Chapter 1501-1503

Chapter 1501

Xavier gave a bitter smile. He was well aware of the extent of his talent and thought that he did not have much hope during his current lifetime. Besides,

Even if Jack was an alchemist,

He could not bear to waste his given pills.

“Every person should have goals. Otherwise, what difference would there be between us and salted fish? Don’t you think so, everyone?”

Jack looked at the crowd, speaking while chuckling.

“Yes. Haha!”

Everyone laughed. All of their futures were full of hope.

“You’ve given the pills to everyone. Now, what are you going to use to cultivate yourself? Didn’t you say that you were going to break into the peak of the true god status before going to the Cabello family’s estate?”

Nash looked at Jack and smiled bitterly.

“Don’t worry, Dad. I have a bit of time, no? I’ll create a few more pills today and tomorrow. Then I’ll try to make a breakthrough. I've decided that it's fine even if I fail this time. I can try again next time!"

Jack gave a wan smile and asked everyone again, "Oh, right. I don't think there's any more news, right? If there isn't, everybody should work hard with the remaining time we have. For those who can break into another level, quickly make your breakthroughs. The danger zones are extremely dangerous. All those who are in the true god realm must go except for two or three who will remain behind to look after the White family."

"Don't worry, Young Master. We'll definitely work hard to cultivate ourselves!"

Yolanda and the others answered excitedly.

After everyone dissipated, Jack accompanied his wife and child for the afternoon. At night, he finally began to quiet himself down to create pills.

Before, he had obtained plenty of martial resources and alchemy materials from the competition. Then, he killed the six elders from the Skies Pavilion, and he obtained even more goodies. That was why Jack had picked out plenty of alchemy resources to put into his martial ring. If he were not pressed for time, he could create even more pills, helping everyone to cultivate themselves.

"It's a pity that there are too few alchemists in the White family. The alchemists that the First Elder spoke of are those outside the Four Ancient Clans. After all, we don't usually interact with the Four Ancient Clans and don't bring them up in our conversations.

"There must be quite a few alchemists among the Four Ancient Clans!"

Jack thought about it and muttered to himself, then he took out a bunch of secondgrade intermediate alchemy materials and started to create the pills.

He worked for three straight days to create over ten secondgrade intermediate pills. The more familiar one was with creating pills, the higher the success rate of creating them.

However, Jack still felt hapless. He was aware that the alchemy methods he knew were few. He only had two methods to create secondgrade intermediate pills. He has been using the same method and did not have the time to try and practice the other method. After all, it was good enough that he increased the chances of successfully creating the pills.

He rested for two days, then he told Selena that he wanted to isolate himself and cultivate his level, as he intended to break into the next level.

Meanwhile, throughout the one month, Selena had also greatly increased her martial level. She was already a seventh -grade grandmaster. The rate at which she had improved was tremendous.

As for Ben, he had reached the level of a third-grade grandmaster. For him, it was satisfactory progress.

Of course, Jack did not expect Kylie to be a prodigy. She had been a third-grade martial artist before, and now she was a sixth-grade martial artist. The little girl still went to school every day, and would only train herself when she had free time.

Chapter 1502

Two days before they were to set out for the Cabello family's estate, Nash and a handful of elders were anxiously waiting at the gates.

They all wanted to know if Jack could make it, with him needing to practice alchemy and trying to make a breakthrough within such a short time.

Furthermore, if he was not out any sooner, they would not be able to make it on time. After all, the Cabello family estate was some distance away from the White family estate.

At long last, while anxiety was seizing them, the doors slowly crept open. Jack walked out.

“Young Master Jack, you’re finally out. Have you managed to make a breakthrough?”

The First Elder, Titus, and the others all stared at Jack in anticipation. They all knew that Jack had fearsome fighting prowess. If Jack could break into the peak of the true god status, then they truly had nothing to fear.

As everyone’s eyes were pinned on him, Jack nodded his head slightly. “Haha. Don’t worry. I did it!”

As Jack spoke, he slowly released the aura within his body, allowing it to seep into the atmosphere.

“My goodness. Such a powerful aura! Is this truly the aura of someone at the peak of the true god realm? Why do I feel like it’s the strength of ten fighters at the peak of the true god realm?”

When Jack released his aura, the crowd was shocked.

“That fellow is a strange one. We even thought that we could beat him in the beginning!”

Liah and Martin exchanged a glance, not knowing whether to laugh or cry. They still remembered how they previously tried to fight Jack for the position of house heir.

It was as though it had just happened yesterday. Jack was now on a whole other level – one they could not hope to reach.

Even though they made great progress and trained hard, the gap between them and Jack was growing wider and wider.

“Forget it. Now he could probably beat a hundred of me!”

Yule did not know whether to laugh or cry. “I even thought that I would be the one to help him in the beginning. Who knew that he would be so much stronger than I am. What a great hidden talent!”

“This is fantastic. Haha. Absolutely fantastic. The White family is blessed!”

Nash and the other Elders knew that while Jack was still at the advanced stage of the true god status, he managed to kill six fighters at the peak of the true god status alone.

Now, Jack has broken through to another level. Even if he did not transform into a dragon, he could easily beat the old fighters at the peak of the true god status.

More importantly, now the Second Elder and the Third Elder were also at the peak of the true god status. The White family had gained five fighters at the peak of the true god status in a short span of time. In other words, they had nothing to be afraid of anymore.

“Oh, right. Young Master Jack, while you were busy practicing alchemy and cultivating yourself these few days, you probably don’t know that Patronum Yolanda has made a breakthrough after using your pill. She’s now at the advanced stage of the true god status. We’ve already promoted her to an Elder!”

Titus took a step forward and spoke to Jack, chuckling, “As for the other six who received your pills, two of them also made breakthroughs, and they’ve been promoted to the Elder status. The other four had just broken into the intermediate stage of the true god realm, and their powers are not stable yet, so they have yet to use your pill to make another breakthrough!”

“Haha. Good, good. That’s good news!”

Jack laughed when he heard this. He was delighted. Now the White family was truly getting stronger. “Humph. We don’t have to lie low anymore! I’ll just punch whoever dares to look down on the White family!”

Chapter 1503

“Of course. Haha. Especially the Lagorio family. We’ll wipe them out if they dare to create trouble for us. Let’s see if they dare to come for us!”

The First Elder also burst into laughter. Everybody hates the Lagorio family, especially Lily Lagorio. Even after she had done unspeakable crimes, she still dared to declare that she was going to take revenge.

Furthermore, not only did she not repent, she even tried to use the Skies Pavilion to kill the White family. The last time, if not for the fact that Jack had a serious trump card on him, the three of them would probably be killed by the six fighters. If the three of them were dead, the Lagorio family would probably not spare a single White family member.

“Those in the true god status and the semi-god status can all go. But we still need to leave eight people of the true god status behind, and more than ten people of the semi-god status. They’ll be guarding the White family estate!”

Jack said after he thought about it.

Soon, Jack chose those who were to stay behind. He even made Lancelot stay behind, even if he had just broken into the peak of the true god status. That way, the other families would not dare to trespass their territory so easily.

“Sorry to trouble you, Third Elder. If you all stay back, you can look after the White family estate and have some time to stabilize your martial level!”

Jack patted Lancelot’s shoulder and gave the order.

“All right. Master, you and Young Master Jack can head out without a worry. Leave the White family estate to us!

Lancelot nodded his head. “We will be waiting for the good news you’ll bring us!”

“Let’s go!”

Jack quickly increased the size of his flying sword, and all the fighters from the White family flew onto it.

This time, the fighters were not just from the White main family, but also the branch families. In total, they had about twenty thousand people. It was a force to be reckoned with.

The remaining twenty thousand people were of lower cultivation levels or were assigned to look after the White family estate, so they stayed behind.

As a first-class family, the number of troops they had was astounding.

Whoosh!

At Jack’s telepathic command, the flying sword zoomed forward.

At that moment, in the Cabello family, Helena came before Daniella. “Third sister, you’ve managed to make great progress in cultivating yourself. Now you’re already at the intermediate stage of the true god status. It seems that you’ve not been slacking off all day!”

“Didn’t you make a breakthrough as well? You’re at the peak of the true god status already. Stop making me jealous!”

Daniella looked at Helena, and could not help but roll her eyes before speaking “Heh. I’ve been at the advanced stage of true god status for a long time now. I barely managed to succeed this time with the pill that Jack gave!”

Helena gave a bitter smile. “But you’ve managed to improve so quickly,” she said. “Besides, I’ve never seen you work so hard to cultivate yourself before!”

“Of course. I’ll only be dragging him down if I don’t work hard.”

As Daniella spoke, her cheeks began to flush, and her voice grew smaller. It was evident that she was bashful.No. 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 1504-1507

Chapter 1504

“Oh, so you’re working so hard because of that fella. I must say that the power of love is amazing!”

Helena looked at Daniella, and could not help but tease her, “Oh, right, The person you like is probably coming tomorrow. How do you feel now? Are you nervous? Excited?”

Daniella grew even shyer when her big sister teased her like that. She lowered her gaze and ducked her head. “Of course. Can’t I be excited and nervous at the same time? I wonder if he’ll be happy to see that I’ve made a breakthrough!”

“Heh. You’re already in a relationship with him. You just haven’t made the official announcement yet. Of course, he’ll be happy that you’ve made a breakthrough!”

Helena smiled, admiration welling in her heart. She was happy for her third sister, who was able to find such an incredible man. However, she did not know why a tinge of envy twinged her chest as well.

“What relationship? You are the one in a relationship with him. Everyone has acknowledged you! Who knows when we can finally reveal our relationship?”

Daniella pursed her lips, sitting down under a stone pavilion. “Sister Selena is pretty nice to me, and Jack told me that Selena has accepted me. I’m happy because of that. But now I’m worried about how I should break this to Kylie.

“Kylie? Doesn’t she like you? She was sad to see you leave. It shouldn’t be a problem!”

After Helena gave it some thought, she could not help but ask, “oh, right. Since you came back, you’ve been training till yesterday. Are you sure you haven’t forgotten anything?”

Daniella looked at Helena and said, smiling, “I didn’t forget. I promised Jack that I would give some Bone Marrow Cleansing Water to his parents. Heh. I’ll go in a while! I didn’t go earlier not because I was busy, but because I was afraid that Father and the others would catch me. With the other families coming soon, they’ll be busy arranging the family estate and preparing to receive guests. Then they won’t have the time to care about the Cleansing Water!”

She did not think that Helena would give her a grin, then take out a small bottle and thrust it toward her.

“What’s this?”

Daniella was confused when she saw it.

“Open it up and see. Then you’ll know.”

Helena rolled her eyes at her sister.

Daniella took a look and took a sharp intake of breath. "My God. This-this is enough for ten people. Big Sister, you stole it for me? Thank you! But someone will definitely tell because you took so much. What if Father finds out?"

Daniella was extremely excited. After she thought about it, she added, "Oh, right. If Father finds out, just say that it was me. Heh. Thank you, Big Sis. I love you so much!"

As she spoke, Daniella kept the bottle, then she hugged Helena and jumped elatedly.

"Don't-don't! I didn't give this to you. It's Father!"

Chapter 1505

Helena rolled her eyes at Daniella. "I told Father that you promised to give some Bone Marrow Cleansing Water to the White family," she said. "The idea of stealing didn't sit right with me, even though it's our own family possession. That's why I told Father. I didn't think that he would agree to it so easily. He even said that because we haven't received news that Master White had been killed, it means that the White family members have managed to fend off an attack. We can't look down on the White family any longer, and we should establish good relations with them!"

"So it was Father who gave this. How nice of him. I even thought that he would be furious once he found out. I didn't think that he would give so much Bone Marrow Cleansing Water too!"

Daniella was even happier. She was as excited as a child who had just gotten candy.

"Heh. Father said that Jack helped us to kill the First Young Master Hunt and saved so many of our people, so we must maintain a good relationship between our families. He-he even advised me..."

As she spoke, Helena's expression grew bashful. She was embarrassed to speak any further.

“Advised you? What did he advise you?”

Daniella frowned. Judging from her big sister’s behavior, it seemed that! It was a touchy subject.

“He advised me to get closer to Jack and see if we can make our relationship a real one. So that our families will be related. This will greatly benefit the Cabello family because Jack has great talent, and the White family will only grow stronger. That’s why...”

As Helena spoke, she bit her lower lip and glanced at Daniella.

Daniella was furious when she heard this. “I’m so mad. Why would Father think of that?” she said, clenching her teeth. “He agreed that you two were a fake couple. Why is he doing this? Seriously...”

Here, she looked at her big sister again and spoke, “You. What did you tell him then? Big Sis, don’t tell me that you agreed to his suggestion? Don’t tell me that you’ve fallen for Jack? My God. He’s too amazing. You’ll definitely like him. That’s definitely the case. What should I do? He’s my boyfriend. Sis, you can’t just snatch my boyfriend away. We have a connection!”

Daniella truly flew into a panic. After all, her sister was just as pretty as she was. She was cute and doe-eyed but her sister was matured and aloof. What if Jack liked women of her type? What if the two truly developed feelings for each other after fake dating for a while? Then what should she do?

“Me? I didn’t know how to answer him, so I told him that I was just putting up an act with Jack. I told him that there’s no chemistry between us so that he’ll stop getting wild ideas!”

Helena smiled and added, “I even told Father that you seem to have taken an interest in Jack. And you’ve known him longer, so you must have fallen for him!”

“Really? What did Father say?”

Daniella's eyes brightened when she heard this, her expression pinched in anticipation.

"Father was surprised. He said that if Jack liked you as well, a relationship could grow from there. But feelings can only develop in their natural course. Our parents won't bother with what happens between us!"

After Helena said that, she jabbed Daniella's forehead with a finger. "You were so panicky. Have you calmed down now?"

"Heh. I'm all right now. I was afraid that Father would disagree because relationship between our families were not great before. With this, can finally put my mind at rest!"

Daniella chuckled, her heart dancing with joy. Since Jack's wife had no objections, and her parents agreed, then she would definitely become the second mistress of the White family!

Chapter 1506

"But the First and Second Young Masters of the Hunt family died not too long ago. The Hunt family members are probably trying to find out who it was who killed them. Now is really not the time for me to announce my breakup with Jack!"

Helena pondered on the matter for a while before speaking her mind.

When she heard this, Daniella also scrunched her brows together. She thought for a while before replying, "That doesn't matter. At any rate, Second Young Master Hunt won't be disturbing you anymore. Heh. As time goes by, people will start to forget about this. If anyone asks you, just say that the two of you broke up because of irreconcilable differences!"

"You're just waiting for our fake dating gambit to be over so that you can be with Jack, right?"

Helena rolled her eyes at Daniella, then said in a joking manner, “Seriously. Maybe I should keep him to myself. Your boyfriend is a fine Specimen, after all!”

“Big Sis, you-you. If you do that, I’ll be absolutely livid!”

Daniella stamped her foot, acting cute before her elder sister.

“Heh. I was just joking. I wanted to see how you would react!”

Helena answered, chuckling.

Time passed by quickly. The next morning, the Cabello family began to stir into excitement.

Soon, some second-class and third-class family members arrived.

The second-class and third-class families were going all out this time. They had brought people of the true god and semi-god status along.

Although few fighters were at the peak of the true god realm among these families, those at the advanced or intermediate stage of the true god status still looked forward to finding the method to break into the ultimate god status.

After all, if they found an object that would help them, they would be able to use it one day in the future. It was an unparalleled treasure, something that everybody had their eyes on.

“Ah. The second-class and thirdclass families are here to join the fun. Seriously...”

The First Elder of the Cabello family could not help but heave a sigh when he saw that many people were starting to gather in a huge plaza halfway up the Cabello family's mountain.

He did not think that even though the Hunt family restored the ancient summoning circle and organized the competition for the younger generation, it would be Jack and the others who won the fame, discovering a clue that might lead them to the ultimate god realm.

Now that he thought about it, he felt pathetic. He had toiled away all those years for nothing

"Let's go. We can head down now. There are plenty of people there. The Second Elder and the others are welcoming guests there!"

Alejandro smiled and said, "Of course the aristocratic families would come. Who wouldn't be interested in a matter as big as the ultimate god realm? But they brought so many people here. Plenty will die in the danger zones as well. We have no choice though. We can't just stop them, can we?"

"Heh. That's true!"

The First Elder chuckled, flying down along with Alejandro. "The White family is amazing. We still haven't heard of anything from them. Unless the Skies Pavilion did not send anyone to attack them after the wedding, while they were heading back to their estate?"

Chapter 1507

"Indeed, it's strange. There's been no news from Skies Pavilion as well. Logically speaking, Lily Lagorio must have married their master to attack the White family. Even an idiot would figure that out!"

Alejandro furrowed his brows. The two quickly flew down the mountain.

Not long after, the other seven first-class families slowly arrived.

When Master Hunt spotted Jack and the others, his expression darkened. He had the urge to skin Jack alive.

“Master White, I didn’t think that your son would be so capable. It isn’t an exaggeration to call him a genius, right?”

Old Master Hunt commented after seeing Nash.

“Heh. I don’t know what you mean, Old Master Hunt!”

Nash chuckled after he heard that. Before, he would have been worried by the old man’s words. Now though, he had no reason to fear the Hunt family.

“Oh, it’s nothing. We just heard rumors that your son killed both of my grandsons!”

Old Master Hunt gave a frosty smile. “With that fighting power, your son is truly the Number One Genius among the younger generation. Who else has the right to that title?”

When he heard this, Nash did not think that it was anything out of the ordinary. After all, plenty of people knew what had happened. Although the Lancaster family and the Cabello family members had promised that they would not speak of it, there were far too many people in the two families. Coupled with the White family members, someone might have accidentally leaked the information while they were idly chatting among themselves.

That was why so long as the Hunt family investigated and observed intently—perhaps even catching and interrogating a few Lancaster or Cabello family members—they would certainly find a few rumors.

“No way! The young master of the White family killed them? My God. His talent is amazing.”

The Church family members took a sharp intake of breath after they heard this. They were evidently shocked.

However, after Master Church and his Elders recollected themselves, hatred sprang in their hearts once more.

They had allied with the Lagorio and Hunt families at first, ready to take down the geniuses from the other families. That way, they would obtain benefits, and the Hunt family’s position would be solidified.

They did not expect the two young masters of the Hunt family would be killed during the competition. Meanwhile, the three families had sent over four hundred geniuses, and only a few dozen of them had emerged alive. It was a colossal loss.

If Jack had killed the two young masters of the Hunt family, he had no way to clear himself of a connection to the other geniuses of the families.

“All right. I had suspected that Helena and Jack had worked together to do this. You even told us to stop making baseless accusations, since there’s no evidence. Nash White, it seems like Old Master Hunt and the others have found something. How are you going to defend yourself?”

The master of the Lagorio family, Trenton, was delighted when he heard this. He immediately stood up and glared at Nash.

Joel was embarrassed by the incident that had happened to Skies Pavilion. If a word that six of their fighters at the peak of the true god status had died, their position would definitely plummet. Until now, the Skies Pavilion has yet to declare anything. Even Trenton did not know what was happening in Skies Pavilion.

Now, aside from the White family, only the Skies Pavilion knew that they had suffered such a great loss. The other families and Ancient Clans had no idea of that incident. They still assumed that the Skies Pavilion had plenty of fighters among their ranks.

“Heh. I had no idea. Besides, does it matter who killed them?”

Nash chuckled and shrugged his shoulders nonchalantly. No. 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 1508-1510

Chapter 1508

“Does it matter who killed them? Nash White, they were Master Hunt’s sons, two genius sons! They’re now dead! And you think that it’s not a big deal?”

An elder of the Hunt family stepped forward and snarled at Nash; his tone was full of malice and hatred, and his face was so red as though he was burning with anger. How could this old fella before him speak in such a nonchalant tone? Did the old fella forget the status of the Hunt family in this martial world?

Another elder of the Hunt family chimed in and sneered, “Nash White, it looks like you’re unaware of the power of the Hunt family, aren’t you? Let me tell you, another Elder in the Hunt family has broken through to the peak of the true god realm lately!”

The elder raised his head higher as he bragged; his face was full of pride as though the Hunt family had conquered the world. After all, the strength of a family depended on the number of elite fighters one had. There was an addition of strength at the peak of the true god realm in the Hunt family, the top position of the Hunt family among the hidden families was definitely more stable than before.

“What? Another one? The Hunt family is really something!”

“Yes, that is so cool! It’s only been a while! The Hunt family is very talented in training people, and the other hidden families like us can’t even be on par with them!”

“Five, tsk tsk tsk. They have five elite fighters at the peak of the true god realm! Other firstclass families only have two or three, right?”

Animated discussions soon arose among the people of second-class and third-class families upon hearing the news. All of a sudden, the Hunt family was once again under the spotlight.

“Haha, Mr. Elder of the Hunt family, you look so proud of the mentioned elder. Hmmm. The elder that broke through to the peak stage of the true god realm...is you, right?”

Jack noticed the prideful look on the other party and pointed it out nonchalantly. “I don’t think there’s anything wrong with what my father said. No matter how many elite fighters at the peak stage of the true god realm the Hunt family had, it has nothing to do with the White family. Secondly, they were indeed killed by me, but so what? At the beginning of the competition, didn’t you, the Hunt family, say that life or death didn’t matter in the competition?”

“Oh my goodness! It was only a rumor that he killed them. But today he actually admitted the deed!”

Some people gasped at the fact that Jack admitted to the killing deed. Jack was bold and dauntless.

“This brat actually dares to admit it? So the rumor is true! But isn’t he afraid of death?”

Helena and Daniella exchanged glances; both of them were rendered speechless.

The old man of the Hunt family trembled with rage; his resentment grew inside him like a tumor. The death of his two beloved grandsons had been a pain in his heart.

In the past few weeks, he even secretly sent people to investigate and inquire about the death of his grandsons, and until three days ago, only did they learn that the one who killed his grandsons was Jack White. The newly learned information made them want to tear Jack apart with their own hands.

The Hunt family members did not expect that Jack would actually dare to admit his deed in front of them.

"Haha! Great! It's so great!"

Old Master Hunt was so angry that he burst into laughter instead. "Master White, this son of yours is not only a talented genius, but he is also the most courageous man in the world! He admitted his deed and is not afraid to offend our Hunt family at all. Such courage, I don't think anyone else in this world possesses the courage he has!"

Chapter 1509

"Old Master Hunt, I don't think there's a problem with what my son has said. Previously in the competition, the life or death rule was repeatedly stressed by the Hunt family too. All we did was follow this rule. Hmm. Don't tell me you want to shove all the blame onto my son and avenge your grandsons, hmm?"

Nash smiled gently while responding to the Old Master Hunt. If the same thing happened back in the time before Jack appeared in his life, he would not dare to speak up so confidently in front of the Hunt family.

"Heh, what are you all talking about here?"

Before the Old Master Hunt could say further, Alejandro immediately stepped in and mediated the situation. "The tournament has long passed, and many sons of families died in that tournament; they were the pearls of families.

However, the principal topic for today is to discuss how to venture into the Seven Dangers and to find a way to break through to the ultimate god realm, right? Those are the things we should be discussing!"

“Master Cabello is right. Let’s not fight over this matter, alright?”

Shelby Lancaster-the head of the Lancaster family-stepped up and voiced out as well. “I’m actually worried about one thing, it’s about the daughter of the Lagorio family. She married the master of Skies Pavilion, and I wonder if she told them about the Seven Dangers and the ultimate god realm.”

Everyone stared at Trenton upon hearing Shelby’s words.

Although the Hunt family members were angry, it was not a good idea to strike Jack then so they could only swallow their rage and bury the hatred in their hearts for the time being. When the opportunity comes, they would behead Jack to avenge the young masters of the Hunt family.

“Hey, don’t look at me like that! I don’t know either!”

Panic surged through Trenton when he noticed that all gazes were on him. His face was ashen, and his throat tightened.

It was because he knew the truth, that his daughter had not only told the Skies Pavilion about the ultimate god realm, but she also told the other three ancient clans!

If the people of these hidden families knew that Lily was the snitch and even used the information to exchange for training materials and resources, they would not be happy with the Lagorios. Even worse, they might target the Lagorio family in the future.

“You don’t know? Stop pretending! You’re Lily’s father and you claim that you don’t know anything about it? Don’t tell me she never tells you anything at all!”

Shelby stepped toward Trenton and stared straight at him.” But I was informed that your daughter visited the Pavilion of Gods and Kings before she married the master of Skies Pavilion. What's more interesting is that some time ago, a group of people from the Pavilion of Gods and Kings explored two sites of the Seven Dangers! How do you think those men found out about the Seven Danger?"

"Master Lagorio, you must give us an explanation regarding this!"

Nash's face sank to the deepest as he spoke. None of the hidden families had spread the news, instead, they worked hard to train and prepare themselves sufficiently before discussing how to go to the lands of the Seven Dangers.

The news that the Lancaster family had found out was like a bomb.

"Master Lagorio, did your daughter really spill such important information to the ancient clans? I had doubts before that she would tell the Skies Pavilion, but after listening to Master Lancaster's findings, it seems like your daughter has told all the ancient clans about the Seven Dangers and ultimate god realm! Humph! Now all four ancient clans know about it, right? Sigh! I wonder if the other three ancient clans have made a move to the Seven Dangers yet."

Old Master Hunt was running on sheer anger; he stared deadly at Trenton with malice and hatred written on his face." The four ancient clans are very powerful! They might act first to get to the Seven Dangers and find the way to break through to the ultimate god realm! And what if they won't tell us after they've figured it out? Then what? Are we, the reclusive families, going to be trampled under their feet for the rest of our lives, and never be able to rise?"

Numerous pairs of eyes focused on Trenton that he was mute with horror. His legs were wobbling in fear, and his face went white.

Nonetheless, he wiped the sweat on his forehead and tried to tamp down the panic within him. "Ladies and gentlemen, I really don't know anything about this at all! Lily never tells me about her plan, and even when she wanted to marry that old man, I tried to stop but to no avail! She simply doesn't listen to me. So, about the four ancient clans and the ultimate god realm, I truly don't know anything!"

Chapter 1510

Trenton knew very well in his heart that he could not admit that his daughter told the four ancient clans about the Seven Dangers. If these hidden families knew about it, they would blame the Lagorio family, and that would be a huge problem for the Lagorio family.

Old Master Hunt sank into deep thought with a solemn expression on his face. "It doesn't matter who snitched. We're here today to discuss how we should approach the Seven Dangers; each of the place in the Seven Dangers is extremely hazardous and risky, and none of us have been there before, not to mention the deepest site of the Seven Dangers. We don't know the situation there, and even if each reclusive family sent one elite genius and joined forces together, I still think it'd be dangerous!" He expressed his thoughts and opinion about the plan.

"I wonder what the seven bright spots on the map mean... Hmm... Moreover, if the four ancient clans have already sent men out to explore the Seven Dangers, we're not sure which of the Seven Dangers they've been and if they put their men there to guard the place."

The head of a second-class family spoke his mind after giving the matter some thoughts.

"In the past, the ancient clans, perhaps, would not make a move against our people of hidden families. But now the situation has changed, it involves some clues about the ultimate god level. Thus, if our men meet their people in any of the Seven Dangers, I'm afraid that they'll strike at us for the sake of treasure and clues. This would be the most worrying problem of all!"

The head of the Lancaster family had her brows puckered together as she spoke. If it was not because of the sudden intervention from the four ancient clans, the hidden families only had to divide the forces equally and send their men out to all the Seven dangers; there would be no problem with such a plan.

All of a sudden, at this time, in the distance, a large crowd of men in black was seen gliding through the wide sky.

"Everyone, look! Why is there a group of people heading in our direction? Are there any other families coming to the meeting?"

Someone noticed the situation and immediately exclaimed.

“No, there shouldn’t be anyone else! The eight first-class reclusive families are all here. There are at least forty thousand people in that crowd that is coming over, right? It can’t be any family!”

Quentin’s face sank into the deepest, with a sense of foreboding.

Alejandro soon recognized the other party; he cursed at the situation and his face turned unsightly.

Dread and irritation gnawed within the other heads of families as well; all their expressions were solemn and unsightly. Although they knew that they were right about Lily snitching on them, telling everything to the people from Skies Pavilion, they were still upset when they saw the other party appear.

“Wow! There are quite a lot of people here!”

Joel Collins commented as he and his men stopped in the sky, not too far from the square where the hidden families gathered. They looked at the crowd from above.

“Hey, my lovely son-in-law, what brings you here?”

Trenton immediately felt relieved and somewhat confident at the arrival of Joel. He immediately approached Joel with the gentlest smile on his face.

“Greetings, Master Lagorio. I heard from your daughter that you guys have some clues about the ultimate god realm, saying that it is related to the Seven Dangers. How could I not come for such important information?”

Joel replied, chuckling.

“Lily Lagorio, that woman didn’t come along? Is she afraid of us bashing and criticizing her?”

Out of everyone’s expectation, Jack stood out at this moment and asked Joel directly. His arms clasped in front of his chest and stared at Joel as though he was the master and Joel was his servant.

“My goodness, did I hear it wrong? This brat is so bold! How could he talk to the Master of Skies Pavilion in that manner?”

Chapter 1511

Some people in the crowd gasped at the situation, worrying for Jack.

“Why didn’t the head of the White family remind his son of his manners? Aren’t they afraid that Master Collins would get angry and kill his son on the spot? Even worse, Master Collins might end the entire White family!

A family head of a third-class family was surprised at how bold Jack was and exclaimed the same thoughts as the others.

Although everyone felt upset at what Lily had done—snitching on them, they certainly did not dare to spill such things to Joel, the pavilion master of Skies Pavilion

However, what the crowd did not know was that the other party knew what Jack got up his sleeve when Jack and the other two attended Lily and Joel’s marriage ceremony at the Skies Pavilion. If Jack did not reveal his hidden card, the other party would have long killed Jack and the other two. And if the three of them had died, the existence of the White family would be impacted grievously—the White might become extinct.

When Jack thought about the day the Skies Pavilion sent out six elite fighters to besiege and kill the three of them, raw anger flowed through him like lava.

“Jack, you do have courage, don’t you? Do you know who he is? He is the Master of the Skies Pavilion! You’re merely a young master, a junior! How dare you speak to Master Toel in such a tone, what a rude lad you are! I think you’re looking down on our Master Joel of the Skies Pavilion and being disrespectful to him!”

Happiness bloomed inside Trenton; he had not been able to find an opportunity for his son-in-law to make a move against the White family, but Jack dug the grave for himself. If the Master of the Skies Pavilion could strike at Jack right then and there to kill him, would not that be awesome?

Was it not Jack digging his own grave right now? Such a good opportunity to eliminate Jack was too rare to come by!

Sure enough, Joel’s face instantly turned dull and solemn; he felt that Jack was being disrespectful toward him.

However, he soon understood why Jack would talk to him in that manner; it must be due to Jack and the other two having encountered the six corpses of the elders from the Skies Pavilion that day and guessed that they were sent to assassinate Jack and the group.

But, this brat had no evidence about the assassination at all, how could he speak to him in such a disrespectful manner? Was he not looking for death? Such a good opportunity was presented in front of Joel; he Naturally would not miss it.

“Brat, you do have guts, don’t you? You don’t even try to respect an elder like me. How dare you call Lily ‘that woman’! She is my ninth wife and she’s older than you! Don’t you even understand the basics of being respectful toward the elders?” Joel smiled coldly and stared at Jack angrily.

“Well, she is that woman’ in my eyes. What to do? Humph! That woman was bent on causing trouble and eliminating my White family, why do I have to be respectful to her?”

Jack snorted coldly in return. “You humiliated my father at your wedding, and I haven’t forgotten about that matter yet. Now, old man, tell me, do you think you deserve my respect? Do you think I’m afraid of you?” Jack added.

“Master Collins, I have some doubts. On the day of your wedding, when we were on our way home, we encountered six elite elders from Skies Pavilion! Hehe, it can’t be that they were trying to protect us while sending us off, right? No such coincidence, right? Skies Pavilion has several elite fighters at peak stages of true god status, and we actually met six of them!”

Nash stepped in and supported Jack. He looked at Joel with an icy-cold smile plastered on his face.

“What? The Skies Pavilion made a move against the people from the hidden families? It’s so abominable! How could they break the tacit agreement that has been in place?”

Shelby immediately took a stance at Nash’s side and said with a surprised expression. “In that case, didn’t the Skies Pavilion break the silent agreement and did not at all respect the hidden families and the agreement? If they can strike at the White family, meaning they would strike at any of the hidden families in the future! Which of our families can resist their attack by then?” She added agitatedly.

“Master Lancaster is right! What a shameless act! The White family went to their wedding to give blessings, but the Skies Pavilion actually repaid the blessing with evils by sending people to assassinate them on their way back home? What logic is that? How abominable!”

The people of other families huffed and expressed their opinions in anger. The crowd was taking the side of the White family.

“What the hell? Something like that happened?”

Some of the White family members who were still unaware of the episode were feeling shocked, at the same time, furious about the newly learned information. Their faces turned unsightly. After all, only several elders of the White family knew about that incident.

Chapter 1512

“Young man, don’t accuse us without any proof!”

An old man from the Skies Pavilion immediately stood out and defended loudly. “We learned that a terrifying monster beast was appearing in that forest, so we sent our people to kill it. This is to prevent the beast from entering the village or town nearby and harm the innocent people there! But we did not expect that the beast was that powerful and had extremely sharp claws! It killed all the six elders of the Skies Pavilion!”

“No way! There is such a powerful monster beast in that forest?”

“My goodness! Six elders! Those who can become elders of the Skies Pavilion must have broken through to the peak stage of the true god realm! With such combat strength and prowess, they were killed by the beast?”

Many people gasped upon hearing the words. They were shocked by this news.

“Monster beast?”

Jack and Nash exchanged glances and their expressions turned strange. The Skies Pavilion did not believe that their elders were killed by the three of the White family, and they thought that the six elders had encountered some powerful monster and were killed by it!

But their reasoning was not completely wrong, after all, Jack did transform into a green dragon. He used his sharp claws to grab and crush the elders, and some were even crushed into meat paste. Looking at the wounds of the corpses, it was reasonable and logical for the Skies Pavilion to think that it was the works of some kind of powerful beast!

As expected, at this time, another elder of the Skies Pavilion stepped forward and chimed in, "Humph! You just happened to pass by the scene and encountered the corpses of the elders. How dare you accuse us based on that? You're simply slandering the Skies Pavilion!"

"Nash White, your son is being disrespectful toward us; he did not at all put the Skies pavilion in his eyes! Never mind that he humiliated my ninth wife, he actually dares to slander our clan!" Joel was furious. "Today, I'll teach you and your son a good lesson!"

Seeing that majority of the crowd seemed to believe his words, Joel was actually happy inside. He then took a huge step toward Nash, emitting his high and mighty aura to pressure him.

A terrifying sense of oppression came right at Nash as Joel released his domineering aura.

"What an overwhelming tension! He's truly a veteran in the peak stage of the true god realm. Although their martial status stops at the peak stage of the true god realm, in terms of releasing a sense of tension and pressure, they are truly good at that. Their mighty aura will only get stronger and stronger!"

Several people from the White family had obviously felt the overwhelming tension emitted by Joel. They could not help but worry for Nash.

Joel flashed in an instant, clenched his fist, and bolted straight at Nash. Apparently, he wanted to give Nash a good beating, so that these hidden families would recognize the mighty majesty of the four ancient clans! The ancient clans must not be trampled on nor be desecrated at all!

“Come at me!”

However, at this time, Jack jumped and appeared in front of Nash in a flash. He, too, clenched his fist and blasted straight ahead at Joel.

“Brat, are you looking for death? Do you think you’re worthy of being my opponent?”

Joel’s fury sprang to life when he saw that Jack came forward for his father.

In his eyes, Jack was at most a junior, a rising star among the younger generation. Even if he was an elite fighter in the intermediate stage or even late stage of the true god realm, Jack’s overall strength and power were still inferior to his! So when Jack dashed out for his father, Jack had indirectly insulted Joel, implying that Joel was on the same level with him!

Boom!

Just as Joel’s last syllabus of words fell, two huge fists collided, and a deafening sound of collision rang out. Waves of Chi energy emitted from the blast, shaking the ground.

Bang!

What happened in the next second had everyone completely dumbfounded. Jack stood firmly in place, while Joel was blown away by Jack’s fist.

“No f*cking way!”

Almost everyone cried out in shock; their eyes were widened as large as saucers and their jaws dropped to the ground. The fighting outcome before them was completely beyond their expectation.

Chapter 1513

Was it not Jack that was supposed to be blasted away? How did it turn out to be the high and mighty Master Collins of the Skies Pavilion?

“Pfft!

What was truly out of everyone’s expectation was that the Master of Skies Pavilion was thrown a hundred feet away before he could stabilize himself on the ground. However, he could not resist the power but spurted out a mouthful of fresh blood, and his face immediately went white.

“No freaking way! He’s injured!”

Daniella of the Cabello family and the others were shocked and dumbfounded. Before that, when they saw that Jack spoke to Joel in an impolite manner, they were truly worried for Jack.

And when Joel charged toward Nash and Jack rushed out to block the attack, Daniella was so scared that she almost fainted. She could not imagine how worried he was. Jack tried to fight against Master Collin’s attack, was he not looking for death?

But now, the scene before her eyes told otherwise!

“Jack, this brat, he’s more powerful than Master Collins?”

Alejandro was even more frightened and could not control but swallowed hard. He then turned to Nash and asked, “Master White, you, he... Your son...which martial status is he at now? Don’t tell me he broke through again!”

Alejandro's voice was trembling as he expressed his doubts to Nash. Who was Joel? He was one of the top fighters in the peak stage of the true god realm! He could even resist against two or three fighters with the strength of the peak stage of the true god realm if they were to join forces together.

Nonetheless, such a powerful existence was actually blasted away by Jack!

"No! Impossible! There's no way he's stronger than me!"

Joel was even more bewildered at the fact. All of this felt so unreal to him; he pinched his thigh harshly, only then he learned that the pinch pained him. So, it meant all of this was real!

"To be honest, my son has broken through to the peak of the true god realm a few days ago!"

Nash smiled nonchalantly at Alejandro and responded in a gentle tone.

"Wow! Jack! You broke through to the next stage too fast!"

Daniella could no longer hold back her excitement and gazed at Jack with a face full of adoration, as though Jack was some priceless jewelry. Sunshine flooded her soul, and she could barely conceal it within her. Jack, the man that she adored deeply, did not at all let her down. He was the perfect man.

"Haha! Brother Jack, you're so cool! You're really awesome!"

Randall Lancaster laughed out loud as he came over to Jack. He looked at Jack with excitement present in his Eyes.

“Master Collin, what’s the matter? Do you still want to fight with us? Haha! You said it yourself that the Skies Pavilion has already suffered losses; six elite fighters of the peak stage of the true god realm died! Indeed, Skies Pavilion is powerful and deeply rooted, but our White family is not afraid of you!”

Kenneth was even prouder of the White family that he annoyed Joel with a smug look on his face. Jack's attack had truly shocked everyone there; he made the White family proud, and the status of the White family would definitely increase after the great collision of punches just now.

Besides, the status of the White family would be different in the eyes of these hidden families from now on.

"You..."

Anger stirred within Joel that he was almost choking on his rage. However, when he thought about Jack's massive power and strength just now, his heart pounded frantically.

At that point in time, he truly did not dare to fight Jack again. What if he lost if he were to fight Jack again? Then the reputation of the Skies Pavilion and the image of Master Collin would be flushed down the drain.

He felt that his martial techniques would definitely be more powerful than Jack, and if he used his full strength to fight, his chance to win was higher, but what if he lost? There were many spectators in front of them. Watching him lose to Jack, how humiliating would that be?

After giving the matter some thought, he huffed, “Humph! I underestimated you a moment ago. Do you really think that you can be my opponent? I came here today to discuss important matters and not to fight! So, for the time being, I’d not haggle over you!”

When Joel spilled the sentence, his tone was arrogant and domineering, not emitting the slightest sense of weakness.

Moreover, most people of the Skies Pavilion also thought that their master pavilion was careless, underestimated Jack, and did not use his full strength. That was why Jack managed to hurt him.

The people of the Skies Pavilion had absolute trust and confidence in Master Collins's fighting prowess.

The crowd consisting of people from the hidden families was not stupid. A high and mighty person like Master Collins of the Skies Pavilion was injured by Jack, moreover, he did not want to pursue further! That had obviously implied that Joel was afraid of Jack's strength to some extent. From these behaviors of Joel, the crowd understood that Jack's strength and combat prowess were crazily strong.

"Master Hunt, the situation tells us more about young masters' death. This proves that our young masters were indeed killed by this fella!"

An elder from the Hunt family leaned toward Quentin and whispered into his ear softly.

"You're right. His combat power is far stronger than what we expected, and it is certainly stronger than his current martial level!"

Quentin nodded in agreement. He learned that Jack possessed an ultimate-grade spiritual weapon and that weapon had aided in increasing Jack's overall combat prowess.

"Master Collins, spill it! Since you already knew that we intend to explore the Seven Dangers, we'll not hide it from you anymore. The main reason we didn't share this information with you is cause we are not familiar with what's in there ourselves. We only blindly plan it without any in-depth information, so we can't let you take the risk with us!"

Old Master Hunt explained to Joel with a faint smile hanging on his face.

That excuse of Old Master Hunt's was sensible and reasonable; it did not offend the mighty status of Master Collins, and even seems to be for the sake of protecting him.

However, Joel was not stupid; he naturally knew the underlying meaning of Old Master Hunt's sentences."

"Hmm. Thank you for your consideration. But for such a big thing, it's worth it for the Skies Pavilion to try too. Now, what's next?" He decided not to argue with Old Master Hunt and thank him instead.

Several horizontal lines formed between Old Master Hunt's brows when he was just about to share his plan. "Sigh! I'm afraid it won't be easy to arrange anything right now. Someone else is coming. Heh! It looks like the Skies Pavilion is not the only one who knew about this!" he looked away to the far distance as he spoke.

Joel wheeled his head and looked around, then his face suddenly went gloomy and solemn. "People from the Pavilion of Soaring Eagles are coming this way, why are they here? Humph! Lily Lagorio, that woman only knows how to create trouble! It looks like she told the other ancient clans as well!"

Anger welled up in his chest; he was upset that Lily told the other ancient clans about the matter; what was worse, she did not inform him about it at all!

If Lily spared the other three ancient clans about Seven Dangers and only told him, the Skies Pavilion would become the boss among the ancient clans! They would definitely have the leading advantage! How could he possibly foresee that Lily had actually told the other ancient clans as well?

Trenton's face fell; he stood aside and remained silent, pretending that he was unaware of everything.

A few moments later, the people of the Pavilion of Soaring Eagles arrived at the square. It was not surprising for the Master of the Pavilion of Soaring Eagles to see that the people of Skies Pavilion were there too. After all, Lily married the Master of Skies Pavilion, it was only natural and logical for Lily to inform Joel about the Seven Dangers.

“Hahaha! It’s lively here, isn’t it? I guess the people of the Pavilion of Divinity and the Pavilion of Gods and Kings will arrive in a moment, too!”

The Master of the Pavilion of Soaring Eagles laughed as he spoke. He was a middle-aged man who looked like he was in his late 40 to early 50. “Shall we wait a little longer for them to arrive?” he added.

Chapter 1515

“The Pavilion of Divinity will definitely come, but I’m not sure about the Pavilion of Gods and Kings.”

Shelby sneered with a distant smile. “The Pavilion of Gods and Kings has already dispatched some elite fighters into the Seven Dangers. I only found out about this a few days ago!”

The Master of the Pavilion of Soaring Eagles choked at the news; the corners of his mouth twitched involuntarily several times. “Humph! The Pavilion of Gods and Kings, they’re too sneaky! Lily informed us about the date and the venue of the meeting, saying that all families will gather in the Cabello estate before entering the Seven Dangers. How could they just go ahead with their own plans?”

The master of the Pavilion of Soaring Eagles hesitated for quite a while, but in the end, he gave up a similar idea, afraid of causing public anger. If he had known that the Pavilion of Gods and Kings had already acted, he would not have hesitated and instantly sent out his men to explore the Seven Dangers!

After several minutes, the Master of the Pavilion of Divinity also arrived with a large group of people. “It looks like we’re not the latest! The Pavilion of Gods and Kings is not here yet!”

“Oh, they won’t come. They have already sent their men into the Seven Dangers. And I don’t know what’s the latest situation there.”

The Master of Pavilion of Soaring Eagles said huffily. He was upset; he was very upset. If the Master of the Pavilion of Gods and Kings had broken through to the ultimate god-level earlier than the other masters of the ancient clans, then it would be a huge problem. The other three ancient clans would have to listen to him in the future!

Sure enough, when the Master of the Pavilion of Divinity heard the news, her face sank, and raw rage seared through her. “Master Yeager, Harry Yeager, what an abominable man! He actually acted in advance, huh? Seven Dangers are not some common forests or caves, aren’t they afraid that the Seven Dangers are beyond their own ability? And in the end, the loss will be greater than gain!”

“I don’t think they are that bold to explore all seven places at the same time. Because then their strength and power will be scattered, and the death rate will be higher!”

Joel scoffed indifferently. “I think they’ve gone in for some days, and if they have found the way to break through to the ultimate god realm, it will be troublesome! And it will be more tedious and cumbersome if several of them break through to the ultimate god realm! By that time, even though we are elite fighters in the peak. Stage of the true god realm, in front of the Pavilion of Gods and Kings, we could only bow down!” he continued.

The Master of the Pavilion of Divinity carefully scanned through the men beside Joel, and said, “Joel, what are your plans then? Also, I remember there are several elite martial artists with power of the peak stage of true god level in your pavilion. Why are they not here today?” She asked in a skeptical god-level tone and with her forehead puckered together. “Logically, this meeting is about finding a way to break through to the ultimate god realm, and those who are already at the peak stage of the true god realm should be eager to know the way, right? Could it be that you have some other plans?” she added.

The words of the middle-aged woman stirred up some fear in the crowd. The people of the Pavilion of Soaring Eagles exchanged glances, evaluating her words. All of them were afraid of the real reason for the Skies Pavilion leaving so many elite fighters behind; they feared that the Skies Pavilion had another arrangement. What if the elite fighters were sent to attack their pavilions? It would be a big headache for them. After all, all families and pavilions had brought along all their elite fighters for the expedition to the Seven Dangers!

“Dead. They’re dead!”

Joel initially did not plan to spread this news, but since the other pavilions had noticed the missing of his elders, he had no choice but to explain. "They encountered a powerful monster beast and were killed by it. What's worse, I don't even know what kind of monster beast it is!"

"What? No freaking way! What kind of monster beast could be so powerful that it actually killed all the six elders who were at the peak of the true god level?"

The Master of the Pavilion of Divinity was called Aureole Hoffman, a middle-aged woman. She gasped at Joel's words. If such a terrifying monster beast truly existed in this world, it would be horrendous.

"Could it be...could it be that the beast is from the Seven Dangers? Only Seven Dangers could have nurtured such a powerful monster beast! Other than Seven Dangers, I don't think it's possible to find such a beast in any other place!"

Griffin Langley, the Master of the Pavilion of Soaring Eagles, furrowed and speculated.

"How do I know? Anyway, that monster beast has very sharp claws! Very, very sharp, and powerful!"

Gloominess was all over Joel's face; he looked at the crowd and said, "But, don't worry about us, as the saying goes; no matter what a starved camel is still bigger than a horse. Although the Skies Pavilion has suffered a great loss, six experts from the peak stage of the true god realm, two people managed to break through to the peak of the true god realm lately! So, at worst, the status of the Skies Pavilion has dropped among the four ancient clans, but we're still a lot stronger than the first-class families!"

"Is that so? Congratulations to you for having two breakthroughs into the peak stage of the true god-level during this period!" congratulated Aureole Hoffman from Pavilion of Divinity as a small smirk graced her features. "Sigh... Our clan also had fourteen in the peak stage of the true god-level previously. Just like your clan, we recently had one who broke through into the peak stage, so we have fifteen right now!"

It was obvious Aureole flaunted the fact as if she was telling the other party that their Pavilion of Divinity had grown stronger while the Skies Pavilion had recessed instead of improved, so they would need to back off a little in the future.

Not wanting to be overshadowed, Griffen Langley chimed in, announcing the strength of their clan, "Haha... Coincidentally, our clan also has two who successfully broke through and achieved the peak stage of the true god-level, and with that, we've grown from fourteen to sixteen. It looks like our clan has more masters in the peak stage of the true god-level!"

Joel's expression grew dark before he changed the subject of the conversation, commenting, "What's the use of having so many masters in the peak stage of the true godlevel? I think the monster beasts might be in the ultimate god-level, or they wouldn't have been so strong. This means that the Seven Dangers definitely contain the secret of breaking through into the fighting prowess of the ultimate godlevel. It might be something like a spirited fruit or spirited grass!"

Quentin frowned as he theorized, "Everybody, I have a bold assumption. Does everyone think it's possible that the monster beasts came out because members from the Pavilion of Gods and Kings offended the powerful monster beasts after they entered the Seven Dangers? These monster beasts might have quite a high spiritual intelligence if they're almost, or already are, in the ultimate god-level. Is it not possible that they're out here to exact vengeance against humans?"

"There's a huge possibility of the assumption you just made. Otherwise, our six elders wouldn't have died!" Joel still felt heartbroken when he remembered his six elders; it was a big blow indeed.

The elders of the White family, Nash, felt off on the matter as their weirded-out expression showed. It seemed that Jack had been misunderstood as an extremely strong monster beast.

"Since everybody is here, let's make our arrangements for entering the Seven Dangers," suggested Quentin to the crowd after deliberating his thoughts. "If we don't take action now and members from the Pavilion of Gods and Kings break through into the ultimate god-level, we'll be struggling if they want to suppress us."

“That’s right. If several of their members had broken through into the ultimate god-level, it’ll be easy to topple us, the three other ancient clans!” fretted an elder from the Pavilion of Soaring Eagles.

Just as they had this exchange, however, an old man from the White family pointed at a direction and exclaimed, “We have a situation, everyone. Look over there! Why are the people from the Pavilion of Gods and Kings here?”

“What? The people from the Pavilion of Gods and Kings are here?” Everybody inhaled sharply at the old man’s exclamation as their expressions darkened.

“Quite a number of people are here. Could it be possible that they have returned? Have their members broken through into the ultimate god-level already? If that’s the case, would they hurt us?” A family master of a third-class aristocratic family was so frightened that his face alternated between paleness and being flushed, in fear of being killed.

“I don’t think we need to worry. It might be easy if they want to defeat each of us individually, but there are so many of us here as there are eight first-rate aristocratic families and three ancient clans. They won’t dare to act recklessly even if there are two to three members in the ultimate god-level, right? That is, of course, unless they have one to two dozen members in the ultimate god-level,” opined a man from a second-class aristocratic family, frowning as he did.

Nash and Jack exchanged glances, rather worried. They did not understand why members from the Pavilion of Gods and Kings would come to them at this moment.

The sacred lady of the Pavilion of Divinity thought about it and said to the people present, “Could it be that their members have yet to return and they, thinking we don’t know that they’ve entered the dangerous areas, pretend to come to us to enter the Seven Dangers with us?”

Chapter 1517

Nash immediately nodded. “It’s likely. After all, they have no idea we know they’ve dispatched their members there.”

Moments later, members of the Pavilion of Gods and Kings flew over and landed before them.

Aureole frowned and was the first one to question, "Master Harry, you guys are...?"

Harry's gaze swept over the crowd before he spoke with a frown on his face, "To be honest, our people have already separated into three groups and headed for three of the dangerous areas to check things out, and they've also returned."

"Haha...! We thought you wouldn't admit that, Master Harry, but here you are, admitting it straightforwardly. Lily told me she informed your company about when to gather here, and that we'd enter the Seven Dangers together. Who knew you'd jump into action so quickly? You even gave your word before this!" spoke the chuckling Joel, though dissatisfaction sizzled in his chest.

Harry once again smiled bitterly. "Our people had returned from three of the dangerous areas, but we suffered greatly as many of them in the true god-level and semi-god-level have perished. Many of those in the intermediate and final stages of the true god-level had died, as well as five of our members in the peak stage of the true god-level."

"And? Are there any leads?" Everybody immediately looked at him expectantly. It seemed to be a good thing that their people had already exited the place, after all. Was it not beneficial to gain information about the areas before they dispatched their own members? After all, the other party sacrificed so many people in exchange for these results!

"Indeed, there are," Harry's indifferent reply aroused everyone's excitement.

"Have you truly obtained ways to break through into the ultimate god-level?" Trenton gulped, and even his breathing had deepened.

Harry smiled and said, "We obtained three balls!"

“Three balls?” Everybody was baffled, not knowing what Harry meant

An elder from a second-class aristocratic family pondered about it and said, “Would consuming these three balls allow us to break through and achieve the fighting prowess of the ultimate god-level then?”

“Oh my god... One ball for each dangerous area? Does this mean there are four others who have the opportunity to break through into the ultimate godlevel?” theorized another old lady.

“Eat it?” Harry had a weird expression on his face as he took a red ball out. “It’s so big and incredibly solid. Are you guys sure we are to eat it?”

Everybody was speechless when they looked at the ball. Not only was it as large as a basketball, but it also seemed to be made of rocks and had weird designs engraved into it.

Chapter 1518

Stunned momentarily, Joel then turned to Harry as he smilingly spoke, “Master Harry, can I have a closer look at it? This is the first time I’ve seen such a thing!”

Harry, however, smiled coldly. It’s nice enough that I came here and relayed information about some things, but you want me to show it to you? Haha ... I’ve sacrificed so many of my people to get this. What if you don’t return it to me after inspecting it up close? Now that so many of the masters from our clan are dead, do you want me to fight you if you don’t return it to me?”

“Err... There’s really no need for you to worry about this. Our clan was struck with bad luck as we encountered a frightening monster beast, causing the deaths of six masters in the peak stage of the true god-level.” Harry baffled Joel. Well, there was no need to keep this hidden as other forces knew about this as well.

“Six of your people died?” Harry took a careful look at the people from the Skies Pavilion side, and it did seem like several powerful elders were missing.

Nonetheless, he denied his request smilingly, "That won't work either. We obtained this with much difficulty, and I didn't get anything out of it even after studying it the entire night yesterday. I still need to go back and study it well!"

Another Elder from the Pavilion of Gods and Kings stepped forward and addressed everyone, "Our pavilion master is here today for everybody's benefit, and we wish not to instigate any fights among the people here. If there's a way to break through into the ultimate god-level, we hope that everybody can get along in peace. It'll be best if we can break through together. We hope that all of us can share if it's a martial art technique. Of course, there's nothing we can do if it's some edible item and there's a limit in number."

"Thank you, Master of the Pavilion of Gods and Kings." Jack stepped forward and gestured to the other party with his hands. "It looks like Master Harry came here with your people to inform us of something, right?"

Harry nodded. "I'm here to tell everyone which areas we've traversed so none of you need to repeat those areas. With this, no trips will be wasted nor any deaths to occur. I won't be heading for the four other dangerous areas, but it'll be fine if you guys go into the areas. As for the secrets of these balls, you can slowly study them after you obtain them."

"Thank you, Master Harry!" Jack gestured with his hands sincerely as he looked at the old man with white hair in front of him. Of course, it was somewhat wrong of him to act without everyone else in his hurry to search for the way to break through into the ultimate god-level.

Nonetheless, it was good for everybody that he came forward and informed everybody about the news he obtained. At least, they would not sacrifice many people in vain.

Joel, however, was wary as he examined the matter before he questioned, "Master Harry, how can you be sure we'd be able to search for the way to break through into the ultimate godlevel via these three balls? What if you're mistaken? What if it's some other precious item?"

Harry smiled coldly when he heard this. "You can try it if you don't believe me. No matter what, our men came across an ominous ancient tree when they reached the deepest part of the dangerous area. This ball is placed in the middle of the ancient tree, and there's one in each area; I'm assuming it's the same for the remaining four dangerous areas. There should be a total of seven balls."

"Apart from that, we didn't see any other precious items, and we obtained all these items with our lives. Apart from this weird ball, there were other spirited grass and spirited fruits in the areas, but they have nothing to do with the ultimate god-level."

Chapter 1519

The First Elder of the Pavilion of Gods and Kings came forward at that moment and said, "I'm sure that everyone here doesn't believe in us, so you can all try it yourself. We were kind enough to inform you, but we won't stop you if you don't believe us and want more people to die in the process."

"I believe in you, masters!" Jack once again gestured with his hands and, still bent in a slight bow, asked, "I hope that Master Harry and honorable masters can tell us which three dangerous areas you went to."

"This young man is a well-mannered person indeed." The First Elder of the Pavilion of Gods and Kings nodded. "We went to the three dangerous areas nearest to the Pavilion of Gods and Kings. The other four places that we haven't visited include the Night Forest, Dragon Head Black Mountain, Bright Snow Mountain, and Black Windy Island. Help yourselves."

"Alright, we've said everything we needed to say. I hope that everyone will contact and communicate with us when you notice anything after obtaining weird balls like these. We'll be taking our leave now." Master Harry of the Pavilion of Gods and Kings kept away the stone ball in his hand before leaving with his subordinates.

After the people from the Pavilion of Gods and Kings left, everybody exchanged glances, wondering what arrangements should follow suit. As there were four unvisited dangerous areas, it was difficult to plan things out as there were so many families and three ancient clans.

Joel thought about it before he smilingly suggested, "Everybody, now that there are four dangerous areas left, it means that there are four balls left, and everyone knows the dangerous areas are filled with all sorts of dangers. How about this: To protect the safety of the aristocratic families, the members of our ancient clans shall go to one dangerous area each while all members of the families go to the remaining dangerous area. It'll obviously be much safer for you guys with this arrangement."

"That sounds perfect!" The eyes of Griffen from the Pavilion of Soaring Eagles immediately lit up as he stepped forward, grinning as he agreed, "We made such arrangements while putting your safety as a priority. Apart from that, your rate of success would be much higher when so many of you enter one dangerous area. If too many people die, we, the ancient clan, fear you might not be able to cope with the loss."

The people from the Pavilion of Divinity stood there without saying anything, but they were obviously agreeing in silence.

The people from the reclusive families glowered at their suggestion. They felt that the ancient clans were overbearing when only four balls left and wanted to take three of them. So many families were expected to take one ball? A fight for the balls would ensure in that case, what more being killed by the monster beasts.

"I don't think this is a good idea." Quentin eventually voiced his disagreement. Unable to accept such a suggestion, his expression soured as he spoke, "There are only three ancient clans, but each of you wants to take up one dangerous area, leaving over a dozen families here to kill and fight for the remaining area? Haha! That'll only lead to more bloodshed!"

"That's right! This is too much. How can you do this?" Several elders or family masters of first-class aristocratic families mustered their courage when Quentin stepped forward, and they immediately protested as well.

An old man from the Pavilion of Soaring Eagles stepped forward and smiled coldly with an arrogant temperament. "Overboard? Haha...! You people are only reclusive families! How can you compare with us, the ancient clans? We're already honoring you by giving up one dangerous area and allowing you to take one of the balls. Don't fail to appreciate our kindness!"
