

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 1672

With clenched fists, Nash was over the moon when he felt the powerful feeling that had increased several times within him.

A thought flashed through his mind as a sliver of Chi immediately appeared in his palm. The Chi was extremely active and was soft gold in color. His eyes slightly reddened when he confirmed he was indeed in the First-grade ultimate god-level.

“Oh, what a feeling this is to have broken through at last. I feel like I have an extra tacit understanding with this piece of land!” Nash nodded and continued, “Something rather peculiar happened just now. The instant I broke through, I seemed to have traveled to another world. In that area, balls of light brushed past me like meteors, one after another, before they vanished in the blink of an eye! It might be a mirage produced when I broke through!”

Stunned at his confession, Jack inhaled before he commented, “Father, you... You saw that space, too? I saw the same scene when I broke through, thinking it was an illusion and that I’m the only one to see it. Who knew that you’d see the same scene!”

“How’s that possible? You... You’ve seen the same scene, too?” Nash inhaled deeply in surprise.

Nash also thought he was the only one to have seen it, and much to his surprise, Jack saw it as well, causing him to grow weary.,

After a short while, he frowned and said, “Could it be that those who entered the First-grade ultimate god level would enter that area? The place that allows souls to enter?”

“I’m not sure about that, but it might be the case. Otherwise, how could the two of us see the same scene?” Jack frowned as he turned to look at Alejandro and others who were trying to break through. He then said, “Let’s ask them later after they’ve broken through and see what their situation is like!”

After another half an hour, Alejandro also stood up with a smile, looking well-spirited and seemed to be much younger like Nash.

“Have you also broken through, Father? Amazing! You look much younger compared to how you were before!” Daniella ran toward her father and gazed at him excitedly. The ultimate god-level was something everybody dreamt of, and they tried their best to search for that stone ball to obtain clues regarding breaking through into the ultimate god-level. At long last, they finally achieved the ultimate god-level.

This meant that her father had a lifespan of 200 years. Her father was only in his forties, and so long as his luck kept him from being killed, he would have about 150 years left. With so many years left, he would be able to break through into the soul penetrating level that everyone else dreamed of.

“Haha... I’ve broken through! I’ve broken through! This ultimate god-level feels riveting, and it brings a completely different feeling. I feel like I have an increased tacit understanding with this space. I feel like my current self can defeat seven to eight of the old me!” Alejandro laughed heartily, his happiness evident in his demeanor.

He soon gestured to Nash with his hands politely and said, “Thank you, Master Nash! Thank you for your good intentions in sharing the copy of this martial art technique to our Cabello family. Otherwise, I’ll never know if I’ll ever break through into the ultimate god level!”
