

No 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 3779

Everyone reevaluated the masked man with the skills he has demonstrated, but he shattered everyone's newfound thoughts of him not long after that. Everything was confusing, and they had no idea how to view the masked man.

At that moment, a clear voice broke through the chaos, "Nori! Agree to it!"

It was Abraham. He remained calmly seated among the spectators, his eyes fixated on Jamie.

Nori frowned slightly before he took a few deep breaths. In the end, he nodded in acknowledgment of Abraham's order.

Abraham then raised an eyebrow and said, "Do you really enjoy walking impossible journeys? One person against the beast?! I have to admire your courage!"

Everyone could tell that it was not admiration in his tone but mockery instead. However, Benita was not irked at all.

He looked over to Abraham slightly before he said calmly, "I hope you'll still be able to mock me like that in just a moment..."

Abraham frowned, really wanting to shout something back at Benita but managed to hold back in the end.

Arguing against Benita was a dishonor to himself. Since Benita wanted it, he would 'kindly' grant his wish.

Benita would swiftly find out how stupid he was, and it would also solve their dilemma.

Abraham laughed and muttered to Nymm, "Isn't this just fate siding with me? I was just wondering if Nori should attack or hold back until the right moment. Regardless, it'll damage Star Continent's reputation."

"I never expected this guy to trap himself, helping us solve the problem. He's planning on facing a beast on his own! Even Seymour wouldn't dare to do that! He really is brave!"

As he said that, Abraham failed to hold back his laughter. Everything Benita has ever done was out of his prediction.

This time, however, it was precisely what he wanted to happen.

Nymm nodded, showing a happy look on his face. "Even if we don't know what kind of beast will appear in the next battle, it's not going to be something one person can deal with! Who does this guy think he is? Does he think he's the strongest warrior in the Whirling World? What a joke!"

Benita's actions caused everyone to talk about him. However, the discussions quickly stopped.

The betting area was about to close, and the ones who still had not betted on anything were just focused on what had happened before.

Leonardo slowly stood up and glanced at Anne. The two of them had complicated thoughts about the situation, but they still had some sense of solidarity with each other. None of the people present ever witnessed Benita's true skills, which was why their assumptions of Benita were so bold and loud.

Even though no one else understood what Benita was doing, the two of them could see everything clearly.

Benita was no idiot. The fact that Benita decided this meant that he was confident.

Leonardo whispered, "Why don't we go together?"

Even if he did not ask, he knew that Anne would place all his money on Jamie. Even though Benita looked to be in a dangerous situation, the two of them trusted him.
