That large-mouthed man had practically shouted that out. He looked like he was worried that they would talk about Jack too much.

After all, he had insulted Jack too much earlier. He did not want to admit that he was wrong, so he frantically talked down to Jack.

He tried to find every excuse possible to show that Jack had managed to pass so quickly because Jack had not held back at all and that Jack would not be able to pass the later stages so easily. Jack would definitely fail! With how frantically he was explaining things, quite a few of them agreed with him, feeling like he was right. After all, Jack never did anything normal.

Right at that moment, the crystal representing the fifth stage lit up!

The discussions stopped instantly.

Everyone widened their eyes as they looked at the second crystal that lit up, unable to say anything.

When the first crystal lit up so quickly, they could still use all sorts of reasons to convince themselves, but when the second one did just as quickly, they found themselves unable to say anything.

The reality was more convincing than anything else. Jack's speed rendered them speechless. Even if he passed the sixth and fifth stages, the shocking speed meant that his skills were not ordinary.

Rudy scoffed as he looked at the large-mouthed man, "Why aren't you saying anything now?! Didn't you love to harp on just now? You loved to mock him and constantly pile on. Why aren't you saying anything else right now? Have you realized that all those excuses you made are no longer convincing?"

The large-mouthed man stiffened. His expression was a bit sour. He opened his mouth, wanting to say something, but he was unable to give any explanation.

Jimmy frowned and raised his voice, “Don’t be so pleased just yet. This is just the start. He’s only passed the fifth and sixth stages. The truly difficult stages are still to go. The fifth and sixth stages are easy. Most of the warriors here can pass it. He’s just a bit quicker than normal, there’s nothing to be proud of!”

Rudy raised an eyebrow, not getting angered by those words. Instead, he looked very calm and confident. Jimmy scoffed, continuing with disdain, “It’s just a small accomplishment, and you already look like you’re beside yourself. Trash really loves to show off!”

The moment he said that, the fourth crystal lit up as well. Jimmy’s disdainful look suddenly vanished. Everyone started to whisper in a discussion.

When it was the sixth and fifth stages, all of them could use the difficulty to make excuses. However, they no longer had any excuses. The fourth stage was not that easy anymore. Quite a few people lost to that stage.

Jack had lit that crystal up so quickly. It meant that he was definitely stronger than most of the warriors there.

Even Jimmy found it hard to say anything. His stiff expression slowly relaxed, but he started to have a serious look on his face.

He never expected that brat to actually be somewhat skilled.

It might just be the fourth stage, but it was still so quick. Even Jimmy could not say that he would be able to pass the fourth stage so quickly. Jimmy gulped, finally realizing the severity of the matter.

His attitude did not last for that long when the third crystal lit up. At that moment, everyone started to even breathe slower from the shock.

A thought flashed in their mind. Everyone wondered if Jack had actually not bragging at all.
