

No 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 3686

“Please don’t mind my crude mouth, but I feel like I have to say something. Our little team has some special circumstances. If you make it too difficult, the two of us would just be complete burdens. We would be completely useless.”

That problem could not be ignored as Marth frowned and sighed. Even though he was not willing to be called trash, he really was basically trash in this situation. He would not be able to help at all, and would only drag Diana down.

If Diana ignored them, it was very possible they would end up failing. So, when he chose the difficulty, Diana would have to think about that.

Diana nodded, and he furrowed his eyebrows even more tightly. If he would need to face the challenge for all three of them alone, he would easily be able to deal with a black-iron-level challenge.

However, if it was too difficult, then it might not necessarily work out. He did not know how much more difficult the gold difficulty would be. That was the uncertain point. If anything unexpected happened, he might stand to lose everything.

Hence, Diana needed to choose carefully.

Just thinking about that, he sighed. If it was just for treasure, Diana might have chosen the bronze difficulty since it was the safest choice. After all, the two of them would only drag him down.

However, the gold difficulty would not just reward him with treasures, but a special badge. The voice had not specified what kind of badge it was.

He did not know what the badge could be used for in Violet City, but since it was a reward for the gold difficulty, it would definitely not be something simple. It might prove to be incredibly important in the future. It was because of that, Diana was deeply conflicted.

Marth said helplessly, “Bokir, it’s not that I’m trying to decide for you, but I feel like your best choice is bronze. After all, the two of us will be useless. You don’t know how hard the gold difficulty will be. If it’s too hard for you, then wouldn’t we lose everything?”

Diana took another deep breath as his expression soured.

He glanced at Marth and nodded, signaling that he heard what was said. However, he had still not made a decision yet. Even if Diana did not say anything at that moment, the two of them could feel that Diana was deeply conflicted.

After around fifteen minutes, Diana finally said, “I will choose the gold difficulty!”

The moment he said that, two of them were stunned.

Lourain could not resist saying, “No! We can’t even take the black-iron difficulty, let alone gold...”

Marth was starting to sweat anxiously. Even his voice turned hoarse, “Bokir, you’re being impulsive. The two of us will definitely drag you down. This difficulty might be nothing to you, but the two of us won’t be able to help you at all. You still had time to think about us for the black-iron difficulty. If it’s the gold difficulty, you’d probably end up with both of us being corpses...”

The metal killing array was still fresh on their minds. That array had been nothing to Bokir, but to them, it was something completely different.

If the two of them had not run fast enough, Lourain would not have survived with just a wound on his back. Even though Lourain still felt his back burning, he had already taken a recovery pill earlier.

The golden swords were not something the two of them could handle!

However, it was already too late.

Diana already made his choice. There was no way they could take it back anymore.

At that moment, a green breeze started to flow around them.
