

No 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 3775

“There’s nothing to think about. It’s not like we don’t know who all the warriors at the top are. Not a single one of them sounds like this guy! He’s probably not one of them.”

“What he’s shown us is not too strong either! He’s probably only above average, and not even at the top of the warriors that are above average! Can all of you stop exaggerating his skills?!”

The spectators were in a complete mess, but the stage was relatively quiet. Other than Hamish’s cry of agony, the others were strangely quiet.

Rowan’s mouth was slightly widened as he glared right at Edgar.

Nana frowned as he glared at Cindy as well. At that moment, the two of them were in a complicated mood.

They suddenly realized how bad the situation was, especially Nana.

Earlier, they had agreed that Nana and Rowan would only attack in the end, and they would only have ten seconds.

It was more than enough to deal with any random trash, but that masked man was no random trash. It was a bit different from what he thought before. That Cindy was not just random trash that he could kill casually. Instead, it was a troublesome dog that might end up biting him back.

Nana clenched his teeth angrily when he thought of that possibility. The betting had still not ended yet, so there was still time until the battle started!

He had two goals for this battle.

First was to kill the beast. The second was to deal with that masked man. However, it seemed like the situation had changed. He needed to switch the order.

The masked man was the more pressing matter. After killing the beast, there was no way for him to tell what state he would be in, and if he would still have the strength to deal with that guy. Otherwise, everything they planned earlier would go up in smoke, and everyone would laugh at Star Continent.

That would truly be tragic!

Compared to how conflicted they were feeling, Cindy was in a much simpler mood.

At that moment, he looked at his sword with some regret. He regretted his mistaken judgment earlier. He never expected that guy to be so weak. He had done his best to try and weaken himself, planning on fighting for a while against that guy.

His first attack had been an exploratory one. Even only condensing nine Soul Swords, he had still only let out a third of its strength. Yet, even after all of that, Hamish had still failed to fight back. The blade had even directly pierced into his chest!

Hamish’s defenses had not been able to stand up to Cindy at all.

Everyone had seen Hamish crumble to Cindy completely.

Cindy just felt helpless at the situation, regretting his misjudgment!

He had improved far too quickly, so his judgment of his opponents had been muddled. Regular warriors really were just too weak! Even though that ax looked strong, his attack was actually only an upper-earth rank technique. It was not even at the ultimate god rank.

The difference of that level was immense! Cindy sighed as he looked around, feeling helpless at their stunned expressions.

He had wanted to hide his skills until the end. If he had known that people would be able to see something from that fight, he would never have fought Hamish. However, since things had already happened, he was forced to just accept it and change his plans.

Rowan had an incredibly sour look on his face.

He had been amused initially, looking at Cindy with a mocking expression. However, he could no longer mock Edgar. With the skills that Cindy showed, he understood that the other party might not be a match for him, but Cindy was quite close to being one!
