No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4011-Jack raised an eyebrow as he sneered and looked away.

Since that guy was terrified, there was no point in him pressing on the matter. Furthermore, they were in a restricted area where attacks were prohibited. Since that was the case, Jack decided to ignore Gulden.

At that moment, the nine energy vortexes started to glow in a bright yellow, attracting everyone's attention.

The twenty-nine participants looked over at the same time only to see the vortexes moving on the stone wall. They even started to make cracking sounds.

After a few moments, the nine energy vortexes broke away from the stone wall and began to rotate and fuse mid-air. After a moment, the nine vortexes turned into three faint yellow lights that slowly approached the top three participants.

Jack stretched out his hand and grabbed the object wrapped in light. After it fell onto his palm, the light slowly dissipated.

A Soul Energy Herb appeared in front of everyone. At the same time, the second and third-place rewards did as well.

"My god! It's a Soul Energy Herb! Something like that is priceless even in the outside world, let alone the Whirling World! I can't believe that the first place got such an amazing treasure!"

"Surely not! Look at Jerald! Two pieces of purple gold... Isn't that such a huge gap between the rewards?!" Looking at the three rewards, everyone could no longer remain calm.

The first place was rewarded with an amazing treasure, the Soul Energy Herb. It was priceless.

Legend had it that the Soul Energy Herb only grew in a place incredibly dark and densely filled with the law of the soul. Those places were incredibly hard to even form, and finding a Soul Energy Herb there was even harder. Hence it was impossible to put a price on the Soul Energy Herbs.

It was a treasure everyone sought after. Comparing the first-place and second-place rewards, everyone was speechless because the second place was only rewarded with two pieces of purple gold.

It was equal to twenty million spirit crystals. That number of spirit crystals was nothing to sniff at, but compared to the Soul Energy Herb, it was just too drastic of a difference.

A Soul Energy Herb was worth dozens of pieces of purple gold while second place only got two pieces!

It was too big of a difference.

Suddenly, everyone was completely silent.

The second and third places did not have that big of a difference. Third place was awarded with one piece of purple gold. Gulden looked at that piece of purple gold and felt abnormally cold.

That reward made him feel like a clown. His lips twitched as his expression soured. That piece of purple gold felt hot to even touch, so he quickly put it into his storage space.

Jerald was only a fraction slower than Gulden. He felt like there was too big of a gap between the rewards as well. Even though he was in second place and was already much better than everyone else, he still felt humiliated. He was so embarrassed that he was not interested in the reward at all.

A green fog obscured the way forward, and Lourain was taken aback.

After they completed the challenge and got their rewards, the Three Energy Space started to collapse, surrounding everyone in distorted space and sending them somewhere else.

Thankfully, Jack had the special token, and a thin thread surrounded Lourain's body.

The two of them were sent away, but not separated. After they were sent around for a while, the distorted space slowly stabilized.

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4012-When the two of them landed, they were surrounded by darkness again. Only a green stone path underneath them guided them forward. However, as they walked forward, the path came to an abrupt end.

A green mist appeared in front of them and stopped their advance.

Lourain took a breath, "I feel like this place is so strange everywhere we go. It's completely different from what I thought..."

Jack raised an eyebrow. He could see what Lourain meant immediately.

In truth, Lourain was just complaining that the challenges in the Radiant Hall were still testing talent and skill.

Regular warriors were still bottom feeders.

Based on how things were going, there did not seem to be any chance to change his destiny, which disappointed Lourain a lot.

Jack patted Lourain on the shoulder. "Just take it one step at a time. I don't think the information is fake. After all, there really have been people who suddenly became warriors at the peak of the Radiant Hall. Since some succeeded before, there must be an opportunity."

As the two of them spoke, the round token in Mustard Seed suddenly buzzed.

The two tokens moved at the same time, and both of them took out their tokens from their storage spaces.

When they took out the tokens, a piece of information went into their minds.

Lourain widened his eyes, "Path of Fate..."

The information, just like before, was the rules of the upcoming challenge. The two of them exchanged a look as they looked at the green mist. Lourain stirred up the courage to touch the green mist.

At that moment, an intense feeling of distortion surrounded Lourain, and he suddenly felt incredibly dizzy. His surroundings changed drastically, and he was surrounded by unending gravel.

The gravel had a green stone path that was a hundred and twenty-three meters long.

The path had countless complicated runes carved on it, and those runes were glowing in faint green, causing the path to glowing green as well.

That was the Path of Fate that they were about to challenge!

That path was made of a special green stone and called the Path of Fate. The Path of Fate protruded from the ground and was about a meter higher than the ground.

The path was glowing faintly in green. It seemed to be incredibly mysterious. Quite a few participants stood around the path. There were over a hundred people at a glance.

At that moment, a sudden noise was heard.

Lourain turned around to notice that Jack had entered as well.

After Jack looked around, he said, “The Path of Fate is a hundred and twenty-three meters long, and there are a hundred of twenty-three participants. Could this number have a special meaning to it?”

After Jack entered the Radiant Hall, he felt like every special number should have a special meaning behind it. It was just that he did not know what it meant since he lacked the information.

There was definitely more than one Path of Fate.

Even though the rate of death of those who join the Radiant Hall could reach fifty to sixty percent, it was not like no one who entered was afraid of dying. Instead, they had tremendous hope and wanted to seize the chance to change their destinies.

There were around a hundred people there, which was an incredibly small percentage of the warriors who had signed up.

Just like the Three Energy Space before, there should be many Paths of Fate.

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4013-There was a huge scroll at the end of the Path of Fate, and it was full of names. The number behind their names represented the points they all gained.

At that moment, a warrior named Blant was in the lead.

He had six points in the Path of Fate, and the second place, Jacques, had five points.

Looking at the giant scroll, Lourain was taken aback.

He looked at Jack in surprise and said, "It has already started? Not everyone is here yet! Isn't the place supposed to have a hundred and twenty-three participants first? I think there are only a little over a hundred here right now! It's not even full yet, but the challenge has already started?"

Not only has the challenge started, but there were also rankings of the participants as well. Jack looked at that massive scroll meaningfully and nodded slightly.

The situation seemed to appear as it is. After all, in the information they had gotten earlier, there were no restrictions on the challenge starting only when everyone was there.

Lourain sighed, "This time, it'll be difficult for you to hide your identity."

Jack had deliberately made Lourain cause problems with Gulden, but it was not just because Gulden had been too arrogant and insulted Jack. There were other reasons.

The most important reason was that Jack wanted the conflict to attract everyone's attention.

While they were arguing, Jack would take action and go through the test.

By the time everyone looked over, all they saw were nine lit-up energy vortexes. None of them saw the technique Jack used at all.

Jack did that because he wanted to hide his identity. He was not a simple person at that moment.

The warriors at the peak all saw him as a thorn in their sides. The moment they had the chance, they would definitely try to get rid of him.

He was forced to make plans for that. Yet, the challenge in front of him at that moment made it incredibly difficult for him to hide his identity in the same way.

After all, there were so many people standing there. Even if someone caused a scene, it would be difficult to attract everyone's attention.

Furthermore, the Path of Fate was a special challenge. It was not like before when he only needed to act once.

Lourain frowned and said, "This will be troublesome..."

The rules of the Path of Fate were quite simple. The challengers needed to walk from the start of the Path of Fate and reach the end of it. However, the moment they stepped on the Path of Fate, they would be pushed down by the natural laws. The further they went, the higher the pressure would be.

The challengers needed to activate their true energy and turn their techniques into pure energy, protecting their bodies and using it to fight against natural laws. The stronger someone was, the better they would be able to fight against it.

The person who could reach the end would naturally not be weak at all. However, it would be very hard to hide his identity in this challenge!

Lourain signed, "I can't think of anything right now."

Jack did not say anything as he looked at the green Path of Fate with a serious and calm expression.

Looking at him, it was obvious Jack's thoughts were occupied.

Lourain wisely decided against interrupting Jack's thoughts.

At that moment, there was suddenly a loud commotion ahead. Some people seemed to be talking about something intensely.

Lourain's ears were sharp, and he caught the mention of Jack's name!

They were talking about Jack!

Lourain looked over and immediately saw someone familiar. It was that person who had wanted to be Jack's strategist but was rejected, Lionel Simmons.

At that moment, Lionel seemed very excited, and his hands were actively moving everywhere.

Lourain frowned as he walked forward.

At that moment, Jack snapped back to reality as well. He looked at the advancing Lourain before looking at Lionel.

He decided to get closer to the crowd as well.

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4014-Lionel raised his voice, and said firmly and emotionally, "So if Jack had just helped out, there wouldn't have been so many dead! He just watched on as so many people died. He could have stood up and become a leader with how famous he is, but he decided to ignore it all..."

"He didn't step up to lead those survivors who were in despair and fight against those people! He had his conflicts with them, but he still refused to do it! There's no reason other than the fact that he looks down on regular warriors. On top of that, he's so selfish. He's clearly even more despicable than those people!"

Jack heard every single one of those words and was a bit taken aback by them.

What was he saying?

Jack was to be blamed for not helping and for watching those people die?

Jack was only stunned for a few moments before he slowly realized what exactly Mason was saying.

Right after Mason said that, quite a few people nodded in agreement, feeling like Mason was right.

Jack needed to take responsibility for so many people dying too!

Looking at that many people agreeing with him, Mason was even more excited.

He was like a spokesperson as he raised his voice again and said, “Jack is not an idiot. I’ve interacted with him before. He’s an incredibly smart person, so he saw through all those schemes.”

“He clearly knew that everything was a scheme, but he did not tell anyone about it, and caused everyone to be fooled. In the end, so many people died because of that! Heartblood needs to be collected when the victim is in complete fear!”

“Those people used such ruthless methods to guarantee they’ll get as much Heartblood as possible and caused many people to die. Your fellow disciples or friends-they shouldn’t have died! They only lost their lives because Jack is cold-blooded!”

As he said that, Mason’s eyes started to turn red. It was as if he was sympathetic toward the victims.

That sorrowful look on his face immediately got a lot of the people around him to agree with him.

“You’re right! Jack is just too selfish. He clearly knew about everything, but he refused to tell anyone about it. He could have led everyone to fight against those shameless and despicable people in the end, but he ignored everything! He’s no different than those people!”

Lionel nodded vigorously, “That’s right! He’s in the same boat as those people. There’s no difference between them! He has some conflicts with them, but he refuses to stand with the regular warriors. Those people need to be punished! We should work to make them pay the price!”

He got more and more excited as he spoke, and his blood even started to boil. Quite a few people ended up getting excited as well, and they loudly cheered that they would make Jack pay a price. That was because Jack was the one who caused those they knew to die on the Toman Battlefield.

If Jack had helped, then the situation would not have gotten to that stage.

They had the moral high ground, and they blamed Jack for all sorts of things, calling Jack a shameless and despicable person. Slandering Jack and those warriors at the peak as they would stop at nothing for their own benefit.

Lionel continued to shout, “We need to make them pay a painful price! Only then will they stop doing anything to us and stop treating us like livestock!”

“That’s right! We have to make them pay a painful price! Those ruthless and despicable men need to know we’re not to be played around with! They need to fear even trying to attack us!”

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4015

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4015-“These people should all die! We, regular warriors, did nothing to them, but they used such cruel methods to kill us! We can’t tolerate this!”

Suddenly, everyone was in an uproar. More and more similar things were being said as everyone loudly shouted, venting their frustrations.

Jack stood behind them and quietly listened to them.

Lionel continued to say, “However, those warriors at the peak aren’t easy to deal with. They come from notable places, and their fellow disciples are there to protect them. It’ll be very hard for us to make them pay!”

Right after Lionel said that, someone quickly said, “Dealing with them will be harder, but isn’t there still Jack? He’s the same as those snakes, but he doesn’t have a notable background and doesn’t have any fellow disciples to protect him. Dealing with him would be much easier. Then, if we make Jack pay, it’ll be a warning to the others!”

After that was said, a portion of the crowd there nodded, feeling like that was a good idea. The warriors at the peak who had a good background would definitely have fellow disciples quietly supporting them. Getting revenge on them would mean dealing with their fellow disciples first, which would be very troublesome.

However, Jack would be much easier.

News about Jack was spreading like wildfire in recent times, and Jack's background was no longer a secret. Jack came from Hestia Continent, a third-grade world. He could not be compared to warriors from second-grade worlds.

Furthermore, Jack enjoyed moving alone. Even if there was anyone with him, it would not be more than two people. In that case, Jack was definitely much easier to deal with.

However, there were not many people who were being swayed by Lionel. Even though Lionel gave such an emotional speech, the others were not being strung along by him.

Even though everyone was angry at Jack because of Lionel, it was not to the level of wanting to deal with Jack. After all, Jack was not a mastermind or a participant in the matter. He just decided against helping at an important moment and did not lead everyone's revolt.

Lionel saw that the people there were not that receptive, and his expression soured a bit.

He silently cursed that the warriors there were all stupid pigs, but he was forced to patiently continue, "If we don't attack Jack, then those people will continue to see us as livestock that they can do whatever they want with! Then, even more people will die at their hands. Only by letting them know pain, by letting them know that we're not going to take it lying down, would they stop!"

Lionel was doing everything he could to stir the crowd and get them to attack Jack. He fanned everyone's anger for Jack, and pushed Jack right to the front, framing Jack as a shameless and despicable person. Lourain could no longer stand it after listening for so long. He felt that he would lose himself to his anger if he continued to listen.

He had seen many who were good at twisting the truth before but had never seen someone who crossed the line so much.

Lionel was using his silver tongue to completely distort the truth. Lourain was so angry that he was about to curse, but Jack grabbed his arm and stopped him.

Jack glanced at Lourain and said in a low voice, "Leave that man to me."

After entering the Whirling World, Jack had been constantly challenged. At the start, Jack would have gotten angry. However, he slowly learned to control his emotions.

He was rarely angered, but this time, Lionel had successfully angered him. His mind was burning in rage, but his expression was still calm on the surface.

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4016-He took a few steps forward, and his cold eyes were looking right at Lionel.

As everyone was excitedly talking, he suddenly raised his voice and asked, "You sure are putting on a good show. You're clearly one of the dogs of the warriors at the peak, but you framed yourself as someone standing with the regular warriors. I can't believe some people believe you."

The moment that was said, the excited atmosphere was immediately broken.

The warriors that were around Lionel turned to look at Jack with complicated looks in their eyes. It was filled with confusion and anger.

Jack completely ignored those looks as he looked right at Lionel.

Lionel frowned as he coldly said, "Brat! What did you say? Who are you calling a dog?! Do you want to die?!"

Lionel was so angry his eyebrows were raised.

Jack laughed as he said calmly, "Am I wrong? You're completely twisting the truth right now, trying to pin all the blame on Jack. You're talking as if Jack was the one who cruelly killed all those regular warriors. He clearly did nothing, but you're trying to direct all the anger to him, and spare the real culprits!"

"It's such suspicious behavior. I've seen you before. At the Killing Hall, you interacted with Jack. I can assure everyone that it definitely happened. At the time, you were busy sucking up to him, wanting to be his strategist, but Jack rejected you.."

“So, you ended up hating him and trying to get your revenge on him. Someone happened to give you this chance. That’s why you’re so passionately trying to get everyone to get revenge on Jack!”

Earlier, the crowd’s emotions had been led on by Lionel, and they had almost been completely strung along.

Lionel had successfully caused everyone to get angry at Jack.

Jack’s words served as a reminder to everyone.

Thinking about it carefully, Lionel was definitely a bit too excited.

Lionel narrowed his eyes as he glared at Jack, “Brat, where did you come from?! Stop trying to use your nonsense to confuse everyone! I’ve tried to get myself recruited before, but I realized what kind of person Jack was very early, and I no longer wanted anything to do with him! I’m just saying all of this right now because I want everyone to know that Jack needs to pay the price!”

At that moment, Jack had a disguise on, so Lionel did not recognize him at all.

When Jack heard what Lionel said, Jack’s anger soared even more.

Lionel immediately entered the list of people Jack would kill!

Everything he said was trying to sway the crowd against him.

Jack scoffed, “No one could see what was going on in the Toman Battlefield when it first opened. If Jack knew about it, he would not have signed up. Not long after the Toman Battlefield opened, Desmond’s plan was exposed.”

“After the news got out, Desmond used a petty trick to get everyone to turn against one another. As they killed one another, they used even more cruel methods! What would be the point of Jack trying to tell everyone what was happening then?”

“There was even a task issued out at the time. Anyone who found out about Jack’s whereabouts would be awarded a few million spirit crystals. Jack would only be inviting trouble if he stepped forward at that moment! Those people would stab him in the back! No one would think that Jack was doing things for their sake!”

As Jack said that, those emotional people shut their mouths.

The situation was as he said. Desmond's side had just used a little trick, and most of the warriors on the Toman Battlefield started killing each other, causing the death numbers to rise.

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4017

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4017-If Jack had stepped up at the time, it would practically be suicide.

Jack sneered as he continued to say, "The regular warriors in the Toman Battlefield were not united at all. Even if Jack stepped up, in the end, to do something about the other side, they could stab Jack in the back at any moment. There's no way Jack would do something so obviously bad for himself unless he's an idiot!"

All those people who were criticizing Jack earlier other than Lionel shut their mouths at that point.

Everything Jack said had been quite true. The regular warriors had not been united at all.

Not many of those who had died on the Toman Battlefield had died to the warriors at the peak and their men. Instead, they killed each other.

For the sake of their own benefits and those rewards, they killed each other without holding back!

They took the risk and danger themselves, so being a leader and standing up against Desmond and the others was something only an idiot would do.

They finally realized that what Lionel had been saying earlier did not make sense at all. He was just trying to get his revenge on Jack.

The results Lionel had tried so hard to get had been completely ruined by a few words.

He stamped his feet angrily. He glared at Jack viciously, "You're just..."

Before he could even continue, Jack interrupted him, "I remember that you're called Lionel! You should be from the Thousand Origins Continent. They're ranked quite highly among second-grade worlds. Since you're trying to get justice for those who died, then you should be stepping up and leading everyone against Desmond and his people!”

“Even if you don’t dare to attack Desmond yourself, your skills should be more than enough to deal with Desmond’s subordinates! Why don’t you do it?”

Those words caused Lionel’s face to turn red.

Jack scoffed before he turned to look at the participants, “Are there any disciples of the Searing Flame Clan from Star Continent here? Are there any of Desmond’s fellow disciples? This guy wants to make all of you pay the price! He wants to cause you trouble!”

The moment that was said, Lionel immediately rushed to Jack and pointed at him, “Shut up! I never said I wanted to cause them any trouble! Don’t frame me for something I never did!”

Lourain had been quietly listening on, but he could no longer stop himself from laughing.

As he laughed, he said, “Everyone, look at this guy’s true face! He’s just trying to get everyone to fight, but when it’s his turn, he is so cowardly. He doesn’t care about regular warriors at all! My friend is right! He’s just a dog working for those warriors at the peak, trying to steer everyone’s anger onto Jack!”

The moment he said that, everyone began to glare at Lionel with anger. They finally realized that Lionel’s earlier behavior was problematic.

Before, that participant who had just come over deliberately raised his voice and told those warriors at the peaks’ subordinates that Lionel wanted to cause them trouble, and Lionel immediately panicked and stopped him.

It was obvious that Lionel was feeling guilty. He was not willing to offend those people at all. He was just one of their dogs.

All he said was just to steer the crowd and make it so that everyone was targeting Jack.

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4018

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4018-Lourain sneered as he continued, “Everyone, don’t forget that Jack has his conflicts against those warriors at the peak. There are only so many of the best resources. They don't want Jack taking away any of it."

"On top of that, Jack doesn't have an amazing background. Even if they deal with Jack, they won't be in much trouble as long as Jack dies. That's why they're trying to get rid of Jack. However, they don't want to do it themselves. Getting rid of Jack would require a lot of risk on their part after all."

"Jack is truly one of the warriors at the peak! So, they're trying to make the masses get angry. They want to use you as their pawn! You're becoming cannon fodder!"

Lourain's words woke everyone up.

All of the warriors there immediately realized that Mason's actions had definitely been strange before, and this was the perfect explanation. No wonder Mason acted like he was so sympathetic to the regular warriors, but he immediately denied everything when the newcomer said a few words, trying to act like he did nothing.

He was just a dog working for the warriors at the peak, and he was trying to turn all of them into pawns to go against the enemy of people like Desmond. They had seen similar tricks before, using the masses and causing them to kill one another.

This time it is the same thing. They wanted to destroy the relationship between the masses and Jack while they reaped the benefits. When everyone realized what was happening, all of them were furious as they glared at Lionel.

A tall warrior pushed aside the warriors in front of him as he walked right in front of Lionel.

Before he had seen through what Lionel was doing, that person had been incredibly angry at Jack thanks to Lionel's encouragement.

His two closest fellow disciples had both died on the Toman Battlefield. That caused him a lot of pain, but a lot of anger as well.

He had listened to everything Lionel said during the other party's passionate speech, and with Lionel's words, he started to hate those shameless and despicable warriors at their peak.

He wanted his revenge, he wanted those people to pay the price.

After everything was clear, that person finally realized that the one he thought was on his side was just a dog working for those shameless and despicable people.

It had all just been an act before this, meant to fool them.

The tall man clenched his teeth as he glared at Lionel. He looked like he wanted to rip Lionel apart.

He pointed right at Lionel, "You dog! How dare you say that Jack's on the same side as those people! You're clearly the one working for them! Someone as despicable as you deserve more than just being ripped apart! You tried to use us against Jack! How despicable!"

He was so angry even his heart started to hurt. Everything those people did constantly crossed the line.

He thought their actions from before were already shameless and despicable enough, and that they would hold back after angering the masses. Yet, they got worse instead!

Even when they did not need Heartblood anymore, they were still trying to use the masses as pawns and cannon fodder. If not for the place being a restricted area, he would have fought to the death!

Even if he could not beat Lionel, he would make sure to take a chunk out of Lionel!

The others were the same. All their anger at Jack just now was directed right at Lionel.

Read No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4019

No. 1 Supreme Warrior Chapter 4019-Quite a few of them had been led on by Lionel's words, and they were filled with anger and shame after they realized what happened.

They could not attack at that moment, but they could still speak, so they started to curse.

“You dog! I knew something was wrong just now. You kept on trying to push all the blame to Jack, and tried to get us to attack Jack! Jack’s clearly the one who didn’t do anything. So you were trying to use us as tools to deal with your enemy!”

“Just wait! I’ll remember you. Make sure you’re careful in the future. Don’t let me get the chance, because if I ever do, I’ll make sure you pay the price!”

Lionel’s expression suddenly changed at that moment. The situation caught him completely off guard. He could not believe that after working so hard, he ended up becoming everyone’s target.

Lionel tried to say something, but he found himself at a loss for words. That was because he knew very well that no one would believe him anymore, no matter what he said.

Lionel took a deep breath and turned to look toward the north.

There was a small group of people looking toward them as well.

Lionel just glanced over, but he quickly turned back. The look in his eye quickly disappeared as he tried to control his emotions as if he was worried that others would see something.

Jack had been standing by the side and quietly observing everything Lionel did.

Lionel had suddenly turned around, and his expression had changed as well.

Jack had seen everything, and he realized that something was wrong.

He turned to look at the group of people there. Most of the warriors were gathered together, and it was only one small group that was not with the crowd. Instead, they stood at a corner to the north.

It was obvious that the group was not a regular one. They had very high-quality clothes made of special materials. Their eyes were filled with a cold sense of arrogance.

Just from their expressions alone, it was obvious that those people were not standing in the corner because they were moving alone or because of the noise, but because they felt that the others were not worthy of standing with them.

It was obvious that those people were definitely arrogant because they thought their skills were better than everyone else.

That was why they looked at everyone with that expression.

Lionel had glanced over in that direction, and looking at his earlier actions, it was probably because he had been instructed by those people.

He really was one of their dogs. Lionel was not strong, but he thought he was very smart. Back then, he had asked Jack to be Jack's strategist, but he felt humiliated when Jack refused.

However, he would definitely not give up on becoming someone else's strategist. On top of that, Lionel had a grudge against Jack, so Lionel would naturally choose to work for someone with a grudge against him as well.

After figuring that out, Jack could more or less guess who they were.

At that moment, that group suddenly started to walk over.

The one standing in front had an incredibly handsome face. He had a fan in his hand and looked like a prince.

When the crowd realized that they were moving, they immediately made way for the group as they looked on with admiration and jealousy.

"How rare! Blant is here. I heard he's very proud and never interacts with regular warriors. He's not even willing to look at them, so what's going on today? Why is he interested in what's happening?"
