

No 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 3791

Reality had smacked him in the face too hard.

He could not accept it and did not know what to do about it. Jagoan's words stirred his memories.

Rowan's face was immediately pale. He did not know what to do at that moment, and even felt a sense of dread in his heart.

He turned to look at Jagoan.

At that moment, Jagoan had a pale look on his face as his body stiffened completely. He was completely on alert, ready for anything to happen!

He really was someone ranked in the top fifteen. Even though his heart was a mess, and he could not accept everything that had happened, he still reacted in the right way.

No matter how amazing the results the person in front of him had achieved, no matter how shocking it was, he was still an enemy. That was something that could not be changed. It was an irrevocable reality after all the conflict earlier.

“Stop!” Jagoan's voice was suddenly heard from the crowd.

At that moment, Jagoan had already stood up and was shouting right at the stage.

Jagoan was just too strong. Even though he was injured, Jagoan and Rowan were nothing to him. If Jagoan wanted to, Jagoan would be able to deal with them in five seconds without any issue.

Jagoan could not just watch as his fellow disciples die!

It would be an incredible loss to his clan! Jagoan raised an eyebrow, not looking at Jagoan. Instead, he looked at the three-headed silver python.

The python was no longer moving, but Jagoan knew that it was still not dead.

He had held back just now, controlling the power of Destroying the Void and not completely devouring the three-headed silver python's soul. Instead, he merely ate up most of it. As long as Jagoan tried to control it, the python would probably last for five minutes before it died.

He did that because he wanted to drag out the later battle, but he did not expect Jagoan to stand up like that. However, it was a perfectly reasonable thing to do.

The situation had completely changed. There was no way Jagoan could remain still.

Jagoan laughed as he turned to look at Jagoan coldly.

At that moment, Jagoan no longer dared to look at Jagoan with disdain like he did before. Even if he had realized that something was wrong, he had never regarded Jagoan as a threat before.

He had always thought that things were within his control. However, he never expected things to turn out like this!

Jagoan said coldly, “Am I supposed to stop just because you said to? Who do you think you are?”

This was not the first time Jagoan had said something like that.

Jagoan would have gotten incredibly angry before this. Even though he did not show it, Jagoan really did get angry, but this time it was different.

Jagoan's skills really did allow him to ignore everyone else.

Jagoan took a deep breath as he calmed himself down, “I was ignorant earlier. I should not have offended you. I apologize! Please stop! Everything before this is settled. You no longer have any problems with the Star Continent!”

The moment that was said, Jagoan laughed out loud before anyone could react. Those words were just hilarious.

Jagoan sneered as he said, “Don't you think what you're saying is such a joke? When the situation is beneficial to you, you do whatever you please. If I'm not this strong, would you have asked to stop this battle? If you can beat me, you'll continue. If you can't, everything has to stop. Who do you think you are? Do you think we're all idiots?”

Jagoan's face reddened at that, and there was laughter all around them.

Just like Jagoan said, Jagoan really did think everyone else was an idiot.

Jagoan continued coldly, “Is everything supposed to be settled just because you said so? You talk as if you're the one losing out! You were the one who challenged me first. The spectator seats go to those who wait for it, but you tried to force your way and not giving you the seat was an offense to you. You were the one who offended me, and now you think you can just walk away?”
