Chapter 3604

“Who knows what he’s thinking? We’ve seen what happened anyway, and they’re not going to let him off the hook. He’s going to suffer now. None of the warriors from the Swelling Tide Continent are going to let him off! They won’t rest until they torture this guy to death!”

“He knew what’ll happen but still insisted on facing them head-on. What do you think he’s thinking?”

“Whatever, let’s stop guessing. Unless we’re him, no one will know what he’s thinking. We don’t need to know either. After all, he’s probably just a madman.”

Case walked down the stone, and Octavius went up right after that. The results came out very quickly as well. He managed to get his entrance pass in just a few moments. Everyone looked at them with looks of admiration, lamenting that the strong would always remain at the top of the pyramid.

When they went through the tests, only one out of a hundred was lucky enough to pass, but those two managed to get it in just one try.

Prodigies would always be prodigies, no doubt. Jimmy took a deep breath, suddenly feeling like the weight on his shoulders was heavy. His two elder disciples had gotten the entrance passes. If he could not reach 60% compatibility, it would be so embarrassing. After Octavius got off the stone proudly, Jimmy walked up the stone. He started to summon all the energy in his body.

After a few moments, the crystals that lit up gave an obvious result.

Jimmy's lips stiffened. He had failed!

Only five crystals had lit up, but a failure was a failure. He had not gotten 60%. Compared to his elder disciples, he was still a level lower!

Jimmy's face reddened, feeling like he had never been so embarrassed before.

Case frowned. He could see Jimmy's awkward expression and stiff body, and it was obvious what Jimmy was thinking. He did not think much about it.

He raised his voice and said, "Come down! There's nothing embarrassing about it. You're just one crystal away. There are some who got two crystals and are still so confident." Jimmy looked at Case and said miserably, "I'm not crazy..."

No matter how difficult it was, he still had to accept it.

Jimmy walked off the stone with a depressed aura.

When he returned to Case's side, Case glared at Jimmy. "What's there to be so depressed about?!"

Case looked like he suddenly thought about something.

He smirked as he said, "I won't waste my time on that brat. Since you can't go into Cloud Valley, go look at that guy's results.

Isn't he about to enter the Killing Illusion Array? You can go see how he does..."

No matter how angry he was, he needed to get his priorities straight. He came back to form his world avatar in Cloud Valley to improve his skills, not to fight with a brainless twat.

He needed to enter Cloud Valley before anything else. Thus, he decided to have Jimmy keep an eye on Jack. They could not let that guy escape!

Jimmy naturally understood what Case meant and nodded, "Alright, don't worry, Case."

Case let out a cold smile before he turned around to look at Jack, saying mockingly, "Brat, you were so confident before this.

Make sure you don't regret anything. Jimmy here happens to be free. He'll see if you can get the entrance pass from the Killing Illusion Array."

Jack's only response was a cold nod.

Case stiffened. Every time he spoke to Jack, it was like speaking to a wall. Jack did not react at all, and the one who ended up frustrated was himself.
