

No 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 3764

As long as they joined the battles based on his arrangements, they would be able to profit a lot, winning enough Life Points to get the treasures.

However, he had a change of mind at that moment, since Sonya was acting far out of his expectations. He felt like Sonya might have a trump card, so having the two of them participate together would make it easier for them to deal with anything that could happen.

With that in mind, Abraham turned to look at Rowan.

Rowan looked like he was about to explode at that moment. His mind was full of thoughts about signing up. He wanted nothing more than to rip Sonya apart personally.

He suddenly felt Abraham's gaze.

Rowan immediately turned to look at Abraham, "Abraham, you..."

Before he could finish, Abraham nodded calmly, agreeing just like that.

Rowan was stunned for a moment, unable to react to that. He thought that he would have had to try to argue for a long time to convince Abraham, but Abraham had actually agreed before he even formed a complete sentence.

Anita looked up at Abraham curiously.

Why had he suddenly changed his mind?

Abraham did not say anything else, and merely shot a look at the two of them, hurrying them to sign up.

Rowan nodded anxiously with an excited look on his face. He was even starting to clench his fists in anticipation. Being able to teach that guy a lesson himself was one of the best things that had happened to him in recent times.

Hamish, who had tried to cause Sonya trouble before, stood up as well.

He held his head high as he said proudly, "I'll be the fourth to sign up! None of you are to take my place! I have a grudge against him, and I'll handle it myself!"

As he said that, he started to walk forward to sign himself up.

Hamish had a cold look on his face, looking like someone owed him a lot of money. He even deliberately turned around to look at Sonya coldly as if the other party had killed his whole family in one night.

Sonya raised an eyebrow and looked back at him before turning away.

Hamish scoffed at Sonya before he quickly went to sign up.

At that moment, Anita and Rowan were right in front of him.

As opposed to how everyone had been frantically trying to sign up earlier, this time was much calmer!

Anita and Rowan were both extraordinary warriors. Rowan was a bit weaker but was still stronger than any ordinary warrior. With the two of them there, anyone else would have a drastically lower chance to contribute anything significant.

The Life Points that anyone would get were probably only one, or even zero, so everyone just wanted to sit back and watch. No one tried to sign up at all, and Hamish was the first one.

When Rowan heard the footsteps, he turned to look at Hamish.

Hamish immediately put on a smile as he said like a dog wagging his tail, "Hello, Rowan! I have a grudge against that guy too! If I don't teach him a lesson myself, I won't be able to quell my anger!"

As he said that, his tone was full of animosity. It was as if he was on the same side as the warriors from Star Continent.

Hearing this, Rowan raised an eyebrow and stared at him.

Even though Rowan tried to hold it back as much as possible, there was still a hint of disdain in his eyes, "What's your name? Which world are you from?"
