

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4001

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4001-When Gulden saw that, his whole body froze.

He looked like he had just lost his father, "Impossible! This shouldn't be happening... It's not fair!"

Jerald's name was ahead of Gulden's and was ranked first.

The two of them managed to get three points each, but that was not what Gulden cared about at that moment. The most important part was the fact that that dog's results were better than his own!

Gulden could not accept it at all.

He suddenly turned around, and his eyes looked like they were about to pop out of their sockets as he pointed at Jerald, "This isn't fair! Our results aren't that different, so why are you standing above me? Something must be wrong with the rules. The test wasn't conducted properly!"

Jerald was still recovering at that moment. His face was still pale, but he was quite spirited thanks to his results.

After hearing what Gulden said, he sneered and held his head high, "What a joke! You were just judging others with such self-righteousness for speaking ill of the rules earlier, but what are you doing right now? Do you think that you're fairer and just than the ancient hero who created these rules?"

Gulden's face suddenly reddened as he thought about it. It really was quite a joke.

Earlier, Gulden had been so self-righteous, but when it was his turn, he did the exact same thing.

Gulden gulped. He looked like he had just eaten a bomb and could explode at any moment. He clenched his teeth viciously as he glared at Jerald.

He was not happy with the result and did not agree with it. He could not have lost to Jerald!

There must be a problem with the test!

He was certain of it, but he could not voice it out. After all, after what he said earlier, he would just be laughed at if he ended up objecting to the results. Jerald's expression was cold. He had been thoroughly angered as well.

He scoffed and said, "Gulden, I don't know where you got all your confidence from. How are you so sure that I'm not better than you? Why isn't anyone else allowed to be stronger than you?"

"Are you the strongest person in the world?!"

"Every time I see you, you act like you're the best. You have so much arrogance as if no one can touch you. You think that it's only natural, but others see you as a complete joke. I know why you always act so arrogantly as well. It's all just because you're from the Star Continent. The warriors of Star Continent are very united. You pile on everyone who offends you like dogs!"

The two of them already had their conflicts before this.

Jerald had tolerated Gulden the whole time to prevent any unnecessary trouble, but Gulden kept on pushing it. He understood that Gulden would only continue to get worse if he was not taught a lesson.

Jerald wanted to slap Gulden in the face. There was no need for him to tolerate all of that.

Jerald walked forward with his head held high, saying, "Others didn't ignore your challenges because you're strong. Do you think others are afraid or respect you just because you act so arrogantly?"

"It's because you're like a dog that won't let go the moment you bite someone!"

"They just don't want any trouble! You're still complaining about the results being unfair after we've all seen it as if you're that much stronger than us all. Let me give you a piece of advice. Wake up! You aren't that strong!"

"There are plenty here who are stronger than you. Others aren't ignoring you because you're strong, but because you're an annoyance!"

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4002

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4002-Jerald's words practically voiced out what everyone there was thinking of.

Gulden had always looked down on everyone else.

Naturally, acting like that earned him the ire of everyone else. However, no one wanted any conflict with him. It was not because of Gulden's strength, but rather the fact that he was an annoyance that no one could get rid of.

Everyone had things to do, and pointless conflict like that was just a complete waste of time.

Gulden was breathing heavily at that moment. Even his expression became a bit twisted as he clenched his teeth tightly, looking like a ball that was about to burst open.

Everyone other than Jerald looked at him and wisely took a step back.

No one said another word. After all, anything could completely set Gulden off at that moment. He could even go crazy.

Gulden clenched his teeth and pointed at Jerald, "Jerald, listen here! From now on, we're mortal enemies. You better be careful in the future! Don't give me a chance. The moment I get a chance, I won't let you go. Even cutting you apart won't be enough for me!"

After saying that, he did not hesitate to raise his voice and shout, "From now on, you're the enemy of the Star Continent. You'll be targeted by all the warriors from the Star Continent!"

It was obvious that Gulden hated Jerald's guts. Even ripping Jerald apart would not be enough to satisfy Gulden.

Jerald's lips twitched. He had already prepared himself after what he said earlier. With the way Gulden acted, there was no way Gulden would let him go.

Jerald laughed and replied nonchalantly, "Are you really still in the position to target me? You should be taking care of yourselves first. Did you think that I don't know you warriors from the Star Continent haven't been doing well?"

“You’ve done so many shameless and despicable things and earned the ire of everyone. Many warriors are working together against the Star Continent right now. Not only are they fighting back, but they’re even talking about getting their revenge on you!”

As he said that, Jerald looked like he just thought about something as he started to laugh out loud, “You swore that you would make so many people pay the price before this, but what happened in the end? Didn’t you pay a heavy price as well?”

“News of what happened in the Toman Battlefield has already spread everywhere. A warrior at the peak of Star Continent tried to get revenge on Jack, but he ended up losing his life! How hilarious!”

Triton’s attempt to kill Jack and ending up being killed by Jack instead had already been spread everywhere.

Jack had deliberately gotten others to spread the news. After the information spread, practically everyone apart from the warriors from the Star Continent saw it as a complete joke.

After all, the warriors from the Star Continent had gotten on the bad side of so many people before this.

Most warriors did not like those from the Star Continent. However, they were worried about the insistent targeting of the warriors from the Star Continent, so they avoided any trouble with them.

The moment Jerald said those words, quite a few people there had to hold back their laughter.

Naturally, they would not start laughing out loud, but they pushed down their laughter. However, that still caused Gulden to explode in anger.

Those voices were like needles piercing right into Gulden’s heart.

He clenched his teeth as he looked at those who were laughing before he looked at Jerald again. He seemed like he wanted to eat them alive. However, no matter how aggressive he was, it did not scare Jerald at all.

Jerald scoffed as he continued to say, “The warriors from the Star Continent are the public enemy right now. You won’t have the time to deal with me at all.

On top of that, I'm not a weakling. I come from a significant background too. If you dare to make a move against me, I'll let my fellow disciples know, and we'll fight back! Let's see who ends up worse off in the end!"

Gulden was so angry his heart was about to explode. He wondered what was wrong with his luck that day.

Otherwise, why did he end up in the same space as those people?

At that point, he suddenly felt like he would not be able to overcome Jerald no matter what he said. Instead, Jerald's attitude would only get worse.

Gulden was so angry his whole body trembled.

After a while, he finally said, "Don't be so pleased with yourself! This is just a small matter for the Star Continent. After we deal with this, then it'll be time for you to die!"

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4003

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4003-"As for Jack, he will pay a painful price for what he's done. We've already contacted other warriors at the peak, and we've issued an order to kill Jack! He will die if he dares to show himself!"

As he said that, Gulden's voice was incredibly sinister and vicious. However, Jerald, who was completely steeped in his rage at that moment, never expected the person they were talking about to be standing right behind them at that moment, quietly listening to everything.

Lourain crossed his arms as he looked on with interest.

When he suddenly heard that the Star Continent was working with other warriors at the peak and already issued an order to kill Jack, he was shocked. It was no small matter.

Lourain turned to look at Jack and saw that Jack's expression remained the same the entire time. It was as if he was not the one they were talking about. Lourain's lips twitched, not knowing what to say.

However, he did not remain silent for too long.

After a few moments, he said to Jack in a low voice, “Jack, they’re working together and are trying to kill you! How should we deal with this next?”

Jack raised an eyebrow as his lips suddenly curled up into a faint smile.

Lourain was stunned at that moment.

How could Jack be smiling at a time like this?

Jack said calmly, “He’s just being arrogant right now. Does he want to make me pay the price? We should make sure he pays the price too. Later, just go over and ignore everything else. Just make sure you make him as angry as possible! Try to make him die from the frustration...”

The moment Jack said that Lourain was shocked again.

After interacting with Jack for a period of time, he understood the other party quite well. Normally, Jack never wanted to argue with anyone. Yet, it was different this time. Jack was instructing him to go argue with others.

Looking at Lourain’s curious expression, Jack laughed and continued to say, “Try to attract everyone’s attention if you can.”

Lourain’s eyes lit up, immediately understanding Jack’s intention. He nodded vigorously, almost slapping his chest, and guaranteeing he would complete the task.

After Jack nodded, Lourain walked right over.

Just looking at how aggressive he was, it was obvious he was up to no good.

Jack found a corner to stand in again as he quietly observed how things progressed.

At that moment, Gulden was still incredibly furious. He looked like he had his teeth and claws bared as if he was ready to fight anyone to the death at that moment.

After Lourain walked over, he observed Gulden carefully before deliberately raising his voice, “From my perspective, you warriors from the Star Continent look just like angry chickens. Every time you have any conflict with someone, you always love to get the Star Continent involved...”

“I wondered how strong the Star Continent was, but you’re all just really good at bragging. On top of that, you love to act like you’re complete thugs. Others would get a headache from just looking at you, but it’s not because of how strong you are. It’s because you’re a bunch of dogs who refuse to let go the moment you bite someone.”

After Lourain said that, everyone was stunned.

Gulden’s face was frozen as he looked at Lourain, who suddenly appeared to challenge him. He suddenly found himself unable to react. That guy had some guts to mock him like that!

Gulden pointed right at Lourain and said, “Where did you come from, you dog?! Do you really think we’re that weak?!”

Gulden did not know where that guy came from to mock them all of a sudden like that!

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4004

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4004-Gulden felt like there was something wrong with the world at that moment, and he almost lost himself to his anger.

He did not know where that person was from, but that person suddenly came up to him and said all those nasty things. The more that person spoke, the worse it got.

Before that, Gulden did whatever he wanted in the Whirling World unless it was someone a lot stronger than he was. He has never suffered such humiliation before.

The more Gulden thought about it, the angrier he got. His anger suddenly ignited in his heart as he looked at the person in front of him with tightly clenched teeth. That person had a decent appearance and wore regular-looking clothes. He did not seem all that special.

Gulden sent out his divine sense to peer into that person’s strength. After a few moments, he found that that person should be between the power of a regular warrior and an above average warrior.

There was a certain gap between them. After knowing how strong Lourain was, Gulden only got angrier. Even trash at that level was trying to go against him and humiliate him like that.

Jerald had a curious glint in his eyes as he measured Lourain up. Like Gulden, he sent out his senses to look into how strong Lourain was.

After verifying that there was nothing special about Lourain's skills, Jerald raised an eyebrow curiously.

Usually, warriors at that level would quietly stand by the side and watch. Yet, Lourain had stepped up and looked for trouble like that.

Was he just being arrogant, or was there something else afoot?

As he was speculating, Lourain held his head high before looking at Gulden contemptuously. "Stop trying to act like you're that strong in front of me. You think so lowly of others, but what do you even amount to yourself?! Aren't you just using the fact that you're from the Star Continent to act like you're better than everyone else? Your way of thinking is absolutely hilarious. What's so great about the Star Continent? It's just a gathering spot for hooligans. There's nothing to be proud of!"

After he said that, everyone started to laugh again.

A gathering spot for hooligans was the perfect way to describe the Star Continent. Everyone giggled. The laughter was like a fire that lit up the fuse, completely blowing away Gulden's rationality.

Gulden widened his eyes, and his expression twisted. He looked like he was going crazy.

His expression caused the laughter around him to die down quite a bit. After all, Gulden looked like he had lost his mind. If Gulden was forced into a corner, no one knew what kind of absurd things he would do.

They were in a restricted area. As long as he was not actually crazy, he would not attack here. However, the Radiant Hall was not completely composed of restricted areas. If Gulden held a grudge, then it would cause a lot of trouble in the future.

The laughter slowly died down.

Gulden clenched his teeth and glared at Lourain viciously as if he was a tiger that had been angered. He looked like Lourain had killed his own father.

Looking at Gulden's expression, Lourain's eyes did not even twitch.

Lourain had been following Jack around in recent times. He saw similar expressions several times a day and was already numb to it. Even if Gulden had gone nuts, Lourain's heart was completely unfazed.

Gulden clenched his fist, and his muscles were all tense as he barked, "Brat! You've completely angered me! Do you know the consequences of offending me? Have you ever heard of a man being cut into shreds? I won't let you die, and I'll make sure you stay alive. Death would be a gift. You can't understand it right now, but it won't take much longer before you fully experience what I'm saying."

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4006

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4006-Everyone was stunned as they saw Lourain nodding so quickly.

Suddenly, the place went completely silent. Quite a few people found themselves dumbfounded.

That person was from a third-grade world?

He had spoken so arrogantly and acted like he was beyond reproach. They had thought that he came from some impressive background and was some relative of an important person.

No one expected him to be from a third-grade world!

There might be some strong warriors from third-grade worlds, but they were still a level below compared to second-grade worlds.

Gulden suddenly found himself at a loss for words.

That guy was actually from a third-grade world. Even a piece of filth from a third-grade world dared to humiliate him and challenge him like that.

Gulden's hands trembled, and he spoke up after a long time, "You dog! Aren't you afraid of the consequences of offending me like that? I won't even need anyone's help to deal with you. I can skin you alive whenever I want to!"

Lourain raised an eyebrow before he scoffed and said, "Naturally, I'm not as strong as you, but I can look for help. I have an incredibly strong friend. You're nothing in front of him. Even if you call your fellow disciples to help you, you would still be no match for him!"

As he said that, Lourain wore an incredibly proud expression on his face. He did not make any of that up. It had all been sincere.

Gulden raised an eyebrow, "Your friend? Who is he? Is he from a third-grade world as well?"

Lourain nodded. He had already found out all about Jack's identity.

Jack was from the third-grade world, Hestia Continent, so it was not a lie at all.

Gulden held back the complicated emotions in his heart as he continued to ask, "Which third-grade world do you and your friend come from?"

For the sake of the plan, Lourain had to get everyone's attention for as long as possible and drag things on. So, at that moment, he knew that he could not tell the truth.

If he said he was from the Hestia Continent, it would invite speculation, so Lourain immediately said, "We come from the Chaos Continent!"

Jack, who had been quietly standing next to the stone wall, raised an eyebrow when he heard Lourain mention the Chaos Continent. Jack did not know much about the other worlds. After all, he was not born from the Hestia Continent. However, he knew quite a bit about the Chaos Continent.

He first came to the Whirling World as a warrior of the Hestia Continent.

The closer he got to the center of the Whirling World, the more he met warriors from other worlds. It got up to the point where practically all the second-grade and third-grade worlds were together.

The first time he met someone who was not from the Hestia Continent was the warriors from the White Marsh Continent and the Chaos Continent.

The Chaos Continent was not highly ranked amongst the third-grade worlds. It was not at the bottom, but it was not high up either. It could only be considered average.

The White Marsh Continent was far worse than the Chaos Continent, and the Hestia Continent was ranked at the bottom. So, the moment Lourain said he was from the Chaos Continent, everyone's expressions got even more interesting. In their eyes, the Chaos Continent was a useless place that was poor in resources and devoid of talents.

Even the strongest warriors from that world were not worth being called above average. Someone from an insignificant place like that was actually challenging the Star continent. He must have been really foolish and did not know his place.

At that moment, everyone felt like it was an absurd situation.

In the beginning, everyone found themselves agreeing with him. However, as time went on, things seemed to have gotten crazier.

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4007

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4007-Everyone else had thought that Lourain must have been someone important to be able to act like that. Even though they did not like the Star Continent's ways, most warriors did not dare to provoke the Star Continent. After all, the Star Continent ranked highly among second-grade worlds.

They were full of resources and talents and had many warriors that were above average.

They had a few warriors at the peak as well. Even those present did not dare to anger warriors from the Star Continent as warriors from second-grade worlds, yet this guy from the Chaos Continent, a third- grade world, actually dared to do it.

Those people could not understand the situation at all.

At that moment, Gulden started to laugh out loud. However, his laughter was not sincere. Anyone could see the anger he was trying to suppress.

That guy before him was not just absurd, but a complete joke. Gulden had thought that the guy acted so arrogantly because he was able to back it up, but it turned out to be completely different from what he had thought.

Gulden looked at Lourain, at a loss for words. "I understand now! No wonder you respect your friend so much. Your friend must be the strongest person from the Chaos Continent!"

Lourain raised an eyebrow and nodded earnestly, acknowledging it incredibly quickly.

Gulden could no longer hold back as he started to laugh crazily. The more he laughed, the more exaggerated he behaved. He even started to bend forward in laughter, as if he had heard the funniest thing in the world.

Lourain quietly looked at Gulden laughing. His expression did not change that much.

After Gulden had enough of his laughing, he said, "I can't believe how arrogant you're acting! Who gave you the guts to be this way? So, you're just an ignorant fool who doesn't know your place! All you know is the fact that you're the strongest in that dump of yours!"

After Gulden said that, the others started to react as well. If what that guy said was true, then all his actions were definitely fueled by his ignorance.

They were too used to being a king in a small place like the Chaos Continent and felt like they were unrivaled everywhere else. That was why they acted so boldly and crossed the line with their speech.

Gulden said coldly, "You can only call yourselves heroes amongst trash. You're nothing once you're out of your trash heap! Who do you think that friend of yours is? Do you think you can do whatever you want just because he's around? What a joke! I'll tell you this right now. When your friend shows up, I'll kill him in just one blow!"

As he said that, everyone's attention was fully on Lourain and Gulden. No one noticed a man in green robes undertaking the test.

Jack started to form seal after seal, and the countless seals spun as they merged together, forming the Soul Burst Ring in front of him. The Soul Burst Ring was lit up by dark red runes around it.

Lourain was constantly talking for so long, but when he saw Jack in front of the stone wall, he suddenly shouted out, "My friend is right here!"

Gulden was stunned the moment Lourain said that.

The guy's supposed friend was there?

Gulden was elated. He did not know where that guy found the confidence to act so arrogantly in front of him. However, since his friend was there, he could slap the guy in the face right in front of everyone.

Even though they were not allowed to fight in the restricted area, he could still make that idiot realize how much of a gap there was between them through the test!

Lourain's lips curled up as he laughed and said, "He's going through the test! After he's done, you'll be in third place!"

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4008

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4008-Practically everyone turned around at the same time. Looking at the stone wall, they saw a man in green robes standing in front of it.

That was his so-called friend?

What Lourain said earlier flashed in their minds.

After the man took the test, Gulden would be in third place!

That was quite a claim. Everyone eagerly looked at the energy vortexes.

When they saw the state of the energy vortexes, everyone was frozen in place. They could be heard letting out a hiss, and quite a few of them cursed out.

No one could believe what they were seeing!

All nine energy vortexes were glowing bright yellow!

That meant that all the energy vortexes had been filled up. Everyone was stunned at that moment. Quite a few of them even wondered if they were dreaming!

“All the energy vortexes were filled up?! Is this for real? Am I dreaming? Someone actually managed to fill up all of them? Oh my god! I have to be dreaming!” Someone exclaimed.

That large-eared man who had been complaining so much earlier had his eyes widened so much that his eyeballs were about to fall out. He had even judged that it was impossible for anyone to fill up all nine energy vortexes, but he was witnessing it right at that moment.

The scene was deeply etched in his mind, and he was so excited he almost bit his tongue.

After filling up the energy vortexes, Jack finally stopped. The nine energy vortexes went quiet once again, and the name North Woods appeared on top after Jack stopped. It solidified him in first place and earned him nine points!

Everyone was filled with disbelief at the sight. Having already gone through the tests, they naturally knew that they would not be able to get any points if they did not completely fill up the energy vortexes. Yet, that North Woods person managed to get nine points. It meant he had filled up all nine energy vortexes.

The room went completely silent. It was as if everyone suddenly had their mouths stuffed, and no one could say anything.

Gulden looked like he was completely dumbfounded. He stared right at the name and saw the number nine next to it. He knew better than anyone what the number represented.

Gulden's hands were shaking, but it was not because of anger. It was purely because of shock.

At that moment, a familiar voice was heard again.

Lourain laughed and said, “That's my friend! Didn't you say you could kill him with just one blow? Go over and try it right now!”

Those words seemed incredibly humiliating at that moment.

Killing a warrior who was able to fill up nine energy vortexes?

He would be crazy to do that!

That person was absolutely a warrior at the peak. Otherwise, there was no way it could be done.

Naturally, he knew how difficult the test was after going through it. Even after exhausting everything he had, he only managed to fill up three energy vortexes.

He only managed to fill up a fifth of the fourth vortex. He was not very satisfied with the result, but it was already quite amazing in front of everyone else.

Compared to the person in front of him, he was nothing.

At that moment, Jerald's name was already in second place. However, he was not in the mood to even pay attention to his ranking being changed at that moment. After all, he was too shocked for his mind to even work properly.

Gulden's whole body stiffened. He looked like he was being choked. His face turned purple as if he was about to pass out from lack of oxygen at any moment.

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4009

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4009-The round token was the one that was given to them by the masked caretakers when they entered the Radiant Hall.

At that moment, the round token was heating up.

Suddenly, the number nine appeared on it.

Jack raised an eyebrow. Just as he thought, the points were very useful.

When the Radiant Hall closed, those points could be used to exchange for priceless treasures. If they were not useful, then they would not be recorded on the round token. After all, the round token kept track of the identities of each participant.

Jack kept the round token and turned around to face the others.

At that moment, he was no longer being looked at with interest and curiosity, but complete awe and fear.

When Jack turned around, quite a few of the warriors that were looking at Jack looked away, not daring to face him.

Someone even started to mumble, "I've finally met a warrior at the peak..."

Warriors at the peak were absolute gods in the eyes of regular warriors. Every time they heard about warriors at the peak, they got incredibly interested.

Most of the regular warriors who entered the Radiant Hall dreamt of being a warrior at the peak. They entered because they wanted to change their destinies and become an icon of admiration.

Even though becoming a warrior at the peak was their dream, most of them would never have the chance to meet one in their lives. After all, warriors at the peak did not just appear anywhere.

Only a small minority of the warriors in the Whirling World could stand at the peak.

Warriors at the peak made up for less than a thousandth of the warriors there. Furthermore, those warriors were mostly gathered at Toman City, and would not mix around with regular warriors. So, the regular warriors were only able to talk about these warriors at the peak, but never got to meet one.

That was the first time most of those participants saw a warrior at the peak.

They were full of admiration, and there was some fear in their hearts as well. All those complicated emotions were present.

Jerald clenched his teeth. It was not the first time he met a warrior at the peak, but it was the first time he saw the gap between him and one of them.

It was the same test, but all he managed to do was light up the fourth energy vortex, getting it to a quarter of the way.

A warrior at the peak actually managed to fill up all nine of them. After doing that, he showed no signs of exhaustion at all. Instead, he looked like he had a lot more in the tank.

Compared to how exhausting it had been for Jerald, it was a completely different situation. He was filled with admiration by that fact alone and wanted to become one of them even more.

He sighed lightly as he said in a low voice, "Is this a warrior at the peak? So, warriors at the peak are this powerful."

Mason widened his eyes as he stared right at Jack. He was no less emotional than anyone there.

It had been risky for him to sign up at the Radiant Hall. He had put his life on the line to change his own destiny. He wanted to break through and become a warrior at the peak that everyone admired.

When he saw a warrior at the peak in person, Mason was so excited that his heart started to beat rapidly. He swore to himself that he had to become a warrior at the peak!

He would make all those who looked down on him change their mind!

Gulden, in particular, had mocked him so much without any reservations before. Even though Mason had remained silent, he took a lot of offense at the things that were said.

Everything that happened earlier was deeply etched into Mason's mind.

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4010

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4010-At that moment, he silently swore that he would definitely become someone like North Woods.

He would violently trample all over those who looked down on him before. He would make sure he proved that he was better!

Jack could see all of their excitement. He did not bother looking at the other participants but at Gulden instead.

His lips curled into a faint smile. He looked completely unfazed as if Gulden had not been talking about him earlier at all.

Jack walked at a steady pace and slowly approached Gulden.

Gulden's heart was beating wildly as he took a step back subconsciously.

Lourain sneered as he looked at how Gulden's temperament had changed completely. He had been so arrogant, but he was swaying in fear at that moment.

Jack spoke coldly, "You wanted to make me pay a price?"

Gulden gulped as he shook his head violently, "It's not like that! Sir, please don't pay attention to that. I was just speaking nonsense earlier! Your friend said that you were from the Chaos Continent, which is why I was ignorant. If I knew you were this strong, I wouldn't have dared to say anything like that!"

At that moment, Gulden truly was in fear.

He no longer cared about how anyone else regarded him.

Knowing that the man in front of him was a warrior at the peak, then him being stubborn would only invite death upon himself, as well as cause trouble for the Star continent.

Jack alone already caused the Star Continent a lot of grief. If Gulden brought another problem to the Star Continent, then even his own people would not let him off, let alone the man in front of him.

Even though he was so angered earlier, it was not as if he had been harmed. The person in front of him truly was a warrior that stood at the peak even if he was unable to determine that person's actual strength due to his lack of experience and skill. However, anyone who could reach that level was not easily dealt with.

If Gulden continued to have enmity with that man, then he would only be sabotaging himself. If his fellow disciples found out, things would not end well for him either.

Gulden took a deep breath as he clenched his teeth, completely shrinking back. "Sir, I was truly ignorant earlier. Don't worry, I won't say another word! I won't cause you any trouble at all! That other guy was just joking with me just now, and I thought he was serious! I can't believe he actually claimed that he was from a third-grade world, and from the Chaos Continent too! It was just a joke!"

As he said that, Gulden had a bitter feeling in his heart.

He should not shoulder full blame. That guy had clearly said that he was from the Chaos Continent, a third-grade world. At that time, he did not think too much about it and wondered if something was wrong with Lourain.

After all, it was very rare for anyone to devalue themselves like that. That was how Gulden ended up in this spot.

Looking at how anxious Gulden was, no one laughed at him at all. That was because everyone knew that they would probably do the same thing if they were in Gulden's shoes.

After all, that was truly a warrior at the peak. Other than the secretive Jack, not a single warrior at the peak came from a weak background. Even if Gulden was from the Star Continent, he would definitely be abandoned by them if he offended a warrior at the peak.

After all, the warriors from the Star Continent were not crazy.

They only dared to bully those who were weak and did not dare to truly offend any warriors at the peak.