

No 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 3766

Everyone was speechless at that.

Who did that guy think he was?

Did he think that everyone should admire him just because he found someone stronger to submit to him?

With so many mocking looks being cast at him, Hamish naturally realized what happened.

He raised an eyebrow as he looked at everyone who was looking at him mockingly.

He raised his voice quite a bit, "I'm just trying to teach that guy a lesson! Why are you looking at me like this? Is there anything wrong with wanting to teach him a lesson and making him pay the price? Do you think I've done anything wrong? The warriors from Star Continent as well?"

He was deliberately changing the subject, and everyone suddenly felt like they did not know what to say.

This guy was trying to pull the anger toward them. They were clearly looking down on him, but he was trying to frame it as if they felt like the masked man was faultless instead.

Quite a few people started to shout back at him, "Stop trying to twist the truth! We're just looking down on someone who's acting like a dog! It had nothing to do with teaching anyone a lesson!"

Hamish was no idiot, he knew that they were talking about him. His anger started to rise.

He shouted out loudly, "What dog are you talking about? I was just trying to greet them out of respect! You're calling me a dog because I said a few things? Are you saying anyone polite to Rowan is a dog?"

The moment that was said, Rowan's expression immediately soured.

Of course, he knew that this was not what they meant, and they were just trying to curse at Hamish. But, since Hamish was trying to twist the truth, it was not like he could try to say anything against it. Otherwise, it would look like he was feeling guilty.

However, with how harsh those words were, who would ever speak politely in the future?

Would everyone polite to him not be seen as dogs?!

This guy might not be anything impressive, but his ability to twist the truth was top-notch!

The moment he said that, the person who had mocked Hamish earlier had a sour look on his face.

He clenched his teeth and said, "Stop trying to frame me like that! I didn't mean it that way!"

Rowan could no longer hold on after that, "Everyone, shut up! If you say anything else, all of you will be on the kill list of Star Continent!"

The moment that was said, no one dared to utter another word.

Hamish looked at all of them with a pleased look on his face, feeling like he was incredibly impressive at that moment. It was as if he had gotten rich overnight. He looked down on everyone and treated them as poor farmers. He returned to his seat with a pleased and proud expression.

The warriors there who saw his expression were furious, but they did not dare to say anything about it. No one knew if what they said would end up being countered and lead them to trouble.

If Rowan ended up hating them, then they would definitely suffer in the future.

Viola was rendered speechless by the scene.

Sure enough, there were all sorts of people in the world.

After Viola had signed up, he had merely endured a few words before everyone went silent. They probably felt like it was not worth their time to say anything about him. In the end, Viola had already signed up.

It meant that his fate was already sealed. They just had to wait for him to end up as minced meat in the face of true skill. He would finally realize what true skill meant, and Viola would pay a painful price, so there was nothing left to say.
