the intermediate stage of the true god realm for some time. His Chi was thick and rich, and his cultivation level was stable. He believed that with the secondgrade elementary pill, it would not be a problem for him to break into the advanced stage of the true god realm.

After all, the Hunt family would not let them off so easily once they went out. If he managed to break into the advanced stage of the true god realm, he would not have to fear Master Hunt with his fighting prowess enhanced by the ultimate-grade spiritual tool.

Jack was also confident in his fighting skills. If he had the fighting power of someone at the peak of the true god status, it would mean that the White family had three people who were at that status. The White family's strength would be bolstered.

Of course, Jack was not sure of how he would fare compared to Master Hunt and if he could even compete against him since they had never fought before. Even those of the same cultivation level were not equal fighters, and Master Hunt was the strongest fighter of the Hunt family, the strongest family of the reclusive families.

Chapter 1415

After he thought about it, Jack looked out of the cave and felt that where he was was fairly out of reach, as he was at the outskirts of the forest. He had also killed plenty of fighters, so it should not be a problem.

He popped the pill into his mouth and swallowed it.

As the pill slid down his throat, a powerful force began to build within him. The second-grade pill was powerful. Even if it was only a second-grade elementary, the energy it contained was a few times more than a first-grade premium pill.

Jack immediately use his martial skill and focused the Chi into his diaphragm.

As time went on, the vague aura around Jack also grew a little stronger.

Another two days passed. There were only two days left till the end of the competition.

Daniella and the others sat beneath a big tree, expressions glum.

“What’s Young Master Jack doing? The competition is ending tomorrow. Will he be able to find us today?”

When Martin thought of Jack, his huge, bulky body deflated.

“He’ll definitely come back. He’s my older brother. I trust him! He pulled off miracles before. He’ll definitely make it this time too!”

Yule spoke confidently, clenching her fists.

“It’ll be difficult because his opponent has the runes. He’s a goner if he’s caught!”

A man from the Lancaster family heaved a sigh. He felt that Jack hardly had a chance of surviving. They had been waiting there for a few days now, with some of them frequently flying up to survey their surroundings, trying to look for any trace of Jack.

Yet there were no signs of Jack even after a few days. It was highly likely that he was dead. If he was alive, he would have circled around that area and found them in no time at all with his flying sword, even if the forest spread across a large area.

“What are you talking about? You want me to smack some sense into you?”

Randall shot to his feet. “That’s my Big Bro,” he told the man angrily. “Shut your trap. My Big Bro won’t die so easily!”

“I hate to be the bearer of bad news too, Young Master, but he still hasn’t appeared after all these days. Besides, First Young Mistress Cabello said that she and Jack could only match First Young Master Hunt’s fighting power when they combined their attacks. If he used that pill, there's no way that Jack would be able to take him on without First Young Mistress Cabello."

The man released a frustrated sigh.

Everybody went silent.

They all knew that there was only a ten percent chance of Jack surviving.

Chapter 1416

"Sigh! Why are they not back yet?!" Somebody sighed again after they waited for some time.

"Hey, there's a man flying our way on a flying sword!" joyously exclaimed a man from the Lancaster family, perched on top of the branches.

"Really? That's great!" Helena, Daniella, and the others were extremely excited when they heard this. They immediately flew upward to see who came their way.

However, the expressions on their faces fell when they noticed who it was on that flying sword moments later.

The other party felt threatened as she got closer, noticing so many people in the area. Sure, he was a member of a first-class aristocratic family, the Zachary family, and he usually had nothing to fear of any other day.

However, how could he fight when the people he spotted at that moment were masters of a couple hundred in the forest?

“Greetings, e-everybody. I’m alone, and I don’t have many tokens with me. If you want them, I...I can give them to you. Please, don’t...don’t hurt me!” The man had a frightened expression on his face. After all, he was only in the initial stage of the true-god level, and although his fighting prowess was not low, he was no match against those like Helena, Daniella, Venus, and Randall. He did not even have the opportunity to resist them.

“Who would want your tokens? They’re just icing on the cake for us. Apart from that, the competition is ending tomorrow. It’s meaningless to take a couple of tokens from you!” Daniella was extremely disappointed when she saw that the person was not Jack. She rolled her eyes at that person and, crossing her arms at her chest, grumbled, “Shoo, shoo! Get lost now, it’s annoying to look at you!”

The man was at a loss for words. While he was thankful that they did not take his belongings, they looked as if the very sight of him annoyed them. He had no idea how he offended this beautiful lady and was despised in such a way.

“Alright, alright, alright!” The man was extremely puzzled, but he nonetheless quickly flew far away with his flying sword that was a middle-grade spiritual tool

Some time later, four to five members of the White family flew over from far away.

Their expressions darkened when they spotted Daniella and the others standing among the woods, somewhat frightened as they wondered if those people would take their things.

“Kaleb!” Yule, who was in the woods below, immediately flew upward and called out to them when she saw them.

Kaleb White eased when he saw that it was Yule. Looking at the woods below, he discovered that many had gathered in that spot, and most of them were members of the White family.

“This is great, Miss Yule! This is great! I didn’t expect everybody to be here!” Kaleb was extremely excited as he spoke. “We were extremely careful these past couple of days as we personally saw many geniuses from other forces being killed. Sigh... This competition is totally different from the last ones!”

Kaleb seemed to have recalled something as he spoke. He looked around and asked, “By the way, where’s Young Master Jack? Why don’t I see him? Isn’t he together with you guys?”

Everybody’s facial expression darkened as they heard this.

“How could this be? Did something happen to Young Master Jack?” Kaleb panicked when he noticed everybody’s reaction and felt that something was wrong. Anxious, he then blurted, “This is impossible! Young Master Jack is such a nice person, and he’s so talented. What should our White family do if something happened to him? I’m sure that nothing would happen to Young Master Jack!”

“It all happened because of...” Yule sighed and told Kaleb about every detail that happened previously.No. 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 1417-1419

Chapter 1417

“Young... Young master is an incredibly affable person! He actually chose to sacrifice himself for everybody else!” Before Kaleb could sob, a woman who came with him had started wailing sadly.

“Look everybody! Jack! It’s Jack!” Daniella was over the moon when she spotted a very familiar figure flying toward them atop of a flying sword.

Everybody in the forest was extremely excited when they heard Daniella’s exclamation and flew upward.

Soon, a huge group of people appeared in this part of the sky.

Initially searching for them, Jack smiled and headed right for the masses when he saw the large group that flew up mid-air.

“Oh, how wonderful! He really survived!” Helena was just as elated, so much so that her eyes slightly reddened at that moment.

“We knew Young Master Jack would definitely make it!” spoke a man as he patted his thigh in excitement

“That’s right. Young Master Jack is the prodigy among all geniuses. The so-called First Young Master Hunt is no match for him, too!” A man from the Lancaster family was also extremely excited.

All of them knew that they owed everything to Jack for rescuing them. If Jack did not lead Cloud Hunt away, all of them would have died on the spot.

“Haha... Hi, everybody! We haven’t seen each other in a couple of days!” beamed Jack happily upon arriving.

“You! Why are you only here after vanishing for so many days? We were all terrified and afraid that you might’ve died!” Daniella almost rushed over to hug Jack, but recalling that her sister was his girlfriend in public, she held herself back and instead offered him an eye-roll.

“Daniella, how can you blame him for this? It’s not an easy task for him to stay alive, and he must’ve been healing his wounds from the fight. Apart from that, it’s not easy for him to look for us in such a huge forest. It’s impressive enough that he managed to find us!” refuted Helena as she instinctively spoke on Jack’s behalf.

“That’s right! It’s good enough that he’s alive!” All the prejudice Venus had toward Jack disappeared at this moment, and in its wake was just a faint adoration for Jack in secret.

She had to admit that her sister had great insight since she managed to find such a wonderful man.

“Alright, let’s take a rest here. We should be able to go out tomorrow!” Jack smiled and flew down. Everybody followed after him and landed on the ground.

Recalling something, Helena asked Jack curiously, “By the way, what happened to Cloud? Is he dead? I remember the Hunt family has some sort of rune that can help somebody to fly and increase their flying speed. Did he not use the rune? Or did he use it but still failed to catch up to you?”

“Oh, so that weird piece of paper is known as a rune?!” Jack had a sudden realization but continued, “Don’t worry, that guy is dead. I admit he got faster after he used the rune, but I was still able to withstand his attack. I continued to fly after I blocked the attack. Anyways, this continued for a long time and, in the end, the effects of his pills dissipated. His fighting prowess dropped to the initial stage of the semi-god level after he experienced a backlash!”

Chapter 1418

“How’s that possible? Is the backlash effect of this pill that terrifying? He almost dropped from the final stage of the true god level to a ninth-grade grandmaster?” Everybody inhaled deeply when they heard Jack’s story and were inwardly embarrassed.

It should be mentioned that the pill was truly powerful as it would increase a person’s fighting prowess and combat power within a short period of time, and this was something that could help a person win during incredibly crucial moments. However, it seemed that the price to be paid was steep on its own.

“That’s for sure. Cloud wouldn’t have taken the pill if the backlash was so terrible. He only took the pill because he was also hurt and wasn’t our opponent.” Jack could not help but paused for a while before he continued, “Luckily, that flying sword of mine flew quickly or he would’ve killed me!”

“That’s true. It really is quite dangerous now that we’re listening to you talking about it!” Randall was overwhelmed with mixed emotions. He thought about it and reminded everybody, “By the way, everybody will be able to go out tomorrow. By then, none of us here can disclose if members of the Hunt family asked us who killed their second or first young master, understood? After all, those from the three families who knew about it are already dead!”

“Don’t worry. We won’t say anything, since Young Master Jack saved our lives. Am I right, everybody?”
vowed a man from the Lancaster family as he patted his chest.

“That’s right. We’ll keep everything to ourselves from here on out!”

“I won’t say anything even if they kill me!” One by one, the others also immediately made their promises.

Jack smiled and took out an impressive amount of tokens with the flip of his hand. He then passed it to Randall and Helena. “Why don’t the two of you take half each?”

“Why are you giving us so many tokens? It’s really too much, Brother Jack. We cannot take this!” Randall immediately declined.

“That’s right, Jack, you should keep it. By the way, we’ve separated all the trophies we obtained during the big battle according to the proportion and gave them to your sister, Yule!”

Helena did not take the tokens Jack offered to them. They had already gotten enough tokens after all, and it would not be a problem for them to enter the top three positions, thus they had no need to take the tokens from Jack.

They did not expect the awkwardly smiling Jack to insist, “You guys have to help me share some of these things. There are too many of them!”

“There are too many, you say?” Randall and Helena exchanged baffled glances with one another.

Jack nodded. “That’s right. Cloud had a lot of tokens in his martial ring, and I have to take some for you guys! I estimated that you guys had given us the tokens you’ve obtained from the other members of the Hunt family based on the forty percent proportion.”

“That’s right, Brother Jack. I’ve stored everything in this martial ring, and I can hand it to you now!” Yule smiled and handed the martial ring to Jack.

Jack took the ring and inspected it before a satisfied smile graced his features. “This time, we’ve gotten quite a lot of spirited grass and other items!

“That’s right. This competition is rather cruel, but it can be considered training for everybody. After all, the survival-of-the-fittest notion and the ‘law of the jungle’ are the rules to follow in order to survive in this world!” Randall was also overwhelmed with emotions.

“Once we get out of here, those from the Hunt family, the Lagorio family, and the Church family are going to be furious!”

Jack spoke up at this point, “The Norman family, too. I’ve killed all three young masters of the Norman family.”

Chapter 1419

Randall laughed out loudly. “Haha! This is the ending for going against my older brother. They can’t blame others for their suicidal ways!”

That night, everybody hunted a few monster beasts and roasted them as food.

As there were no strong monster beasts at the outer ring of the forest, everyone could afford to let their guard down and relax.

Many of the other competitors started to move toward the outer ring of the forest while some found a place to hide as they waited for the competition to end the next day.

Hours later, the sun rose and everyone conversed among themselves as they waited for the competition to end officially.

The sky started to move and there was a golden-colored pattern in the sky on top of Kobe Mountain. There were seven light spots of different colors in the pattern, and they started to blink since their appearance.

“It looks like we’re going out. Is this light dome disappearing soon?”

“I have no idea. I don’t know how we should go out, but why do I feel that the sky has some sort of attraction?”

Many people started to discuss amongst themselves. The attraction coming from the sky grew increasingly stronger by the minute.

“That golden-colored pattern looks very familiar,” exclaimed Daniella, much to Jack’s surprise. “Did you guys realize that? I seemed to have seen it somewhere else!”

“This is incredible. Let me take a couple of photos with my cell phone!” Venus took her cell phone out and started taking photos.

“Why does this pattern look much like a map?” Randall spoke up after staring at the pattern for some time.

Jack’s heart felt like it stopped for a moment. “You’re right, it does look like a map. Randall, everybody, take a look at the seven light spots with different colors. Can you think of anything that has the same position as to where they’re located?”

Jack suddenly came to a daunting theory. He believed that the ultimate-god level existed, but this inheritance was discontinued for unknown reasons.

As for this formation, it was a broken formation from years ago and was recovered by Quentin. He felt that maybe this formation was some sort of guidance, and the old stone pillars at the original location the formation formed might have been broken by others on purpose. There was a possibility that they did this to cover up something

“This map looks very much like our Cathysia!” As she racked her brain for a plausible answer, she then inhaled deeply moments later. “Oh my god... These seven light spots aren’t just randomly located where they are. Think about it: Did you guys notice that they’re positioned just like how the seven dangers are located in Cathysia?”

“That’s right! The positions are almost the same as the location of the seven dangers!” Daniella chimed in. “Oh my gosh. I was thinking that these patterns were some random patterns and that they only appeared in the formation because it’s almost time for us to exit the forest. Never thought it has a much deeper meaning!”

“This is great!” Jack balled his hands into tight fists as he was overwhelmed with happiness.

At this moment, a swirl appeared in the sky and it had a strong suction power. It soon sucked everybody upward and into the spiral.
