Chapter 3547

The Flaming Rhino let out another roar as it unleashed its natural-born technique. A massive ball of fire was spat out from its mouth, and the two attacks clashed in the air.

They had thought that it would unleash a massive explosion, but strangely enough, the moment the flames touched the Soul

Burst Ring, the attack seemed to lose its effectiveness.

It was quickly neutralized by the Soul Burst Ring, and before anyone could react, the Soul Burst Ring had already disappeared.

The next second, the Soul Burst Ring shot right at the Flaming Rhino. The rhino had already reacted. It was no match for Jack at all. Its attack had actually been so insignificant to Jack. It did not even think as it turned around to run, practically using all its strength.

It knew that it would be dead if it was not able to flee. However, it underestimated the ring's speed.

The Flaming Rhino had just turned around when the Soul Burst Ring already reached its body. Suddenly, the Soul Burst Ring expanded, completely surrounding the rhino. After that, an explosion was heard by everyone.

It was as if a hundred bombs had been thrown at the rhino. The intense explosions caused the Flaming Rhino to fall. Its thick skin had been burnt to a crisp, and it had stopped breathing.

Jack took a deep breath, looking at his own hands. That power was completely expected. After all, it was a storm god-rank technique. The power the second stage could unleash was far higher than the first stage.

The other three were all stunned, especially the white-robed man. His mouth was completely opened wide.

The three of them had failed to deal with the beast, but Jack had dealt with it all by himself so effortlessly. It was as if it had been no trouble at all. The white-robed man's lips shook as his heart filled up with fear.

Jack had not been bragging. Jack really had the skills. He was in danger!

At that moment, the white robed man did not even dare to look at Jack.

Looking at the corpse of the Flaming Rhino, the white-robed man felt a chill in his heart. He started to panic as he retreated. At that moment, various thoughts started to surface in his mind.

If he did not run at that moment, he would probably never have had the chance to run again.

He completely discarded all his pride and arrogance. All he wanted to do was to survive at that moment.

The black-masked man was doing no better. He looked at everything with a dumbfounded expression.

If Jack was in a second-grade world, he would be one of the top warriors as well. He had actually gotten involved with someone like that. Even if he had not spoken as harshly as the white robed man, warriors from third-grade worlds and warriors from second-grade worlds were mortal enemies!

The black-masked man took a step back. He no longer cared about the spirited core. He just wanted to live.

Jack had a smirk on his face.

The black-masked man and the white robed man exchanged a look. Two of them turned around at the same time as they fled in opposite directions!

The bald man finally snapped out of his shock, clenching his teeth as he chased after the white-robed man!

Jack smiled and formed some seals again. A hundred Soul Swords condensed into one, aiming at the white-robed man's back as it shot rapidly forward!

He had added the laws of space to the Soul Sword as well, so its speed doubled!

The white-robed man was frantically fleeing. Even though he did not turn back, he could still feel the killing intent.

He knew the bald man would not let him go!
