Chapter 2422

Had the vice-treasurer not been there, the other students would have burst into yells and cheers in support of the one they were rooting for.

Jackie speechlessly looked to the side. The vice-treasurer took a deep breath before he said in a low voice, "Start!"

With that cue, footsteps were suddenly heard next to him, and an unknown face had started walking toward the east.

Each step he took had been very steady, but he was not like Gilbert from earlier, who walked with a sense of emptiness. He did not seem to care about the baffled looks he received.

Gilbert's mouth hung wide open. "What are you doing here?"

Jackie raised an eyebrow and calmly answered, "What about you? What are you doing here?"

He shot the words right back at Gilbert, angering Gilbert in the process. "I'm here to show this guy who's stronger and to obtain the right to enter the Middle Province Alchemist Alliance as a student!"

"snapped Gilbert. Gilbert's words were filled with a clear arrogance as if he was just born naturally better than everyone else.

Jackie nodded as he said very calmly, "I'm doing the same."

Everyone was stunned by Jackie's words, and his response even rendered the vice-treasurer frozen on the spot. Everyone looked at Jackie as if he was crazy. There were so many people present, but most of them had only seen Jackie for the first time.

After all, he never actually appeared in front of everyone else as the eleventh student. He had spent most of his time in his room or the Selena Cloud Room, and he had rarely interacted with anyone else.

Jackie just suddenly came out and suddenly stood next to Gilbert, claiming he would compete as well. He said he wanted the right to head to the Middle Province Alchemist Union, which completely puzzled everyone.

Everyone assumed Jackie had gone bonkers, that he probably did not even know what the Way of the Pill was. He was probably thinking that he could condense pill runes just because others could.

Gilbert almost laughed from how angry he was. "Are you crazy? Do you even know what we're doing?"

Jackie actually could not be bothered with Gilbert, but if he did not respond, the vice-treasurer might just kick him out and call him crazy.

That was something Jackie was not willing to let happen, so he was forced to be patient. "What does whether or not I'm crazy have to do with you? I came here to compete, not to waste time with you. Didn't you hear the vice-treasurer's words earlier?"

"Let's prove whether or not we're right through our results. I came here to do just that. I won't affect you condensing pill runes by standing here, anyway."

Jackie's words were quite reasonable, causing the vice-treasurer to not have any reason to question him. After all, Jackie was a student as well, even though the vice-treasurer seriously suspected that the kid did not even know what pill runes looked like.

However, after Jackie's explanation, he would be incredibly unfair if he did not give Jackie a chance.

Moreover, Jackie being there would not affect anything. It would just look like one more person was attempting to condense the pill runes.

Gilbert's lips twitched. He was starting to hate Jackie to the core.

Every time Jackie spoke, Gilbert felt like he could say nothing in response. This was just like last time, with Jackie practically stuffing a sock in his mouth.

Gilbert's hands started to tremble. If the vice-treasurer had not been looking at him, he would have rushed over and tried to choke Jackie.

Even though he knew he was no match for Jackie, he was far too angry. Despite his anger, however, Jackie did not even spare him a second glance.

Chapter 2423

Jackie remained unbothered by Gilbert's actions as he said, "You've wasted so much time with pointless words, and there's no point getting yourself worked up over something that won't affect you anyway. Isn't that right, Gilbert?"

Andrew burst into cackles at Jackie's words. He might think that Jackie was a nutcase, but the enemy of his enemy was still his friend. Since Jackie was at odds with Gilbert, then he would side with Jackie.

Moreover, Andrew did not think Jackie had a chance to win. That would be all too bizarre if Jackie won.

After a short silence, the students that were standing behind the vice-treasurer suddenly started to discuss among themselves.

Damien knew who Jackie was. "This guy's name is Jackie. There's got to be something wrong with his brain, I know it. He's only been a student for a short time, but he's actually trying to compete with Gilbert and Andrew. Where did he get that courage from?"

"I think he's crazy, too. I don't even think he knows what pill runes look like. Maybe he needs Andrew and Gilbert to show him? After that person said that, an uproar of laughter was suddenly heard all around. Some of them were even clutching their stomachs as they laughed at Jackie as if they had seen a complete idiot."

The calmest person present was Raphael. Raphael let out a sigh of exasperation as he looked at the gold plate in his hand. He then focused his attention on the other students that were giggling and sneering. He helplessly held the gold plate in his palm, not saying anything.

Despite their constant laughter, Jackie was not bothered by it at all. Jackie remained standing upright as he said, "Aren't we starting yet?"

Gilbert felt like Jackie's words were basically a challenge to the rest of them. Gilbert wanted to use his skills to prove that Jackie was just a complete idiot.

Hearing those words, he averted his gaze as his hands constantly moved. A red glow was on his fingertips.

The pill aura around him was absorbed wave by wave as he slowly condensed pill runes one at a time. Staring at runes that were forming in Gilbert's hands, Andrew was not going to allow himself to fall behind.

He adopted the same stance as he slowly started to form runes as well.

Jackie glanced at the two of them as he sighed in exasperation.

He had not wanted everything to advance so quickly, but he had to win this no matter what. Thinking about that, he got serious as he fixed his gaze on his fingers. He separated himself from his surroundings.

He started to wave his hands as well, but it was a golden light that suddenly appeared in his hands instead. He rapidly absorbed the surrounding pill aura, and faint golden runes started to condense in the air one by one.

Jackie's progress was incredibly natural to him, since he had already condensed them in the pill aura room numerous times. On the other hand, the others paled as if they had seen a ghost.

The vice-treasurer was especially shocked when he saw Jackie's incredibly fluent motions. After Jackie condensed a pill rune, his jaw dropped in shock, refusing to believe it was all real.

Jackie's rate of condensation was far too quick, so much so that Gilbert and Andrew could not compare at all. For every ten pill runes Jackie formed, Gilbert and Andrew could only form one.

Furthermore, from the glow and aura of the pill runes, Jackie's pill runes were far better in quality than the other two.

Damien's face stiffened as he pointed at Jackie. "What...?"

He was stunned for a long time, not able to say anything. If he had not pinched himself, he would have thought he was dreaming, that none of this was real!

The vice-treasurer was rendered just as speechless by the shock. Everyone had been submerged in a strange silence.

Not one student spoke as everyone quietly watched on.

Chapter 2424

There was no need to compete anymore. Gilbert and Andrew were no match for Jackie as well.

The most essential thing to become a sixth-grade alchemist was the final refinement of the pill and pill runes.

Only a 50-percent and above refinement would be successful. The refinement depended on the quality of one's pill runes.

The quality of Gilbert and Andrew's pill runes could not compare to Jackie's at all.

The pill runes that Jackie condensed were not just glowing with energy, but each sliver of pill aura was distributed very evenly. There was no need to even look at it in detail. Just with their eyes, it was easy to tell that Jackie's pill runes were of very high quality.

If he used them in refinement, it would absolutely reach 50 percent or above refinement. Even though the vice-treasurer was the only one there who had ever learned the Way of the Pill, it was still something visible to the naked eye.

Everyone was speechless at that moment.

The vice-treasurer stared at the scene with widened eyes. His lips constantly twitched, not daring to believe that what he was seeing was real.

Jackie's hands constantly moved, and he controlled every sliver of pill aura perfectly. Those movements were not something any regular student could do.

Even the eldest student among them would not be able to compare to Jackie. If the vice-treasurer did not know of Jackie, he would have thought that a true sixth-grade alchemist was standing in front of him.

Only sixth-grade alchemists were able to control pill aura with such familiarity and condense pill runes with such ease.

"Is he really a student?" said the vice treasurer after being silent for a long time Raphael could no longer stand by the side silently. He nodded. "He is. He's the youngest among us, the eleventh student."

After he said that, Raphael took out the gold plate that Jackie had obtained. He showed everyone the gold plate in his palm.

"This is the gold plate that Jackie had gotten."

There was no one around that did not know the rules of the pill aura room. As long as anyone could condense 200 pill runes in the room, they would get a gold plate as a reward. The gold plate could be used in exchange for three portions of materials for sixth-grade pills.

The vice-treasurer did not know what to say at that point. His lips twitched. "No wonder you barely had a reaction earlier. You already knew everything.."

After that, the vice-treasurer frowned as he looked at Jackie, saying with some suspicion, "If he's new, he hasn't learned the Way of the Vermillion Fire Pill yet. What sort of Way of the Pill did he learn? After that, the vice-treasurer turned around to face that short student from earlier. "

"Go and look into who Jackie is. I want every single detail of what happened since he stepped into Heavenly Pills. want every single detail of what happened since he stepped into Heavenly Pills. Leave no detail out in your findings!"

The vice-treasurer's tone was incredibly serious. The ninth student nodded earnestly after hearing that. Even though the ninth student was a bit naive, he was no idiot. He heard how serious the vice-treasurer was.

He would no doubt properly perform his task and leave a good impression with the vice-treasurer. It might gain him bigger benefits in the future.

The three of them who were condensing the pill runes did not even notice the ninth student leaving. They were lost in their own world.
