

No 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 3581

Some had left the center of the battle after being injured, and there were those waiting at the sidelines for an opportunity to kill people and steal the keys once the battle was over.

A few had that plan in mind, but the beasts did not think that way.

Many people were gathered at the sides, most of them already injured. In the eyes of the beasts, they were blood beads that they could harvest!

The golden python and two other beasts rushed over, catching Calruz and Toren off guard as their eyes widened, and their hearts nearly leaped out of their chests. The two of them never expected danger to come so quickly!

If Olesm had not been so badly injured, they might have been able to deal with it. At worst, they could have fled as they fought back. However, Olesm was injured, unable to even stand up straight, let alone help.

The two of them would need to avoid the attacks while they protected Olesm. This was the moment they believed their end had come.

Toren cursed at Calruz internally. The man's greed for the keys, resulting in his unwillingness to leave, landed them in the worst predicament possible!

The three powerful beasts charged at the three of them. The two of them who were still able to fight were already injured. The chances of them getting away was only 50 percent!

It was not the time to think about it.

Toren took a deep breath and suddenly turned to look at Jack, and said, "Hey, can you help us fight these beasts? We won't trick you, don't worry!"

Even though they could not tell how strong Jack was, there was no other option for them.

Working with that person might give them a chance to survive.

Surprisingly, Jack raised an eyebrow and said very casually, “Can’t the two of you stand aside? Don’t waste my time.”

Calruz and Toren were both stunned by his words. They wondered if they had misheard it. Jack asked them to give way so they did not waste his time?

What were they wasting?

Was he going to face those three beasts alone?

Was he crazy?

Was he daft?!

Calruz’s lips twitched as he shouted, “Are you crazy? You’re trying to fight three of them alone?!”

Jack frowned, not caring about the two of them as he pushed Calruz away from his path.

Calruz’s mind went blank. He never expected that Jack would push him aside. This man truly was planning on fighting the three beasts alone!

One person against three beasts!

No one knew where Jack had come from, but he was way too arrogant.

Did he even know how strong the golden python was?

Even if Calruz and Toren fought one golden python at the same time, no one could be sure who would win!

At this point, Jack had started to form seals. The seals quickly fused in the air, forming two rings the size of palms. The Soul Burst Rings were completely gray, and there were small red runes on them that shone brightly.

He looked up at the golden python 10 meters away from him.

He smirked as he pushed forward. The Soul Burst Ring quickly shot out.

The python opened its mouth and expelled a golden beam.
