

No 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 3724

Everyone around the area was suddenly stunned. They turned around to see that it was Rowan who had been speaking.

He was looking down coldly at all of them, and the surroundings suddenly went quiet. Even their breathing became much softer.

What was the meaning of that?

He was asking them to stand up with such a bad attitude?

Most of the people who were sitting around the area were shocked. They were very unhappy about it, but Rowan felt like his dignity was being challenged when he saw that no one stood up.

He scoffed before he said, “Do all of you not know your place? Let me say it again, from you here to you over there. Yes, I’m talking about you! All of you stand up. Don’t you think it’s a pity that you’re sitting in such good seats? This spot should be reserved for us!”

Everyone finally understood what he was talking about. Furthermore, the furthest person Rowan pointed to was Rebbeca, while the one at the start was a black-robed man. It meant that Rose was included among the people that were asked to stand up.

Those seatings really were the best as they had a view of the entire place.

Josef had just remarked that they were really lucky to get these seats. They had happened to stumble upon the warriors who were impatient and left the Capture Hall. Yet, before they even managed to warm up their seats, they were being chased away.

Josef clenched his teeth and looked incredibly unhappy, but he would submit in the end. After all, he would end up offending those people if he did not. Someone like Josef would not be able to afford to do that. Of course, there were exceptions as well.

The man in the end with the black robes was clearly not happy about the situation.

He frowned and looked at Rowan before saying, “Why?! We waited so long for these spots. If you want a place, then just stand by the side. Why are you trying to steal our spot?”

In truth, his words were quite reasonable, but Rowan did not think so at all. Rowan raised an eyebrow as he looked at the man coldly.

“You’re asking us to wait by the side? How dare you say something like that? It looks like we haven’t left a deep enough impression on you. Do you know what kind of consequences await those who offend us?”

“You haven’t offended just anyone either, you’ve offended Percy and Randall! Brat, you better remember what you said just now. You’ll feel what it means to truly suffer after this. There will only be two results waiting for you.”

“One, you’ll die here very cruelly, and your Heartblood will be claimed by us. The second will be you running out of Violet City like a dog. You won’t just fail to remain in Violet City, you won’t even find anywhere to stay within the level three, four, or five cities. You’ll have to get lost to a level seven city!”

The black-robed man’s expression stiffened, “You’re just crossing the line! How many times have you acted in such a tyrannical manner? No matter where you are, there are rules in place. The others might be afraid of you, but I’m not! Come to me if you can! We’ll see if you die or I do.”
