

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 1671

Jack's lips grew into a soft smile. He had finally succeeded in achieving the First-grade ultimate godlevel.

The moment he broke through, however, he seemed to have been transported to a dark world. One after another, balls of light floated before him before they disappeared thousand of miles away like meteorites.

This scene lasted a mere second or two before it vanished.

A strong wave of fluctuation dispersed from Jack's body and caused the surrounding area to tremble.

Jack managed to tame the strong wave of fluctuation. Anyone else would have wondered if such a strong fluctuation even occurred if they did not feel the strength of it.

Simultaneously, Jack opened his eyes and slowly stood up, bearing a different temperament. He even gave off a fey-like, sprightly feeling to everyone.

"He succeeded! He must've succeeded! He's so fast that he's succeeded in less than four days!" Daniella almost jumped up in excitement when she saw Jack's smile.

Jack smiled indifferently. He knew that this was mainly because the martial art technique was slightly difficult. It was a complex technique to be practiced and required many veins. Otherwise, he would have succeeded earlier.

Regardless, since this martial art technique was such a complex one, this only meant that this martial art technique was a very high-leveled technique and a good one to boot.

"Honey, how are you? Father and the others are still training. It looks like they still require another day or two." Selena also walked up to him and smiled gently before she continued, "Luckily, this cave is quite secluded and no outsiders came barging in these couple of days. None of the monster beasts discovered this place, either. We can rest easy now that you've broken through!"

Jack nodded. "I've broken through... I've finally broken through into the First-grade ultimate god level. It took such a long time mainly because this new martial art technique is completely different from the previous ones and is slightly complicated. Otherwise, it wouldn't take such a long period of time!"

"You're right. The first attempt would surely take up a large chunk of time. Future training might be much better!" encouraged Selena with a smile.

Unexpectedly, a wave of horrendous fluctuation spread from another direction before it was quickly retrieved at this moment.

Jack and the others were delighted when they looked to the source of the fluctuation, noticing that it was Nash White to have broken through.

"Amazing! Father, you're also a master in the ultimate god-level now!" beamed the elated Jack.
