

No 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 3693

The water vapor slowly gathered. In front of the three of them, three incredibly smooth mirrors appeared.

The mirror reflected their looks, which surprised Yolanda and Mandra even more. They stood there and watched their reflections with stunned expressions, feeling like they looked incredibly strange in the mirror.

Mandra could not take it anymore, “What’s happening? Why is it one way one moment, and another way the next!”

If it was just a pure attack, it would cause them to be fearful, but it would not torture them mentally. After all, they were not the main characters. Diana was the main target of the array, and they just happened to be there.

However, the constant changes felt a bit unbearable. It was as if they had walked into an incredibly scary world where the two of them had lost all of their skills. It did not feel good at all. It was complete torture.

“Holy crap!” Yolanda suddenly cried out. Mandra looked over and saw that Yolanda’s expression was quite twisted.

His eyes were completely wide as if his eyeballs were going to pop out of their sockets.

Mandra’s expression stiffened, “What are you doing?! What are you shouting at?! Are you just trying to scare me?”

He was actually incredibly terrified at the moment, but he still stubbornly tried to act otherwise.

Yolanda took a deep breath. He felt like he was in an incredibly bad state.

At that moment, even Diana saw it as well. Yolanda’s lips were trembling, even his eyes were as he said, “Mandra, look at those mirrors. I think there’s something wrong with them.”

Mandra was starting to feel anxious, “What’s the problem?! Can you please be clearer? Stop making me panic!”

Yolanda ignored Mandra as he said to Mandra, “My reflection in the mirror suddenly smiled at me just now. It really did! I’m sure I’m not mistaken. There’s definitely something wrong with the mirror. Just look!”

As he said that, Yolanda’s voice trembled. After all, that scene he had just witnessed just now was just too terrifying. It was like a nightmare!

The moment he said that, Diana did not really react.

However, Mandra’s face paled completely, “Stop joking around, it’s not funny at all!”

The moment he said that, he suddenly noticed that his reflection in the mirror moved by itself. It narrowed its eyes at him as if it was observing Mandra in reality.

It was just too terrifying for Mandra!

It was not just Mandra’s reflection that was moving, even Diana’s was starting to at that point. Diana’s reflection cracked its neck as if it was getting ready. Under Diana’s cold gaze, the reflection suddenly walked out of the mirror.

The reflection in the mirror did not just look exactly like Mandra, it was dressed exactly the same way too. Even the gray sword in Diana’s hand had been completely replicated!

“W-what exactly is going on?!” Mandra felt like he was going to go crazy.

That reflection of him walked out of the mirror with a strange smile. It was looking at him with mockery as if the reflection was there to replace him.

He took a deep breath, feeling completely off at that moment.
