

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3911

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3911-The two of them were no idiots. They could tell that Triton came over because he wanted to push away responsibility if anything happened. He prioritized his own benefits more than anything else.

Seymour looked at Desmond before smirking and said, "I can't believe you nodded and agreed. You didn't even say anything else. It's so different from your usual attitude. After all, he's clearly telling us that any accidents that happen won't have anything to do with him, and we should be the ones taking responsibility."

Desmond laughed, but the laughter did not reach his eyes.

There was a cold glint in them, "Of course, I know what he means. Even if I don't agree, he would use a whole essay to convince you. Don't you know how shrewd he normally is?"

"The moment you even try to touch any of his benefits, he will immediately confront you. If you don't agree with him, we'll probably be stuck here for the whole day. Rather than waste our time, it's better to just agree with him. However, if anything does happen in the end, it won't be up to him to decide who the responsibility falls on."

Seymour nodded as he looked at the entrance of the cave.

Triton had already disappeared at that moment. However, Seymour still looked over with a mocking gaze.

Triton just seemed like he was being smart. These things were not matters that could be settled just by saying a few things beforehand.

Jack wasted four more hours walking before he saw a single green demon, idly walking around a plain. The green demon did not look that different from a human in terms of body shape, but they had green masks on them and wore green armor. Even their skin was green. Upon closer inspection, one could see that there was a layer of scales on their skin.

The green demons were on the level of regular warriors.

When they saw the green demon, the two of them sighed in relief at the same time.

After all, they had already used up four hours. On the way, they had been on the lookout for a crimson demon's cave and planned to kill a few crimson demons. The high-leveled demons would not appear in the outskirts.

However, they had been looking around for so long and had yet to even see a green demon, let alone a crimson demon. Lourain was even starting to wonder if he really was on the Toman Battlefield.

Lourain took a deep breath, "Wow! We finally found a green demon! I was beginning to think that we were in the wrong place!"

Jack smiled and said nothing.

He walked forward and started to form seals. Ten Soul Swords materialized in the air. Jack pushed his right hand forward, and the ten Soul Swords merged into one as it shot at the green demon.

The green demon felt a wave of energy coming right at it. It immediately looked up, but the Soul Sword was already in front of it. It could not avoid the attack no matter what!

The sword pierced through its chest, and its soul shattered.

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3912

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3912-It did not even have time to cry out in pain before it died. With a thud, its body fell to the ground.

The two of them walked over to the body, and the body turned into rewards. There were a thousand and two hundred spirit crystals glowing there.

Lourain's lips twitched, "It's only a thousand and two hundred! I thought you'd at least get ten thousand!"

Jack laughed and said, "It's just a green demon. A thousand and two hundred is already quite a lot. If a green demon is worth ten thousand, then wouldn't a demon king be worth ten pieces of purple gold!"

Lourain nodded, but he still looked down on that minuscule amount. After all, he had already accumulated a small fortune after winning a lot from the bets. He did not want to bother with a thousand spirit crystals. However, it was already a reasonable sum for regular warriors.

If they killed enough green demons, they would be able to earn quite a lot of spirit crystals. Lourain wanted to say something else when he noticed a few figures in the corner of his eye. He immediately turned around and saw a few more green demons coming over.

Lourain said excitedly, "Jack, look! There are quite a lot of green demons here! We probably never saw them before because our location was too barren. Even if green demons were moving around, they were still closer to the center!"

Jack nodded as he looked at Lourain's excited expression.

He had a thought in his mind, "There's no way we can get to the inner region in a day even if you rush anyway. Let's just wait for the space to shrink and for us to be transferred. Green demons are nothing to me, but I can just leave them to you."

To Jack, the green demons were worth far too little. Even ten of them were nothing to Jack. After all, only purple gold would tempt Jack.

Since that was the case, it was better to just leave it to Lourain.

This was the playground of regular warriors. Lourain was stronger than an average warrior, the green demons were no match for him alone.

Not only would Lourain manage to get some wealth, but it would also be training for him. Lourain looked over in surprise, not knowing what to say.

He could not help but lament how lucky he was again.

Jack smiled when he saw Lourain's expression. "You can save your thanks. You know I don't like to hear things like that. You came in to help me anyway, so I should be giving you some benefits."

Lourain nodded eagerly.

With Jack next to him, he would not be in any danger even if a few dozen more green demons came. To Lourain, it was the perfect chance.

At that moment, Lourain was incredibly excited. He did not notice a cold pair of eyes looking at the two of them behind a tree at all.

That man's face was incredibly ugly, and growth took up most of his face. Even his mouth and eyes were pushed aside. He was short and had black armor on. He was looking right toward Jack, and he narrowed his eyes as he took out his transmission room, preparing to relay the situation to his friend.

At that moment, his friend was not far away from Jack. He was smiling as he looked at a bleeding man in front of him.

Maxcus wiped the blood from his mouth as he glared at the man's friend, "Tanner, I'll never forgive you!"

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3913

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3913-Tanner scoffed, "I hear useless threats like that a few hundred times a day. Everyone says they won't forgive me, but look at me. I'm still perfectly fine!"

Maxcus clenched his teeth, "If you keep tempting fate, you'll get your dues eventually! You'll end up facing someone you can't beat! Then, you'll be begging for mercy!"

Tanner narrowed his eyes, and there was a dark glint in them, "If I were you, I'd just shut up. The three of you are already heavily injured. You're no match for the three of us!"

"Another guy is coming right over. With the four of us against you three injured warriors, we'd deal with you very easily! I'm trying to show you some mercy right now! You should be grateful and get lost! Don't just stay here and waste our time!"

Maxcus had two other men with him.

At that moment, all of them were injured. Maxcus was the strongest, but his injuries were the worst. Two of his ribs were broken, and there were many wounds on his body. He would not be able to recover unless he took three to five days. Most of those injuries were thanks to Tanner and his men.

Joran was Maxcus' fellow disciple and was standing behind Maxcus.

Joran was glaring right at Tanner at that moment.

He pointed right at Tanner and the other two, "Shameless, despicable men! All you know how to do is employ some sinister ambushes! You're just like bugs that lie in wait in the bogs, only knowing how to gain spirit crystals through despicable methods!"

What happened between them was quite simple. It was basically a robbery.

Maxcus and the others had managed to stumble upon a crimson and green demon nest. After some fighting, the three of them managed to kill two crimson demons and one green demon.

The demon's bodies turned into rewards after they were defeated.

There were twenty-five thousand spirit crystals in total. In truth, it was not that big a sum, but Tanner and the others suddenly appeared at that moment.

Maxcus's side had just been through a large battle, and they were caught completely off guard. That was how all of them ended up injured. However, Tanner was not planning to kill them at all. Instead, he assured them that he wanted to let them go, but that was only if they gave him two hundred thousand spirit crystals as compensation!

Of course, they would not be allowed to take their rewards from earlier as well!

Maxcus was incredibly furious. In truth, he did not mind if he lost two hundred thousand spirit crystals if he lost in a fair fight, but hiding by the side and ambushing them was just despicable!

It seemed like they had already noticed the crimson demon nest from before, and merely hid by the side, not doing anything. It was all for the sake of the final ambush. Not only would they be able to get the rewards, they would be able to extort even more. That did not seem to be the first time Tanner had done something like that either.

Tanner's expression darkened when he was cursed at.

He narrowed his eyes, "Brat, are you having fun? Unfortunately for you, I've changed my mind! After being insulted by you like that, I think two hundred thousand is too little! You need to give me three hundred thousand before you can leave! Otherwise, the three of you will die here!"

Joran's hands shook when he heard that. He started to walk forward, but Lanz, who was next to him, quickly grabbed his arm.

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3914

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3914-Lanz was naturally quite angry as well, but he still retained his rationality. The situation was incredibly bad for them at that moment.

Recklessness would do them no good. The three of them were already injured. The chances of them being able to win were zero. Even if those three were incredibly evil and disgusting, they were forced to accept it.

Lanz grabbed Joran's arm tightly, "Joran, don't be reckless. Otherwise, the situation will only get worse!"

Joran was so angry his whole body was trembling, but he knew that his fellow disciple was right. He could not afford to be reckless.

Yet, he could not stand it at all, those three were just too despicable.

Maxus clenched his teeth, "Both of you, quiet!"

He took a deep breath and held back his anger, "Two hundred thousand! That's all I can give you!"

Tanner shook his head, putting up three fingers, "Three hundred thousand! Nothing less!"

Joran was incredibly furious, "Tanner, don't cross the line! You said it was two hundred thousand before!"

However, before he could continue, Tanner shot back at him, "You're right, I really was just going to ask for two hundred thousand from you, but you shouting at me really hurt my heart just now. My mental state is just really fragile. Since you shouted at me, you need to pay me more!"

After he said that, the two men behind Tanner started to laugh.

Joran was losing himself to his anger. His fists were tightly clenched together as he clenched his teeth and looked at Tanner, wanting to rip Tanner apart.

When Tanner said that, he looked like he was talking to a stray dog by the street. Joran felt like his dignity was being completely trampled over, but he could not fight back. The extra hundred thousand was because of him. If he acted recklessly again, Tanner would definitely raise the price again.

Lanz took a deep breath as he looked at Joran helplessly.

Joran was stronger than him, but he really struggled with his temper. There was no point in speaking so much in a situation like this.

The more Joran shouted, the more the price would increase. Furthermore, they would say even more harsh words back at them!

Lanz pursed his lips and said to Joran, "Joran, we're in a bad situation right now. Don't be in such a hurry to fight back. We need to leave this place and recover before we can do anything."

Joran stiffly nodded at that, forcing down his anger. After that, he did not say anything else.

Maxcus had a bitter look on his face at the moment. He was already injured, but he was still being toyed around like that. It felt like a ball of fire was burning through his gut.

At that moment, Maxcus was barely holding on to his rationality. He forcibly pushed his temper down, finally nodding in the end.

It was not like they could not afford three hundred thousand, it was just that it felt incredibly humiliating.

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3915

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3915-Maxcus had already decided. As long as he had the chance, he would definitely make those three pay a painful price. He stiffly produced three hundred thousand spirit crystals and handed them to Tanner. Tanner smiled as he accepted them, counting the crystals right in front of them.

After making sure there were no problems, he said with a smile, "See? It's all settled now! I've always been an easygoing man. I won't go back on my words. However, I don't really have much patience. Had you continued wasting time, then it would not just be three hundred thousand!"

Joran huffed in anger. His eyes were about to pop out of their sockets as he swallowed back what he wanted to say.

Maxcus could feel the anger in Joran, and he was worried that something would happen if they stayed on, "Alright, let's go!"

Tanner's lips curled up into a smile of disdain. He had not been planning on killing those three at all. Even though the three of them were all injured, he would not have that good a time dealing with them if they really put their lives on the line. Rather than that, it was far better to make a small profit.

As for whether or not they would want revenge, Tanner did not care.

The Toman Battlefield was massive. Even on the final day, when the whole battlefield had already shrunk seven times, it was still an enormous place. They would not meet again after they had parted.

After leaving the Toman Battlefield, they would be in their respective cities. The chances of them meeting each other were very small. Furthermore, they had their respective things to do.

Even if they wanted revenge, it would still not be as important as improving themselves. After all, they did not enter the Whirling World to settle their personal grudges, but to get stronger!

Maxcus stared at Tanner with a cold look. He wanted to warn Tanner against doing anything after taking their spirit crystals, but a ball of fire suddenly lit up next to Tanner's ear.

The six of them were surprised.

That was the sign of a transmission array. It meant that someone was conveying information to Tanner. After the fire disappeared, Tanner had a happy look on his face.

He shot a look at the two men behind him before looking toward the southwest direction. The two of them immediately understood what Tanner meant.

They nodded at the same time. Maxcus' group was surprised as Tanner's group quickly started to advance in that direction.

Maxcus' group looked on as Tanner's group disappeared with strange expressions on their faces.

Joran walked two steps forward, looking at their retreating backs, "Did they find a new target?"

Lanz nodded and said, "Probably! Didn't that guy say he still had a fourth?! He probably received information on something just now. Either they found a new nest, or a new target to rob."

As he said that, Lanz's teeth were clenched. He had kept his cool the whole time and had not been reckless like Joran.

He had even managed to control his expressions very well. However, it did not mean that he was not angry. Instead, he was just as angry as Joran.

It was just that Lanz was smart enough to not show it. With those three gone, he could no longer hold back his anger. He clenched his teeth as he looked at where that group was heading to.

He was furious as he cursed.

Just as the two of them were guessing where Tanner's group was going, they heard a cold voice speak up.

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3916

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3916-Maxcus looked at Joran coldly, "Joran, you've been losing your temper more and more lately! Was that a time to act recklessly? Even if you point at him and shout at him, what are you going to achieve? We were lucky that Tanner was not that bad. If it was someone with a foul temper, he might have just killed you on the spot!"

As he said that, Maxcus was full of anger. He was so angry that Joran did not even dare to look up at him.

What Joran did earlier had cost them an extra one hundred thousand spirit crystals.

He muttered, "I will pay for those spirit crystals! It's my fault! I'll change!"

Maxcus frowned, "The spirit crystals are not the problem! The problem is with your temper! When the situation is unfavorable for us, you need to hold back your anger no matter what! Why are you regressing as time goes?!"

Looking at Maxcus getting angrier and angrier, Lanz hurriedly stepped up to mediate the situation, "Maxcus, calm down! Those people really were nasty! If we weren't injured, I would have berated them too. Joran's temper has always been like this, but he's learned his lesson this time. He won't do it again."

Maxcus frowned, not continuing to lecture Joran. However, he was still incredibly furious.

Joran was not the only one with a strong ego, his ego was even stronger. However, he forced himself to endure it so it would not escalate the situation.

They had no chance of winning if they continued fighting. At the most, they would only be able to heavily injure their opponents. It was not worth losing his life just for that at all!

Maxcus clenched his teeth, "Let's go take a look!"

Joran and Lanz were both stunned.

They were supposed to take the chance to recuperate, why would they go over?

With their situation, they would not be able to do anything but spectate anyway. Even spectating had its dangers. If they were noticed, then it would be a disaster. Maxcus naturally thought of that as well, but he wanted to gamble.

He frowned and said, "It's possible that they found a new target. Let's go take a look. If the situation is right, we could attack at the right moment! Even though we're all injured, they aren't fatal injuries! Are you two really willing to just drop this?"

They were naturally not. The two of them shook their heads vigorously.

Joran was very happy with Maxcus' idea however Lanz was a bit worried. After all, they were not in the best state. If anything happened, they would not be able to handle it to their full potential.

Maxcus could see Lanz's worries.

He patted Lanz on the arm, " Don't worry. I know it's dangerous. We just need to hide and watch from afar later. We only need to attack if we know we can win. Otherwise, we'll just be spectators."

With Maxcus' words, Lanz was far more relaxed. The three of them exchanged a look, and immediately rushed toward the southwest.

Bang!

A crimson demon fell on the ground, and dust clouds rose.

Lourain panted roughly as he clutched his sword with one hand, and his chest with the other. He could feel his heart beating rapidly.

Lourain looked at Jack by the side with a happy expression, "It was so hard! Crimson demons really aren't easy! I needed so much effort to deal with it!"

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3917

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3917-As the two of them advanced, Lourain killed the demons they met. They could not find anything higher ranked anyway, and Jack did not need to fight any of the lower-ranked ones, but it was a valuable training experience for Lourain.

As the two of them advanced, Lourain killed the demons they met. They could not find anything higher ranked anyway, and Jack did not need to fight any of the lower-ranked ones, but it was a valuable training experience for Lourain.

Earlier, they happened to stumble into three green demons and one crimson demon. Jack had held back two green demons and a crimson demon.

With Jack's skills, it would be as easy as drinking water to deal with those demons, but it would be pointless.

Jack was just trying to hold the demons back so Lourain could gain more experience.

Lourain dealt with one green demon incredibly quickly, and Jack let another one loose.

After dealing with three green demons, Lourain composed himself before he faced the last crimson demon with all his strength. He had barely managed to defeat the crimson demon.

A crimson demon's skill was between a regular warrior and an above-average one. It was equal to Lourain in skill, but Lourain had already improved himself a bit. He had been forced to his limits in the Seven Deaths Array, so he had definitely gotten stronger.

It was naturally not easy to deal with the crimson demon especially since he had been injured. However, it was also good training for Lourain.

At that moment, the demons all turned into rewards. Added together, they were not even worth twenty thousand spirit crystals. That amount was nothing to Lourain, but he was still very happy.

That had been a hard-fought victory. Not only did he obtain a reward, but it also boosted his confidence as well.

Jack nodded at Lourain, "Not bad..."

Before he could finish, they suddenly heard something. Lourain's body stiffened as he held back his fatigue, pulling up his sword again.

They saw four figures rapidly approaching them. In just a few moments, they were right in front.

Jack raised an eyebrow as he calmly looked at the four of them.

The four of them were Tanner's man, the ugly man who had been observing Jack and the others were there as well!

The ugly man was ranked fourth amongst Tanner's men. The four of them gradually slowed down as they approached closer. They were in no hurry to attack.

Tanner raised an eyebrow as he looked at Jack, putting up three fingers, "Three hundred thousand spirit crystals and I'll let you go! Otherwise, you'll die here today!"

Lourain was stunned.

They were robbing Jack?

There really were all sorts of people in the world. He forcibly stopped his mouth from twitching as he walked behind Jack.

Jack looked at those four in exasperation. He showed no emotion as if they were just air.

Tanner saw that the two of them were not responding, and merely looked at them strangely. He could not help but feel suspicious, however, he quickly discarded those suspicions.

The man behind Tanner was the second-in-command, Reven.

He narrowed his eyes and said coldly, "Are you deaf? Did you not hear What Tanner said? We're already treating you very well. We usually beat people up before we ask! However, the two of you... Are not worth it. Just give us the money and leave. Don't waste our time!"

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3918

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3918-Tanner raised an eyebrow and said again, "Three hundred thousand spirit crystals, that's the offer. Take them out right now! My patience is limited. If you continue to stall, I will beat you up and increase the price too!"

Tanner raised an eyebrow and said again, "Three hundred thousand spirit crystals, that's the offer. Take them out right now! My patience is limited. If you continue to stall, I will beat you up and increase the price too!"

The ugly man had already told Tanner about the situation through the transmission array.

Lourain and Jack were advancing as they fought, and the man merely followed quietly behind. However, it was hard to find cover.

If he was lucky, he would be able to observe things closely. However, most of the time, he needed to look from a distance, so the man had not witnessed all the battles. The last battle in particular seemed like a hard-fought battle for both Jack and Lourain in his eyes.

This gave the man the impression that they were only slightly stronger than an average warrior. There were so many warriors who signed up this time. Most of them were just ordinary folk.

Those two were already quite strong.

The two of them had been able to work together to kill the crimson demon. However, there was no way those two could beat the four of them. There was no chance at all. If all four of them attacked together, those two would not even be able to last five seconds.

This time, the situation was different from the last. Maxcus' group was slightly stronger than those two. Furthermore, it had been an even-numbered, even-powered conflict.

They had to threaten the other party's lives to get the spirit crystals earlier!

However, there was no need to struggle so much with these two.

When Lourain heard what the other party said, he sighed in exasperation, keeping his weapon right away.

Maxcus' group happened to arrive nearby at that moment as well. For safety's sake, the three of them hid behind some hills.

When Maxcus saw that Tanner and his group were attacking two people, he felt a chill in his heart. He knew that the chances of the situation turning around were very slim. However, he still had some hope. After all, he had never been so humiliated before.

Joran sighed as well.

Lanz said helplessly, "Things look bad for those two. Just look at them. Tanner's group won't even need to attack them, and he'll get the spirit crystals. Sure enough, when you're shameless, you can get so much more."

Joran was clearly not happy with what he said.

Joran said angrily, "What are you talking about?! People like him will suffer the consequences eventually. He'll definitely be tortured to death when that happens! Shameful and despicable people never end up with good consequences!"

Lanz looked at Joran. In truth, he wanted to say it was usually good people who suffered, but he swallowed his words.

If he had said that, Joran would definitely have picked a fight with him. There was no need for that at all. After he thought about it, he decided against saying anything.

Tanner was quickly losing his patience. He had said so much, but those two did not seem to react at all.

Sometimes, the hardest thing to tolerate was being ignored. Tanner would not have been as angry if those two started to quarrel with him. However, they did not react at all, and merely looked at him with a cold expression, as if he led a band of clowns.

That calm demeanor left Tanner furious. He frowned as he stepped forward and looked at Jack coldly.

"Brat, you're challenging my patience here! I changed my mind! I want four hundred thousand! I'll only let you two off if you pay me four hundred thousand spirit crystals!"

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3919

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3919-After that was said, Tanner still did not feel that it was enough.

He continued to add, "Stop pretending that you're mute. I still have other things to do. Hurry up and give me the spirit crystals then get lost!"

This time, there was finally a reaction.

Jack sighed lightly, feeling like he was meeting more and more idiots.

Lourain said with an exasperated look on his face, "Are the four of you trying to rob us right now?"

That question completely stunned the four of them.

Did the two of them not hear everything that was said?

Of course, they were being robbed! Was that even a question?

Tanner had a stiff look on his face, "What else do you think we're doing? Are we just playing with you?"

As he said that, Tanner did not notice that his voice was oozing with anger.

It had been a long time since Tanner got so angry. He was someone who just wanted spirit crystals, and did not mind hearing a few nasty words. After all, he could just increase the price to soothe his anger.

However, it was a bit different this time. The reaction from those two was like fuel to the fire in his heart. He could not keep his calm at all. Tanner narrowed his eyes as he retrieved a curved blade from his storage.

There was a cold glint on the blade. He aimed the blade right at Jack's neck, and the threat was incredibly evident. He was warning Jack that if they continued with that attitude, he would not hesitate to cut their necks.

Jack only felt amused at a threat like that!

Maxcus and the others hid behind the hills. There was a distance between them that made seeing things clearly a bit hard. They could vaguely make out a few words, but could not really follow the conversation.

The three of them tried, but could still only get the gist of it.

Joran said curiously, "Why do I feel like the atmosphere there is a bit strange? Tanner looks like he's been angered. Instead, the person in front of him is acting so calmly! Why is the one standing behind laughing?"

At that moment, Lourain could no longer hold back. He had a smile on his face. He did not want to, but Tanner's words were just too amusing to him. Even after trying so hard, he could not stop the smile from coming out.

Maxcus and the others found it to be an incredibly strange sight!

Was that person crazy?

Was there something different about the situation?

Could Tanner not be robbing them?

The situation was just too confusing. The three of them were completely stunned!

Lourain's smile looked incredibly annoying to the other side. It was as if he was trampling all over their dignity.

Tanner clenched his teeth as he looked at Lourain with an angered expression, "Brat, what are you laughing at? It looks like you really want to die! Since that's the case, I'll grant both of you your wish! You just needed to hand over the spirit crystals just now, and I would have let the two of you leave. It looks like you don't know what's good for you!"

The moment he said that, Tanner started to attack! His fellow disciples behind him attacked as well!

Jack shook his head in exasperation, "It's not my first time seeing someone rob others so brazenly in the Whirling World..."

After that was said, Jack looked over at the ugly man.

His tone was incredibly calm, "You were constantly observing us from behind. I was wondering who you were. It seems like I was just overthinking things. After all, I just arrived. It would be a bit absurd for them to find me so quickly."

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3920

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3920-Jack's words sounded incredibly strange, but Lourain was already used to it. Tanner and the others did not understand what the other party meant at all, and only felt like the two of them were acting more strangely!

They did not expect Jack to have such sharp senses. It was rare that the man was ever discovered.

Jack's words seemed to imply that Jack had already noticed the man early on. He clearly knew someone was observing him, but he acted like he did not know.

Was that person just incredibly brave, or did he have other plans?

Lourain smirked and said, "There's no way they would be so capable! However, I don't think the situation is that serious. There aren't that many that have a grudge against you. Most of that group has never even met you before, surely they won't..."

Lourain was being vague with his words as well, but Jack knew what Lourain was saying.

Jack laughed and said, "Don't think that people are so simple. I'm like a thorn in the eyes of those people, they would want to kill me if they had the chance!"

Lourain's lips twitched, clearly not agreeing with Jack. He felt like there was no way things would progress to that stage.

Those warriors at the peak had no grudges against Jack, and Jack was so strong that it would not be easy to kill him.

They would probably need a few of them attacking at the same time for it to be threatening to Jack's life. Without any grudges against Jack, they would probably not do that. However, Jack did not think so.

Jack had talked to him about it earlier and was very sure when he told Lourain that, the moment his identity was exposed, there would definitely be people coming after him.

Jack spoke as if it was a sure thing.

Lourain did not understand it at all after hearing what Jack said, thinking that Jack was just overthinking it.

Tanner did not understand what the two of them were saying at all.

The fact that the two of them were completely ignoring the threat his men posed made all of them absolutely furious.

Tanner and the others could no longer stand it. They finally prepared to attack.

Jack looked at how eager they seemed and remained calm. He smiled as he started to form seals in the air. The seals danced around before they condensed into a hundred Soul Swords.

He was incredibly quick with his moves. The moment the Soul Sword was condensed, Jack split it in four!

Suddenly, the four Soul Swords were aimed at Tanner's men!

Tanner's men were taken aback at the sight!

That guy was attacking?

He looked like he wanted to take on the four of them alone. That guy was not only confusing with his words, but he also did things that confounded them as well!

Who did he think he was?

A warrior that stood at the peak?

He was challenging four of them at once?

He sure was brave!

Tanner laughed and said, "It looks like there really is something wrong with your head!"

The moment he said that, he heard one of his men, Remi, say with a fearful voice, "Tanner, something is wrong! His technique looks very familiar!"

As he said that, Remi's voice was trembling as if he witnessed something unbelievable.

Tanner frowned as he turned to look at Remi, saying with a firm tone, "So what if it's familiar? Why are you so scared?"

Remi's lips shuddered, and even his eyes were shaking slightly.

He said with a hoarse voice, "I saw this technique on an image plate before. Let me ask him..."

Remi mustered up the courage to say to Jack, "Could you be Jack?"

Jack raised an eyebrow as he sighed helplessly.

What he was worried about had happened. The moment he attacked, he was recognized immediately!