

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3971

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3971-Jack did not bother dragging it on.

He said, "Just killing a few of their subordinates would not hurt them at all. It's not really worth it. I want to teach them a lesson they'll remember!"

At the foot of Skyreach Mountain, two disciples of the Searing Flame Clan were patrolling the area when they heard some footsteps. The two of them immediately looked over to see a familiar figure hurrying over in tattered clothes.

One of the inner disciples frowned and asked loudly, "Yeagen? What happened to you? Why are you running back looking like this?"

Yeagen had a pale look on his face, and there were traces of blood around his mouth.

As he ran, he stumbled all over, looking like he was heavily injured. Yeagen clutched his chest and breathed heavily. His sweat was constantly dripping, and he looked like he had been heavily impacted by something.

After he ran over, he grabbed the inner disciple that was talking to him, "Walt! Go see Triton right now! This is big!"

When Walt heard that something big had happened, he was immediately on alert, "What happened? How could it be so big? Stop panicking and tell me what happened!"

Yeagen took a few deep breaths before he calmed down.

He coughed for a bit before he said with a raspy voice, "I found Jack!"

The moment that was said, the patrolling inner disciples were stunned.

Walt grabbed Yeagen's arm tightly, and he raised his voice a bit, "What did you say? Have you found Jack? Are you joking?! How did you find Jack?"

Even though Yeagen ran over looking like that and did not seem to be joking, it still felt a bit crazy to Walt.

He could not believe it.

After all, who was Jack?

Jack was someone who managed to pass the Killing Hall at the golden difficulty. He was a warrior that stood at the very peak.

Anyone who knew of Jack would understand that he was someone who ranked highly even amongst warriors at the peak. Even though they had issued a task to look for Jack, everyone knew that it was impossible to find Jack in the earlier days.

Only after the Toman Battlefield shrunk a few more times would they be able to find the guy.

Furthermore, Yeagen looked like he had fought against Jack. Even if Yeagen was quite strong, he was still only above average. He was like paper in front of Jack. The chances of him surviving an encounter with Jack were very low.

No matter how injured Yeagen was, he was still alive. Yeagen's face stiffened as he suddenly got angry.

He frowned and said, "Walt, what do you mean by that? Do you think I've gone crazy? Do you think I'm an idiot? How could I be joking with you right now?! I'm certain that I found Jack! It's incredibly urgent too. If Triton hurries over there right now, there's a very good chance that he can capture Jack! Jack's in a very bad state right now!"

Those words were like a meteor that fell from the sky, slamming right into those two inner disciples' hearts. Not only did he find Jack, but Jack was also in a bad state at that moment. It was an amazing chance for them!

The two disciples exchanged a look of urgency with each other.

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3972

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3972-At that moment, there was no time to think about anything else.

Walt patted Yeagen's arm, "Don't panic, I'll go report this to Triton right now. If things go well, he'll definitely reward you!"

Yeagen clutched his chest and started to cough violently as if he was not interested in the rewards at all.

At that moment, they were in no mood to pay any attention to Yeagen. What Yeagen said earlier was constantly playing in their minds.

The two of them were very excited. If they successfully captured Jack, then they would have gotten rid of a very big problem for Star Continent. Triton would be very happy. They might even be rewarded by him as well. The two of them immediately rushed to the peak of the mountain.

In just a few moments, Triton immediately rushed down. His expression remained stern as he tried to maintain his authority. However, the happiness in his eyes betrayed his excitement.

Triton rushed over and tightly grabbed Yeagen's arms. Yeagen could clearly see the excitement in Triton's eyes.

Triton said, "Where is he?! Are you sure you weren't mistaken? What exactly happened for you to fight against Jack? How did you survive fighting him?!"

Even though Triton was incredibly excited at that moment, he did not let it get to his head.

If Yeagen did fight against Jack, then there did not seem to be any chance for him to survive. Yet, Yeagen's clothes might be ripped up and his face might be pale from his injuries, he was at least still standing.

The fact that he managed to escape meant that he did not suffer a heavy injury.

Yeagen took a deep breath. His voice was still raspy.

"It really was a coincidence. Teagan and I were carrying out our task as a team, and we just managed to capture two people. While we walked past the forest, we heard a loud commotion! It was as if the sky was falling!"

Yeagen described it exaggeratedly, but no one cast any doubt. After all, they were talking about Jack.

Someone like Jack could absolutely make such a big commotion.

At that moment, Yeagen had a look of fear on his face, "We went over to take a look, and noticed over a dozen demon kings facing a single person! The two of us were stunned. A few dozen demon kings are equal to a few dozen high-ranking above-average warriors, but they were just fighting one person!”

“We almost thought we were hallucinating! Otherwise, how could we be seeing something so absurd?! Only when he saw the person using his technique did we realize it. It was that red ring that Jack used before! Not only did he use his technique, he even summoned up his world avatar. The ring basically swallowed up all the demon kings before it exploded...”

As he spoke, Yea gen’s face paled even more, as if he was shaken up just by remembering it.

His hands shook, and he quickly grabbed Triton.

If the situation was not extraordinary, Triton would have slapped anyone who dared to grab him so they knew their place. However, Triton was incredibly excited at that moment as well and was not bothered by the small details. Instead, he felt like Yeagen must have been incredibly affected by what he saw.

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3973

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3973-Yeagen gulped, and his eyes were red, “At the time, Teagan was quite impatient. He was closer than I was, and he did not react to the explosion at all. Rather, he did not even realize what was happening. The explosion was so intense that he died on the spot! I was further away, and I managed to react in time. The moment I realized something was wrong, I turned around and ran! That’s how I managed to survive!”

Everyone who heard Yeagen’s story looked incredibly excited.

Yeagen looked up at their expressions and felt a chill in his heart.

Sure enough, in the eyes of those people, they were not important at all.

He described Teagan as having died on the spot, but no one seemed to care about it at all. If he was the one who died, they would probably react the same way.

He suddenly felt like he was a joke, but he did not dare to slip up at that moment. Even though he was feeling emotional, he tried his best to force it down, not revealing anything at all.

Triton took a deep breath, “How was Jack after the explosion? You said he’s injured right now? Did he leave the place?”

That was the most important part!

As Triton asked that question, his voice was even shaking.

Yeagen nodded vigorously, “The explosion was just incredibly intense. Even Jack ended up getting hit. However, he was still the one who used the technique in the end. He was just sent flying by the shockwaves, and he hit a tree. The tree immediately collapsed!”

“He spat out some blood on the spot, and I don’t know what his injuries are. However, I’m sure that he did not leave right away. He took some pills to treat his injuries. I think he must be quite wounded.”

Triton’s hands trembled in excitement.

With Jack’s careful personality, Jack should have left immediately after causing such a large commotion. Yet, he did not leave, and immediately started to treat himself which means his injuries must have been quite heavy!

That really was an important chance!

Triton’s eyes lit up. Normally, he should immediately report the matter to Desmond and Seymour before he starts to follow Jack. Then, he would continue to relay the information, and they would only strike when the three of them gathered together. That was the safest choice.

However, Triton hesitated at that moment.

He clenched his fists as he thought about it. Jack was heavily injured, and not in his best state. Triton felt like he should be able to beat Jack.

They had looked into Jack quite a few times, especially Jack’s background and everything Jack did in the Whirling World.

Jack was actually from the third-grade world, Hestia Continent. Even among third-grade worlds, Hestia Continent was at the bottom.

That kind of place should not even have any above-average warriors, let alone warriors at the peak.

The fact that Jack was from that place was something they struggled to understand.

Triton felt that Jack definitely had a huge secret. Otherwise, there was no way Jack would be able to reach where he was.

If Triton managed to monopolize that secret, he might end up becoming a warrior ranked in the top three among warriors at the peak. Then, everyone would have to treat him politely!

However, if he told Desmond and Seymour the news, there was no way the two of them would allow him to monopolize the secret. After all, the secret could very well be an amazing chance.

The three of them were only working together temporarily out of mutual benefit.

The moment their benefits were at odds with each other, they would become enemies.

Jack was in a weakened state at that moment. If he took the chance to get rid of Jack, he could claim the opportunity for himself.

He clenched his teeth. Even though it was risky, Triton did not care anymore. He would take the risk.

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3974

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3974-The world was one where opportunity and danger existed hand in hand. If he did not take the risk, then the opportunity would not be his own. He turned around to look at his fellow disciples before his gaze landed on Yeagan.

“Bring us over there right now! Go as fast as you can. Everyone else, follow behind me! We can’t let that guy escape!”

Yeagen nodded vigorously. He was just about to turn around when Triton grabbed him.

Triton took out a bottle of pills from his spatial ring and put it into Yeagen's palm, "This is a holy treatment medicine. Take it quickly!"

Yeagen nodded slowly before he opened a bottle.

The dense fragrance coming from the bottle made him feel relaxed.

Everyone else suddenly looked at Yeagen with looks of admiration. The pill did not look cheap. Yet, Yeagen was about to have it.

Yeagen naturally felt those looks of admiration. He could not help but feel a sense of mockery in his heart. Triton did not give him the pill because Triton favored him or as a reward.

Triton just wanted to speed up his recovery so they could reach the place as fast as possible. He was just trying to get the most out of him. There was nothing to admire. Even though he thought that way, Yeagen did not show it on his face. He hurriedly took the pill.

The pill immediately turned into a wave of warmth around his body the moment it entered his stomach. It spread throughout his internal organs, and he suddenly felt a lot more spirited.

He could feel Triton's sense of urgency. For the sake of the plan, Yeagen did not dare to delay things at all. He summoned up his true energy and immediately jumped into the air, bringing everyone toward the southwest.

Yeagen was in front while Triton let their fellow disciples behind. For safety's sake, Triton did not advance alone and brought his fellow disciples along. On the way there, Yeagen turned around to look at his fellow disciples.

There were over a dozen people including Triton.

Yeagen raised an eyebrow as various thoughts surfaced in his mind. Sure enough, everything had been predicted perfectly. Everything that happened was within their expectations.

Yeagen's thoughts ran wild, and he was in no mood to think about how much time had passed.

Just as he was thinking about things, they arrived at the destination.

It was a small forest in the middle of a grassland. The forest was not that large, but it was incredibly dense.

Looking over, it was green everywhere. Other than that, nothing else could be seen. Everything was concealed quite well. Even if Triton widened his eyes, he could see nothing.

Once Yeagen landed, he anxiously signaled with his hands, not daring to speak too loudly.

Looking at Yeagen, Triton understood that they had arrived. He nodded at Yeagen, indicating that he understood.

Yeagen pointed in a direction somewhat anxiously, and Triton immediately started to head there impatiently as if he was worried the opportunity would slip away if he was too slow.

He rushed over. Just like what Yeagen had said, the more they advanced, the more it looked like a battle had taken place.

Trees had fallen everywhere, and there were signs of an explosion. The more he moved forward, the more anxious Triton got. His steps became slower and more careful as well. Triton suddenly stopped before he looked at his fellow disciples viciously.

He whispered, "Make sure you move quietly! If he notices us and he runs away, I won't let any of you off!"

His fellow disciples nodded at that, and Triton took a deep breath, ignoring them after that.

He continued looking for Jack. The more they walked forward, the more collapsed trees there were. It meant they were getting close to the center of the explosion.

Triton could clearly hear his heart rapidly beating.

Victory was within his grasp! He constantly prayed that Jack had not left the place! After they advanced a bit more, he could vaguely make out a figure.

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3975

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3975-He suddenly took a deep breath, and there was a sharp glint in his eyes.

At that moment, he did not hesitate at all as he shot forward like a cannonball. The fellow disciples behind him did not even have the chance to react.

After he heard the movements, Jack suddenly opened his eyes.

At that moment, he looked a bit pale, and he had traces of blood around his mouth. He looked like he was still recovering from a heavy injury.

When he saw that someone was rushing at him, he did not hesitate to flee. The moment Triton saw that person's face, he felt incredibly excited. It really was Jack!

This time, Jack had not changed his looks, and was facing them with his actual face! The sliver of doubt he still had completely evaporated at that moment! Triton only had one thought in mind, which was that fate was on his side!

"You can't escape, Jack! Just surrender! I'll consider letting you live!" Triton shouted at Jack's back.

Jack did not even look back, and he sped out even more.

Triton cursed when that happened as he clenched his teeth and increased his speed as well. Both of them seemed to be giving it their all, with one frantically running away and the other in hot pursuit.

Jack used the laws of space as he ran, causing him to be even quicker.

Triton cursed when he saw Jack using the laws of space. "Brat, do you still think you can run away at this stage? Don't think I don't know that you're still recovering from an injury. You won't be able to hold on for that long!"

At that moment, Triton abandoned every other thought other than trying to catch Jack and completely beat Jack up. He needed to find out all of Jack's secrets.

He did not notice that his fellow disciples were not able to keep up with him at all. After all, the two of them were already warriors at the peak, and they were moving incredibly fast.

Jack was even using the laws of space, there was naturally no way those above-average warriors could keep up. The further Jack ran away, the further away the others were.

Slowly, the others could not even see their backs anymore.

Yeagen's injuries were not 'recovered' yet, so he was naturally falling behind. However, he was not far away from his other disciples.

Yeagen suddenly clutched his chest and started to cough.

He then shouted at his fellow disciples, "I'm so sorry, I don't think I can hold on anymore. My injuries haven't recovered yet. I won't be of any use anyway!"

An inner disciple nodded at Yeagen.

Yeagen's situation was special. He managed to achieve something great. It really was hard for him to continue pursuing Jack with them.

That disciple nodded, "Yeagen, just go back and rest. You should be recovering from your injuries."

Yeagen nodded immediately, adding, "Honestly, I wouldn't dare to follow anyway! In that battle between Jack and the demon kings, just the shockwaves alone were enough to kill Teagan. Triton is far stronger than those demon kings. A battle between two warriors at the peak isn't something any normal person can handle. Just the shockwaves alone could be fatal!"

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3976

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3976-After he said that, Yeagen began to slow down and slowly pulled away from his fellow disciples. However, as he started to pull away, what he said resonated with everyone there, striking them like a bolt of thunder.

Yeagen's words had opened everyone's eyes to the reality of the situation.

He was right!

Two warriors at the peak were going to fight each other. If they went and tried to help, they could end up getting struck by stray attacks and might even end up like Teagan.

They started to exchange looks of hesitation with one another. After all, their lives were at stake, so no one dared to play around with it.

After Yeagen landed, he looked over to his fellow disciples that were slowly getting further away from him. He could clearly feel that they were slowing down after hearing his words.

Yeagen smirked. Those words had been very effective. He looked around and immediately ran towards Skyreach Mountain.

In less than ten seconds after Yeagen turned around to leave, the disciples of the Searing Flame Clan had stopped in their tracks.

They all seemed to stop at the same time, slowly descending to the ground. They exchanged looks with each other. Even though no one spoke, everyone knew what each other was thinking. After a moment, one of the inner disciples shrugged.

“I’m too scared to go over! They’re already so far away from us anyway. It’s perfectly reasonable for them to outrun us. Even if we manage to catch up and help Triton, we might end up heavily injured because of it. Our lives might even be in danger. I’m not being overly cautious. I just feel like I need to be cautious when it comes to a fight between two warriors at the peak!”

The others all nodded, agreeing with what the inner disciple said. Even though Star Continent’s warriors looked incredibly united on the surface, they were not that united internally.

There was no way they would sacrifice themselves for Triton’s sake. On top of that, they had the perfect excuse at that moment. Even if Triton decides to blame them, they could use that excuse to shield themselves.

With that being the case, that group dropped their pursuit.

Of course, Yeagen was not trying to go back to Skyreach Mountain at all. He was just making a detour. Since he was putting on an act, he needed to make sure to go all the way.

After making a huge detour, Yeagen finally arrived where he agreed to meet Lourain.

At that moment, Lourain was feeling incredibly anxious. He was on his toes, constantly peering into the distance.

He let out a sigh of relief when he spotted Yeagen.

The moment Yeagen arrived, Lourain immediately grabbed Yeagen's arm. "How did it go? Did you succeed?"

Yeagen nodded. "I've put on quite a good act. No one noticed anything wrong at all. It'll be up to the master to settle the rest."

After signing the master-slave contract, Yeagen started addressing Jack as master instead.

At that moment, Jack was frantically fleeing while constantly looking behind him.

When he saw that Triton was the only one left pursuing him, he let out a sigh of relief.

Jack only felt at ease when a bundle of fire appeared next to his ears and heard a sound being transmitted to his mind. That transmission was sent by Lourain. The contents were very simple.

Yeagen was already sure that the other disciples had been convinced and would not be following them. Only then was Jack completely confident.

He started to slow down, no longer frantically running away. Triton had a look of elation on his face when he felt Jack slowing down.

He had thought that he would need to continue running for at least a few more hours, but Jack had already given up after such a short time. It seemed like Jack's injuries were quite serious, which was good news to Triton.

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3977

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3977-Jack pretended to still be heavily injured as he clutched his chest and adjusted his speed, slowly descending to the ground.

Triton naturally slowed down as well, but he took the chance to get within fifteen meters of Jack.

At that distance, there was no way Jack would be able to run away. Even if Jack wanted to avoid his attack, there was no way to do that at this distance.

Triton let out a sigh of relief as well after getting closer. He had a pleased smile and an amused look on his face, looking like a cat that had just caught its prey.

Jack took a deep breath as he slowly turned around to look at Triton with complete calmness.

When Triton saw Jack's calm expression, his lips froze, and he frowned slightly. That was Triton's first time facing Jack.

He had heard a lot about Jack's exploits before this and knew that Jack never showed much emotion. He never expected Jack to remain so calm even at a moment like this. It was as if whatever was happening did not threaten Jack at all.

Triton wondered if Jack just had a naturally cold face or if there was something wrong with Jack's head.

Regardless, it did not matter. Jack would not be able to escape his grasp. Triton narrowed his eyes slightly as he started to measure Jack up as if he was thinking about what torture methods he would inflict upon Jack.

Triton's tone was very carefree. It was evident he was in a good mood.

"You don't seem nervous at all. Have you already accepted your inevitable fate?"

Jack shook his head slightly without answering Triton's question.

Triton did not mind. It did not matter if Jack was speaking or not since everything would be revealed soon enough.

Triton held his head high and declared, "Brat, you humiliated Star Continent back then, and completely trampled over the dignity of our warriors. You should have thought of the price you would be paying today."

Jack's expression suddenly changed after hearing what Triton had to say.

Jack's lips curled up as he sneered, "Are all the warriors of Star Continent really that good at twisting the truth? You were clearly the ones who tried to cause me trouble in the first place, but you talk as if it was the other way around."

Triton frowned as his expression stiffened.

Jack was telling the truth. Triton had already looked into it, and the source of the conflict was indeed caused by those idiots trying to cause Jack trouble. However, the situation had been quite special.

No one expected that Jack would actually be a warrior at the peak!

However, there was no point in talking about that anymore.

Triton scoffed as he said coldly, "There's no need to bring that up. Back then, Percy had already apologized to you, but you refused to let the matter go and killed two of our men. That was a clear sign that you were declaring war on us!"

Jack tilted his head away slightly, not even bothering to look at Triton.

He continued in a cold tone, "Don't you think it's funny for you to say that? They went on the stage to kill me, yet they expect everything to be resolved with just a simple apology. If they could aim for my life, why couldn't I do the same? An eye for an eye, this is a rule that'll never change."

Triton's face started to redden indignantly at Jack's words. He suddenly realized that he was nowhere near as skilled as Jack when it came to words!

So, Triton decided to just avoid the topic. "Fine! There's no point in talking about this anymore. Jack, I'll give you a chance to save yourself right now. If you answer all my questions obediently, I'll let you die a quick death. Otherwise, I'll make sure to savor every last bit of value you have before your death."

After Triton said his piece, his eyes narrowed slightly, and a cruel look flashed in his eyes.

The value he was referring to was pointing to the fact that he would use cruel methods to slowly torture Jack to death and get Jack's Heartblood if Jack did not listen to him.

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3978

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3978-Even when Jack was hatching the plan, he had already anticipated Triton's entire speech.

Sure enough, it went exactly as he expected. Jack's lips curled up into a faint smile as if he could not be bothered about those threats at all.

The smile on Jack's face felt too glaring to Triton's eyes. It made him feel like Jack was still trying to oppose him, so Triton narrowed his eyes as his anger started welling up.

It took a lot of effort from him to suppress the anger in his heart.

Jack stated coldly, "Things should always be reciprocated. Since you want to ask me questions, then you should answer my questions before I answer you."

Triton's eyes suddenly widened.

Jack was bold indeed!

He was still trying to negotiate and demand answers from Triton before answering the other party's questions in that situation!

Triton had heard of Jack's arrogance and stubbornness. He also heard that Jack was good at saying things that struck people's nerves.

After witnessing it for himself, Triton finally realized how frustrating Jack could be.

Triton spoke through trembling lips, "Brat, you're really challenging my patience right now. Open your eyes and take a look around you. You should be mindful of your situation right now. Do you understand that you're my captive?! You might be standing here right now, but the moment I attack, you'd be like a piece of meat on the chopping board. I can slice you up however I please!"

Jack raised an eyebrow, slightly surprised at what Triton was saying.

He thought that asking some questions would only be an insignificant request since Triton felt that he was in control of the situation.

He did not expect Triton to react so strongly.

Triton was so angry that his eyebrows were twitching as he shot a vicious glare at Jack. “Brat, don’t push your luck just because I’m being nice. I’m the one to decide what to do right now. You don’t have the right to negotiate!”

Jack sighed helplessly, “Aren’t you going to ask me what I’d ask you? Since you think that everything is in your control, wouldn’t it be fine for me to ask a few questions?”

Triton’s face was cold as he said with a great sense of pride, “Brat, don’t you dare think that you have the right to negotiate with me just because you’re slightly skilled! Even with your skills, you can’t escape your useless background. Someone like you doesn’t even have the right to polish my shoes. You have no right to ask me any questions!”

Triton seemed to be getting annoyed. Jack’s nonchalant attitude was an eyesore to him.

“Tell me all your secrets. How did you emerge from a garbage dump and become so skilled? Don’t tell me it’s because of your talents. If you came from somewhere trashy like the Hestia Continent, you wouldn’t be able to become this powerful no matter how amazingly talented you are! Becoming a warrior that stands at the peak doesn’t just take talent. You’ll need ample resources as well!”

Jack raised an eyebrow.

Triton was right.

When those people found Jack, they would probably not be in such a hurry to kill him. Instead, they would try to get all his secrets. After all, he had come from humble beginnings.

In their eyes, it was impossible for a genius like that to come from the Hestia Continent. In truth, they were not wrong.

Jack had not gotten to where he was due to Hestia Continent at all. He raised an eyebrow but did not answer the question.

Triton’s face twitched slightly at that moment.

Jack was still ignoring him. That infuriated Triton even more.

Triton took a deep breath before he cracked his neck, “Whatever! Since you aren’t willing to accept my kindness, I will no longer be holding back!”

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3979

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3979-After Triton’s declaration, he started to form seals with his hands that danced in the air.

The seals fused together and turned into translucent handprints that floated about. Those handprints looked the same as Triton’s hands.

He then gently put his thumb and pointer finger together, and the handprints did the same thing as his hands. Those translucent hands in the air were like countless projections of Triton’s hands.

Triton said coldly, “My Thousand Hands technique is an upper ultimate god rank technique. You should be using an ultimate god rank technique too, right? Unfortunately, you’re not in your best state right now. You’re no match for me!”

Triton had already gotten the Thousand Hands to the second level of mastery and became a warrior that stood at the peak. He was not weak at all.

Triton started to form the seals again, and a white lotus started to appear behind him. There was even a blurry figure on the lotus.

The figure looked very vague, and it sat cross-legged on the lotus. There was a faint golden glow around it. That should be Triton’s world avatar.

Jack raised an eyebrow at the sight.

Triton was the strongest warrior he had met so far. All the others he had fought before had been mere nuisances in comparison.

Jack started to form seals, and a dark gray mist started condensing around him. A black ring that had dark red runes glowing around it started to float in front of him.

Triton’s technique was at the upper ultimate god rank and was already at the second level of mastery. There was no way Jack would underestimate him.

At that moment, the Soul Burst Ring slowly spun in the air and there was an explosive soul attribute within it.

Triton bellowed angrily, "Die, brat!"

He struck out at Jack, and the countless hands in the air started to launch themselves at Jack, completely covering up the area with the attack.

The hands contained the power of his world avatar. It was like a vicious tiger that was attempting to bite Jack's throat off.

Jack raised an eyebrow slightly as he pushed forward as well.

The Soul Burst Ring quickly spun around with murderous energy and shot right at the hands. The two techniques violently clashed in the air.

The Soul Burst Ring suddenly expanded, completely enveloping all the translucent hand prints.

Intense crackling could be heard as the power of those hands was quickly being swallowed.

The Thousand Hands technique was suddenly ripped apart, torn into smaller shards of energy.

In just a moment, the Thousand Hands technique was dispersed completely.

Triton was dumbfounded when he saw what had happened. He was very confident in his attack, and Jack was heavily injured.

Jack should not be in his peak form at all. Triton should have been able to deal with Jack easily, but reality proved that he was dead wrong.

Triton's lips trembled. He could not believe what he was seeing at all.

Jack suddenly took a few steps back and uttered, "Explode!"

Right at that moment, there was a loud explosion that formed a huge crater.

The Soul Burst Ring had exploded with Jack's command.

The shockwave washed over the surrounding area like a wave. Thankfully, Jack had retreated quickly enough. On top of that, he was the one who used the Soul Burst Ring.

Although he suffered some of the backlash, he was able to deal with it.

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3980

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 3980-Jack looked over to see Triton lying on the ground like a beaten dog. Triton's hand was still twitching slightly, showing that he did not perish from the explosion. However, he seemed to be in a bad state and was breathing erratically.

Jack walked over to see that Triton's chest was in a bad state.

His flesh was completely mangled. A part of his face had been burnt black, to the point that even his mother would not be able to recognize it.

Jack raised an eyebrow as he sighed in mild exasperation.

Triton was a strong opponent, after all, so Jack did not hold back that much. Jack did not know if Triton could even speak anymore.

Jack slowly bent over and tried to feel for Triton's pulse.

Triton suddenly opened his eyes. At that moment, his eyes were completely red. He looked like an evil spirit that came straight out of hell.

Triton clenched his teeth and rasped, "That was a trap!"

Only then did Triton realize that he had fallen for Jack's trap.

If Jack had really been heavily injured, there was no way he would have been able to unleash an attack that powerful.

Triton did not hold back with his attack at all. However, he was still soundly defeated despite going all out. It was clear that Jack was not injured at all.

In fact, Jack was in his peak form. It proved that everything that happened earlier had been a trap, and Triton had fallen for it. He had been fooled by Jack.

Triton looked around to find that there was no one else around other than himself and Jack. He clearly remembered chasing after Jack with his fellow disciples just now. They should have been right behind him, but not a single person was there at that moment. Triton was no idiot.

He realized everything at that moment.

Yeagen was clearly a traitor and was probably the reason that his fellow disciples were not there. Triton cursed at Yeagen internally, but there was nothing he could do no matter how much he cursed.

His hands shook as pain filled his whole body. Even breathing felt painful.

Jack laughed slightly, "I guess your brain still works. However, it's useless for you to know all of this right now."

Triton widened his eyes in realization and scoffed, "No wonder you asked me to answer your questions just now. You were trying to trick me!"

Anger and hatred welled up within him, but there was nothing he could do about it.

He looked up at Jack. "What do you want to ask me?"

Jack raised an eyebrow and said calmly, "It's simple. Tell me all of your plans, and all the information you have on Radiant Hall."

Yeagen already told Jack everything that he knew, but his knowledge was limited due to his position.

Things were different in Triton's case. As a warrior at the peak, he had naturally participated in everything, and would definitely know some secrets.

Jack continued to say, "If you tell me everything and fulfill one additional condition, I'll spare your life."

Triton suddenly started to laugh right after Jack said that. His laughter got louder and louder to the point that Jack could not help but frown at how he was acting.

How was he still able to laugh?

If that was not from him being pissed to his limits, then it would mean that he was going crazy.

At that moment, Triton suddenly slapped his chest. There was a squelch, and Jack was not able to react to how suddenly it had happened. Triton spat out a mouthful of blood from his charred face.

Triton used the last of his breath to say, "Don't even think about getting any information out of me!"

With that, Triton breathed his last while Jack stood frozen in place.