

No 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 3703

Nana furrowed his eyebrows and looked at Lydia coldly.

At that moment, Lydia's face was red, and even his expression looked twisted. It was as if Leonardo's words ignited a raging fire within him, cursing him to lose control of his emotions.

Leonardo snapped after hearing Lydia's words.

He immediately shouted in his defense, "Mandra, I'm telling you, I've never been afraid of you! I admit that you're stronger than me, but don't think you can kill me just because of that. I know people stronger than you, and they'll protect me when needed."

"You don't dare to kill me in here, and you can't kill me when we get out thanks to the rules either. You're just wearing a mask because you're afraid that your identity will be exposed. If you don't let me go, I'll spread the word. Even if I die, I'll make sure you won't have a good time!"

Leonardo's eyes reddened completely.

At that moment, he had lost himself as well. He did not even care if he lived or died anymore, as long as he made sure to voice out his frustrations.

Nana frowned as he summoned the true energy in his body. He clutched his gray sword tightly, and it started to buzz.

Leonardo's words crossed his line, completely angering him. There was no point in leaving that guy alive. Only by killing that guy would things be solved!

Lydia seemed just as demented as he shouted, "I knew you were a greedy wolf! Dogs like you can't ever be left unminded. Mandra, you must kill him now!"

Nana narrowed his eyes slightly as he raised the gray sword in his hand.

At that moment, Nana really did have the urge to kill. Leonardo could not stop himself from taking a step back, but he was already out of control. After taking a step back, he stopped.

He roared, "I know you won't kill me! You need all three of us to pass the Seven Deaths Array. If you kill me, you'll fail. You won't be able to enter Violet City anymore!"

"So what?!" sneered Lydia. "We'll kill you first and see what happens. Who do you think you are to look down on us warriors from third-grade worlds?! We have plenty of strong warriors, and any one of them can kill you easily!"

"No." Just as he was about to attack, Nana suddenly spoke up.

He immediately felt like something was wrong.

He looked down at the sword in his hand. At that moment, the aura in his sword was circulating wildly. He did have the intention to kill just now and was even going to ignore any consequences. Yet, that thought seemed incredibly odd.

Since when was he someone like that?

Who was Leonardo?

No matter how arrogant Leonardo was, he would not attack the Seven Deaths Array. His goal was to enter Violet City and open the Vibrant Hall to strengthen himself.

He was not there to do as he pleased and lose his temper like that. He was not a child.

Why was he ignoring the consequences of his actions so easily?

Not only were his actions weird, but Leonardo and Lydia were acting strange as well.

Lydia did not hear Nana at all. He only had one thought in mind at that moment, which was to kill Leonardo. Only then would his anger be quelled. However, he saw Nana suddenly go quiet and frowning as if hesitating.
