

No 1 Supreme Warrior

Chapter 3798

Jagoan quickly rushed on stage.

He almost lost his temper and attacked Jagoan when he looked at his fellow disciples, one dead and one injured. If that happened, it would be exactly what Jagoan wanted. He did not even need to do anything, and Jagoan would be turned into ashes by the Whirling World.

Jagoan clenched his hands tightly.

His eyes were completely red as he looked at Jagoan with a crazed glint in his eyes, “I swear! Even if I have to give up my life, I won’t let you off! I’ll make sure you pay the price! I’ll have you begging for mercy!”

Jagoan has heard similar threats so many times before that it no longer affected him.

At that moment, Nymm, who had gone to call for reinforcements, arrived as well. The moment he stepped into the spectator stands, he immediately saw Rowan on the ground not moving, as well as Jagoan, who had gone completely crazy.

That was quite impactful to Nymm. He collapsed on the ground immediately!

Jagoan laughed and said, “Haha! You asked for this...”

After he said that, he ignored the crazed men as he looked up at the scroll in the air. There was a golden light in the scroll.

After a few moments, the number ten appeared next to Jagoan’s name, showing that he had gotten ten Life Points!

That scene was etched into everyone’s minds. They had witnessed a miracle!

Someone had actually managed to get ten Life Points.

That was to be expected. In the battle earlier, other than the last blow, Jagoan had killed the three-headed silver python all by himself.

The rules of the Capture Hall were fair. Even though Jagoan did not kill the python himself, it was not a huge deal.

The three-headed silver python had been in its last breaths. Even if Jagoan did not do anything, it would not have been able to last for much longer. Jagoan getting the ten Life Points left no room for doubt!

A man with tattoos on his arm widened his eyes and said, “Do you still remember how that guy said it would be a pity to get seven Life Points? I didn’t understand it then, but I really do understand it now...”

“This guy was aiming for ten Life Points from the start. He won’t just be able to get the first-grade treasure, but he can even get the third-grade one with his remaining three Life Points. He can get two out of the three rewards! That’s just horrifying!”

Slowly, everyone started to realize that it really was as that man said.

Jagoan only had one goal in mind from the start, and everything he said had been truthful. It was obvious at this moment that all of them had just been clouded by their prejudice, shutting their eyes to the truth.

They thought that Jagoan was just completely crazy. The black-robed man’s eyes were widened. He found himself unable to say anything. Ever since Jagoan showed his true skills, the man had been stuck in that stance.

He had been deeply impacted by Jagoan. He did not know how to react at the moment.

Comparatively, Jagoan and Jagoan were the least affected in the whole place. They knew Jagoan’s skills, but they had still been shocked. It was just that they were not as shocked as everyone else.

Jagoan got the Twinleaf Heartgrass as well as a phantom herb before he left the Capture Hall calmly.

At that moment, the warriors from Star Continent absolutely hated him, but for safety’s sake, they did not dare to act rashly before they figured out the situation.

After Jagoan left the Capture Hall, he immediately changed his looks and put on a new attire. It was not because he was worried about Star Continent, but because the badge in his hand had given him another instruction. He needed to hurry, so he wanted to avoid unnecessary trouble.

Jagoan and Jagoan had taken the opportunity to walk out but no one noticed.

After the conflict with Star Continent, Jagoan had not interacted with them before, so no one knew they were related to Jagoan. The three of them easily left the Capture Hall.

The badge led Jagoan to another palace. At that moment, he already looked completely different.

Jagoan looked over at Jagoan in fear. He had lost all will to go against Jagoan. He was even wondering if there was even a match for Jagoan amongst all the warriors in the Whirling World.
