

No 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 3582

• • •

The two other beasts unleashed their attacks as well.

After a moment, all the attacks clashed in the air, causing a massive explosion that formed a crater on the ground. Dust flew all around them, obscuring most of their vision.

However, they could still hear cries of agony, and before too long, silence fell.

Slowly, the dust began to settle. They could once again see what was in front of them.

Calruz was stunned, still rooted where he stood after being pushed by Jack.

His eyes were fixed forward as he looked at the golden python's mangled corpse. Then, he looked at the corpses of the two beasts behind that were not whole either.

His eyes widened as his lips twitched. His heart was thumping wildly, and he even forgot to breathe. His hands trembled slightly as he looked at Jack again.

How was the other party so skilled?!

There was a massive gulf between them, especially skill-wise. He was like an ant on the ground, while Jack was like a golden phoenix in the skies.

Calruz broke out in cold sweat, quickly forgetting the words he wanted to say.

Someone as strong as that never bothered with the weaker ones' survival. The moment they were provoked, they might attack right away! Toren was quite scared as well, but he was thankful.

If Jack was not there, he and Calruz would have been dead!

Toren saluted Jack. "Thank you for saving us!" Jack raised an eyebrow, merely glancing at Toren. He did not say anything and merely rushed forward.

Jack immediately took the keys without any delay. Coupled with the 99 keys he had, his keys totaled to 131 golden keys. The rewards for turning in those keys would be a big surprise for him.

To avoid any unnecessary trouble, Jack only had eight keys with him at that moment. On top of the thirty-three keys that he had just gotten, there were a total of forty golden rings on him physically at that moment.

Calruz looked at him with a face full of admiration. However, he could only admire it. When faced with someone so strong, he did not even dare have any greedy ideas.

Jack took a deep breath as he looked around. There were a few warriors around them who noticed what happened, but there were not that many, so it did not make too much of a commotion.

Jack relaxed at that. He turned around and looked at Calruz.

Calruz immediately straightened his back, stiffening as his eyes shook slightly. If the person in front of him took offense to his mannerisms, there was a chance that he would die.

At that moment, Calruz could only pray to himself.

When Jack was next to him, he first gave Calruz a once-over before looking at Toren next to him and Olesm on the ground.

Other than Olesm, the other two only suffered minor injuries.

Jack said in a serious voice, “I’ll give you a choice, work with me, and I’ll guarantee your safety. After that, I’ll give the two of you five golden keys each. Of course, you can choose to not work with me too.”

• • •