Chapter 3615

The illusory stone had been activated, and everyone surrounded Jimmy, watching the crystals on the stones.

At that moment, not a single one of the crystals lit up, but everyone knew that all of them would eventually.

The large-mouthed man said in admiration, “Which stage do you think he’ll challenge first? Even though none of the stages will be that difficult for him, we can use this as a reference. After all, it’s still not an easy challenge, and he needed to bet on time too.”

As he said that, he started to laugh. The others around him laughed as well. After all, those warriors that knew of the whole situation just felt like Jack was acting in an absolutely absurd manner.

Someone there said, “Hey, everyone, stop laughing. If this guy wins, I’ll write my name backward from now on. Jimmy probably doesn't really care too much either. As long as he doesn't run, let's leave him be. We should be looking at how Jimmy's challenging everything."

All of them nodded, feeling like that person was right.

Jimmy might be very angry, but he probably did not see Jack as a challenge at all. After all, the guy was just acting like a complete clown.

No one believed a single word that guy was saying.

Jack did not care about what everyone else was saying at all, but Rudy whispered unhappily, "These idiots have no eyes. You'll completely shock them later!"

Jack smiled, "Ignore them, you don't have to care about how they are."

Rudy nodded, not continuing. However, he still looked unhappy.

After about five minutes, the fourth crystal on the illusory stone lit up.

Everyone widened their eyes, mumbling, "So he chose the fourth stage first! The fourth stage isn't easy. He passed it so quickly!"

“That’s right! Three illusions with upper earth rank techniques and one illusion with a lower ultimate god rank technique. Many people have been stuck there. I can’t believe he put that stage first. It’s obvious how confident he is. He didn’t even waste that much time.”

Everyone looked at the illusory stone. eagerly, even forgetting about Jack. He was able to peacefully sit there.

After another five minutes, the third crystal lit up.

Everyone was surprised. Many of them put the third stage in front because the third stage had the most numbers even if it was not the strongest.

If the third stage was toward the back, they could easily waste a lot of time. It was better to have it in front so they could use the fastest time possible to get past it!

After another five minutes, the second crystal lit up. At that moment, a lot of them held their breaths. The hardest stages were the first three. Jimmy had already passed two of them. As long as he maintained his condition, it would not be hard for him to pass everything, nor would it take that long. At that moment, quite a few people had looks of admiration and jealousy on their faces. They were regular warriors who found it incredibly hard to pass the challenges, but it did not seem difficult to Jimmy at all. Jimmy was just that much stronger than them. They were nothing compared to Jimmy. Even touching Jimmy's feet was a bit of a stretch. They lamented the gulf in talent.
