

No 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 3774

“Gods! There’s such a huge gap between the two of them! This guy does have some skill! It looks like we’ve underestimated him! I thought that the guy was just completely crazy, but he’s actually quite strong!”

Josef looked shocked at the sight.

Sure enough, Yolanda was no regular warrior. From the skills he showed, he should definitely be among the stronger warriors around!

Nymm frowned for a long time, unable to say anything. He never expected Yolanda to win so thoroughly!

Hamish had been no match for Yolanda at all. Yolanda had won with just one attack!

Even though Nymm could do that himself, he never expected Yolanda to be that strong. After all, Yolanda acted like he was just off in the head the whole time, challenging the dignity of the warriors of Star Continent repeatedly. He spent his fortunes as he earned them with no effort, tossing away 200 million spirit crystals like nothing!

Everything added up to show that there was something wrong with that guy’s head. He had thought that Yolanda’s skills should be nothing of note at all.

After all, how could a crazy person be strong?

Nymm gulped as he turned to look at Josef, saying hoarsely, “Josef, thank god we had this piece of trash test the guy’s strength out, or we’d really be at a disadvantage!”

Even though Nymm had thought that Josef’s plan sounded reasonable just now, he had not thought anything about it. After all, in his eyes, Nymm thought that Yolanda was just completely crazy. It was obvious after what they saw that he had thought about it too simply.

Nymm frowned and said anxiously, “What do we do next, Josef?”

He was starting to get worried about the situation. Even though he felt like Geena should be skilled enough to get rid of that man without a problem, the situation was still too complicated.

No one could say what would happen after they killed the beast.

No one knew what condition Geena and Rowan would be in.

It was possible that they would have spent all their true energy, and would not have the strength to deal with that guy. If that happened, then everything would be out of their control. The masked man would just end up getting away scot-free!

He might even get enough Life Points for a treasure. That would truly be a huge loss.

Thinking about that, Nymm clenched his teeth tightly, but there was nothing he could do. After all, the moment the barrier went up, no one would be able to get in or out until the battle was over. All he could do was look on at that moment.

Josef took a deep breath, feeling a bit conflicted at that moment.

Various thoughts were running in his head.

Suddenly, he found himself struggling to make up his mind. After a brief quiet among the spectators, they suddenly started to shout and cheer again.

“This guy is actually that skilled! I thought he was just a crazy braggart!”

“You were thinking about it too simply. That guy casually took out twenty pieces of purple gold just like that. There’s no way he’s a regular warrior. If he really was not skilled at all, he would probably not have acted so arrogantly. I’m beginning to wonder who he is.”
